Indian Scals Come Cheap At Comanche Field--41 For 6

Somebody said GO—and the Bulldogs went! 1-2-3 and a touchdown. That's all it took—three plays. Kick off to Massegee who ran to the Ranger 18.

First and 10—hand-off to Comacho, and whom, down to the Comanche 10. Seventy-two yards. First and goal to go on the ten. Hand-off to Cole—plus 7. Second and goal on the 3. Hand-off to Comacho and it's a score. The first of seven that swamped the Indians, 41-6.

The Bulldogs just trotted around for the rest of the half. But came the last two periods and Ranger must have been practicing for track season.

They scored once in the first quarter, once in the second, once in the third and three in the final period. The only thing that kept the score at 41 points was the four fumbles that Comanche recovered. Ranger hobbled the ball a total of nine times—recovering it five.

There was no doubt as to which team had the upper hand. Comanche spread plays caused some worry to the Bulldogs but the Ranger line and backfield spelled nothing but defeat for the Indians.

Here is proof of the vast superiority that Ranger held over Comanche. In yards net rushing the Bulldogs ran the yardage up and up and up for a total of 459. Add 58 yards gained on passing and you have the impressive figure of 517 total net yardage gained.

And include in that number, Comacho's 258 yards rushing and you have a pretty good picture of what happened at Comanche Friday night. Need more proof? Okay. Sixteen first downs for Ranger and five for Comanche.

Passing receivers didn't do the Indians. Two perfect tosses were dropped. But Ranger tightened up on pass defense when Comanche went into that worrisome double spread. Running plays off the spread caused more damage than the passes.

Since Comanche could manage only 6 points we'll get that out of the way. It came in the second quarter on a pass interception. Ranger faded back from their 32 and tossed a pass in the right flat. Tupin came racing in and snagged it for the Indians on the Ranger 40 and carried all the way for a TD. That made it Ranger 14, Comanche 6.

After that lightning tally in three plays, Ranger couldn't get organized until the second period. Cole intercepted a Comacho pass on the Ranger 40 and rambled to the Comanche 44. It took six plays to score—Comacho galloping from Comanche's 23 for the second TD. He converted his second of five extra points. And, incidentally, Comacho scored 35 of Ranger's 41 points.

The third quarter was about half gone when Ranger struck again. Starting from their own 35 the Bulldogs didn't stop until Comacho again went over, this time from the four yard line. Ranger 21-Comanche 6. In this series of plays, five of them this time, Comacho ran 45 yards on one play and Cole bulled his way for 16.

Early in the third quarter, Mendoza who played a fine game at defensive end, sliced through the heavier Comanche line to block a punt on the Comanche 30.

On the last play of the third period a recovered Indian fumble resulted in a 50 yard scoring drive for Ranger. A pass from Cole to Cantrell, some running plays and a beautiful 38 yard jaunt by Cunningham took the ball to the Comanche 20.

Cunningham had dropped back to pass from his 42 and seemed to be trapped, so he decided to run, and got 38 yards from that decision. Now, Comacho entered the scene again. He whipped off right tackle, saw a couple of line backers, suddenly reversed the field to the left and twisted 20 yards for the score. He missed his conversion try and the score came to 27 for Ranger and 6 for Comanche.

Not much later, Massegee, a substitute back for the injured Simpson, proved his ability by stepping off 52 yards for a TD. On a spread left Massegee took a pitch-out and on the Comanche 35, he looked like he was stopped but, suddenly, he shot out of the mass of tacklers around him and continued his run over the goal. That made it 34-6 as Comacho converted.

The game's final seconds were approaching when Cunningham pulled a neat end-around with his blockers mowing them down for him. The play was good for 40 yards from the Ranger 48 to the Indians 12 yard line.

Working the ball down to the five, Cunningham then handed off the ball to Comacho who rammed over for the final score. Point was good and Ranger walked off the field a few plays later with their third district win as they ran Comanche ragged, 41-6.

The Bulldog forward wall showed some good, precision blocking. Yung slammed into Thomas on one play and when he met the Comanche back, the sound of leather popping could be heard in the stadium. Mendoza's defensive play stopped the Indians for several losses. Hummel, Massegee and Comacho paved the way with some good interference for the running back.

Williams smeared an attempted pass play for 8 yards loss. Hargraves, Varner, Barnes, Brazda, Hill, Justice, Rushing, Bagwell, Polston, Tune, all kept banging away at the Comanche team even when there was no doubt as to the outcome.

Massegee and Cole replacing Simpson and Woods in the backfield were a pleasing surprise for the Ranger fans. They made a good showing for themselves as they took over the unfamiliar positions.

Starting Bulldog line-up: ends, Williams, Cantrell; Tackles, Yung, Hummel; guards, Hargraves, Barnes; center, Varner; backs, Cunningham, Comacho, Massegee, Cole.

Substitutes: ends, Mendoza, Brazda; tackles, Davenport, Hill; guards, Justice, Tune; center, Rushing; back, Bagwell, Mendoza, and Bagwell are the regular defensive men at their positions.

Lone Star Will Furnish Iron For Motor Co.

DALLAS, Oct. 21.—Signing of a contract under which Lone Star Steel Company will furnish pig iron to Chrysler Motors was announced Saturday by E. B. German, Lone Star president, in his monthly report to stockholders.

Mr. German pointed out that the addition of Chrysler Motors to Lone Star's list of nationally prominent concerns being served under contract only served to emphasize the rapid growth of the company and the prestige being accorded it in the iron and steel industry.

Prior to the agreement with Chrysler Motors, Lone Star had signed contracts with International Harvester and the John Deere companies. The East Texas plant also is serving General Motors but as yet a term contract has not been signed.

High School Students Rip Up County Jail

PORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 21 (UP)—Police reported today three Polytechnic High School students "tore up" a county jail after admitting wholesale vandalism against several business firms.

The 16-year-old junior class students signed statements admitting they used sledgehammers to break plate glass windows at the Star-Telegram building and several downtown department stores.

They were jailed together briefly but soon each was put in a private cell. Mrs. Ellen Foster, matron, reported they had knocked plaster from the walls and kicked out a door screen.

"They demanded television and radio," said Mrs. Foster.

Nineteen firms have reported window breakage to police, and total loss was estimated at $5,500.

Rangers And Navarro Both Are Looking For Second Win Tonight As They Meet In Graham At 8

Graham is the neutral sight of a game between Ranger Junior College and Navarro Junior College being played tonight at 8.

Coach Boone Yarbrogh will be seeking his second win of the season. The Rangers have lost to the Hardin-Simmons Freshmen team, 7-6; Arlington State, 13-6; Midwestern B, 8-0 and Odessa JC, 12-0. Their lone win was an upset of Tarleton State, 7-6.

Navarro's Bulldogs have a similar record. They have lost three and won one, an upset victory over Arlington State last week 22-14. The Eastern Zone members of the Texas Junior College circuit have gone down to Kilgore 39-12, Weatherford 13-7, and Cisco 14-13.

On the basis of common opponents, Navarro would rate the favorite spot tonight. But the Rangers have been showing some hustling improvement and playing like they did in the Tarleton State game, and they have a good chance of coming in on top.

Bobby Boynton is the only Ranger player in bad shape. His injury isn't serious but he is still hobbling around. Coach Yarbrogh said that his backfield is beginning to add some of the weight that he's been wanting.

ALMOST ALL FLEEING ENEMY DEAD, CAPTURED, CORNERED

By Ernest Hoberecht
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO, Oct. 21 (UP)—United Nations flying columns swarmed through North Korea at will today in a jigtime mop-up that reached within 85 miles of the Manchurian border on two fronts.

American paratroopers and the U. S. 1st Cavalry snapped the trap on the 27,000 Communist troops who fled Pyongyang. An official spokesman said almost all of them had been killed, captured or trapped.

The dismounted cavalymen and the 4,000 paratroopers linked up 28 miles northeast of Pyongyang and 85 miles from Manchuria, capping with victory the move to smash the last hard core of North Korean soldiery.

Hurricane From Gulf Of Mexico Loses Punch

TAMPA, Florida, Oct. 21 (UP)—A nudge hurricane approaching the Florida west coast from the Gulf of Mexico lost most of its punch today and the weather bureau doubted it still made the grade as a major storm.

"Late reports indicate that the Gulf hurricane has lost considerable force during the night due to dry air entering the system," a 6:30 a.m. advisory said.

"The center is approaching the coast in the Cedar Keys area but winds along the coast have not become very strong and it is doubtful if hurricane force remains."

The advisory warned, however, that precautions for strong squally winds should be continued from the Tampa Bay area to St. Marks, although the winds were not expected to extend very far inland.

The second hurricane of the week was heading down on the heavily populated Tampa Bay area with 90-mile-an-hour winds last night when it took a swing to the north toward Cedar Keys.

This fishing village last month and just this week completed its repair job.

Many of the dead were identified as business men, students and teachers, the spokesman said.

More than 7,000 prisoners were taken in the past 24 hours alone, boosting the war-long total to more than 82,000.

The cavalymen hoped to overtake Communist troops reported marching hundreds of American war prisoners toward Manchuria. Eight Americans who escaped their Red captors in Pyongyang said the Communists marched off 285 or more American war prisoners toward the northern frontier last Saturday.

Eighty-one other American prisoners had died of beatings, shootings, dysentery, exposure a n d malnutrition during a forced march from Seoul to Pyongyang, t h e eight escaped prisoners said. They were flown to Seoul's Kimp'o airfield from Pyongyang today.

Cakewalk On Schedule At 6:30 Saturday

You'll have time to see the Rangers play Navarro tonight and still be at the cakewalk sponsored by mothers of Ranger High football players.

The event will take place at 6:30 p. m. in front of the Ghoslin Hotel. There will be some fun and fancy doings. Proceeds of the cakewalk will go to finance a banquet for the Bulldogs and pep leaders.

Football player mothers extend an invitation to the public to attend the Cakewalk.

HONG KONG, Oct. 21 (UP)—The Chinese Communist News Agency said today four Chinese Catholics including two priests were executed near Peiping for spying and attempted assassination of Red leaders.

Fly Boys DISASTROUS EFFECT OF AIR POWER ON NORTH KOREAN ARMY BEING REVEALED FULLY NOW AS PRISONERS REPORT

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 21 (UP)—The disastrous effect air power had on the North Korean army since the start of the war is being revealed fully now.

Systematic study of Communist war prisoners' reports and on-the-spot investigations by experts make it clear that the airplane was the single most feared implement in the United Nations hands.

It may well be that fully evaluated prisoners' reports will show that the UN forces actually underestimated the damage fighter planes and bombers did to the Communists from the first day of the war.

According to reports from prisoner interrogations, air power early struck Red morale a blow from which it never recovered. And, perhaps surprisingly, one of the most successful airborne "weapons" was the propaganda leaflet promising any North Korean humane treatment if he surrendered.

Prisoner after prisoner reports that these leaflets, dropped all over Korea, prompted him to quit and to convince his fellow soldiers that they should follow suit.

One valued report in the hands of an American intelligence officer is given by a captured Communist Colonel. The Colonel said: "A single fighter strafing a North Korean column strikes terror into the heart of every man in the column and makes him feel that the North Korean cause is lost."

(In Tokyo Lt. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, commander of the Far Eastern Air Forces, said today:

"The North Korean military man has confirmed the U. S. Far East Air Forces' evaluation of the F-80 Shooting Star airplane as a superb weapon for close support. . . our jet fighter is the most effective and most feared weapon we have employed against the North Korean military machine."

(Stratemeyer was replying indirectly to criticism voiced early in the Korean war that jets were poorly suited to tactical support operation.)

Prisoner reports indicated it was a mistake to discount some pilot claims of large casualties inflicted day in and day out. For example, one extract dated Sept. 5 quotes a Red prisoner to the effect that a single enemy division lost 2,000 men to air strikes between Mungyong and Nakdong-Ni—a 30-mile stretch northwest of Taegu.

Other prisoner reports confirm how deadly were the air strikes to enemy supply lines. One report said:

"Our main supply line of food and ammunition was completely knocked out by air attacks."

When the enemy 15th division arrived at Yongcheon, about Sept. 5, all but two of its self-propelled guns had been destroyed from the air while it was en route.

As early as July 30, a battalion was derailed north of Seoul by an air attack and marched the rest of the way to the front.

Thirteen out of 16 self-propelled guns in the hands of the Communist 2nd division were destroyed by aircraft.

Because of air strikes, a train averaged only two hours' travel time per day between Nanam and Seoul—and that under cover of darkness.

The 1951 Studebaker Land Cruiser. Powering this model and all models in the Commander series is a new 120-horsepower, 8-cylinder, valve-in-head engine. The new power plant, designed by Studebaker's engineering division and tested over a period of many months, is compact, rugged, efficient, economical. It does not require the use of premium gasoline, but the design is adaptable to increases in compression ratios when the general availability of higher octane fuels makes such changes desirable.

Fearless Oscar Fraley Rambles On About Football, Birthdays, And Just About Anything Athletic

By Oscar Fraley
 United Press Sports Writer
 NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (UP)—

Fearless Fraley's facts and figures: Stu Holcomb, the chunky Purdue football coach, and Andy Gustafson, the Miami, Fla., touch-down tutor, formerly were assistants to Red Blaik at Army but Stu must be a bit sorry he called Gustafson to congratulate him when he was named coach at Miami.

"Thanks," Andy replied, "but I've got an opening on the schedule. How about filling it with 'Purdue'?"

The game was scheduled—and let Gustafson's Miami lads upset Holcomb's conquerors of Notre Dame, 28 to 14. . . as the Latins would say, a plurius unum, or ain't friendship beautiful. . .

Harvard might think it has a chance against Army today, but you can't sell that to the Columbia Lions. Columbia, which plays Army next weekend, in its advance publicity credits the Cadets with a streak of 24 games without defeat, thus including Harvard. . . yet the Lions hope to repeat their 1947 upset, when the ended Army's 22-game string. . .

Happy birthday: Sunday, Harry (The Hat) Walker 32, Jimmy Fox 43 and Pete Pihos 27; Monday, Vern Stephens 30, Ewell Blackwell 28, Billy Sullivan 40 and Hooks Mylin 58; Tuesday, Ome Bluege 59 and Y. A. Tittle 24; Wednesday, Bobby Brown 26, Phil Marchildon 35, Bobby Thomson 27, Russ Meyer 27, Denny Shute 46 and Leland Gibson 42; Thursday, George Strunz 51, Tommy Glaviano 27, Primo Carnera 44, George Schneider 39, Tex Conlier 26 and Joe Fuks 29; Friday, Bill Bevens 33, Ralph Kiner 28 and Del Rice 28. . .

When Notre Dame played Tulane in 80-degree heat last Saturday the only player who had to leave the game because of heat exhaustion was Irish fullback John Pettibon. . . he is from New Orleans. . . that must rank with postponement of a Chicago black-hawk hockey game because of hot weather. . .

Conservation corner: Animals which walk sofly have been hearing and vice versa. (I got a million of 'em.) . . .

The major colleges steal most of the gridiron publicity each fall, with hearty tub thumping for such as Notre Dame's Bobby Williams, SMU's Kyle Rose, Drake's Johnny Bright and Vanderbilt's Bill Wade. But look over the pro rosters and you'll see a lot of small college stars getting their just desserts, finally.

One stich it Ted Marchibroda of undefeated St. Bonaventure. He leads the small college players in total offense, with 829 yards in four games. But just in case you shrug that off, he is the third in the entire nation, big and small schools, led only by Bright and Wade. And in total yards gained he is second only to "Model T" Ford of Hardin Simmons. . . maybe the All-Americas will miss him, but the pros won't. . .

Overnight entries: Ostriches will be reseed at Rockingham Park, Salem, N. H., next Saturday. . . a nice change from goats. . . Our brethren of the baseball press boxes have been looking sillier and sillier of late with their lists of new records—most times at the water fountain, left-handed, right handed, freestyle, etc. To keep the golfers from feeling snubbed, here's one from the fairways: . . .

Hit by ball, distance of rebound—John McNiven, by R. J. Barton, on the head, rebound 42 yards, two feet, 19 inches. . . And that was in 1913, before the rabbit ball!

Cooked fish or meat will keep longer at 45 degrees than if it is left uncooked. The heat of cooking kills many of the bacteria and enzymes which cause it to spoil.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE
 "Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson - Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday October 22.

The Golden Text is: "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord hath promised to them that love him" (James 1:12).
 Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality" (1 Corinthians 15: 53).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Good demands of man every hour, in which to work out the problem of being. Consecration to good does not lessen man's dependence on God, but heightens it" (page 261).

BOYCE HOUSE SAYS
 A man received a telegram from an under taker, "Your mother-in-law died, what shall we do, embalm, bury or cremate?" He wired back, do all three - take no chances."
 And there was a man who sold a horse. The new owner came back, very angry, and said, "That horse was blind." The other said, "Well the man who sold him to me didn't say anything about it and so I thought it was a secret."

Final Weekend Of State Fair Ends Sunday

The final big weekend of the greatest state fair the world has ever seen got under way Friday. The 1950 State Fair or Texas Mid-Century Exposition ended Sunday, Oct. 2.
 Friday was High School Day at the fair, and hordes of excited teen-ager descended on the 187-acre, $35,000,000 fairgrounds.
 It was also Rotary Day and thousands of Rotarians from over the state were on hand.

The growing military might of the nation was reflected on Armed Forces Appreciation Day Saturday, Oct. 21. All branches of the armed services were represented in the greatest display of power since the war. War planes zoomed overhead and were exhibited in cutaway models on the ground. Other displays covered thousands of square feet of space. A free fireworks show at 8 p. m. in the Cotton Bowl saluted the armed forces.

 A big free Cotton Bowl fireworks show will be presented on Sunday night, Oct. 22.

This final day of the great 1950 Fair will see a Time Capsule buried, not to be opened until next Mid-Century Exposition, in the year 2050 A.D. The capsule, containing microfilmed front pages of newspapers from Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana and other historical data, will be buried at ceremonies beginning at 3 p. m. Sunday.
