

CITY COMMISSION DENIES BELL TELEPHONE 23% RATE HIKE

The rate increase petition that has been before the commission for approximately six months was denied by the commission last night.

The gross income this station here was reported at approximately $48,000, less advertising in the directory. The telephone company representatives said it would take at least that amount to put this station on a self-paying basis.

The City Commission denied the telephone company the increase on their present rate after a comparison of the Ranger rates with that of 62 other towns in Texas.

The comparison showed, according to figures compiled by the Texas League of Municipalities, that Ranger has been paying rates somewhat above the average for that group for a number of years.

The representatives of the phone company said along with the higher cost of operation the number of telephones in Ranger had more than doubled, while they have only had one ten percent raise since 1922.

The commissioners stated to the representatives of the Southwestern Bell Company that they wished to wait until January 1 before taking further action on the raise, at that date the League of Municipalities will issue another comparative manual on the service rates existing in towns of this size, giving them more for comparison.

After the initial petition had been denied by the City Commission the telephone representatives did not submit a compromise proposal.

UN Forces Take Hill Lost Last Night From Reds

8th ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Nov. 14 (UP)—United Nations forces today recaptured a hill on the western front they had yielded last night after killing or wounding hundreds of attacking Chinese Reds.

No opposition was met in the latest push. The Reds were so badly battered in their attack last night that they apparently pulled back to their own lines before dawn.

An estimated Communist battalion—800 to 1,000 men—backed by the fire of up to 11 tanks hit the un-held hill west of Yonchon last night. An allied briefing officer said "hundreds and hundreds" of Chinese were killed or wounded.

UN tanks subsequently engaged 10 of the enemy tanks in a moonlight duel, knocked out two of them and put the rest to flight.

Two more Communist infantry attacks elsewhere on the western front were repulsed today. On the central front, a UN patrol pushed to the northern edge of the no-man's-land-city of Kumsong, 29 miles north of the 38th Parallel, and dispersed a Communist platoon in a brief fight.

Explosion-Fire Destroy Service Station; Killed Three In Pryor

PRYOR, Okla., Nov. 14 (UP)—An explosion and fire, believed caused by static electricity, destroyed a service station, killed three men and critically injured another man shortly before midnight here last night.

The dead men were trapped in a rest room of the Hamilton service station as flames in the drive-way sealed off the service station entrance.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol identified the dead as: Cecil H. Strote, 27, Montrose, Mo.; Bill Ellingsworth, 26 (4639 East 9) Kansas City, Mo.; William D. Odle, 23, Pryor, Okla., service station attendant.

Strote and Ellingsworth were drivers for the Jack Cooper Transport Co., of Kansas City, Mo. Their truck was destroyed.

Denver H. Griffin, 39, Grand River Dam Authority employe from Pensacola, Fla., was critically burned and is not expected to live.

The station's owner, Edgar Joe Hamilton, 45, Pryor, suffered minor injuries.

The driver of a second truck, Carl T. Drake (1600 Broadway) New York City, escaped through a small window in the rear of the station.

The tractor on Drake's truck was destroyed and part of its $100,000 cargo damaged. Drake's truck was carrying a traveling exhibit of Ripley's Believe-It-Or-Not.

Drake estimated his loss at $20,000. No estimate was available on value of the Cooper transport truck or service station.

Officers believed the blaze started from static electricity as one of the two trucks was being refueled. Witnesses said there were several explosions, and gasoline fired flames streaked across the driveway so suddenly, the trapped men were burned before they could escape.

The commission last night were: 1. L. C. C. Boswell of Ranger Junior College appeared before the commission to express the appreciation of the college for the street lights that have been installed there recently.

2. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved by the commission.

3. The outstanding bills and debts against the city were read by the city secretary and approved by the commission for payment.

4. The commissioners approved the request of a citizen that a stop sign be placed at Wayland and Marston Streets.

5. Action was taken on a salary adjustment request by one of the employees of the city of Ranger.

6. A check was accepted by the commissioners as payment for the lease of some city property.

Rescue Crews Still Search For Victims

EVANSTON, Wyo., Nov. 14 (UP)—Rescue crews used acetylene torches to cut their way toward the center of a mass of wreckage today in search of three more victims of the crash of two streamline trains which killed an estimated 20 persons.

As of midnight, 16 bodies, including those of six crew members of the Union Pacific's luxury train, the City of San Francisco and the City of Los Angeles, had been removed and identified.

A possible fourth body was believed smashed over the couplings between two of the ruined cars, but railroad officials said that the "bodies" still caught in the wreckage might be portions of bodies already recovered.

Railroad spokesman Arthur G. Bloom, Salt Lake City passenger agent who issued the original estimate of 20 fatalities in the wreck, said that at least three more victims would be found in the pancaked mass of steel that had once been a sleek, yellow Pullman.

Army Orders 10 Day Leaves For Christmas

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (UP)—The Army has ordered 10-day Christmas leaves for as many soldiers as possible in the continental United States.

To allow soldiers to get home over the holidays, the Army ordered training activities suspended from noon, Dec. 22 through Jan. 1.

Commanding officers will determine how many men can be spared during the holiday season and still meet minimum operational requirements.

The Air Force and Navy said they would have similar Christmas leave arrangements for personnel stationed in this country but that details have not yet been worked out.

Walker Makes Heated Denial Of His Embezzlement Charge; Likly Complete Case Today

BRECKENRIDGE, Nov. 14 (SpI)—A fire-up came during a recess at the Walker trial here yesterday, when Walker stepped up to the prosecution table and glared at Frank Sparks, special prosecutor. During most of the testimony the State objected to the witness stand, when he would stand to emphasize his denial of "holding out" on tax money.

At one point, Judge Floyd Jones threatened both Walker and Sparks with a contempt sentence and instructed a court bailiff to "see to it that this exhibition is not repeated."

Walker testifying in his own behalf, insisted that he is not guilty of the felony embezzlement charge brought against him by an Eastland county grand jury. His testimony on direct examination was largely the denial of the embezzlement and the introduction into evidence of a $1,000 cancelled check.

According to this evidence the check was written in 1939 by Walker and made payable to Neil Day, then Eastland county tax assessor-collector. He claimed the check was written to correct an error on a delinquent tax payment made in 1949 by I. J. Allen of Corpus Christi, an Eastland county property owner. The indictment alleged that Walker collected $1,200 from Allen, but that he turned over only $250 to the county. This testimony was aimed at convincing the jury that $970 of the check's full amount was to correct the tax payment error. Such errors, Walker said, are not unusual and that the check in question was written 13 months prior to the indictment.

Other witnesses heard during defense testimony were J. P. Bolton, accountant for Walker, and Earl Comer Jr., former Eastland County district attorney and later an employe of Walker. Both said they knew of the $1,000 check.

Survivors are his wife; a brother, W. B. Stuart; three nieces, Mmes Fannie Flynn, Willie Buchanan and Mackie Walker, and two nephews, Joe and J. R. Stuart, all of Starn; another niece, Mrs. Bertie Uley of Eastland and another nephew, S. N. Stuart of Keller.

Stuart had lived all his life in the house in which he was born. He was organizer and first president of the First National Bank of Starn and for more than 30 years a director of the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Co.

In addition to the case on trial, Walker faces four additional felony embezzlement charges, a $101,295 civil collection suit and a federal mail fraud charge.

8th Army Says Reds Murder War Prisoners

PUSAN, Korea, Nov. 14 (UP)—A high 8th Army officer charged today that the Chinese Communists have murdered 2,515 American war prisoners, including 200 U. S. Marines in a single mass execution.

In addition, he said, the Chinese Reds have murdered 130 other UN war prisoners and together with the North Koreans have executed since last November 7,000 South Korean war prisoners.

The charge was made by Col. James Hanley, Judge Advocate of Gen. James A. Van Fleet's 8th Army.

"This is in sharp conflict with Chinese claims of compliance with the Geneva Convention in the treatment of war prisoners," he said.

He released for the first time 8th Army records documenting atrocities committed by the Chinese army since its intervention in Korea last November.

Hanley said the 200 Marines comprised the largest single group of American prisoners known to have been executed.

The Marines were slain last Dec. 10 near Sinsung, south of Hamhung on the northeast Korean coast, on orders of the commander of the 21st Regiment of the 1st Division of the Chinese Communist Army, he said.

The mass execution came during the 8th Army's heroic withdrawal from its beachhead in northwest Korea. The Marines made a fighting retreat of more than 50 miles under constant attack from savagely-fighting Chinese who had surrounded them. The survivors were evacuated from Hungnam by sea.

Hanley said 8th Army records showed that 40 Turkish war prisoners, 10 British, five Belgians and 75 other UN troops have been executed in the past year.

Although the total number of South Korean civilians executed by the Communists may never be known, Hanley said, he believed it to be "upwards of 25,575" men, women and children, most of who never were tried.

An 8th Army release at the same time charged that the Reds slaughtered 2,000 political prisoners—obviously UN sympathizers—at Haeju in western Korea in September and October while the 8th Army was marching north.

The starting date on Killingsworth 53rd Anniversary Sale in the ad that ran in the Ranger Times should have been November 13 as starting date not November 19 as was printed. Remember the Starting Date of the Sale is November 13.

In Joseph's two page circular that has been issued the section that stated the regular price on New Fall Coats ranging 16.95 to 19.95 was incorrect—it should have read that the coats on sale would range from $16.95 to $109.95.

Child Labor Law Same All States

DALLAS, Nov. 14 — Farm workers who shift their families from Texas to some other state to avoid the child labor laws are only deceiving themselves—they cannot run away from the child labor provisions of the Federal Wage and Hour Law.

This warning was sounded here today by William J. Rogers, Regional Director for the U. S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions for five Southwestern states, including Texas.

"Some farm laborers apparently are under the impression that the 16-year minimum age provision for children working on farms when school is in session applies in some states and not in others," he said.

"This ban is in the Fair Labor Standards Act, or the Federal Wage and Hour Law, as it is better known, and the law is on the Federal statute books. It is enforced in all the states—there is no running away from it."

"The amended Federal Wage and Hour Law prohibits employment of children under 16 in agriculture (when the product goes into commerce) during the hours when school in the district where they live is in session. It is the law not only in Texas, but in every state in the Union."

"The law sets no age minimum for working on farms before or after school hours, or on school holidays or during school vacations. It does not apply to a farmer's own children working on their parent's farm."

Washington, Nov. 14 (UP)—President Truman was asked today to promise that the government will not assert its claim to the oil-rich tidelands before Congress determines their ownership.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) wrote Mr. Truman that it would be "an unthinkable display of contempt"—both for Congress and the individual states concerned—if the Interior Department should issue federal leases on the tidelands while their ownership still is being considered by Congress.

Johnson said he hoped "persistent reports" that the Interior Department may try to issue federal leases without foundation. He invited Mr. Truman to restate his "traditional position" that such federal-state controversies should be settled by Congress.

The Interior Department had no comment on the letter. The department's legal staff, it was learned, has been studying the legal question of whether the government can issue federal tidelands leases.

The Supreme Court decided several years ago that the federal government has "paramount" rights to the coastal belt. Several subsequent attempts by Texas, Louisiana, and California to pass a law confirming state ownership have failed.

"The people of Texas are sorely disturbed by these reports of impending action against our state," Johnson said.

He added that he personally believes Texas owns her tidelands and that Congress should reaffirm the state's claim.

Johnson declared that Congress never has passed legislation which would permit the government to lease tideland areas. He described the theory that such leases could be issued under the surplus property act as "shocking," since the law was not intended for that purpose.

Local Voters Approve Four Amendments And County Funds

The voters in the two Ranger voting boxes numbered 209, or about 20 per cent of the number of eligible voters.

Four of the five state amendments and the county reallocation of funds was approved in the election here, yesterday.

The trend in the state does not compare with that of the Ranger voting. As only one of five appeared to have carried in the state.

The voting went as follows in Ranger and the state:

113 for the Constitutional Amendment authorizing a State-wide system of retirement and disability pension for appointive county officials and employees and 89 against.

116 for the Constitutional Amendment providing for the investment of the permanent University Fund in additional securities to those now enumerated in Section 11 of Article VII of the Constitution and 88 against.

102 for the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for the levy of an 151 for the Amendment to the Constitution giving the Legislature power to set up a system for payments of assistance to needy persons over sixty-five (65) years of age; to needy blind persons over the age of sixteen (16) years; to needy children under sixteen (16) years of age; removing the Thirty-five Million Dollar ($35,000,000) limitation upon amount of State expenditures for such purposes; disqualifying persons who dispose of property under certain conditions; providing a maximum payment of Thirty Dollars ($30) per month from State funds for old age assistance; providing for the acceptance and expenditure of funds from the Federal Government; providing that expenditures from State funds shall not exceed the expenditure from Federal funds with respect to any individual; and providing conditions as to residence within the State in order to be eligible to receive assistance; and providing a limitation of Forty-two Million Dollars ($42,000,000) per year on State fund expenditures for such purpose each year and 57 against.

There were 123 votes cast in favor of the county's proposed reallocation of funds and only 68 against, in Ranger.

DALLAS, Nov. 14 (UP)—Only one of five Constitutional Amendments offered the people at yesterday's special election appeared to have won approval.

Two were beaten decisively. Another trailed but still was given a fighting chance, and a fourth—the controversial attempt to raise the ceiling on Texas' pension funds—was apparently sunk as the Texas Election Bureau today resumed its tabulations.

Likely to be adopted: The amendment permitting the school board to issue another $75,000,000 in bonds.

Given a fighting chance: A proposal to broaden the field of possibilities for investment of the University of Texas' $122,000,000 permanent fund.

Virtually no chance: The much-fought-over proposal to raise the state's public welfare assistance ceiling, from $35,000,000 to $42,000,000 a year.

Beaten decisively: Proposals to set up statewide retirement and disability pensions for appointive county officers and employes and to raise by 47 cents—to a top of 50 cents per $100 valuation—the levy in rural fire prevention districts for maintenance of fire fighting forces and equipment.

Rebel Governors Prepare Plan For Presidential Race

By JOHN L. CUTLER United Press Staff Correspondent HOT SPRINGS, ARK., Nov. 14 (UP)—Anti-Truman Democrats who attended the Southern Governors Conference appeared today to have a two-step plan of action for the 1952 presidential election.

They hoped the Democratic National Convention at Chicago next July will pick a candidate and adopt a platform acceptable to Southerners who oppose President Truman and his Civil Rights Program.

If that fails, some of them would like to pledge southern electoral votes to an independent with the idea of throwing final election of the next president into the House of Representatives.

Although national politics was not supposed to be an issue at the three-day meeting of southern governors, it was injected by

They already had reversed their original position that the fighting should go on everywhere until the complete armistice agreement is ready for signing.

The UN command is holding out for a cease-fire line based on the battleline existing when the armistice is ready for signature.

Only by continuing military pressure against the Reds, the UN negotiators contend, can the allies prevent them from stalling indefinitely on such remaining armistice items as the release of prisoners and enforcement of the truce.

Previously the Reds have indicated by their insistence on making the present battleline the cease-fire line that they envision ad valorem tax not to exceed Fifty (50c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the creation and establishment of rural fire prevention districts and 103 against.

128 for the Amendment to Section 49-b, Constitution of Texas, for increasing Veterans' Land Fund for the purchase of lands in Texas to be sold to Texas Veterans of World War II, and to Texas Veterans of service in the armed forces of the United States of America subsequent to 1945 and 62 against.

"Pups" Win Final Game Of Season

Once in a lifetime the Ranger Times can make a mistake and then have the circumstances support it. Before the Pup's game with Cisco we said that they had been scored on this year, they had not at the time, but they have now. They are still untied and undefeated, but Cisco sneaked in six points last night while the Pups were scoring nineteen to give them the win.

That was the last game of the season for the Junior High Team, bringing to a close a very successful one at that.

From all indications and performance, Ranger will be well supplied with football material for some time. If these Pups grow and develop as kids normally do.

Shapely Solution Swim Suits Stress Figure Control

The new 1952 California swim suits are designed to make you look like these mermaids. A corona of shirring encircles top of suit (left) for figure flattery and back interest. Suit with a single strap (center) is a self-stripe latex, has slenderizing panels at the sides. Flying wing suit (right) is in latex taffeta, can be worn with wing up or down. All three suits have figure control built in.

LOS ANGELES—(NEA)— Though Venus may have popped out of the sea clothed only in sunlight, it won't do for the rest of us. Sunlight may be cheap and plentiful, but it hasn't got the figure-control that's built into the 1952 swim suit.

A new winged flange is shown on a suit designed by Margit Fellegi for Cole of California. It's meant to conceal a too-generous bosom, if it's worn up, or to give the illusion of sufficient padding when it's worn down. Another silhouette that makes a pretty picture has a corona of shirring that completely encircles the top of the suit, thus highlighting the bustline.

Lingerie touches and evening gown beauty are in evidence everywhere in these new suits. Nude nylon latex, for instance, is shown embroidered with leaves in coral or blue.

BY GAILE DUGAS NEA Woman's Editor

Matleex shirring is used again by this designer to create fluid fit in velvet and cotton swim suits. A good many cotton suits appear in the collection, twinkling with metallics. The whole collection glitters, as a matter of fact, with sequins, 24-karat gold latex, with iridescent chambray latex and shining cotton satin.

Sleek dressmaker suits are, in the belief of Margit Fellegi, far better for the large-hipped figure than the classic suit with a flaring skirt. She does one dressmaker that has a skirt in front only and another with a butterfly skirt that has a cutaway effect, tying at the waist in front.

Suits designed in junior sizes for the woman who's five feet five inches and under are introduced by this house for 1952. Scaled down in size, they have a young slant and are done in metallic cottons or cottons in bold colors.

Swim-suit accessories include roped-ties of sheer cotton georgette, a short pilot coat in terry that has winged sleeves, suits with sun tops and matching skirts, cinch coats with short, flared skirts.

UN FORCES—

Action subsided on the east coast following the UN's repulse of an attack by five Communist battalions—up to 4,000 men—Tuesday south of Kosong, 46 miles north of the 38th Parallel.

When the Reds finally withdrew, they left 618 enemy dead on the coastal battlefield, 12 of them officers. The battle occurred at the northernmost point of the UN line in Korea.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet, UN command in Korea, said today his forces comprise a "far superior army today than six months or a year ago."

"We are at grips with a determined Communist force—an enemy whose capabilities cannot be underestimated," he said in a broadcast message recorded for the convention of radio news directors in Chicago.

"Regarding the future, the 8th Army—with high morale and with determination can and will achieve its mission. That mission is to repel Communist aggression in Korea."

The Communists unleashed the first of their night attacks on the western front shortly before midnight (10 a.m. Tuesday EST).

A heavily-reinforced Communist company, backed by tank fire, hit an allied position west of Chorwon with grenades, small arms and automatic weapons. The Reds were thrown back after a 25-minute fight.

Then 10 Communist tanks moved up toward the UN line and opened up with their guns. UN tanks were called in and fired on the enemy armor, believed Russian-built T-34s.

DREAMS COME TRUE—Betty Thompson, center, of Atlanta, Ga., a cancer victim given only four weeks to live, sees her dream come true as she meets singer Jane Fong-an, left. The young girl was flown to New York by Henry Rosenfeld, right to act as guest of honor at a dinner given by the American National Theatre and Academy. Betty met all the stars of the entertainment world that she had dreamed about. (NEA Telephoto).

Two of the Red tanks were knocked out. The others fled north.

Still later, probing attacks by Communist infantry were thrown back northwest of Chorwon and west of Korangpo.

A UN tank force lost three tanks Tuesday in a thrust toward Pyongyang at the apex of the old Communist "Iron Triangle" on the central front. A fourth UN tank also was damaged by enemy fire, but was recovered.

A belated report on "operation clobber," in which UN tanks roamed the western front shooting up enemy targets for 36 hours ending Monday night, said the armored force damaged 91 Communist emplacements, one enemy tank, a vehicle convoy, a supply train, four ammunition dumps and six enemy villages. At least 61 Communist troops were killed.

MOSLEM ORDER WOMEN DEFY AND JOIN PARADE WITH MEN

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 14 (UP)— Nearly 1,000,000 Egyptians marched with muted tongues through the heart of Cairo today in a remarkably disciplined demonstration against the British.

The solemn procession, headed by 72-year-old Premier Mostafas El-Nahas Pasha, stretched for three full miles as it inched toward King Farouk's Abin palace.

Police commandant Mourad El-Kholi Bey said there were nearly 1,000,000 marchers—one of the largest demonstrations in history. The paraders kept their eyes to the front and their mouths shut. Their feet made a steady, pounding rhythm. It was so quiet the rustling of women's robes could be heard.

Egyptian authorities invoked strict regulations to make sure the demonstration would be orderly. Like a similar parade of more than 500,000 in Alexandria yesterday, it formed part of the government's campaign to oust the British from the Suez Canal Zone and the Sudan.

The two days were chosen for the parades because they marked the 32nd anniversary of the 1919 revolution against the British. Police guards were stationed at three-yard intervals along Fuad El Awar Street in the neighborhood of large foreign shops.

Every walk of Egyptian life was represented in the massive march. Members of the royal household, cabinet ministers and members of parliament walked beside factory workers, students, lawyers and doctors.

Women defied Moslem demands that they not participate and joined in the parade.

Restaurant Man Rolls Back Prices To 1939 Level

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 14 (UP)—A daring restaurant owner who slashed his prices to 1939 levels said today his place is jammed with customers and he is making a profit.

Joseph Tuczak, owner of the Green Feather Restaurant, said he had decided to turn back the calendar when he collected only 24 cents in three hours one night last week.

"It cost me $5.60 in wages alone for that time," he said. "Last week I had more employees than customers. But I had about 1,000 customers from noon until midnight yesterday."

Italian Death Toll Reaches 47

MILAN, Italy, Nov. 14 (UP)— The death toll in Northern Italy's week of storms and floods reached 47 today as newly-restored communications brought in fresh reports of devastation from remote towns and villages.

Scores of towns still were flooded but rains let up and swollen rivers, especially the Po, were receding.

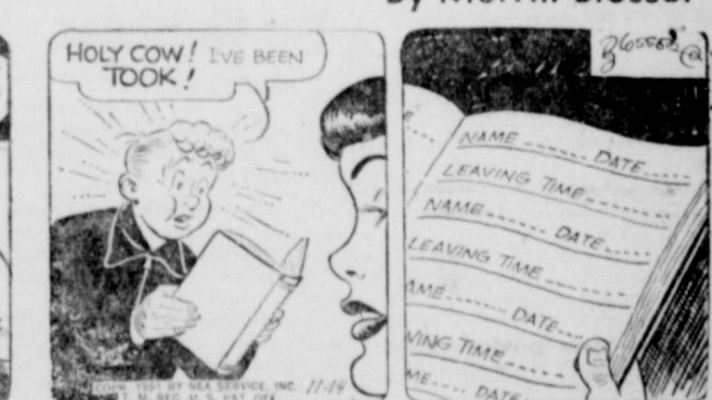

Twelve more deaths were reported from the areas of Piedmont, Lombardy, Tuscany and the Alpine regions around Trento.

Germany to Bordeaux, supply base for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Atlantic Pact Army. Six crewmen were aboard.

Weather was so menacing that it forced many search planes from the treacherous Mont D'Ore Mountain.

One helicopter participated in the hunt.

Baptists Enjoy Cisco Meeting Of Brotherhood

A Baptist associational Brotherhood meeting was held at the First Baptist church, Cisco, Tuesday evening. Attendance was exceptionally good, it is said, for 115 members were in attendance. Nineteen of the men were from the Eastland church, according to Pastor C. Melvin Rethel, of Eastland.

Eight churches were represented, and following the banquet, the group enjoyed an address by F. Ivy Boggs of Dallas, State Brotherhood president.

On Dec. 11, Eastland will entertain the Associational Brotherhood, and a special and understanding program may be expected. On the 17th of the month Eastland First Church Brotherhood will have its own monthly brotherhood meeting.

At the meeting last evening Bill Bullock was elected music director, and Rev. Karkalite, pianist, Lloyd Clem of Ranger, presided over the meeting.

Peron's Majority Is Strengthened

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Nov. 14 (UP) — President Juan D. Peron, re-elected to a six-year term, has strengthened his position in the Argentine Congress, latest returns from Sunday's election showed today.

The radical opposition in the Chamber of Deputies has been cut almost in half—to 14 seats. Returns are still not complete. The Senate will remain 100 per cent Peronist.

The latest returns at midnight from Sunday's voting still showed Peron with a two to one majority over his strongest opponent, Radical Deputy Ricardo Balbin. Peron had a total of 4,524,823 votes while Balbin had 2,304,341.

The radicals, who drew the bulk of the dissident vote in the nationwide elections, won six seats in the chamber of deputies in the Buenos Aires area. They won in each of Buenos Aires, Santa Fe, Cordoba and Entre Rios provinces. The independent newspaper La Nacion reported yesterday that Peron might resume the presidency today. The report could not be confirmed.

Peron began a long leave of absence Oct. 31. He delegated his power to Senate President Alberto Teissaire to have the reins of government in other hands during the election, in which he was a candidate.

Sen. Taft Calls Korean Conflict "Truman War"

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 14 (UP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio last night called the Korean conflict a "Truman War" and renewed his familiar charge that the President "usurped congressional authority to make that war."

In his second venture into Pennsylvania since announcing his presidential candidacy, Taft termed the Korean fighting "an unnecessary and useless war."

"After three years we are exactly where we started, except for 95,000 Americans killed or wounded and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars," he said. "And today we are about to confirm the aggressions of the Chinese, Communists by concluding an armistice at the 38th Parallel."

Taft told a press conference the Pennsylvania party leaders had showed "open minds" about his candidacy, and that's all I was really interested in."

Little Nations Ask World Powers For A Safe World

PARIS, Nov. 14 (UP)—Little nations of the UN implored the world's great powers today to make a fresh start towards an understanding to prevent all countries being swept into a third world war.

Fervent appeals to both East and West came from Denmark, Pakistan, Colombia and other smaller powers. Behind their words was the hope that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky might offer a "surprise" proposal when he speaks for a second time in the UN General Assembly debate Saturday.

Pakistan Foreign Minister Sir Mohammed Zafrullah Khan warned the major roadblock to a cold war settlement was "fear of each other's designs and suspicion of each other's motives." He deplored the rearmament drives of East and West.

"The vicious circle thus goes whirling madly on its course, dragging helpless humanity and all its hopes, aspirations and yearnings of a better world in its wake," he said.

Danish Foreign Minister Ole Rjoern Kraft condemned Vishinsky's statement that he laughed so much at the West's disarmament proposals that he couldn't sleep.

"I am sure that a good many others, just as I, were sleepless," he said, "deprived of their sleep not by laughter but by grief and anxiety because this was the answer given to the West's appeal for cooperation."

REBEL—

a party loyalty speech by speaker Sam Rayburn and the violent reaction of southern opposers to President Truman on civil rights and other so-called socialistic proposals.

The anti-Truman strategy fell into two steps because the first depended so heavily on what kind of candidate an platform comes out of the national convention.

They hope Mr. Truman will not be a candidate for re-election and the solid south can once more become a strong voice in the Democratic Party.

Among their demands were dropping of the president's civil rights program, particularly FEPC, restoration of the two-third rule for naming the party candidate and a strong states rights declaration.

The alternative, they felt, would be to deny the southern electoral votes to the national party nominee.

There was some talk of the idea that if Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower became the Republican presidential candidate, the southern states might nominate him on the Democratic ticket in their separate states. Thus, southerners could vote an anti-Truman ticket without switching completely to the Republican party, which they would be loathe to do.

Another idea would be for each state to pledge its electoral votes to a "favorite son" and throw the election into the House of Representatives if neither the Democratic nor the Republican candidate got a majority in next November's election.

Under those circumstances, each state would have one vote. The anti-Truman southerners believe the south would close ranks under such circumstances and yield the balance of power in the final election. The States Rights sentiment survived to the end.

The business affairs of the conference wound up last night with the election of Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, and anti-Trumanite, as chairman for the coming year.

Among the resolutions and motions adopted was one aimed at preventing any United Nations action, such as the human rights committee, from interfering with the traditional autonomy of the individual states of the nation.

Hunt For Lion Made By Farmers

CERESCO, Neb., Nov. 14 (UP) — A "genuine African lion" which scampered through corn fields and across creeks to elude a search party of farmers was believed "holed up" in a small cave on a farm near here today.

The animal, identified as a "real lion" by searchers, attracted a midlands safari of about 30 farmers, headed by Saunders County Sheriff Joe Davis.

By moonlight, dogs and hunters trailed the lion "which has a large head, a mane and a tufted, three foot tail," to a small den, a short distance from the Joe Patoka farm near here, Davis said. The sheriff said the search was called off until this morning because "no one wanted to stick around waiting in the dark."
