

City Library Observes Fifth Anniversary Friday, February 13

Community projects often start in a blaze of enthusiasm, only to end in the ashes of failure. Ranger, however, has one community project which has grown with the years, the Ranger Community Library. Opening February 13, 1948, with approximately 1,000 lendable books, it celebrates the beginning of its 5th year on February 13, 1953, with over 5,000 books.

The establishment of the Community Club House by the City Commission in 1947-48 made possible a library for Ranger. One large room in the club house was set aside for it, and unlike many libraries, which seem dark and forbidding, the Ranger Community Library is decorated with bright and cheerful colors, and the room is flooded with light from large windows in the east, north and west. The books are kept in open shelves, and readers of all ages may browse among them and sample bits of as many books as they wish while they make their selection.

In the library's first month, 52 books were checked out; in November 1952, an average month, 650 books were checked out. One reason for this great increase in readers is growing interest in the children of Ranger in the library, due to the careful selection of books to interest them. Through the co-operation of public school teachers and principals, many books which are selected in school, and teachers have remarked that the child who reads books from the library show greater interest in their studies, which often results in better grades. As long as the Catholic School was in operation it also cooperated with the library, and its students were among the most enthusiastic readers.

Ranger children are especially interested in biographies, and one set which is written especially for children, published by Bobbs-Merrill Company, and comprising 62 different subjects, has been worn to ribbons and must be replaced as soon as possible. Stories of science, science-fiction, history, and adventure stories, and books of things-to-do are all popular. The library does not stock comic books; there is too great demand for more solid reading to put book-money into these.

A growing reference library is being accumulated; there is a set of very late Encyclopedia Britannica, the latest Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, (gift of the Mayor and City Commission of 1948), and a complete Biographical Dictionary, and other general reference books. Besides these, there are reference books in almost any subject on which a reader wishes information, and the librarian is glad to help locate these for library patrons. Preachers, professional and business men, club women, Junior College, High School, Junior High and grade school students can all be served in the library's reference books.

For adult readers, there is a wide selection of books to be lent—new fiction, including many best sellers, older fiction, mysteries, biographies and biographical fiction, historical fiction, etc. The library offers, too, a good collection of Texasiana. This was started by Mrs. John M. Gholson and has been added to by her and her family.

In the library's first three years, new books and library supplies were bought with contributions from several Ranger organizations: The Elk's Club contributed, as did the Rotary and Lions Clubs, the Commercial State Bank, and some other friends of the library. In 1952, the Community Chest included the library in its list, and more books could be bought. This year, there will be some help from the Community Chest. The cost of books has increased so greatly that not nearly all the books asked for can be bought, and deciding what books must be omitted, due to lack of funds, is a hard question. Of late, there is a strong demand for books on science, but they are very expensive. Copies of Popular Science and Popular Mechanics, some of them ten years old, are so popular that they are nearly worn out, and the library would welcome files of old copies of these magazines, and would especially appreciate a subscription to either or both publications.

Every student in the Ranger School System may buy a membership in the Ranger Community Library for a fee of 25 cents for three months. An adult membership is $2.00 per year, and a family membership (no matter the number in family) is $3.00 which is less than the present price of one book.

To celebrate its birthday, the Community Library is offering a free February membership to the mother of each child who holds a library membership. During this month, come in with your son or daughter, use your month's free membership, and become personally acquainted with your Community Library.

FORMER PIONEER RESIDENT OF EASTLAND COUNTY OBSERVES 80TH BIRTHDAY IN FLORIDA

Mrs. Lillie D. E. Norwood, a former Eastland County pioneer resident, recently celebrated her 80th birthday.

The woman was honored on her natal anniversary with an observance at her home in Sanford, Fla., by her children, friends here have been informed.

Mrs. Norwood was born in Roan County, Tenn., Jan. 3, 1873. She was the only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Mitchell. The Rev. Mitchell was a Methodist minister of circuit riding days in Tennessee, and North Carolina, his wife, mother of Mrs. Norwood, was a medical doctor. At the age of nine Mrs. Norwood moved with her parents and her six brothers to Eastland County, where she completed her education and married Samuel Edmund Norwood of Cameron Parish, La., on Aug. 7, 1901.

Mrs. Norwood's brothers, Horace and Dave married and raised families near Strawn, where many of their descendants still live.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood came to Florida on Christmas Day, 1916 with their four children, and settled at Lake City, Fla. In 1926 they moved to Lake Monroe, Fla., and operated a grocery store until retiring six years ago to her present home six miles south of Sanford. Mr. Norwood passed away Sept. 22, 1951, after having lived to celebrate with his wife, their Golden Wedding Anniversary, on Aug. 7, 1951. At which time her nephew, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mitchell, of Strawn, son of her brother, Horace, was able to be in Florida and celebrate with his aunt and uncle.

Mrs. Norwood has four living children, one son, Charles Edmund passed away in infancy. She has six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Four generations were present for the occasion, these included Mrs. Norwood, Miss Norene Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tindel, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Norwood (Mrs. Norwood is the former Miss Geraldine Jones of Strawn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jones), Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hamilton, all of Sanford.

Grandchildren: Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Tindel, Miss O'Delle Hamilton, Robert Hamilton, Paula Jean Norwood and Phillip Norwood. Another granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Latham, of Norfolk, Va., were unable to attend the celebration.

Great-grandchildren were: Ronald, Michael and Mitchell Tindel. Mitchell was named for his great grandmother, using her maiden name.

Son-in-Law Is ARC Chairman

Dr. Richard DuMouchell, son-in-law of Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Green of Ranger, has been named chairman of the American Red Cross Chapter in Costa Mesa, Calif., it was learned here today.

Dr. DuMouchell's wife is the former Miss Marie Green of Ranger.

Dr. DuMouchell is a chiropractor in Costa Mesa.

County's March Of Dimes Drive Is Extended

Eastland County's 1953 March of Dimes drive, far short of its quota assessed at $1-per-capita, has been extended. Mrs. J. A. Bates of Ranger, county chairman of the anti-polio fund-raising effort, announced Monday.

However, contributions thus far are far short to meet the current quota which was set not only to care for needs of the coming months but also to absorb financial indebtedness incurred during 1952, worst polio year in history. Thirteen cases of the disease were reported in Eastland County and treatment and care of the victims, mostly children, necessitated two loans—one for $2,200, another for $5,200—from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. In addition the county owes $25,000 in miscellaneous bills. Total indebtedness of the county group is about $10,400.

Ranger, Eastland and Cisco are far behind their quotas, Mrs. Bates said.

Kokomo, population 50, filled its quota contributing $50.

Alameda, population 49, has contributed $9.58.

Staff, population 33, has donated $20.39.

Long Branch, population 25, has contributed $40.

Carbon has donated $230.

Charles Yeager With Haydite Co.

Charles Yeager has been named public relations director of Texas Industries, Inc., Ralph B. Rogers, president, has announced.

Texas Industries, Inc., is one of the nation's leading producers of expanded clay or shale lightweight aggregate, with five Haydite aggregate plants and nine Texcrete masonry products plants in Texas and Louisiana. The Texas Lightweight Aggregate Co., in Eastland, is a subsidiary.

Yeager has been in public relations work in Texas and New York for 25 years, starting as a reporter on Texas newspapers. He has been promotion director for the New York Evening Journal, Cosmopolitan and other Hearst magazines, public relations director for the State Fair of Texas, and regional information officer for the Office of Rent Stabilization. He is a native of Dallas.

Bulldogs Gun For Fifth Cage Win Tonight

Coach Sam Aills and his red-hot Ranger High Bulldogs will journey to Stephenville tonight where they'll tangle with a Stephenville Yellow Jacket quintet in a 10-AA cage contest.

The Bulldogs, loaded with plenty of size and currently in the top spot in the loop standings, are rated favorites in tonight's clash. The Maroon & White proteges of Coach Aills will be gunning for their fifth victory against a lone defeat during the hectic district title scramble which will be wound up during a big 10-AA playoff tournament at Stephenville next week—on Feb. 13 and 14.

In the other loop feature of the night, the Comanche Indians meet the Cisco High Lobes. Although the Indians are doped to win, the Ciscoans can't be counted out. Especially since their upset of Friday night when they upset the Stephenville Yellow Jackets, 50-34, after having lost four straight conference encounters.

Probably starters for the Ranger High Bulldogs tonight at Stephenville:

Roddy Carter and Chico Mendoza, forwards.

Tommy Hinds at center.

And Scott Forney and Bill Brazda, guards.

Hit-and-Run Death Unsolved—FARGO SUSPECT RELEASED DUE TO LACK OF EVIDENCE

The hit-and-run death of Sampson Van Zant, 74-year-old Ciscoan, back on Dec. 13, remained unsolved today.

Lack of evidence resulted in freeing a man in Fargo, S. D., who had been taken into custody and questioned in connection with the death of the retired Ciscoan who had moved to that city about a year and a half prior to his passing in the Nimrod community.

Frank Tucker, Eastland County sheriff, said Monday that none of the witnesses to the accident in downtown Cisco could identify the suspect and added that the man would not be brought to Eastland unless sufficient evidence could be found.

The tragic mishap occurred at the intersection of Avenue D and 14th Street in the south part of the Cisco business district. The victim, who walked with the aid of a cane, was crossing the street when he was hit by the mysterious car. He died a short time later in a Cisco hospital.

Mrs. Sanders To Undergo Surgery

Mrs. John Sanders of Denton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Taylor of Ranger, was scheduled to undergo a major surgical operation at the Flow Memorial Hospital in Denton this morning, according to information reaching relatives.

Her sister, Mrs. Wendell Sly, is visiting her parents.

Mrs. Sanders is a student at North Texas State College, Denton.

Too Many To Count

VAN VLEET, Miss. — Betty Graham, aged Negro who will be 100 years old next March 15, says she has "lost count" of her relatives. She figures 11 of her 16 children are living and from them she probably has 226 grandchildren, 129 great-grandchildren and a great-great-grandchildren.

34TH YEAR RANGER, TEXAS, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1953 PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 174

BULLDOGS WIN INDIAN TRAIL TOURNAMENT

The Ranger High Bulldogs, defending '52 champs, won the 1953 Indian Trail basketball tournament at Gorman Saturday.

The spirited charges of Coach Sam Aills topped Brownwood, 50-44, in the Saturday afternoon semi-final clash, and then in the finals Saturday night, the Bulldogs hammered out a 49-42 triumph over the Mineral Wells Mountaineers to win the coveted tourney trophy.

High-scoring during the semi-final was Chico Mendoza with 18 points. He was trailed closely by Center Tommy Hinds who racked up 15 tallies and Roddy Carter who scored 11 points. The Brownwood five gave the Bulldogs stiff competition until the dying minutes of the afternoon feature. At the end of the first quarter, the tilt was knotted at 12-12, the Bulldogs held a bare 20-19 margin at halftime, and only a 2-point lead (30-28) at the start of the final canto.

In the championship battle Saturday night, Tommy Hinds was the Bulldogs' high-pointer with 15. Carter hit the mesh for 12 and Scott Forney registered for 11 points. The Maroon & Whites were in command all the way during their scrap with the Reser; Citians, holding a 14-11 lead at the end of the initial quarter of play, a 24-19 margin at the midmark, and were out front 32-27 at the end of the third period.

Ranger's Tommy Hinds was named as all-tournament center.

Groundhog Sees Shadow, But—Weather's Fine

Oscar the Groundhog, cast a wary eye skyward toward the warm, beaming sun Monday, then gazed groundward at his clearly outlined shadow, then yawned lazily, laid down and snugly closed his beady optics.

Oscar's shadow, according to long tradition, meant that there'll be six more weeks of winter.

But—since there's been no really wintry weather as of yet—well, the future outlook remained a mystery.

If six weeks of wintry weather is scheduled for the area, it's still not in the immediate offing.

At least, that's the bright hope this morning from the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Bright, mild and balmy weather is due to continue in the Eastland County area today and Wednesday. The high temperature for both days will be in the warmish upper 70s.

And tonight's low will be a mild 45 degrees, possibly even 50.

The forecast for the West Texas area: Generally fair with no important temperature changes Tuesday and Wednesday.

1953 Auto Tags On Sale; April 1 Final Deadline

Sale of 1953 Texas auto license plates got underway at Eastland Monday morning.

County Tax Assessor-Collector Stanley Webb estimates approximately 9,000 licenses for county vehicles will be sold between now and the April 1 deadline for buying the new tags without penalty.

Owners of passenger cars and trucks are reminded that state law requires that certificates of title and last year's registration receipts be presented when making application for the new 1953 tags.

And persons ordering the plates by mail should enclose an additional 20 cents to cover the cost of postage.

The new tags, black numerals on a yellow background and the same size as those of recent years, later also will be dispensed to vehicle owners from sub-stations at Gorman, Rising Star, Cisco and Ranger, Stanley Webb, Eastland County tax collector and assessor said.

The county's prefix letters for this year, Webb reports, are "CN" and "CM" for all passenger plates. Eastland County numerals will begin with CN10 to CN199 and continue from CM450 to CM-999.

2 Defendants Sentenced To Penitentiary

District Court has settled down to a regular grind, and several cases were heard Monday.

One divorce was granted early in the day to a woman whose husband is serving time in the state penitentiary.

The next case was the State of Texas vs. Jack Gibbs, who faced a charge of cattle theft. Gibbs waived jury trial and entered a plea of guilty. The court sentenced him to ten years hard labor in the state penitentiary. Gibbs was also being held on a charge of giving worthless checks, and he drew an additional sentence of two years for this.

He was brought to Eastland on a bench warrant, and following sentence, he was returned to the Tarrant County Jail in Fort Worth where he faces similar charges. He was recently tried in Palo Pinto county, and drew a heavy sentence there.

P. G. Worden, a 17-year-old youth from the state of Washington, was sentenced to three years at hard labor in the state prison, on a burglary charge. This case stemmed from the burglary of an Eastland Service Station.

Several other cases will likely be disposed of during the week.

RJC Loses To Schreiner '5' In PC Contest

The Ranger Junior College Rangers showed new form and new spark at Kerrville Saturday night but were unable to match the offensive sizzle of the Schreiner Institute Mountaineers who whipped the RJCers, 71-63, in a Pioneer Conference cage clash.

The Mountaineers, one of the loop's top quintets, was out front all the way. At halftime they were atop their visiting foes, 35-27, and at the end of the third canto they had piled up an impressive 16-point margin over the Rangers. During the fourth quarter, the Rangers blazed to life and outplayed their opponents. However, they were unable to overcome the Mountaineers' lead.

Dave Anderson paced the Rangers' offense, piling up 23 points during the night's play. McCann of Schreiner was high-pointer for the Mountaineers. He also canned 27.

RJC squadmen making the trip to Kerrville included Anderson, Frankie Massie, Don Cook, Tommie Nix, Rusty Talbot, Johnny Plunket, Jeff Smith and Gene Daws. Also in action for the Rangers were two new squadmen—Johnny Wilson and Vernon Scott, both of Quanah.

The Rangers play two Pioneer Conference contests this week—and both are home encounters to be waged on the hardwoods of the Recreation Bldg. in downtown Ranger.

Wednesday night the Purple & Whites take on the San Angelo Junior College Lions, and Saturday night it'll be the Rangers' quint versus the rugged Tarleton State College Pilewhogs in another PC scrap.

Judge's Charge To Grand Jury, Now In Session

As you are the first Grand Jury to be impaneled since I have assumed the office of District Judge, I would like very much to express my appreciation to you for your presence.

In your examination before being impaneled, you indicated your willingness to make any sacrifice necessary in order to carry on this important work and to devote whatever time is necessary to complete your duties.

It is just as important, in my opinion, to answer the call to jury service in time of peace as it is to answer the call to arms in time of war, and you are to be commended for your patriotic response to this call to duty.

Our District Attorney informs me there are only a few felony cases for your investigation and that your work can likely be completed within a short time. This condition speaks well for our county and its splendid citizenship. In view of this report, I shall be brief in such instructions and suggestions as may be necessary concerning your work.

The District Attorney informs me there are some prisoners in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. I will, therefore, suggest your cases be given your immediate and careful consideration.

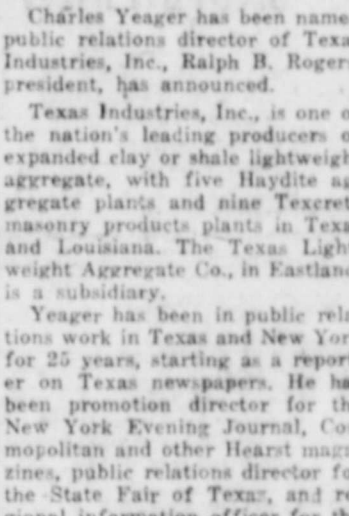

It is mandatory on the part of the Court when impaneled a grand jury, to instruct it with reference to the statute prohibiting false weights and measures. There probably has never been a time

Charles Yeager has been named public relations director of Texas Industries, Inc., Ralph B. Rogers, president, has announced.

Funeral services for Walter H. Reddell, 69-year-old Ranger resident who died at his home on Cadogan Road early today, will be held at the Killingsworth Funeral Home Chapel in Ranger Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Survivors include the widow of the home; three daughters, Mrs. J. F. Smith of Ranger, Mrs. R. C. Hefner of Compton, Calif., and Miss Zella Reddell of Ranger; two brothers, L. E. Reddell and A. B. Reddell, both of Ranger; one sister, Mrs. Raymond Reason of Beaumont; three granddaughters and one great-grandson.

80 TO 100 BILLION IS SPENT DURING NOVEMBER BALLOTING; AND HOW ABOUT 1956? OUCH!

The Eisenhower-Stevenson Presidential election campaign was the costliest in the history of American politics, but those who should know predict that the 1956 campaign will cost even more.

Nobody knows just how much the Republicans and Democrats spent in the 1952 campaign to elect a new occupant of the White House. Congressional committees are investigating campaign expenditures and on the basis of information and testimony gathered to date, the most widely accepted estimate is that total spending on the November elections, national and state, was 80 to 100 million dollars.

Congress is looking into campaign costs with the idea of revisiting outmoded laws covering such expenditures. At present, the federal corrupt practices law says political parties shall be limited to spending 3 million dollars each in a Presidential election.

They Get Around the Law

This restriction, however, does not extend to state and local party organizations with the result that when the election is over, many times the statutory limit has been spent to elect candidates.

The Congressional investigators say that the 3 million dollar limit is ridiculously low in these days of television and rocketing campaign costs all down the line, and that since the limitation is circumvented anyway, the present law is meaningless and should be brought up to date to keep pace with reality.

A political party must shell out real money today to conduct an effective campaign. The cost of coast-to-coast television time and extensive air travel is staggering. In addition, costs for old style, traditional political campaigning are rising constantly. In the November elections, it was more expensive to turn out campaign literature, bombard the voters with letters and telephone calls, and send out precinct workers to ring doorbells.

Locations of four new tests for oil in Eastland County were announced over the weekend.

Two miles southeast of Rising Star near the Eastland-Brown county line, Walter Star, of Abilene has spotted the No. 1 M. M. Watkins. It'll be rotary-drilled to a depth of 1,250 feet.

The new test is 150 feet from the west and 400 feet from the south lines of the 80 acre lease in section 11, Block 3, BBB&C Survey.

John N. Fidel of Eastland has staked two regular field locations, both to be drilled with cable tool to contracted depths of 1,500 feet.

His No. 2 Hightower Gray was spotted 150 feet from the north and 600 feet from the west lines of Wm. Van Norman Survey 4.

Fidel's No. 2-A E. H. Webb is located 150 feet from the south and 500 feet from the west lines of the Wm. Van Norman Survey 4.

Both tests have been staked in the area eight miles east of Eastland.

Traders Oil Company of Houston will drill a wildcat in southeastern Eastland County—three miles northeast of Desdemona—it was reported early today.

It'll be the No. 1 W. H. Davis, a wildcat, located 330 feet from the west lines of E. J. Price Survey.

Proposed depth is 4,000 feet with rotary.

'53 Heart Drive Opens On Plea By Eisenhower

President Eisenhower urged public support of the New York and American Heart Associations recently at a dinner marking the opening of the associations' 1953 drive for $10,000,000, held at the Waldorf-Astoria. Nine hundred persons attended the dinner, at which Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State College and brother of the president, spoke.

Referring to the $10,000,000 goal of the associations as "a jolly sum," President Eisenhower told the guests he was confident the money would be raised. "You'll give the money, not with long faces, but you'll do it cheerfully and happily because it's right and because you're free," he said.

Four New Area Tests Spotted

The following men compose the grand jury: P. O. Burns of Okra, was selected to serve as foreman. Others include George Ruppert of Cisco, H. L. Thompson of Cisco, Dixon Boggs, Rising Star, Fort Reed, Desdemona, A. J. Blavin, Sr., Frank Crowell, L. D. Harris, R. N. Wilson, Tom Fox, T. L. Page, and E. C. Satterwhite, all of Eastland.

Two or three defendants are now in jail awaiting action of the grand jury, and their cases will likely be considered at once. The court's charge, which appears in complete form on this page, mentions several other specific duties to be performed.

Mid-Week S. S. Meetings Held Attendance

The inspirational and informational programs being sponsored each Wednesday evening at the Officers and Teachers meeting, under the capable leadership of Wilson Guest, and the response made by the faithful leaders of the church is given credit for the continued increase in S.S. attendance during recent months.

Mr. Guest and his cabinet are presenting a training program that is filling a need and challenging the leaders to see the vision of the work to be done in a properly functioning Sunday School. The superintendents of the seven departments are leading their teachers and officers to a personalized interest in the individuals with whom they are to work. Departmental plans, and lessons for the preceding Sunday is taught.

The records reveal that only five months in the past thirty-six was the attendance topped January's record for 1953. The budget offering was not exceeded except for one month, January has been an excellent month according to the pastor and the faithfulness of the people makes it a great work for the Master. Prayer meeting and Bible study begins at 7:30 and choir practice at 8:15. Every one is invited to attend these services.

Junior Choir Gains Interest Young Baptists

The Junior Choir of the First Baptist Church is moving along with an ever increasing attendance and according to Mrs. G. B. Rush, one of the sponsors, "They are a great group of children and will make a wonderful choir, both now and for the future." Miss Lida Jane Smith is pianist for the group. Mr. Bill Bullock directs the singing and gives special class instruction to various ones for part work.

Those attending last week were Harvey McCraw, Curtis Lynn Stephens, Robert Ferguson, Tommy Ford, Sammy Summers, Leslie Thomas, Chas Ferguson, Bill Perkins, Marilyn Warren, Kaye Hopper, Phyllis Hele, Janice Belknap, Diana Cantrell, John Tom Tibbels, Tom Ashman, Mrs. Rush, Miss Smith, Mrs. Twyman Hale, Craig Harrison, Pat, and Kaye Perkins and the pastor.

giving to "Pennies for Bolivia." The new international relations project of the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

The club collect was read in union led by the president, Mrs. Bill Tucker, who presided over a short business session.

Each one was urged to send in to the H. D. Agent office, a favorite recipe or recipes for the cookbook which the County Council is sponsoring to finance the year's budget.

Miss Glenna Moody was welcomed as a visitor by singing "How do Ya Do." Mrs. Love offered a packet of seeds as a prize to the winner of the Po-Ke-No game in recreation. A refreshment plate of cocoa or coffee and a cinnamon fruit rolls were served during the social hour.

The next meeting will be with Mattie Moody and each one is to bring seeds or cuttings to exchange. A welcome is extended to every person who has an interest in Home Demonstration work.

Jerry Jones has been a patient in the Ranger hospital due to a severe attack of the flu.

James Brown is at this report, also hospitalized at Ranger. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown who recently moved back to the J. L. Brown homestead from Desdemona.

Alton Underwood and Dave Morehead were in Fort Worth Thursday and visited a brother, Milton Underwood and family.

The Monroe Ainsworth's were in Ranger Sunday afternoon for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Essie Gorwick and her sister, Mrs. Bonnie Carpenter of Ft. Worth. LaVerne Ainsworth spent the usual Sunday afternoon visiting with Virginia while Roy Gene (we've been calling him Royce Gene) visited Douglas, David and Dwight Rogers.

Mrs. Ollie (Pokey Ainsworth to old timers) Langrock of San Francisco, notified her brother, Monroe Ainsworth here by letter that Sgt. Arnold Ainsworth had wired her of his sailing orders on January 21 aboard the USS Mayflower, Eastward bound.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonzo Melton were Sunday afternoon visitors in the Oliver Galloway home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatley Dean were pleasantly surprised Sunday morning when his brother, Frank Dean, Mrs. Dean and son, Earnest of Tyler drove in for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walton and Billy Jo of Ranger, made a round of calls Sunday before they found the Arthur Loves, with whom they had planned to eat lunch. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Lemley, LaVina Rodgers and a d Betty Jean Love.

Sunday afternoon callers in the B. B. Freeman home were Mr. and Mrs. Gene (Gorman Progress editor) Baker and Miss Vibelia Baker of Gorman, cousins of Mr. Freeman.

The following persons made a short visit in the John Tucker home Sunday afternoon: Mrs. Eva Underwood, Mrs. Jessie Lemley, Mrs. Eunice Love and Joy, LaVina Rodgers of Alameda, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tucker of Ranger and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Galloway. Mr. and Mrs. Galloway came bringing a special gift contribution to the Cheaney Baptist Church. This gift from friends and neighbors is acknowledged with heartfelt thanks by this shut-in family of John, Ellen and Betty Tucker.

Brother Walter Gant, accompanied by Mrs. Gant, of Abilene Christian College, spoke at the morning church service on Sunday and were dinner guests in the Elmer Blackwell home.

A birthday dinner honoring Dee Rodgers and Lee Yancey was the special attraction at the Rodgers home Sunday. Those present beside the family were Mrs. Rodgers, Don, Jan and Leon, Mrs. Yancey and Betty Jean, J. T. Yancey of Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. David Wecker, the Ike Yancey and the Sam Yancey families.

This reporter was a visitor at Alameda Sunday morning and enjoyed the Bible lesson study with neighbors and friends and was instrumental in helping with the Community March of Dimes drive. Miss Cora Echols stated she is having a reprieve from the usual routine of aches and pains.

A 1953 Ford Sunliner convertible will be the official pace car in the annual May 30th 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. William Clay Ford (left), a director of Ford Motor Company, who will drive the car, and Wilbur Shaw, three-time winner of the international race classic and president of the Speedway, are shown above discussing the car's features. Shaw will ride with Ford on the pace lap to start the 1953 race.

Well, for the first time in quite awhile we were lucky enough to see Mrs. K. V. (Doris) Robinson in town for business purposes. She had stopped in front of the High School so it's safe to say that she was there to deposit daughter, Ann. Also saw a group of boys playing a little out of season football on the High School ground. Mrs. Charles P. Ashcraft and two friends parked in front of the First Methodist Church waiting for WSCS meeting to begin. Noticed the Rev. Lynn Robbins angling across the road in front of Marian Phillip's home headed for town. Saw Ronnie Jumper walking along the sidewalk with books under his arm. Garvin D. Chastain outside wandering around in his yard wondering what improvements could be made. Joe Daskovich and his children driving around. Mr. and Mrs. Rudi Marshall in town together attending to business. Mrs. Flake Turner searching for a penny for the parking meter in front of Piggly Wiggly's. Joe Harper leaning nonchalantly against the telephone pole in front of the West Texas Clinic. Pattie King and Betty Wolford walking along at a slow pace. Mrs. Price (Gladys) Crawley and two cute kids driving down the street in a beautiful new 1953 Pontiac. Noticed the Lawrence sisters in Swaney's Pharmacy. Also saw Bill Beck walk down into the Recreation Hall in the Gholson Hotel accompanied by a friend. They emerged a moment later with an armful of boxes. Saw Freddie Joseph walking slowly down the street enjoying a pipe and then saw him go into the Gholson Hotel Coffee Shop accompanied by Richard (Tater) West. Young Messrs. Greer and Duke Dixon were in town admiring the trinkets at Duke and Ayres. Mrs. Pete Brashear and children driving along west Main. Saw Florence Ashcraft driving Sara Beth King and friend taking in the sights in a pale green Chevrolet pickup. Marjorie Maddox and Mrs. Hattie Hingy leaving the office to grab a quick cup of coffee. June Ann Morton was seen on the streets driving a cream colored Plymouth. Evidently, something new has been added. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pruet at the show enjoying the antics of Randolph Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gay leaving their home in the Ford bound for town. Mrs. Willie Jackson from east of town, walking rapidly down the street to make a small purchase. Hubert Foster headed home laden with several books. Hazy Justice looking for something to break the monotony. Mrs. Fred (Skooter) Honner and son hunting for a parking place. Advice Locke walking diagonally across the street. Mrs. Grover Lee parking the Plymouth and going into Duke and Ayres to do a little shopping. Mrs. W. M. Brown in the coffee shop with a friend looking very fresh and chic in a becoming red sweater. C. E. May and W. F. Creager carrying on an animated conversation while covering the distance between the bank and the insurance office.

Don Dooley driving around with a carefree smile on his face. Mrs. W. G. Whittle doing a little window shopping at the Sweetbriar. Saw the Hatfield boy in that yellow striped of his. There's nothing to keep you from getting plenty of air in that. Twister Poston enjoying himself without a worry on his mind. Barney Smith aimlessly wandering around with a friend. Ronald Pruet driving the family Oldsmobile. Johnny Gay and Akard Everett window shopping at the Globe. Mrs. B. R. Hatton and three daughters in town together. Mary Houghton entering the F. E. ## Judge Charges—

when it was more important to insist upon a strict observance of this statute than the present. I will therefore, ask that you make a thorough investigation of this matter.

I also call your attention to the offenses of theft, burglary, forgery, passing forged instruments and such other felonies as may be brought to your attention.

One of the most serious problems confronting the nation today is that of juvenile delinquency. While conditions in our own country are not nearly so serious as they are in other sections of the state our own problems are quite serious. It is not so difficult to find the cause as it is the cure. In my opinion, the cause, in a great majority of the cases, is adult delinquency. A delinquent child is in most cases a neglected child. The Youth Council of the State of Texas states that a vast majority of our delinquent children of Texas come from broken homes. I mention this condition in order that if the opportunity presents itself, in your deliberations that you may counsel with the young boys and girls that may be before you; convince them of their mistakes when you find that mistakes have been made and assure them of your desire to help them solve their difficult problems. This character of work, of course, is not confined to the grand jury room, but should appeal to every good citizen who is interested in the welfare of our boys and girls.

I believe each member of the Grand Jury will agree with me that one of the serious problems confronting the public today which affects our safety and welfare, is that of reckless driving on our streets and highways. This includes not only the drunken drivers who invade the public streets and highways, but also drivers, both young and old, who are not content to drive in a safe and orderly manner. During the years that I have served as a member of the State Legislature, I have studied this problem and I am convinced that many of the parents over the county allow their children to use the family car long before they are qualified to do so. It is my considered opinion that no child should be permitted to drive a car alone until they have secured a drivers license.

I feel sure that the District Attorney will advise you that the offense of swindling by worthless checks is one of the serious problems confronting the public at this time. Until the business men of the county realize the importance of investigating each person with whom they are not acquainted, through proper channels, to ascertain their responsibility before accepting their checks, this condition is not going to improve. Our able District Attorney is your legal advisor, and he and his capable assistant will render such assistance as you may require.

Quail Wing Aid Timely

The director of Wildlife Restoration said quail wings sent in by hunters during the recent quail season may be of unusual aid to wildlife biologists. He explained the wings will show the percentage of young birds as compared with old birds. Furthermore, the proportion of hens and cocks was recorded by those who collected wings. The data, according to the director, will be particularly timely since the fall shoot was generally poor in Texas. This apparently was because the quail were at the bottom of the cycle.

The director estimated that 5,000 quail wings have been received. Last year the receipts were 11,532 wings. Then the quail shoot was good in several regions, particularly in the Panhandle where the quail reached the peak of the cycle. From the harvest, 4,336 wings were sent in by sportsmen in the Panhandle region.

"We will not analyze the field reports for sometime," said the director, "but we expect to find a high percentage of old bird wings from last season. Ordinarily, in a normal season, we would find a higher percentage of wings from birds hatched the same season in which they were harvested.

"With this data, and showing the area where the quail were shot, we hope to be able to piece together millions for TV and Radio. On the Republican side, one committee backing Eisenhower spent nearly 1 1/2 million dollars turning out campaign material for 14,600 like clubs. Each of these clubs spent money, but how much cannot be estimated.

80 to 100

As an example of the kind of money it took to stage the Eisenhower-Stevenson campaign and turn out the biggest vote in history, the Congressional probe found that one Republican leader who headed a major campaign committee spent $1,200,000 just to nominate Eisenhower at the G. O. P. convention. This committee was only one of several working toward that goal.

It has not been disclosed how much was spent on the unsuccessful nomination campaigns of Sen. Taft and the other Republican candidates, but in the case of Taft, it is reasonable to assume that expenditures compared with those made on Eisenhower's behalf.

A committee supporting Stevenson for election, testimony revealed, spent nearly $750,000 and organized subcommittees in 34 states. There were several other similar Stevenson committees operating at the national level. It is not known how much money was raised and spent by the state and local groups.

The data, according to the director, will be particularly timely since the fall shoot was generally poor in Texas. This apparently was because the quail were at the bottom of the cycle.

The director estimated that 5,000 quail wings have been received. Last year the receipts were 11,532 wings. Then the quail shoot was good in several regions, particularly in the Panhandle where the quail reached the peak of the cycle. From the harvest, 4,336 wings were sent in by sportsmen in the Panhandle region.

"We will not analyze the field reports for sometime," said the director, "but we expect to find a high percentage of old bird wings from last season. Ordinarily, in a normal season, we would find a higher percentage of wings from birds hatched the same season in which they were harvested.

"With this data, and showing the area where the quail were shot, we hope to be able to piece together millions for TV and Radio. On the Republican side, one committee backing Eisenhower spent nearly 1 1/2 million dollars turning out campaign material for 14,600 like clubs. Each of these clubs spent money, but how much cannot be estimated.

80 to 100

As an example of the kind of money it took to stage the Eisenhower-Stevenson campaign and turn out the biggest vote in history, the Congressional probe found that one Republican leader who headed a major campaign committee spent $1,200,000 just to nominate Eisenhower at the G. O. P. convention. This committee was only one of several working toward that goal.

It has not been disclosed how much was spent on the unsuccessful nomination campaigns of Sen. Taft and the other Republican candidates, but in the case of Taft, it is reasonable to assume that expenditures compared with those made on Eisenhower's behalf.

A committee supporting Stevenson for election, testimony revealed, spent nearly $750,000 and organized subcommittees in 34 states. There were several other similar Stevenson committees operating at the national level. It is not known how much money was raised and spent by the state and local groups.

Quail Wing Aid Timely

The director of Wildlife Restoration said quail wings sent in by hunters during the recent quail season may be of unusual aid to wildlife biologists. He explained the wings will show the percentage of young birds as compared with old birds. Furthermore, the proportion of hens and cocks was recorded by those who collected wings. The data, according to the director, will be particularly timely since the fall shoot was generally poor in Texas. This apparently was because the quail were at the bottom of the cycle.
