33RD YEAR

RANGER, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1952

PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 191

SEEN OR HEARD

Politics seems to be about all you can hear now from local citizens. That is one thing that hasn't been taken away from us—the right to vote.

But in this section of the underbrush you have to pay a poll tax to be eligible to do so. January 31st is the last day you can plunk down your dollar and six-bits and get that poll tax paid.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a citizenship contest based on the number of poll taxes paid in each city in West Texas.

Wouldn't it be nice if Ranger could win that little deal by paying a greater percentage of their poll tax than any other town in this part of the country.

The only way we could do that is to everyone pay their poll tax—have you paid yours.

If you'll notice when you drive by the area surrounding the Vatican's Apartments it looks a little better now than it has in some time.

That just goes to show you what a bunch of women can do when they get their minds made up. Most of the women down there all pitched in while their "lazy" husbands were working and gave the place a good cleaning up.

One of them got the fire department down to burn off the trash in a very unique way. She stopped the chief of police and had him talk to the fire boys and pretty soon they came rolling up and did a fine job of burning off the weeds and trash.

Ranger Junior College goes to Abilene tonight where they will play the Abilene Christian College "B" team.

After their game there tonight Abilene will come down here for a return engagement next Monday night with the Rangers.

Ranger High School is idle until Friday night when they take on Dublin in a double header in the local gym.

The Bulldogs dropped their first conference game to Eastland by a lopsided score. Coach Aalls seems to think that the boys will have to snap out of the trance they were in at Eastland Friday night if they expect to offer anyone competition in the district race.

The girls came through in flying colors and won their conference opener from Eastland.

Ranger Junior College has gotten off to a bad start in the Pioneer Conference after being favored as the second best team in the league. They lost their first two conference games to San Angelo and Aplington.

You folks be sure and remember to give to the March of Dimes every opportunity you have. Polio is taking its toll all the time and you are only asked to give during the month of January to fight it.

Fighting Cop Doesn't Pay

DALLAS, Jan. 13 (UP)—Biting and slugging cops is very much like crime, a pair of narcotics convicts realized today. It doesn't pay.

Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of Federal District Court ordered a 13-month prison term for Lila Ruth Miller, 23, who severely bit two detectives when they tried to force her to surrender drug capsules in her mouth.

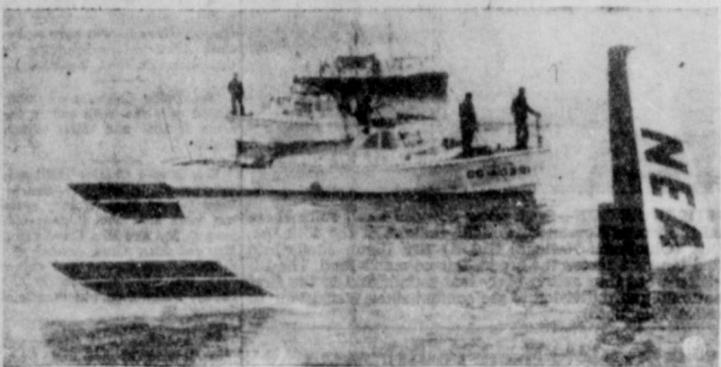

Bobby Lee Hoffman, 18, who in the same courtroom melee last November knocked down U. S. Marshal J. R. (Red) Wright with a well-timed right hook was given 18 months for assaulting an officer.

Hoffman was given a three-year term in the November marijuana trial. Miss Miller was given 13 months on the narcotics count. Her 13 months for biting the detectives will be a concurrent sentence.

California-Nevada Paralyzed By Worst Storm In Fifty Years

By United Press

The worst storm in 50 years tore into California and Nevada today, turning the Sierra Mountains into a "white hell" with thousands marooned, all transportation paralyzed and damage mounting with each new blast.

Donner Summit, a niche in the backbone of the towering Sierras, was the scene of a futile struggle between man-made machines and the fury of nature gone berserk.

The sleek streamliner City of San Francisco was held in a snowbound grip on the west side of the summit. The train used up all fuel and heat and light failed.

The 226 persons aboard the train huddled in blankets as ski rescue teams and three army weasels fought to reach the train with food and supplies.

Efforts to keep the roads over the mountains open were abandoned. Officials said the danger to lives and possible damage to equipment was too great.

A veteran highway superintendent at Donner Summit said the snow rescue teams gave up because they "weren't getting any place."

"It's a white hell," he said. "Everything's down. Just a big blizzard with no beginning and no end."

A new storm formed up and headed south from the bay of Alaska to add fresh fury to the four-day siege of record-breaking snow.

Jury Deadlocked In Frank Costello Contempt Case

By H. D. Quigg

United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (UP)—A federal jury resumes deliberation today on the case of gambler Frank Costello, accused of contempt of the United States Senate at the spectacular televised crime hearings last March.

The jury of 12 men and two women failed to reach a verdict after five hours and 55 minutes of deliberation and was locked up for the night at midnight by Judge Sylvester J. Ryan.

Ryan ordered the jurors to resume their secret arguments at 9:30 a.m. EST today and told them to "take as much time as you conscientiously require to reach a verdict."

The 60-year-old gambler, accused by the Senate crime investigating committee of being a boss of the Eastern underworld, was indicted on 11 contempt counts. He could receive a maximum sentence of 11 years in prison and fines of $11,000 if found guilty on all counts.

It was Costello's refusal to answer questions about his net worth, total indebtedness, alleged acquaintanceship with former New York mayor William O'Dwyer and James Moran, indicted for perjury, that caused him to be cited for contempt of the Senate.

Interested persons who are planning to attend must call the operator of the Gholson Coffee Shop and notify him of their intentions to be there in order that he might prepare a meal for them. A charge of one dollar will be made for the meal, as is the usual charge for the members of the Lions Club.

Your reservations for a meal must be made before nine-thirty Thursday morning to allow time for the preparation of the additional meals.

Police Tear Gas Rioters Marching In Cairo Funeral

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 15 (UP)—Police dispersed stone-throwing demonstrators with tear gas today during a parade of 100,000 youths of an Egyptian pilot by British demanding revenge for the killing soldiers.

Police proclaimed a state of emergency in Cairo and most other Egyptian cities in an attempt to prevent further violence in the tense Anglo-Egyptian crisis.

The police hurled tear gas bombs in Cairo when part of the mass funeral procession for Ahmed Mohamed Esmat got out of hand and some of the demonstrators began throwing stones.

Esmat, a pilot for the Egyptian Airlines, was shot dead in a clash at a British roadblock in the Suez Canal zone yesterday.

The procession began quietly but ominously in the suburb of Kebbeh with some 60,000 students and government workers in line. They responded to a Socialist Party call for a large-scale memorial tribute.

By the time the procession had reached the center of Cairo, some 100,000 were marching. Many were shouting for revenge. There were cries of "Down With Britain" and "Long Live Egypt."

Police used the tear gas bombs when rioters began smashing store windows and street lamps after the funeral procession passed.

An estimated 50,000 spectators looked on as the procession moved for three hours over a four-mile route. Egyptian Army and Air Force units participated in the march. Members of Egyptian "Liberation Battalions" fired pistols into the air to emphasize their revenge demands.

Galveston Mayor Sentenced To 3 Days In Jail

GALVESTON, Jan. 15 (UP)—Mayor Herbert Y. Cartwright was in the Galveston County Jail today, booked without his title, on the first day of a three-day contempt of court jail sentence.

Cartwright's boyhood and University of Texas school friend, Judge Don Markle, sentenced him yesterday in 10th District Court for defying a temporary restraining order preventing him from interfering with a jewelry auction.

The mayor also was fined $100. He is in the jail annex behind the other cells. Jailer Ed Fornby described it as a "room-like" cell, with barred windows but with an ordinary door. It is ordinarily occupied by juveniles or women inmates, Fornby said, but the mayor was consigned to the room because "it happened to be available."

"We don't pay any attention to titles around here," he said. "As far as we are concerned this was just another routine day."

Sheriff Frank L. Bagnone said there would be no special privileges for the mayor, but food is being brought him from a restaurant.

Stalin Fostered Atomic Control Plan; UN Told

Polio Victims 'Learn To Live' With Handicap

Treatment of the paralyzed polio patient is not complete unless the patient and his family have "learned to live" with his handicap.

So says Dr. Morton A. Seidenfeld, Director of Psychological Services for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which this month is conducting the 1952 March of Dimes to provide funds for the continuing fight against polio.

"Psychological guidance is an essential part of the medical care program for handicapped patients," Dr. Seidenfeld said. "It is equally important for the parents of handicapped polio to have similar guidance. The National Foundation is interested in total care for the total patient."

The psychologist told of Mary, a seven-year-old child who was left with a paralyzed arm after an attack of polio. Mary's parents, he said, were over-protective, and although the child could have resumed many of her normal activities despite her handicap, in this instance her program was restricted in a misguided attempt to spare her stress and strain.

She was kept out of school for more than a year. Now, at the age of twelve, Mary is only in the fifth grade in school, is depressed and lonely because her friends have gone on into Junior High, leaving her with the "little kids." As a result, Dr. Seidenfeld said, she has become retarded educationally because she no longer is interested in her school work.

"Children like Mary would not become problems if they and their parents were properly advised," Dr. Seidenfeld explained. "There is a great need for more experts in psychological care who can assist handicapped patients and their parents to adjust to the new situations polio often creates."

Methodists Not In Favor On UMT Units

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Jan. 15 (UP)—The Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church informed President Truman and other government officials today it was firmly opposed to any system of peacetime military training.

A resolution opposing the training was adopted by 49 Bishops, representing 9,985,000 Methodists in the United States, at the concluding session of the council's semi-annual meeting here yesterday.

The council also resolved it would only "compound the blunder" to name a substitute for Gen. Mark Clark as ambassador to the Vatican.

Dickie Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Armstrong of San Antonio, was riding on another horse beside his sister Wilma Ruth on Sept. 11, 1946, when he was 10 and she 7 years old.

Wilma's horse bolted and Dickie sprang his own, hoping to catch and halt his sister's mount. But Dickie was thrown from the horse and never regained consciousness.

TWO SCHOOLS ROBBED HERE

Two local schools were broken into last night or early this morning by persons or a person unknown getting a small sum of money and causing damage to the safe in one of the schools.

Ranger high school and Hodges Oak Park elementary school were the two places entered.

Supt. of schools, G. H. Rush, said this morning that while the intruders took about two dollars from the grammar school and a slightly larger amount from the high school, probably the worse damage was to the high school safe.

The safe was broken open to gain entrance and the fire wall was broken. Some things were thrown around in the high school office, but no records were destroyed or damaged by the burglars.

It had not been definitely established this morning just how the persons entered the high school. The supposition was that they went up the fire escape and came in on the third floor.

RUSSIA REITERATED CHARGES THAT U. S. FOSTERING WAR

By Richard Witkin

United Press Staff Correspondent PARIS, Jan. 15 (UP)—Russia's new proposals for world atomic control resulted from a directive issued by Marshal Josef Stalin, Pyelorusia told the United Nations today.

Kuzma Kiselev, delegate from Byelorussia, an integral part of the Soviet Union, made the statement before the UN assembly's main political committee.

He accused the West of trying to give the new Russian atomic proposal, announced Saturday by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, a "first-class tool" in the fledgling UN Disarmament Commission.

He said Russia's program of "measures to combat the threat of a new war flows from the directive of Josef Stalin and squares with the interests of peace and security and with the interests of the people of the entire world."

Russia's new plan calls for a simultaneous atomic weapons ban and control system. It agrees to a continuous inspection program on the condition such inspection does not interfere with internal domestic affairs of any country.

"As Stalin has said, our foreign policy is a clear one," Kiselev said. "It is a policy of maintenance of peace and fostering trade relations with all countries."

"The Soviet Union has not the intention of threatening anybody and least of all of attacking anybody."

Kiselev reiterated Communist charges that the United States was preparing an aggressive war against Russia.

He said a West German Army was "bent on revenge" and would be the main striking force of the North Atlantic Treaty Army.

"The United States and her allies are seeking to surround Russia and her allies with a gigantic ring of military bases," he said. "In so doing, the United States and her allies expose themselves as the initiators of a new war."

He reiterated Vishinsky's demand for an immediate Korean armistice and withdrawal of all foreign troops from there within 90 days.

Kiselev said the Panmunjom talks were "stalled by the doings of the American side."

He said the UN forces had continued to bomb and strafe the neutral zone in Korea in spite of promises to cease.

Liquor Tax Deduction Becoming Racket, Head Of Temperance Union Says

CHICAGO, Jan. 15 (UP)—The national president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union said today that income tax deductions for the cost of liquor used for "entertainment" had "reached the proportions of a racket."

Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin urged that liquor for business entertainment be dropped as a deductible item from federal and state income taxes.

NEW SAFETY LAW BRINGS IN POEM FROM RANGERITE

We have here a poem submitted by Mr. Lonnie Baker, 203 South Houston, that we believe aptly applies to the new Texas Motor Safety Responsibility Law you have been hearing so much about.

We will publish in the hopes that you too will enjoy reading it.

AN IDEA If you had your life protected by January the first, Then have your car inspected, would exempt you from the hearse, Could drive as fast or slow, and drink as much or more, Then journey through this weary land feeling proud as any man.

Perhaps your car is very new, its imaginable what it can do. Don't fool around and make delay, and then make it up on the highway.

Better cut you speed, don't be so quick Since the law has gotten so strict. Behind a car leave ample space, don't drive so fast — you'll be made safe.

Many travelers started out and never stop to think how much worry it may cause, if he took a drink.

There are travelers on the road, whether lots are few. They want to reach their destiny, just as well as you.

Some are driving cars and trucks, many are walking too; they're progress will often depend, on just what you will do.

When a bandit steals a car, is he liable, too? Or must he carry insurance for what he's going to do.

HEROS—The fears of a French orphan that he would let down his adopted America have ended. He has been killed in action in Korea. Cpl. Three Red MIG Jets Damaged; Fighting Light

8th ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, Jan. 15 (UP)—American Sabrejets drew their first blood since Friday by damaging 2 Communist Mig-15 jet fighters today in a 15-minute dogfight over northwest Korea.

Thirty-six of the Sabres battled 40 Migs between 37,000 and 50,000 feet over Sinanju in 'Mig Alley'. The damaged enemy jets were claimed by 1st Lt. Billy B. Dobbs of Fontana, Calif., and 1st Lt. Robert W. Smith of York, Pa.

The claims boosted the 5th Air Force's score to 163 Migs destroyed, 31 probably destroyed, and 339 damaged.

Other United Nations jets, flying as a screening force for 5th Air Force fighter-bombers, sighted 150 more Migs and exchanged fire with them. No further claims were made, however, pending examination of the gun camera films.

F-84 Thunderjets blasted a large Communist hand grenade factory near Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, with napalm and 500-pound fire bombs. Explosions shook the building and sent smoke and flames 300 or 400 feet overhead. Pilots estimated the factory was 75 per cent destroyed.

On the ground, U.N. forces beat off a Communist probing attack in a four-hour fight on the east-central front.

The enemy assault was launched by at least 200 Reds against a U.N. bridgehead on the east bank of the Pukhan River southeast of Kumsong. The allies held their ground and finally sent the beaten enemy reeling north.

The only other action along the 145-mile front reported in an allied position northwest of Kumsong on the east coast. It was reported in 10 minutes.

Polio On Rise In Galveston

GALVESTON, Jan. 15 (UP)—At least 22 polio cases have been reported in Galveston since Dec. 1, city health officers reported today, though one source placed the figure at 30 or more.

Dr. Herman Weinert, city health officer, said three cases were reported to him over the weekend, two children and a 26-year-old adult.

The incidence of the disease, he said, seemed to pick up over weekends.

At the same time, Dr. Martin Schneider local head of the March of Dimes campaign who is on the staff of the University of Texas Medical School here, said the count since Dec. 1 should be 30.

Dr. Schneider said apparently some of the diagnosed cases were not reported to city officials.

Mother Tosses Son To Death; Jumps Herself

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 15 (UP)—A mother threw her two-month-old son to his death from atop a five-story sanitarium and then hurled herself from the roof in a suicide leap, authorities said today.

Kent County deputy sheriff Arthur Tanis said Mrs. Matilda Reinhart, 39, rushed up the fire escape of Sunshine Tuberculosis Sanitarium last night with her son, Allen, in her arms.

She swung to the roof, Tanis said, threw Allen off and then followed.

The infant was killed instantly. The mother died in a hospital with out regaining consciousness.

Tanis said Mrs. Reinhart was not a patient at the sanitarium. He said she lived with her accountant husband, Floyd, about three miles from here and had driven to the institution in the family car. He said there was no explanation for her actions.

Quadruplets Born To Arkansas Woman, 38; Babies Doing Well

MURFREESBORO, ARK., Jan. 15 (UP)—Quadruplets — three boys and a girl—born in the three-room home of a low-income farm family, were reported "doing well" today after their surprised father rushed them to a hospital in the family car.

The infants, identified simply as "A, B, C and D," at the Howard County Memorial Hospital, were placed immediately in an incubator after they arrived, wrapped in blankets in the arms of George Ponder, their father.

Mrs. Ponder, a 38-year-old woman, "felt fine," her doctor reported. The Ponders already have eight children, four boys and four girls.

Superintendent of Nurses Nancy Kamage said the babies "seem to be doing well. They're very tiny but we hope they will live."

The births began about 7 p.m. last night. The delivery was attended by Dr. M. B. Duncan, who delivered seven of the Ponder's other children.

The first to be born was the girl.

Ten minutes later the first boy arrived, 20 minutes after that the second, and at 7:45 o'clock the last was born—all of them normally and without complication, Duncan said.

Within 15 minutes, the doctor and the 41-year-old father had the infants wrapped in a blanket, and Ponder took them in his car to Nashville, 15 miles away.

It took him almost an hour to get to the hospital over the rough hilly roads.

"I've got four babies," he announced breathlessly at the hospital. "They're all mine."

Doctors and nurses quickly placed the babies in two incubators without stopping to weigh them.

Duncan reported Mrs. Ponder had a "pretty easy delivery. She didn't have any trouble at all and got along just fine."

Kefauver Will See Truman At Noon Today

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (UP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver said he was going to the White House today to "talk politics with President Truman." Other Democrats fervently hoped he would get some clue to Mr. Truman's 1952 intentions.

The conference (at noon EST) could have an important bearing on whether the Tennesseean throws his hat in the ring for the Democratic presidential nomination. Kefauver is rated a leading contender for the nomination if Mr. Truman passes it up.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said Mr. Truman told him yesterday that "he has not made a decision" on whether to seek renomination. The president had said earlier that he had made up his mind but was not ready to say how.

Coffee Part Of CARE Packages Sent To Needy

Coffee—half a billion cups—has shown our Western World allies that we care. The "we" being individual Americans who have sent that much coffee to neighbors in Western Europe and other free countries through the offices of CARE. Generous American citizens who feel a responsibility toward others in the world community are remembering that the human spirit needs good cheer as surely as the body needs food.

Coffee is part of all CARE parcels sent to Italy, Greece, Israel, India, Yugoslavia, Belgium, Finland, France and other countries. In many of these lands coffee is still rationed, and so, therefore welcome. It warms the heart, as well as the body, and is an ambassador of good will from the free people of both North and South America to their less fortunate allies.

Body Of Robbery Victim Will Be Exhumed For Cops

CLEBURNE, Jan. 15 (UP)—The body of Robert Bundy Ross, 54, will be exhumed for examination in an effort to uncover evidence concerning his gunshot death.

Ross was shot to death Dec. 22, and robbed of $800 at his home near Glen Rose.

Two men arrested Christmas day are still being held. After a .38 caliber pistol was found in the Fort Worth home of one of the suspects yesterday, officers asked that Ross' body be exhumed for an examination of the four bullet wounds.

Ballistics experts will try to determine if the recovered pistol could have fired the fatal bullets, according to investigating officers.

Girls Death Ruled Accidental By Judge

CHILDRESS, Jan. 15 (UP)—A verdict of accidental death was returned yesterday after 17-year-old Mary Ellen Slaton, Childress high school senior, was found dead of a pistol wound at her home.

One More Day To Hunt Quail

AUSTIN, Jan. 15 (UP)—The quail hunters of Texas have only one more day left in the state's six week season, with two counties excepted.

The season ends one-half hour after sunset Jan. 16 in all except the South Texas counties of Kleberg and Kenedy, where a special law set the legal shooting dates from Dec. 1 to Jan. 31. The season opened Dec. 1.

Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission, pointed out that some sportsmen needn't give up hunting altogether just yet.

Javelina may be hunted in 48 counties where there is no closed season, he said, and a portion of another county. And he said squirrels may be hunted in 65 counties which have no closed season.

Churchill Says General "Ike" Is Great Man

OTTAWA, Jan. 15 (UP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill described Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as a great man and said he hoped the statement wouldn't get him mixed up in American domestic politics.

During his speech at a state banquet last night Churchill referred to the great turning point in World War II when Viscount Alexander, now Governor-General of Canada, Field Marshal Montgomery and Eisenhower "opened the tide against the Axis in North Africa."

He referred to them as "three great men" and then remarked: "I think I might say that without getting mixed up in party politics."

Young Negro Caught With Load Marijuana

LAREDO, Jan. 15 (UP)—An 18-year-old Negro was held here today in lieu of $2,000 after customs officers said they found six pounds of prepared marijuana in his car when he was arrested. Agents said Alfred W. Amey, the prisoner, had been across the International Boundary to Mexico before he was picked up near Laredo last Friday.

Hollywood Film Shop

HOLLYWOOD, (UP)—Every dog has his day, it is said. In Hollywood, it is once more the day of the extra. Lavish motion picture productions are back and with them the call for thousands of those jacks of all movie trades to fill up the mob scenes.

Already on the screen are several such "scaper-colossals" as "Quo Vadis," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer opus. For its big crowd scenes, this one picture alone used 30,000 extras, more than ever were used in any picture.

Casting directors for both "Samson and Delilah" and "David and Bathsheba" had to beat the bushes to round up enough players. On a slightly smaller scale, Universal - International went into the mobscene business with "The Golden Horde" and "The Prince Who Was a Thief."

British film extras have been profiting from "Captain Horatio Hornblower," which Warner Bros. made abroad, and "Ivanhoe," made overseas by M-G-M. The Metro company also used thousands in the cast of its recently completed "Westward the Women" and is preparing for early production of the spectacular "Plymouth Adventure."

All these pictures make the extra hark back to the days of the C. E. DeMille and D. W. Griffith spectacles of old—such things as "Birth of a Nation," "Ben Hur" and "The Ten Commandments."
