Stresses Saving

At a meeting of nine members of the Castro County U. S .D. A. Baptist Revival To Council Wednesday morning the need for consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables was stressed.

In order to help consume the peach crop all people in the county should consume fresh or can or freeze in lockers all the peaches possible. Even though there is a sugar sortage much fruit can be canned in a thin syrup or without

The Council also stressed the importance of canning of other fruits and vegetables especially corn, beans blackeye peas and apples. By conserving this food now it will help the famine emergency

The Council also urged the reo ple of Castro County to select agriculture products and show them at the Fair to be held the last of September or the first of October.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman Eugene Worley)

Late in June Congress passed a Resolution providing for official representatives of that body to carticipate along with representaives of other nations of the world in ceremonies atending the indeendence of the Philippine Islands. ursuant to that Resolution, an official Committee, including myself, was appointed to represent the Congress of the United States. In the belief the more you and I can know as to what goes on in other parts of the world the more intelligent action we can take, I am preparing a series of weekly reports covering this trip which I hope you as a reader of this newspaper and as an American citizen who has a tremendous stake in our relations with foreign countries will find informative. If these reports appear in your newspaper, it is through the kindness and cooperation of your editor.

I might say in the beginning that while all of the trip was most interesting and informaive, the highlights were the Bikini Atomie Bomb explosion, te ceremonies attending the granting of independnce to the Philippines, conferences with General Marshall in China, General MacArthur in Japan and other military and State Department officials.

The Committee traveled between twenty and twenty five thousand miles in a period of two weeks. More time of course would have been desirable but the press of legislative duties in Washington de manded our early return. All of this travel was done by air.

The Congressional Delegation left Washington late on June 25 flying over night to the Wes Coe a distance of approximately 24 in San Francisco, we left the ing night by a C-54 plane. From San Francisco to Hickam Field. twelve hours. Since there were on-ly four bunks aboard the plane and Senators were entitled to consider ation mainly on account of their age, most of us slept sitting up, on the floor, or anywhere we cou We arrived at Hickam Field the Camp At Lubbock | next morning which is the same Field the Japs virtually ripped apart on that black day of December 7, 1941, but today practically all-evidence of their attack has disap-peared. Again there were conferences with State Department and War and Navy officials and local citizens interested in statehood.

Quite a change had come over the Island since I was stationed there in 1942. At that time, a strict curfew was in order, military lew reigned supreme, glass windows were taped with adhesive for fear of breakage from bomb concussion, all Japanese, which represents a considerable portion of the Hawaiian population, were off the streets before dark, no one was alowed on the streets after ten o'clock without a pass, and the black out was strictly enforced. All of these precautions were taken because an attack and invasion was expected to be launched by the enemy at any time. These expectations were confirmed when the Japanese sent the mightiest naval armada they had ever launched to end visit in the home of her sister take Midway, but were they were successfully turned back with heavy losses.

But now the Hawaiian Islands are back to normal and most people there are clamoring for admission as the 49th State of the Union, which proposition is now under consideration in Congress.

TASTY PEACH RECIPES (By Leila Petty, County Home Demonstration Agent.)

Peach Crisps: peaches in a buttered baking dish. Cover with 1/2 cup corn syrup. Mix one cup sifted flour, 1 teaspoon Armstrong Prescription Ferti- cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup lizer, Box 181, Phone 774, Here- butter, and ¼ cup corn syrup to-4tc. er of peaches. Bake in moderate oven for 45 minutes.

> Peach Preserves: 3 cups white corn syrup, 1/2 cup sugar, 6 cups sliced peaches. Boil syrup and sugar together for a few minutes, add sliced peaches slowly so as to keep syrup boiling rapidly. Cook rapidly until the fruit is tender and clear and syrup is thick. Fill hot sterilized jars, seal, and store in a cool dark place.

CANNING WITH WHITE CORN SYRUP

If a small amount of sugar and corn syrup is available, use one of these three preparations:

1. %cup sugar to 1 cup water

2. ½ to % cup corn syrup to cup water or juice. 8. 1 cup sugar and 1 cup white corn syrup to 3 cups water. One cup of the syrup made usually covers one quart of well packed fruit.
