Abdullah Mad At Mother Over The Missing Pearls

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 28 (UP)—Infuriated Texas oil heir Shepard (Abdullah) King threatened to sue his mother today on the eve of his scheduled wedding to Egyptian shimmy dancer Samia Ganal.

King instructed Houston lawyer John J. Herrera to prepare a $200,000 suit against his mother Mrs. Bonner King, for "defamation of character."

The family quarrel concerned the disappearance of a valuable string of pearls from the King home in Houston. Police there said Mrs. King asked them to have her son questioned about the pearls.

King exploded upon learning of the request. He said it was a "veiled accusation" against him. "I'm really mad," he said. "For God's sake, what would I want with a pearl necklace? It just flabbergasted me. I've never been accused of such a thing before."

King declared he had a letter in his pocket from the Houston police chief showing a clear record. The letter was required under Egyptian law for his Moslem marriage to Samia.

The tall, red-haired Texan said his mother gave all her jewels away to his sister Patricia last month.

"I figure Pat lost the necklace and my mother blamed it on me," he said.

For once, Samia did not figure directly in the mother-son quarrel over his international romance. After King met the Egyptian beauty in a Paris nightclub and launched a torrid romance, his mother threatened to cut him out of her will.

The argument appeared to have been patched up upon King's return to Houston last month to divorce his wife, Gloria, for a second time. King said then that his mother had been reconciled to the Moslem marriage and he planned to return to Houston with his shapely bride.

HELP—Needed By RHS Band

Ranger high school band director Bob Gans said the ticket sales for the midnight show for the purchase of band jackets for the forty members of the band is going slower than expected. Thus far $240.00 has been raised through the sale of tickets to the show "High School Hero" which will be shown at the Arcadia Theatre Friday night.

Gans said the band members will scour the town once more to try and raise the $485.00 needed to buy the forty jackets for the group.

He also asked that the very generous people that have already given and the ones that have not, to open their hearts as well as their pocketbooks to these band members when they come around. Think of the enjoyment you have had at the football games and civic affairs the band has played for and help them get their one desire—a band jacket.

Pampa National Guard Building Hit By Blaze

PAMPA, Nov. 28 (UP)—Flames whipped by strong winds leveled the Pampa National Guard armory here last night while firemen struggled to quench the fire with water from a single two-inch pipe.

Capt. Charles Robinson, commanding officer of a local field artillery observation unit, estimated damage at more than $250,000. The building was completely destroyed, along with all equipment stored there.

The blaze was first reported by a bus driver. Firemen arrived ten minutes later, but the lack of water and the wind gave them no chance to extinguish the blaze.

A booster tank truck was dispatched to the scene, on the outskirts of Pampa, but it was too late to help.

Fire chief Ernest Windorne said he had no idea what caused the fire, but immediately began an investigation.

Battlefield equipment including several 5.4-inch bazookas, developed since the start of the Korean war, and machine guns, pistols and carbines were lost in the fire. Two army trucks, parked outside the building, escaped damage.

County Members Attend Farm Bureau Convention In Houston

The State Convention of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation was held at the Rice Hotel in Houston, Tex., November 19, 20, 21, with approximately 1500 members attending.

The members from Eastland County attending the convention were Mrs. John Love, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bob Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sparks, and C. L. Rogers. After arriving in Houston we immediately registered and then with special interest looked at the large map of Texas which had little lights designating the progress each county had made in the Farm Bureau in having an organized Farm Bureau, county Farm Bureau office, service program and exceeding the quota.

Our group was happy to see that Eastland County had all four lights shining brightly which was the largest amount of lights any county could have.

Some of the highlights of the convention were speeches by National Farm Bureau President Allen B. Kline, State Farm Bureau President J. Walter Hammond, Mrs. Raymond Sayre, president of Associated Women of A.F.B.F., Attorney General Price Daniel, Congressman Olin Teague, Col. W. B. Bates, President of Houston Chamber of Commerce, Congressman W. R. Poague, and Dr. W. B. Kammlade, Associate Director of Extension, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

The resolution which the Eastland and Comanche County delegates carried to the convention was under discussion for almost an hour before being passed. The resolution denounced the two-price system and asked discontinuance of the oil stock peanut program under which farmers are allowed to raise peanuts for oil purposes in addition to their edible crop grown on regular allotted acres. This resolution will now be taken to the National Farm Bureau Convention. J. Walter Hammond will be fighting for this resolution in Washington regardless of the outcome of the vote at the National convention.

One resolution which was passed asked the Department of Agriculture to have substantial data before publishing crop reports, and urged the Secretary of Agriculture to announce each January 1 the amount of cotton the nation should produce and to get the support price at 100 per cent of parity. The farmers also asked for a

Man Makes Money On Income Taxes

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 28 (UP)—Leonard Parker made money from the government—of all things—his income tax.

The 39-year-old bachelor collected nearly $2,000 in income tax refunds by reporting a wife, three children and his mother as dependents. He awaited sentencing here on 16 counts of defrauding the government.

Parker changed his plea from innocent to guilty yesterday before Federal Judge W. R. Wallace, who said he would pass sentence Dec. 11. Parker was free on $5,000 bond.

Parker was convicted of claiming as dependents a wife, a son and two daughters who did not exist, as well as his mother, who is not dependent on him. He made money on his returns from 1947 through 1950.

The indictments showed that in the 1949 case, he made $1,488.08 during the year, and paid only $18.60 in withholding taxes. He claimed an income of $7,378.08, however, and said he paid $759.30 in withholding taxes. He received the full $759.30 as a refund, clearing more than $740 on the transaction.

Badman Cook To Be Sentenced By The Judge Today

EL CENTRO, Calif., Nov. 28 (UP)—A superior court judge decides today whether Billy Cook, whose quick trigger finger wiped out a family of five, returns to federal prison or goes to the state's lethal gas chamber for the sixth slaying in his wild blood spree.

Judge Luray J. Mouser ruled yesterday that the little Missouri badman was guilty of first-degree murder for the shooting of traveling salesman Robert Dewey on the California desert.

But the judge postponed sentencing Cook until today, when he will hear a probation report and decide whether the 23-year-old mass murderer is entitled to leniency.

If Mouser finds that Cook is not entitled to leniency, the death sentence is mandatory under California law.

If Cook is granted leniency, the sentence would be life imprisonment, and he then would be returned to the federal penitentiary at Alcatraz to resume serving a 300-year term for murdering five members of the Carl Mosser family of Atwood, Ill.

Cook shot the Seattle, Wash., salesman to death Jan. 6 while fleeing west after kidnapping and killing the Mossers.

District Attorney Don C. Bitler argued for a first-degree murder ruling because Dewey was killed in connection with a robbery. Defense Attorney John J. Connolly of Oklahoma City contended the killing was not premeditated and, therefore, could not be first-degree.

Front Line Action In Korea Is Halted

UN Force Will Fire Only If Fired On First

8th ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Nov. 28 (UP)—The United Nations troops in the front lines in Korea were ordered today to halt all offensive action and to fire only if fired upon.

The infantrymen along the frozen 145-mile front were ordered to provoke no incidents.

The artillery was ordered to fire on the enemy only if the enemy fires first.

There will still be scouting patrols in front of the lines, but insofar as the Allied forces are concerned, they will be scout patrols only and will not engage in offensive action.

Explaining the order, a high ranking western front officer said: "We are not going to provoke or incite any incidents. If we are fired upon we will fire back. Our artillery will fire only counterbattery fire if provoked. We will not fire harassing or interdiction fire missions while the other side observes this. I hope we will both be honorable about this thing."

This statement left the question open whether the officer meant that the no-offensive fire order was issued by the UN command on its own initiative, or whether there was some kind of agreement with the Communists.

UN negotiators at the Panmunjom truce camp refused to say whether there had been any agreement with the Communists.

The question was left open also whether aerial and naval offensive action will continue while the truce negotiations are in progress.

UN airmen shot down three Red jet planes Wednesday.

At the same time, 8th Army Headquarters warned that the war officially is still on.

"There is hope (of a cease-fire) but that hope must not be sabotaged by wishful thinking," the announcement said.

The mission of the 8th Army and attached UN ground forces in Korea is to rebel Communist aggression in this theatre.

"The fact that a military demarcation line has been determined is but one of the points on which an agreement is reached on all points which will insure an armistice in Korea, the 8th Army will take any steps deemed necessary to safeguard itself against surprise and to fulfill its mission."

In the air, American Sabrejets shot down three and damaged four Communist MIG-jet fighter planes, some perhaps flown by women pilots. One Sabrejet was lost.

The 20-minute dogfight over northwest Korea boosted the 8th Air Force's two-day toll of enemy jets to 12 destroyed or damaged. Two allied jets have been lost.

The possibility that some of the MIGs were flown by women was raised by a Communist newsman at Panmunjom, who said the Reds have thrown large numbers of female pilots into the jet air war in Korea.

Ground fighting along the snow covered 145-mile Korean front continued to diminish with both sides apparently willing to wait out the truce negotiators' attempt to complete an armistice within the next 29 days.

If a truce is completed by Dec. 27, the present battleline will become a permanent cease-fire line. There was no incentive for either army at the moment, therefore, to try to take additional territory.

Forty MIGs and 28 American Sabrejets took part in the first air battle reported during the day. It ranged from 30,000 to 8,000 feet over Sinanju in "Mig Alley" and ended with three Communist jets shot down and four damaged.

The "kills" were credited to Maj. Winton W. Marshall of Raleigh, N. C., who shot down one MIG and shared in the destruction of another with 2nd Lt. Samuel A. Greening of York, Pa., and 1st Lt. Dayton W. Ragland of Kansas City.

Polio Epidemic Causes Action Among Odessa Government Heads

ODESSA, Nov. 28 (UP)—Officials set another emergency meeting on Odessa's polio outbreak today after tentatively agreeing to organize a sanitation district covering "most of Ector county" to allow rigid enforcement of health laws.

In a meeting last night, city councilmen, county commissioners, health officials and physicians reviewed the city's appalling polio record for November and promised quick action to protect the community's health.

Seven new cases of polio were reported in the city yesterday and one additional fatality. Six persons have died from polio this year among 36 victims of the disease. This month, 23 new cases have occurred.

Mayor C. W. McCollum called an emergency session of the government leaders last night, and County Judge O. E. Geron said action would be taken quickly toward establishment of the district.

Boswell Hall At Junior College Nearly Complete

Work on the new agriculture and music building at Ranger Junior College is in the final stages of completion.

When finished this will be one of the most attractive buildings of the Ranger Junior College, made of yellow brick with the interior walls made of a soundproof fiber composition material.

The new building, named Boswell Hall, is divided into three sections, with one of these three having four stalls for practice rooms for music students. The other two sections will be devoted to the agriculture department for a classroom and a laboratory.

The building has a cement porch at the entrance very attractively decorated with iron grillwork. And sidewalks lead from the street and from the chemistry lab to the hall.

Auto Dealers, Fianceers To Meet December 3

A meeting of Eastland County motor vehicle dealers, finance companies, banks, etc., will be held in the Commissioner's Court room at the Eastland County courthouse on December 3, 8:00 p.m., to discuss procedure used in obtaining registration and certificates of title on motor vehicles and attendant problems.

This meeting will be held due to the number of vehicles registered in Texas having reached 3,137,526, and a further increase expected. It is the desire of the Highway Department to co-ordinate the work of these business firms, the county tax collector, and the motor vehicle division in order to render the best possible service to the public.

Health authorities said 89 per cent of the city's garbage cans are uncovered, and the council approved a plan for putting lids on them and billing home owners.

It was pointed out that many homes on the fringe of the city are without sewage facilities. These areas would be included in the proposed sanitation district.

Mayor McCollum said inquiries had been made to the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation as to whether Odessa schools should be closed and a negative reply was received. Most of the cases have been among children of pre-school age.

School authorities were asked to cut out all strenuous exercises for children, however. Authorities promised longer rest periods for children in the lower grades.

Doctors attending the meeting warned that the threat of a typhoid outbreak is also present as result of the area's poor sanitation, and urged a fast "clean up" to ward off a possible epidemic.

GOING STRONG AT 92
Hilton U. Brown, age 92, has written "A Book of Memories," published by Butler University, Indianapolis, Ind.

Hilton Ultimus Brown, foremost journalist of Indiana, for 70 years with the Indianapolis News, as reporter, city editor, managing editor, general manager and now vice president, has seen, heard and written much in his time. He was for 68 years a director of Butler University and 49 years president of its board.

His "Book of Memories" is a volume of exciting pen pictures of Jefferson Davis, William Tecumseh Sherman, General Benjamin Harrison, James Whitcomb Riley and Booth Tarkenton. While on his honeymoon South in 1883 he interviewed Jefferson Davis, ex-president of the Confederacy, and did so well with the story he was given an increase in salary, from $10 to $13 a week.

His autobiography is largely a story of his youth, of Hoosier personalities, Butler University and the Indianapolis News, but it's dramatic stuff. When 19 years of age, Hilton Brown was asked what he enjoyed most, and he replied, "A good book, a fine sermon, a pretty girl, the theatre, a football game and a good cigar."

Apparently, at 92, he still has ideas.

When he wrote his first copy for the News in Indelible pencil, a stuttering printer commented: "Another d-d-d-d-d-d-d-d-d-d graduate to e-e-educate."
