RJC Ready To Greet Exes On 25th Homecoming Yr.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR EVERY MINUTE DUE COLLEGE GUESTS

Saturday, twenty-five years after a handful of students graduated from its first class in 1926, Ranger Junior College will celebrate its Silver Anniversary Homecoming. Ex-students from over the state and those still in Ranger will swarm on the campus tomorrow to entertain and be entertained. The Ex-Students Association has completed a program to fill the guests every minute's stay in Ranger.

A huge bonfire and pep rally will jump the gun on Homecoming festivities tonight at 8. Scene of the blazing song and well fest will be on the vacant ground connecting with the airport and behind the National Guard building. Ranger Junior College plans to make the bonfire rally an annual event during Homecoming.

Ex-students and visitors will register at the college Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Iris Hummel, Treasurer of the Ex-Students Association will be in charge of the registration and will also collect dues for the Association. The other officers of the Association are D. C. Arterburn, president; Dewey Cox, vice-president; Anna McEyer, secretary; Vancel Hopper, reporter; Lloyd Beck, parliamentarian and R. L. Snider, sponsor.

Commemorating the twenty-fifth year of the college's existence, a Silver Anniversary Luncheon will be held at noon, Saturday, at the First Methodist Church. The program will be broadcast over the Breckenridge Station and Graham station at 12:30 p.m.

A parade down main street will be the afternoon's biggest event. It will begin at 2:30 p.m. with more than 30 decorated cars and floats. Spectators will also get a peek at the three sweetheart nominees as they go by in the parade.

Two committees from the Student Council and the Ex-Students Association will be in charge of a barbecue at 5 p.m. on the college campus. Following the barbecue, a business meeting of Ex-Students will be held at 6:30 in the college auditorium.

At 8:30 Saturday night, all Ranger will go to Bulldog Stadium to see the RJC-Weatherford Junior College football game. The Homecoming's final event will follow the game when a Homecoming Dance will be held at the Elks Club.

Plans have long been in the making for what is expected to be the largest Homecoming ever held. Posters have been placed in nearly all Ranger stores keeping the event before the public's eye and on Nov. 13 the Stampede, Ranger Junior College's paper which is in its first year of publication, came out with a Homecoming edition of its own.

Plans of the parade and floats were under the supervision of Fred D. Baumgardner, head of the Fine Arts Department.

1950 Enrollment Increases 15 Per Cent; RJC Physical Plant Alone Valued At $382,000

Last spring with 439 students in school, Ranger Junior College stood ninth in enrollment among the 62 junior colleges in the state. The summer session enrolled 308 students.

This year's enrollment of over 500 students, was a 15 per cent increase over 1949. The school's music department has been enlarged, buildings have been painted and several additions have been made to the faculty.

A new girls' dormitory was completed this fall. Thirty-five men students live in another dormitory. The school has 41 rented units.

Thirty-eight per cent of the students are married; 40 to 50 per cent come from out of town—as far away as Dallas, Wellington and Lampasas. The college butchers and cures its own meat for the cafeteria; introduced an agriculture course this fall; has a shop building, a music building with two practice rooms; has a three story administration building; a library building given by O. R. Cooper.

The physical plant of the college alone is estimated to be worth $382,000. A conservative estimate of the cost of equipment at the college is $25,000; this includes $10,000 worth of science equipment.

Eighty-five percent of the students graduated from Ranger Junior College enter other colleges to complete work for bachelor degrees. A student can transfer up to 72 hours of work and every hour is fully accredited.

It has been estimated that 200 students of Ranger Junior College bring an income of between $125,000 and $150,000 to the city every year. This doesn't include the $82,000 payroll received by 14 full time faculty members and other employees of the campus.

The college runs a bus to Gorman, Carbon, Eastland and Olden to pick up students. It has a wide interest in the county vocational program. A student placement and loan service is handled through the office of Dr. G. C. Boswell, college president.

(Editor's Note: In 1947 Ranger Junior College decided it needed a school song. A committee wrote all the necessary school information to S. Omar Barker of Sapelo, N. M., famous writer of the Southwest. In 1948, Barker sent the following lyrics to RJC which accepted them for their official school song.)

THE RANGER SONG

Words by S. Omar Barker

I.
In the cedar hills of Texas where the longhorns used to roam,
Stands a western Junior College that we love to call our home.
It's full of Texas spirit and it's rich in cowboy lore...
The happy days we've spent here we'll remember evermore!

Refrain:
Raise a cheer for dear old Ranger, in the dear Old Lone Star State,
Where there's lots of room for friendship, and no room at all for hate,
When the years have wrought their changes, when our days fade into night,
We will still remember Ranger and the purple and the white!

II.
From the Pecos to the Brazos, from the Red down to the coast,
You will find a lot of colleges, but none to match or boast
That we're the worthy namesakes of the Texas Ranger Crew...
Whose tall man in the saddle whose faith brought the Lone Star through!

III.
In the pleasant halls of Ranger every boy's a cowboy bold!
All the girls are pretty cowgirls... and they will be till they're old!
There are no mar'icks in our herd, we wear the Ranger brand!
We are the sons and daughters of a rawhide Ranger land!

Pres. G. C. Boswell Leads RJC Through Biggest Expansion In Ten Years As College President

Three presidents have guided Ranger Junior College during its 25 years of existence. The first of these was R. F. Holloway who organized the school. He was followed by W. T. Walton and now, for the past 10 years, Dr. G. C. Boswell has directed the improving and expanding West Texas college.

Ten years ago, Ranger Junior College was still in its infancy. Ten years ago, Ranger Junior College still had no more than a handful of students. As early as two years ago, Ranger Junior College, under the plans of Dr. Boswell and the school board began an expansion program with $12,000.

Today, Ranger Junior College has a physical plant worth $382,000 and over 500 students in day and night classes. Since 1926, from a valuation of almost nothing Ranger Junior College has grown so that today it has a valuation of almost $400,000; from a handful of students in 1926, Ranger's enrollment has leaped to more than half a thousand.

From no tax rate at all, Ranger today is granted 20 cents on every $100 as a result of the tax rate passed in 1938. From no tuition at all, the college today receives more than $200 per student per year.

All this in a city of less than 5,000.

Dr. Boswell's 10 years as President of Ranger Junior College is the longest term served by any of the College's presidents. He gave up his presidency of the school district, which he has held since 1941, to devote full time to the college.

In August Ranger Junior College was separated from the Ranger Independent school district by the purchase of the administration building from the school district for $22,000.

When the Ranger school board began the expansion program, Ranger Junior College had only 86 students using class rooms in the Ranger High School building. At that time, when Dr. Boswell was asked what was the "boost" that started the expansion program, he replied, "I found out we could do it. I told the school board about what we could do. They cashed in the $12,000 we had in saving bonds and we started."

Dr. Boswell went on to say that they received a lot of help from Ranger merchants and the bank. The bank was good about loaning the money. And now we've paid them back and got everything in the clear."

Dr. G. C. Boswell, R. J. C. President

Rangers Play 9 Games In First Grid Year, 1927

Ranger Junior College is 25 years-old this year but its football history runs back only 24 years. There just weren't enough male students in 1926 to form a grid team.

In 1927 with the help of some ineligible Ranger High School players, the Rangers fielded their first eleven, under the tutelage of Coach "Tricky" Ward, a former TCU star.

Some of the players on that first team included, Cooper, Phillips, Roy Wilson, Roy Grubbs, Taylor, Ray Knott, Homer Shipp, Dick Alworth, Red Lemley. (The 1927 Ranger Times didn't seem to bother giving the player's full name).

The Rangers first year in football circles found them playing an eight-game schedule. All their opponents were heavily favored but, they held Howard Payne to a 6-0 win and Randolph College of Cisco could manage only a 7-0 victory. NTAC, now known as Arlington State, defeated them 32-0. The Rangers' victory was an upset over Wichita Falls Junior College, 12-0.

The scores of the five other games were not reported in the 1927 editions of the Ranger Times or else that particular day's edition was missing. Other teams on the 1927 Rangers' schedule were Stephenville, Weatherford, and another game with Simmons and Randolph college.

'World Peace' Congress Opens In Warsaw

WARSAW, Poland, Nov. 17 (UP)—The "2nd World Peace Congress," transferred here from Sheffield, England, opened today amid blaring bands and cheering throngs.

The meeting had been scheduled to begin yesterday, but the formal opening was postponed one day because many of the 2,000-odd foreign delegates did not arrive in time.

Delegates alighting from planes at the Warsaw were greeted by cheering crowds. Other thousands lined the route from the airport into the city.

No Deer For Shivers

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 17 (UP)—Gov. Allan Shivers helped open the 1950 Texas deer season yesterday by hunting on a ranch near San Marcos, but he failed to get in a shot.

Dallas Leads In Receipts

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 17 (UP)—Dallas surpassed all other Texas cities in postal receipts during October, University of Texas Bureau of Business Research figures showed today.

Student Painters Get In Some Advertising

Those white-painted tokens of RJC patriotism around the tower beside the railroad, were swabbed last night by some RJC students.

The night painters were up until eleven Thursday keeping a careful watch on the letters, "Yeah RJC—Best WJC," until the paint had dried. Cars were routed around the letters to keep from marring the art-work.

RJC Crippled For WJC Tilt

The Ranger's big Homecoming game against Weatherford Junior College Saturday night will find the home team still badly crippled.

McWhorter, regular fullback, was sidelined for the rest of the season last week because of an appendectomy. And now, Chick Neal, who aptly replaced McWhorter in the Decatur game, may not play.

Bobby Boynton, end, and guard Lindon Williams are still nursing injuries. Scatback Tidmore took it easy yesterday because of a leg injury. He limped noticeably as he ran a few laps and went through leg exercises.

Coach Yarbrough ran his squad through a light drill Thursday. The team didn't have any contact practice but spent long sessions and pass and run plays. Scrimmage was halted around 5:30 p. m. and if the Rangers go out today it will be for another light practice.

The Rangers have lacked a scoring punch in four of the eight games they have played this year. Only two teams has beaten them by more than one touchdown and only three have scored as much as three times against them.

Last week's 20-18 defeat by Decatur brought up the problem of extra point kicking and Coach Yarbrough has his backs booting the ball over the goalposts yesterday. RJC had no trouble with Weatherford last year, shutting them out, 28-0.

This year's Weatherford squad has a four won, three loss and one tied record. They have been held scoreless in only one game, a 12-0 loss to Allen Academy. The Rangers have been shut out four times: 6-0 by HSU Freshmen, 8-0 by Midwestern B. 12-0 by Odessa and 6-0 by Navarro.

Odessa beat Weatherford, by a 14-6 score. Cisco was swamped by Weatherford, 35-14. Weatherford tied Arlington State, 13-13, a team which defeated RJC 13-6. Comparative figures would make Weatherford the favorite Saturday. They beat Navarro, 13-7, NTSC 19-13, Blinn Junior College 35-0, Henderson County Junior College defeated Weatherford 19-13.

The Rangers made a much better showing against NTSC.

Aerial Battle Expected

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 17 (UP)—One of the biggest aerial battles in the Midwest is expected tomorrow when Oklahoma, in quest of its 29th consecutive victory, takes on Missouri.

Paris JC Pres. Speaks At Silver Anniv. Luncheon

Other guests of the Luncheon include B. W. Musgraves, Texas Junior College Consultant from Austin; E. M. Cain, from the Dallas office of the Veterans Administration; and Mrs. Hal Hunter. John Bates will bring greetings from the Range Junior College Board of Trustees.

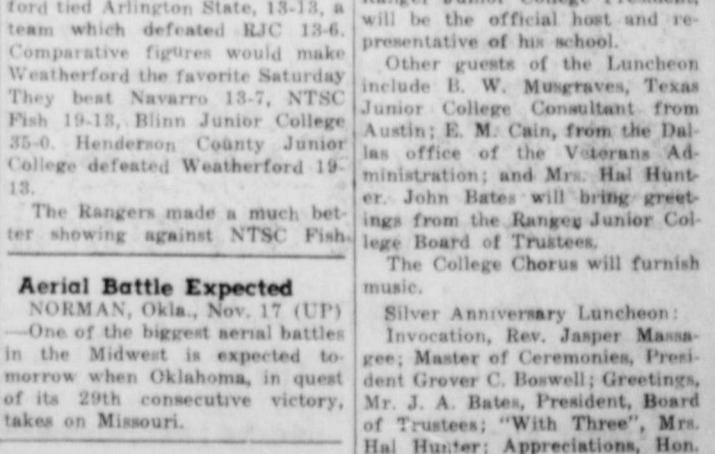

The College Chorus will furnish music.

Silver Anniversary Luncheon: Invocation, Rev. Jasper Massabee; Master of Ceremonies, President Grover C. Boswell; Greetings, Mr. J. A. Bates, President, Board of Trustees; "With Three", Mrs. Hal Hunter; Appreciations, Hon. E. M. Cain, Chief Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Division, Veterans Administration Dallas.

Introduction of guests: Junior Colleges of Texas, Mr. B. W. Musgraves, Texas Junior College Consultant, Austin; Address, Dr. J. R. McLemore, President, Texas College Association and President Paris Junior College; Music, College Group.

The luncheon program will be broadcast at 12:30 by Breckenridge and Graham radio stations.

What Main St. looked like when RJC opened in 1926. Looks like horse hitching post on left and the '26 autos were the rage of Ranger speed demons. Men in bull session at corner could be weighing RJC's chances of success. Only a handful of Ranger Junior College students were around at this time to walk through the streets of 1926 Ranger. Saturday, every seventh or eighth person will probably be a student or ex-student.

Last week's 20-18 defeat by Decatur brought up the problem of extra point kicking and Coach Yarbrough has his backs booting the ball over the goalposts yesterday RJC had no trouble with Weatherford last year, shutting them out, 28-0.

This year's Weatherford squad has a four won, three loss and one tied record. They have been held scoreless in only one game, a 12-0 loss to Allen Academy. The Rangers have been shut out four times; 6-0 by HSU Freshmen, 8-0 by Midwestern, 12-0 by Odessa and 6-0 by Navarro.

Odessa beat Weatherford, by a 14-6 score. Cisco was swamped by Weatherford, 35-14. Weatherford tied Arlington State, 13-13, a team which defeated RJC 13-6. Comparative figures would make Weatherford the favorite Saturday. They beat Navarro 13-7, NTSC Fish 19-13, Blinn Junior College 35-0, Henderson County Junior College defeated Weatherford 19-13.

The Rangers made a much better showing against NTSC Fish. NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 17 (UP)—One of the biggest aerial battles in the Midwest is expected tomorrow when Oklahoma, in quest of its 29th consecutive victory, takes on Missouri.

Aerial Battle Expected

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 17 (UP)—One of the biggest aerial battles in the Midwest is expected tomorrow when Oklahoma, in quest of its 29th consecutive victory, takes on Missouri.

What Main St. looked like when RJC opened in 1926. Looks like horse hitching post on left and the '26 autos were the rage of Ranger speed demons. Men in full session at corner could be weighing RJC's chances of success.

Only a handful of Ranger Junior College students were around at this time to walk through the streets of 1926 Ranger. Saturday, every seventh or eighth person will probably be a student or ex-student.

SCENES AROUND RANGER

Fast and loud talking, handshakes and backslapping will be exchanged among ex-students of Ranger Junior College when they complete the trek back to campus for Homecoming, Saturday. RJC hasn't had too easy a time getting itself established. For many years it was looked up as just another "exaggerated high" school.

Students transferring to senior colleges had some difficulty in getting full value for RJC credit hours. But, today, RJC has come of age and is fully accredited in the collegiate system. A $400,000 plant is no small matter for a town the size of Ranger. RJC has made rapid strides in the last 10 years and has become a definite and permanent part of the city.

Perhaps, in the not too distant future, RJC can work its way to a senior college as Lamar Tech in Beaumont has done this year.

Homecoming rivalry almost slipped my mind until I ran into some RJC students last night. Joe Dennis and I were working until 10 last night on the Homecoming issue and took time out for coffee at Swoveland's Cafe, just across the highway. On our way back, in front of the tower, our car was guided to the left by four RJC "scouts" who had just freshly painted "Yeah RJC—Beat WJC" on the street.

I don't know if they were expecting paraders from Weatherford Junior College, but playing it safe, we made clear where our sympathies lay, with a couple of cheers for RJC.

The high school and RJC bands have been practicing this week on the tricky formations they will perform at half-time with three out-of-town high school bands. Mineral Wells, Gatesville and Gordon will send their musicians as guests and delegates of the music clinic which is part of Homecoming festivities.

The Rangers' record this year has come a hairbreadth of being the other way around. Going into the Weatherford game, they have tallied 32 points against their opponent's 71. That is only a difference of 19 points and close scores of games show that the Rangers have not been roundly outplayed.

Two games might have been won by RJC if they hadn't missed converting points after touchdowns. In six of their games, the Rangers were only a touchdown away from victory. Their three best games were played against HSU freshmen, Tarleton State and North Texas.

Back in 1926, RJC's first year, Floyd Killingsworth, Mary Francis Moseley and Gladys Maddocks comprised the committee that made arrangements for election of officers for RJC's first student council.

This may turn out to be the college's biggest Homecoming. Preparations all point in that direction. All that is needed is for the ex-students to start pouring into Ranger. They'll find plenty to keep them busy and nothing has been left out in the way of entertainment.

BOYCE HOUSE SAYS

Two men were talking. One said, "I read where some fellow made a wonderful invention. He calls it a lie detector because it can tell when a man is lying. Did you ever hear of such a thing?"

The other said, "Hear of one, Man, I married one!"

The late District Judge Hill of Eastland used to tell about an old colored woman who was a witness in his court and she prefaced her answer to every question with, "well, I think—"

The lawyer on the other side objected and Judge Hill said, "Now, Auntie, just tell what was said and done." But she persisted and again the judge said, "Never mind what you think." She said, "Judge, Yoah Honah, I ain't no lawyer; I can't talk without thinkin'."

Purchase Of Dixie Drive-In By Walker Told

Isaac B. Walker has announced the purchase of the Dixie Drive-In Theatre near Olden from J. C. Capps.

Walker and his wife, Mrs. Gladys Walker and a niece, Martha Ann Bohannon have moved to Eastland from Lubbock where Walker was employed with the Bearden Theatres. They are residing at 707 South Seaman here.

Walker said that the theatre will run all winter. If bad weather causes the showing of some picture to be cancelled, those pictures will be re-scheduled next spring, Walker said.

Walker had been associated with Bearden in Lubbock for four years, operating the Arcadia and Chief Theatres there. He has had about 20 years experience in operating motion picture theatres, including three and one half years of work in the Air Corps as a theatre operator.

"We will strive to give the people what they want in the way of clean entertainment," he added. "We will show only top flight pictures."

The marquee has been lighted so that the title of the picture showing may be seen from the highway. Several other improvements are to be made on the theatre according to Walker.

Civic League Sponsors Benefit Game Tournament In Club Room

The Civic League sponsored their game benefit tournament at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 15, in the Club House.

The game tables were arranged in groups of eight bridge, two canasta and one forty-two, in the Club Room. Those winning high scores were Mesdames Boone Yarbrough, bridge; Sam Zuccaro, canasta; and O. R. Ervin, forty-two.

Thanksgiving cloths and napkins with festive designs were atop the game tables.

Autumn colors were carried throughout the decorations and refreshments, in the traditional Thanksgiving motif. The centerpiece consisted of a large mirror reflector placed in the center of the table. Amid the various kinds of ferns, were huge red colored fixed candles, encircled with greenery, red berries and begonia leaves on the outer edge.

At various points in the room were placed three bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums furnished for the occasion by Betty's Flower Shop, Bonners Floral and Peterson Floral. Other decorations of pot plants were used to decorate the hall. Mrs. Bob Allen, chairman of the Garden Committee, was in charge of the decorations.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served by the following Meses: Saunders Grege, chairman of the hospitality committee; Jim Morris, president; Leola Martin, Nick Crawford, Joe Nusselle and Peggy Theberge.

There were 49 present with three out of town guests Mesdames Deaton Andrews, Bobby Hickey and Bill Houghton, all of Breckenridge.

Mrs. Bob Rogers, publicity chairman, said the game tournament was a great success, and wishes to thank all those who contributed to the support of this benefit, and hope to try it again soon.

Blonde Waf First Girl To Work In AF Alt. Chamber

By Elizabeth Toomey
Lots of girls walk around with their heads in the clouds, but slim blonde WAF Cpl. Viola McLarnan is the first girl in the Air Force to make high altitude a career.

Zooming to heady heights of 5,000 feet, with her feet still planted firmly on the ground, is a daily occurrence for the 31-year-old corporal, the first woman to complete the altitude chamber technician's school.

"I did it mostly because they told me I couldn't," she said. "Now a crew member at the altitude chamber at Mitchell Air Force Base, where she took her training, Viola can't understand why the Air Force made such a fuss over letting a girl take the course."

"You have to be in pretty good physical shape, but after that I can't see why it makes any difference whether you're a man or a woman," she said. "They take everybody up to 25,000 feet without oxygen once just to let you see how you react. The average man stays conscious from three to five minutes. It was five minutes and 27 seconds before I went out."

All jet pilots must have training in the altitude chamber, a rectangular iron tank which can simulate conditions at altitudes as high as 100,000 feet.

Now that she's a technician, Cpl. McLarnan takes her turn along with the male crew members in various section of the chamber, sometimes staying inside the chamber with the men who are testing their altitude reactions, sometimes working the pump outside the chamber and sometimes acting as observer, to note the reactions of the men.

Capt. William T. Larkin, chief instructor at the technician's school, warned her to expect all kinds of reactions from men.

"Sometimes they go right off to sleep, occasionally they get aggressive, and infrequently you'll find a man who gets happy, as if he were under the influence of alcohol," Capt. Larkin explained.

Viola, who describes herself as "the athletic type," says that after four days on her new job she hasn't run across any altitude victims who were either aggressive or happy. "They've been perfect gentlemen."

Mr. James D. Singletory, 236 Oak St., tree trimmer for the Superior Co. in Louisville, Ky., thinks that keeping one's self in a good humor is about the most valuable asset a person can possess, and when your job requires personal contact with many different types of people, being good humored is not only being pleasant with one's self, it's an absolute necessity in business.

Here is Mr. Singletory's statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL there wasn't a person in the world who could get along with me—seemed like the least little thing would upset me. I was tired all the time and it really affected my work. I had a hard time sleeping—just roll and toss and cat-nap all night long. I didn't eat properly either. Then one day I heard how other folks with the same trouble I had were being helped by HADACOL. I tried it and noticed an improvement after the first couple of bottles. Now I feel good—get along with everybody—I'm not a bit nervous—sleep like a log and appetite—well, I can't hardly support myself. I eat so much. Yes, sir—HADACOL is really fine and I recommend it to all my friends."

Many Thousands . . . are praising the wonders of HADACOL—folks whose systems lacked Vitamins B-1, B-2, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is wonderful in the way it builds up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every body organ—to every part of the body.

Now Is The Time . . . to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped others whose systems lacked Vitamins B-1, B-2, Niacin and Iron. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you, your money will be refunded. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.
