COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES ARE SET AT JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Ranger First Methodist Church is expected to be packed tonight when the graduating class of the Ranger Junior College receive their diplomas at the 25th annual commencement exercise which will begin promptly at 8 p. m.

Those attending this Sunday exercise will see the students graduate in what Dr. Grover C. Boswell called, "One of the school's most successful years." Sixty-four seniors are scheduled to receive their scrolls from Dr. Boswell and John A. Bates, President of the Board of Trustees. A number of students will graduate following the completion of summer school. Their names will also be listed in this news story.

Reverend Garland Lavender will present the invocation to the students with Stainer's "The Sevenfold Amen," being used as the response. Doctor E. M. Cain, of Veterans Administration will deliver the address.

An interesting program has been planned for the commencement night and all friends, relatives of students, and students of Ranger Junior College have been asked to attend by college authorities.

The following students are candidates for the degree Associate in Arts at the Ranger Junior College:

Victor F. Adamsen, Geneva June Alexander, Billy G. Allen, Leon L. Bailey, Harold P. Barrett, John E. Beall, Charles Edwin Beene, Raymond F. Bernstein, George C. Bird, Joe D. Bond, Louis Wayne Boynton, Hugh Bradford.

Mrs. Lane Passes Away

Mrs. Alice Johanna Lane, 90, passed away in a local hospital Friday night. The deceased was born in Terrell Station 11, but lived in this community in the home of a daughter, Mrs. A. R. Boss, since 1922.

Her husband preceded her in death Jan. 1, 1911. She was a member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, May 27 at Uvalde with interment in the Uvalde Cemetery.

Mrs. Lane is survived by a daughter who was named above, a son C. W. Lane, Beaumont, and a sister Miss Sue Ferrell, Rochester, Mich. She is also survived by two grandchildren and one grandnephew. Killingsworth Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

SOLDIER IS DROWNED

FORT HOOD, May 26 (UP)—A Fort Hood soldier drowned in flooded Cowhouse Creek yesterday on the Fort Hood reservation when a truck was swept into the stream.

Identification of the victim was withheld pending notification of relatives.

Others in the truck, Pvt. Andrew Cheeks, the driver, and Pvt. Leonard Morris, escaped.

Cotton Crushers Hold Meeting

HOUSTON, May 26 (UP)—Some 500 delegates representing cotton oil mills and related industries of the state will meet in Houston June 10-12 for the 75th annual convention of the Texas Cottonseed Crushers' Association.

The meeting will be themed "Cotton and Cottonseed—community builders" in an address by A. L. Ward of Dallas, educational director of the National Cottonseed Products Association.

J. W. Howell, Jr., of Bryan, president of the organization, announced other speakers as T. H. Gregory of Memphis, Tenn., executive vice-president of the NCPA; Dr. Kenneth McFarland, school superintendent at Topeka, Kansas, and C. B. Spencer, agriculture of the association.

Miss Jeannine Holland of Houston, National Cotton Council maid of cotton, will be an honored guest.

Sessions will be held in the Shamrock Hotel, closing Tuesday evening with a dinner and dance in the Emerald Room.

Empire State Building Sold

NEW YORK, May 26 (UP)—A syndicate of Detroit and Florida Real Estate Men has bought control of the 102 story Empire State Building, the world's tallest skyscraper, for about $50,000,000.

The Empire State Building, which has dominated the New York skyline for 20 years, will be taken over by Roger J. Stevens and Alfred R. Giancy, Jr., of Detroit, and Ben Tobin, of Hollywood Beach, Fla.

They reached agreement yesterday to buy the controlling interest in the building from the estate of John J. Raskob, financier and former Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who died last October.

New Pipe Line Is Underway

HOUSTON, May 26 (UP)—The United Gas Corporation has filed an application with the Securities Exchange Commission asking that the firm be authorized to issue an additional 1,065,330 shares of common stock as part of a plan to finance $170,000,000 worth of projects during 1951-52. The actual issue of the new stocks, however, would be subject to approval of stockholders, according to N. C. McGowan, president of United Gas Corp.

Bible School Nursery Will Be Held Here

The Nursery Department of the First Baptist Church, is conducting Thursday, May 31, from 8:30 to 11:00, a Vacation Bible School for the Nursery department workers for three-year-old children. All nursery workers in the Cisco Baptist Association are invited to attend this clinic. This is the first time that an association wide clinic for this age group has been held according to the pastor, Ralph E. Perkins. Work for the three-year-olds in V.B.S. has not yet been developed into a workable department.

Mrs. Alvis Woods is superintendent of the nursery department in the First Baptist Church, and has taken the initiative in leading out in this pioneering field for three-year-old children. She has accumulated materials from various sources and has been able, because of her public school work to coordinate the materials and work to this age level.

The clinic Thursday will embrace a full three hour period for V. B. S. work. Bible, memory work, hand work, free periods, rest periods, health habits, singing, stories, etc., all for the three-year-old child.

The people of Ranger are invited to attend who are interested in nursery work. Mrs. Woods is assisted by Mrs. T. J. Huling, H. E. Ewing, V. A. Galloway, Charles Cox, H. G. Bridges, Tom Williams, Tom Lovelace, Howard Oliver, Ira Clemmer, Sidney Harton, and Miss Betty Jo Penn.

U. S. Doesn't Have H Bomb

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)—We still don't have the H-bomb. "As a matter of fact," a Congressional Atomic Authority said today, "we still don't know whether we ever will have the H-bomb."

An announcement by the Atomic Energy Commission and Defense Department yesterday said recently completed tests at Eniwetok "included experiments contributing to thermonuclear weapons (H-bombs) research."

But the announcement didn't say or hint that any H-bomb explosions had been set off.

"None have been," the Congressman said.

Other official sources confirm, that "experiments contributing to thermonuclear weapons research" didn't mean a Hydrogen-bomb explosion.

One expert said the Eniwetok experiments "didn't even prove whether we could or couldn't build an H-bomb." As the announcement said, they "just contributed to our research data," he explained.

These sources would not say just what H-bomb research was carried out at the Pacific Ocean proving ground. It is known however, that atomic scientists are seeking all the knowledge they can get about means of making an H-bomb go off against the day when an effort may be made to build one.

It takes heat in millions of degrees. Atomic bombs made of plutonium or uranium-235 produce that sort of heat.

But the big problem is how to sustain it long enough and focus it on the material to be heated and maintain it long enough to do the job. Stars can do it, at their high pressure center, but can man?

House Member Makes Charge

AUSTIN, May 26 (UP)—A member of the House charged yesterday that Gov. Allan Shivers erred when he said the current fight over the state's tax program was brought on by the desire of county officials to obtain state money for their own road-building.

Rep. George T. Hinson of Mineola said the county officials are only concerned "over retention of the benefits now provided under provisions of the Closer-Briscoe Act and the Road Bond Assumption Act."

He believed that "a vast majority of the people of Texas" favor a proposed one-cent tax on the gathering of natural gas.

PANAMA PUTS ARIAS IN A CITY JAIL

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA, May 26, (UP)—Arnulfo Arias, deposed president who tried to be dictator, awaited in jail today to be tried on orders of the national assembly in the slaying of two policemen.

Arias was dragged in disgrace before the assembly last night and convicted of abusing his constitutional power. The assembly barred him from the public office for the remainder of his life.

The deposed president has refused to come voluntarily before the assembly, vowing for the first time in history as a court of justice. So police forcibly brought him into the assembly chamber.

When the government prosecutor concluded reading the indictment, Arias offered no defense. "I am ready for the verdict," he said.

Assembly President Cesar Guillen ordered Arias to stand and hear the sentence. "To be removed from office and deprived permanently of the right to hold public office."

As Arias signed the assembly resolution, he looked up at the people in the crowded courtroom and smiled. Spectators began to sing the national anthem. The assembly interrupted the outburst with the announcement that Arias be remanded to jail to await trial on criminal charges in the shooting of the police officers.

Eighteen persons were killed in the bloody fighting at the presidential palace during the brief revolution early this month.

The assembly then recognized Alcides Arosemena as the president of Panama, to remain in office until October 1952. Arosemena was first Vice President under Arias.

Business Clinic Will Be Held In Ft. Worth Soon

FORT WORTH, May 26 (UP)—A "small business clinic" designed to mobilize small industry for the national rearmament program will be held here June 25-30 under joint sponsorship of the Air Force, Army and Navy, it was announced today.

An exhibit of products now being manufactured for the services will be set up at Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. Displays will be by the prime contractors of the South, Southwest, Midwest and Rocky Mountain regions.

Operators of industries and small businesses which are potential contractors or sub-contractors for the items being produced will be allowed to see the exhibit through June 29 and obtain explanations of blueprints, tolerances and tools, and specifications.

Restriction on the exhibit will be removed Friday, June 30, and the public allowed to see a demonstration of the military production program.

Engineers from the prime manufacturers will be on hand to help the small businessman determine whether he is equipped to contract or sub-contract in the defense items.

Highway 80 Group Make Their Report

The national U.S. Highway 80 Association announced today that a letter from the Commissioner of Public Roads shows that tolls levied on users of highways totaled $1,420,565,000 for 1950.

The letter charged that $907,065,000 of this money was diverted to other uses. Highway authorities have questioned this and have demanded to know the percentage of the federal tax dollar that is allotted to the use of the highways.

It was stated that in order to hold national income at current levels it would also be necessary to increase transportation. Obsolete roads will be replaced under the control of the state highway departments.

United Nations Fighters Smash Across Parallel

BATTLEFIELD LITTERED WITH THE BODIES OF CHINESE DEAD

By Earnest Hoberecht

United Press Staff Correspondent TOKYO, Sunday, May 27 (UP)—United Nations troops poured across the 38th Parallel on three crumbling fronts today in a race to wipe out 80,000 to 100,000 fleeing Reds.

The Allies reached Inje and threatened to seal the main Communist escape hatch on the central front.

U. S. Marines who sped north to Inje on the east central front reported they were capturing scores of Chinese who refused to fight any longer. One officer said UN forces "are taking more prisoners now than ever before."

The battlefields were littered with the bodies of enemy dead, slain by a relentless assault by aircraft, artillery and machine-guns.

The cafe is located across the street from the Oil City Pharmacy and does a large volume of business and is a popular place for Ranger citizens.

Emergency Corps Rescue 2 Today

LA PORTE, May 26 (UP)—A Laporte man and his teenage son were rescued by the Baytown Emergency Corps early today after they had spent a "long night" on a small island in Galveston Bay.

They were G. M. Coons, 42, and his 16-year-old son, Richard. They spent the night on the island, located two miles off shore from here after the motor on their boat went out during a severe rain storm.

The two left home late yesterday to practice casting. When they did not return by nightfall, Mrs. Coons became alarmed and notified authorities.

The Baytown Emergency Corps, which sent out its boat today, found the two on the island.

Coons said the motor broke down while they were off the island and they were unable to reach shore because of heavy seas and darkness.

JUVENILES CAUSE OFFICIALS A CONSIDERABLE AMOUNT OF CONCERN AND TROUBLES

Police and Fire Commissioner, H. E. Angus, and Chief of Police W. G. Bouds stated today that juvenile drivers are causing the Police Department considerable concern, both for the safety of the juvenile concerned and the general public. This fact has been brought about, apparently, by the impression of a few of the juvenile drivers that the Police Department is powerless to restrain them, since they are under legal age.

There have been several instances of willful destruction of property, flagrant disregard for the rights and safety of others, and completely ignoring the admonishments of the officers. Commissioner Angus stated that since it was not the desire, nor the intention, of the Police Department to treat these juvenile drivers as they would adult drivers who consistently violate the laws, it would be the policy of the Department in the future, upon apprehending juvenile violators to take them immediately to their parents and advise them of the violation, and in case of their having inflicted damage to property of others, serve notice on the parents at that time that they will be expected to pay for such damage.

In the event the parents of the juveniles refuse to correct the driving habits, or the attitude of their juvenile child for the property of others or of the public, it is the intention to turn such juvenile over to Judge Davenport, the Juvenile Judge of Eastland County. When juvenile drivers are apprehended driving without

Amarillo Gets 10-Cent Phones

AMARILLO, May 26 (UP)—This Panhandle city soon can claim the dubious distinction of having the first 10-cent public telephones in Texas. Other classes of service will cost more, also.

City Commission yesterday approved basic increases of 36 per cent in phone rates yesterday, nine months after Southwestern Bell applied for a 44 per cent increase.

A. O. Thomas, District Manager of Southwestern Bell, said the compromise rate increase was accepted only because of new revenues from the pay phone rate doubling, and hikes in other classes of service, such as hotels.

The telephone hike finished a round of raises in Amarillo for all utilities but water, which is city-owned.

Air Force Gives Up Hope Today

ST. JOHN'S Nfld., May 26 (UP)—The Air Force abandoned hope today for the 10 men missing since a French trawler was rammed and sunk in the fog-shrouded Atlantic.

An RCAF spokesman said planes, grounded by dense fog since the trawler Gilette Le Borgne heeled over and sank after it was hit by the French trawler Jacques Coeur, had been ordered to end their search.

His statement fixed the death toll in the Thursday night collision at 12—the 10 missing and two who died from exposure.

WILL TEACH FLYING

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)—Texas Aviation Industries at San Antonio, has been chosen to operate a civilian basic pilot training school at Hondo, the Air Force said yesterday.

First class in pre-flight instruction will begin July 9. Hondo will be the fifth such center opened in the current Air Force training program.

"There are so many dead on the hills you have to be careful not to step on them," one GI told United Press correspondent Glenn A. Stackhouse.

The round-the-clock Allied bombings and strafings were interrupted Saturday by a 24-hour monsoon rain. United Press correspondent Robert Vermillion said that it was the longest single rainfall of the year on the western front. He said the boggy roads and slippery hills were great obstacles to the mechanized allies, but the Reds were racing northward through the rain.

South Korean forces on the east coast were reported to have occupied Yangyang, six miles north of the Parallel. Other forces just west of the ROKS were pressing close at the heels of "thousands of retreating Chinese."

American and French elements secured and expanded the bridgehead southwest of Inje, but they were halted by heavy enemy fire 2,000 yards north of the town.

Chinese apparently had moved in during the night with an estimated regiment. Fighting continued at nightfall Saturday.

Robert Graves

Robert Graves To Speak Here

Mr. Robert Graves, Music and educational director of the Southside Baptist Church, Abilene, will be the visiting Choister Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church. Mr. Graves is a veteran of World War II, and a University graduate, has been with the Southside Church for some three years.

Mrs. Graves will accompany her husband here. Mr. Graves is president of the 17th District Music work and is Choister of the Sweetwater Baptist Association.

The public is invited to hear Mr. Graves and the messages in the First Baptist Church Sunday.

Fistfight Ends In Man's Death

HOUSTON, May 26 (UP)—A fistfight in front of a cafe late last night ended in death for one of the fighters.

Ralph R. Nading, 48, was pronounced dead on arrival at Jefferson Davis Hospital. Police are hunting a 30-year-old co-worker of the dead man. Both worked at the Port of Houston Iron Works.

Justice of Peace Tom Maes has ordered an autopsy to determine the actual cause of death although he said blows apparently caused the man to die.

CHURCH NEWS

Because of the Baccalaureate and Commencement Services for the Ranger Junior College, the First Christian church is changing the time for their Evening Service, this Sunday to 7:00 p.m. The evening Worship Hour will be dismissed by 7:45 so that those wishing to attend the later service at the First Methodist Church can do so. Rev. A. Lynn Robbins pastor of the local church has chosen for his theme Sunday night "I Believe In Jesus Christ". There will be fellowship singing and a service of inspiration for all. In line with the "We Believe" series begun last Sunday morning, the topic at the Morning Worship and Communion at the First Christian church will be: "I Believe In God The Father Almighty." Both the Sunday morning and evening messages will emphasize points from the Apostles Creed, the one great Christian statement held in common esteem by all progressive Protestant communions. Church School will begin at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages; and the young people will meet at 6:30 p.m. We invite you to share in these services and receive a real blessing at the First Christian church, a friendly church serving your community.

TU To Have Planning Meet Monday Night

The Training Union Department of the First Baptist Church, under the leadership of Mr. Walter Arterburn, will meet Monday evening at 6:30 for a snack-supper and then their regular planning meeting for June. The Training Union attendance has more than doubled during this church year, and record attendances have been made. The highest monthly average was made during April with 146 average per Sunday. This department of church work gives individual training in all phases of Baptist work, Bible, Missions, Soul-winning Religious Education, school, local and state missions and work with minority groups.

Reception For RJC Graduates

Immediately following the Baccalaureate and Commencement service of the Junior College graduates, to be held at the First Methodist Church Sunday at 8 o'clock, there will be a reception in the basement of the church for the class and their friends. Mrs. P. M. Kuykendall will be in charge of the reception, with other women in the church working with her.

Anderson Has Been Appointed

AUTSIN, May 26 (UP)—Austin F. Anderson, San Antonio City Attorney, has been appointed by Gov. Allan Shivers to be Criminal District Attorney for Bexar County. He succeeds the late William N. Hensley, killed in a jet airplane crash at Dayton, two weeks ago.

Shivers said that Anderson and Harley L. Hardy, now Acting District Attorney, had been highly recommended. But Hardy's appointment was vigorously opposed by Sen. Walter Tynan of San Antonio, the governor said.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

Absolute trust in God, Soul, reveals the beauty of eternal life and lifts mortals out of the desolation of the belief of life in matter, declares the Lesson-Sermon titled "Soul and Body" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, May 27.

The Golden Text shows the first step—desire for the things of Soul, Spirit. It is taken from Isaiah 26, and reads, "In the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee." From the Bible will be read this citation, "The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate" (Psalms 34:22). Also included in the Lesson-Sermon will be this statement from page 247 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, "The recipe for beauty is to have less illusion and more Soul, to retreat from the belief of pain or pleasure in the body into the unchanging calm and glorious freedom of spiritual harmony."

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Clifton have had as their guests this week Mr. and Mrs. Ned Campbell of Hillsboro. Mrs. Campbell is a sister of Mrs. Clifton. Both families visited in Lamesa Thursday.

Famous Novel Filmed

Based on Leo Brady's much-discussed novel, Samuel Goldwyn's production, "Edge of Doom," stars Dana Andrews, Farley Granger and Joan Evans in one of the year's most striking dramas. Granger has the role of an over-emotional youngster who kills an elderly priest during a dispute over the funeral arrangements for his mother. Andrews portrays another priest who is more understanding in his attitude toward the boy. Miss Evans portrays the niece of the slain churchman, who was her guardian. Plays Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Tower theatre.

Young School Chorus Presents Program At 2nd Baptist Wed.

The Young School Chorus gave a program at the Second Baptist Church Wednesday evening at 7:45 p.m.

This was the last appearance this chorus will make this school season. These boys and girls have been working together with their director, Mrs. Clyde Harris and accompanist, Miss Carolyn Pruet, during this school year and have gone far in the field of music. They have made a number of personal appearances for different churches and organizations.

The object of this chorus has not only been to sing together during the school year, but to be trained in such a way that they could assist in the musical program of the various churches from which this group comes. Wednesday night the group

Mr. Aubrey Jameson, of 320 S. Austin will undergo major surgery Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in the West Texas Clinic.

Charles Horton is confined to his home this week with the mumps.

brought, "Let All Things Now Living"; "Swing Low"; and "The Holy City." "It Is No Secret," was brought as a special, and the Neeley children sang, "I'd Rather Have Jesus." Six girls brought "Whispering Hope."

Those taking part Wednesday night were: Donny Carver, Clifford Estes, James McCollum, Weldon Needham, Bobby Wheeler, Jackie Williams, Paula Ray Angus, Desma Eakins, Deann Hazard, Eva Nell Harris, Dorothy Harrison.

Betty Miller, Ruan Owen, Barbara Rodgers, Carolyn Jean Weaver, Jerry Mack Bell, Robin Barrens, Don Deffebach, Jackie Ray Neeley, Tom Sawyer, Jimmy Vinson, Johnny Young, David Wharton, Glen McGough, Barbara Bray, Lynda Ferguson, Ruth McMiller, Gail Ann Rapp, Linda Plumley and two small children, Teddie Joe and Peggy Joyce Neeley.

The group presented Miss Pruet with a gift for her faithful services during the year. After the program the entire group was taken to the Regal Restaurant for treats.

Services For The Church of Christ

The Church of Christ invites you to hear the following sermons: Morning: "Preventive Religion." Evening: "Found to Be Liars." We will have our evening service at 7:00 p.m. for this Sunday only. We are doing this so that all who care to attend the baccalaureate services may do so.

Miss Betty Reuser of Baylor University is home to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reuser.

Rev. Charlie W. Hargraves, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Strawn will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night at 7:30 at the First Methodist Church in Strawn.

Reeder School To Present Program

Final rehearsals are in progress for the annual production of the Reeder School in Fort Worth, an educational project for children which uses the theatre and its related arts as a cultural and recreational outlet.

The Reeder School boys and girls give only one play a season, but they carefully rehearse and so beautifully presented that patrons come from all over the Southwest to see it.

This year the students will offer the medieval French drama, Aucassin and Nicolette, in a poetic and dramatic English translation. The scenes and color, the pantomime and costume design, and the stylized ballet, have been modeled after the blue and crimson and gold illuminations of old manuscripts done by the Monks in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries. The play will be posed against a background of thirteenth century music.

Aucassin and Nicolette will be given from Monday to Saturday, June 4 to 9, in the air-conditioned Little Theatre of Texas Christian University. It will be sponsored by the Fine Arts Department of the university.

Eastern Star To Meet Monday

The stated meeting of the Ranger Chapter No. 275 Order of the Eastern Star will be held Monday evening, May 28, at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Hall.

All officers and members are urged to be present for initiation and election of officers.

ME Conference Year To End Sunday

This Sunday is the last Sunday of the conference year, and we are anxious to make it the best one of the entire year. The services will take their normal course, with Church School meeting at 9:45 a.m. Morning worship will begin promptly at 10:50 with Florence Ashcraft at the organ.

The chancel choir under the direction of Fred Baumgardner, will sing the anthem: "How Lovely are the Messengers," by Mendelssohn.

The pastor will bring the morning message, using for his subject, "The Christ of the Lost." He asks that each one study St. Luke 15: 1-13 in order to be familiar with the background of this message.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet for their evening worship at 6 o'clock. There will be no regular evening service, since it will be the occasion of the baccalaureate and commencement services for the graduating class of the Ranger Junior College.

Miss Hames and Mr. Williamson to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hames of Ranger announces the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Cletis Quoquoise Hames, to Jasper Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williamson of Morton Valley Community.

The wedding will be June 15, at the Harmony Baptist Church, Morton Valley. All friends of both families are invited to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Bob Wymmer is a medical patient in the West Texas Hospital and was reported Saturday as not doing very well.

Death by Violence

Chapter 7

A waiter came over to Cassidy's table and took his order for a drink. Cassidy looked sharply around and observed several known underworld characters. They weren't the type you would expect to find in this high class place but never-the-less they were there dressed in evening clothes.

One of the men he recognized as a Dallas informer. What was he doing here? The guy was a police informer for the Dallas Police Department. He knew better than to talk to the guy in the place so just looked at him awhile out of the corner of his eye. The hood, Jerry Norris, by name was a petty gambler and con-man who often gave information to police in return for safe conduct. Suddenly the man got up and walked towards the men's room. Cassidy waited a minute or so and followed the thug in there.

He opened the door to see the thug standing by the door reading something on a scrap of paper. Cassidy stuck a gun in his ribs before he could move or say a word.

"Hello Norris," Cassidy roared at the racketeer.

"Hello copper," the informer said palely.

"What are you doing out here in Center City?"

"Nothing Cassidy. Just taking a little time off."

The suspended officer let him have a hard poke in the ribs with the muzzle of the .45.

"I asked you what you were doing here and I mean for you to tell me before I take you down to the station and work you over with a rubber hose."

"Honest Cassidy, I'm just passing through."

The thug fell to the floor as the pistol cracked him on the skull. He sat there and blinked his eyes and shook his head. Cassidy pulled the hood to his feet and slapped him across the mouth with the back of his hand several times.

"Now what in hell are you doing in town?"

"Speak up," Cassidy slugged him several times.

"You are messing up my suit"

Cassidy slapped him across the face and jerked his necktie.

"I want to know why you are here. I am not going to ask you again."

"All right. I came down here to meet Mike Dealson and pull a break-in job. But now I ain't a-going do it and you can't arrest me for intent if I don't do nothing."

"No," Cassidy agreed, "But I can take you in on a Vag charge. Lets go."

"Wait a second-Cassidy, I know you cops. You don't just go around and vag a man just cause you can when you don't have anything agin him. What do you want?"

"You know my reporter friend was killed?"

"Oh sure, the guy over at the Daily Blade-Herald."

"Who did it?"

"I really don't know for sure. I do know that Duke didn't do it."

"He's been released."

"Yes, I know I just talked to him."

"Do you have anything on it at all?"

"Very little."

"Let me have what you know."

"All right, in a second. Quick over there like you ain't talking to me. Here comes someone."

A man walked in and Cassidy starting washing his hands. The hood began to read his paper again. When the man left, Cassidy demanded to know what the thug knew.

"What's in it for me? Cassidy"

"Well," the cop started, "We

BEN HOGAN HELD THE LEAD AS TOURNAMENT HEADED INTO THIRD ROUND AT FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, May 26 (UP)—Bantam Ben Hogan held stubbornly to a one-stroke lead over Dentist Cary Middlecoff today as the Colonial Invitational Golf Tournament headed into the third round.

Middlecoff would have taken the lead in yesterday's second round for he was one stroke ahead at the end of 13 holes. But he missed that lead as he went into a brief hiatus that this time could not be blamed on the "al-ltergies" that bothered him early in the year.

When he recovered, Hogan was still out in front by a stroke, just as he was at the end of the first round, with a 129 total and Middlecoff was trailing at 140, even par for the 7,035-yard layout.

Breathing down their necks was Johnny Palmer, the stocky veteran from Badin, N. C., at 141, and seven others at 142.

"Allergies had nothing to do with that," Middlecoff said of his tee shot that splattered off a tree into a sand trap on No. 15. "Nor could grass, flowers or weeds have bothered me when I squirted the second shot from the trap out of bounds."

Their lead as the tournament moved into the third round wasn't a bit secure, however.

Bunched at 142, two-over par, were Ed Oliver of Seattle, Wash., who shot yesterday's best round a 67; Clayton Heafner the 1948 Colonial Champ from Charlotte, N. C.; Julian Broos of Southern Pines, N. C.; Sam Snead, the defending champ from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; Byron Nelson of Roanoke, Tex.; Toney Pennington of Cincinnati, O.; and Tommy Bolt of Durham, N. C.

Among one of this group was in an excellent position to slip into the lead for $3,000 first prize money should the leaders falter today.

Texas League Averages Shown

The Dallas Eagles' Lou Farotto was at top of the heap in Texas League batting this week with a .370 average after 100 trips to the plate.

Official league averages, for games through Wednesday showed the former big state leaguer had rapped out 37 hits, including five doubles, through games of Wednesday. In addition, Farotto accounted for eight RBI's and scored 21 runs.

Farotto's average was topped only by John O'Donnell of the San Antonio Missions, who hit .385 in 26 batting chances.

Tulsa's Don Eggert with 341, Oklahoma City's Frank Kellert with 340, and Johnny Creel, also of Oklahoma City, with 335, finish out the league's top five in hitting.

Austin Knickerbocker of San Antonio remained at the top in homers, having banged out 11, and was second in runs batted in, 37, while hitting a respectable .264. Almost a third of Knickerbocker's hits have been homers.

Kellert of Oklahoma City led in doubles with 15, and was second in homers with nine.

Team hitting statistics for the week favored Oklahoma City, with a .264 average. League-leading Dallas was fourth with .253. San Antonio was second on .261 and Tulsa third with .254.

Supreme Court Examines The Report Today

WASHINGTON, May 26 (UP)

The Supreme Court today examined another report on Federal-State boundaries in the protracted California tidelands oil dispute.

The report was submitted to the justices by William H. Davis, New York Attorney appointed by the court as special master in the controversy over where to draw the exact dividing line between state and federal land.

Davis was appointed after the court awarded the federal government "paramount right" to the oil-rich offshore area in 1947.

Davis was understood to have made no recommendations on how to solve the tangled boundary dispute in his latest report, which will be released some time next week.

Meanwhile, the royalties obtained from oil drillings are being held in a special fund until the controversy is finally settled.

Two thousand years ago, the Britons equipped their chariots with rear-view mirrors of polished iron to prevent attacks from behind.

DR. PEPPER BOTTLING CO.

M. L. KING

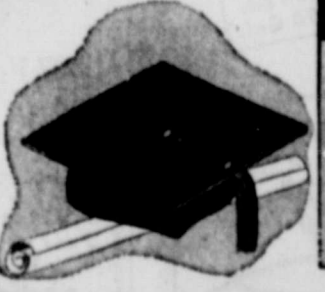

Just a word of appreciation to the faculty and pupils of both the Junior College, and the public schools of Ranger. May we take this means of expressing to each of you our deep feeling of gratitude for the wonderful exhibition of Citizenship in the community, skill in the classrooms, exemplary deportment on the campus, Christian sportsmanship in the realm of athletics and loyalty to the Churches of the city.

If our Church has been able to contribute anything to the support and outgoing of your work in our schools, then we are happy. We feel that we have the most able Christian leadership represented in both our Junior College and in our public school system. Congratulations to the school board for their untiring efforts and to the various organizations for their contributions during these past months.

'No Name Street' Really Exists

DENVER, Colo. (UP)—Residents of four and a half blocks in east Denver live on "No Name Street."

The short street went without a name until the city election commission drew up its precinct map. As the street had no official name, the commission tagged it "No Name St." on the map.

City street workers have ignored the street. Intersecting curbs and gutters have been built right across it and the street never has been surfaced. Houses still face each other across No Name St., however.

The city engineer's office calls it an alley. Residents have mail delivered to adjoining street names.

Three Churches To Take Part In VBS

The three churches participating in the simultaneous Vacation Bible School (V.B.S.) will stage a city wide parade Friday afternoon at 3:30. The parade will come at the close of a pre-registration and worship period to be held in each of the churches beginning at 2:00 o'clock.

The First Methodist, Second Baptist and First Baptist will begin their two week V.B.S. June 1, and classes proper Monday the 4th. All the boys and girls in the city between the ages of 3 and 17 are invited to attend a regularly planned program of Bible study, Bible stories, missions, character stories, memory work hand craft, refreshments, and a recreation period.

The most capable and consecrated leadership have been secured for these important places of leadership.

The pre-registration period or "Preparation Day" program will be arranged by each pastor for the group that plans to attend that particular church. Each church will conduct her own school with the faculty from that church. The school however is open to boys and girls from all churches not having a school or boys and girls who are not in regular attendance in any church. The school is free.

Parents are urged to cooperate in helping their children to arise and be present at 8:30 Monday through Friday June 4-8 and 11-15. The school at the Second Baptist Church will be held in the afternoon 2-4:30.

There will be over one hundred teachers, helpers and workers used in these three schools. The parents are invited to attend at least one session during the two weeks.

STOCKS MOVE IRREGULARLY

NEW YORK, May 26 (UP)—Stocks moved irregularly at the opening today in moderately active dealings.

Price movements were extremely small with a good part of the leading issues holding at their previous close.

Steel stocks steadied. Bethlehem Steel slipped 1-8 to 50 3-8 with 1,300 shares changing hands. U. S. Steel held at its previous close of 40 5-8 on 1,000 shares.

General Motors opened on a block of 3,000 shares at 48 1-8, unchanged. Chrysler slipped 1-8 to 70 1-8.

Elsewhere, a few oil shares displayed strength. Socony-Vacuum rose 1-18 to 28 7-8 on 2,500 shares. Cities Service held at its previous close of 98 1-8.

Small gains were registered by Radio Corp., Anaconda Copper, Norfolk & Western, American Cyanamid and International Paper.

Mission Corp., U.S. Rubber, Southern Railway and Chicago Rock Island fell slightly.

The volunteer group is not only a fire fighting company, but is an organization participating in many civic endeavors. Their motto according to the group is, "Save the homes and you save Ranger."

Study Of Tiny Shrew Brands It As One Of Most Fierce Animals

SPRINGFIELD CITY, Mo. (UP)—No bigger than a mouse but still one of America's most ferocious creatures, the shrew, common to Missouri's forests, worries only about finding its next victim.

The shrew just looks for something to curb its terrific appetite, Missouri conservation commission studies revealed.

The tiny creature, scarcely longer than its scientific name—microsorex hoyi, eats from one to three times its own weight every day.

The shrew's reputation for fast living would make a human routine look like a slow motion newsreel of a Mexican siesta. If the little glutton manages to keep its appetite quelled, it may live to be 12 or 14 months old, the conservation authorities said.

The smallest of mammals, the midget mouse or in the larger shrew could be mistaken for a short tailed variety, for a 'runty rat. It is common to the North American continent and can live as far north as the Arctic circle.

A second cousin to the mole, the shrew lives above ground in leaf mould.

Although Dr. Kinsey hasn't got around to shrews, a naturalist calls them "promiscuous."

"Their only moral necessity seems to be the most rapid increase possible," he said.

At least three litters are born a year, each containing from four to seven naked, blind and toothless babies.

The shrew's metabolic rate is 183 compared to man's stodgy 78. Its chief foods are insects, earthworms, salamanders and tiny rodents.

Nature has provided the hungry creatures with a quick knockout drop for its victims in the form of a poison gland at the base of the front teeth. A single shrew is thus equipped with enough poison to slay 200 mice. Larger shrews are said to be capable of eating a thousand mice a year.

The terrific disposition of the shrew no doubt accounts for the term "shrewish", sometimes applied to the human female.

Men who know shrews best say when you place several together—of the same sex—they immediately start licking their chops to prepare for a banquet at the other's expense.

A lack of shrew food doubtless would cause a genocide among the shrew clan.

Farmers hope that will never happen, for to them shrews are good news. They never damage crops but help to rid field and woodlands of many injurious insects and rodents.

If You're Bored With This Life, Paint It Away, Artist Suggests

By Gay Pauley
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, (UP)—For those who have a frustration gnawing at them, the artist Willy Pogany says it is easy to shed. Just grab a brush and easel and paint it away.

Pogany, versatile Hungarianborn painter, believes that painting will not only ease your inner turmoil but also might uncover hidden talents.

"Grandma Moses didn't know she had talent until she started painting," he said.

Pogany, who never had an art lesson in his life has taught painting to aspirants of all ages and has uncovered a few who went ahead to make names for themselves.

Amateur Succeeds

One ex-pupil was a retired business man who came to Pogany while the artist was living and working in England.

"I'm bored," the business man confessed. "I want something to help me while away my time happily."

Pogany recommended art, gave the man a few lessons and forgot the incident.

Back on the continent on business a few years later, he attended an art exhibit. The painter was the retired business man who told Pogany, "I've got myself into a whole new career."

Pogany argues that most people are frustrated writers, musicians or artists.

"A bricklayer thinks he could write a book—a housewife thinks she could paint if she just had the time," he said.

Pogany is all for the bricklayer writing, the housewife painting.

"Painting is the easiest way to satisfy," he commented. "All you need is a brush, some colors, a canvas and very little training. Music or writing take more know-how."

Pogany has written a book called "water color lessons" (published by David McKay Co.) to help aspiring artists.

"Anyone who can see, can draw," he said. "The mere process of writing a letter is art. You're creating forms in sequence—you are designing a whole page."

Pogany said, "Time was when people thought it amazing, being able to read and write. One hundred years hence, we'll be astonished at anyone who can't paint."

If you shrug off a painting urge with the comment, "I'd be no good," Pogany has this to say: "The term 'good art' is a relative thing. The stuffy critics pan you. But if you and your Aunt Mabel think you're good, well you are."

Electricity On Farm Called Boon to Output

WEST FARMINGTON, O. (UP)—Within seven years, it is estimated that electricity on an average farm can increase by more than 51 per cent the money earned per hour of productive labor.

That's the idea promoted by a practical electrification experiment on the Joseph Motz farm near here.

The evidence that farm electrification more than pays its own way was contained in a report prepared for Westinghouse Electric's farm electrification department.

Since 1944, when electric power first reached the 262-acre Motz farm, records have been kept on the farm's production and progress.

Gustave Frankel said the stocking has not been made that "will survive washing in hot water with strong soap, carelessly dropped cigarette ashes, or the rough grain of wooden chair legs."

Frankel thinks a lot of stockings would be saved if women would roll them down to the toe before putting them on. Rough finger nails and chapped hands are two of the worst hazards to hosiery, he said.

The other way to save money, Frankel said, is to use heavier stockings for every-day wear. No woman can wear sheer stockings for "strenuous, active wear and expect them to last," he said.

The report said intelligent use of electricity on a farm can eliminate a great many man-hours of hard work and do a better job at considerably lower cost.

The experiment is being carried out under conditions identical to those faced by the average farmer. Motz bought new electrical equipment at retail prices, using only the profits from the farm's operations to do it.

In 1944, the farm returned 66 cents for each hour of work he put into the various productive enterprises. By 1950, the return had increased to $1.17 for each hour of work. By reducing the time required for basic farm operations, Motz and his son had more time for other enterprises, or for leisure.

The report pointed out that although farm prices have increased during the seven-year period, the cash return on the Motz farm has kept well ahead of the general rise in prices received for all commodities.

Motz said that although there is no such thing as push button farming, electricity has proved to be one of his most valuable and inexpensive hired hands. He said that unlike many other services, the more of it he uses, the cheaper it becomes.

HARMONY BAPTIST CHURCH
Joa Smith, Jr., Pastor
(Morton Valley, 7 miles West of Ranger).

In the beginning the Great God created man in His own image. He gave man the Sabbath Day and said "Keep It Holy." He gave man a code to live by, known as the Ten Commandments. Although today THREE of every FOUR people in America are unchurched... He gave man the Church and hoped he would be a worshipper in it, at least, every Sabbath Day. The Cosmic Judge of all the earth will reward our deeds with fairness. Whether to sleep or not to sleep through the hour of worship at your Church each Sunday... that is the question?

Typical of many of the "unchurched group" is the scene above... "The Sunday Morning Sleeper." There is little justification for the habitual "Sunday Morning Sleeper." Man's creation was such that it is necessary for him to gain strength and courage for the battles of life from the influence of the Church and the teachings of Jesus.

Jesus said that "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

A comfortable bed on Sunday morning with radio and a newspaper, wonderful as they are, cannot "tone up" and sweeten a life like an hour of worship in the Church of one's choice. Man needs something luxuries cannot give. He must be fortified for the gruesome tasks which may lie ahead; he must have Jesus on his side.

There is a certain reassurance that comes from the toll of the Church, Bell and singing of the choir. Be a worshipper in the pew of your Church every Sunday. "You need the Church... The Church needs you." You'll find her doors ajar. Don't Be a Sunday Morning Sleeper.

Have Fun On Your Vacation, Ivan That Is, If You Can Wangle One

United Press Staff Correspondent
FRANKFURT, Germany (UP)—Okay, Ivan, it's spring and just like your capitalistic cousins, you're thinking of a vacation.

Nothing simpler. Doesn't it say right here in article 119 of the Soviet Constitution that:

"The right to rest and leisure is ensured by the establishment of the eight-hour day—annual vacations with full pay for workers and office employees, and by a wide network of sanatoria, rest homes and clubs to serve the working people."

In an article in its "Eucom (European Command) Information Bulletin, the U. S. Army gave its soldiers a peek under the iron curtain, to see how it all works out for Ivan.

Evidence compiled from Soviet magazines, newspapers and documents is used by the Army to show that the Soviet promises are as phony as a three dollar bill.

Let's begin by looking at the travel folders.

It turns out, according to the U. S. Army, that there aren't any. Ivan, it seems will be assigned a factory permit which tells him which of the "wide network" of health resorts he may attend.

How about costs:

Two weeks will cost a minimum of 500 rubles per person. That means 2,000 rubles for Ivan, his wife and the two children. Ivan's salary is only 600 rubles per month (about four rubles to the dollar.)

Ah, but the constitution says "annual vacations with full pay."

To have a prayer of cashing in on that one, the Army report says Ivan will have to qualify among the favored 10 per cent of Russian workers. In other words, Ivan must be in line for the Soviet system of favoritism rewards.

So Ivan, you'd better forget that eight hour day and get your self recognized as a "Stakhanovite."

How?

Well, Comrade, you simply put in long shop hours under a "speed-up" system that enables you to exceed your assigned production quota.

After Ivan has qualified as a "Stakhanovite" his problems are by no means over. The factory funds may have disappeared or the rest homes may have out the "no vacancy" signs.

"Embezzlement of trade-union funds earmarked for workers' vacations, which is not an unusual practice in the USSR, cuts down the number of workers who can go to health resorts," the report of the U. S. Army said.

For instance: A recent letter to the editor of the Soviet publication Trud complained that all the 16,000 rubles of the factory vacation fund disappeared when section chiefs in the plant tapped the till to pay for their own vacations.

How did they get into those workers' rest homes, clubs and the like?

Well, Ivan, the horrible truth, as the U. S. Army explains it, is that "directors of resorts have been known to invent occupational diseases for influential persons so that permits could be allotted them."

Let's suppose our boy makes it. Does he take along his golf clubs, tennis togs, and enjoy the luxury of fine food and comfortable accommodations.

Hardly, says the U. S. Army. "Workers who do manage to get to a health resort are often disappointed with the service they receive," the report said. Frequent complaints from vacationers usually center around the lack of qualified doctors, general indifference of the staff to the vacationer's wishes, the uncomfortable and often draught rooms, poor quality and monotony of the diet and the lack of any recreational facilities."

So long, Tovarish. Have fun.

Virginia Mourns Her Pet Steer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—Virginia Cox of Hollywood, Miss., bemoans the fact that she's all washed up in her chosen profession at the age of 13.

Virginia says it was a cruel quirk of nature that made her too soft-hearted to become a professional livestock exhibitor.

Virginia raised a prizewinning Aberdeen-Angus steer for the mid-south junior livestock show. After the show, the animal was sold for $483.

Virginia isn't happy with the money. She wishes she had her gentle bovine, Buster back.

"Buster was almost human," she cried as the animal was led away. "Now he'll be a steak—or roast."

Virginia has had various other pets—birds, stray kittens and

French Cracking Down On Reds From Abroad

By Thomas G. Hardie
United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS (UP)—The French government, a loose coalition of center parties, is stepping up its effective cold-war attack against foreign Communists.

The latest move in the French strategy, which began last fall, was the ban on the Communist-dominated "world peace partisans" congress.

"Our aim is not to outlaw the French Communist Party," a French official explained. "We only want to cut the bonds between the French Communist network and the Kremlin."

In the "old days before the war," he said, the French Communists received their orders from the Russian embassy in Paris. Now French Communist bosses can go back and forth between Paris and Prague, which is reportedly the headquarters of Communist activities throughout Europe.

Decline Admitted
Even the Communists themselves admit their strength is declining. In 1946, when they were still in the government, they boasted of 1,000,000 members. Now they claim only 800,000 followers and even that is believed slightly exaggerated. The figure is closer to 750,000, according to impartial observers.

Although the Communists were thrown out of the government in 1947, it was not until last Fall that any strong action was taken against foreign Communist influence.

Rene Pleven, then premier, led off with a mass round-up of Spanish Communists, chiefly in southern France.

Russian-language publications have been banned since the Frederic Joliot-Curie, Communist atomic scientist, was eased out of his post as atomic energy commissioner.

In addition to the "peace" congress, French offices of the Communist World Federation of Trade Unions, the World Federation of Democratic Youth and the International Federation of Democratic Women were closed earlier this year.

Army Cleaned Up
The French also have eliminated most Communists from the army. Their infiltration into army ranks is now almost "negligible," according to both French and foreign official sources.

In mid-1949, official reports showed that between 10 and 15 per cent of the army's conscripts, five to 10 per cent of company-grade officers, two to three per cent of senior officers and one to two per cent of the French generals were Communists.

How British Cavalryman Lost Out In Revolution

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., (UP)—A Revolutionary War veteran still is thriving here. The veteran is the famous Tarleton red oak, believed to be between 400 and 500 years old. Davey tree experts report it is kept in finest possible condition. It stands on property owned by the Standard Oil Co. of Virginia.

On June 4, 1781, a British cavalryman, Banastre Tarleton, set out with troops to capture Gov. Thomas Jefferson and the legislature. He might have succeeded, too. However, he pitched his tent under the inviting branches of the oak just long enough for a Reverend-like ride to warn the patriots by Capt. Jack Jouett, of the Continental Army.

War Worker Hunts Bereaved Parents

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Mrs. Ina M. Allan became "Mom" to the thousands of service men who squeezed into the New Zealand club she ran during the war and now she's looking for some of their parents.

"Mom" Allan is in the United States looking for fathers and mothers of allied fighters she knew before they died on Japanese-held beaches.

As organizer and managing director of the Allied Services Club at Wellington, New Zealand, Mrs. Allan saw more than 30,000 uniformed men and women come to the recreation center every week.

They found, besides recreation, food and assistance with all sorts of personal problems.

American Marines, soldiers and sailors mingled there with British, Dutch, New Zealand and Australian service men.

She is proud that of the more than 1,000 marriages between Marines and New Zealand girls, she engineered a large number.

Mrs. Allan said she wanted to talk with and comfort the gold-star parents of servicemen she once knew more than to visit the New Zealand brides of U. S. wartime visitors.

For example, pointing to a silver crucifix inscribed "from Mother and Dad" she wore on her wrist, she said:

Hollywood Film Shop

By Patricia Clary

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—The best figures in Hollywood belong to dancing stars, Gene Nelson, dancer contends.

Nelson wasn't thinking of himself or of the other male dancing stars, although they cut good figures too. After careful, non-professional observance of feminine figures, Nelson has decided that the women who dance have the best.

Here's Nelson's list of the eight most beautiful bodies:
Virginia Mayo, Betty Grable, Doris Day, Alice Faye, Ginger Rogers, June Haver, Eleanor Powell and Ann Miller.

"Dancers, every one of them," he said. "They're all hard-working dancers, too. The kind of dancing they do is work, but it gets results. It has given all of them pretty legs, beautiful legs."

Nelson, in his short Hollywood career, has danced with Miss Haver, Miss Mayo and Miss Day. In "Painting the Clouds with Sunshine," now in production at Warner Bros., he has three partners, Miss Mayo and two newcomers, Lucille Norman and Virginia Gibson.
