Reds Trapping 100,000 UN Troops

BULLETIN
LONDON, Nov. 28 (UP)—Chinese intervention in Korea has plunged the world into such grave danger that the "Big Three" Western powers have decided to consider asking Russia to meet with them to achieve peace, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today.

CHINESE COMMIES CAPTURE 3 MORE KEY TOWNS ON N. FRONT

TOKYO, Nov. 29 (UP)—Chinese Communist armies smashed within 40 miles of Pyongyang in northwest Korea today and massed more than 50,000 fresh troops for an imminent companion offensive on the northeast front. Red cavalrymen swept 30 miles through the eastern end of the Allied line in the northwest in an attempt to encircle 100,000 United Nations troops making a fighting withdrawal above Pyongyang, former capital of North Korea.

Commissioners Stand Pat On Their Decision

The petition signed by about four or five hundred Ranger people that went the rounds of the town last week made a lengthy appearance as a motion on the city commissioner's table Tuesday night but failed to pass.

The petition also stated that, in general, the people of Ranger approved the work of the five policemen and that as the work of the policemen had been satisfactory, in the opinion of those who signed the petition, a better police force could not be found to replace the men.

UN Assault Five Days Ago Saved Them Gen. Says

U. S. 8th ARMY ADVANCE HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA, Nov. 29 (UP)—Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, commander of the U. S. 8th Army, said today that United Nations forces in Korea might have been destroyed if the 8th Army had not launched its assault five days ago.

Walker issued a statement soon after arriving back at the front lines after an emergency conference in Tokyo with Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

His statement said: "The assault launched by the 8th Army five days ago probably saved our forces from a trap which might well have destroyed them. Had we waited passively in place, the 200,000 Chinese troops rolled against my line would have increased within a short time to double that strength.

The Marines temporarily gave up their attempts to break through the central mountains to the flaming northwest front and instead dug in against the expected attack. The Reds already have blocked roads behind the Marines and the haphazardly are moving supplies and wounded by helicopters and air drops.

The Communist tide in the northwest engulfed three more key towns on the northern edge of the front—Yongsan, Yongbyon and Won—and forced the Allies back across most of the Chongchon River.

Still another key town was in acute danger, if not already in enemy hands. This was Kunu, near the edge of the Communist breakthrough. Reports reaching 1st Corps headquarters indicated Kunu fell to the Reds this morning, but the 8th Army at Seoul said the U. S. 2nd Division still held it.

Turkey's brigade, thrown into the breach only two days ago, fell back six miles to Kaechon, five miles southeast of Kunu, in hand-to-hand bayonet fighting and at last reports had been surrounded.

A Touch Of Real Christmas Spirit

Boxes were stacked in the corner, crammed with packages of candy for the kids Saturday when Santa Claus arrives in Ranger. The woman gazed at the cellophane-wrapped pieces of candy and nodded her head as if to agree that all was well.

Volunteers of the Retail Merchants Association Christmas Fund were busy wrapping more candy for the children's big event. Hastily, the woman walked up to the desk in the Association's office and put down a coin.

She was Mrs. Alexandria Gimenez and had come to donate her share for the Christmas Fund. Mrs. Gimenez said that her children had always taken part in the annual Christmas visit of Santa Claus. They had stood in line with hundreds of other Ranger tots to stare, wide-eyed, as Santa handed them some candy.

Now, Mrs. Gimenez wanted to share in contributing to the Christmas Fund. She didn't use any flowery language—she simply said she wanted to help. By the standards of the average pocketbook her donation didn't appear to be much but before she left the office, something of the real meaning of Christmas had been added to Ranger.

Requiem Mass Celebrated In Buffalo, N. Y.

Requiem Mass will be celebrated Wednesday at 9 a. m. in St. Margaret's Church, Buffalo, N. Y., for Miss Florence Jane Cleary, who died Saturday, Nov. 25, at the home of her niece, Miss Florence Jeannette Yonker, in Aransas Pass, Tex.

Miss Cleary was for 30 years head of the Industrial Nurses Staff of the Wickwire Spencer Corporation in Buffalo. For the past two years she has resided in Texas, the guest of her sister Mrs. Helen Yonker, Miss Yonker of Aransas Pass and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kirkpatrick of Ranger.

Texas Still Champion In Raising Livestock—Big Spring Boy Wins In Chicago Livestock Exposition

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 29 (UP)—The winner, and still champion, in the sport of raising livestock, is the state of Texas.

Useful young Lloyd Robinson of Big Spring, Tex., won the grand championship of the 51st International Livestock Exposition yesterday with Big Spring Special, a sleek Hereford steer.

Toby, a junior Angus calf shown by Iowa State College, was chosen reserve grand champion.

It was the second straight championship for Texas. Last year the grand champion was Judge Roy Bean, exhibited by the Pecos County 4-H Club.

Young Robinson wore a 10-gallon hat and cowboy boots as he led his entry into the tank arena. The youth appeared shy and somewhat overawed by the clamor when Big Spring Special was picked as the finest of the world's biggest livestock show.

He had been knocking at the championship door for several years, but this was the first time he ever stepped into the grand championship circle to match his entry against the best of the nation's meat animals.

Lloyd said Big Spring Special was born in August, 1949, and weighs 1,075 pounds.

The winning exhibitor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Robinson, who raise cotton, primarily, on 300 acres of land near Big Spring. He said he was the oldest child and that he has four sisters.

Winning championship was not exactly new to the youth. He had the grand champion honors on Big Spring Special at the Texas State Fair.

Lloyd finished high school in 1948 and has been helping his

Sec. Of State To Appeal For Unity Of World

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (UP)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson will deliver a major foreign policy address to the nation tonight on the grave Communist China crisis.

Acheson will speak from his state department office over the American Broadcasting Company, Columbia Broadcasting System and Mutual networks at 8:00 p. m. (CST).

State department officials said Acheson plans to outline the current situation in Korea, strategy to meet the serious threat posed by Chinese Communist intervention, and to appeal for unity of the free world to meet the threat.

Acheson had planned to deliver an address in Cleveland tonight before the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. But the Communist Chinese intervention in Korea—branded aggression by the state department—changed his mind.

The change highlighted the serious view taken by the United States regarding the crisis in Korea.

It also was reported that a study is being given considerable new moves against Communist intervention to be under way on economic sanctions against the Reds in the event of a military field.

Any such decision to have force, would be worked out with nations who are bringing pressure against the Reds in the economic field.

The United States has practically China and does Chinese Communism.

Thus the barbs pressure against the fall more to other nations of a Britain, who recognized the dead regime and who have better trade relations with Red China.

Dynamite SLIGHTEST MISTAKE MAY START SPARK OF WORLD CONFLICT; MANY FEAR THAT WORLD WAR III ALREADY HAS STARTED

By Phil Newson
United Press Staff Correspondent
The free world today is like a man awakening from a delicate operation, suddenly to find himself blind—fearful of the slightest mistake, yet forced to feel his way.

Three days ago we hoped for quick victory in Korea.

Two days ago we hoped that the Red Chinese delegation to the United Nations might open the door for settlement of the whole question of peace in the Far East.

Today, many fear that World War III already has started.

There is no hope that force of arms will settle the issue quickly in Korea, and yesterday's speeches in the United Nations seemed almost to slam the door on the hope of compromise.

The United States, for the first time, charged China with "open and notorious aggression." The somber, flat-faced leader of the Chinese delegation, Gen. Wu Hsiu-Chuan, accused the United States of deliberately stirring up World War III and systematically building up a military encirclement of China.

The statements of U. S. Ambassador Warren R. Austin and General Wu were unequivocal and both seemed incapable of compromise.

In Washington, Secretary of State Acheson feared the Chinese moves in Korea were a mask for possible Russian moves in Europe. Defense secretary George Marshall asked the nation to remain "careful, calm and wise."

But out of the first day's somber news brought on by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's announcement of full-scale Chinese intervention in the Korean War, comes at least one bright ray.

The Communists, attempting to split the Allies on the Korean issue, so far have failed.

Several United Nations delegates to the United Nations from Europe, the Middle and the Far East admitted their countries were puzzled as to why MacArthur launched his Korean offensive at a moment when hopes for a negotiated peace were spurred by the arrival of the Red Chinese delegation.

But one big power spokesman summed it up:

"There may have been differences on policy. But now it looks as if we are in a difficult situation. Therefore there is no point in recriminations. We will proceed as partners, not as bickering strangers. The past is the past."

Meanwhile, the three main points in the current situation remain: 1. Withdraw from Korea. 2. Withdraw from Formosa. 3. Admit Red China to the United Nations.

Only the second, as of now, seems possible of compromise. The United States and the United Nations are committed to throwing armed Communist forces out of Korea, whether they are Korean or Chinese. And it seems impossible that we could permit them a third point without settlement of the first. The United States already has left the way open for compromise on Formosa by suggesting that its fate be left either up to a Japanese peace treaty or the United Nations. The Chinese have flatly refused.

But there may be some hope left in the fact both sides still are talking.

Double Ring Church Ceremony Unites Ann Loper and Sam Aills

In a double ring ceremony, Ann Mitchell Loper and Sam Aills, both of Ranger, exchanged wedding vows at 7 p. m. Nov. 22, 1950 in the First Baptist Church in Ranger.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mitchell of Olden and Mr. Aills' parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Aills of Nacodoches.

The Rev. Ralph Perkins, pastor, officiated before an altar, decorated with baskets of pink pom-poms and greenery, flanked by tall candelabra holding white tapers. They were lighted by Hody Spies of Nacodoches and Raymond Lingle of Ranger.

Betty Reuser, organist presented the wedding music and accompanied, Bill Couser, soloist, who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle length dress of beige lace. Her veil of French illusion was held in place with a cloche of matching lace, decorated with seed pearls. Her long French gloves were of doekin.

She carried a white satin prayer book bouquet of white gardenias centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Jeanne Thomas of Fort Smith, Ark., was matron of honor and her sister's only attendant. She wore a taupe colored dress of taffeta made similar to that of the bride. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink rosebuds, with pink satin shawl.

Craig Loper, little son of the bride, was ring bearer, and carried the ring on a white satin pillow, Jack Aills of Nacodoches served his brother as best man. Robert Griffin of Nacodoches and Onis Warden of Ranger were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gray crepe dress and her corsage was of gardenias.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the Community Clubhouse in Ranger. Guests were received by the parents of the bride and the wedding party. They were registered in the white satin bride's book by Mrs. Bruce Pipkin of Eastland. The bride's table resplendent in its pink net cloth, underlaid with white satin was decorated with an arrangement of pink rosebuds and the bouquet carried by the matron of honor flanked with silver candelabra holding white tapers. The wedding cake was white, three-tiered and decorated with pink and white rosebuds.

Mrs. Linda Forney ladeled the frosted punch and Jean Valentine served the cake. Others in the house party were Mmes. G. B. Rush, Onis Warden, Raymond Lingle, and Boone Yarbrough. Three hundred and twenty-five guests registered.

When Mr. and Mrs. Aills left for Nacodoches, due to the critical illness of Mr. Aills' father, the bride was wearing a grey gaberdine suit with winter pink hat and matching blouse. Her accessories were black. Her orchid corsage was from her wedding bouquet.

The young couple will make their home in Ranger, where Mr. Aills is line coach at Ranger High School.

Mrs. Aills is a graduate of Ranger High School and attended the University of Louisville and North Texas State College at Denton. She is presently employed at the Texas Electric Service Company in Ranger.

Mr. Aills is a graduate of Nacodoches High School and of Centenary College in Shreveport, La.

Out of town guests other than those in the wedding party were Mrs. Hody Spies of Nacodoches, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Whitmore of Dallas and Mrs. Gordon Graham of Texas City.

Mrs. Emil Anderson, 8632 Wash, Detroit, Mich., says she believes in folks being lucky and all that... but she says that people today are inclined to rely too much on just good luck. One thing Mrs. Anderson says, "is fact not fiction"... she isn't going around saying she thanks her lucky stars for feeling so good—No Sir! not Mrs. Anderson—she says she feels so good now because she is taking HADACOL. She was suffering from a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Anderson's own statement:
"For many years now I have had nagging aches and pains not in just a few places but all over my body—in my arms, legs, back, shoulders, in fact I know a person couldn't have felt as miserable as I did."
"I was nervous too—so nervous that I couldn't even darn socks and the worst thing was that I couldn't eat nor sleep properly. I would just eat this and that—never a full meal—and my stomach always felt bad. I was so tired all the time—seems like when I would go up two or three steps I would be completely worn out. I was just about at my wits end, not knowing what to do."

"Then while visiting my son and his wife in Marton-Gap, Ky., he told me how his mother-in-law had been helped so much by HADACOL. I brought HADACOL all the way home to Detroit with me. I could tell a big difference after the second bottle. So far I have taken 6 or 7 bottles of HADACOL. What a wonderful change has taken place—there is hardly an ache or pain in my whole body. I eat well and thoroughly enjoy my food, and sleep—why I can't even stay up late enough to watch all of the television—I just drop off to sleep. I have lots of energy too—now I can even get out in the yard and do the yard work. Yes HADACOL is wonderful—and you can bet your life I will never stop taking HADACOL."

Folks All Over The Country whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron, have been helped by HADACOL and HADACOL can help you, too, if you suffer from stomach distress, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia caused by upset stomach, aches and pains, or a general run-down condition, caused by such deficiencies.

That's the kind of product you want—that's the kind you should buy and that's the kind you should start taking NOW!

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance to benefit you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel better after the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $9.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.—(Adv.)
