Confusion Over New Safety Law Is Cleared Up

AUSTIN, Nov. 28 — Public confusion over the method of reporting traffic accidents under the state's new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law was cleared up today by Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, Jr., who showed that any change in the present system is so slight that it should cause no difficulty among motorists.

The present confusion was brought about by the discrepancy in time for filing regular accident reports, which must be sent to the Texas Department of Public Safety within 24 hours, and the time for filing additional information under the Safety Responsibility Law, which may be sent to the Department within as much as 10 days.

Under the state's Uniform Traffic Law, the operator of every motor vehicle that is involved in an accident resulting in death or injury to a person, or total property damage to an apparent extent of $25 or more, must file a complete written report with the Texas Department of Public Safety within 24 hours, exactly as they do now.

When you obtain a regular accident report, beginning January 1, there will also be furnished along with it an Insurance Information form, labeled Form 21, which must be filled out completely and accurately should the accident in which you were involved result in death or injury to a person, or property damage to any one person, including yourself, in excess of $100 since this will bring the accident under the provisions of the new Safety Responsibility Law.

Judge Expects Long Battle In Gable Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 29 (UP)—Screen idol Clark Gable and his estranged wife, Lady Sylvia Ashley, will meet in court March 17 for what is expected to be a hot divorce battle.

Superior Judge Orlando Rhodes set the date for the trial yesterday in answer to a request from Gable's lawyers to get the case in court as quickly as possible.

Rhodes set aside five days on the court calendar for the anticipated battle. Gable is not contesting his wife's divorce, but he contends she is not entitled to alimony because she already is a millionaire.

LOUANE SHAFFER WINS ESSAY CONTEST HELD BY LIBRARY

(Editor Note: In the recent essay contest conducted by the Ranger Community Library among the students of Ranger High School and Ranger Junior College the one entered by Louane Shaffer was judged as first from the High School.

Louane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Shaffer of 305 Mesquite St. He is fifteen years old, a junior at Ranger High and a member of the Bulldog Band.

On the basis of being judged first in the contest and the way in which he is able to show what the United Nations means to him we would like for you to read his essay.)

What the United Nations Means to Us

Plunk! Plunk! Plunk! sounded the gavel of the moderator. He was calling the numerous delegates to take their seats and begin the proceedings of another session of the United Nations General Assembly. The meeting was in Long Island and thousands of interested Americans were viewing the scene through the eyes of Television. Yes, the people were interested, but the majority of them didn't really understand what was going on.

First, it is solid evidence of the good will of the majority of nations. There are some sixty nations that are members of the United Nations. Never before has so many nations assembled for the avowed purpose of providing for the advancement of the common good of mankind.

Clayton Rand Says

My Florida correspondent writes "At the rate our government is going crazy it won't be long before 'nothing' will be more valuable than 'something', as the one who has 'something' will have it taken away from him and the fellow who has 'nothing' will get the 'something'." Figure that one out.

Arch N. Booth, executive vice-president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, warns, "Every business organization is today in danger of being eliminated by present social, economic and political changes." He listed education, hydro-electricity, agriculture, housing and medicine as fields in which the "social planners" are working.

He suspects these planners are looking upon the present national emergency as a heaven-sent opportunity to push through their socialistic schemes.

If any conqueror did to the American people what they are doing to one another, we'd have a reincarnated Patrick Henry and he'd be reciving the Declaration of Independence. Professor Howard Mumford Jones of Harvard, however, says, "Ours is an age which is proud of machines that think, and suspicious of any man who tries to act as a mechanical."

Isn't it true that in ancient times there was once a ruler whose counselors quarrelled over the number of soldiers it would take to keep a conquered people subdued? The ruler said, "I don't need any soldiers. Just give me a tax collector."

Fighting In Korea Breaks Out Again

Pro-American Seizes Syrian Government

DAMASCUS, Syria, Nov. 29 (UP)— Syria's pro-American "strong man," Col. Adeb Shihakli, seized control of the nation in a lightning coup today only 24 hours after an anti-western government had been formed.

Shihakli, army chief of staff, proclaimed he took over because the new cabinet "created a crisis at a time when international issues require quick decisions."

He has been demanding that Syria join the Middle East defense pact against Communism, sponsored by the United States, France, Britain and Turkey.

The one-day government headed by Dr. Maaruf Dawalibi, a leader of the Peoples' Party, favored Arab "neutrality" in the cold war and increased trade with Russia.

There were no reports of bloodshed or disorders in the revolt. Shihakli's proclamation gave no indication of Dawalibi's fate or that of his cabinet.

The proclamation said the situation was calm in Damascus. It urged the people to go about their daily business while the Army took over "internal security."

Shihakli, who narrowly escaped assassination Oct. 12, 1950, said the specific reason for seizing the nation was that Dawalibi had kept the national defense post for himself instead of turning it over to the army. Dawalibi excluded all military men from his cabinet.

The tough little colonel has been in back of three previous coup d'etats in the past 1 1/2 years in this unsettled nation.

Each time, he has played a greater role in engineering the government's downfall.

Hopes Brighter For Armistice In Korean War

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Nov. 29 (UP)—The Communists backed down slightly today in their demand for immediate withdrawal of foreign troops from Korea and opened the way for a possible compromise.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist truce negotiator, suggested informally that the Reds might be willing to settle for a gradual reduction in foreign contingents—presumably Chinese as well as UN—after an armistice.

Officials in Washington said the UN and Reds might work out a tacit, if not formal, plan for gradually reducing their forces. Eventually, they said, South Korea's army could be built up to deal with any new North Korean threat.

Nervous, chain-smoking Nam Il made his proposal in the form of a question that took even his Korean interpreter by surprise at a 95-minute armistice meeting in a tent at Panmunjom.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, the chief UN delegate, replied merely: "I have noted your question."

Joy was expected to press Nam Il for more details of his informal proposal at the next armistice committee meeting at 11 a.m. tomorrow (9 p.m. today EST).

Narcotics Trial Ends In Brawl And Dope Use By The Defendants

DALLAS, Nov. 29 (UP)— Trial of seven alleged marijuana smokers will resume in federal court today with extra precautions taken against a repeat of yesterday's courtroom brawl in which a U. S. Marshal was slugged and two detectives bitten.

Three of the accused addicts got into the affray before Judge T. Whitfield Davidson could adjourn court and send them off to jail.

The battle began when Billy Joe Hoffman, 21, one of the defendants, leaped to his feet and swatted Marshal J. R. (Red) Wright on the jaw. The officer bounced off a rope separating the crowd from the trial pit and hit the floor.

As he seized his attacker and forced him back to his chair, a second defendant, Willie Smith, began swinging. He missed and was subdued by detectives Joe Slovak and Jim Trantham.

Lila Ruth Miller, 23, one of the two women accused, heard Judge Davidson order all the defendants sent to jail, despite their bonds. She began to gulp "yellow jackets"—barbiturate drug capsules—"like peanuts," Marshal Wright said.

Informal Cease Fire Blamed On Misinterpretation Of Order

TOKYO, Nov. 29 (UP)— Artillery fire in the west and battles in the east ended an informal cease-fire in Korea today, but the 8th Army said it would stick to a new policy of fighting only when attacked.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the 8th Army, attributed Wednesday's undeclared truce and reports of an order to his troops to cease fire to a misinterpretation of his directives by lower command officers.

Clarifying instructions are being issued, he said.

However, an 8th Army spokesman said there has been no change in the basic "no aggression" order Van Fleet gave his corps and division commanders along the entire 145-mile front.

Eighth Army officers were extremely reluctant to answer any questions about the tacit cease-fire Wednesday on the western front.

There was an unconfirmed report that an officer or officers had been relieved of their command in the area because of the manner in which they relayed Van Fleet's directive orally to their troops or because of the leak of information to UN correspondents.

A front dispatch reported Allied artillery resumed its "normal operation" on the western front after an undeclared cease-fire of nearly 48 hours. The resumption presumably followed clarification of Van Fleet's "no offensive" directive.

A western front briefing officer said the Allied guns fired on normal targets during the afternoon, but would not elaborate. The Communists at the same time fired 275 artillery and mortar rounds into UN territory.

Infantrymen in forward observation posts said they saw an occasional Chinese soldier against the skyline on the Western front, but there were no more reports of Chinese playing volleyball or standing around fires.

On the eastern front, full-scale ground fighting erupted. Communist attacks twice drove UN forces from an advance position northwest of Yangju and each time the Allies rallied and recaptured it in heavy fighting.

The UN troops fought only to recapture ground lost to Communist attacks, however.

Both the United Nations and Communist radios broadcast direct warnings to each other's troops.

The Reds cannot expect the UN command to be foolhardy enough to order a de-facto cease-fire at the present time," the "voice of the UN command" said.

The North Korean radio at Pyongyang said Red troops are fighting hard and have no intention of ceasing fire during the armistice talks.

The air war continued unabated. American jet pilots reported sighting 320 Communist MIG-15 jet fighters during attacks on North Korea. Twenty-two Sabrejets damaged one MIG in a dogfight with nearly 175 of the sweptback wing fighters.

American pilots reported the Red air force every aggressive. Driven from an advance position by a Communist attack late Wednesday night, the Allies counterattacked and recaptured it shortly after midnight.

A second Communist attack at 4:30 a.m. again hurled the Allies back to their main defense line. They counter-attacked at 6:30 a.m. and finally restored the position after a five-hour battle.

The Communists also had attacked in up to regiment strength—2,500 men—northwest of Yangju Wednesday night.

Allied air and naval units kept up their round-the-clock bombardment of Communist North Korea.

Van Fleet's explanation that he had issued new directives to his forces ended more than 12 hours of speculation over the origin of the order which led to the informal truce over part of Korea Wednesday.

Only a few hours earlier, both President Truman and Supreme UN Commander Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway had denied knowledge of any "no attack" order.

While in Florida Dr. and Mrs. Boswell plan to fly to the island of Cuba on Sunday, December 2 and spend the day on the island.

Service Has New Line In Operation

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 29—Large runs of crude oil from New Mexico's Denton pool in Lea county are moving through a new Service Pipe Line Co. line to Wagon, Tex., C. M. Scott, general manager, said today.

The new 25-mile, 10-inch discharge and gravity line connects with the company's West Texas trunk line and gathering system at Wagon, Scott said. It started moving oil November 22. The company formerly operated a four-inch line from this area. Crossley and Hardy, Wichita Falls, Texas, were the contractors. Construction started late in September.

Scott said the pipe for the job was second-hand and reconditioned. The project was approved by the Petroleum Administration for Defense.

Service Pipe Line Co. operates more than 12,000 miles of line in 10 western and mid-western states, and is connected to about 27,000 oil wells directly and to thousands of others through connecting carriers. Most of the wells are in New Mexico, Wyoming, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. The company recently announced plans to extend its operations into an eleventh state—North Dakota—where a gathering system and railroad loading rack will be built to serve Williston basin producers.

Approximately half a million barrels of crude oil are transported each day by the company and delivered directly or through other pipe lines to 40 refineries.

How to Roast a Small Turkey

Young turkeys of any size may be roasted. Stuff turkey just before roasting. Stuffing prepared in advance must be refrigerated. Allow 1 cup of stuffing per pound ready-to-cook weight.

Stuffing and trussing—rub cavity of bird with 1/4 to 1 teaspoon salt. Stuff body and washbone cavities lightly.

Close by placing skewers across the body opening and lacing shut with cord.

The drumsticks securely to tail. Fasten neck skin to back with sauer kraut wings "okimbo" style, bringing tips onto back.

Roasting technique—brush skin with melted fat. Fowl seasoning or other herbs may be sprinkled over the surface.

Place trussed bird, breast down, on a rack at least 1/2 inch high in a shallow open pan.

Lay fat-moistened thin cloth (large enough to drape down the sides) over top of turkey.

Slow roasting—roast at low temperature. See timetable below. Do not seal. Do not add water. Do not cover.

Turn bird breast up when about 1/2 done. Roast until tender. See timetable.

If cloth dries during cooking moisten cloth with fat from bottom of pan.

Test for doneness—move leg by grasping end of the bone. The drumstick-thigh joint breaks or moves easily. Or, press drumstick meat between fingers. Meat should be very soft when done. Do not pierce meat with fork.

Ready-to-Cook Weight (pounds)	Done	Total Cooking Time—Hours

4 to 6	325° F.	3 to 3 1/2
6 to 8	325° F.	3 1/2 to 4

Justice Jury Decides Music Was Hawaiian

DALLAS, Nov. 29 (UP)—The sun has set—Hawaiian style—on the lawsuit in which night club owner H. E. Brown alleged that he bought island music but got hillbilly instead.

A six-man jury in Judge Bill Richberg's justice court ruled yesterday that Boss Everett and his string combo should receive $41 pay for an evening's work at the Hawaiian Room, despite the fact that they turned up wearing cowboy regalia.

The decision came after the band set up in court and gave out with one of the numbers which had irked Brown.

Brown claimed the band destroyed the hula-and-palm atmosphere of his club by "playing plain old hoodlum."

The jury heard Everett's group do "I Overlooked An Orchid" and decided in his favor.

The Hawaiian version came out soft and sweet. The second time around, the tune was faster and louder, in true mountain tradition.

Brown presented his case through a pretty young witness, Mrs. Kay Hamilton, who sang an Hawaiian song. The jury asked Mrs. Hamilton to add a hula, too, but she declined. No grass skirt.

She told superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes yesterday that the 48-year-old actor called her names in French and criticized everything she said or did.

Mrs. Cabot's mother, Alfonsina Arnaud De Scaffa, testifying in Spanish, said Cabot called daughter "foul and evil words." She added she had seen Cabot "push and kick" his wife, too.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (UP)—The Federal Communications Commission hopes to lift its three year freeze on new television stations by next April, according to Chairman Wayne Coy.

Coy said the FCC plans to issue a final TV frequency assignment table within the next 60 days. The table will include more than 2,000 stations throughout the country under a frequency system designed to prevent interference.

After the table is issued, Coy said there will be a "reasonable period, perhaps 60 days" for filing applications for station permits.

 actually does, there can be no doubt of the fact that this is an important step in the direction of world unity.
 Second, as brought out in its charter, the United Nations stands like a dam to protect us against the floodwaters of war. United Nations was started, the plan was to have international force which would be stronger than any force that could be mustered by any single nation. It seems that many of the nations, proclaimed allies of the Western forces, haven't yet learned that what you get out of anything is only in proportion to what you put in. Once the allies are strongly cemented together by everybody contributing properly to the strengthening of this international force, this dam will be able to withstand any pressure from any single source or any combined sources. It will be able to completely subdue all uprisings.

 Third, the United Nations provides a conference table where difficulties and misunderstandings can be thrashed out. This is an important fact in preventing seeds of hatred to be sown among nations. It is very natural to dislike strangers and only notice their faults. Yet, when we are closely associated with them we get to better understand their point of view. Among people of good will there are very few things that can not be evened out. The mixing and associating of the delegates with each other, then, is one of the most beneficial influences of the United Nations. Perhaps this is the very core of the purpose of the United Nations.

Fourth, the United Nations means to us a positive strengthening of all countries in the field of economics. So far, most pleasing results have been reported by the various branches of the United Nations that have to do with the building up of a resistance against any economical collapse. It has been recognized by all the member nations, that any economical disaster, befalling any particular nation, would be felt in some form by all nations. Then, too, a hungry nation is not a peaceful nation. When a person is hungry he intends to get something to eat, either by fair means or if not possible this way, by foul means. If the United Nations does nothing more than completely perfect this economical stabilization it will have been worth the effort.

Fifth, the United Nations stands for a strong effort to instill into the minds of all people the idea of a family of nations. The brotherhood of all mankind is a lesson that has never quite been learned by the world. Once more a teacher has risen to teach all nations, not the battler of war, but a formula for peace.

To me, the United Nations is like an effort to bring a collection of animals together. Each animal feels it is the "cock-of-the-walk", just as every nation thinks it knows exactly what is right, and exactly what should be done. Most of the time, when a large group of animals are put together, they fight. Yet, we all know that otherwise hostile animals like the cat and dog, or cat and mouse, can be brought up together in the proper environment and the instinct to fight thereby forgotten.

Shivers Rejects Special Session Request Plea

AUSTIN, Nov. 29 (UP)—Gov. Allan Shivers has rejected a suggestion that he call a special session of the legislature to revise state old age pension laws.

The proposal came from Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, who asked that state welfare rolls be thrown open for inspection in order to cause some people, who wouldn't want the publicity, to drop from the list. Others grants could be made larger then, he said.

It is the aim of the United Nations to create an environment in which the many nations will not like animals, forget instinct, but let reason prevail. A person can train his cat and dog to forget their instinct, but only the individual can conquer himself. With this thought in mind the United Nations means to us a new hope of peace.

It's foolish to drive any car a city block without ample insurance.

You may hit somebody the first 50 feet and get sued for 50 thousand. You may not have 50 thousand, but the law may take your home or attach your wages for years.

Or your car may burn, be stolen, be damaged or cause damage. Yes sir, a car is full of risks. Let us give you figures on the many protections an America Fore policy can give you.

disregard this Insurance Information section. If you are required to file it, however, be sure that you still get the regular accident report section off to the Texas Department of Public Safety within 24 hours, despite the fact that you may take up to 10 days to send in the insurance section.

The simplest procedure, Director Garrison pointed out, will be simultaneous filing of all required information, but this will require a motorist to be prepared to answer the insurance and security questions promptly and file the combined report within 24 hours. Any motorist can do this, however, if he follows these suggestions of the director:
1. Carefully read the state's leaflet about the law and keep it handy in your car.
2. Get a report form, study the questions, and keep it in your car; you may need it in a hurry.
3. If you are insured, keep the name of your insurance company, number of your policy and amount and kind of insurance it provides, in your car for immediate reference.

4. If you are not insured, make up your mind in advance how you will meet the new law's security requirements by other means, as explained in the state's leaflet, if you are involved in a traffic accident.
"It cannot be repeated too often," Director Garrison said, "that the driver of every car involved in an accident must file all required information with the Department of Public Safety within the brief periods stated. Any question of who was at fault must not even be considered—the law says every driver, regardless of fault. The penalty for failure to report is a fine of $25 and suspension of your operating license until the report is filed. If an operator is physically unable to report, and was driving another person's motor vehicle at the time of the accident, the owner of the vehicle must file the report."

December 7 Is Democracy Day

Governor Allan Shivers today designated the tenth anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor as "Operation Democracy" Day in Texas.
"Operation Democracy" is sponsored annually by the State American Legion to promote greater citizen participation in local, state and national government affairs. Leading the program for the third straight year is John Ben Shepperd, chairman of the American Legion Americanism committee.

"The December 7 program will be highlighted by poll tax sales as a part of the Legion's year-in, year-out campaign to increase the turn-out in all elections," State Legion Commander Charlie Gibson announced in Amarillo. "On that day Legionnaires and members of the Legion Auxiliary will be deputized as poll tax collectors in more than 600 communities."

Special "Voting Insures Democracy" luncheons will be staged at noon across the state by the Legion in cooperation with other civic organizations, Gibson said. A poll tax receipt will be required for admission to the luncheons.

In setting aside December 7 as "Operation Democracy" Day, Governor Shivers referred to the growing lack of interest shown at the polls by the nation's eligible voters. He described the Legion campaign as a program seeking to "make the voice of the people ever more powerful in determining the fate of a nation rich in heritage but poor in acceptance of the ideal that each citizen shall take an active part in local, state and national affairs."

He then urged all Texans to participate in the all-day series of programs to dramatize that "fires of freedom still burn bright in confidence of final victory over the forces of evil confronting us today."

A morning "go to church" program will open the December 7 observance, followed by special Auxiliary meetings and the "Voting Insures Freedom" luncheons. Schools have been invited to hold oratorical or essay contests on the subject. "Voting—Insurance of Our Freedom." At 7 p.m. hundreds of "Fires of Freedom" will spring up simultaneously across the state to stress that voters are the keepers of the liberty fires.

Royal Neighbors Host Turkey Dinner For Mrs. Shipman And Their Families Monday Evening

The Royal Neighbors of America Camp No. 9054 met at the Terrell Building Monday honoring Mrs. Bertie Shipman on her birthday with a turkey dinner. The husbands and children of the members were guests for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Arterburn furnished the turkey and the lodge members prepared all of the trim-dolls at her feet representing children and above the angel a light shined down on them depicting the Jovenal of the lodge. The table was centered with a large birthday cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Ethel Wright. It was decorated in pink and white with tiny candle holders of the same color scheme. Plate favors were snowmen made of marshmallows, gum drops and etc.

After the honoree and guests were seated at the table, Mr. Delbert Capps made pictures of the group. Mrs. Shipman received many cards, handkerchiefs and other gifts.

Beautify Your Home With Roses And Know How To Care For Them

Shrub roses, tree roses, hybrid perpetuals and the delicate miniatures, are all capable of lending beauty and enchantment to gardens large or small.

Feeding:
Strong, vigorous roses need the energy of an extra supply of food, and a common error made by many rose lovers is not feeding at all or not feeding enough. Roses will respond well to an application of rotted manure or some other organic fertilizer spread on the soil around each plant if the organic type is not available there are many excellent commercial fertilizers which can be obtained from leading nurseries.

A heaping tablespoon of commercial fertilizer per plant is sufficient. The first application should be made when new growth is about three to four inches long. Spread the fertilizer in a circle about six or eight inches from the base of the plant, work it lightly

First Graders Give Program

Miss Mavrine Lemley presented her first grade pupils in a Thanksgiving program Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. in their class room at the Hodges Oak Park school.

The room was beautifully decorated with pots of ivy and evergreens. All around the walls were pictures that the children had colored of Jack Frost painting the leaves and different sizes of turkeys.

There were twenty-four parents and eleven small brothers and sisters present for the program.

The entire first grade assembled at the front of the room and gave a program of readings and songs which included "Five Fat Turkeys" a choral number, "The Thank You Song", and a scripture quotation from Psalms. They gave a choral reading of "Mr. Turkey" and "Thanksgiving Day."

After the program, the parents were invited to look at the work books and some of the work that the children had been doing and their report cards for the second six weeks period were passed out.

The following children appeared on the program: Dean Allen, Larry Anderson, Johnnie Crawford, David Diffe, Charles De Los Santos, Billy Galley, Gary Hazard, Beto Jimenez, Thomas Joyner, Arthur Merritt, Bill Perkins, Perry Williams.

into the soil and then water thoroughly. A second feeding follows the first blooming period, and a third should be applied a month later.

Spraying:
Spraying should be started as soon as the first leaves began to develop in the spring, and continued on a weekly basis until hot weather. During hot spells spray every ten days to two weeks.

The major enemies of the rose are insects and fungus diseases, and as in medicine, prevention is far easier than cure. Strong, healthy plants will fight off diseases and with the help of simple protective measures will have a minimum difficulty.

The main fungus diseases are blackspot and mildew. Mildew may be recognized by tired-looking foliage and a powdery, grayish film on some of the leaves.

Blackspot is exactly what the name implies. The principal insect pests are aphids, Japanese beetles, red spider, thrips and rose bugs, all of which can be effectively controlled by a weekly spraying program.

There are a number of all-purpose sprays and powders that are effective and improved equipment has greatly reduced the time required to do the job. Major tips to remember about spraying or dusting are: Be sure to cover the underside of the leaves as well as the top; Spray every ten days to two weeks during hot weather to avoid burning foliage.

Bob McCleskey Honored On His Fifth Birthday

Bob McCleskey was honored with a birthday party on his fifth birthday Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock by his mother, Mrs. Roy McCleskey. She was assisted in entertaining and serving by Mrs. K. E. Falls.

Various games were enjoyed by the group. Favors were multi-colored tinfoil Christmas trees and balloons.

Young People To Have Outing

Every member is urged to come so that final Christmas plans can be completed.

"VALLEY OF FIRE"

NEWS FROM CHEANEY

Mrs. Bill Tucker
My! Did a warm fire feels fine while a cold rain beats against the window panes, and its pretty bad on the cotton which is still in the field, but as the saying goes "The sun will shine again."
After such a nice Thanksgiving, we can't afford to grumble, even the left over has tasted mighty good.
We failed to get to church Sunday morning - had to meet a bus in Ranger. And guess whom we saw at the station getting a ticket for Brownwood? None other than Betty Jean Love. She was going home with her cousin, Miss Mimmie Walton, who spent Thanksgiving with her brother, W. E. Walton and wife and daughter, Billie. Betty will try for employment while in Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Neger were Cheaney Church of Christ visitors Sunday morning and visited the Curtis and Jack Blackwell families.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Revel and son of Gorman were recent visitors in the Jack Revel home. Bob Revel has gone west for employment.

Junior Love has migrated from Sweetwater to Odessa this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Yancey were in Gorman Monday closing the sale of the farm to a relative, and we understand that Cicero Rodgers of Desdemona will be the new tenant at the place.

Sam says he has no definite plans, he may rent another farm somewhere close.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Tucker, Jal, New Mexico, spent the Thanksgiving weekend here with parental Bill Tuckers and Fred Joiners.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hinds of Clarkville were guests in the Sanford Lemley home Wednesday through Monday. The men folk tried for a deer over in the cedar brakes but didn't have any luck.

Other visitors on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. White.

Mrs. Melva Love underwent surgery to remove gall stones, Saturday at the Blackwell Hospital at Gorman. She has made splendid recovery and states she is feeling fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter Hart and children moved recently near Alameda Church in the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Gregory and family of Sudan were here Sunday and attended Alameda church services. They were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yancey.

Margie Cozart of Breckenridge, here for Thanksgiving, rode her bicycle over and visited with Beth Hart.

Garvis and Raymond Hattoz and Fred Rogers reported no luck on their deer hunt Saturday. Raymond, who is an employee of Ranger Transfer and Storage, made a trip to Longview the other day on a business trip and was quite impressed with the East Texas Oil Fields.

The Neighborhood extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Caudle in the loss of their son, Dwain Caudle, in Japan, who lost his life in a bomber explosion.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alvis and three children and Walter George Alvis, all of Fort Worth, spent Saturday here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tucker left Saturday moving to their new home in Hobbs, New Mexico, where he has employment.

Missouri Valley Looking For Two New Members

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 29 (UP)—A spokesman for the Missouri Valley Conference today said the group "will look for new, and stronger members" to replace Bradley and Drake who withdrew from the conference this week.
Dr. George Small, coordinator of athletics at Tulsa University and conference executive vice-president, expressed "deep regret" on receiving word that Bradley had withdrawn yesterday.

"I am most sorry that Bradley has left the conference. They have been a good member," Small said.

"However, I am confident the Valley will not disintegrate and will look for new, and stronger members."

"The Missouri Valley Conference is the oldest circuit west of the Mississippi River and it will live through this break just as it did the 1926 split."

Small was referring to an earlier division which resulted in formation of the old Big Six Conference, now Big Seven.

Caudle Faces Quizzing On Plane Today

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (UP)—T. Lamar Caudle, ousted assistant attorney general who got outstate mink coats and cars, a free television set and commissions on oil deals, faced questioning today about a report that he also picked up a fee for selling an airplane.

Caudle was recalled for a fourth appearance (at 10 a.m. EST) before a House Ways and Means subcommittee investigating steadily-widening scandals in the Internal Revenue Bureau.
Nineteen employees of the tax-collecting agency were fired yesterday and 12 others were asked to resign, raising to at least 51 the total firings, suspensions or resignations in the bureau since the subcommittee began its inquiry. More bureau employees are expected to be fired later.

Caudle, who had the final say-so about prosecuting delinquent taxpayers, was fired by President Truman Nov. 16 for activities "incompatible" with his office.

The reported airplane deal was the latest in a series of "outside activities" to attract the subcommittee's interest. Yesterday hearing centered around favors Caudle got through members of a law firm which handled some 50 tax cases before going out of business last August.

Caudle told about the following favors:
Mink coat No. 1—Caudle's wife, who "didn't hardly have a coat worth anything," bought it around Christmas, 1949, at wholesale, paying $1,500 of the $2,400 out price herself and learning later that the tab for the remaining $900 was picked up by Jacob Landau, a member of the law firm, who had arranged the bargain purchase. She plans to pay the $900 back.

Mink coats Nos. 2 and 3—Mrs. Caudle's friends, Mrs. John L. McClellan, wife of the Arkansas Democratic Senator, and Mrs. Kenneth C. Royall, wife of the former Army Secretary, got them at reduced price and also through the intercession of Landau, who Caudle said knew a bank official who knew someone in the fur business in New York. Mrs. McClellan and Mrs. Royall paid for their coats.
(McClellan said in New Orleans last night that he gave the coat to his wife "for a Christmas present." He said he did not "know anything about any lawyer being involved in the purchase and I know I paid for the coat" at a reduced price.)

Commissioner—Caudle picked up one fee of $1,000 and another of $750 as a commission from Robert Fletcher, a Texas oil man, for steering Fletcher to Landau, who bought some oil holdings from Fletcher. The $1,000 fee was on a $5,000 sale. Rep. Robert W. Keen (R-N.J.) commented that this seemed an "unusual" commission, but admitted he did not know much about the oil business. Caudle said he "thought it was all right."

Reds Miss Their Buglar After A 'Yank' Initiation
The following item, taken from Stars and Stripes should interest any good American. And as today's hero is a brother of Mrs. Tom Lovelace Jr., it should be doubly interesting to the people in this city. The item, in part, follows:

"The best way to break up a North Korean attack, according to Pfc. Thomas Jedrynski of Dudley, Mass., is to shoot the buglar—which he proceeded to do one day recently....

"The Marines had just taken the ground from the North Koreans. The machine gunners dug in their gun, and waited for the counterattack. They listened every time the Korean buglar sounded the different commands.

"Every time this guy would toot his horn, said Jedrynski, the Koreans would move around. They were all ready and waiting for him to sound the attack."

Jedrynski saw the buglar stand up and raise the bugle to his lips to start the attack, when he squeezed off a short blast from his machine gun and watched the buglar crumple. From then on the Koreans just milled around waiting for the signal that never came.

Stormy Romance Ends In Marriage; King Weds Dancer

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 29 (UP)—Curvaceous show girl dancer Samia Gamal slipped into an abbreviated white satin wedding gown for her Moslem marriage before two sheikhs today to Texas playboy Sheppard (Abdullah) King.

The 15-minute ceremony, capping a gay international romance, will take place at about 11:30 a.m. EST in a downtown lawyer's office. There will be no best man, maid of honor or bridesmaids.

Once the lanky Houston oil heir and his Egyptian beauty take the Moslem oath and sign the marriage contract, orange juice and pink and white sugar-coated almonds will be served—an Arab symbol of prosperity.

Samia decided against a long gown and settled for a short but fetching lace-and-satin affair. King wore a black sack suit.
