34TH YEAR

SEEN OR HEARD

The more cold-hearted are going about their way as if this was just another day, other than Friday the 13th. As bad as some would have it sound—it is just another day. You can blame any misfortune that comes your way today on the coinciding date and day of the week if you wish.

The local VFW Post doesn't think the day is anything other than a time to enjoy a good barbecue chicken feed to be held to-night at their hall.

Seven-thirty this evening is when the VFW members will start eating. And you can bet that they won't be superstitious about stowing away that chicken.

Something that has already been brought to our attention will most likely be in evidence again tomorrow—FLAG DAY. We are very well known for not showing common courtesy on patriotic days by flying flags.

We would like to see the town ablaze with the good old Red, White and Blue tomorrow. It will show that we are not losing headway and becoming behind the times in Ranger just when we're trying so hard to get ahead.

We've had some very libelous comments on our recent visit to the barber, and the manner in which we have had those skilled workmen cut our hair.

We have the last laugh—these guys that are giving us a hard time are afraid of their wives' reaction, showing that little thin spot, or don't have enough hair left to cut.

Get a "GI" is one sure way of a good your money's worth at the barber shop. "Tony" Lewis will verify that statement.

Did you know that the National Safety Council is already making predictions and handing out warnings of the terrible toll lives that will be lost over the Fourth of July week-end?

They're starting early to try and make us more safety conscious. Seemingly they are fighting a losing battle with the American public.

Each year they make automobiles bigger, better and faster modes of committing suicide on the highways. You could do no worse if you started thinking now about trying your best to keep the highways deathless over the holiday, and every day for that matter.

Only seven more days until we cast our votes in the water contract election.

We still contend that it is not a matter of wanting to build a water supply—it is a matter of survival that we have that water.

You can do yourself no harm by casting your ballot in favor of giving a water contract.

Dean Hill was being taken to a hospital for psychiatric treatment when he plunged overboard in sight of scores of passengers.

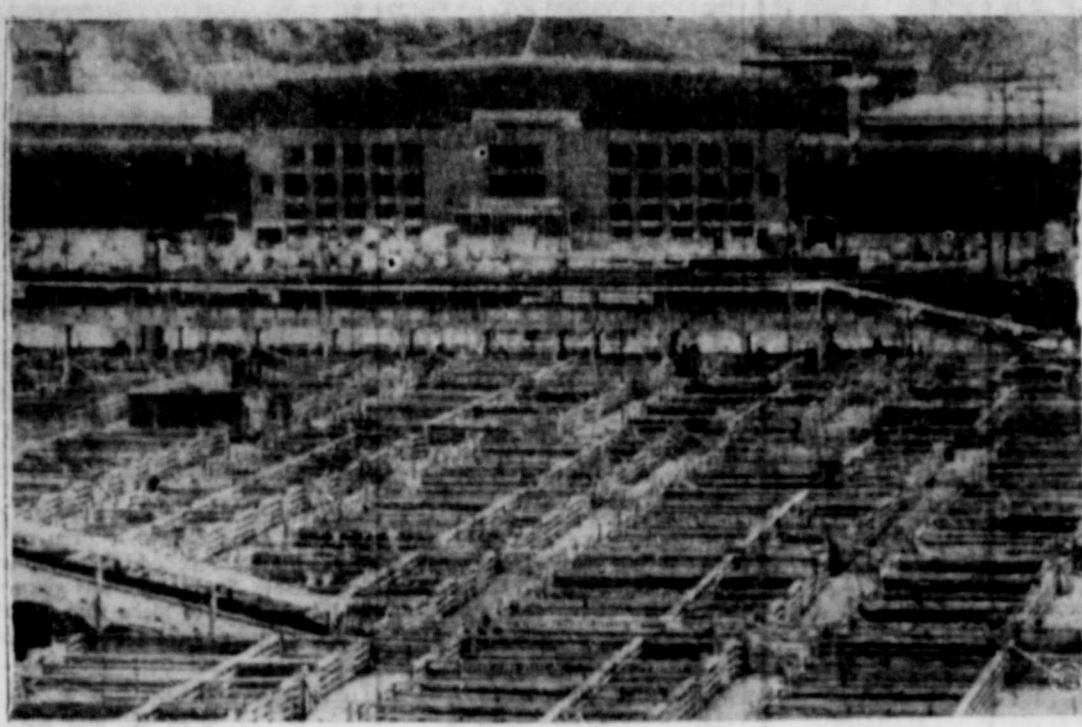

Previously a steeplejack talked Hill into coming down from the 150-foot tower after a huge crowd watching the scene was dispersed at Hill's requests.

Some criticism from the public has been heard against the Ranger firms for not observing similar special days by the display of flags in the business section and the Auxiliary will, within the next few days make a survey of the business section to ascertain what firms have flags and those that do not have a flag to display, ladies of the Auxiliary

Mrs. Lottie Davenport, president of the local V.F.W. Auxiliary, Post No. 5875, asks that all merchants and firms in Ranger display their flags tomorrow, Saturday, June 14, Flag Day.

MIGHTY CLOSE—Proximity of the stock pens of the Chicago Stockyards to Convention Hall, large building in background, can be seen in this view made with a 20-inch lens. Although the lens distorts the distance somewhat, the pens are still close enough for the odors to reach the doors. Interior of the hall will be safeguarded by air-conditioning units and visiting political delegates will never know the difference. (NEA Telephoto).

Presidential Aspirants Woo Delegates Today

Candidate Crop Was Always Good In Eastland Co.

Perennial candidates we have with us all the time. They are just like those of past decades—men (occasionally women seeking office.

Eastland county has her quota this year, and on January 1st, 1952, we shall very likely see some new faces at the court-house. However, this new crop is not bothering us, and we shall not bother them. May the best man win! Those we would mention now are candidates in the days of old. It isn't everybody who knows that back in 1914 J. R. Skinner, was sheriff of Eastland County and was a candidate to succeed himself, or that Jonah C. Eppler was a candidate for district clerk.

In looking over old cards we find that J. L. (Letch) Parker was a candidate for Tax Assessor in 1914, while J. P. Williams was seeking the office of county Superintendent the same year. His opponent was R. P. (Bob) Moreland. Geo. L. Davenport had been a candidate for district judge every since they discovered oil in Eastland county and will retire at the close of this year, of his own free will and accord.

Do you remember when June K. Hendricks ran for State Representative, and W. A. (Kid) Hammett asked to be sheriff? In 1928 Clyde Garret was a candidate for County Judge, and a few years earlier Ed L. Wheeler was in the race for district clerk.

Back in 1914 Joe Burkett was a candidate for county judge and scattered a lot of very neatly printed cards over the county. On the reverse side we learn that in that year Eastland county had $1,550 paid poll taxes, and our county tax rate was 44c. At that time district court met on the first Monday in January and July, and never held on for more than 8 weeks.

Another old timer, John Hart, our present County Judge, has been politically inclined most of his life, for a way back yonder he covered the county with cards reading like this—Have a Heart for Tax Assessor, John will appreciate your support in the July primary.

Clyde L. Garret was County Clerk in 1914 and asked for a second term. That same year Walter Gray was County Treasurer and asked to be re-elected.

A little later we find Judge B. W. Patterson, and Judge Frank Sparks as candidates for Judge of the 88th District. Both wanted to succeed Elzo Best, Turner M. Collier was doing his best to be County Clerk, and Grady Owen wanted to be Criminal District Attorney. Frank Judkins was his opponent.

A few women have been stung by the political bee, for Miss Opal Hunt was a candidate for County Clerk and Mrs. Frances (Holbrook) Cooper tried for county treasurer.

N. B.—We are indebted to Joe McNeely of Gorman, for those old candidate cards—Editor.

Clowns Unhappy Under Make-Up

One of the nation's few women circus clowns says it's true what you hear about circus clowns, they're weepers and worriers under the paint.

Margo McKeo got in the clowning profession when she met and fell for another clown, Gabby McKeo. She had high hopes when they got married that life would be one joke after another.

But now she says "Gabby's one of the biggest worriers I ever met. He gets nervous on days when he can't think of something to worry about.

The woman clown adds, "I thought it was just him at first, but I know now they're all like that. The better the clown the more blues he has backstage."

Margo McKeo tells other women who want to be clowns, "It takes a gal with a skin thick as an elephant. Then men bitterly resent a woman trying to get into their business."

Americans Eat To Much Sugar

Two doctors who specialize in nutrition have both praise and criticism for the American family's eating habits.

Dr. Norman Jolliffe, director of the Bureau of Nutrition of the New York Department of Health, says most Americans seem greatly concerned about vitamins these days, and rightly so.

But, he says, they eat entirely too much sugar, about 160 pounds a year per person. And he adds: "Nobody could eat that much sugar and keep a balanced diet unless he was a dietician."

Professor Martha Turison of the Harvard University School of Public Health agrees on the need for vitamins. But she cautions that anyone taking vitamins should not do so enough for their kids to wholesome food.

Former Stephens County Farmer Dies In Ranger

David H. Coffman, 77-year-old retired farmer, passed away at his home at 600 Caddo Road in Ranger, late Thursday afternoon.

Coffman was born at Liberty Niles, Virginia, October 30, 1874. He lived in Stephens County for 58 years before moving to Ranger some 18 months ago.

Services were held this afternoon at 3:00 p.m. at the Bullock Methodist Church, with the Rev. Jasper C. Massage, pastor of the Ranger Second Baptist Church, as the officiating minister. Interment will be in the Bullock Cemetery. Mr. Coffman's church membership was with the Second Baptist Church of Ranger.

Palbearers will be Thornton and Guy Cooper, Truman Dempsey, George Beck, Dewey Hames, Walter Hatton, Lloyd Bruce, all of Ranger, and Paul Smith of Caddo.

Survivors include his wife, the former Ada Jane Williams, who he married October 2, 1902 in the New Hope Community; three sons, William and Charles of Breckenridge and David of Dallas; one daughter, Mrs. Paul E. Teacher of Fowler, Calif.; two brothers, R. L. of Ranger and Will of Center City; one sister, Bertie Keel of Harrison, Nebraska; two nieces, Mrs. G. L. Wingate and Mrs. Fred Harrell of Eastland; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Nora Stiles of Eastland.

Killingworth Funeral Home of Ranger was in charge of the arrangements.

Election Next Week Concludes Water Campaign

One week from today, or on Friday, June 20, voters of Eastland and Ranger will go to the polls for the purpose of instructing directors of the Eastland County Water Supply District to make contracts with the City Councils of the two cities, for the delivery of water to the cities involved.

No other question will be voted upon. No other demands will be made. It means that previously all other questions have been settled, and that bonds are to be offered for sale, after which actual construction of the dam may begin.

Plan to be at the polls on election day and vote for the measure.

Father May Feel Guilty When He Unwraps Present

A Philadelphia Psychiatrist says a lot of fathers are going to feel guilty on Sunday, because they have not done enough for their kids to deserve the honors.

Dr. Q. Spurgeon English, who is a father himself, says fathers don't spend enough time with their youngsters.

He says fathers who don't romp with their youngsters and share in caring for them, "May get a gift in Fancy paper, but they won't get cooperation from their children."

Mineral Wells Be Site '53 Lions Convention

Mineral Wells will entertain the District 2-E Lions Convention in May, 1953. The meeting was awarded to Mineral Wells at the District 2-E meeting in Brownwood Monday.

At Brownwood both the district and the state conventions are being held jointly. Orval Shure of Mineral Wells is the present governor of District 2-E, and elected to succeed him in July, I. R. Hutchinson of Hamilton.

NO BREAK SEEN IN STEEL STRIKE; SHORTAGES START

In the nationwide steel tie-up, reports of meetings, plans and decisions, but no sign of anything resembling peace.

The CIO Steelworkers' top policy makers are meeting in Pittsburgh to decide on their next steps in the 12-day-old walkout.

They heard CIO President Philip Murray tell them this morning that he's ready to carry the union's dispute with the steel industry "to the very end."

In Washington, government officials warn the inevitable chain reaction is setting in. A shortage of steel must be followed by shortages of those things made of steel, and unemployment in those industries which make them.

Rise In Price Of Coca-Cola Is Announced

Beginning Monday, retail customers in the Ranger area will pay a few cents more for each carton and case of Coca-Cola they buy as the result of an announcement this week of G. V. Poe, Manager of The Texas Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

Rising cost of the bottling operation and spiraling labor costs have combined to make the increase necessary, according to Mr. Poe. Dollars will be affected in a higher wholesale cost per carton and per case, and the increase will of course be passed along to the consumer.

"Our increase is no more than the Ceiling Price Regulations permit, and retailers are permitted, under these same regulations to charge not more than 6 cents per bottle. While retailers may charge any price they choose, with certain limits as prescribed by law, on cartons, it is our suggestion that cartons retail at 30 cents (plus deposit and the 24-bottle case at $1.20 (plus deposit). Our deposit structure of 4 cents per bottle and 3 cents per paper carton remains unchanged."

"Anticipating the need, we are converting coin machines from 5 cents to 6 cents."

"In the face of higher costs of every phase of our operation, we have tried throughout the years to keep the price of Coca-Cola at the same popular, familiar level," says Mr. Poe. "However, when you get caught in a vice, something has to give. And we are sure of one thing: despite the fact that he pays a few cents more for a bottle, the customer will still find a bottle, carton or case of Coca-Cola a bargain in delicious refreshment."

Two Overseas Veterans Spend Leaves In City

A news release from the Fort Hill Reception Center in Oklahoma states that two Ranger servicemen have returned to the United States from overseas service with the Army and are now spending thirty day leaves of absence in Ranger.

SFC Marion R. Bonney is on leave here at Number 9 Park Place, for thirty days beginning June 7. Bonney is assigned to Ft. Sill pending receipt of his assignment from the Department of the Army.

SFC William H. Brown is spending his thirty-day leave that started on June 7 also at 1001 Walnut St. He is also awaiting orders from the Department of the Army at Ft. Sill.

Today Is Lucky For Youngster

Friday the thirteenth is a lucky day for an eight-year-old Amarillo boy. He's alive.

The child, Billy Charles Allen, was found by other children at the bottom of the Altus, Oklahoma Municipal Swimming Pool yesterday.

Altus Fire Chief C. T. White and fireman Buddy Creed rushed to the scene and applied artificial respiration which revived Billy Charles before a doctor arrived. The physician credits the firemen with saving the young Texan's life.

CONFIRMATION—Judy Garland, star of stage and screen, confirmed reports in San Francisco that she and her manager, Syd Luft, were married recently in Hollister, California. (NEA Telephoto).

Taft, Harriman And Eisenhower Seeking Votes

By United Press
Gen. Eisenhower takes his political campaign to the scene of a great military campaign today—Gettysburg, Pa.

The general owns a farm overlooking the Civil War battleground. He'll hold a picnic conference there with Pennsylvania's 70-member Republican delegation.

Eisenhower will make a brief speech, then he'll dish out a luncheon of cold cuts, iced tea and milk. Only one thing worries him—thundershowers are predicted. If they materialize, the lawn conference will be held in a big red and blue barn.

A large part of the Pennsylvania delegation still is unpledged, and both Taft and Eisenhower forces have been wooing them. Taft is carrying on his search for delegates in Delaware. He's scheduled to meet members of the state's 12-man delegation at New-castle. Taft is sure of five of the 12 delegates. Four are in favor of Eisenhower. Three are unpledged.

One Democratic presidential hopeful, Averell Harriman, is campaigning in New Mexico. At Albuquerque, the foreign aid boss said he stands for economic security at home and mutual security abroad.

A bitter political fight is underway in Maine, between Senator Owen Brewster and Gov. Frederick Payne, opponents in the Republican primary on Monday for the Senate nomination.

Ordinarily, the nomination means "election" in Republican Maine. The chief campaign issue is Brewster's support of Taft and Payne's sympathies for Eisenhower.

But no matter how hot political tempers get, Chicago, the convention city this year, promises cool air. About $350,000 worth of air conditioning equipment has been installed in the convention hall. All it needs now is some good hot weather to test its effectiveness.

Let's each one make an effort to make this series of services a real success and so add to the spiritual life of our fine community, says the pastor.

Church of Christ Minister Outlines Church's Beliefs

Men who appeal to the public in religious matters should be careful of what they say. They should, at all times, be willing to prove the correctness of what they teach. Since preachers desire the attention of the public to what they have to say, they should be anxious to prove before that same public that the things which they teach are correct. That is, in public discussion, open and free to all.

Interpretation of the scriptures is no private affair, 2 Peter 1:19-21. When any man states that he will give a "scriptural interpretation" of the scriptures, what assurance does any have that it is no other than to believe that the man honestly "thinks" it is a scriptural interpretation? No man's "think so" is worth anything. If that man doesn't think enough of it to subject it to the test of public investigation where all can see for themselves whether it will stand the scrutiny of full exposure, certainly the public can't be rightly criticized for not accepting it.

Ministers of the Gospel in the church of Christ stand ready to defend the things we teach. In such public defense all can know exactly what we do teach. Reports from others of what is taught is often clouded to protect their own indefensible doctrine. The church of Christ does not teach that man save himself by his own works. Some have reported that we do. The church of Christ does teach that all who will be saved will have done what God, in His word, has commanded them to do.

Truly, "faith" and "works" go together. They are inseparable. Being inseparable, man can be saved by both. Never by either alone. This James emphatically teaches in James, chapter two. Any man who attempts to distort this fact, emphasizing one above the other, denies God and the Bible.

At the services of the church of Christ you will hear fearless teaching of the word of God. That teaching will be defended publicly at every opportunity. Before you decide what the church of Christ is, or stands for, come, see for yourself and know. Second-hand information is no information. You are welcome to all the services of the church.

C. R. Mansfield, Minister

For More Fun Afloat

KNOW YOUR BOAT Every boat has its limitations. Learn what you can expect from your boat.	HEAD INTO THE WAVES If waves are high, head your boat at an angle towards the waves at slow speed.	BALANCE YOUR LOAD Distribute weight evenly in the boat—from side to side and from bow to stern.
WATCH THE WEATHER Head for shore before a storm breaks. If caught out, seek protection on land.	DON'T OVERLOAD Boats do not indicate capacity. Two or three adults may be a full load under many conditions.	USE THE RIGHT MOTOR Too much power can damage your boat—may even swamp it. Look for OBC recommended horsepower plate.
AVOID SHARP TURNS Fast, sharp turns are hard on equipment—and sometimes on people. Take it easy.	Follow the eight simple rules shown here for more safety and fun afloat this season, says the Outboard Boating Club of America, national organization of outboard boat and motor owners. Boating is the safest of outdoor sports, says OBC, if you'll use common sense and courtesy.	KEEP LOW And step in the center when boarding the boat or changing seats.

Life In These United States

From Readers Digest

Training a new cocker spaniel puppy to "speak" for his meals, the pup's owner would hold the dog's food just out of reach and then bark a few times before giving it to him. The pup, he hoped, would associate barking with food, and begin to "speak" for himself.

After a week of this, he again held the food just out of reach, and waited for the dog to bark. The puppy failed to take his cue, but the owner put the dish before him anyway. Then came the real shock. The puppy refused to eat—until his master barked.

FLASHBACK

Sometimes it's a fleeting moment, sometimes weeks, months and years in the headlines, then they drop from sight—

For instance, whatever happened to Annette Kellerman?

Miss Kellerman, who was arrested at Boston Beach for wearing the first one-piece bathing suit in 1909, became one of the most celebrated women of her day. The Australian-born Miss Kellerman was a top-notch swimmer, diver, dancer and tight-rope walker. At one time her weekly salary tipped two-thousand dollars. In recent years little has been heard of Annette Kellerman.

Where is she now? Miss Kellerman, now 64, is in Hollywood serving as technical adviser for a musical M-G-M is building around her life story. She says she still rates an occasional whistle on the streets.

Natural Quail Cover Is Vital

AUSTIN, June—D. W. Lay, wildlife biologist for the Game & Fish Commission, describes bobwhite quail management phases in the current issue of TEXAS GAME & FISH magazine.

He lists different types of planted quail cover then adds:

"Planting anything for quail cover is a slow process requiring two to four years to show results. It is far better to work with existing cover where possible. Landowners who have quail will find that replacing the cover is expensive. One of the most constructive things that can be done by persons interested in quail is the prevention of the destruction of essential cover."

IT WASN'T YOUR FAULT—

—when the party who sold you your home did not have an abstract, but it was your fault if you bought it without an abstract. One authority on titles put it this way: "Titles were good yesterday, fair today, but sure to be worse tomorrow." Better insist on an abstract when buying real estate of any kind. It's safer, more business-like, and a sure sign of good judgment.

Korean Truce Talks Drag On; Fighting Active

By United Press
The chief United Nations negotiator in Korea, Major General William Harrison, says he doesn't know whether it's worthwhile to go back to Panmunjom again tonight. But he's agreed to hold another meeting.

Harrison says the Reds refuse to try for any progress at the conference table. And now, he charges, they're beginning to move troops into the one-thousand yard neutral zone around Panmunjom. The South Korean government has refused to lift its ban on broadcasts by the Voice of America. The government says the State Department first will have to explain so-called "offensive" programs.

In the war itself, Allied troops on the central front are hanging onto position; they took in the Iron Triangle area.

The Chinese Reds are throwing wave after wave of screaming infantry at them, trying to drive them off.

But at last word, the Red counter attacks had failed. And the Communists had suffered heavy casualties.

Quality Refreshment Costs So Little

When you raise a frosty bottle of Coca-Cola to your lips, you can be sure it is always delicious—always refreshing. You know you can trust its quality.

You may find you are paying a penny more for each bottle now and a few cents more for each carton. Due to rising costs, we have been forced to raise our wholesale price. Even so, the cost of quality in Coca-Cola is remarkably low. At work, at play, at home—where else can you get so much refreshment for so little than in ice-cold Coca-Cola?
