

SEEN OR HEARD

Only 35 of the more than three thousand people in Ranger exercised their voice of who they would like to see elected as delegates to the county political conventions.

Sixteen of these were at the City Hall. Fourteen appeared at Young School and the rest were Republicans who met in the Blue Room of the Gholson Hotel.

That does not speak well of US. In that we think no more of what happens than to let that few people represent you at these conventions. That was the only chance you had to say anything about the political thoughts of the party to which you belong.

They're having the county convention this afternoon in the Courthouse at Eastland, but its too late for you to have a voice in what goes on. You missed the boat by not going to your precinct convention Saturday.

T. R. Craig told us that they were getting some fish at Hagaman over the week end, not crap, but real live eating fish.

We were in Abilene at Ft. Phantom Hill Lake, and everyone caught fish but yours truly. Any that I got would have to come from the market.

They were trolling, and using minnows, and hauling in bass and sand bass going and coming. Some of the "fishermen" would come in with two or three strings just loaded with fish.

All we got was a sunburn for our days fishing. We did get one little fish, but was ashamed to bring that lonesome little rascal beside all those other fish.

We at least know for a day or two what our telephone rates are going to be in our fair city.

The court agreed with the city in that, the new rates should be given a trial before anything else is done in that line.

The new rates are in line with those paid by Cisco and Eastland, and we can't see where there is a lot of difference in those three cities, there maybe of course.

Judge Davenport seems to be a man who thinks that settlement through process of law is not always the best way. It is sometimes quicker than voluntarily working difficulties out to suit both parties on a friendly basis.

We are told that the judge has one of the best records in the state for non-reversals of decisions or opinions handed down by him. To establish the record over the number of years he has been on the bench the judge must be quite fair and well read on his law.

We believe that he made a fair disposal of the rate case.

Should the telephone company desire to immediately appeal the judge's decision; the case would, or could, be tried before the same court, but this time on its merits and before a jury.

Is our face red . . . We mentioned spring training at the college the other day and of the college leaving Jimmy Comacho, Jimmy Cole, and Donald Varner working out with them.

We find out very abruptly sometime later that all that was wishful thinking and someone had been misled. The thing we should have said was that the college was dispensing with spring training.

And as far as the three boys being working, that of course is taken care of in the no spring training statement.

B. E. Garner Buys Show Interests At Breckenridge

Bran Garner called the Ranger Times this morning and announced his purchase of an interest in three Breckenridge theatres.

Garner stated that he would be associated with John Ed Douglas at Breckenridge in ownership and operation of the Palace, Buckaroo, and Trail Drive-In Theatres in Breckenridge.

Asked as to his plans for the Arcadia, Garner stated that he would rebuild the Arcadia. But that right now he was waiting for the building site to be cleared of debris from the recent fire that destroyed the Arcadia.

Bran said he and Douglas would assume operation of the drive-in on May 18th and the Palace and Buckaroo would come under their control on June 1st.

Uninstructed Delegations Rule In County Precinct Conventions

Eastland County Precinct Conventions, from which reports have been received, show the majority of the delegations to the state and national conventions. Alternates elected were R. V. Galloway, O. G. Lanier, A. H. Powell, and Odell Hipp.

Both conventions in Eastland seemed to be in complete harmony with Shivers' uninstructed policy. Both Eastland precincts asked for and sent delegates to the county who will urge that Eastland County delegates to the state convention vote for an uninstructed delegation to the national convention.

Pre. 1, Eastland named all present as delegates to the county meet. They will vote as a unit, and have seven votes. Pre. 2 named Jack Frost, V. S. Howard, W. B. Pickett, Grady Pipkin, H. H. Hardenau and Mrs. Bula Butler as delegates to the county meeting. They have 6 votes.

Republicans named Herb Tanner as delegate to the county meet from Pre. 1. A. H. Johnson will be delegate from Pre. 2. K. B. Tanner is county chairman.

Ranger's two conventions, held at the City Hall and Young School, both voted for uninstructed delegations to the county.

Precinct number three at the City Hall in Ranger was attended by seventeen voters, Lee Dockery was elected permanent chairman and Richard Cox secretary. Henry Davenport, Lloyd Bruce, E. H. Mills, Morris Newham, Vern Peterson, and Lee Dockery were elected as county Democratic Convention delegates. Alternates at this precinct were Charles Hobbs, Price Crawley, Mrs. Morris Newham, G. W. Jones, Don Norris, and Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell.

Delegates from this precinct will go completely uninstructed and will not vote under the unit rule, nor are they pledged to support any type of delegation to the state convention. A resolution was introduced at the meeting that would have sent them as supporting uninstructed delegation to the state and national conventions, but was tabled and not voted on. This resolution also included the unit rule vote clause, which was also defeated.

Ranger's other Democrats, meeting at Young School, elected Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, Pat Thomas, L. R. Pearson, and D. D. Pickrell, delegates uninstructed, but with a resolution to support the unit rule.

Local Shriners Attend Moslah Ceremonies Sat.

Several Ranger Shriners attended the spring ceremony at Ft. Worth Saturday night at which C. E. May and James Ratliff were candidates for the Shrine.

Ranger Shriners there were Price Crawley, James Ratliff, C. E. May, T. C. Wylie, Dr. G. G. Buwell, Dr. C. W. Harris, W. W. Smith, Floyd Killingsworth, and Charlie Hummel.

C. E. May and James Ratliff were initiated into the Moslah Shrine Temple at the ceremony.

Both conventions in Ranger were marked by discussion among the "loyals," and those supporting Governor Shivers' uninstructed delegations, with the Shivers backers outvoting the loyalists.

Cisco Democrats voted their delegations to the county uninstructed also. The West Cisco precinct elected 10 delegates.

Ciscoans named Dr. E. E. Addy chairman, with the Rev. Ralph T. Wooten as secretary.

County Republicans over the county had a fair representation at their meetings. The "old guard" was in the minority. One county GOP precinct voted to send their delegation to the county convention instructed to support Eisenhower. In all probability county GOP delegates will favor a delegation to support "Ike" at the state and national level.

Both Democrats and Republicans hold their county conventions in Eastland this afternoon.

Pickrell Urges Citizens To Aid WTCC Campaign

David D. Pickrell, Ranger's director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, today announced the immediate objectives of that organization.

Mr. Pickrell said the WTCC's 1952 program of activities and services were developed from ideas and suggestions of individual members throughout its 32-county territory. He described it as "a grass roots expression of what the people want their regional chamber of commerce to do."

He appealed to the business men of Ranger to support the WTCC with their time and money. The immediate objectives are:

Heifer Calves Be Awarded On Wednesday, 7th

At the Eastland County Livestock Show there were 41 Dairy Animals. Of this number 19 were a direct result of the work of the Eastland County Youth Dairy Development Committee, Says C. V. Whitaker, Assistant County Agricultural Agent.

This program was started by the Eastland County Dairy Association and then turned over to the Youth Dairy Development Committee, which is composed of business men. Heifers are awarded to worthy boys and girls who apply for 1 and agree to care for her and return the first heifer calf to the Committee to be awarded to another boy or girl.

It is expected that more of the animals under this program will be at the Eastland County Dairy Day to be held at Fireman's Field in Eastland, Wednesday, May 7.

Two Jersey heifer calves are to be returned to the Committee at the Dairy Show and will be awarded that day to Kitty Ingram, Scanlon 4-H Club and Benny Warren, Eastland F.F.A. Chapter.

Water District Meeting Often On Bond Sales

The question has arisen in many minds since the passing of the bond issue for the Eastland County Water Supply District April 22, just what is being done to facilitate actual work on construction of the proposed reservoir.

Water Board President C. B. Pruet of Ranger stated the board is meeting continually with representatives of various bond buyers in an attempt to work out a sale of the bonds that would be most beneficial to the district.

Pruet stated that actual sale of the bonds of course hinges on the water contracts to be voted on in the near future, by the two cities of the district, and the outcome of the public hearing at Austin, May 2, of the district's application for water from the Leon River.

The president also mentioned one definite offer had been made, but that the board members felt that by more or less shopping around they could better protect the interest of the water district, and make a more agreeable arrangement than has been offered to date.

Actual start of construction has not been definitely set, but immediately upon completion of preliminary arrangements, preparations will be made to begin actual construction of the water supply facilities and dam.

Dairy Show Will Be Held Wed. 7th

The Eastland County Dairy Show will be held at Fireman's Field in Eastland on Wednesday, May 7, according to C. V. Whitaker, Assistant County Agent.

All animals must be in place by 10:00 a.m. At 10:15 a representative of the North Texas Artificial Breeding Farm of Dallas will make a short talk on "Artificial Insemination".

At 10:30 R. E. Burleson, Extension Dairy Husbandman, will discuss the making and using of Silage. When he has finished he will go directly into the Judging Contest. The Contest this year will be the Classification of six Dairy Animals.

From 11:40 to 12:15 there will be a parade uptown of all animals that the owners wish to lead. At 1:30 Burleson will officially classify the animals at the show. When the Classification is over two Registered Jersey Heifers will be awarded by the Eastland County Youth Dairy Development Committee, George I. Lane, Chairman, to Kitty Ingram, Scanlon 4-H Club and Benny Warren, Eastland F.F.A. Chapter.

Following the awards the results of the Judging Contest will be announced.

Ranger Breeder's Sheep Among Top At State Exhibit

E. C. Wilkerson of Ranger took four registered Rambouillet sheep to the Texas Registered Sheep Breeders Association Show and sale in Georgetown this past Friday and Saturday, where the elite of the Texas sheep breeders take their animals for show and sale.

His four head all placed in the showing in their classes. Wilkerson's animals won First and Third in the two year old ram class, second in ewes, and seventh place in the ram lamb class.

While seventh place doesn't sound very impressive, it was 7th among twenty of the best animals of that class in Texas. Of the original twenty entered, 10 were sifted out before the judging started and Wilkerson's lamb then took seventh.

He sold his four animals at the sale Saturday at prices ranging from $65 to $100. His third place two-year-old ram brought $100 to a breeder desiring that type of animal for improvement of his flock.

Selling at this type show does not always follow the decision of the judge's, as the breeders buy the animal most suited to their needs. Top price paid for any animal at the show was $195, and it was fifth in its class.

The sheep in all classes were selling at about half price of the last year's sale, due to the wool market being low.

Wilkerson's four entries were his first in the show, although he has attended for a number of years. He said he didn't expect to win any prizes when he started down, but the quality of his sheep proved to be among the best in the show.

Ben Franklin Store Will Have Grand Opening On Wednesday

Mr. W. C. Whittle, owner of the new Ben Franklin Variety Store on Main Street has announced the Grand Opening to be Wednesday, May 7.

Mr. Whittle is a new resident of Ranger, who recently purchased the Scott's Store, which will be reopened as a Ben Franklin store. The store is locally owned and operated, but works under a merchandising franchise with Butler Brothers.

The vast resources and bulk purchasing power of the affiliation allows the store to bring to customers merchandise at a much lower price than could be brought by an individual firm.

Backed by professional merchandising and operating programs from Butler Brothers headquarters, the Ranger store will feature a complete assortment of constantly changing, popular-priced quality merchandise.

For the past few weeks, Mr. C. M. Medley, from Butler Brothers in Dallas, has been engaged in helping Mr. Whittle improve and redecorate the interior of the store for the grand opening.

The store has been completed with the color scheme, in green with celestex ceilings. Lighting is by the fluorescent method, both in the store and in the newly arranged display windows. The display windows in front are backed within the store by glass panels.

Some Flare-ups Likely In Both GOP, Democratic Camps

By United Press
Politics takes over just about all the news in Texas today, and Texans will be voting, then watching and waiting for results of county conventions, both Democratic and Republican, throughout the state.

Saturday's precinct conventions were the opening preliminaries, and today, with the second round coming a short 72 hours later, tempers have cooled very little. It's been a long time since Texans have taken so much interest in the smaller convention meetings and citizens are making up for lost time.

The issues are clearly drawn in both camps.

If No Rain In Sixty Days . . . Water Rationing

Hot weather brings thoughts of water. How much water left in the city reservoir is one thought.

City Secretary Lester Crossley made an estimate of 60 more rainless days usage at free flow from the lake, before rationing would have to go into effect.

That is if it doesn't rain for the next sixty days we may be short of water. Last month the lake fell nineteen inches, but we got nine of that back from the rains; causing an actual loss of ten inches.

Of course if we should get one or two good rains during the next sixty days we might be able to weather the summer without having water use curtailed.

Next time a cloud floats over—hold your breath—it might go by without raining.

RHS Chooses Cheerleaders

Jeri Willis and Jack Allen were elected cheer leaders replacing the two graduates from the senior class at Ranger High School for the 1952 football season.

"Cookie" Kirkpatrick and Jo Ann Ball are the two that Miss Willis and Allen will replace. Remaining from last year are Beverly Crawley, Sue Ewing, and J. D. Harper.

"Short Shorter" will of course be the mascot of the Bulldogs again next year. But other than the "Shorter" no mascot was chosen for the cheerleaders.

The election was held Monday morning at 11:30 a.m. in the high school.

fight for delegates to the state convention by backers of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Eisenhower came out over Taft in Saturday's precincts but the senator's backers aren't taking it as a decisive defeat. They threaten bolts from conventions today and, in all probability, rump sessions will be held in many places by disgruntled minorities.

On the Democratic side, the issue is just as clearly drawn although it is a different kind of fight.

The battle here rages between the "Loyal Democrats" and the forces of Governor Allan Shivers, the conservative element. The "Loyalists—who were defeated overwhelmingly Saturday in their campaign for a pledged, instructed delegation to the state convention, will try again to sway the voters' sentiment. Shivers' group wants an uninstructed, unpledged group from Texas.

And the main story also has some interesting sidelights, particularly Duval County. The Texas Rangers will make sure that Duval residents vote the way they choose.

Colonel Homer P. Garrison, head of the Rangers, is sending at least one Ranger to Duval after District Judge Sam Reams of San Diego said he has reason to believe that residents are being intimidated.

Reams told Governor Allan Shivers that a special grand jury found that "the law (in the county) has been violated in connection with the conducting of elections."

Garrison says the Ranger or Rangers will report at the Duval County Grand Jury today or tomorrow.

To guard against trouble at today's county conventions in Houston, Police Chief L. D. Morrison has dispatched 106 officers to police Democratic and Republican camps.

Apparently, Morrison believes Democratic tempers are more likely to flare than Republicans. So he is sending 90 of the 106 to the Democratic convention. The remainder will attend the GOP meeting.

Insight To Senior Play Parts Given

Corliss Archer, a teen-age terror who for many years has delighted radio and theatre audiences, will be the center of attraction and chief trouble maker in the Senior Play, to be given at 8 p.m. May 13.

The play is "Meet Corliss Archer," Christopher Sawyer's adaptation of the F. Hugh Herbert novel. Cookie Kirkpatrick will play Corliss, no small trial to her parents, played by Jackie Heath and Betty Hagaman, and the family maid, Louise, portrayed by Virginia Carter.

Never far behind Corliss is Dexter Franklin, the boy next door. Dickie Garrison is taking the part of Dexter and Corliss' friend, Mildred and Betty will be played by Betty Pounds and Glenda Beck.

Almost as harrassed as the Archers are Dexter's parents, played by Jimmy Cole and Bertha Gallagher, and Mrs. Archer's Cousin Agnes portrayed by Retha Beth Perstein.

Billy Ray Moreland will be an insurance company doctor and Mary Hardin will take the part of a nurse.

Air conditioning will keep the store at a pleasant temperature during the summer months, and central heating will heat the premises in the winter.

Credit flows direct from Hawaii for women, airplane balloons for the children, favors for the whole family, and special introductory prices will highlight the opening Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittle have invited the people of Ranger to come to the store, which opens at 8:30 a.m. and will close at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday, and join them in opening Ranger's newest business.

A number of representatives of Butler Brothers will be here from Dallas to assist in opening the store.

Five Hurt On Cisco Streets In Wreck Sat.

CISCO, (Spl.)—One Cisco man was hospitalized and four other Cisco people received slight injuries in an automobile accident which occurred about noon Saturday at the intersection of West 16th St. and Avenue F.

In the hospital Saturday afternoon for observation and checks was Henry Davis of 104 West 16th. It was thought that his injuries were not serious. A child belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Davis was in the car with the father and received slight injuries. In the other car were Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Reddie and small child. All three of the occupants received painful injuries and were treated by a local physician.

According to investigating officers the car driven by Davis was headed east on West 16th when it struck the car driven by Reddie, which was headed south on the avenue, slightly behind the right front wheel. Both cars suffered extensive damage.

Taxes Amount To More Than American's Food

The food bill of the more than 150-million American people is enormous. But the Chamber of Commerce of the United States notes that the taxes collected by the federal, state and local governments amount to even more than the total cost of food. Taxes take around a third of the national income.

Americans Not Satisfied With Military Waste

WASHINGTON — While the American people are willing to pay for defense, they are beginning to grumble at evidence of waste and extravagance in military buying.

For a whole year, a subcommittee of the House Armed Services Committee has been scrutinizing military procurement. The subcommittee has come up with suggestions for savings. Its chairman, Representative Herbert (Dem., La.), emphasizes his belief solely through a cataloging of items required.

Herbert explains his views in an article written for Washington Report, the Chamber's membership publication.

"There is too much confusion in military buying," says Herbert. "Much of it could be eliminated by cataloging which would bring standardization. Why couldn't American service men, in whatever branch, walk in the same kind of shoes when off duty? Why couldn't they sleep under the same kind of blanket?"

"The Hoover Commission, looking at a federal budget half the size that it is now, proposed $2.5 billion cut in making military purchases. Our committee believes that $5 billion is a reasonable cut today. We know that a firm standardization program through cataloging will bring a common language in military buying."

Predicted Population Level Not Evident, But Growth Beneficial

WASHINGTON — Contrary to unemployment. The Chamber publication brings out many interesting facts about population. The population has doubled since 1900. Growth lagged in the 30's and early 40's, but by 1945 it had about regained pre-depression levels and since then has considerably exceeded those levels.

Three factors, says the Chamber, of economic significance because a growing population should be accompanied by a dynamic economy. The Chamber makes its conclusions known in the latest issue of Economic Intelligence published by its Economic Research Department. It says:

"An economy with an increasing population must continue expanding. In terms of population no overall lack of investment demand is likely. There is no great danger of over-saving and under-investment with resulting chronic contributed to the recent population upsurge. Net immigration exceeded predictions, deaths fell below predictions and births far exceeded expected figures. While some decline in the rate of growth can be expected in the middle '50s, says the Chamber, the population should come close to 170 million by 1960, even with a rate of growth less than that of the preceding decade.

The Department of Agriculture is quoted by the Chamber as predicting that by 1957 the production of foods will have to be increased by as much as 20 per cent over 1950 levels. That would mean an additional 5.5 billion pounds of meats, an additional 30 billion pounds of milk and an added 15 billion eggs. The farmer should benefit accordingly.

Increased population, the Chamber points out, will require more homes, more home appliances, more schools, more roads and the like, all increasing production and lifting the level of economic activity.

Much of the economic thinking of the prewar period, the Chamber concludes, needs revision and readaption for changes which will be brought by population growth in the years ahead.

5th Birthdays Observed By Three Girls Sat.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30, three young ladies, Anna Squires, Twana Joy Nichols and Terry Lee Myers celebrated their fifth birthdays with a joint party at the Willow Park.

The little girls were all smiles as they greeted each guest and saw them place the gifts in three attractive containers on one of the benches in the park.

A number of outdoor games were entered into beside the attraction of the merry-go-round and see-saw in the park.

The refreshment table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a very unique birthday cake made of styrofoam and holding 5 tiny green candles in white and yellow holders. Individual cup cakes decorated with pink rose buds on white icing, pastel colored baskets of candies and miniature cars were attractively arranged by the cake.

As the group sang "Happy Birthday" the three girls blew out the candles and made their wishes.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of the honorees, Mrs. Eddie Squires, Mrs. J. D. Nichols and Mrs. Monroe Myers.

Those attending were Brenda, Sandra and Alton Falk, Mary Massee, Linda and Mike Landtroop, Katharine Stroud, Richard and Martha Lebrod, Phyllis and Kathy Myers, Barbara Pugh and the honorees.

Bachelor Tells Of His Success Remaining Single

Women will have to revise their approach if they expect to have any luck this leap year, in the opinion of one Hollywood bachelor.

A. Lor Keith Larsen says the ruses women in Hollywood, and elsewhere, use are so worn out even a grade-school rascal could see through them.

For example, says Larsen, who has a beach home at Malibu, "cute little tricks 'just happen' to walk by in brief bathing suits. Add they 'just happen' to run into me as I'm going for a swim. And this same girl 'just happens' to have two tickets to a premier, and would I like to go along?"

Larsen says another hazard is the woman who is having a "small gathering" at her apartment. She invites you. You arrive to find you're the only one there, besides her. The others "just happened" to cancel out at the last moment.

Bachelor Larsen says one of the most hazardous types of females is the one ready to share all her troubles with you, and wants to give the man career advice.

Larsen lists some other types to watch, and then concludes, "but it does little good. The fact is, all women are dangerous."

Spring Flower Show Planned At Breckenridge

BRECKENRIDGE, (Sp.)—Several hundred garden club members from District 8 were expected to attend the annual Spring Flower Show to be held in Breckenridge Friday, May 9. Many members of the local club were expected to attend the district meeting.

The delegates will be from the 10 towns in District 8 that have garden clubs. They will compete for honors and awards in the show which is being held in the Stephens County town for the first time.

Hostesses will be the members of the three garden clubs in Breckenridge and one of the best shows ever held was promised for visitors.

An original theme, "From Drought to Plenty," has been selected for the show. The idea according to the chairman, is to show how Breckenridge and the area grew from a virtual wasteland to fertility. The story will be carried out in the flower arrangements.

Five divisions have been planned for the show. The first is artistic arrangements; the second, formal and informal table settings; the third, potted house plants; the fourth, horticulture and the fifth, Boy Scout and Girl Scout arrangements.
