Fans Mix It Up With Referees After RJC Loses To WJC 27-19

Weatherford Junior College spoiled RJC's Homecoming with a stinging 27-19 victory Saturday night that saw 185 yards in penalties stepped off against the teams and fist-swinging after the final whistle had blown.

Several punches were exchanged between referees and irate fans before police could safely escort the officials to their car and off the field. Pop bottles flew and a crowd of boating, angry fans gathered along the sidelines in the final seconds.

After a listless first quarter, when Weatherford stormed all over the Rangers, pushing them back for big losses, RJC did an about-face and kept on equal footing with the Coyotes. Weatherford scored from the Rangers' 4 yard line late in the first period as quarterback Frank sliced around left end. Kent converted to put the visitors ahead 7-0.

A few minutes later just as the second quarter got underway Weatherford tallied a second time and it began to look like a runaway contest. Campbell took a hand-off from the Ranger 11 for the touchdown. They went ahead 13-0 after the conversion was missed.

Ranger quarterback, Hamrick, set the Coyotes back with a 66-yard quick kick in the second quarter. An exchange of punts found RJC on their own 22. Four plays and 78 yards later the Rangers had changed the complexion of the game as T. Wilson snared a Barrett-thrown pass from the Weatherford 5 for a score. The unsuccessful extra point attempt left the Rangers 7 points behind, 13-6.

In this 78-yard scoring drive, a pass, run and penalty chalked up big yardage gains. On second and 10 to go from the Rangers 22, Barrett connected with Kenneth Williams for a 42-yard pass and run play. Barrett then whipped around left for 14 yards which, added to a 15-yard roughing penalty against Weatherford, placed the ball on the Coyotes 5. From there Barrett threw his touchdown pass to Wilson.

Stiles recovered a bobbled backward pass to give Ranger the ball on the Coyote 4. Two plays later, Chick Neal on a hand-off scored from the 1. L. Boynton converted and the ball game was all tied up, 13-13.

Weatherford added their third touchdown on a 75-yard drive in the third quarter. Jones and Campbell caused most of the damage with Campbell scoring from the Rangers' 3 and the successful extra point attempt pushing the Coyotes ahead 20-13.

Then came a heartbreaking reversal for the Rangers. And it was probably the referee's decision on this play that snapped the excited tempers of Ranger fans. After the Coyotes, Kenneth Williams took the kickoff two yards behind his goal line and took off. Around the 25 he looked to be hemmed in but suddenly bolted out in the clear as he neared the midstripe and pulling away from Weatherford tacklers he sprinted all the way for a score. But the 102-yard jaunt was cancelled because of a Ranger holding penalty on their 29 which pushed them back to the 14.

And then a second bad break followed immediately as Weatherford recovered a Ranger fumble on the Rangers 6. Misfortune number three came right on top of that when pass interference was ruled behind the RJC goal line and the ball placed on the 2. L. Boynton made a nice tackle to stop the next play on the 1 but Weatherford scored on the following try to put them ahead 27-13 as the extra point was good.

In about three minutes the game had taken a sudden change. And with time running out, Ranger faced an impossible up-hill climb but even so, they almost made it. It all took place in the fourth quarter and RJC stabbed back furiously and hard. The Ran-

Rayford Services To Be Held At 3 p.m. Tuesday

Services will be held in the Morris Funeral Home Chapel at 3 p.m., Tuesday, for Walter Q. Rayford who died in San Antonio Sunday night. Morris Funeral Home returned the body to Ranger for burial.

Rayford was born in Willis Point, Tex., Feb. 7, 1881. He married Francis Ellen Jones on Oct. 27, 1906. He lived in the Ranger vicinity for 33 years and was a retired employee of Magnolia where he had worked for 22 years. Rayford belonged to the Baptist Church and was a member of the Masonic Lodge. Interment will be at Eastland Cemetery. Brother O. G. Lanier will conduct the services.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. W. Q. Rayford, two daughters, Mrs. F. L. Gerard of Perryton; Mrs. Browning King of Ranger; a brother, R. B. Rayford of Ohio; a sister, Mrs. J. F. Canterbury of Dallas.

Pallbearers will be H. H. Vaughan, Bill Bailey, Walter Colburn, Carl Cronk, Floyd Rogers, and Bob Patterson.

gers pulled a "secret" play they had been practicing all last week. Hamrick passed to Wilson down the middle for 4 yards. Wilson immediately lateraled to Gerth who angled by him and added 14 more yards to the pass and lateral play. But four straight incomplete passes stopped the Rangers' drive on the Weatherford 34.

Then came another referee's decision that didn't go well with the fans. Weatherford had the ball on their 45 and on first down the Rangers drew a 15-yard roughing penalty. From the press box it looked like the Ranger player couldn't help himself as his own momentum carried him on the Coyote runner who had just been tackled.

The Coyote drive fizzled when Elder recovered a fumble on the Ranger 34, and the Rangers drove 66-yards for their final score. The Rangers appeared to be stopped with fourth down and 1 to go on their 43. They gambled with a double reverse from Hamrick to Williams to Gerth who clicked off 26 yards. This time Weatherford was reeled back because of penalties. RJC had lost yardage on unsuccessful pass attempts but a 15-yard roughing penalty against the Coyotes and some runs by Gerth and Standridge pushed the ball to the Weatherford 19. And from there Chick Neal, on a beautiful quick-opening play, cut through left tackle for a touchdown, standing up. The extra point was not good and the score stood at Weatherford 27, Ranger 19 with seconds to go.

On the kick-off Ranger was penalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness and on the first play the Coyotes tried a quarterback sneak as they stalled for time. The game ended a few seconds later with fans lining the sidelines.

Ranger Loses Toss Play BiDist. Game In Coleman Thurs.

The old coin-tossing jinx struck Ranger again. Coach O. C. Warden flipped the coin in Baird Sunday and Coleman officials called it heads—and heads it fell. So, the Ranger-Coleman bi-district game will be played in Coleman at 2:30 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 23. Ranger merchants have already picked that date as Thanksgiving Day and all stores will be closed. With a holiday game coming up, Ranger will move en masse to Coleman for the tilt.

Coach Warden's decision to keep the boys out for practice last week proved a wise one. The Bulldogs will start scrimmage today in earnest to prepare for a rugged Coleman Bearcat squad that rates high in West Texas Class A circles.

The Bearcats defeated their toughest challenger, Brady, 7-6. And, as all Ranger fans remember, Brady rolled over Ranger, 62-20 early in the season. But the Bulldogs have come a long way since then and the bi-district game looks like a toss-up.

Eleven repeaters were among the 32 Class A schoolboy football teams poised today for the opening round of the five-week championship playoff which will determine a successor for 1949 champion Littlefield.

The champion wasn't among them, for the heralded Wildcats were bounced out of their own district by Levelland. Neither was 1948 titlist Monahans, the first champion ever crowned in the small school division.

For two of the 11—La Vega and New Braunfels—it will mark the third straight year in the playoffs, and both are hoping the third time will be a charm.

Other repeaters from last year were Spur, Ranger, Arlington, Atlanta, Mineola, Mexia, Brenham, Alvin and Beaumont. French, Three others—Mount Vernon, Athens and Huntsville—were around for the 1948 bi-district round but didn't make it last year.

Pairings have been completed for all of the 16 bi-district games this week, six of which will be played Thursday and Thursday night, and the other Friday and Friday night.

A haze of doubt still hung over one district berth—16A—where the district committee named Atlanta in a secret ballot over DeKalb after the clubs played to a 13-13 tie and finished tied for the title. DeKalb Coach, John Eray, said he would protest the selection to the Texas Interscholastic League on the grounds his club had the best statistical record in the tie game. Three of this week's pairings repeat games played earlier in the year: Mount Vernon vs. Atlanta, La Vega vs. Mexia and Georgetown vs. Llano. Mt. Vernon won the early game 21-6. La Vega nipped Mexia 7-0 and Georgetown beat Llano 18-0.

La Vega boasted the top offensive and defensive records among the 32 survivors from the field of 220 teams which started play Sept. 1. The Pirates had rolled up 443 points to the opposition's 432 points.

Both were among 14 teams on the list which had held the opposition to a touchdown or less per game. The others were Shamrock, Levelland, Kermit, Olney, Newcastle, Athens, Mount Vernon, Mexia, Georgetown, Brenham, Alvin, French and Donna.

Kermit, Olney, Arlington, Mt. Vernon, La Vega, Georgetown, Brenham and Pearsall finished their seasons unbeaten and untied. New Braunfels, Alvin, French and Wharton were unbeaten but tied. Here's how they line up this week:

Hereford (1-A) vs. Shamrock (2-A) at Pampa, Friday. Spur (3-A) vs. Levelland (4-A) at Lubbock, Thursday.

Kermit (5-A) vs. Colorado City (6-A) at Odessa, Thursday. Coleman (7-A) vs. Ranger (8-A) at Coleman, Thursday. Alibay (9-A) vs. Olney (10-A) at Olney, Friday.

Newcastle (11-A) vs. Arlington (12-A) at Fort Worth, Thursday. Athens (13-A) vs. Mineola (14-A) at Mineola, Thursday.

Mount Vernon (15-A) vs. Atlanta (16-A) at Longview, Friday. Jacksonville (17-A) vs. Huntsville (18-A) at Jacksonville, Friday.

Mexia (19-A) vs. La Vega (20-A) at Waco, Thursday. Georgetown (21-A) vs. Llano (22-A) at Lampasas, Friday. Brenham (23-A) vs. New Braunfels (24-A) at New Braunfels, Friday.

Alvin (25-A) vs. Beaumont French (26-A) at Alvin, Friday. Wharton (27-A) vs. Karnes City (28-A) at Karnes City, Friday. Sinton (29-A) vs. Donna (30-A) at Donna, Friday.

South San Antonio (31-A) vs. Pearsall (32-A) at Pearsall, Friday.

TIS League Has Strict Rules For Grid Games

Coach O. C. Warden of the Ranger Bulldogs wishes to express thanks for himself and the team for the splendid support of Ranger fans. At the same time he wants to call attention to the fans that the Texas Interscholastic League is very strict about the action of fans at football games.

Coach Warden was concerned over the incident at the Weatherford Junior College game and said that the unintentional actions of just a few fans could cause the Bulldogs to be suspended from football for a year.

The League clearly states that no spectators are allowed on the sidelines at a football game. The mere presence of just one fan at the sidelines could be reason enough to penalize a high school. Coach Warden isn't "gripping" at anyone, he is just trying to protect his team, the high school and the fans and thought it would be important for the fan to understand the League's regulations.

This reporter looked up some copies of the Interscholastic League, official paper of the Texas Interscholastic League, and found the following notices: "Big Sandy has been suspended in football for the remainder of the 1950 season because of mistreatment of game officials in the Big Sandy-Hallville game on Sept. 15, 1950."

"Tuloso-Midway has been placed on probation for the 1951 football season for failure to insure proper protection for game officials."

"Agua Dulce has been disqualified for League honors in football for the 1950 season, and placed on probation for the 1951 football season for mistreatment of game officials."

"Amherst has been suspended in football for the 1950 season because of mistreatment of game officials in the Amherst-Olton game on Sept. 23, 1949."

Preslar Receives Degree From Geo Washington Univ.

Stephan Franklin Preslar of Ranger was among the 715 candidates who received degrees at the 130th fall convocation of the George Washington University, held Saturday, November 11, 1950 in the University's Ligner Auditorium, Washington, D. C.

Preslar, son of Mrs. Cora Preslar, received his bachelor of law degree.

Dr. Floyd H. Marvin, president of George Washington, awarded degrees to candidates from 41 states and 11 foreign countries. He told the graduates: "The great darkness of uncertainty is always dispipated by having faith in the task at hand, and zealously working to accomplish it. These days of travail bring the greatest of opportunities. Dare and labor in faith, and you shall accomplish and be blessed of God."

The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Philip Gordon Scott, minister of the Westmoreland Congregational Church, and Dean Elmer L. Kayser, marshal of the University, announced the convocation.

The George Washington University, with an enrollment of more than 10,500, is located four blocks west of the White House. The University includes 12 colleges, schools and divisions as follows: the Junior College, Columbian College, the Graduate Council, the School of Medicine, the Law School, the School of Government, the School of Engineering, the school of Pharmacy, the School of Education, the Division of University Students, the Division of Special Students, and the Summer Sessions.

NAVY JETS ENGAGE RUSSIAN MIG-15'S AT 35,000 FEET

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (UP)—Navy Panther jet planes fought Russian-made jet planes Saturday in the highest jet aerial battle of history and won. The Air Force disclosed today.

An Air Force spokesman said the aerial duels were fought at altitudes from 32,000 to 35,000 feet.

No Navy planes were damaged. Possibly three Russian-made MIG-15's were damaged. The Communist jets were smoking and losing altitude when last seen disappearing over the Manchurian border, a Navy spokesman said.

The Navy aircraft were from the carriers Valley Forge and Philippine Sea. The Valley Forge Panthers, providing cover for other aircraft at the time, sighted from seven to nine MIG's and closed for the attack.

Two Panthers concentrated on one MIG as the Communist planes started high-tailing it for the border and the MIG was losing altitude rapidly and "smoking at the stern" when last seen, the Navy said.

The Philippine Sea Panther group attacked 12 MIG's and the Navy pilots believed that at least two were damaged because they were smoking and dropping fast when last seen going over the border.

The Air Force spokesman explained that fighting at that altitude does not provide the "free" action attainable at lower altitudes. He was not sure whether conventional piston fighter aircraft in World War II ever engaged in combat at such altitude.

In discussing activity of surface units of the Navy, a spokesman said that the Cruiser St. Paul was fired on by coastal batteries of the North Koreans on the east coast of the Peninsula. The St. Paul's guns silenced the Communist batteries. Indications were that the cruiser suffered no damage.

Mule Defends Self In Freak Auto Accident

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 20 (UP)—A mule, a taxicab, a cab driver and an iraman were the casualties in a freak accident today.

The mule, apparently defending himself, did the damage.

Investigator E. L. Cartwright said the mule was pulling an ice wagon driven by William Pittman, 63. The taxi was driven by Johnny L. Terrell, 36.

Trying to avoid the wagon, Terrell's cab skidded into the mule.

The mule reared up and started whamming the taxi with his front feet. That tipped over the ice wagon and tossed Pittman to the ground. The mule stopped pounding the taxi and stepped on Pittman.

Both men were treated for minor bruises. The mule suffered a cut over one eye.

AL Backs Move To Keep Unsafe Drivers Off Road

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 20 (UP)—Members of the American Legion 12th District backed a move today to keep unsafe drivers and defective cars off Texas highways.

Delegates to the closing session of a district convention yesterday passed a resolution urging the Texas legislature to pass a motor vehicle responsibility act. The resolution said such a law should make mandatory the carrying by motor vehicle owners and operators of public liability insurance.

A spokesman said such a law would tend to keep off the road some drivers "who shouldn't be driving," and also keep defective cars off the highways.

A similar bill failed to pass at the last regular session of the legislature when it was rejected by the house.

Camp Wolters Fire Burns 3,000 Acres; Ranger Has 33 Grass Fires

Editor's Note: Ranger has had 33 grass fires during the first 18 days of November. The fire department has been able to put all of them out before serious damage could result. But they can't be everywhere at one time.

Chief Charlie Isbell urges that the utmost caution on the part of Ranger citizens for with these high winds, a small grass fire can easily result into a blazing inferno such as occurred at Camp Wolters, Fort Worth and Dallas.

MINERAL WELLS, Nov. 20 (UP)—A roaring prairie fire, its appetite whetted by 50-mile-per-hour winds, ate through 3,000 acres of shoulder-high grass at old Camp Wolters yesterday, destroying four empty barracks as it went.

Within 30 minutes after it was discovered in what was once the reception center area of Camp Wolters, the blaze had traveled six miles.

Some 100 firemen from Weatherford, Mineral Wells, Palo Pinto and Camp Wolters battled the blaze for four hours before it was extinguished.

No cause of the blaze was determined. However, a car had been seen in the vicinity of where the blaze started a few minutes before the fire was discovered.

DRIVER BRINGS RUNAWAY BUS LOAD TO A HALT AFTER CAREENING AROUND NEAR PERPENDICULAR MOUNTAIN CLIFFS

SALIDA, Colo., Nov. 20 (UP)—A bus driver who guided a runaway bus with 33 football players aboard around near-perpendicular mountain cliffs at a 110-mile-an-hour clip said today he "never wanted to do that again."

Larry Tobin, 44-year-old driver of Western State College of Gunnison, Colorado, shook his head as he told of a 17-minute near-brush with death.

"I had just started down Arch Pass when I noticed my steering wheel had dropped from 115 pounds to 30 pounds and I didn't have any brakes," he said.

"Joe Thomas, Western State coach, tried to kick the gear shift back into second after it snapped into neutral, but he broke it off at the floor. Then we didn't have anything."

"We kept rolling and gaining speed and I kept pumping my brakes to try to get up some pressure, but we couldn't. Apparently when I braked before, one of the brakes stayed open and let the air out of the line."

The perspiring driver pulled on the emergency handbrake, but that was "like trying to stop it with a toothpick."

"My big concern was a railroad track at the bottom of the pass that usually is blocked on Saturday by ore trains snaking up the mountain," he said.

"I yelled at the guys to start shifting when the bus came to a curve. I told them to shift to the left at a left turn, and to the right at a right turn. They did, but at every curve the bus was swaying so much the fenders were rubbing the tires."

"When we came to the railroad track, there was nothing on it. I looked at the speedometer. It registered 110 miles an hour. I never looked at the speedometer u-gain. "Once I heard something whizz past my head," Tobin said. "Later one of the players said it was one of those sexy pocketbooks he had been reading, but threw it away because he didn't want to be found dead with a book like that in his hand."

Tobin said the players appealed to him to smash the bus into the side of a mountain, but he refused because he was going too fast and such a move would have killed most of the passengers.

Tobin managed to bring the bus to a safe halt at Salida.

"But just before I met two cars on the road," he said. "I guess I was praying when I managed to slip between them. One went off on the shoulder, thank God."

After the bus was repaired at a Salida garage, the team went on to Canon City, Colo., and won over Adams State College, 25 to 14.

SCENES AROUND RANGER

Dr. Boswell, RJC President, said today that the referees at the Weatherford game will forget the whole matter. None of them were seriously hurt and no damage was done to their car. Dr. Boswell said.

Ranger Junior College's homecoming ended on a sour note when hot-tempered fans mixed it up with referees after the RJC-Weatherford game Saturday night. And both the college and city of Ranger have chalked up a black mark against themselves that will be hard to erase.

It was a bad show on the part of Ranger fans. An utter disregard for the safety of persons was shown when those pop bottles were thrown. And that fight two women had at the game left a bad taste in the mouths of most Ranger fans.

Both referees and fans were irresponsible in their actions. The referees should have pulled out some players when it became obvious that the game was getting rough. Fans had no business gathering on the sidelines as the game ended and an RJC official certainly should have shown more foresight than to run on the field and criticize the referees while a bunch of angry fans were milling around.

What makes the actions of the fans even more ridiculous was the manner in which the RJC football team acted. Of all the people at the game they alone might have had reason to be really angry. They were the ones that played 60 minutes of the actual game and knew what was going on. But as bitter as they might have felt not one of the Rangers took a swing at the referees. In fact several of the Rangers shook hands with the Weatherford team after the game.

What started it all was that 102-yard run that was called back, but Hamrick has said that the penalty was justified. In the excitement of the game he held on to a Coyote player during that long run—and anyway you look at it—that's a 15-yard penalty. The referees pulled some boners—especially that roughing penalty against Ranger late in the game. The play had occurred so fast that the Ranger player just couldn't stop himself as his own momentum carried him into the play. If he had intended to do some rough stuff he would have piled on instead of trying to stop himself.

When the officials began calling all those roughing penalties they failed in their job when they didn't warn the players more emphatically. And they should have jerked a couple when it became obvious that the boys were getting rougher. But still that doesn't justify a bunch of fans running out on the field and stirring up trouble.

If a school doesn't like the way a referee calls a game, they can penalize the referee by refusing to have him at anymore of their games. But after Saturday's game, Ranger will be the one to suffer. The referee's association can blackball RJC who then would have no choice but to let their opponents pick all officials for games. But the worse part of Saturday's incident is the bad name it will give the town.

You can't talk civic pride in one breath and then pull something like that and expect other towns and schools to respect your city. One person at the game said he had seen RJC play twice this year and was of the opinion that Ranger fans are the poorest sports he has seen. He only saw two games and that is the impression he got and that is what he will be telling others and that is the reputation Ranger will get if more of such actions take place.

Silver Anniversary Speech Lauds Work Of Ranger Junior College

Following is part of the speech given by Dr. J. R. McLemore, president of Paris Junior College, and the Silver College Association, at the Silver Anniversary luncheon Saturday.

President Boswell, Friends of Ranger Junior College: It gives me a keen personal pleasure and I consider it a high honor, to have a part in this Silver Anniversary celebration of the founding of Ranger Junior College. I bring greetings and congratulations from the more than seventy-five colleges and universities that compose the Association of Texas Colleges, of which it is my privilege to serve as president this year. This Association of Texas Colleges is the college accrediting agency that makes possible the life of an institution of higher learning in this state, insofar as it grants credits toward the various college degrees. This organization is interested in Ranger Junior College as it is in all college members, and again I assure you of congratulations from this great accrediting agency, along with my own congratulations and felicitations as well as those from Paris Junior College.

Just what is this institution and what does it propose to do? I should like to list and describe very briefly four functions of the junior college. The first of these is the college preparatory function. This simply means the doing of the first two years toward the Bachelors Degree for those young people who wish to take a Bachelor's Degree.

It can lead to a lot of things. Not only can such actions lead to a riot with someone getting seriously hurt but it can lead to a school refusing to play here with a subsequent loss of business to Ranger merchants.

If Ranger fans pull something like that in the Coleman game, Thursday, the Texas Interscholastic League can slap as much as a three year suspension on the high school. I don't think anyone who likes football would care to see that happen. And that is what makes the actions of some fans so unfair. They cause the innocent school to suffer. The junior college conference hasn't such strict rules as yet but they will undoubtedly start taking action against schools if many more scenes like Saturday's take place.

 It Pays to Advertise—
 . . . and most successful business men do more or less of it. The impact of advertising on the American psychology is evident in many aspects of our economic, social and cultural life. While honest and truthful advertising is said to make people unhappy with what they have, it also creates a desire for goods and services that they need. We know they need abstracts when they buy real estate and to make them conscious of this fact, and to save them world's of trouble, we advertise.

P. T. A. Meet Has Discussion By Parents, Teachers

The Young School P.T.A. met Tuesday at 3:00 p.m., November 14 at the school auditorium for its regular monthly meeting.

A patriotic program observing Armistice Day was given by third and fourth grade pupils under the direction of Mrs. Lorrene Oliver and Mrs. Alvis Landers.

The devotional was presented by Mrs. R. V. Robinson on Thanksgiving, and pointed out that we take our blessings for granted. Mrs. R. V. Robinson asked, "Are we really thankful?"

Round table discussion was given by three mother's, Mesdames Theo Ferguson, Wilson Robinson, and T. J. Chick. on the subject: "The Kind of Teachers, Parents Like." It was pointed out in the discussion that parents appreciate a teacher who will let them know when their child needs special attention at home and when discipline is necessary to apply it. Also one, who recognizes the incapacities of some children and gives them the attention and consideration they require. It was stated that a teacher who makes a parent feel welcome to come to the school for visits and discussion with their child's teacher is also appreciated by the parents.

In the business session which followed: President, Mrs. E. E. Warren, presided in which progress on the luncheon project was reported by Mrs. F. R. King, Chairman of the luncheon committee. Parents and teachers present for this meeting were Mesdames T. J. Chick, Ira L. Clemmer, V. D. McCraw, R. C. Sawyer, Theo Ferguson, E. E. Warren, R. J. Raines, C. E. Harper, J. M. Ainsworth, Fred Grant, Billie Rhodes, Lewis Thomas, J. W. Warren, Wilson Robinson, Arthur Deffenbach, J. V. Robinson and Buddy Vinson. Teachers were Mesdames Eva Bobo, Clara Landers, Lorrene Oliver, Addie Harris and Mr. Morris Jeffries and Miss Johnny Young.

The first Baptist Church announced its Annual Banquet and Thanksgiving Service for the Adult Department of the Church and the Brotherhood.

ors Degree from our institutions of higher learning.

In the beginning, this was about the only function of the junior college. Because of the small classes in our institutions and because of the fact that the instructors are full-time teachers and not graduate students as frequently is the case in our larger universities, educators in general believe that the junior college can do equally as good a job and likely better, than the four institutions in this preparatory function.

No statistics are immediately available so far as I know, but I am certain, and I believe that you will agree with me, that in an area where a junior college is located, far greater per cent of young people complete not only two years of college work, but four or more years, than occurs in an area where there is no institution of higher learning.

The third important function of the junior college is that of vocational education of a terminal nature. Few writers on the junior college will use this term but I like the expression, "Terminal Vocational Education." As our civilization becomes more complex, as the great Southwest of which Texas is a part becomes highly industrialized, this terminal-vocational education becomes even more important.

It is now estimated that for each professional engineer who must have four or more years of college training, that there is needed in this nation five to ten technically trained "top sergeants of industry." The junior college, whether it be called a junior college or a technical institute, is the ideal place to give this technical vocational training. The junior colleges of Texas have not yet scratched the surface in this last function.

The fourth and last function of the junior college is that of the great field of adult education. In many California junior colleges and in at least one Texas junior college, the evening school enrollment of adults is greater than the day school enrollment of young people of usual junior colleges.

The old adage that you cannot teach an old dog new tricks, has been exploded by psychologists, and continuous increase in leisure time for the masses is making this function of immense importance.

You have shown by your presence here today your intense interest in Ranger Junior College. It is my wish for this institution that in the next 25 years of its life it may grow and develop so
