SEEN OR HEARD

Especially in the toy departments of the various stores in Ranger, 'business it at all time high. Santa can sure get these parents moving fast and broke awfully quick when it comes time for him to come down the chimney.

That reminds us of the big bargain days ahead in the Ranger stores for Christmas shopping. The stores here are going all out this year to make this Christmas a good one for the children and their parents.

Of course grown-ups have their enjoyment for Christmas, but nothing that compared with that spell bound look on Christmas morning after old Santa has made his visit. That one look is worth all the trouble in the world.

We have now seen a deer—Halo Dunson brought one down here to the Times, he killed Saturday morning so the world-be hunters could see what they have walked their legs off for during the season. With the season closing in the surrounding counties local nimrods will turn to their own locality for their game.

Before the quail season opened numerous deer were seen in the fields and pastures. Now numerous deer will be seen and no quail. Those who get there first will have happy hunting on the quail as they did on the deer.

Well maybe the Ranger football fans will feel better now that the Winters Blizzards have met their match. From what some of the local people say that some of the garje Winters just as well have been playing TCU for all the good they did against the Arlington Colts.

Benny Binion Gets Gambling License For Nevada Club

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Dec. 3 (UP)—Gambler L. B. (Benny) Binion, under indictment in Texas for allegedly running a million-dollar-a-year policy wheel, had a probationary green light today to operate a gambling club here.

Binion got the unanimous approval of the Nevada State Tax Commission during the weekend, climaxing a two-year fight to operate his new Horseshoe Club.

The board issued Binion a gambling license with several conditions. He must submit a sworn affidavit that he is not engaged in gambling in any state where it is illegal, and he must surrender his license immediately if at any time he "descredits himself or the state of Nevada."

The commission also expressed dissatisfaction with the present gambling operation at the Horseshoe Club. Binion has been running the restaurant and bar at the club, but has not participated in the gambling operation.

The Commission said it was unable to find "concrete evidence" that Binion, who has been indicted in Dallas as a policy racket operator, was involved in the recent gangland assassination of gambler Herbert Noble near Dallas.

Attorney General May Be Called Before Tax Investigators Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (UP)—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath may be questioned this week by House investigators who want to know why he okayed T. Lamar Caudle's $5,000 commission in the sale of an airplane.

Democratic members of a House Ways and Means subcommittee investigating widespread tax scandals were expected to approve today a Republican proposal that McGrath be called for questioning.

Caudle, former assistant attorney general in charge of the Justice Department's tax division whom President Truman fired Nov. 16, has told the subcommittee that he got the subcommittee on the sale of a $30,000 airplane to a representative of two men under indictment for tax fraud.

Caudle was recalled (at 10 a. m. EST) today for a fifth round of questioning about his activities while in public office. During four days of testimony last week he told the subcommittee that McGrath approved his acceptance of the $5,000 commission.

Rep. John W. Byrnes, a member of the subcommittee, said he will ask McGrath to describe the Justice Department's appointment policies. The Wisconsin Republican, noting that Caudle was named head of the department's tax division in 1947 despite an admitted lack of experience in tax cases, demanded that Caudle's successor be chosen on the basis of "competency" rather than "friendship."

Radium Kills Woman After 30 Years Time

EAST ORANGE, N. J., Dec. 3 (UP)—More than 30 years ago Mrs. Florence C. Casler signed her death warrant by wetting a paint brush with her lips while daubing radium on watch and clock dial numerals.

But she did not die until yesterday, becoming the United States Radium Corporation's 41st victim of radium poisoning.

Dr. Harrison N. Martland, Essex County medical examiner, said radon gas remained latent in Mrs. Casler's system from about 1918 or 1919 until June, 1950 when it began to spread poison through her system and caused bone cancer.

Mrs. Marene Johnson is the county chairman of the Blood donations and Mrs. Jack Frost is special services chairman, Mrs. Perkins said.

Truce Teams Make Advances; Action On Battleline Light

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (UP)—The Communists broke the Korean armistice deadlock today by agreeing to a total arms freeze and proposing that "neutral" inspectors come behind the iron curtain to enforce it.

It marks the first time that the Communists anywhere have accepted the principle of arms inspection behind their borders or lines.

But they phrased the concessions in language that might end the U. S. Army's rotation program, preventing replacement of battleworn units and permit the Communists to complete new jet airfields.

United Nations truce negotiators sought to clarify the Red proposal by posing 21 questions. The Communists promised to answer them at the armistice meeting at 11 a. m. tomorrow (9 p. m. today EST).

The replies may go a long way toward determining whether there will be an armistice in Korea by Christmas.

If the allies accept the Red program, it will be turned over to a subcommittee to work out in detail.

However, the allies are particularly anxious to know just which "neutral nations" the Communists have in mind to police the truce.

In Communist eyes, both Russia and China are neutral. So also are Red Czechoslovakia, Poland and the Balkan countries. On the other hand, most UN members are involved in the war on the allied side.

The Communist compromise offer nevertheless marked the biggest step toward an armistice since both sides agreed last Tuesday that the cease-fire line shall be along the present battleline if the rest of the truce terms can be settled by Dec. 27.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist negotiator, put the proposal before the allies at the beginning of the afternoon session in the form of two additions to the five-point program he introduced last Tuesday.

It was a complete reversal of the Communist stand. Previously, the Reds had adamantly refused to consider any arms freeze or inspection behind their lines on grounds it constituted interference in North Korean affairs.

Specifically, Nam Il proposed: 1. "In order to insure the stability of a military armistice so as to facilitate the holding by both sides of a political conference at a higher level, both sides shall undertake not to introduce into Korea any military forces, weapons and ammunition under any pretext."

2. "In order to supervise the strict implementation of the stipulations of paragraph six (The proposal above), both sides agree to invite representatives of nations neutral in the Korean war to form a supervisory organ to be responsible for conducting necessary inspections—of such parts of entry in the rear as mutually agreed upon by both sides and to report to the joint armistice commission the results of the inspections."

The proposal differed from the UN program in that the allies had proposed merely that there should be no increase in the present size of armed forces, supplies, equipment and such facilities as airfields during a truce. This would permit the allies to replace battle-worn UN forces with fresh troops under their rotation program.

The allies also had suggested that the inspection be carried out by joint teams of UN and Communist officers.

UN Lines Strafed By Unidentified Plane Today

By Warren P. Franklin United Press Staff Correspondent 8th ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Dec. 3 (UP)—An unidentified plane bombed and strafed U. S. 3rd Division troops on the western front today.

The attack was the first in daylight on United Nations front-line positions in recent months. It pointed up recent warning by high UN officers that the Reds may be planning a full-scale air effort in Korea.

One report said the plane was jet-propelled, but others said it was a conventional propeller type. A 3rd Division briefing officer said the aircraft's main target appeared to have been an allied artillery position.

Apart from the raid and allied American air attacks on the Communists, only artillery duels and brief patrol skirmishes disturbed the quiet along the 145-mile front.

One of the briefest 8th Army communiqués of the war said there had been "no significant activity" on either the eastern or western fronts up to mid-day. Only light patrol contact with small enemy groups was reported from the central front.

During the 24 hours ended Monday morning, allied guns on the western front fired 2,600 rounds into Communist positions. The Reds fired only 186 rounds in reply. Allied air attacks at the same time destroyed two enemy ammunition dumps and two gun positions.

Other preferences mentioned by students included Lutheran, 64; Jewish, 23; Christian Science, 20; Assembly of God, 21; Congregational, 13; Adventist, 10; and Evangelical, 8.

One hundred and thirty students specified no particular affiliation; 135 were undeclared; and 221 professed to be Protestant with no preference as to which branch.

Four students named the Mormon faith as their preference; five specified the Nazarene Church, three the Church of God; three the Methodist; two, the Unitarian; six, Evangelical Reform; six, the Hebrew Church; and two, the Salvation Army. The Quaker, Pentecostal, Interdenominational, Mennonite, Dutch Reform, Community, Armenian, and Naha Church each had one follower at the University.

Britain's First Ship For Atomic Warfare Ready

LONDON, Dec. 3 (UP)—Britain hailed its new aircraft carrier Eagle today as the world's first major ship tailored to fight an atomic war.

However, the navy retained its ancient "secret weapon" of an issue of rum for every seagoing fighting man aboard its most modern ship.

Naval authorities said the 36,800-ton Eagle is "virtually unsinkable" because of a new method of controlling fire and water from damage by enemy shells. It can carry the atomic bomb and steps have been taken to make the vessel less vulnerable to atomic blasts and radiation.

Arrangements are pending arrival of the deceased from Ohio. Mrs. Cora Akoe Hazard of 1301 Oddie Street, Ranger, died Saturday, December 1, in Sidney, Ohio, while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clyde George.

She had lived in or around Ranger her entire life. She is survived by two sons.

Convicted Nuns In China Face Expulsion Soon

HONG KONG, Dec. 3 (UP)—The Chinese Communist government probably will deport all five Canadian nuns "convicted" by a howling mob in Canton for the "murder, negligence and inhumane treatment of orphans," observers believed today.

With 6,000 enraged spectators shouting judgement, a people's court in the capital of Kwanlung province yesterday sentenced two nuns to five years imprisonment and expulsion from the country at the end of their terms. Two others were ordered expelled for life and the fifth was sentenced to simple expulsion.

The 3 1/2-hour proceedings were Canton radio. However, the defendants never were given a chance to speak for themselves.

Observers here said that the two prison terms probably would be suspended and all five sisters departed at the same time within the next few days.

The five sisters of the Roman Catholic Foreign Ministry gave no further information, however, a legal spokesman said.

Tass said the transport was forced down at Papa, near the Soviet air base in Hungary. Papa is 230 miles northeast of Belgrade and 75 miles southeast of Vienna.

REDS PROPOSE ARMS FREEZE AND BEHIND LINES CHECKS

McCarthy Has Big Oil Deal In The Offing

HOUSTON, Dec. 3 (UP)—Oilman and hotel keeper Glenn McCarthy says he has a "big deal" in the offing, but has declined to disclose its details.

McCarthy yesterday said he planned drilling operations in Egypt where he set up a $6,000,000 oil exploration program in January.

At the same time, the rich Texan said there is a "big deal" afoot which will bring the Egyptian operation. McCarthy, who owns Houston's plush Shamrock hotel, hinted at another oil venture.

McCarthy said he and a partner, Johnny Meyer, have presented a 13-point program to Egyptian authorities and were assured it will be approved. The program permits McCarthy to own 51 per cent of his new National Petroleum Company of Egypt.

The ownership, he said, must be ratified by the Egyptian parliament by an amendment. Currently, Egypt bans foreign control of Egyptian companies.

About 8,000 square miles of land bordering the Red Sea are involved in the exploration program, he said.

Egypt will get all of the resultant oil it needs, McCarthy said, "and if there is any left over, I'll sell it anywhere I please."

Rhode Island was the first of the original 13 colonies to renounce allegiance to the British king, and the last of the 13 to ratify the Constitution.

WINGS OF THE WIND

On account of the fleetness of flight I could be in Odessa, Texas, one evening meeting with a group of industrial employees, and the next evening participate in the festivities of the Mid-Southern Gas Association in annual convention at Raleigh, N. C.

On another evening I could attend the Tennessee Farm Bureau banquet at Nashville and on the next break bread with members of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers at El Paso, Texas.

In a chartered plane, on the wings of the wind, I flew at night in the moonlight over West Texas. From my magic carpet I could count in a single scene a dozen cities sparkling under a canopy of glittering stars—bejeweled cities, set with rubies, emeralds and

TCU Will Rest Before Cotton Bowl Jan. 1

FORT WORTH, Dec. 3 (UP) — Cotton Bowl-bound Texas Christian, the team which came from out of nowhere to cop the Southwest Conference title and bowl honors, faces a week of rest and a week of play before thinking too seriously about football again.

After his club wrapped up both honors in one bundle by sacking up a 13-2 decision over Southern Methodist last Saturday, stubby little coach Dutch Meyer ordered his battling champions to "forget about that bowl date with Kentucky" and stay away from a football for a week.

Next week, they're to show up on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for what Meyer said would be "play sessions."

"We're just going to have some fun those three days," he said. "Probably play a little tough football, but mostly it'll just be fooling around like a bunch of kids on a vacant lot. Those kids need some relaxation. They've come a long way with the pressure mounting every week."

The emotional Horned Frogs mentor probably was thinking of himself, too. He gets as wrought up as a schoolboy over what goes on out on the field. He spends his Sundays after a game on his large farm near Ft. Worth, "so I can relax and untie the knots in my stomach."

Meyer said the club would be back in full regalia and drilling hard Dec. 17. Daily practice will be held until Dec. 22, then the boys will be given Sunday, Monday and Tuesday off for Christmas and report back Dec. 26. The club will do all of its training in Fort Worth, only 25 miles from the Cotton Bowl, and will not invade Dallas until the day of the game.

Golden Gloves Time Is Here Again In Texas

FORT WORTH, Dec. 3—The sixteenth annual Texas Golden Gloves program will get under way this week. The first flurry of action will take place at Denton Dec. 6-7-8 where a district tournament is scheduled.

There'll be 19 regional centers this year where contestants from district tournaments, like Denton's, will qualify for the five-night state tournament in Fort Worth Feb. 13, 14, 15, 16 and 18.

For those who win State championships, there will be an all-expense paid trip to Chicago for the annual Golden Glove tournament of champions.

Regional tournaments are planned for Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Brownwood, Bryan, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Odessa, Paris, San Angelo, San Antonio, Tyler, Waco and Wichita Falls.

All Golden Gloves tournaments as in the past, are sponsored only by newspapers and established civic organizations on a non-profit basis, with surplus funds going to recognized charities and development of amateur sports.

The program is sanctioned by the AAU, and all contestants must be registered with that organization.

In Texas the Golden Gloves program is sponsored and directed by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Navy-Marines To Grade Officers On Thrift Now

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (UP) — Naval and Marine officers soon will be graded on "cost consciousness" in addition to such attributes as leadership and performance of duty.

Chairman Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) revealed that the Navy has agreed to a recommendation of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee that the officers be rated officially on their "demonstrated ability" to save the taxpayers' money.

The subcommittee made its recommendation after an investigation of Navy and Marine training centers disclosed a "lack of cost consciousness" resulting in "large scale waste of men, money and materials."

Odessa Residents Stage Clean-Up Of City Today

ODESSA, Dec. 3 (UP)—Odessa business houses were closed today as residents pitched in on a community-wide cleanup project in an effort to halt a polio siege that so far has struck 57 of the city's 30,000 residents in a little more than a month.

Volunteer teams will tour the town cleaning up trash piles, garbage and other unsanitary conditions. The city council has ordered 10,000 "fly-proof" garbage cans and workers will see that every household has an acceptable container for refuse.

The outbreak, which has claimed nine lives, has already interfered with many community activities. All theatres except drive-ins were closed Saturday night and many churches have cancelled young people's activities.

The annual Christmas celebration, including a parade headed by Santa Claus, was postponed yesterday "indefinitely" by the city's business leaders.

Schools remained open but absenteeism was at record high level because frightened parents kept their children home from classes. Some parents were reported sending their children to schools in other cities.

Today, 11 patients were under treatment for polio at Medical Center Hospital, but Mrs. Gladys Berryman, superintendent of nurses, said none was critical and "everything seems pretty well under control."

The current cases are mostly children, ranging in age from nine months to four years. Two are married women and one is a 15-year-old girl. Two of the cases were diagnosed yesterday.

Four other persons, admitted to the hospital Saturday, were believed suffering from polio although their diagnoses weren't completed.

Most of those suffering with the disease were stricken during November.

property damage—except to the pecan tree which was reduced to a widely-scattered barrelful of wood chips.

It appeared that whoever decided to blow up the tree was determined to do a good job.

Residents as far away as 15 miles heard and felt the blast. Jack Yarbrough, who was motoring along near the explosion scene, said the blast almost blew his automobile off the road.

Hundreds of people called police to ask what had happened. Some feared an atomic bomb had been dropped. Others thought maybe a meteor had smashed in.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 (UP) — Getting fur coats at wholesale prices is an old skin game, a trade publication says.

Women's Wear Daily said New York retailers were fighting the "I can get it for you wholesale" practice years before mink coats became fashionable among wives of government officials.

"The guffaws by merchants are occasioned by the testimony and newspaper stories, making it appear necessary for the customer to have inside contacts to buy a fur in the (wholesale) market," the trade paper said.

Girl Scouts Continue Tour Of Their Community Saturday Evening

A group of Girl Scouts with their leader visited the Ranger Times Saturday afternoon, in order to see how the news is received and published by their local paper.

The girls have been visiting a different business each week in their efforts to learn more about their community. This is the way they earn their Community Badge as well as learn many things of interest about their town.

The group arrived at the Newspaper establishment about two o'clock and was shown the teletype machine where news is received all the time from the United Press, they were interested in the linotype machines where the news articles are set so they can be printed. About 2:30 p.m. they witnessed the Ranger Daily Times come off the big press.

During this time, the newspaper boys were gathered in the office paying their bills and getting ready to deliver their papers.

Poll Of House GOP Nets "Ike" 54 "Yes" Votes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3 (UP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower replied to a poll showing that more than a fourth of the Republicans in the House favor him as their presidential candidate.

Eisenhower wrote Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R., N.Y.) who conducted the poll, that he was "flattered" to hear the Republicans "feel that I have the necessary qualifications to fill the highest post in our country."

But his brief letter continued to duck the question whether he will accept the bid to declare himself a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Cole, an Eisenhower booster, conducted the secret poll among his colleagues during August and September, Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, an announced candidate, got 71 votes and Eisenhower got 54.

Although Eisenhower declined in advance to comment on the poll, Cole sent him the results along with a letter praising the General's role as head of the North Atlantic Treaty Defense Forces.

"I would be less than human if I did not feel flattered to know that certain of your colleagues in the House feel that I have the necessary qualifications to fill the highest post in our country," Eisenhower wrote Cole.

Collins, at 95, Oldest Rail Engineer in U. S.

STILL hale and hearty at 95 and enjoying to the full the fruits of his retirement, Sextus A. Collins of 55 Channing St., New London, Conn., pensioned Central Vermont Railway engineer, is not only the oldest C. V. pensioner, but is believed to be the oldest retired railroad engineer in the United States. Collins, who takes a walk out of doors every day the weather is fine, traveled to Brattleboro, Vt., this fall to attend a Central Vermont Railway pensioners' meeting and had a "fine time" because the trip "didn't tire me at all."

The old engineer was born July 24, 1856, and went to work as a C. V. fireman in 1887. Two years later he was promoted to engineer and ran trains between New London and Brattleboro, Vt., until his retirement in 1934 at the age of 78. He says his claim as the oldest retired locomotive engineer in the United States has never been challenged.

"I am also appreciative of your warm endorsement of the work we are engaged in here, as well as your sympathetic understanding of my present position. It was most thoughtful of you to comment on these things in your press release."

The "sympathetic understanding" of Eisenhower's present position referred to Eisenhower's refusal to deliver into domestic politics while in uniform.

This attitude suits the promoters of the Eisenhower-for-president drive—at least for the time being. Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge (R., Mass.) chairman of the movement, claims that Eisenhower is strong enough to win the nomination even if he still is in Europe when the Republican National Convention is held in Chicago next July.

Van Fleet To Watch Guerrilla Mop-up In Hills

NAMWON, Korea, Dec. 3 (UP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the 8th Army, came to this southwest Korean town today to observe a South Korean Army offensive against a large group of the 8,000 Communist guerrillas operating behind UN lines.

South Korean troops under Maj. Gen. Paik Sun Yup began "operation Rathole" against guerrillas infesting the Chiri Mountains Sunday with simultaneous attacks from north and south in an encirclement attempt.

The Korean command reported that South Korean troops already have killed 24 guerrillas in the foothills and Mustang fighter planes supporting the operation had killed 22 more. Six women and eight children attached to the guerrilla army were captured in mountain caves.

Van Fleet said the guerrillas are "troublemakers, bandits of a nature — Communist aided and abetted. They should be wiped out."

Youngster Shoots Self After Yule Presents Wrapped

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3 (UP)—Thirteen-year-old Richard D. Speth shot himself to death with his father's pistol last night after carefully wrapping Christmas presents he had purchased for his parents and friends.

The boy's parents, Paul and Valda Speth, said they were sitting in the front room of their home with their daughter when they heard the shot. They said the boy appeared to be in good spirits.

Richard left a note asking that a friend be appointed patrol leader of his Boy Scout troop.

CONVICTED—

Catholic Order of the Immaculate Conception, whose mother house is in Montreal, were convicted of the murder of children in the orphanage they operated in Canton and of extortion and illegal sale of children.

Specifically, the prosecution charged that between Oct. 14, 1949 the day the Communists entered Canton, and Jan. 10, 1951, 2,116 of the 2,651 children taken into the orphanage died.

However, the orphanage usually took in children who had been abandoned on the streets in die. Often they were dead before arrival at the home and many died soon afterward from malnutrition, disease and exposure.

(In Montreal, Sister St. Joseph, mother superior of the Order of the Immaculate Conception, reiterated last night that the charges against five nuns in Canton "are absolutely false and fantastic." She refused further comment, however, on the grounds that "anything we might say, anything in form of a protest, might hurt our sisters' chances of obtaining freedom.")

Sister Superior Alphae Du Redennneur and her assistant, Sister Marie Germaine were sentenced to five years imprisonment and expulsion; Sisters St. Germain and St. Victor were expelled for life; and Sister St. Foi was sentenced to simple-apparently leaving her free to return later.
