Rawest Recruit In Many A Year Joins The Army

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 3 (UP)—The rawest recruit in many a year settled into Army routine today and officials took his tale of a homeless childhood in a remote mountain hermitage at face value.

Peter Grainger, a gangling 26-year-old New Mexico prospector's son, told Army recruiters he knew there were such things as automobiles, but he had never ridden in one.

He never even heard of the draft. Grainger said he decided to join the service after his father died.

"I buried paw on top of the mountain and then started out to join the Army," Grainger said.

He was sworn in yesterday. Recruiting officers termed the case apparently "one in a million."

"I thought they'd just give me a uniform and a gun and send me out to fight," he explained.

OPS Chief Gives Reason For Ban Of News To Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (UP)—Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle took great pains to point out that his new information policy isn't meant to gag OPS employees.

DiSalle ordered employees of the Office of Price Stabilization yesterday not to discuss any steps under consideration by the agency until the actions get final approval.

But he emphasized that he merely wants to keep his employees from giving out misleading information—not all information.

The new policy statement reminded employees that they must "safeguard" data collected from businesses on a confidential basis as required by law.

DiSalle told reporters later that he did not intend to gag OPS employees. He issued a supplemental paragraph to the policy statement which said:

"If any meetings, interviews and conferences, OPS personnel should be careful to avoid the possibility that persons may be confused or suffer harm due to an impression that OPS will take certain actions when the decision to take such actions has not been finally determined."

Veterinarians, Nurses Wanted By Government

The United States Civil Service Commission today announced new examinations for veterinarians (trainees) and medical technical assistants, both for filling positions paying $3,100 a year.

The position of veterinarian (trainee) are with the Bureau of Animal Industry in the Department of Agriculture and are located at field stations throughout the United States.

Medical technical assistant positions are in medical facilities operated by the Public Health Service in Federal penal and correctional institutions throughout the United States.

DiSalle told reporters later that he did not intend to gag OPS employees. He issued a supplemental paragraph to the policy statement which said:

"If any meetings, interviews and conferences, OPS personnel should be careful to avoid the possibility that persons may be confused or suffer harm due to an impression that OPS will take certain actions when the decision to take such actions has not been finally determined."

Taft Makes Most Of Being Only Candidate Now

By United Press Coast-to-coast presidential politics by both parties neared the boiling point today with Sen. Robert A. Taft, the only announced candidate for either party, playing his one-man performance to the fullest.

The Ohio Republican's potential opposition for the GOP nomination in 1952 mostly waited off-stage in the wings for the proper psychological moment to make their entrance.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Harold Stassen — with Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R., Ill.) a possible dark horse — were those mentioned most frequently as the men Taft would have to beat for the Republican spot.

But all of these declared flatly — but indirectly — that they wanted no part of the nomination.

Democrats keep mum about who would be their standard bearer in 1952 as they waited to see what President Truman would do. Most observers were convinced he would run.

Taft spoke to a 100-a-plate dinner of 4,000 Republican faithfuls in Chicago last night. He told them the nation was faced with a "crucial" test in 1952. He said the issues either were "progress" with the GOP or "socialism" with the Democrats.

FBI Arrests Ex Atomic Worker With Uranium

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 3 (UP)—The FBI today announced the arrest of a former Atomic Energy employee and said a four-pound bar of uranium had been found in his home at Sand Springs, Okla.

The suspect, Robert Sheldon Mathews, 21, was charged with illegal possession of uranium, a violation of the Atomic Energy Act. He was freed on $1,000 bond after arraignment before U. S. Commissioner E. Lawton Bragg in Tulsa.

D. A. Bryce, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Oklahoma, said in Oklahoma City that Mathews was employed at the Hanford Atomic Works at Richland, Wash., from June until a week ago. Bryce said Mathews quit to go on active duty in the Army, as a second lieutenant.

The uranium bar, cylindrical in shape was about four inches long, was found in Mathews' home when he was taken into custody.

Mathews admitted taking the metal but said it was worthless. He said he had taken it because he "just wanted something for a souvenir."

"It's a minor molehill and they are making a pretty big mountain out of it," Mathews said after his release here.

He said he couldn't reveal details of the incident "because of security regulations." He declined to say just where the uranium was obtained or what job he had at the atomic plant.

Mathews holds a degree in chemical engineering and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tandy S. Mathews of Sand Springs. His father is an accountant, with offices in Tulsa, and his mother is an employee of a Tulsa department store.

Uranium, regarded in recent years as one of the world's most precious metals, is used in manufacture of atomic weapons. Federal officials would not say whether the metal is processed uranium or an ore.

TRUCE TEAM MAKES PROPOSAL AFTER FOUR HOUR DEADLOCK

By ARNOLD DIBBLE United Press Staff Correspondent PANMUNJOM, KOREA, Nov. 3 (UP)—The United Nations sought to break a deadlock in the Korean truce talks today by proposing that disputed Kaesong be made a neutral city.

The Communists retorted that they still want to keep control of the controversial city, which is three miles south of the 38th Parallel on the western front.

However, UN spokesman Brig. Gen. William Nuckols said the Communists did not "categorically turn down the proposal."

If accepted, the surprise UN compromise proposal could mean a major step toward agreement on a Korean armistice. Nuckols said he could not predict the course of the talks tomorrow, but the meeting promised to be one of the most dramatic sessions since the armistice conference was reopened Oct. 25.

U. S. Maj. Gen. Henry I. Hodes made the neutral city suggestion in the form of a 20-word hypothetical question after the subcommittee had spent nearly four hours on fruitless discussion about the conflicting claims to Kaesong.

A UN communique said Hodes asked the Reds if they "would consider placing—Kaesong in an adjusted demilitarized zone."

Nuckols said the informal question represented a "new turn of thinking." While it would not give the UN what it wants for the defense in depth of Seoul, he said the proposal would make the former capital secure than if the city remained in Communist hands.

Hodes and U. S. Rear Admiral Arleigh A. Burke had spent the entire morning and most of the afternoon session in a vain attempt to persuade the Communists to swap Kaesong for UN-held Korean islands north of the 38th parallel.

Chest Drive Lags Due To Weather; $2000 Thus Far

The Ranger Community Chest drive is advancing rather slowly due to the bad weather that has ensued during the early days of the drive.

It was stated this morning that "we have a little better than $2000, in spite of the weather holding up some of the committees from getting their pledges in."

With the goal of $6500 still far away everyone is urged to do their part toward making the drive a success this year. This one drive will take care of all the solicitations from charitable organizations in Ranger.

The drive is slated to continue through next week, if you have not given to one of the committees, do so today.

2 Million Are Draft Eligible WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (UP)—Some 2,000,000 men will be eligible for the draft until they are 35, rather than the normal cut-off age of 26.

A Selective Service official said a special provision in the new draft law permits these men — now deferred — to be drafted after they reach their 26th birthday. Those affected were under 26 when the new law was signed by President Truman on June 19.

Currently, there appears to be little chance that the men will be called up. But Selective Service said many may be called in 1953 when draft officials expect to be hard pressed to fill quotas.

Truman Vetoes School Aid Bill

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (UP)—President Truman's veto of a school construction bill threatened today to widen the breach between the administration and Southern Democrats.

Most Southerners still in town declined to comment publicly until they have studied Mr. Truman's veto message. But they indicated disappointment with his pocket veto, which killed a measure authorizing federal school construction in potential defense areas.

Mr. Truman said he turned down the measure because it had a rider enforcing segregation of school children on military bases in southern states.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (UP)—Illness is not expected to stop Sen. Pat McCarran's one-man investigation of the institute of Pacific Relations on the west coast.

THE STORY: John Clayton, former civilian scout, is captured and adopted by the Sioux. He falls in love with an Indian medicine woman on North Star, who is kidnapped by an old enemy named Slatemeyer. Clayton rescues her and Slatemeyer is captured. Clayton who has promised Star to bring her the best of an enemy, requests a "trial by knife" for Slatemeyer. This means that Clayton and Slatemeyer will duel to the death with knives.

XXI WHILE I waited, I examined the knife. Peering closely at the shoulder of the blade I made out the flowing Spanish inscription. M. Villalobos, Toledo. MCCLXIV Mangus Colorado indeed! Cortez himself may have sheathed this slender scabbard.

My fingers tightened on the aged haft. A strong warmth flooded up my knife-arm, seeming to come in pulsing waves from the strange foreign blade lying so lightly in my right hand.

Hearing my name called, I glanced up. Star was seated upon a raised dais across the ring, behind the row of lancers. Around her squatted and stood the medicine men of the tribe. As my eyes found her she raised a slender arm toward me, calling out softly, "Courage!"

Smiling in return, I noticed she was carrying something in her other arm. I perceived it was the sacred buffalo-hide doll owned by every holy woman.

But now I had a figure more compelling than a rawhide doll to examine. Slatemeyer was entering the ring. All the man promised by the way his buckskins drew over the curve of thigh and hips now stood revealed, for he was naked as I, save for a loose doekin breech-clout and bare-bladed knife.

There is no use describing that physique. It was faultless. A big, powerful, highly-trained fighting man with shoulder, arm, belly,

Well, Slatemeyer had blooded me and I was beginning to fight. It may seem peculiar that one who claims the combat record I lay could be so unstrung as was I in the opening of the duel.

The full answer lay in the knives. A knife is not in the white man's weapon. He fears it, he hates those who use it. The white man will brace any man with a pin pricks weak at the sight of bare steel.

I REMEMBERED a cute little thing Yellow Bird had taught me. Drooping both hands to my sides I moved straight in. My opponent stooped, crouching. As I came up to him he struck at me, his right arm throwing the knife at my left side. I moved to my right, shifting the blade to my left hand in the movement, whirling it at him in a backstroke as his body rushed by me.

Classically this maneuver is designed to make your enemy miss, his miss carrying him past you, his left side grazing your right. Without the shift of knife hands you would also be out of position, but with it you are ready as his body passes yours to strike to the rear into the kidneys. The dancer lies in making the shift of hands too soon, allowing him to twist away from it.

I made the shift beautifully but was so farred by the impact of his body brushing past mine that the backstroke was deflected. The blade found not the soft kidney fat but the hard fiber of the great back muscle.

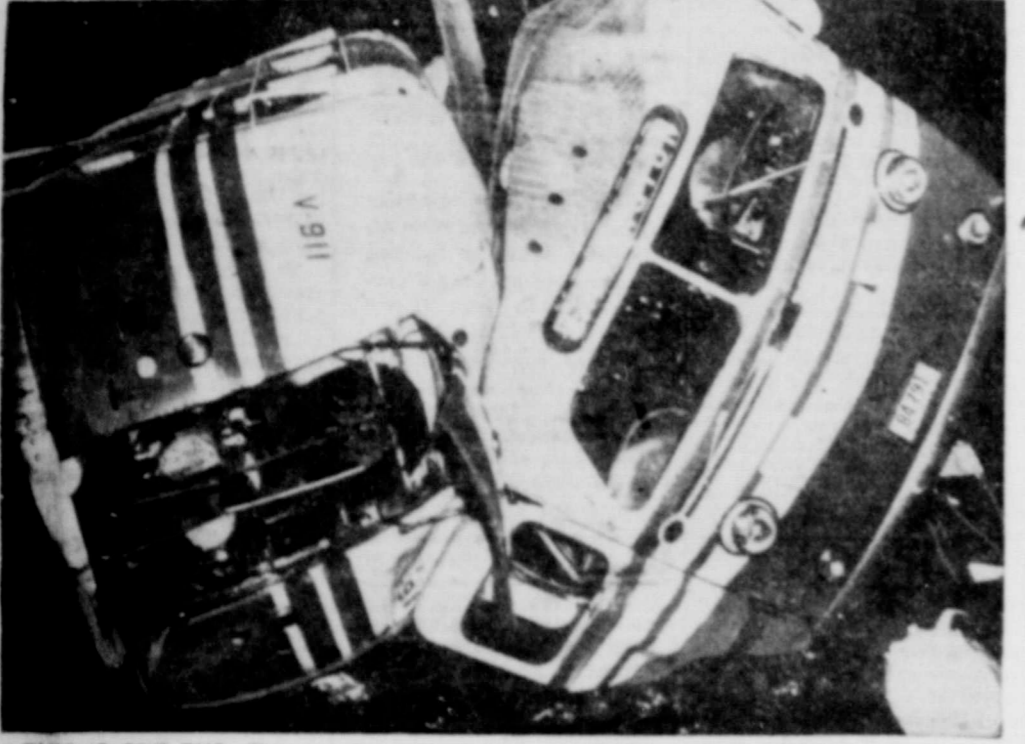

Slatemeyer turned in mid air as the steel entered his back, freeing himself of the blade. But I felt it so deep.

Arm-locked we struggled, his weight and strength driving me backward. I felt a sudden weakening of his left hand.

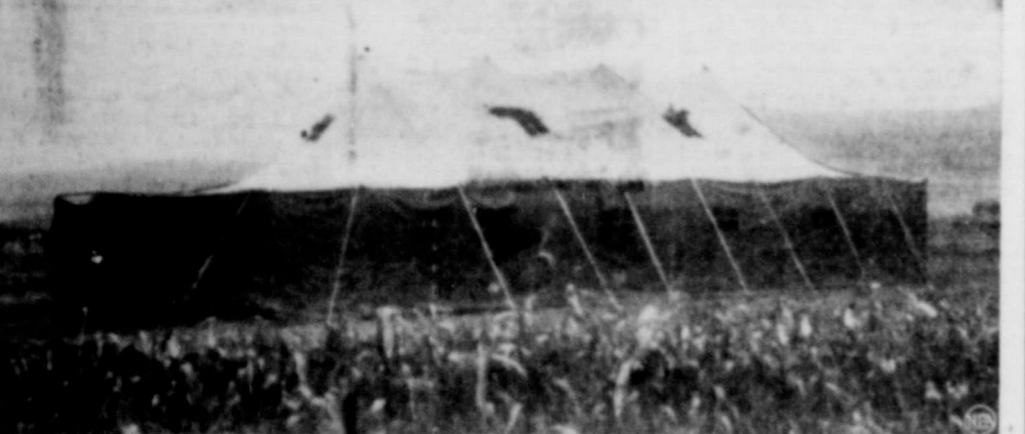

The severed back muscle was giving away. Exerting my whole force I threw my knife-arm up and forward. The thin blade found his left side, low down, just above the hip-point, and again I knew it had gone deep.

In staggering back and away he nearly tore the knife from my numbed grasp.

Information and facts pertaining to the Special Election to be held in Eastland County on November 13th for the Re-Allocation of Constitutional Taxes.

Our Constitutional tax levies were written into the Texas Constitution prior to 1900. These tax levies produce the operating funds of your county, and are now as follows: Jury Fund .15 cents; Road and Bridge Fund .15 cents; Permanent Improvement or Building Fund .25 cents; and General Operating Fund .25 cents.

Since 1900 many changes in the various costs of operating a county government have taken place. Consequently adjustments in these tax levies for Eastland County are necessary to operate its government with more efficiency. The Jury Fund, out of which the jurors and other court cost are paid, does not need the full .15 cent tax. Likewise the permanent or building fund does not need the entire .25 cent tax. In recent years the Legislature has enacted laws which have added to the tax burden supported by the Road and Bridge Fund and the General Operating Fund.

The present state laws permit changes in these constitutional tax levies for a period of 6 years if voted by the property owners of the county. In view of these laws and in view of the need of the adjustments in the tax levies the Commissioners' Court has called a Re-Allocation Election for November 13th.

Therefore, the Re-Allocation Election merely gives your Commissioners' Court the authority to re-arrange the operating tax levies of the county for a period of 6 years. THESE CHANGES DO NOT RAISE YOUR TOTAL TAX LEVIES. THEY MERELY RE-ARRANGE YOUR TAX DOLLAR.

Miss Eubank And Mr. Shaeffer Married In Ceremony October 27

Miss Frances Ann Eubank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Eubank, became the bride of Stanley Beaubien Shaeffer of Chicago, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Shaeffer, of Altadena, Calif.

The candlelight double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Ralph Perkins. Standing baskets of snowball mums and white gladioluses and emerald fern with three seven-branch candelabra holding white tapers formed the background for the ceremony. Each candelabrum was decorated with a bouquet of the mums and gladioluses. A screen of greenery outlined the rostrum of the pulpit where the wedding party stood.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. F. P. Brasher Sr., organist, accompanied Mr. Bill Bullock, soloist, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Because". Mrs. Brasher also played "Thine Alone" and "Indian Love Call" as part of the pre-nuptial music. During the ceremony she played "Claire de Lune", and also the traditional wedding marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn.

The candles were lighted by Miss Jeanne Crawley of Ranger, who wore a dress with gold velvet bodice, a gold net stole, and a gold net skirt gathered over a green net shirt. She wore a wristlet of bronze pompons.

Miss Jo Winders of Midland, attended the bride as maid of honor. Misses La Rue Ross of Midland and Katherine Adams of Cleburne were bridesmaids, and Mrs. Elton Heath, of Denver City was bridesmatron.

The bride's attendants each wore dresses of turquoise blue net over taffeta. The dresses had shirred, tight-fitting bodices with double net ruffles around the strapless tops. Net stoles were worn over the shoulders and tucked at the front of the bodices. The full, ballerina-length skirts were draped in the front and caught up on each side of the front by turquoise artificial flowers.

Each attendant wore a band of shirred net to match her dress and silver sandals. Their bouquets were of bronze pompons forged in a crescent shape.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of sepiolite white Chantilly type lace and white satin. The strapless, tight fitting bodice came to a point at the waistline. She wore a short bolero of the lace fashioned with a capelet and stand-up collar.

The full skirt was made of tiers of the lace which graduated to a longer length in back. She wore a Juliet cap of shirred white net trimmed in seed pearls with a fingertip veil of illusion, white satin slipper, and gloves of white lace.

Her bouquet was white orchid surrounded by white pompon mums with streamers of lace.

Roger P. Snaetzer of Omaha, Nebraska, attended his brother as best man, and ushers were William Shecan and Paul Karcher, both of Midland, and Pfc. John Eubank, of Madison, Wis., brother of the bride.

For the ceremony, the bride's mother chose a toast brown dinner dress of crepe with beaded lace medallions. Her accessories were of a darker toast brown, and she wore an orchid shoulder corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dinner gown of Alice blue crepe with rhinestone trimming on the bodice. Her accessories were of pale pink, and she wore an orchid shoulder corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The reception table was covered with a white Italian linen cut-work cloth with fillet and rose-point lace.

The centerpiece of snowball and pompon mums and plumosa fern was arranged in a cut glass bowl and placed on a silver reflector. Other appointments on the table were of cut glass and silver.

The three tiered cake had a square base and was decorated with white confectioners flowers with forget-me-nots around the top tier to carry out the bride's colors. The house was decorated with standing baskets of mums and gladioluses.

Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. Bob Hickey of Breckenridge, Miss Jo Oyler of Denton, and Mrs. Roger P. Shaeffer of Omaha, Neb.

For her traveling ensemble, the bride chose a black wool gaberdine suit with turquoise and black accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Following a trip to Mexico City and Acapulco, Mexico, the couple will make their home at 1808 1-2 West Michigan, in Midland.

Mrs. Shaeffer is a graduate of Ranger High School and received a bachelor of science degree in elementary education from Texas Technological College in Lubbock in 1948. She taught school in Big Spring for one year and for the past two and half years has been a teacher in the Midland public school system.

The bridegroom is a graduate of George Rogers Clark High School in Hammond, Indiana, and holds both a B.S. and M.A. degree in mining and geological engineering from the Colorado Schools of Mines. During World War II he served as a lieutenant in the navy in both the Atlantic and Pacific.

At present he is a consulting geologist in Midland.

Out of town guests other than the members of the wedding party were Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Shaeffer of Altadena, California, parents of the bridegroom.

It has a Way with Women

SOMETIMES we think that too little attention is given to the fair sex in automobile advertising.

After all, it's the woman of the house who has to do most of the shopping, which involves getting into tight places at the curb. And it's surprising what tight spots a Buick can fit into at a turn of the wheel.

It's the woman who likes complete freedom from things that it takes an engineer to operate—and a complete and utter freedom from mechanical complications is exactly what makes Dynaflo Drive® such a joy.

It's the woman who has an eye for style and fine fabrics—and a nose for economy. On both counts, a Buick is tops.

But we suspect something else. We suspect that a woman gets just as great a lift as a man from commanding this great-powered and trigger-quick bundle of vitality to bow to her will.

Here's a car to win any woman's heart—by its level-gaited stride—its willing response to her hand on the wheel—its smart style and its smart performance—its spaciousness and comfort—and its thrift.

How about taking time off, some afternoon, to boss around a Buick? It's a date that's bound to thrill you.

Membership Day For Methodist

The All Texas Methodist Revival will close with today's services at the local Methodist church with a special emphasis on the reception of new members. Those laymen who did such an unusually effective job of visitation and leading these new members to make a decision for Christ and his church will stand with their new converts. They will become "Fellowship Friends" to these new members as they are assimilated into places of service in the church.

The pastor will preach at both morning and evening services. The sermon topics are as follows: "Things Invisible, things eternal" and "Close the back door." The church choir will sing for the morning anthem: "Let us break bread," by Mells. Another highlight of the morning service will be a vocal solo by Mrs. Jean Williams Mether. The pastor will dedicate in holy baptism Nancy Kaye, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Newham at the morning service of worship.

We are certainly indebted to Rev. R. L. Lemons, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church of Tyler, for his presentation of the visitation chart to our laymen and also for the good gospel messages that he brought to our people throughout the past week. He won for himself a place in our hearts, and we shall pray for him as he goes back to his own field of labor. Our saddest regret is that so many of our people missed the spiritual uplift of these fine messages.

You are cordially invited to worship with your friends at all services of worship at the First Methodist Church. You will rejoice in the warm and friendly atmosphere among the Methodists.

Alliance To Meet Monday

The Ranger Ministerial Alliance will hold their regular November meeting this Monday afternoon, Nov. 5, at 1 p.m. in the First Baptist church. This will be a meeting of special importance as final plans will be made for the annual Thanksgiving Service to be held the evening of Nov. 18. More announcements of this service will appear at a later date.

Local pastors cooperating in the Alliance include: Rev. Jasper Massee, Second Baptist church, president; Rev. Fred Young, Assembly of God, vice-president; Rev. A. Lynn Robbins, secretary-treasurer; Rev. Ralph Perkins, and Bill Bullock, First Baptist church; Rev. Garland Lavender, First Methodist church; and Rev. Wilson, Church of the Nazarene.

Special Theme For The Month

Beginning this Sunday, November 4, at the 11:00 a.m. morning worship and communion service, the First Christian Church of Ranger will begin a month of special observances on the general subject of: "Religion In American Life." These topics will be taken from the suggestions of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in America as these cooperating churches all over the nation have set aside this month in order that all churches may place their emphasis upon the part being played in our nation's life by the American churches.

Immediately preceding the morning church service, the regular classes of the church school will meet at 9:45 a.m. if you are not attending Sunday school elsewhere in this community, we invite you to accept the invitation of the First Christian church, where you'll find classes for all ages.

The Evening Church Service meets at 7:00 p.m. and the pastor's sermon topic this week will be: "About Face." This sermon will continue a series begun two weeks ago with all sermons taken from the Gospel of Mark. This sermon week came from the first chapter of Mark, verses four to six. These Sunday night services are designed to feature fellowship singing and evening meditations as well as their regular sermon. The Christian Youth Fellowship will meet for their program and refreshments right after the conclusion of the Evening Worship service. The sooner they get the preacher to quit preaching, the quicker they get to eat.

As always we extend to you a most cordial welcome to share in these services at the First Christian church in Ranger.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

That sin and its consequent suffering are destroyed today through turning wholeheartedly to God will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Everlasting Punishment" to be read in all Christian Science churches on November 4.

The Golden Text in these words states (Lamentations 3:39,40): "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

Bible selections to be read will be: "The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him" (Psalm 28:7). And from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says: "Through the wholesome chastisements of Love, we are helped onward in the march towards righteousness, peace, and purity, which are the landmarks of Science. Beholding the infinite tasks of truth, we pause, wait on God. Then we push onward, until boundless thought walks enraptured, and conception unconfined is winged to reach the divine glory" (p. 323).

At 7:00 p.m. A. F. Waller of Cisco will deliver the final lecture of our lecture week. His subject will be: "The Church Glorified."

T. U. Revival Begins Sunday

The first service of the Training Union Revival at the First Baptist church will begin Sunday evening at the regular training union hour of 6:30, under the leadership of Mrs. Edna Lang, approved Training Union worker, according to Walter Arterburn, Training Union Director.

During the week Mrs. Lang will hold classes in the morning for workers of the organization. At the evening services she will coordinate the work of the departments as they meet to study doctrinal books. According to Bill Bullock, educational director for the local church, "there is a difference in denominational doctrines" and he urges that all members of the church and any other who are interested come and see the doctrinal foundation of the Baptist group.

The classes and their books are: Adults — "Baptist Distinctives" taught by Mrs. Lang.

Young People — "What We Believe," taught by Mrs. R. V. Robinson.

Intermediates — "A Faith To Live By," taught by Mr. Bullock.

Juniors — "Junior Baptist" taught by Rev. Ralph Perkins.

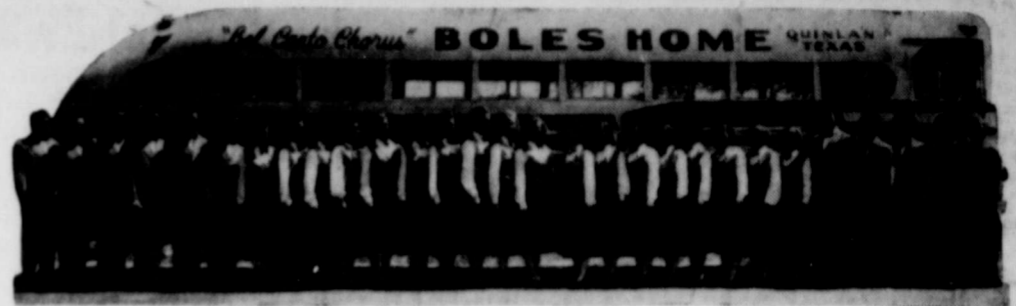

Elementary — "Bible Stories" taught by Mrs. A. G. Koenig.

You are invited to be present for this most interesting and important study of the church doctrine, states Mr. Bullock. The evening services Monday through Thursday will be at 7:00 p.m.

Executive Meeting Mon.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church will have an executive committee meeting at 2:30 p.m. Monday. All officers and circle chairman are urged to come.

At 3 o'clock Mrs. Edna Lang will bring a message to the group after which a social hour will follow.

The nationally known Bel Canto Chorus of Boles Home, Quinlan, Texas, that will appear at the Church of Christ in Ranger Sunday afternoon in connection with the all-day services to be held by that church.

Budget Day At 1st Baptist

Sunday, Nov. 4th, has been designated as "Budget Day" at the First Baptist Church. A new fiscal year began on Nov. 1st, with the increasing of the expected expenditures marking progress of the church in the mission field both local, home and foreign. Sunday has been set aside as a day wherein there will be concentrated effort to get a pledge card into the hand of each member of the church family in order that all might have a part in subscribing to the budget for 1951-1952.

The Sunday school organization has been chosen to aid in this most important service and will be used as the unit to see that all persons are contacted during the week of Nov. 4 to 11th.

The Sunday School will meet at the regular time for departmental meetings then move to the main auditorium for Stewardship messages from members of the finance committee, according to Wilson Guest, Sunday school superintendent. Mr. T. J. Anderson, chairman of the finance committee will be in charge of the program for the joint service to be held from 10:15 to 10:45 preceding the morning worship services at 10:55.

All members of the church are urged to attend the services.

Bel Canto Chorus Will Sing At Ranger Church of Christ Sunday

The Bel Canto Chorus of Boles Home, Quinlan, Texas, is scheduled to sing at the Ranger Church of Christ, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

This famed Bel Canto Chorus of thirty voices made extensive three months tours of the 35 states from coast to coast and of Canada during the summer of 1950-51 covering some 25,000 miles and making appearances before civic groups, singing in municipal auditoriums, and before Churches of Christ all over the land.

Personal appearances were made on several nationally known radio programs, such as "Surprise Package," "Breakfast in Hollywood," "Welcome Travelers" and "Double or Nothing."

The 1951 tour began June 3, and continued throughout the summer months, with the initial appearances conducted in the western part of the United States. Tex Williams, Director of Public Relations, will give some highlights on the history and progress of Boles Home throughout its 27 years of existence, and will present the opportunities in caring for the 296 boys and girls now living at Boles Home.

The Bel Canto Chorus is directed by Gayle Edward Oler, and the Bel Canto male quartet, which won first place honors in the spring University Regional Interscholastic League Meet will also be presented in the Sunday afternoon concert.

The Ranger Church of Christ extends a very cordial invitation to everyone to attend the Sunday afternoon concert, to enjoy the inspirational program.

The chorus will be in Ranger in conjunction with the all-day services to be held at the church in which members and ministers of other Churches of Christ of this area will participate. Churches from Cisco Eastland and Breckenridge will be represented.

A Message of Importance To Every Automobile Driver In The State of Texas

HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE NEW TEXAS "SAFETY RESPONSIBILITY LAW"

- 1 Enforcement Begins January 1, 1952. On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature, goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned cars).
- 2 What Must You Do After An Accident? Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.
- 3 You Don't Have to Carry Liability Insurance, But . . . If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.
- 4 It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.
- 5 What is the Minimum of Your Liability? The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability: up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident, and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.
- 6 SELECT AN ESTABLISHED INSURANCE AGENT. The agents listed below know the insurance business and represent well-known dependable capital stock insurance companies. These agents are not of the kind that are here today and gone tomorrow. Their names are listed in the telephone directory. A telephone call will find them ready to serve you—not only NOW—but YEARS from now. Call the one of your choice.
