Ranger Soldiers Receive Packages

Mrs. Ebel Brooks Gilmore, reporter for the Auxiliary to the Ralph L. McKinley Post 5873 Veterans of Foreign Wars, has received a number of replies to the packages that the Auxiliary sent to Ranger soldiers overseas. Mitchell T. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe Wallace, wrote to his mother that he was thrilled by the arrival of the VFW Auxiliary package and asked his mother to express his thanks to the women.

Mitchell's (Mickey) address is: Mitchell T. Wallace, F. N., L.S.U., 466 Navy 3016, P.O., San Francisco, Calif.

Cpl. Gene Boney wrote to his wife, Marie, (Harper) that the package was a great surprise and he enjoyed the books and candy. He asked that she convey his appreciation to the Auxiliary. Cpl. Boney is stationed on Koje-Do Island five miles south of Korea. A prison camp for North Koreans is maintained on this island.

He wrote that another Texan, formerly of Ranger, was stationed on the Koje-Do, he is Lt. Col. Hughes.

Cpl. Boney's address is: Cpl. Gene C. Boney, 18106290, 1st M.P. Escort Guard Co., 92nd M.P. Battalion, A.P.O. 58, Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

The Auxiliary received the following letter from Claude Cunningham:

Dear Ladies:

Thanks for the nice package you sent me! It was appreciated very much. Thanks especially for the home made candy and reading material. Good reading material is very scarce here.

I enjoyed the chamber of commerce pamphlet on Ranger, I did not know my home town had so many assets.

I am sending you a 100 Won note that you may get a kick out of. It's no longer any use here. At the present rate of exchange 100 Won would be worth 1-60 of a dollar.

I received a letter from W. H. Bendes a few days ago. He is ten miles north of Seoul.

Claude Cunningham, H.M.S. H 4 S. Co., 12 Bn. 7th Mar. 1st Mar. Div. F.M.E., 20 F.P.O. San Francisco, Calif.

The Auxiliary will send Christmas packages to Ranger overseas soldiers and anyone is welcome to contribute reading material, homemade candy and cookies and other items. Pearl Wheat, Highway 80 is the head of the overseas package committee.

DAMAGE ESTIMATED TO BE 250 MILLION FROM HEAT

DALLAS, Aug. 18 (UP)—A $250,000,000 heat wave which has claimed 39 lives since Aug. 4 held Texas in an unrelenting grasp today.

The vast heat wave covered an area roughly comparable to distance from the tip of Maine to the border of North Carolina, and from Boston as far west as Cincinnati.

Most of the state has had no rain since July 2 and temperatures have soared as high as 116 stations have recorded 100-plus degrees.

Since Aug. 1, almost all temperatures daily, State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White estimated crop loss at a "quarter of a billion dollars."

Conditions worsened at the rate of "millions of dollars" daily. The state's anticipated bumper cotton crop of 5,000,000 bales has been reduced 1,000,000 bales by the prolonged heat wave, White said.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said there was no sign of a major break in the heat wave. A squall line whipped across the upper Gulf coastal region late last night, but it failed to bring widespread rain.

Gusty winds up to 68 miles per hour lashed Houston but the city recorded only a trace of rain.

Temperatures yesterday ranged up to 108 degrees at Wichita Falls. Forty Southwestern Bell Telephone operators staged a "heat strike" at the North Texas City to protest overheated offices.

Operators also walked out at Children in a similar demonstration.

Norman L. Dorman Science Teacher At Jr. College

Dr. G. C. Boswell announced today that Norman Lee Dorman has been secured as the science teacher for the college.

Mr. Dorman has an MA degree from North Texas State Teachers College. He has been student assistant at North Texas for the past year.

Dr. Boswell also announced that W. W. Smith, the new dean of the college is on the job.

Smith comes from the superintendency of the public schools at Melrod, Texas. Smith has several years of teaching experience, an MA degree from East Texas State Teachers College.

His wife and two daughters have moved to Ranger with Mr. Smith and they are residing at the Park Place apartments. The daughters are Jean, 10 and Betty, 6.

Mrs. Smith is also a teacher and has an MA degree and has taught in the schools for a number of years.

Pilot Injured In F-8F-1

BORGER, Aug. 18 (UP)—Navy pilot Richard Longarine of Amarillo was slightly injured yesterday when his F-8F-1 plane crashed on a highway three miles south of here.

Amarillo Air Force Base officials said the plane was enroute to Amarillo, but would not disclose its home base.

Witnesses said the plane, issuing billows of smoke, circled at low altitude for several minutes before crashing.

More "Human Guinea" Pigs Volunteer

FROST, Aug. 18 (UP)—A mass medical experiment here that drew criticism from leading doctors, may be extended to include many of the 40,000 residents of Navarro County.

The experiment involved 470 volunteers from Frost. They received five anti-rabies injections to determine whether the vaccine could ward off polio.

Dr. Will Miller, head of the Navarro County health unit which conducted the experiment, said "we've been overwhelmed by calls from people throughout the county wanting in on it."

He said that after 10 days or two weeks observation of the Frost volunteers, "we may arrange vaccination dates for all others in the county who want it."

The start of the experiment last Monday brought numerous warnings from doctors. They said the "human guinea pigs" might suffer paralysis or even death from the daily rabies injections.

Dr. Miller reported, however, that reactions from the vaccinations have been "much fewer than normal."

"We took no chances," Miller said. "A few who had headaches, dizziness, or tummy aches were refused additional shots, although they wanted them."

"The Frost experiment now has moved into the observation stage," Miller said. "The records of the injections will be compiled and turned over to Dr. Herbert F. Hipsps of Waco."

Hipsps evoked the theory that rabies shots might serve as a safe guard against infantile paralysis. He said that Frost volunteers would be observed over a period of years to determine if they have less susceptibility to polio than other Texans.

Frost was selected for the experiment because it recorded 19 polio cases last year and had six of Navarro County's seven reported cases this year.

The revival has renewed in the hearts of all of our members a deeper interest and concern for the work of the Lord," Rev. Massenge said today. He further said that he believed that many people outside the church membership had been greatly benefited by the services.

A baptismal service will be held at the Sunday night meeting. The church has its own beautifully installed baptistry in the auditorium of the church. All desiring to witness the baptizing will be welcome to attend.

Plans will be discussed next Wednesday night at the mid-week service for a training class to begin soon on "The Meaning of the Christian Life." All members are needed in attendance. Visitors are always welcome, a spokesman said today.

Two College Boys Toss Coming Out Party For Selves

CHICAGO, Aug. 18 (UP)—Two college boys with the "suppressed desire" to be debutantes for an evening, staked their own coming-out party and the hostess reported today that it was "simply a wow!"

Mrs. Arthur Farwell said the 70 guests had a "perfectly wonderful time" as they frolicked on the moon-drenched lawn of the swank suburban Geneva estate.

Frederick Bartlett Farwell, a sophomore at Yale and Richard Scoville Davis, a Stanford junior, were co-hosts for the "young bud" affair. They headed a receiving line carrying bouquets in their arms.

Guests also were encouraged to come dressed as their "suppressed desire." One dour-faced youth carried a sign which said he had just been drafted and proclaimed that his only desire was to remain a civilian.

The girls who attended also brought flowers for the boys and assisted in the turn-about by asking the boys to dance and helping them with their chairs.

Strong Battle Line Must Be Maintained

Coach Warden Is Impressed By The Pre-Season Show

Coach O. C. (Stubby) Warden was certainly impressed by the eagerness of his football players to start practice for the 1951 football season. As he arrived in town yesterday he drove by the football field, as usual, to see how much the grass has grown. Instead of looking at the grass; he had his eye on something more impressive to watch, as several of his football players were taking exercise and running in order to get in shape before practice, August 27.

Coach said "that it really looks good to see them out working on their own and getting in condition before football practice starts. They are a swell bunch of boys and they really love their football or they would be in a cool shade some place instead of out there running in the hot sun. I also noticed Junior Arterburn, Bill Yung and a few other ex-Bulldogs working out, before reporting to college practice."

If Coach Warden's Bulldogs end up at the wrong end of the "totem pole," it won't be because he isn't keeping up with the progress of the game. He has attended some five football coaching schools or football clinics this summer. At this round of schools and clinics he had had the opportunity to hear some of the great football coaches of the country.

Warden said "there isn't anything to coaching—if you had eleven boys that weighed over 200 pounds and could run the hundred yard dash in 10 seconds flat."

The football field will be in better shape and has more grass on it than any year that Coach Warden has been here. It needs to be as the Bulldogs will play their first four games at home, and then they will be on the road until they play their last two games here.

Red Cross Says Relief Fund Will Be Used Up

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (UP)—The Red Cross has reported that "substantially all" of its disaster fund—planned to last the entire year—would have to be used for rehabilitation in the Midwest flood area.

Red Cross president E. Roland Harriman said that at least $10,000,000 of the $11,000,000 set aside for disaster services in 1951-52 would be used to aid 27,000 midwestern families stricken by the floods.

In a letter to all Red Cross chapters, Harriman warned that there would be "little or nothing" left for disasters which might occur during the next 10 months.

New B-Vitamin Isolated At UT

AUSTIN, Aug. 18 (UP)—Isolation of the first member of a new B-Vitamin family was announced yesterday by the University of Texas.

Dr. Lester J. Reed, 26-year-old University of Texas Biochemical researcher, and Dr. I. C. Gunsalus of the University of Illinois combined to complete the isolation.

The University announcement said the new vitamins are a "key factor in utilization of carbohydrates, one of man's major sources of food."

Two years of experiments preceded the final effort in isolating "Alpha Lipic Acid" from liver.

Governor Warns Ku Klux Klan

WHITEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 18 (UP)—Gov. Kerr Scott warned the Ku Klux Klan today that he is 100 per cent behind the threat to arrest anyone who wears a mask at a highly-publicized rally near here tonight.

Scott sent word to solicitor Clifton L. Moore that he will send extra state troopers and bureau of investigation agents to his southeast corner of North Carolina where they are needed to enforce anti-masking laws.

Grand Dragon Thomas Hamilton of Lenoire, S. C., said thousands will be "in full regalia" of robes and hoods at the rally despite Moore's threat to arrest all maskers "whether there are one or 1,000."

"There is no law to prevent you from wearing anything you want on private property in North Carolina," Hamilton asserted.

Moore disagreed. He said in 1869 law forbids any political organization to appear masked in public and contains an extra clause that would prevent the Klan from leasing private property for a masked meeting.

Moore said he has 300 students who have made application for the master's degree at North Texas State College.

Jo Oyler Awaits Masters Degree At NTST College

Jo Oyler of Ranger is one of approximately 300 students who have made application for the master's degree at North Texas State College.

Miss Oyler, daughter of Mrs. Mass Belle Oyler of Ranger, has applied for the master of arts degree in English.

UN TROOPS OPEN OFFENSIVE ON TWENTY-FIVE MILE FRONT

By Peter Kalischer, United Press Staff Correspondent UN ADVANCE BASE BELOW KAESONG, Korea, Sunday, Aug. 19 (UP)—The chief United Nations truce negotiator said Saturday night that the Allies must keep a battle line capable of stopping any Communist attack "until final settlement of the Korean problem seems assured."

It would "definitely be foolhardy, and perhaps be disastrous" to accept a cease-fire line along the 38th Parallel as the Communists demand, Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy warned in a formal statement.

A four-man armistice subcommittee prepared to meet in Kaesong again at 11 a.m. today (9 p.m. Saturday EDT) in an attempt to fix an armistice line in man-to-man talks under a news blackout.

It was reported they were making good progress in a friendly atmosphere.

But in addition to Joy's statement and the blaze of action a-ground and in the air, it was disclosed that North Korean premier and commander in chief Kim Il Sung had called on his entire people to defeat "the American aggressors" if the war continued.

Kim made the statement Wednesday but it was broadcast only late last night by his Pyongyang radio.

Kim said the United States asked a cease-fire conference because of "its military and moral defeat" but was delaying truce talks and trying to seize North Korean territory.

"This conference has revealed their military defeat and the aggressive nature of their imperialism," Kim said of the Kaesong talks.

Admiral Joy warned in his statement that the Communists could legally end an armistice at any time, under international law, by giving advance notice after building up their forces along the truce line.

The UN command backed up his statement that the Allies must keep a powerful line by throwing troops, guns and planes suddenly into battle.

Thousands of UN fighting men opened an offensive on an unspecified 25-mile front under cover of a gigantic artillery bombardment and the shrieking attack of Allied planes on enemy positions.

In the air, United States and Russian-built Red planes fought two battles over North-west Korea.

One enemy plane was probably downed, another was damaged before the two Communist plane fleets fled.

UN command headquarters at this advance cease-fire base released tonight a formal statement by Admiral Joy in which he made clear to the Communists the exact position of the UN on the truce-line deadlock. The Allies want a line based on the present front, the Communists demand a line drawn on the 38th Parallel.

"The primary mission of every military commander is to insure the security of his forces at all times," Joy said. "It is a paramount and inescapable obligation of which we must never lose sight...."

It would definitely be foolhardy, and perhaps be disastrous, for either commander to expose his forces along a political demarcation line rather than to place them in a sound militarily defensible position where they can protect themselves in the unfortunate event hostilities should be resumed....

"We have a solemn obligation to our fighting men to afford them maximum security during the armistice.

"An ever increasing military threat capable of being launched from across a few kilometers of any demilitarized zone which is based on an imaginary Parallel of latitude would be intolerable.

"We must retain defensive positions...."

"We must keep our military guard up until the final settlement of the Korean problem seems assured."

Britain Gives Iran Ultimatum On Oil Deal

TEHRAN, Iran, Aug. 18 (UP)—Britain gave Iran an ultimatum today to accept its proposals for settling the oil dispute or British negotiators and British experts in the oil field will pack up and go home.

The tough British statement came only a few hours before a scheduled show-down negotiating session. It produced an immediate and angry reply from Iran.

Vice Premier Hussein Fatemi told newsmen: "We shall not submit to threats of a breakdown in negotiations."

He disclosed that Iran was arranging with 16 unnamed countries to buy oil from Iran rather than accept Britain's offer to market the nation's oil and split 50-50 on the profits.

"We shall not give any country sole monopoly for the sale and distribution of our oil," Fatemi said.

The British ultimatum came from Richard Stokes, chief British negotiator and his nation's Lord Privy Seal, in a general statement of Britain's position.

It came just as the Iranian senate voted overwhelmingly to accept a $25,000,000 loan from the U. S. Export-Import Bank to rehabilitate the nation's economy crippled by the loss of oil revenues for the past month.

Stokes said Britain was prepared to pull its remaining 150 oil experts from Iran almost immediately unless a speedy settlement was reached.

U. S. Presidential Adviser W. Averell Harriman, who convinced the two countries to resume oil negotiations last month, has been informed of the British ultimatum, Stokes said.

Stokes' proposals call for a British-run purchasing organization to market Iran's oil and a 50-50 split between the two countries in oil revenue. They acknowledged Iran's ownership of the oil industry, however, and would turn over all holdings of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company to a purely Iranian concern.

The Bishop for this district stated to Mrs. Pull and Mrs. Earnest that he would send the Nuns here to teach the school if the enrollment stipulation could be met.

Three Nuns will be sent here from San Antonio if the enrollment is or exceeds 42 for the coming year.

I CAUGHT a glimpse of the angry face of Mrs. Dalyrimple my next-door neighbor, peering through the doorway across from my own.

"It's all right, Mrs. Dalyrimple. These men are going," I turned to Nanabarro. "Better run along."

"A grand for the film," repeated Al Nanabarro to Nick Ricardo.

Ricardo took it and Nanabarro reached into his pocket and counted out 10 $100 bills. Ricardo removed the film and handed it to Nanabarro and took the bills.

Nanabarro turned to me and I gave him back his gun. "Get this straight, Marshall. That thing at the club happened just as I planned. When I try to kill somebody, I don't miss."

"How about the Fountain Parkway miss?"

"I had no part of that."

After he and his pals had gone, I mixed two drinks and handed one to Ricardo, who looked pleasantly surprised. I pulled up a chair and sat opposite him. "Too bad I didn't have the money to bid for the pix."

"What pix?" Ricardo laughed. "Do you think I'd get anything worth printing in this kind of light, even with my lens and fast film?" Nanabarro said the highest price ever paid for a roll of blank film.

Ricardo had been at the La Jolla Club when Nanabarro had rounded up his little party and the reporter had followed to see what was cooking. He found my front door jimmied and my door unlocked.

"Look here, Marshall, you were in a bad way when I waltzed in with my little camera! You owe me some cooperation. I don't want to see Tanner run Star out of the law business! Star's the best copy I ever had! What is the low-down on what's going on?"

I gave him a thoughtful look.

"CHURCH" FOR THE AUTO AGE—The Rev. Dr. Ernest Lyman Mills, pastor of Dorchester Methodist Church, conducts services at Boston's first "drive-in-church." The congregation, many of them in bathing suits and play clothes, heard the sermon through individual speakers hooked into autos in the same manner as for open-air movies. The drive-in-church is an idea taking hold in more and more cities as ministers seek to compete with the Sunday driving urge.

Unseen Bullet Causes Death Of Showoff

WATERBURY, Conn., Aug. 18 (UP)—Herbert W. McDonald, 17, wanted to prove to his girl he had plenty of courage.

He pulled out a .22-caliber revolver and said he was going to play a game more dangerous than "Russian Roulette."

In Russian Roulette one bullet is placed in the cylinder of the gun. Then the cylinder is twirled, the weapon placed against the head and the trigger is pulled.

State Police Sergeant James E. Stack said McDonald wanted to impress Miss Harriet Harrison by not bothering to twirl the cylinder at all.

As she looked on, McDonald inserted a cartridge into the cylinder.

He held the gun to his head and pulled the trigger.

It went off, killing him instantly.

"Actually, the boy put the slug into a chamber he knew would not be infiring position when he pulled the trigger," said the officer.

"But what he didn't know," said Stack, "was that there was a second bullet in the gun all the time."

Higher Gasoline Taxes Imposed By States

CHICAGO (UP)—Vacationing motorists this year are paying the highest gasoline taxes in history.

Levies were raised this year in seven states and another four states extended "temporary" tax boosts to make the rates the highest ever, the Commerce Clearing House reported.

Only three states reduced their rates—Georgia, New Mexico and Nebraska, by one cent each.

Michigan raised its tax by 1 1/2 cents, and one-cent increases were levied in New Hampshire, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, Wyoming, and Illinois. Kansas, Nevada, Oklahoma and Pennsylvania extended present gas taxes which were due to expire this year.

The highest rate in the nation is in Louisiana, which has a tax of nine cents a gallon. The lowest is in Missouri, at two cents a gallon.

The states taxes are added to a 1 1/2-cent federal tax per gallon, and to the city taxes which are levied in many communities.

More than $2,000,000,000 was collected in all types of gasoline taxes last year.

would get out of bed to answer a telephone. Then I opened my eyes. The sunlight came reproachfully into the room, and the clock on my stand said 9:30. I got up and answered the phone. It was Sonya.

"I want to see you," she said, "but I've nothing to wear. Clara promised to pick up some clothes at my place during her lunch hour. Can you come over here?"

I couldn't argue that Sonya would look good sinking around in the a. m. with the deep V thing on, so she gave me Clara Maybew's address.

I had a fine time shaving. My face didn't look as bad as I thought it would, but it was plenty sore. My ribs ached, too, where Nanabarro had kicked me. As I started for the garage a window screamed upward and Mr. Shelton, the superintendent, called to me.

"Mr. Marshall," he said, "I've had complaints this morning. Mr. Lesingwell, in the apartment beneath you, wants me to evict you. Mrs. Dalyrimple said she saw no less than two women of the looser sort visit you late at night. And Mr. Buscher in 2-C said you put on a regular drunken brawl. I demand an explanation."

"Well, Mr. Shelton, bless your heart, you're certainly entitled to an explanation. First, a lady magician armed with an automatic pistol picked the locks and entered my room surreptitiously where she lay in wait upon my arrival. Whether there would have been bloodshed is problematical, for we were interrupted in our tete-a-tete by a mortician and the employe of a burial vault company. Afterwards a chorus girl tricked me into opening the door and admitting three desperate gunmen. I might have been killed but for the timely arrival of a photographer with a candid camera and the intervention of Mrs. Dalyrimple. After all parties had departed I went to bed and had a good night's sleep. And, oh, by the way, Mr. Shelton, the uncouth hoodlums jimmied your front door lock as you will no doubt notice. Just send the bill to me."

Cotton Picker Shortage Grows

AUSTIN, Aug. 18 (UP)—The acute shortage of cotton pickers in Texas continued to grow today, the Texas Employment Commission said.

The TEC estimated an additional 45,000 pickers were needed, up 3,800 from last week.

The most severe shortages centered around south-central and Houston areas as cotton ripened prematurely from continued heat.

The largest demand for field hands in the Lower Rio Grande Valley was at Brownsville, the TEC said.

Elderly Woman Killed In Wreck

FORT WORTH, Aug. 18 (UP)—A two-car collision just west of the city limits of U. S. Highway 80 last night proved fatal to Mrs. A. J. Wemple, 80, of Ft. Worth and inflicted injuries to six other persons.

Pretty 17 year old, Betty Sue Bradley of Dublin, has been selected Queen of the Pre-Madison Square Garden Rodeo to be held at Dublin, Texas on August 29, 30, 31, and September 1. Last year Miss Bradley was one of the Texas sponsors at the Madison Square Garden Rodeo in New York which is produced by Everett E. Colborn of Dublin, Texas.

A Central Missouri homeowner shows a Red Cross disaster worker how Missouri River flood waters tore out walls inside his home. He and his wife managed to save only a few pieces of bedclothing. Throughout the Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Illinois flood area 425 trained Red Cross disaster workers assisted by hundreds of chapter volunteers are engaged in the Red Cross' biggest part of its disaster job, helping more than 20,000 families back to normal resting homes, furniture, livelihoods for those without means to help themselves. All help is given outright, not lent. Flood relief contributions to local Red Cross chapters will finance this help, now costing almost double the original $5,800,000 Red Cross estimate. This help to individual families is not included in the $25,000,000 authorized by Congress for restoration of public works, essential businesses, etc.

HOLLYWOOD, (UP)—Nerves and jitters keep many an actor from fulfilling his early promise. So it is also with dog actors. Tex Chambers, owner and trainer of a remarkable mongrel named Mr. Troubles, soon to be seen on the screen with James Cagney and Phyllis Thaxter in the Warner Bros. picture, "Come Fill the Cup," is the authority. Chambers says Mr. Troubles is too smart for his own good and will have to quit learning new tricks for several months. "He's taken about as much as he can for his age," Tex said. "If I keep hammering new commands into his little head, he will get nervous and jittery just like some actors do and pretty soon he won't be any good at all."

Close to Record
Tex thinks Mr. Troubles can claim some sort of record among canine geniuses for having learned 71 commands by the age of four and a half months. He is eight months old now and knows 87 commands, about half of which he will perform in his first movie.

"Right at this point he has learned how to accept knowledge," Tex said. "That's the most important thing. I'm going to let him relax now and make a game out of the commands he knows without giving him any more for a while."

Chambers picked up his dog at the Los Angeles pound when he was only eight weeks old.

Police Get Call; House In Street

DALLAS, Aug. 18 (UP)—The police dispatcher radioed at dawn today:

"Car 43 — investigate a house blocking the street on Ferris near Oakland."

Sure enough, officers found a house squatting in the middle of the narrow street.

$10,000 Offered To Prove Frank Dalton A Fraud

CHICAGO, Aug. 18 (UP)—A Chicago publicity man says he'll pay $10,000 to anyone who can prove that the J. Frank Dalton, who died this week in Texas, was not the legendary Jesse James.

Rudy Turilli, press agent for a cave that James supposedly used in his stick-em-up days, said "I'm interested only in proving history wrong. The $10,000 offer still goes."

He said he had affidavits from old members of the James gang that he believes proves that Dalton really was Jesse.

Frank "Pa" Belt of Keokuk, who spent his boyhood in the James brothers' home town scoffed at them.

"Dalton's claims that he was actually Jesse James just aren't true," Belt said. "I was coming home from school in St. Joseph (Mo.) on the day James was shot. I saw his body."

Turilli said that the man who was shot to death there by turn-of-mind gang members was really a Charlie Rigelow.

Yesterday he exhibited a set of fingerprints taken from Dalton and said they matched prints left by James on guns and other objects.

Ft. Hood Soldier Drowns While On Training Swim

TEMPLE, Aug. 18 (UP)—A Fort Hood soldier who drowned in Inks Lake Wednesday was identified today as Pvt. Glenn O. Hufford of Tulsa, Okla.

Hufford's body was recovered yesterday, 42 hours after he drowned while undergoing amphibious training with the 1st Armored Division.

A Fort Hood spokesman said Hufford apparently became entangled in the lake with some 300 other trainees.

Chains In Doorway Keep Flies Away

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass. (UP)—Two restaurateurs, Alfred J. Conti and Antonio Lucchesi claim they've chained the flies out of their luncheonette.

"Better than a screen door," Conti said, displaying a curtain of eight-foot chains that form a barrier at the shop's door.

Conti got the idea while traveling in Italy, where chains are hung in doorways to discourage inbound flies. The slightest movement of the chains, even by a breeze, he said, is enough to chase the flies away.

The chains used by the restaurant here are aluminum and painted red, white and blue.

Army Secretary Will Address Oil Association

Dallas, Aug. 18—Secretary of the Army Frank Pace, Jr., has accepted an invitation to address the 22nd Annual Meeting of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association in Beaumont, October 8-9. Charles E. Simons, Dallas, vice president and general manager, announced Saturday.
 Secretary Pace is the second highest-ranking government official to accept an invitation to speak at the Texas Mid-Continent meeting. Secretary of the Interior Oscar L. Chapman will dedicate the new Lucas Engineering Building at Lamar State College of Technology October 9. The ceremony will be held in conjunction with the Texas Mid-Continent meeting and will climax the 50th anniversary observance of the Spindletop discovery.

Arkansas-born Frank Pace is one of the youngest members of the top administrative echelon in Washington. At 39 he already has served as general counsel for the Arkansas State Department of Revenue and assistant to both the Postmaster and Attorney General of the United States. He was Director of the Bureau of the Budget before taking office as Secretary of the Army in April 1950.

Former OSS Men To Be Tried In Absentia

TURIN, Italy, Aug. 18 (UP)—An Italian court will try two Americans in absentia if they are not extradited to face charges of murdering their commanding officer in Italy during a World War II cloak-and-dagger mission, a court official said today.

Roberto Borghese, procurator general of the Turin Tribunal, said the prospects for extradition from the U. S. of former Lt. Aldo Icardi and former Sgt. Carl G. Lodolec appeared "slim."

"But there is no doubt that the trial of the Americans will be held in absentia if they are not extradited," Borghese said.

He said the trial would be held either at Verbania or Novorra. He would not give a date, but it was expected the trial would be in either September or November.

The Americans have been charged along with two Italian partisans with the murder in 1944 of Maj. William V. Holohan. The slain major headed an Office of Strategic Services mission which included Icardi and Lodolec behind the Nazi lines in Italy.

The two Italians, Giuseppe Mannini and Gualtiero Tozzini, are at present in prison at Verbania, near the scene of the murder on Lake Doria.

Italian police said Mannini and Tozzini confessed their complicity in the slaying and named Icardi and Lodolec as the "key figures."

Icardi is the director of the Bureau of the Budget before taking office as Secretary of the Army in April 1950.

Oklahoma Town All Set For 2nd "Sucker Day"

WETUMKA, Aug. 18 (UP)—Wetumka's second annual "Sucker Day," set aside to commemorate the mass fleecing of the townspeople by a fast-talking city slicker, got off to a good natured start today.

A parade of floats depicting how F. Bam Morrison "suckered" the town early last summer was the big attraction.

Morrison took the Wetumka citizens for hundreds of dollars when he blew into town posing as an advance man for a "big, three-ring circus."

"Naturally, the circus will need mountains of supplies," he told Wetumka citizens. In three days he sold them advertising time on the circus sound truck, talked them into purchasing hay for the elephants and watched them greedily stock up on extra hot dogs and pop.

At the same time he graciously accepted free lodging and hospitality.

When the circus didn't show up, merchants smiled warily and declared last Aug. 19 "Sucker Day." The extra supplies were pooled and the town threw a free feed for everyone.

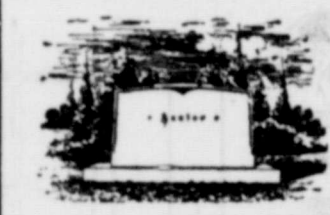

Business boomed and the publicity was a tremendous boost for the Oklahoma City.

Now the only thing that is lacking is Morrison himself, the father of "Sucker Day," and there was an outside chance that he might show up to accept the plaudits of his victims.

A telegram sent from Denver and signed F. Bam Morrison was received by the local newspaper

Batting Honors WT-NM League In Two Way Battle

By United Press

Crawford Howard of Amarillo and Glenn Burns of Lamesa are locked in a torrid battle for West Texas - New Mexico league batting honors.

Howard, in latest averages covering games of Monday, had a one-point edge over the Lobo outfielder, .382 to .381, but Burns had him bested in three other departments.

Burns was leading the league in hits (181) with Howard second (171) in total bases (299) and Howard again second (287), and in runs batted in (154), where Howard ranked a poor third (117). Jim Stokes of Lamesa, whose 120 RBI's ranked him second there, was in fourth place in the batting race at .364, two points back of teammate Glen Selbo.

Stokes' 46 doubles were tops for the circuit, while Pedro Santiago gave Lamesa almost a sweep of individual honors with the lead in runs (185). Les Mulcahy of Amarillo held the home run lead (28); Frank Murray of Amarillo lead in triples (16), and Ed Fenelon of Abilene was in front in stolen bases (23).

The 18-3 record posted by Jesse Priest of Albuquerque was tops among the pitching averages, but three other hurlers had won more games. Ed Arthur of Lamesa had a 20-10 record, Fred Schmidt of Abilene a 19-4 mark and Carroll Dial of Pampa a 19-11 record.

Bradford's Tour Nine States While Vacationing This Month

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bradford have returned from a tour of 8 states, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

They met their son Albert, Jr., in Williams, Ariz. and from there they visited some of the main points of interest. Among which were the Grand Canyon, Zion National Park, Bryce Canyon, the famous Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, where there is the largest pipe organ in the world.

They visited two of the big gambling establishments in Las Vegas. One was the Last Frontier and another was The Golden Nugget. It is said Las Vegas is the largest gambling center in the world.

The Bradfords spent two days and nights sight seeing in the Yellowstone National Park, hardly realizing that Texas could be suffering from a heat wave. They reported that it was cold there. They said that the day they left Yellowstone Park on Friday, Aug. 10, they could have walked fifty yards from their car on the highway and roll snow balls.

On the return trip they drove completely across the Great Salt desert via the famous speedway on the vast salt flats. Also made a visit through the Hoover Dam (formerly The Boulder Dam) going down in the elevator 543 feet and walking down 52 steps, entering the Nevada side and coming out in the state of Arizona.

They spent some time visiting the Longhorn Ranch and museum 85 miles east of Albuquerque. In addition to all of the marvelous sights created by God and man they reported seeing vast fields of grain, some just beginning to be harvested and some still green. All up and down the Utah Valley they saw huge crops of corn taller than a man's head as green as could possibly be in full silk and tassel.

During the whole trip the Bradfords reported that they had a big thrill in seeing people read and comment on the little slogan Albert had on his Buick "From Ranger and going Back." Only one person remarked to them "Why?" Otherwise everyone seemed favorably impressed and commented on the unique and attractive slogan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bradford visited recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Mittag, formerly of Ranger, now of Eunice, New Mexico, and also in the home of Mrs. Bradford's brother, Frank Taylor of Jal, New Mexico.

His work in the mountainous regions of Kentucky is of non-denominational faith, far from telephones, 25 miles from nearest railroad, and where most of the roads are creek beds.

The highlight of the evening service will be a story of his missionary work that is being carried on there with the use of color slides which will be shown during the service.

At the morning service, the male quartet, composed of Arthur Defebach, Gaston Dixon, Fred Bonner and Willis Clark, Sr., will furnish the special music. Miss Florence Ashcraft will be at the organ.

Roads Geared To Hum At Careless Drivers

CHICAGO (UP)—Streets and highways that protest out loud when drivers go on the wrong side of the road are being adopted in many places throughout the nation, the American Public Works Association says.

The warning device is a 24-inch wide concrete separator with a scored surface, placed flat between the traffic lanes. It emits a loud hum when tires run over it and thus warns careless drivers to get back in the right lane.

First used experimentally in New Jersey, it now is being installed in the reconstructed six-lane New London turnpike Cranston, R. I., the association said.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

Genuine and enduring happiness comes from God, Spirit, not matter, says the Lesson-Sermon titled "Soul" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 19. The Golden Text is from Psalms: "Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul... Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths." From the Bible will be read this citation: "Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good" (Romans 12:9).

Further emphasizing that God bestows only good upon all his children is this statement from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Unselfish ambition, noble life-motives, and purity, — these constitute individually and collectively true happiness, strength, and permanence."

Farmers who use anhydrous ammonia are urged to be on the alert for hazards that might cause accidents. If this source of nitrogen is handled properly and the right kind of equipment is used, it is no more dangerous to store and apply than the hazards that go with many other farm operations.

Palominos Will Be Judged Just As Palominos

ABUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 19 (Special) — For the first time in the history of the New Mexico State Fair, Sept. 29 - Oct. 7, Palomino horses will be judged just as Palominos, and will not be divided into stock and pleasure types.

This so-called "One-Type Palomino Show" was initiated following the recommendation contained in a resolution passed by the New Mexico Palomino Exhibitors Association at the last Annual Membership meeting. The Association said that in presenting the One-Type Show it has put the NMPEA on record as encouraging the standardization of the Palomino to the end that it may eventually become a breed.

To be eligible for the State Fair Show, stallions over two years and mares over one year must be registered in the records of PHBA. Stallions under two years and mares under one year must be eligible for registration.

11 breeding classes will be offered: Stallions foaled in 1951, 1950, 1949 and 1948 or before; mares foaled in 1951, 1950, 1949, and 1948 or before; geldings, any age (must show in performance classes); produce of mare and get of sire.

The NMPEA is offering trophies to first place winners in all performance classes and to the Champion Stallion and Champion Mare. Performance classes will be featured each night at the rodeo, and in addition to special classes for Palominos only, the Clover Leaf, Barrel Races and Cutting Contest will be open to Palominos. $500 will be offered in the Cutting Contest, plus extra money. Trophies for this as well as the Barrel Race will be offered jointly by the NMPEA and the New Mexico Quarter Horse Association.

Entries for the Horse Show will close September 17 and judging for Palominos will take place on Tuesday, October 2. An interesting sidelight to the Palomino Show will be a meeting of the Executive Officers of the Palomino Horse Breeders of America, headed by President Glen O. Perkins of El Cajon, Calif., and H. Arthur Zappe, of Mineral Wells, Texas, Secretary - Treasurer. A special breakfast meeting will be held for NMPEA members at Youth Hall during the Fair.

Tests Prove Newsprint Made Of Sugar Cane

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 18 (UP) — Tests at the United States Forest Products Laboratory this week showed that newsprint stronger and whiter than the ordinary variety can be made from sugar cane waste, a laboratory official said last night.

G. H. Chidester, chief of the Pulp and Paper Division, said newsprint made in the tests "had physical properties approaching closely those of standard newsprint made from wood."

The newsprint was made from sugar cane bagasse, a fibrous material left after juice is extracted from cane stalks. Sugar mills in the United States, Cuba and other countries produce millions of tons of bagasse each year.

Chidester said the bagasse newsprint was considerably stronger and "much whiter" than the wood variety, but it let a little more light through. He said that could be corrected by minor adjustments in the processing.

Joaquin De La Roza, New York inventor of the bagasse process, said he plans to build a $15,000,000 plant at Clewiston, Fla., to make newsprint from the sugar cane by-product.

Suicidist Was Really Loaded

NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (UP) — Ralph Nicholls, 40-year-old clerk, tried hard to commit suicide because he "had a lot of worries," but was in good condition today at Kings County hospital.

After Nicholls was rescued from his gas-filled apartment in Queens yesterday, doctors pumped his stomach and recovered 3-4 quart of wood alcohol, 1-4 pound of DDT, the equivalent of 12 sleeping pills and 18 aspirin tablets.
