Cisco Leads County's Red Cross Drive To Date; Eastland Second, Ranger Lagging In Latest Report

The 1951 fund raising campaign of the American Red Cross was coming along somewhat spotty this week in the Eastland County Chapter, with Cisco leading the county, Ranger trailing, Eastland in the middle, and the rural areas showing a good return, Mrs. John Love, county fund chairman said.

Cisco reported $1135 as of Monday with more to come and sure that quota would be met easily, according to Mrs. Willard White, Cisco chairman. Ranger was lagging behind with only $44.30 reported Monday to the county office. Eastland was holding the middle ground with $627 on record so far.

Rural communities had not all reported to the county office on Monday, but the tally at that time was as follows: Pioneer, $9.10; Okra, $18.50; Word $4.50; Nimrod, $7.50; Sabanno, $9.45; Cheney, $76.65.

Rising Star and Gorman reported they had not yet started their campaigns, but would this week, and promised that in each case, it would be wound up in plenty of time with the quota met. No reports had come in from other places at that time.

Various activities were in the process of being planned as money raising schemes over the county, most interesting of which was the double-header basketball game scheduled to be played on the night of Friday, March 23, at the Eastland high school gymnasium, Cyrus Frost, Jr., Eastland chairman said. All gate receipts will be turned over to the Eastland County Chapter.

So far the only team known for sure in the plan is the Lamb Motor Co., but announcement of the game will be made later when plans are completed.

Wiesen took up his duties with Pipkin's last week.

Hoover Urges GOP To Override 'Infantry Generals' And Fight Against Sending Troops To Europe

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—Former president Herbert Hoover challenged congressional Republicans today to override "infantry generals" and fight to the end against sending American troops into the Atlantic Pact Army.

Given time, Mr. Hoover said, the troops project could be licked in Congress.

He warned that sending American divisions into the international pact army would be an "unwarranted risk," which might lead to global war and "the end of civilization."

Apparently assuming personal command of the current battle against sending the troops, Mr. Hoover made the plea to key House and Senate Republicans at a secret meeting last night in a hotel dining room. Hotel attendants stuffed the transoms of the meeting room with rags to prevent his remarks from being overheard.

"The time has come for civilian control of the armed forces of the United States," Mr. Hoover said amidst bursting applause.

Mr. Hoover said "the moment" the now contemplated four additional divisions are sent abroad "the military will want to send every division they can lay their hands on."

The Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees yesterday approved sending four more U. S. divisions to Europe, but demanded "congressional approval" before any additional troops are sent. Floor debate starts tomorrow.

It was clear that Republicans opposing the project were determined to carry the fight to the Senate and House floors, despite the committee rebuffs yesterday.

Mr. Hoover blasted "infantry generals" whom he said lacked "the kind of minds that can weigh strategic and political factors." He said that President Truman claimed powers which Republican presidents from Abraham Lincoln to himself had never dreamed of.

Mr. Hoover, in his strongest remarks against the troops project to date, said that disagreements among the pact allies in Europe were "paralyzing" the project and that unless unity can be established "they can offer no substantial resistance to Russia."

The nation's "only hope" is overwhelming air and sea superiority, he said. Long range air power has "held Stalin to date and is the only thing that will hold him in the future."

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—Federal Judge F. Dickinson Letts today cleared Earl Browder, former boss of the American Communist Party, of contempt of Congress charges.

Letts granted Browder's plea for acquittal.

The onetime Communist boss was accused of contempt of a Senate foreign relations subcommittee which investigated Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's charges of Communist infiltration of the state department.

The charge was based on Browder's refusal to answer 16 questions put by Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R. Ia.

Letts noted that Browder, in his appearance last April 27, answered freely 140 to 150 questions "with no attempt to evade the consequences of the information imparted."

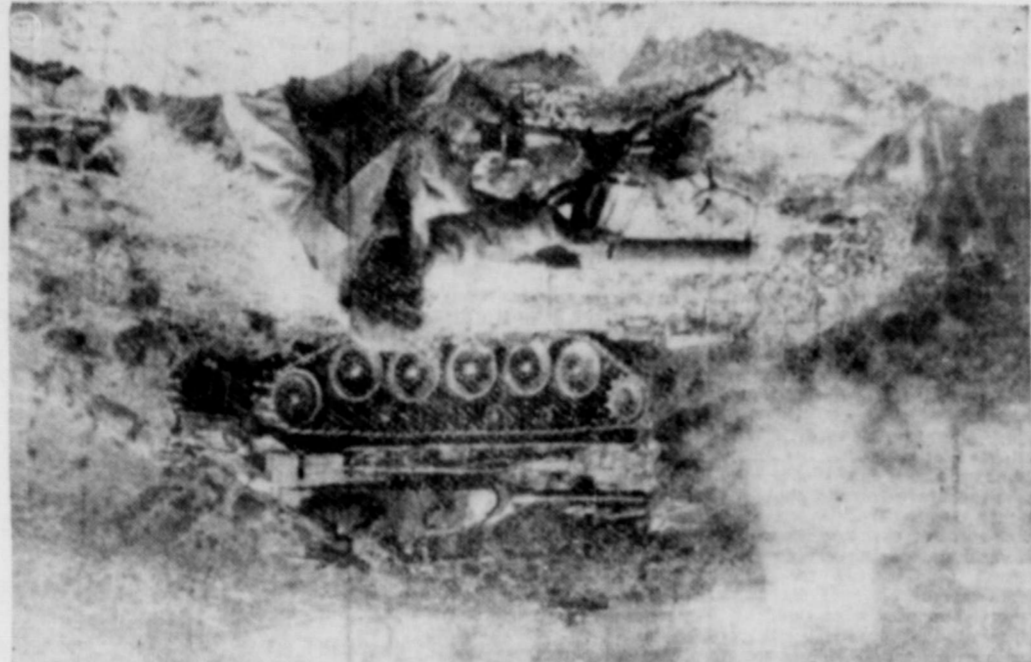

On the occasions when Browder declined to answer, Letts said he specifically stated objections and gave explanations.

"The court," he said, "could not permit a verdict of guilty in this case."

Colorado City Demotes Chief Of Police

Colorado City demoted its Chief of Police Tuesday but the officer claims he is "still the chief of police." Reports the Abilene Reporter-News.

H. S. Hickman, the demoted policeman, indicated he did not feel City Manager Jack Tallent had the authority to separate him from the police force. The city council demoted him and suspended him for 60 days. City Manager Tallent had a report charging that Hickman had failed to cooperate in the reorganization and modernization of the police department and was suspended for helping organize sentiment for making the chief of police an elective office.

Hickman, present at the meeting, denied any connection with a petition earlier presented to the council. It contained more than 100 names and asked a change in the city charter to permit the chief of police to be elected rather than appointed.

The city council returned the petition to its sponsors after noting what it termed errors in the petition including failures to list addresses and penciled signatures. Hickman, who termed the action a "political trick," will be eligible to retire in May under the city's new retirement plan.

Paratroop Squad From This Area Is Being Sought

T-Sgt. Frank E. Lockman has announced that he is seeking to enlist a paratroop squad from the Eastland area.

Dennis H. Garrett of Eastland, General Delivery, is the first volunteer for the squad which would remain together through basic training and jump school according to Sgt. Lockman.

No educational requirements are placed on paratroops. Those who volunteer go through a special physical examination and upon completion of training will be assigned to one of three Airborne divisions, the 11th, 82nd or 101st.

Paratroop enlisted men are now receiving $75 jump pay per month, Sgt. Lockman said, in addition to their regular salary.

In order to fill the squad in time to begin training together, Sgt. Lockman said that the men will have to be processed by March 31. Further information may be obtained by contacting Sgt. Lockman at the recruiting station at 311 Main St., Eastland.

Alex Lewis, Mingus, volunteered for service in the Army through the local station recently according to Sgt. Lockman, and has been sent to Fort Sill, Oklahoma for training.

Woman Blames Slacks For Loss Of Diamond Rings

HOUSTON, Tex., March 14 (UP)—Nina Vance, director of the Alley Theater, blamed the disappearance of two diamond rings valued at $3,750 today on the fact she wears slacks while working at the theater.

The connection is that Mrs. Vance does not believe slacks and diamonds go well together. When she wears slacks, she takes off her rings and puts them in her purse.

Last week the rings disappeared from her purse, and Mrs. Vance says they either dropped out of her purse at the theater, or were stolen.

"They may have dropped on the floor of the theater and may have been swept out with the trash," she said, adding that if she hadn't put on slacks that day she probably still would have the rings.

Both rings were of platinum. One was the $1,250 emerald-cut diamond engagement ring given to her by her husband, and the other was an old family heirloom solitaire diamond valued at $2,500.

Rare Earthquake Shakes Nations In NW Europe

LONDON, March 14 (UP)—A rare but minor earthquake today shook five countries in the northwest corner of Europe.

The three-minute tremor started at 10:49 a.m. near the Belgian-German border (4:49 a.m. CST) centered in or close to the Ardennes Forest, scene of the "battle of the bulge" in World War II.

No casualties were reported from the gentle "swaying" felt in Holland, Belgium, the Netherlands, North France and West Germany.

War ruins in small German towns toppled over and a few walls were cracked, but no major damage was reported.

At Bonn, the West German capital, the meteorological institute reported the earthquake had been caused by shifting outer surfaces of earth in the area.

Seismologists at London's famed Kew Observatory recorded a "slight" earthquake. They said records from the five nations were under study to determine the quake's epicenter.

The observatory at Strasbourg, Germany, described the quakes as "fairly sharp" and said the epicenter was in or around the Ardennes near the Rhine river valley.

Pastor To Tell Of Gambling In Galveston

AUSTIN, Tex., March 14 (UP)—A zealous crusading pastor from La Marque appears before a state senate committee today to tell what he knows about open gambling in Galveston County.

"I'm tickled to death at the chance," said the Rev. Harry H. Burch, pastor of St. Paul's Union Church, yesterday.

The parson, who said he had been invited by Sen. George Nokes of Corsicana to appear before the committee at 2 p.m., said he would tell the senators names of gambling places both on Galveston Island and the mainland.

The Rev. Burch sparked a crusade two years ago that closed slot machines out of La Marque, a Galveston County town of 8,000 persons.

Police Hunt 'Rock Slugger'

HOUSTON, Tex., March 14 (UP)—Police today hunted a man who used a rock wrapped in a handkerchief to slug two women in different sections of the city last night.

Officers said they were not positive the same man was responsible for both attacks, but said it appeared so. They said the description given him by both victims tallied and his method of approach was the same.

The first incident occurred shortly before midnight. A young man followed Miss Mary Allen, 26, as she got off a bus and walked close behind her until she was within a few feet of her home.

He then remarked, "It's pretty cold outside tonight," then suddenly slugged her as she turned away, Miss Allen said.

Thirty minutes later and 30 blocks away, Mrs. Anna Kabernik 36, was passed by a man who commented on the weather. As he did, she said he whirled around and hit her on the head.

Both women were treated at Jefferson Davis Hospital for deep head cuts.

Police said there was no apparent motive for the attacks since the women were not robbed or molested.

THE WEATHER

By United Press

Temperatures skidded into sub-freezing levels over most of the state early today, setting at least one record but the U. S. Weather Bureau in Dallas said warm weather was on the way.

Only the Rio-Grande Valley, already hit by heavy frost, escaped last night's sub-freezing plunge. Brownsville reported a 45-degree low.

The lowest minimum was 29 degrees at Junction. At Dallas, the mercury went to 28 degrees, lowest minimum temperature recorded for March 24.

A bright sun, obscured by clouds only in the Panhandle, was expected to send the mercury into the 60's over most of the state today while tonight's lows were not expected to be freezing except in the Panhandle.

Stations reporting overnight freezes included Abilene 27, Amarillo 25, Austin 32, Waco 28, Beaumont 31, Palestine and San Angelo 32, Fort Worth and Lubbock 29, Wichita Falls and Lufkin 26, Texarkana, Bryan, Dalhart and Salt Flat 30.

Man Wins 24 Year Fight For $452,000

CHICAGO, March 14 (UP)—William T. Hargrave, fresh from winning a $452,000 inheritance after a 24-year fight, went quietly about his duties as a $45-a-week restaurant cashier today.

"I'm going to keep working as usual until I find out how much of that money my lawyers and the government get," he said.

The 61-year-old widower won the inheritance in Illinois appellate court yesterday. The court upheld a circuit court decision granting him his late sister's share of her husband's estate.

The case had been tied up in court since 1927. Through 5 1/2 years Hargrave kept a scrapbook of its history. It ran to two volumes and "reads just like a novel."

"I'm closing them up as soon as I paste in the last clippings today," he said. "The feeling of relief is wonderful."

Hargrave doesn't know when he can get at his inheritance or precisely what he'll do with it.

"I'm not going on any spree or get the swell-head," he said. "I've been all through that in my younger days."

Hargrave became heir to the estate when his sister, Mrs. Florence May Jackson, died in 1926. LaSalle Hotel fire here in 1945.

Mrs. Jackson's claim to the assets of her late husband, Arthur, of the Chicago grain brokerage firm of Jackson Brothers and Co. had been contested by his business partners.

The claim amounted to $1,288,435 at the time of her death, but subsequent litigation whittled it down to $452,000.

ROK CAPITAL CHANGES HANDS FOR FOURTH TIME IN WAR

TOKYO, Thursday, March 15 (UP)—South Korean troops reoccupied the capital city of Seoul without firing a shot Wednesday and hoisted their flag above the capitol building.

The Reds fled north from Seoul and elsewhere all along the 140-mile Korean battlefield. Allied tank patrols pursued them to within 15 miles of the 38th Parallel without catching up.

Five strong South Korean patrols of the ROK 1st Division began crossing the Han River in fishing boats at dawn Wednesday. They moved freely through the streets of the war-shattered capital and at 9:15 p.m. (7:15 a.m. EST) the fifth patrol raised the Republic of Korea flag above the capitol.

Allied reoccupation of Seoul came two months and 10 days after Chinese Communist troops drove UN forces out at the climax of a massive offensive that hurled the Allies back from the Yalu River boundary with Manchuria.

This was the fourth time the battered South Korean capital had changed hands in this war. North Korean forces captured it last June 29, four days after crossing the 38th Parallel. U. S. Marines and the U. S. 7th Infantry division recaptured the city last Sept. 28. The Chinese Communists wrested it from the Allies again on the night of Jan. 4.

"The city of Seoul was entered tonight by ROK troops," a front dispatch said.

"First reports said South Korean patrols entered the abandoned city and reached the west gate at 7 p.m. (5 a.m. EST) The patrols then proceeded to the capitol building, where they raised the Republic of Korea flag."

An 8th Army memorandum issued at 11:30 p.m. (9:30 a.m. EST) said ROK patrols encountered no opposition.

"There will be a lapse of several hours before it will be possible to release more information on this topic," the memorandum said.

"Meanwhile, nothing but what is contained above will be cleared."

The memorandum quoted En. Paik Sun-Yup, commander of the South Korean 1st Division, as saying "I am very happy to be entering Seoul city again."

United Press correspondent Robert Vermillion reported from the front that five patrols of the South Korean troops crossed the Han in fishing boats between dawn and 7:50 p.m. (5:50 a.m. EST) Wednesday and moved freely through Seoul's streets.

"They will stay there if they can," Vermillion quoted an 8th Army spokesman as saying.

Earlier reports said 8th Army patrols were exploring the possibility the Reds were protecting north-south highway south of Seoul on the direct route to the Communist capital of Pyongyang.

United Press correspondent Peter Kalischer reported that a half dozen Allied tank patrols had reached within 15 miles of the 38th Parallel without finding the Reds. Kalischer did not specify in what areas these patrols were operating.

Communist resistance collapsed suddenly all along the Korean battlefield three days ago.

Father Of Five Children Dies In Chair Today

The 44-year-old Patterson, father of five children, was strapped in the electric chair at 12:02 a.m. He was pronounced dead six minutes later.

Prison officials said he made no last statement, but smiled faintly at Catholic Chaplain Father Francis Duffy just before the current was applied.

Patterson was convicted by a Harris County jury May 18, 1950 for shooting down his divorced wife in the soda fountain section of the supermarket Feb. 25, 1950.

Police said Mrs. Nettie Marie Patterson, 42, was killed by six bullets fired at her as she worked at the soft drink counter of the market during a rush hour.

Witnesses at the trial testified Patterson had tuberculosis which forced him to quit work in Houston and move to Mart, Tex., where he lived with relatives.

He got up out of a sick bed to go to Houston and kill his wife, evidence showed.

In an attempt to save his life after his conviction, Patterson's attorneys argued he was near death and asked the court to set aside his death sentence.

But the court of criminal appeals upheld the judgment of the Harris County district court.

He was granted the governor's customary 30-day stay and was allowed an additional three days to prevent the execution from falling on Sunday.

90 Year Old Mrs. Campbell Active As Ever

The saying goes that "you're as young as you look." Here's a lady who's as young as she acts. That's Mrs. Ida Campbell of Ranger.

Mrs. Campbell turned a spry 90 Feb. 13. And what did she do on her birthday? Well, she might have walked to town to see her daughter at the Mode O Day shop. Or she might have embroidered or crocheted. Or she might have written several letters.

It's all in a day's work for the active 90-year-old Mrs. Campbell. And it's been reported that she can write more letters at one sitting than any lawyer in the county.

The Ranger pioneer lives with her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Kirk at 323 Pine Street. Her lifetime has spanned four wars and she is probably the oldest active member of the Baptist church here—she has belonged to the Baptist church for 70 years.

Cisco Leads County's Red Cross Drive To Date; Eastland Second, Ranger Lagging In Latest Report

The 1951 fund raising campaign of the American Red Cross was coming along somewhat spotty this week in the Eastland County Chapter, with Cisco leading the county, Ranger trailing, Eastland in the middle, and the rural areas showing a good return, Mrs. John Love, county fund chairman said.

Cisco reported $1135 as of Monday with more to come and sure that quota would be met easily, according to Mrs. Willard White, Cisco chairman. Ranger was lagging behind with only $44.30 reported Monday to the county office. Eastland was holding the middle ground with $627 on record so far.

Rural communities had not all reported to the county office on Monday, but the tally at that time was as follows: Pioneer, 39.10; Okra, $18.50; Word $4.50; Nimrod, $7.50; Sabanno, $9.45; Cheaney, $76.65.

Rising Star and Gorman reported they had not yet started their campaigns, but would this week, and promised that in each case, it would be wound up in plenty of time with the quota met. No reports had come in from other places at that time.

Various activities were in the process of being planned as money raising schemes over the county, most interesting of which was the double-header basketball game scheduled to be played on the night of Friday, March 23, at the Eastland high school gymnasium, Cyrus Frost, Jr., Eastland chairman said. All gate receipts will be turned over to the Eastland County Chapter.

So far the only team known for sure in the plan is the Lamb Motor Co., but announcement of the game will be made later when plans are completed.

Colorado City demoted its Chief of Police Tuesday but the officer claims he is "still the chief of police." Reports the Abilene Reporter-News.

H. S. Hickman, the demoted policeman, indicated he did not feel City Manager Jack Tallent had the authority to separate him from the police force. The city council demoted him and suspended him for 60 days. City Manager Tallent read a report charging that Hickman failed to cooperate in the reorganization and modernization of the police department and was suspended for helping organize sentiment for making the chief of police an elective office.

Hickman, present at the meeting, denied any connection with a petition earlier presented to the council. It contained more than 100 names and asked a change in the city charter to permit the chief of police to be elected rather than appointed.

The city council returned the petition to its sponsors after noting what it termed errors in the petition including failures to list addresses and penciled signatures. Hickman, who termed the action a "political trick", will be eligible to retire in May under the city's new retirement plan.

Judge Clears Earl Browder Of Contempt

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—Federal Judge F. Dickinson Letts today cleared Earl Browder, former boss of the American Communist Party, of contempt of Congress charges.

Letts granted Browder's plea for acquittal.

The onetime Communist boss was accused of contempt of a Senate foreign relations subcommittee which investigated Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's charges of Communist infiltration of the state department.

The charge was based on Browder's refusal to answer 16 questions put by Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R. Ia.

Letts noted that Browder, in his appearance last April 27, answered freely 140 to 150 questions "with no attempt to evade the consequences of the information imparted."

On the occasions when Browder declined to answer, Letts said he specifically stated objections and gave explanations.

"The court," he said, "could not permit a verdict of guilty in this case."

Carbon Monoxide Gas Kills Man

WHITEWRIGHT, Tex., March 14 (UP)—A verdict of carbon monoxide poisoning was entered today in the death of Lawrence S. Lewis, 43, of Texarkana, Ark.

Lewis was found yesterday in the rear seat of an automobile in which he and two other men had traveled here from Camden, Ark., to seek employment.

Charles Wheat In Training With Odessa Ball Club

Mrs. Mary Wheat received a letter recently from her youngest son, Charles, who is in training at Hondo with the Odessa Oilers baseball team.

Charles writes that he is trying out as a pitcher for the team and if he is successful he intends to make baseball his career.

Rare Earthquake Shakes Nations In NW Europe

LONDON, March 14 (UP)—A rare but minor earthquake today shook five countries in the north-west corner of Europe.

The three-minute tremor started at 10:49 a.m. near the Belgian-German border (4:49 a.m. CST) centered in or close to the Anders Forest, scene of the "battle of the bulge" in World War II.

No casualties were reported from the gentle "swaying" felt in Holland, Belgium, the Netherlands, North France and West Germany.

War ruins in small German towns toppled over and a few walls were cracked, but no major damage was reported.

At Bonn, the West German capital, the meteorological institute reported the earthquake had been caused by shifting outer surfaces of earth in the area.

Seismologists at London's famed Kew Observatory recorded a "slight" earthquake. They said records from the five nations were under study to determine the quake's epicenter.

The observatory at Strasbourg, Germany, described the quakes as "fairly sharp" and said the epicenter was in or around the Ardennes near the Rhine river valley.

THE WEATHER

By United Press

Temperatures skidded into sub-freezing levels over most of the state early today, setting at least one record but the U. S. Weather Bureau in Dallas said warm weather was on the way.

Only the Rio-Grande Valley, already hit by heavy frost, escaped last night's sub-freezing plunge. Brownsville reported a 45-degree low.

The lowest minimum was 20 degrees at Junction. At Dallas, the mercury went to 23 degrees, lowest minimum temperature recorded for March 24.

A bright sun, obscured by clouds only in the Panhandle, was expected to send the mercury into the 60's over most of the state today while tonight's lows were not expected to be freezing except in the Panhandle.

Stations reporting overnight freezes included Abilene 27, Amarillo 25, Austin 32, Waco 28, Beaumont 31, Palestine and San Angelo 32, Fort Worth and Lubbock 29, Wichita Falls and Lufkin 26, Texarkana, Bryan, Dalhart and Salt Flat 30.

Man Wins 24 Year Fight For $452,000

CHICAGO, March 14 (UP)—William T. Hargraves, fresh from winning a $452,000 inheritance after a 24-year fight, went quietly about his duties as a $45-a-week restaurant cashier today.

"I'm going to keep working as usual until I find out how much of that money my lawyers and the government get," he said.

The 61-year-old widower won the inheritance in Illinois appellate court yesterday. The court upheld a circuit court decision granting him his late sister's share of her husband's estate.

The case had been tied up in court since 1927. Through the years Hargraves kept a scrapbook of his history. It ran to two volumes and "reads just like a novel."

"I'm closing them up as soon as I paste in the last clippings today," he said. "The feeling of relief is wonderful."

Hargraves doesn't know when he can get at his inheritance or precisely what he'll do with it.

"I'm not going on any spree or get the swell-head," he said. "I've been all through that in my younger days."

Hargraves became heir to the estate when his sister, Mrs. Florence May Jackson, died in 1948. Mrs. Jackson's claim to the assets of her late husband, Arthur, of the Chicago grain brokerage firm of Jackson Brothers and Co. had been contested by his business partners.

The claim amounted to $1,288,435 at the time of her death, but subsequent litigation whittled it down to $452,000.

Paratroop Squad From This Area Is Being Sought

T-Sgt. Frank E. Lockman has announced that he is seeking to enlist a paratroop squad from the Eastland area.

Dennis H. Garrett of Eastland, General Delivery, is the first volunteer for the squad which would remain together through basic training and jump school according to Sgt. Lockman.

No educational requirements are placed on paratroops. Those who volunteer go through a special physical examination and upon completion of training will be assigned to one of three Airborne divisions, the 11th, 82nd or 101st.

Paratroop enlisted men are now receiving $75 jump pay per month, Sgt. Lockman said, in addition to their regular salary.

In order to fill the squad in time to begin training together, Sgt. Lockman said that the men will have to be processed by March 31. Further information may be obtained by contacting Sgt. Lockman at the recruiting station at 311 Main St., Eastland.

Alex Lewis, Mingo, volunteered for service in the Army through the local station recently according to Sgt. Lockman, and has been sent to Fort Sill, Oklahoma for training.

Police Hunt 'Rock Sluggers'

HOUSTON, Tex., March 14 (UP)—Police today hunted a man who used a rock wrapped in a handkerchief to slug two women in different sections of the city last night.

Officers said they were not positive the same man was responsible for both attacks, but said it appeared so. They said the description given of him by both victims tallied and his method of approach was the same.

The first incident occurred shortly before midnight. A young man followed Miss Mary Allen, 26, as she got off a bus and walked close behind her until she was within a few feet of her home.

He then remarked, "It's pretty cold outside tonight," then suddenly slugged her as she turned away, Miss Allen said.

Thirty minutes later and 30 blocks away, Mrs. Anna Kabernik 26, was passed by a man who commented on the weather. As he did, she said he whirled around and hit her on the head.

Both women were treated at Jefferson Davis Hospital for deep head cuts.

Police said there was no apparent motive for the attacks since the women were not robbed or molested.

ROK CAPITAL CHANGES HANDS FOR FOURTH TIME IN WAR

By Earnest Hoberecht
TOKYO, Thursday, March 15 (UP)—South Korean troops reoccupied the capital city of Seoul without firing a shot Wednesday and hoisted their flag above the capitol building.

The Reds fled north from Seoul and elsewhere all along the 140-mile Korean battlefield. Allied tank patrols pursued them to within 15 miles of the 38th Parallel without catching up.

Five strong South Korean patrols of the ROK 1st Division began crossing the Han River in fishing boats at dawn Wednesday. They moved freely through the streets of the war-shattered capital and at 9:15 p.m. (7:15 a.m. EST) the fifth patrol raised the Republic of Korea flag above the capitol.

Allied occupation of Seoul came two months and 10 days after Chinese Communist troops drove UN forces out at the climax of a massive offensive that hurled the Allies back from the Yalu River boundary with Manchuria.

This was the fourth time the battered South Korean capital had changed hands in this war. North Korean forces captured it last June 29, four days after crossing the 38th Parallel. U. S. Marines and the U. S. 7th Infantry Division recaptured the city last Sept. 28. The Chinese Communists wrested it from the Allies again on the night of Jan. 4.

"The city of Seoul was entered tonight by ROK troops," a front dispatch said.

"First reports said South Korean patrols entered the abandoned city and reached the west gate at 7 p.m. (5 a.m. EST) The patrols then proceeded to the capitol building, where they raised the Republic of Korea flag."

An 8th Army memorandum issued at 11:30 p.m. (9:30 a.m. EST) said the patrols encountered no opposition.

"There will be a lapse of several hours before it will be possible to release more information on this topic," the memorandum said. "Meanwhile, nothing but what is contained above will be cleared."

The memorandum quoted En. Paik Sun-Yup, commander of the South Korean 1st Division, as saying "I am very happy to be entering Seoul city again."

United Press correspondent Robert Vermillion reported from the front that five patrols of the South Korean troops crossed the Han in fishing boats between dawn and 7:50 p.m. (5:50 a.m. EST) Wednesday and moved freely through Seoul's streets.

"They will stay there if they can," Vermillion quoted an 8th Army spokesman as saying.

Earlier reports said 8th Army patrols were exploring the possibility the Reds were protecting northwestern highway south of Seoul on the direct route to the Communist capital of Pyongyang.

United Press correspondent Peter Kalischer reported that a total of a half dozen Allied tank patrols had reached within 15 miles of the 38th Parallel without finding the Reds. Kalischer did not specify in what areas these patrols were operating.

Communist resistance collapsed suddenly all along the Korean battlefield three days ago.

90 Year Old Mrs. Campbell Active As Ever

The saying goes that "you're as young as you look." Here's a lady who's as young as she acts. That's Mrs. Ida Campbell of Ranger.

Mrs. Campbell turned a spry 90 Feb. 13. And what did she do on her birthday? Well, she might have walked to town to see her daughter at the Mode O Day shop. Or she might have embroidered or crocheted. Or she might have written several letters.

It's all in a day's work for the active 90-year-old Mrs. Campbell. And it's been reported that she can write more letters at one sitting than any lawyer in the county.

The Ranger pioneer lives with her daughter, Mrs. B. A. Kirk at 325 Pine Street. Her lifetime has spanned four wars and she is probably the oldest active member of the Baptist church here—she has belonged to the Baptist church for 70 years.

Father Of Five Children Dies In Chair Today

(UP)—J. B. Patterson, whose attorneys said he didn't have long to live because of tuberculosis, died in the state electric chair today for the murder of his wife in a crowded Houston supermarket.

The 44-year-old Patterson, father of five children, was strapped in the electric chair at 12:02 a.m. He was pronounced dead six minutes later.

Prison officials said he made no last statement, but smiled faintly at Catholic Chaplain Father Francis Duffy just before the current was applied.

Patterson was convicted by a Harris County jury May 16, 1950, for shooting down his divorced wife in the soda fountain section of the supermarket Feb. 25, 1950.

Police said Mrs. Nettie Marie Patterson, 42, was killed by six bullets fired at her as she worked at the soft drink counter of the market during a rush hour.

Witnesses at the trial testified Patterson had tuberculosis which forced him to quit work in Houston and move to Mart, Tex., where he lived with relatives.

He got up out of a sick bed to go to Houston and kill his wife, evidence showed.

In an attempt to save his life after his conviction, Patterson's attorneys argued he was near death and asked the court to set aside his death sentence.

But the court of criminal appeals upheld the judgment of the Harris County district court.

He was granted the governor's customary 30-day stay and was allowed an additional three days to prevent the execution from falling on Sunday.

Hoover Urges GOP To Override 'Infantry Generals' And Fight Against Sending Troops To Europe

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—Former President Herbert Hoover challenged congressional Republicans today to override "infantry generals" and fight to the end against sending American troops into the Atlantic Pact Army.

Given time, Mr. Hoover said, the troops project could be licked in Congress.

He warned that sending American divisions into the international pact army would be an "unwarranted risk," which might lead to global war and "the end of civilization."

"Apparently assuming personal command of the current battle against sending the troops, Mr. Hoover made the plea to key House and Senate Republicans at a secret meeting last night in a hotel dining room. Hotel attendants stuffed the transoms of the meeting room with rags to prevent his remarks from being overheard.

"The time has come for civilian control of the armed forces of the United States," Mr. Hoover said amid bursting applause.

Mr. Hoover said "the moment" the now contemplated four additional divisions are sent abroad "the military will want to send

The National Production Authority estimated that the program will require 157,000 tons of steel drilling equipment a month. The program will begin operation in April. This should be welcome news to oilmen around Ranger for the oil activity here hasn't slackened by any means and drillers and operators have been worried about the scarcity of drilling equipment.

THE STORY: Paul Twine, seeking to correct what he believes to be an injustice, kidnaps his niece Judy from her unworthy mother and flees to New York with May Jenkins, who believes in him. May and Judy separate from Paul for security, while Paul goes to contact a sea captain friend, Martin Juhoe, who can take Paul, Judy and May out of the country. Paul is tipped off that officers are waiting for him at the shipping agency and that he is to contact a Captain Cross. Cross gives Paul instructions how to meet him and Paul is light-hearted as he goes to a park to meet May. Meanwhile, May and Judy, after a narrow escape from the police dragnet, have left their rooming house. Judy is placed in a movie while May goes to meet Paul. But May is followed. At first she thinks her shadow is a policeman, then she discovers that he is simply a "sweet" who whom she tries to run away from him, the man who tried her.

XVIII
THE dark man quickly caught up with May Jenkins. "Now wait," he implored. "You got me all mix up. First you like me, then you don't, then you do and then you don't all over again. What's wrong with you? You need a good drink. You all worked up."
"No!" May stormed.
"Okay. So you don't want a drink. It's all right. You are nice-looking kid, but you real skinny. Maybe you hungry. Okay. So I buy you big dinner."
"No!"
May broke into a trot. The man kept up with her.

"No drink. No eat. Maybe you just the kind of girl I like." He snickered. "You are very nice girl to get acquainted with. You are like no girl I ever know before."
Through her tears of anger, humiliation and anxiety, May Jenkins saw nothing ahead that might offer an avenue of escape from her tormentor.
The point had been reached

'Love Burglar' Said To Have Unsound Mind

DALLAS, Tex., March 14 (UP)—Fred Felix Adair, Jr., condemned Dallas "love burglar," was never normal mentally after severe beatings suffered in childhood, relatives testified at his sanity trial yesterday.

Testimony opened yesterday in the sanity trial, Adair's last hope of avoiding death in the electric chair late this month for raping a Vickers housewife. If the jury finds him sane, only an unexpected event aren't money-makers for the Jaycees. They aren't intended to be. But they do draw trade into town and in addition, events such as the livestock show can play an important part in Eastland County progress.

Livestock and agriculture, have taken a back seat to oil in the county—but that doesn't mean their importance has decreased. Livestock and agriculture will still be with us when the oil has played out. And the livestock show is more than just a "show." As its sponsors explain—"it is for the purpose of improving and expanding the livestock industry in Eastland and adjoining counties."

when she was ready to risk approaching a policeman, but in the street she could see only an occasional pedestrian, and no uniformed patrolman near at hand.
But diagonally across the street from her was a large apartment house. A liveried doorman stood under the canopy which ran from the structure to the curb.
May cut across the street and made straight for the apartment house.

THE doorman swung open the door for her and held it as she entered. May hurried inside, praying that her pursuer would not follow. He didn't.
She stepped into a waiting elevator. The operator, a boy, turned and looked at her.
"Floor please?"
"Is there a back way out—through the basement?" May asked.

The elevator boy's formality fled. He looked at her in frank curiosity. "Yeah. Why?"
"I'm trying to get rid of a fellow who's been following me for the last hour. He just won't leave me alone."
The operator grinned. "Why don'tcher call a cop?"
"I haven't seen one. Please, take me to the basement and show me the way out of here."
The elevator operator closed the door and started the car down.
"Ain't that always the way?" Cops swarm all over the place except when you want one."
May did not answer. The car came to a stop. The operator opened the door and secured the door with a hook.
"Follow me, kid. I'll show you the back way."
He too her down a long, dark corridor, at the end of which a door opened onto a wide alley.

ed gubernatorial clemency could save him.

Fred Felix Adair, Sr., the rapist's father, testified that young Adair's aunt kept him when a child and repeatedly beat him about the head until he bled from his nose, ears and mouth.
His testimony was corroborated by another aunt, a cousin and a Negro maid. Selective service records were introduced which indicated that Adair, once discharged from the Navy for "bad conduct," was twice rejected for service because of neurotic tendencies.

"I think he always has been of more or less unsound mind," said Adair's father.
Adair, 27, dozed through much of the hearing and occasionally whispered to his wife, who sat beside him.

Sultry Pictures Of Movie Stars Contain Features That Help Jet Plane Pilots Remember How To Fly

AN AIRPORT IN KOREA March 15 (UP)—Veronica Lake, Trudy Marshall, Terry Moore, Linda Darnell and Susan Hayward are young ladies who are amply endowed with mnemonic devices.

They are helping the war effort more than they know. They—their pictures, that is—have points of interest of pilots. Pilots like to look at them and study their fine points.

Mnemonic device is something which helps you remember something else. The operations officer of the 49th Fighter Bomber Group, a student, no doubt, of human nature, realized some time ago that sultry pictures of movie actresses and models might contain interesting features which, properly exploited, would help jet pilots remember how to fly and fight.

So—when you walk into the part of the operations shack where the pilots hang out, you find pictures of the aforementioned actresses and many other ripe young ladies. There are captions above the pictures referring to airplanes, and advice under the pictures about how to run airplanes. The operations officer has contrived a tie-in, in most instances, between picture and text.

A pilot, walking through the door, for instance, is likely to come face to face with Trudy Marshall reclining on a stool of hay. She has on a one piece swimsuit and is smiling and biting the end of a straw. Over her it says in big black capital letters “if my fire goes out, restart me—fire the hay.”

Underneath the picture, it tells how to restart an F-80 Shooting Star in the air if its flame goes out during flight.

Then there is a luscious color picture of Susan Hayward. She has on a low cut, green evening gown. With one hand she is ruffling her cascading red hair. Above her it says “Don't panic with a red.” Underneath it tells what to do while in flight when the red light which is a fire warning comes on in the cockpit.

There's a picture of Terry Moore wearing what appears to be a strapless sweater, properly filled. The sign says, “why bust your seams?” and in small letter: “Keep your tip tanks round and firm.” Then it goes into detailed advice on how to care for the wingtip fuel tanks which jet planes use.

A somewhat chilly picture of Linda Darnell sitting on a diving board is captioned “warm me up.” The next tells how properly to warm up F-80 electrical instruments.

Advice to pilots to keep looking around for the enemy—“clear the sky” the airman call it—is wrapped around a picture of Veronica Lake reclining at ease in a tight dress. A big red sign over her says: “Those that don't look around never have to worry.” (Billy the Kid, 1895, 21-years-of-age, 21 kills) underneath it says “you can't clear the sky enough. The red pilots will use the sun. Use your eyes and the proper technique.”

One picture of an outsize sweater girl is captioned simply, “true, or false?” and underneath it lists some questions on bombing.

I asked a pilot if the posters were successful, if the fibers read them, and he said: “I don't know if they're read—but they're looked at, I can guarantee you that.”

Modern Medicine Disproves Doom Of Heart Disease

AUSTIN, March 14 — Too prevalent today is the belief that heart disease is the spell of doom and that one must cease all work and activity. Modern medical knowledge easily disproves this notion, and thousands of case histories bear witness to its falsity.

Heart disease, medical science now knows, is not a single ailment. Many troubles can afflict the heart—some less serious than others. While some restrictions are necessary, it is now generally true that patients with any form of heart trouble should be active within the limits of their capacity.

Not all persons with heart ailments can continue working at their same pace. Obviously there are those who require bed rest and often a very strict limitation of physical and mental activity. But there are many who can continue working, performing some type of useful or productive activity, without fear that their hearts will suddenly give out.

A person with a mild heart disorder can in most instances perform any kind of job for which his skills qualify him.

No individual with a heart condition, it should be cautioned,

Only Thing Harder Than Landing A Jet On Small Strip Is To Take Off With Same Plane On Same Strip

BY H. D. QUIGG

AN AIRPORT IN KOREA, March 12 (UP)—The only thing harder than landing a jet fighter on a dirt strip one-sixth the size of a normal jet runway is taking the same plane off the same strip.

A jet pilot recently landed his F-80 Shooting Star on a 950-foot airstrip just behind the American lines.

He had to. He was out of fuel. But the man who went up to the strip a few days later to recover the plane had to sweat it out in his mind whether to try the impossible and attempt to fly it out.

He was Capt. Alex M. Sentes, 29, a veteran pilot from Cleveland, O., whose ability to fly jets is matched by his sense of humor. Why did he decide to attempt the “impossible”? Sentes said as he sat in the operations room of his home base. “They caught me by surprise. They came in here and asked if anyone had jet experience. I said yes. I thought they were going to ask me a question.

“They did. They said, ‘how'd you like to go up and take that plane off?’

“Since we thought that the dirt strip was 1,600 feet long, I said okay. With two jato bottles and a hard surface, you can take a jet off in 1,500 feet. When I got there I found that the light artillery-petter planes which had used the strip and abandoned it and it had shrunk—washed out by about its length. I paced and paced, all day long. Each should determine for himself whether he is able to work or not and how much work he can do.

Just as there are many who become cardiac invalids because of fear, there are those at the opposite extreme who ignore proper medical advice and subject their hearts to unnecessary strain and abuse by overactivity. Only a competent physician is qualified to say what are the limits of a maimed heart.

Jato—jet assisted takeoff—bottles are used for emergency takeoffs. They are attached to the fuselage, and when they are set off electrically, the thrust of their white-smoke exhaust gives a plane a tremendous boost during the few seconds before they are expended.

Sentes took two jatos along with him. Normally, planes don't use them. They fly from runways about a mile long. To Sentes, the rugged, sandy little airstrip was a shocker.

“I'll tell you how small it was—you could stand in the middle of the runway and see both ends,” he said. “Of course, my eyes protruded out about this far.”

He held a hand in front of his dark brown eyes.

His sharp face, shaded by the long bill of his flight cap, beamed with merriment. “There was an outfit of engineers camped at the end of the strip,” he said. “They helped. We paced the field about ten times. We calculated the lightest fuel load possible. My crew chief set the acceleration up. We put up flags to mark the soft spots in the strip and lined out an S-shaped takeoff path.

We worked from 9 to 11 a.m. Then we all sat down around a stove, with a bunch of curious Koreans looking on, and figured out I couldn't make it.”

Sentes grinned. “It was funnier

Beaumont Trains May Toot Whistles

BEAUMONT, Tex., March 14 (UP)—Trains soon may be allowed to blow their whistles in Beaumont after six years silence.

The city council will vote Tuesday on an ordinance to remove the “no-whistle” ban in force since 1945, when Beaumont residents complained the tooting of whistles disturbed their sleep.

There have been a number of grade-crossing accidents in Beaumont recently.

Control Order Designed

WASHINGTON, March 14 (UP)—Price stabilizer Michael V. Dallas and top manufacturers today discussed an imminent far-reaching control order designed to roll margins back to pre-Korea levels.

“I tell you how small it was—you could stand in the middle of the runway and see both ends,” he said. “Of course, my eyes protruded out about this far.”

“But all the engineers wanted to see me try.”

“They had color film for their cameras.”

“They're a real bunch of characters. One suggested we get a cable so a little L-5 spotter plane could pull me off.

than hell. We sat there with all these figures and finally decided I couldn't make it.

Hunting Is Fun Again

Construction business is hard work, says Maurice H. Rannels, of Mabelvale, Arkansas, but he likes it. He also likes hunting.

With his hands, but he didn't feel like doing much of anything. He had that ruddy-down feeling, aches and pains, and just didn't seem to have any appetite. Being an active man, he didn't like not feeling well, and decided to do something about it. He heard about how HADACOL had helped many folks with troubles like his due to a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Nicotin and decided to give it a trial. He made a good decision, for HADACOL did help him. Soon, his aches and pains were relieved, he had a good appetite, really enjoyed his food, and he rested well.

Mr. Rannels says: “I am in the construction business, which everyone knows is mighty heavy work. I was working so hard, and just didn't seem to have any appetite at all. I started having aches and pains at about the same time. Then, about that time, I decided to give HADACOL a trial. Right away, my aching was greatly relieved and my appetite picked up. I started eating regular meals, sleeping well and my general condition was greatly improved. I have since continued taking HADACOL regularly, and feel that it is a wonderful product. I freely recommend HADACOL as a good product.”

HADACOL can help you if you suffer such deficiencies. Ask your druggist for HADACOL today.
