34119 YEAR

RANGER, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 12, 1953

PRICE FIVE CENTS No. 56

An irate old gent rushed into a pharmacy, bottle in hand. He was bald and two large bumps stood out on his head. "Look what this dad-blamed hair tonic did to my head!" he shouted. The clerk took the bottle in his hand, looked at the label and blushed. "My goodness," he said apologetically. "I made a mistake and gave you the best developer."

Mrs. Jess Weaver.
Mrs. Wilson Robinson.
R. V. (Rip) Galwey.
Bill Rainwater.

Those four people among several, we think, deserve some sort of special recognition for their wonderful efforts in making the recent campaign to raise funds for Morris Caudle, 63-year-old Ranger blind man, so heart-warmingly successful.

This old world of ours is literally loaded with wonderful people. They're the caliber of those listed above.

When folks sacrifice their own interests, their own time, their own money and give of themselves to help a fellow man, believe me, they are inspiring.

Bless these four Rangerites and several others for their all-out efforts which is responsible for the success of the Caudle campaign. And bless every individual who contributed to this very worthy cause!

The pompous old judge glared over the rims of his spectacles at the prisoner before him on a charge of vagrancy.

After glancing again at the report of the arrest, the judge scornfully asked, "Have you ever earned a dollar in your life?"

"Yes, Your Honor," was the reply. "I voted for you in the last election!"

A first-grader, telling her teacher about her dog, explained: "He's a mixed-up kind—sort of a cock-crescendo!"

19-year-old Larry Appel, son of Mrs. Betsy Appel of the Paramount Hotel, is angling for a job in these parts. He's had varied experience, including work in drug stores, grocery stores, etc. and can handle just about anything. He's a well-built husky lad and can do construction work. Anyone need a good hand? . . . Of the 60 million drivers in the country, not more than 15 per cent ever had any formal training in driving. To train the new generation of drivers, Ranger High and about 8,000 other high schools have driving courses to more than 700,000 students last year. O. C. (Stubby) Warden, popular athletic coach, is the RHS driving instructor . . . Ouch! Seventy per cent of the U. S. population is susceptible to poison ivy . . . L. L. (Lem) Rushing, Ranger's new police and fire commissioner, for the benefit of those who may be interested, says it's impossible to "fix" a parking ticket here. Ranger cops have been told to crack-down on folks who fall to deposit coins in parking meters. Plenty of tickets are being dispensed daily . . . Eight million Americans received divorce decrees in the last 10 years. Three of every four divorced persons now remarry within 6 years . . . Rev. D. D. Brian, pastor of Ranger's Second Baptist Church, has regained his "lost voice." Strenuous preaching during a recent 10-day revival at Haskell really strained Rev. Brian's vocal chords . . . Don't forget, all you red-hot grid fans—the first meeting of the Ranger Quarterback Club is scheduled for Monday night at 7:30 at the office of the Chamber of Commerce in downtown Ranger. Let's go and help Shorty Wallace and his gang really get some great things done for our RHS Bulldogs this fall!

Why's it always a routine in this mad parking race across the street on the other side? Looks like the only available space? . . . While millions of communist children are being indoctrinated in their brand of atheistic "religion" we are shamefully neglect-

Oil Patch Reports—

TWO NEW TESTS ARE STAKED IN AREA; PROJECT PLUGGED

Area oil developments today included news of an abandonment and announcement of two new tests.

W. L. Hinds et al of Fort Worth staked their No. 1 E. L. Burkhead as a 1,995-foot cable tool test 11 miles north of Rising Star in Eastland County.

Location of the new project is 2,050 feet from north and 1,050 feet from east lines of the southeast quarter of Section 27, Block 2, ETRR Survey.

Over in neighboring Stephens County, a proposed 2,300-foot rotary well has been staked four miles southeast of Frankell.

It's the No. 1 J. A. Gray and is being put down by F. L. Hafner, trustee, of Olney. Drillsite is 1,650 feet from north and west lines of Section 79, Block 4, T&P Survey.

OUSTED—Hans Jendretsky, chief of the Berlin branch of East German Communist party, has been ousted for supporting an "enemy faction" which reportedly proposed a "soft" policy to appease East Germany's angry population, an official party communique revealed Sunday.

Kin of Breck Woman Fatally Beaten, Robbed

Funeral services were pending today out in Las Vegas, Nev., for C. C. McGovern, husband of a former Breckenridge woman, who died Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from injuries received when he was fatally beaten and robbed in Las Vegas Saturday night.

McGovern, son-in-law of Mrs. T. R. Tracey of Breckenridge, was robbed of $3,000 in cash following the severe beating received at the hands of several assailants.

McGovern was married to the former Miss Helen Tracey of Breckenridge and they had resided in Las Vegas for the past 20 years where he operated several cafes and owned a string of amusement machines. In addition to his widow, he is survived by a son.

11,000 Federal Employees Due To Lose Positions

Approximately 11,000 government workers in the 4-state Dallas region are expected to be cut off the federal payroll in the near future, Samuel M. Ray, deputy regional director for the Civil Service Commission, said today at Dallas.

Full effect of the economy move will not be known until individual agencies can assess appropriations approved for the new fiscal year by Congress, he said.

Ray estimated the reduction would cut the number of federal employees in Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma from 201,000 to about 190,000.

Trend to Left Seen Changing In C-C Study

Several recent actions of Congress and the national Administration were seen today as portending "a possible turning of the tide of American socialism."

The Council of State Chambers of Commerce is a study prepared for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and thirty other state and regional Chambers of Commerce.

Rev. Lee Fields will officiate during the funeral rites today. Hamner Funeral Home, Eastland, will be in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include his wife, the former June Ferguson, of Houston; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Harris of Rotue 2, Cisco; two sons, Stan Harris of Oklahoma and Harvey Lynn Harris of Houston; six daughters, Wilda Joy of New Mexico, Mrs. Bobby Gene of Stephenville, Gay Nell of Oklahoma City, Gayle June, Linda and Brenda of Houston; three sisters, Mrs. Alton Fleming of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Ray Hollis and Pearl Gunther of Eastland; and three brothers, Earl Harris of Carbon, John E. Harris of Abilene, and M. J. Harris, stationed at San Antonio with the U. S. Air Force.

The study pointed out that this is "a broad and fruitful field for study and action by the Administration and the Congress," adding, "Its potential is the return to full private enterprise in the United States and substantial reduction of the public debt."

The Council study cited as measures countering socialism the return of the "tidelands" to the States, moves to permit private utilities to develop the Roanoke Rapids in North Carolina and the Niagara River in New York, efforts to contain the expanding operations of TVA and steps to relinquish the Inland Waterways Corporation and synthetic rubber manufacturing plants to private enterprise.

The "Tidelands" Act was held by the Council study to have "inflicted a major setback to those who would centralize ownership and control of the land in Federal hands." It added, "While the Act merely restored ownership and rights to the States to lands which historically had been theirs, this was a 'Giveaway' in the eyes of the measure's opponents."

Pointing out that the socialist program calls for State ownership or control of such basic industries as electric power, steel, oil, coal and transportation, the study said, "Nationalization of electric power is especially important because it would enable the Government to control the decisions of most other industries on where they might locate, what they might produce and whom they might employ."

The Council study noted that "all three branches of our Government" have taken a number of steps in recent months "toward stopping and even reversing the encroachment of the Federal Government in industry."

Blind Rangerite Gets Aid

Caudle's Fund Totals $465.04

The fund to aid Morris Caudle, 63-year-old totally blind Ranger resident, to secure a "seeing eye" German Shepherd dog out in Hollywood, Calif., on Sept. 1, is well over the $450 mark.

Latest tabulation today indicated that total contributions thus far reported are $465.04.

New donations, in addition to those already published are:

Ranger Furniture
Exchange ————— $10.00
Leonard Artbars ——— 1.00
Meredith Estes ——— 10.00

In addition to cash funds collected during the campaign, a number of items of clothing and men's furnishings have been contributed to the Ranger resident.

Mr. Caudle, blind since a lad of 16, has been approved to receive a "seeing eye" dog from the International Guiding Eye Foundation, Hollywood.

He is tentatively due to leave Anson Carter Airport between Fort Worth and Dallas on Tuesday morning Sept. 1 and is scheduled to arrive in Los Angeles at 2:30 p.m. the same day at the International Airport at the West Coast City. He'll be met at the LA field by a representative of the International Guiding Eye Foundation.

Mr. Caudle and his new dog will be trained together for a period of four weeks before the pair return to Ranger via American Airlines.

State's Cotton To Total 3 1/2 Million Bales

A 1953 Texas cotton crop of 3,325,000 bales—just about average—was forecast Monday by the Agriculture Department.

In Austin, State Agriculture Commissioner John White said he thought the forecast was just about right "as of the present."

White added that the crop could be less. "If this hot weather continues," he said, "some of our good crops, such as those in Central Texas, are going to deteriorate and we won't make that much."

The department forecast a 14,400,000-bale crop for the nation—a figure which virtually assured production controls on next year's crop. The decision must be made by Oct. 15.

The department said its present forecast was more optimistic than was indicated a month ago, mainly because more cotton than was expected came in Texas and Oklahoma.

A month ago, the department said, about 1 1/2 million acres in Texas and Oklahoma had not germinated because of dry weather. Surveys show about one million acres of this land had germinated and has grown enough to be retained for harvest.

Cisco's Rodeo Is Postponed

The Cisco Roundup Club announced Monday that its 4th annual Cisco Rodeo, previously announced for Aug. 14 and 15, has been postponed temporarily, due to unforeseen conflict with other neighboring show dates.

New dates will be set and announced in a few days, and every effort will be made to advise contestants and spectators of the new show dates as soon as possible.

In spite of extensive advertising, it was decided to change show dates in the best interest of the cowboys and cowgirls planning to participate in the two day rodeo, as well as for the convenience of the many patrons of former Cisco shows.

It is reported that several additional events will be added to the schedule of contests.

ing the religious education of American children which is needed to offset communist dogma. This warning was issued by the eminent religious leader Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick.

Communist children are taught that the Soviet is their god to whom they owe supreme loyalty and for which all sacrifices are reasonable. American families, schools and even churches, says Dr. Fosdick, "this does not relieve us from the responsibility of educating our children in the great faiths for which we stand. Millions of American families display no serious interest at all in what their children believe concerning life's basic meaning, purpose or destiny. Yet our democracy is not only a political but a spiritual heritage, springing from profound convictions about life. It is of crucial importance that this heritage of faith and life be passed on to our children, if our culture at its best is to survive, our children must be instructed from the beginning in the basic convictions about God and man from which democracy springs."

America stands for the separation of church and state so that no sectarian religious instruction is permissible in our public schools but this does not mean, as is commonly charged, that our public schools need be "irreligious," points out Dr. Fosdick. "Teaching religion as propaganda is one thing;

Light shade will keep the temperature down and stimulate their bloom, but it must be light, such as is cast by oak trees, and not the total shade cast by buildings.

Even if summer has come with no flower seed sown, you can sow the following annuals, which with normal weather should germinate within five days and bear flowers in 30 to 40: Zinnias, ageratum, alyssum, candytuft, centaurea, clarkia, cyanoglossum, annual sun flowers, morning glories, annual pinks, leptosyris, linaria, marigolds and poppies.

This list could be greatly enlarged by including annuals which take a little more time to develop, such as asters, which if sown now in the garden will produce sturdy plants more likely to resist disease than those started in greenhouses; and will flower by mid-August.

Early summer is the normal time to sow the nasturtium which will not germinate until hot weather arrives, yet is a contrary flower because it will not flower well in hot weather. The
