

33RD YEAR

RANGER, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1952

PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 200

SEEN OR HEARD

It isn't long until the mothers of Ranger stage the Mothers March On Polio between the hours of seven and eight, in fact that all comes about January 31st.

We don't know how much the Ranger fund has in it at the present but we do know it isn't enough. We're really going to low the line if we get this polio drive over the hump in Eastland County with the indebtedness starting us in the face from last year.

Maybe we've been associated with a government so long that operates on deficit spending that we think everyone and any organization can do the same thing. If you believe that to be true you just go ask the banker here how long he would be able to keep his doors open if they just kept going deeper and deeper into debt. Or you can ask yourself how long you can keep spending without paying nary a cent and then you know why we must support this drive.

W. R. Cole cast one of the ballots for the benefit basketball game the Volunteer Firemen are sponsoring and with it he sent along a donation. Our thanks to Mr. Cole for his money and his ballot.

It looks as if you would go for the chance of naming a bunch of people to play in a basketball game for polio. Besides you get it free, and don't give a cent unless you want to.

We need some more votes on who is to play or we will just have to let the Volunteer Firemen select anyone they can to be the contestants. Get your ballot in now for the teams you would like to see play in the benefit game, January 28th. We'll have to stop next Friday and give the firemen a chance to get things in shape so do your voting now.

JAYCEES WORKING ON PLANS FOR STOCK SHOW & ROUND-UP

The Ranger Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting last night heard the coming livestock show discussed; saw films of rodeo stock shown by Bobby Estes of Baird; made plans for repairing the livestock barn at the rodeo grounds; and named a committee to work out a date and plans for the coming Jaycee Rodeo.

Beverly Dudley, chairman of the Livestock Committee reported that he was working on the catalogue and plans for the show, but something must be done in the way of repairing the show barn before final plans can be made.

Bobby Estes of Baird, rodeo producer, met with the Jaycees last night to get them to consider using his stock in their annual roundup. Films of his stock in action at various rodeos over the country were shown to the Jaycees and they agreed to talk with him about the show after they had set the date.

President Charlie Milliken also made a motion last night that the

Arkansas Quads Doing Nicely

NASHVILLE, Ark., Jan. 22 (UP)—The Pike County quadruplets were a week old today and were thriving at Howard County Memorial hospital here, apparently unharmed that their only names still are "A, B, C and D." Hospital attendants said the "Alphabet" quads, progeny of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ponder, Murfreesboro farmers, were doing fine, and were getting along on smaller supplies of oxygen in their incubators.

Hargal Ponder, 38-year-old mother of the quads and of eight other living children, has not seen the three boys and one girl since their birth between 7:10 and 7:45 p. m. Jan. 14. The quads were born at the Ponders' tiny farm home and were brought to the hospital here by the excited father.

Papa Leonard Ponder, 41, last weekend went to New York with Dr. M. D. Duncan, who delivered the babies, to tell a "We, the People" radio audience how it felt to become the father of quads.

Bowl Year's day and the Texas Tech-TCU game to show at the banquet.

The already named banquet committee of "Shorty" Wallace, G. B. Rush and D. C. Arterburn was reappointed to handle decorating and arrangements for the banquet.

A ticket sales committee of E. F. Arterburn as chairman; James Ratliff, "Stubby" Warden, Sam Aills, Raymond Lingle, W. F. Myers, Morris Newham, and C. O. Phillips was appointed.

A very large crowd overflowed the Chamber of Commerce offices last night and both the outgoing president and the new president were very encouraged with the support being shown the club this late in the season.

Morris Newham announced last night that he would donate one-half of the food for the banquet and would contact others and try to secure the other half. The place for the banquet was set as the First Methodist Church.

Ranger Given Invitation To Fort Worth Show

Ranger citizens today were given a personal invitation to attend the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, Jan. 25 through Feb. 5, by 35 Fort Worth business and professional men, traveling by chartered bus.

The visit was sponsored by six Fort Worth Lions Clubs with Joe Richker, Roy Tarwater, Allen Johnson, Curby Mirko, Claude S. Walker and J. M. Pennabaker acting as trip officials. Charles G. Cotton, of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, planned the trip.

The Fort Worth Exposition is offering $153,000 in premiums, greatest in the 56-year history of the show.

The world's greatest indoor rodeo will be presented in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum with top competitors of the rodeo world contesting for championship honors and rich rewards. Horse show events, featuring cutting horses, Quarter horses, Palominos and d gaited horses, will be interspersed with rodeo contests.

Thousands of animals from approximately 30 states, Canada and Cuba will be shown. Seventeen buildings—32 acres under roof—make the Stock Show an all-around exposition. The ever-popular musical, "The Merry Widow," starring Edward Everett Horton, will be presented and there will be a new stage where hand concerts, square dance exhibitions and other free entertainment will be given. Many cities, service clubs and lodges will have special days. The Stock Show will salute the Golden Anniversary of the Fort Worth packing house industry. Ticket sales indicate the '52 show may be the most successful ever held.

Texas And La. Causeway Gets Engineer Okay

BEAUMONT, Jan. 22 (UP)—The Louisiana Shortline's causeway across Lake Sabine, linking Texas and Louisiana below Port Arthur has been approved by the U. S. Corps of Engineers.

Lamar Lawson, chairman of the Sabine Lake Causeway Commission, said the construction job may be let in late summer.

Two 80-foot rotating spans will provide clearance for barge and shrimp boat traffic he said.

City Commission Expected To Favor Plan At Meeting Tonte

Probably the most encouraging news for property owners on U. S. Highway 80 within the city limits of Ranger, came in a letter to Mayor Price Crawley Monday from the Texas Highway Commission, which contained the information that the Commission had passed an order agreeing to widen the highway from near the Main street intersection, if the city would provide the necessary right of way, also the immediate construction of curb and drainage, utility adjustments, etc., from Blackwell road to Houston street.

Naturally this will result in considerable expense for the city, but at the same time will relieve the minds of the property owners on the highway as to whether or not the highway will by-pass Ranger, a rumor that has prevailed for years and one that has retarded improvements and affected the value of property for the past few years.

While the committee from the Chamber of Commerce and the City who appeared before the Commission in December, asked for the improving of the highway for the entire distance between the city limits, the fact that the Highway department will bring the four-lane improvements to Main street, will halt the rumor of a by-pass forever.

It is hoped that when the next program comes up for improving the highway from Ranger to Thurber Hill, that the committee's request for the balance of the improvements from Main street to the East city limits will be granted.

The Highway Commission order passed at the January meeting, calls for the expenditure of $725,000 on the project, all of which is in the city limits. The letter from the Highway Commission indicated that the improvement will be made simultaneously with the work of improving the road from Eastland to Ranger, which is scheduled to be done this summer.

Mayor Price Crawley, stated this morning that the commission would in all probability pass an order accepting the offer of the Commission and stated that from the amount the Highway Commission expected to spend it looks as if a real job of improvement will take place. He also stated that the project would be a very expensive one for the city but that he thought they could not afford to pass up the opportunity of getting $72,000 worth of improvements to the highway within the city limits of Ranger.

Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang accused Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy, head of the U. N. truce delegation, of "bragging" in an interview that only allied military pressure could end the deadlock.

"Bombs and bullets are the only language the other side understands," Hsieh quoted Joy.

Hsieh said the interview was published in the weekly news magazine, U. S. News and World Report. However, a text of the interview released the U. N. command tonight showed no reference to "bomb and bullets."

Hsieh's angry charge came during a 14-minute "no program" meeting of the subcommittee working supervision of a truce.

He also curtly rejected a U. N. offer to accept the whole 16-point Communist truce supervision program if the Reds would write in a provision banning construction of military airfields.

"Our side firmly rejects any attempt, any form of interference in our internal affairs," Hsieh said.

The U. N. offer actually had little significance. Apart from the airfield question, there only were minor differences in the U. N. and Communist truce supervision programs anyway.

The offer was made mainly as a sop to Communist pride of gushorship.

2. Reduction of federal spending and "an end to the parade of higher and higher taxes." A pay-as-we-go budget policy with no new taxes "short of total war."

3. Strong preparedness program that will disappoint the Communists through U. S. refusal to spend "ourselves to death."

4. Bi-partisan foreign policy, immediate firing of Secretary of State Dean Acheson. Support of the North Atlantic Security Program, Financial aid only to nations which are "helping themselves," strengthening of the U. N., a campaign to "defeat the enemy or get out of Korea."

5. Opposition to "every-scheme toward further socialization of this country." This includes socialized medicine and the Brannan Farm Plan.

6. An all-out congressional effort to restore the Tideland to Texas. "I have not accepted that (supreme) court decision as final and never will—this is the biggest steal of them all... The blame for breaking the Texas annexation agreement and seizing our Tideland falls squarely upon President Truman and those whom he placed in power."

8. "High Society" Texans Invited To The Riviera

NICE, France, Jan. 22 (UP)—"High society" Texans selected on the basis of their Dun & Bradstreet Financial Ratings will be invited to the Riviera in June for the first celebration of "Texas Week."

The regional tourist committees in Nice said: "The Texas week can be publicized by direct approach to the numerous high society families in America's biggest state. A list of these families can easily be obtained from the Dun & Bradstreet catalogue, which lists people along with the amount of dollars they have to their credit."

New Testament Doctrine Being Discussed Each Evening At 7

A thrilling experience was witnessed Monday evening when the entire east wing of the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist church was filled with members and visitors for the Bible conference that is being conducted at the church each evening this week.

The newly remodeled first floor of the church will be thrown open to accommodate the "crowds" for Tuesday evening, according to Mr. Bill Bullock, educational director. The nursery department will be open and a special program for the children will be conducted during the evening session.

The public is invited to attend this week's intensive study, and no one will be embarrassed nor will any ones religion be ridiculed. The session begins at 7 with the adults, young people and intermediates meeting in the entire Fellowship Hall. The juniors with Rev. Jasper Masseege teaching the "Junior and His Church" meeting in the junior department, Annex No. 2.

There is an intermission at 7:45 at which time Mr. Bill Bullock leads the group in a Christian inspiration period of songs, etc. The women's Trio of the church will sing tonight and Rev. Masseege will bring the inspirational message at 8. The meeting adjourns promptly at 9.

The New Testament Doctrine of the Church, by Clyde Turner, is being used as an outline study by the pastor as a guide into the New Testament. When Jesus was born a cycle of time was begun for the Son of God, and at Calvary that phase of time ended and victory for eternal life was begun when the Tomb of Joseph of Arimathea was found open and Jesus was risen from the dead.

When he ascended into heaven his mission on earth was just beginning as the Eternal One, and Jesus became the Institution of worship. Jesus was the Sacrifice for sin, the atonement for repentant mankind the grace of Salvation, the power for regeneration, and the eternal assurance of "Eternal life for all believers."

Jesus organized His church, became its foundation, the head stone that the builders rejected, and furnished the Holy Spirit power to propagate His mission through His church, according to Rev. Perkins who is using the New Testament for his text.

Man-made dogmas and creeds belong to religion, but the Christian dogmas and creeds centered in the Bible are Christian and furnish the basis for Christian religion. Christianity is more than a neighborly fellowship, a fraternal greeting, and no man-made institution has any right to prostitute the Gospel of Jesus Christ to fit into the selfish sensual desires of sinful mankind, states the pastor as he reviews the purpose of Christ coming to earth.

Remember that you are always welcome at all of our services, states Mr. Bullock.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Matthews were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weichert, Jr., of Austin, who were on their way to the Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Weichert is a cousin of Mr. Matthews whom he had not seen for fourteen years.

Hollywood Film Shop

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—It's not every director who would be happy if the preview audience did not like one of his pictures.

But that is what happened recently to Jean Negulesco, and it pleased him.

"Because they were absolutely right," he said.

The incident in question occurred in connection with "Lydia Bailey," a film he directed recently for 20th Century-Fox. The film contains a long chase sequence in which Anne Francis, who plays the title role, wears ragged clothes and looks dirty and haggard—all of which Negulesco says is in keeping with the story situation.

Reality Loss Noted "Despite the grime, she looked sexy and attractive," he said. "Then, for a love scene we had her cleaned up; we went Hollywood. The preview audience was gripped by the story until we came to this scene. At that point, we lost them."

"So we re-shot the scene, taking out the glamor, and at the next preview the audience remained interested throughout because the heroine looked believable and real."

What made Negulesco happy was that this made him think movie audiences are growing up. "They demanded a more mature approach," he said. "We can deal more honestly with our material. The public understands that in certain situations de-glamorized accuracy is more effective than the typical Hollywood gloss."

Director of "The Mudlark" Negulesco, who has to his credit such film successes as "Johnny Belinda," "Three Came Home," and "The Mudlark," is getting a chance to be honest again in his current film "Cry of the Swamp," at 20th Century-Fox.

"It is a simple story about everyday people," he said. "The girl (Jean Peters) is a true primitive and we are not trying to disguise the fact. And you won't find any well-dressed pants on the hero (Jeffrey Hunter). They both should."

Jolson's Widow Wins Suit Against Singer's Estate

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 22 (UP)—The widow of the mammy singer Al Jolson has won more than $1,000,000 cash as her share of his community property in an out-of-court settlement of her claims against his $4,000,000 estate.

The settlement was approved by Superior Judge Victor G. Hansen yesterday at the request of New York Attorney Charles Schwartz, executor of Jolson's estate.

Mrs. Erle Galbraith Jolson Kraasna, who married film producer-writer Norman Kraasna last December 7, received the settlement in addition to a $1,000,000 trust fund Jolson provided for her in his will.

Under the agreement, Mrs. Kraasna will receive hundreds of thousands of dollars from the past earnings of the jazz singer. She also will receive payments in the future from the income on Jolson's movies and records.

Robber Wasn't Telling Truth To The Priest

DETROIT, Jan. 22 (UP)—A thief who confessed to a Catholic priest that he and an accomplice robbed a branch YMCA wasn't entirely repentant, police said today.

They said that Bradford J. Angers, who turned over $1,200 in loot to the priest, actually got more than $6,000 and there wasn't any "accomplice." Angers had told the priest the accomplice got the rest of the haul.

Police, in their own way, caught up with Angers yesterday. The priest, following the traditional secrecy of the Catholic Confessional had refused to identify the youth.

Lots Of Coffee, Even For Navy

According to Navy standards, one pound of coffee makes two gallons of liquid. In that case, the Navy consumed approximately 18,000,000 pounds of coffee or 36,000,000 gallons during the 1951 fiscal year.

To break this down further, it is estimated that each man in the Navy drank 53 gallons of coffee during the year, which, to a man from Boston, would be a lot of beans.

Coffee, (according to the standards of most Navy men is their "life blood"), is drunk with meals, between meals, and at any other time of the day or night. You can usually find a pot boiling away in the torpedo shack, on the bridge or in the engine room.

Just one ship alone, the battleship USS Missouri, drank up approximately 79,000 pounds. Ask any man in the Navy and he'll tell you, "Not one ounce was wasted."

If you have a relative in the Navy, you might write and ask him if he got his 53 gallons of coffee last year.

Northern Midwest Hit Anew By Snow

Two storms—one a howling blizzard and the other a drenching rainstorm—closed in a giant pincer movement toward the northern midwest today.

A new blizzard driven by 60-mile-an-hour winds swept the mountains of California and Nevada and moved eastward toward the Continental Divide in the Rocky Mountains.

Once again, winter vacation resorts in the Sierras were snow-bound. Thousands of cattle in Colorado were trapped by the snow. Railroad officials feared that passes through the mountains would be blocked anew.

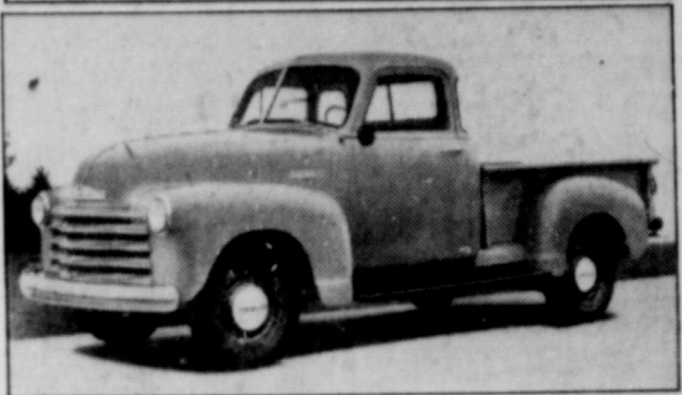

The rain-drenched Pacific coast, however, was promised a day of at least intermittent sunshine. And an official of the Los Angeles Water and Power Department said last week's seige of rains and floods would prove beneficial in the long run because the water relieved a severe drought facing the area.

A vast rainstorm pelted a good deal of Texas and Oklahoma. The weather bureau said it was marching slowly northeast and should move into the Great Lakes region later today.

TFWC President Asks That Local Clubs Cooperate In Polio Drive

WORTHAM, Jan. 18 (SpI.)—Texas clubwomen will fall in step in the "Mother's March on Polio" scheduled for January 31 to help Texas pay its own way, Mrs. Van Hook Stubbs of Wortham pledged today.

The president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs has asked that every Texas club offer its services in the dramatic closing appeal being planned for the 1952 March of Dimes.

"This Mother's March will be the biggest single fund raising activity conducted during a single hour for a charitable cause in the state's history," she pointed out. "Here is clubwomen's opportunity to demonstrate our Texas Federation's concern for the health and welfare of Texas."

Participation of clubwomen in response is expected to swell the numbers of marching mothers to over 150,000 in the concentrated one-hour appeal for funds. It will begin at 7 and end at 8 o'clock the night of Thursday, January 31, in every town in the state. The one-hour push will close this year's March of Dimes.

"Texas must pay its own way against polio," Mrs. Henry M. Bailey of Alpine, welfare department chairman in the Texas Federation, echoed the appeal for clubs to volunteer their help. Texas chapters of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis spent $280,000 more than was

The use of infra-red heat lamps, in place of brooders for baby chicks, was demonstrated recently to officials of the Ralston Purina Company. The demonstration unit, with three 250-watt lamps, was placed outdoors when the temperature was below the freezing point, without apparently harming the two-week old chicks in the coop. When the chicks were only one day old, they were placed in the coop with the temperature recording 8 degrees above zero. The results indicated that the birds grew normally and produced good feathering. The lamps are ideal for persons raising as few as 100 chicks, it was pointed out, chiefly because no other heating equipment is required. Research has indicated one lamp can provide sufficient heat for as many as 70 baby chicks.

Police Capture Stolen Narcotics

COLUMBUS, MISS., Jan. (UP) — Police said they were holding three robbery suspects here today after a city patrolman got "the drop on them" and found $250,000 worth of narcotics in their car.

Patrolman Sam Pope said he recognized their "weaving" automobile as the get-away car in a narcotics robbery in Meridian, Miss., Saturday.

Pope said that two of the men were armed with .28 and .45 caliber pistols and that he found cocaine, opium and morphine hidden in the car.

The three men identified themselves as Lou Tike of Birmingham, Ala., Charles Carpenter of Meridian and E. C. Phillips of Montgomery, Ala. However, police later identified Phillips as C. N. (Bull) Whitney, also of Birmingham.

Latham Laws, a Columbus druggist appraised the narcotics and said they were only worth about $5,000 at retail prices, but would bring "about $250,000 on the black market."

Airmen Electrocuted

San Antonio, Jan. 22 (UP)—Two Randolph Field airmen were killed by electrocution yesterday on a base construction project.

Base officers said the men were leaning against a truck-derrick when the boom on the derrick hit a high tension line, killing the men instantly. The operator of the boom was uninjured because he was not grounded, officers said.

The victims were identified as Cpl. Cloyd R. Mix, 25, of Terra-ville, S. D., and Pfc. Robert F. Schroeder, 29, of Ossian, La.

The men drove trucks hauling rock and sand to a base construction project officers said.

Summer Is Over; Cold And Dust Hot Most Texas

By United Press

Winter has returned to Texas with cold, high velocity north winds that bumped temperatures and kicked up dust in the droth-ridden west.

The mercury tumbled to 16 degrees at Dalhart at 4:30 a.m. At the other end of the scale, Hot-spring had the state's 68 high. Texarkana was the only point reporting rain.

Dust blew at Wichita Falls and Amarillo, also continuing to blow in Western Oklahoma and Kansas.

Texarkana shared the midnight thundershowers which visited Ft. Smith, Ark., and other points east into Arkansas.

The Dallas Weather Bureau said forecasts called for continued dusting in West Texas, where lands are powder dry from the long drought.

There was hope for light rain tomorrow, but the moisture forecasts were for no better than scattered showers over the state.

Early morning low temperature readings today included Amarillo 25, Childress 32, Wichita Falls 43, Dallas and Fort Worth 50, Lubbock 31, El Paso 49, Abilene 45, Mineral Wells 49, Waco 61 San Antonio 65 Laredo 62.

Churchill Will Stay Inside; No Parade

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (UP)—British Prime Minister Winston Churchill, suffering from a cold, developed a "very slight cold" yesterday. Lord Moran, his physician, advised him to forego a ticker tape parade up Broadway and a reception which city officials had scheduled for today.

Churchill will board the Queen Mary shortly before its scheduled sailing time at midnight (EST).

The 77-year-old prime minister, who twice caught pneumonia on his travels during World War II, developed a "very slight cold" yesterday. Lord Moran, his physician, advised him to forego a ticker tape parade up Broadway and a reception which city officials had scheduled for today.

... the inventory shows that the scales weighed out a good portion of the better things for us to enjoy.
