Flyer Tells How to Win

AT AN ADVANCED AIRBASE Korea, April 27 (UP)—The aerial battles in "MIG alley" in Korea between our 5th Air Force F-86 Sabrejets and the enemy's Russian-built MIG-15s reaffirm my theory.

A fighter pilot must live by the three A's of aerial combat—aggressiveness, aerial gunnery and air discipline.

By applying these principles and waiting for the enemy to make a mistake, I have destroyed four MIGs, probably destroyed one and damaged four, giving me the lead in my outfit, the fourth Fighter-Interceptor Wing, as well as all other fighter units participating in the war.

The main thing is to see the enemy first and get the initial jump on him. This means altitude on the enemy, greater speed and the maneuverability to get on his tail.

British Ship Explodes Today

LONDON, April 27 (UP)—A Royal Navy armament carrier blew up at anchor in Gibraltar Harbor today and witnesses said the violent explosion sent up a "cloud like that made by an atom bomb." Walls of buildings on shore collapsed and windows were splintered over a wide area.

An Admiralty announcement said the explosion occurred aboard the 1,000-ton ammunition ship, Bedenham. No information on the extent of casualties or damage was available immediately, the admiralty said.

Illegal Entry Is Threat to United States

WASHINGTON, April 27 (UP)—The Justice Department warned today that hundreds of thousands of Mexicans now entering this country illegally constitute a virtual "invasion."

Commissioner A. R. Mackey of the Department of Immigration and Naturalization Service said "the tide of illegal entry from Mexico must be stopped."

"It makes a farce of the immigration laws," he said. "It constitutes a ready avenue for European alien smuggling."

Mackey made the statement in testimony before the House Appropriations Committee made public today. He urged the committee to approve $6,589,400 for the department's border patrol operations next year.

He said the patrol is "our first line of defense against the illegal entry of aliens into the United States."

Assistant commissioner Willard Kelly estimated that the so-called "wet-backs"—wet from swimming or wading the Rio Grande—are now pouring into the United States at the rate of from 500,000 to 600,000 a year.

"They just swarm across," Kelly said. "They do not really need the underground."

He warned that Communists could use the method to "sneak" into this country from Mexico.

If Slaying Didn't Happen In Monroe 'You Must Acquit'

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 27 (UP)—Selection of the jury in the first degree murder trial of the Rev. George P. Hetenyi, town of Amherst, clergyman, was half completed today.

Three jurors were selected during the second day of the trial before County Judge James P. O'Connor, bringing the total number to six.

Defense Counsel George J. Skivington stressed that the prosecution must prove that Hetenyi killed his wife in Monroe County and that the law requires the jury to decide where the crime was committed. If the jurors cannot determine the slaying took place in Monroe County, he told them "you must acquit."

Hetenyi is accused of shooting Mrs. Jean Garais Hetenyi, 24, "on or about April 22, 1949" and depositing her body in the Genesee River near Rochester. He was convicted of second degree murder in the case when originally tried, but the appellate division, fourth department, reversed the decision and ordered a new trial.

No Football At Georgetown

GEORGETOWN, April 27 (UP)—Southwestern University's Board of Trustees today announced discontinuance of football for the duration "because of the present emergency."

President W. C. Finch said the action was occasioned by the decrease in enrollment and the draft of male students.

He added that the present intramural program will be expanded and enlarged. Intercollegiate competition will continue in basketball, baseball, track, golf and tennis, Finch said.

Mrs. K. C. Bunts Dies In Burleson

Mrs. K. C. Bunts, Burleson, passed away at her home there this morning at 6 a. m. She was the mother of Mrs. O. W. Car-wile, Ranger. The bakery will close tomorrow because of the death.

CHICAGO SURRENDERS TO MacARTHUR—General Douglas MacArthur and his party are shown at the top of the ramp of his plane, The Bataan, a moment after it landed in Chicago, Chicago, the nation's second largest city, surrendered itself completely to give the General one of the lustiest reception in its history. Most business houses, factories and schools were closed so that some 6,000,000 people might welcome MacArthur. (NEA Telephoto)

LIONS ELECT NEW OFFICERS AT MEETING HERE THURSDAY

The Ranger Lion's Club met yesterday at the Gholson Hotel and elected new officers for the coming term. Officers-elect will be installed at the first meeting in July.

Pat Thomas was elected President, C. E. May, Jr., polled the winning votes for First Vice President, J. M. Neessele won the spot of Second Vice President, and Dr. C. W. Harris was victor in the race for Third Vice President. B. S. Dudley, Jr., was elected Lion Tamer and Dick Hodges drew the position of Tall Twister.

New Directors elected were Ralph Wagner, Price Crowley, and Dr. Marshall E. Jolly, F. P.

MacArthur Calls For A Stand

CHICAGO, April 27 (UP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur said in a fighting speech last night that the United Nations and the United States need a "realistic" policy in Korea to achieve a clear-cut victory over Communism.

The General addressed 50,000 persons who assembled in Soldier Field, climaxing a day of celebrations in honor of the ousted Pacific Commander.

"I have believed a realistic policy should fill the long existing vacuum left in the wake of Red China's commitment to war against US—A policy designed to affect the early restoration of peace, through victory, with a consequent saving of countless American lives," he said.

"It is difficult to ask men to fight and die unless we give them a realistic mission and the means to accomplish it."

MacArthur took a slap at "those nations with token forces in ratio to our own" in Korea who, he said, have failed to help form a "positive" military and political policy for the Far East.

He had been expected to deliver only an innocuous greeting. Instead he made a ringing declaration of the need for a definite stand in the Korean War.

Ranger Officer Finishes Course

Lt. Col. Sanford Dee Preslar, Ranger, has completed the Legist Staff Officer course here at this base it was announced today by Col. Leslie G. Mulzer, Maxwell commandant.

Colonel Preslar served in the European Theatre of Operation from February 1942 to September, 1945.

75 Nations Represented BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—A total of 840 foreign students representing 75 countries are enrolled on the Berkeley campus of the University of California this semester.

No New Leads In Murder Case

AMARILLO, April 26 (UP)—Police reported no new lead in the meat cleaver murder of comely Mrs. E. J. Hulien today but were holding her estranged husband in restrictive custody for further questioning.

Police Sgt. Henry Aycock said early today that Hulien was expected to agree to a lie detector test at Austin sometime today.

Mrs. Hulien, about 45, was found murdered in the bedroom of her home at about 10 p. m. Wednesday. Much of her scalp had been torn away and her head severely beaten by a heavy instrument, probably a meat cleaver, police said.

Her nude body was found lying near a bed where she had been taking a "sun bath" under a sun-lamp.

Hulien, who reportedly had been separated from his wife for about six weeks, was arrested by officers who found him sitting in a pickup truck outside the bungalow where the murder occurred.

All local members are urged to attend and make the affair successful.

Want Forced Public Hearing Will Install New Officers

WASHINGTON, April 27 (UP)—Senate Republicans, tacitly backed by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, fired a bitter attack at the nation's military leaders today and strove to force public hearings on MacArthur's dismissal.

MacArthur's charge in Chicago last night that American forces in Korea are handcuffed by "inhibitions" and a "policy vacuum heretofore unknown to war" added ammunition to the GOP rolling attack.

An epic battle between MacArthur and the nation's top military command seemed to be building up. MacArthur's supporters in Congress, led by Sen. Robert A. Taft, R., O., criticized Gen. Omar N. Bradley and the joint Chiefs of Staff in almost unprecedented harsh terms.

Other officers to be installed include Dr. Daniel D. Beyer of Fort Worth, Vice-President; Dr. Ross McKinney of Texarkana, elected Speaker of the House of Delegates; Dr. Robert H. Lorenz of Dallas, reelected Vice Speaker of the House; and Dr. A. L. Garis of Fort Arthur, and Dr. Merie Griffin and Dr. Robert J. Brune, both of Corpus Christi, members of the Board of Trustees for 3 year terms.

Government Control of Colleges Leads to Absolute Dictatorship

DALLAS, April 27 (UP)—Denominational and independent colleges are threatened with extinction because of governmental control, Dr. M. E. Sadler, President of Texas Christian University, said last night.

"Only the most favored non-government colleges and universities have much chance of survival," Sadler told delegates to the 64th Texas State Convention of Christian Churches.

The Fort Worth educator singled out government influence as the major threat to independent institutions. He also cited a decrease in veteran enrollment and the number of high school graduates, the drafting of youths and current high employment.

Americans Withdraw Orderly With Minimum Losses to UN

TOKYO, April 27 (UP)—Chinese Communist forces smashed into the Uijongbu area only 11 miles north of Seoul today and rolled back the Allied line all across the front to the east.

Retreating Allied Forces jammed the highways south from Uijongbu through Seoul. The fall of the South Korean capital appeared near.

An 8th Army spokesman said United Nations forces were "disengaging" from the onrushing Chinese Communist offensive all along the western, west-central and central front.

The Red drive roared down on Seoul in two columns. One was ripping straight down from the north through Uijongbu. A second drive was flooding along the highway from Munsan to the north-west.

The Reds also renewed their six-day-old offensive on the central front. Allied units withdrew in the face of the attack. Front dispatches said one enemy unit was spotted "northwest of Churwon."

On the eastern front east of Yanggu the Reds hurled their North Korean forces into battle. Heavy fighting was reported going on east of Inje.

Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the 8th Army, said his forces neither had ended their withdrawal nor established a permanent defense line against the Communist spring offensive.

He vowed to stop the six-day-old assault north of the Han River—50 to 35 miles south of the 38th Parallel—but it was doubted he would fight to save bomb-outraged Seoul on the north bank. Civilians already were fleeing the former South Korean capital and it has no strategic value.

"We are withdrawing in order," Van Fleet told newsmen at a front-line press conference. "We are taking a tremendous toll of the enemy while ensuring only minimum losses to ourselves."

WILL QUIT ARMY AND JOIN MAC

TOKYO, April 27 (UP)—Maj. Gen. Charles Willoughby, for 10 years Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Controversial Intelligence Chief, announced today that he has quit the Army and intends to offer his services to his old boss.

Asked if he had any particular "services" in mind, Willoughby said:

"You bet I have. But I'm not going to tell you now. I have a lot of unfinished business with the Pentagon."

Willoughby announced that he had applied for retirement from the Army after Washington sources reported that he had been "re-called." He submitted his request the day after MacArthur was fired as U. S. and United Nations Supreme Commander, he said.

"I thought I was entitled to retirement after 40 years service in the Army, including the last 13 of them in the Far East without a vacation," Willoughby said. He will reach the compulsory retirement age of 60 next March.

Hope Nothing Happens Now

FORT WORTH, April 27 (UP)—J. E. Parker, General Claim Agent for Texas Lines of the Frisco Railway, hoped today nothing would upset his plans for attending a convention where he is to receive a first-place award.

Parker plans to leave Tuesday for Biloxi, Miss., and the convention of the Association of Railway Claim Agents. He is scheduled to receive a first-place award for an article he wrote on railroad claim work and published in the association's monthly magazine.

Two years ago he was all set to attend a convention to receive another first-place award. But the Fort Worth flood that year wiped out his convention plans.

Cooperate With Chief or Else

FORT WORTH, April 27 (UP)—Fort Worth police faced an ultimatum today to cooperate wholeheartedly with new Chief R. R. Howerton or work under an out-of-town chief.

The warning came from City Manager W. O. Jones, who told officers in two mass meetings yesterday that he did not favor an out-of-town chief. But, he said, one would be brought in if the men did not cooperate.

Jones also told the officers to "stop criticizing the department and your fellow officers, and stand on your own feet."

Going Broke on Ten Cent Fares

BAYTOWN, April 27 (UP)—City bus fares in Baytown were 15 cents today.

The city council last night approved a five-cent increase for adults but kept the student fare at a nickel.

C. Q. Alexander, President of the Tunnel Transit Company, operator of the Baytown Buses, told the council he was going broke on a 10-cent fare.

Freshmen Wallop RJC Sophomores

The Ranger Junior Freshmen defeated the college Sophomores 84-45 to 18-15 in a track meet which was held on the college field yesterday. The affair was sponsored by Coach Dick Henderson's PE Class.

High point man in the meet was Freshman Neil Pearcey who racked up 21 points. Pearcey took first place in the 220 yard dash, 380 yard run, and the 100 yard dash. He grabbed second place in the broad jump. He also ran on the winning 440 yard relay team.

The winner in the shot-put was Bobby Gene Boynton who slung the iron ball 35 feet and seven inches. Dale Haley threw the discus 81 feet and four inches to take first place. In the high jump department there were five jumpers tying for first place. They were Rex Broom, Weldon Smith, Dick Hamm, Neil Pearcey and Bennie Skinner.

Weidon Smith made the wildest jump of the day to capture the broad jump title. He sprang in the air for 19 feet and six inches. Dale Hatley won the 440 yard dash in 62 seconds. Cotton Sanders took first place in the mile run. His time was seven minutes and 25 seconds.

The Freshmen won the 440 yard relay in 49.2 seconds. They were Neil Pearcey, Jerry White, Bennie Skinner and "Jumper" Tompkins. They also won the mile relay. The runners were White and Tompkins, Ashcraft and Smith, aided to bring about the victory. The time was four minutes and 45 seconds. Official scorers were Mickey Foster, Jim Bridges and Doc Holland.

Hearing Today For Sea Captain

MOBILE, Ala., April 27 (UP)—A veteran sea captain was called for a hearing today to answer charges that his negligence led to the explosive collision of two oil tankers in which 39 seamen lost their lives.

The Coast Guard accused both Capt. Edwin G. Geick of Bayonne, N. J., and third mate Jesse A. McLean of Eldorado, Ark., of negligence in the handling of the Esso Suez, which rammed into the Esso Greenboro in the Gulf of Mexico last Friday.

McLean will appear before the board after the hearing on whether Geick's license should be revoked.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, April 27 (UP)—The Army estimated today that United Nations forces have inflicted 35,700 casualties on Chinese and North Korean Communists since the Red offensive Sunday night.

"ROCKET AHEAD" With Oldsmobile. DeSoto Motor Company, Eastland

AN EDITORIAL

By Darrell F. Holmes, Jr.

Too often in our time, do we welcome a new regime with open arms and immediately proceed to forget the good things and those who went down before. For instance in the welcoming of a new newspaper editor...

But today, men are dying while the spring Korean rains are falling. The rains have brought the first bright surge of color to the paddies, where the ripening rice bends in rippling pattern.

To the American Marine or "Doughboy" fighting this war, there is little beauty to the blooming flowers and the turning nature. True, when he looks at it, there is a feeling of loneliness and thought of home.

Tomorrow, more American boys who have never been to Korea and never expected to go there, will fight and die on that distant battleground.

Remember, "It is the duty we owe to the dead who died for us, but whose memory can never die. It is a duty we owe to posterity, that our children shall know the virtues and rise worthy of their sires."

When Jefferson Davis wrote those words, he was speaking of the "Old South" and of her "lost cause" which today's movies are so fond of portraying.

But those words can be inserted into any time in our history when men fight, die and spill their blood. They can be fitted to yesterday, today, and tomorrow.

Washington has one reason for American to fight. Those fighting have another. Men must die—and women must weep—and Truman must get elected.

But in the fox holes of Korea there is another idea. A certain type of self respect comes with the winning over innumeral odds. Come the hell of battle, the might of an aggressor sword, or the block of the Missouri Jackass, which keeps our troops from unleashing their full might, they are heroes—every mother's son.

And if they must die, die proudly they will. There can be no half way mark. There can be no compromise. In this case there is only black and white. If it isn't good its bad. There is no in-between.

Remember the eloquent language of the never-to-be-forgotten Sam Houston?

"Nor shall we withhold the tribute to our grateful thanks from the being who rules the destinies of nations, and has in the time of greatest need enabled us to arrest a powerful invader, whilst devastating our country."

Remember those words, Texans. Live by them. Let's stand straight and walk with proud heads. Let's fight an all-out war or get our boys home from Korea. Is there a man among us who is afraid to fight for what he believes in?

They can not stamp out liberty with the might of the sword. Therefore the radicals in Washington are attempting to stamp it out with the power of the vote. Can they keep us afraid to stand up on our hind-legs like a man and say what we believe, they can swing us to Communism, Socialism, and yes even Trumanism.

There is a time for talking and there is a time for shooting. This is a time for shooting. Truman would "rather talk PEACE." How much peace are the boys in Korea finding?

We need not be statesmen to have our ideals.

Chapter V

"You threw my mother's things out of the house?" demanded Lance.

"Yes, I bought the property at a tax sale and you or no member of your family were around to take the things so I burned them", Grant told him.

"I have no family", Lance told him coolly while looking the officer straight in the eyes deciding whether or not to kill him. Then he spoke, "Grant, you burned my mother's things. I guess the house includes things which were yore family's. Well, I gotta face facts and I see that I can't hope to hold this house despite my talk."

He turned to the Mex nearest him and ordered the place burned to the ground.

As it burned he remarked to the Yankee, "Well blue-belly, you-all got my land. But you won't have the house that my forefather's died to maintain. Let me tell you fella, life won't be much fun. I'm going to drive off every herd you get and wreck any crops you plant."

"You will be arrested and hung, you thug", cried Ann.

"I told you once that I'd worry about that Miss", Lance replied.

He reached over and jerked the insignia off the coat of young Lt. George Grant. Then he straightened him out with a right.

"Well adios", he called as he swung into a saddle and was off, followed by Dan, Pancho, and the Mexicans. John Grant looked in the brush for his pistol which Lance had thrown there but when he retrieved it, the riders were out of sight.

"Quite a mess", moaned Mrs. Grant as she looked at the burning home.

"Seems kinda bad for him to lose his home but he shouldn't have taken his spite out on us," Ann informed the family, "We weren't the cause of the rebellion and the bad times that followed."

"Coar, maybe you and Ann should go back East. Things could get pretty rough down here yet with that hot-headed young fool on the loose."

"I'll get a troop of men and have him by night fall", George announced bitterly.

"Hold on son, you don't know the country and you can't handle a pistol like these rebels."

"Why I was first in my class at West Point Dad", his son brought him up to date.

"Draw and hit that leaf on the tree over there!"

George took the pistol carefully out of his holster and took careful aim. He fired and the leaf fell off the tree.

"Not bad, hur Dad," his son asked proudly.

"No, good son, that young fool would have emptied six slugs into it before you even finished drawing. Let me handle him. I'll offer a reward for him and send two troops out to find him and that outlaw band."

At the same time Lance was holding up the Army pay wagon

several miles down the road. He was sincere in his belief that he was only taking what rightfully was his and that of the people who were living around him. That night he left the money with widows of Confederate soldiers and with ex-Rebs who were disabled by the war. No part did he keep for himself.

City Detective Better Explain

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., April 27 (UP)—Birmingham City detective will be asked today to explain how tools he owned got into the hands of three Texas badmen who were cut down by police machine guns in a safecracking attempt here April 3.

Detective Henry Darnell admitted under questioning at a preliminary hearing for one of the three last night that he bought two steel punches used by the safecrackers. He said the hammer they used was his personal property.

At the hearing, Attorney Roderick Beddow charged that Birmingham police lured the three Texas badmen into a machinegun trap and even furnished them with burglary tools.

Beddow said police conspired with A. G. Sloan, "a known stool pigeon," to entice the kingpin of the Dallas underworld and two companions into a robbery attempt so they could be shot down.

The preliminary hearing was for Tommy Pate, one of three men charged in the burglary. Nick Cascio and G. W. (Jettie) Bass, leader of the Dallas underworld, were wounded in a police trap at a fashionable apartment village April 3.

Darnell admitted that police knew of the burglary several days before it happened. Darnell said he bought the two steel punches at a department store here and marked them and a hammer from his home so they could be identified later.

Beddow said Darnell would be asked today to explain how the tools got into the hands of the safecrackers.

Operators of the apartment village testified that Darnell told them the safe would be robbed and that they removed money from it.

"We are going to prove that Sloan made telephone calls from Dallas, to the chief of city detectives and reversed the charges," Beddow said.

Darnell said he saw Cascio, Bass and Sloan together at a roadhouse near here the Sunday before the burglary. He said Sloan called him March 3 and said there was a gang of safecrackers here from Texas. He said he was informed of the April 3 burglary by telephone.
