Bulldogs Drop Game To Brownwood, 26-13

It was late in the first quarter when the Bulldogs' defense held the Lions' offense to a 6-0 count at half-time. Alternately blowing hot and cold, the Bulldogs at times were up and down the field, only to see it fade away as the Lions used an optional play pitch-out, which clicked enough on pitch-outs, and passed to win the game.

This old country boy may have become too "civilized" and may not have enough of the country in him.

While going east, the Ranger Gipsy a few days ago, I dropped by the post-office with a letter to a man who has spent almost a half century actively engaged in the gaming business.

"At the time of our visit the gin was in operation and like a gin, you try to kid of years gone by, I went over the place watching the various operations required in separating the cotton from the seed. This brief visit brought back many memories of how as a small lad, there wasn't a much greater thrill than getting to go along to the gin with a bale of cotton.

A bale, or a small one at least, could be written about the difference in today's ginning and the one we remember as a "lad." That is beside the point, of the realization that some of the country has faded out during the intervening years.

As I stood in the press room waiting for the workmen to swing the turbine and press the cotton down upon me that I had completely forgotten how a bale of cotton is wrapped and tied-out. Oh, fickle memory, I must be slipping. (Faster than I want to admit).

OP-UP—VIEW
This corner of the paper received a gadget for try-out a few days ago from the American Homecraft Co., of Chicago. They call it "Teletone" and it claims on the telephone and in the shoulder, bearing both hands free, while you continue with your phone gabbling.

Quite a handy gadget at that. This old country boy, alone with a lot of other people, is prone to get as far of hand waving when he talks. That's where the phone holder comes in for good use. Then too, no doubt there are a lot of our women readers, who are frequently accused of talking all things and nothing, who when they are talking with their phones, they could talk and at the same time darn hubby's, or, or some other such useful occupation.

The folks up Chicago way might have something at that. Seems like every time I ask someone a question, I learn about something in this town that I didn't know about before. I would like to know a few things about our town for a long time, but I didn't know until late Wednesday that Jess Meroney is one of the assistants when it comes to helping make more rain in the vicinity of Dallas.

Was having a chat and a cup of coffee with Mr. Meroney and of course, with the "Folks" of our town, we were discussing the weather and the machine he mentioned at his station. When he let me take a look at the machine, that something, as well, ain't that something. Right here in Ranger there has been the rain making machine all this time, but it don't make it rain in Ranger.

For the past few weeks this column has been missing from the Times, apparently without loss of subscribers, as only two readers have made inquiry why it was left out. Wify this issue The Windbag ceases—at least now. The old (Continued On Page Two)

AREA GETS OVER 1 INCH OF RAINFALL

Scattered rains over this area Thursday afternoon and early Friday brought slightly more than an inch of moisture to the Ranger vicinity.

The Thursday afternoon fall was unofficially gauged at .49 of an inch at the Ranger office, and an unofficial .70.

Cooler temperatures followed the rains and although the rains were welcome, farmers state that the moisture will be of little if any benefit to the crops. Cotton in this area on the whole has matured, and the peanut crop is so near the harvesting stage that no material benefit will result.

Dallas Man Hurt In Car-Motorcycle Accident Friday

Norman Nelson, 22, of 4411 E. Ryan Street, Dallas, was in facility on Friday morning when he suffered from multiple injuries and shock, as a result of a motorcycle-auto accident early Friday night about 35 miles east of Ranger on U.S. Highway 80.

It was reported that he did not sustain any broken bones. Information obtained by Ranger police in checking on the accident after Nelson had been admitted to the hospital shortly before 7 a. m. Friday, showed the motorcycle was from Dallas, was enroute to Big Spring.

Nelson was riding a motorcycle and Elmora was driving a motorcycle mobile. Police seemed to think they may have been traveling side-by-side, and the motorcycle occupants of the driver or occupants of the other vehicle was not determined.

Charles Stroud Is Recupercating At Warm Springs

Charles Stroud, son of Mark and Mrs. J. L. Stroud, is back at Warm Springs Foundation at Gonzales, for re-evaluation of muscles, following major surgery at Scott and White Hospital in Temple last August. He is one of Ranger's polo players.

MOUNTAINERS STILL STRONG MAN CREW IN DISTRICT 9-A

The team on the east end of the district, Weatherford's Kangaroos, appear to have found their bearings after getting off to a sluggish start in pre-conference play. Friday night they took on a Class AAA crew, the Arlington Colts, and returned home with the long end of a 32 to 13 score. Starting the season with two consecutive wins—Carters-Reconstruc 7-7; they broke into the win columns over Jackboro by 44 to 6 a week ago. Cleno was still riding strong in its campaign of sizeable scores in four starts by downing Colbyman 34 to 12. Lopsided scores have been piled up by the Lobos against Eastland, 51 to 12, and 14 to 6. They lost their second game of the season to Brady Stephensville, another 9-AA team to find the going rough for the 1954 season, stumbled again before the powerful Comanche Indians, by a 25 to 13 count. This was the third defeat for the Yellow Jackets on four times out. First it was Brownwood, 26 to 13, but were helmeted victims a week ago at Big Spring to the tune of 52 to 6. Ranger's next opponent, the Eastland Mavericks, are having a hard time finding a winning score. They had won their first game last week with a score of 13 to 0. First it was Cleno that flipped the Mavericks 14 to 12; followed by De Leon, 14 to 9, and then Granbury, 39 to 13.

The $50 cash bonus offered by the Chamber of Commerce to the farmer in this area who marketed the first load of 10,000 pounds or more of peanuts in Ranger, or more of peanuts, was presented to the winner Thursday night at the meeting of the Big Spring Lions Club.

W. F. Burkhalter, who lives four miles north of Rising Star had been declared the winner Monday when his load of 10,285 pounds of peanuts was sold here about two hours ahead of the second load brought to Ranger by Marshall Reich who lives on the Highway between Cisco and Rising Star.

 Windbag has gone flat, as it were. This title and column has gone along with the writer on his previous journeys and we are packing up again.
 It has been nice knowing and working with a lot of nice folks in Ranger, and for all the many kindnesses extended me, this old country boy can only say, Thanks. That is a small word to attempt to cover such a broad field and try to express appreciation for the so many favors granted during our sojourn in Ranger.

We'll be missing the regular comments of our correspondent at Gunsight, and a lot of other things that have gone into trying an attempt to enlighten and entertain our readers.

In moving on, we leave a lot undone, is always the case with us, and I am quite sure with a lot of others who make a change. There are many things which had been planned in the way of future editorial features, that will be left off to someone else to do.
 Again, thanks to everyone for everything, and so long.

One parting shot. "Big shots are the little shots who kept shooting." Well, come on cousin, let's go hunt some more ammunition.

ROUND-UP on the CAMPUS at Ranger Junior College

Rev. D. R. Fordyce Speaker At RJC Tuesday Assembly

Rev. Donald R. Fordyce, pastor of the First Christian Church of Ranger was the principal speaker at the Ranger Junior College assembly, Tuesday, September 28. Dean R. L. Willis, was in charge of the faculty-sponsored assembly. Mrs. Richard Bonney, a former student at RJC gave two vocal numbers and was accompanied at the piano by Dean Fred D. Baumgardner of the Department of Music.

In his address, Rev. Fordyce discussed mental thinking and the covert and overt activities of the human mind. He challenged the students to discipline their attitudes and to train their minds to think, stating that the thoughts we have determine our attitudes of life. He said parents instill attitudes that later come out in actions of their children and sometimes these must be re-channelled.

"The Communists continue to stress the materialistic view of life," he asserted. "Never in the history of the world has it been more important for us to know what we believe and to stand up for it."

"A firm attitude and faith in our Democratic form of government would help keep people from being changed in their convictions when subjected to Communist brainwashing. We must hold secure the things we believe in or they will be taken away from us."
 The speaker emphasized the fact that so often our attitudes, which result from an individual's thinking, create pre-developed attitudes on the part of peoples in other lands, and thus the covert and overt activities have a direct bearing and influence on international policies. He declared that one church leader had suggested that the State Department screen all applicants for passports because each American who goes abroad is an ambassador of what we believe, what we think and what we are. "What you think and believe, so you are," the speaker said.

The government of Bogota, Colombia, has announced a four-year canal-digging program to link its east flowing and west flowing river systems. It will provide the Atlantic and Pacific oceans paralleling the Panama Canal.

Ag Students Plan New Section For Cooper Library

Dr. Grady Tice and his class in animal husbandry at Ranger Junior College have adopted as one of the projects for this semester, the creation of an agricultural section in college's Cooper Library.

They have installed a pamphlet file at the rear of the library, and students are ordering a lot of the materials they will need in class work and reference work. The material covering agricultural subjects already on hand is being classified and indexed to make it readily accessible for use.

Among the agricultural magazines which have been ordered for the new section of the library are: The Farm, Farm and Ranch, Farmer-Stockman, Country Gentleman; Poultry Tribune, Cappers Farmer, Popular Gardening, Breeders Gazette and the American Fruit Grower.

Students who are assisting in the project are: George Scott, Neal Tankersley, Tommy Wood, Ross Nall, Jerry Carter, Thomas Hudson, Clyde Moore, Bobby Pharris, Harold Robert, J. D. Hanson and Floyd Woods.

Cpl. Jesse Gomez Due Home After 14 Months Oversea

Cpl. Jesse F. Gomez, son of Mrs. Anita Gomez, 514 Cherry Street, Ranger, is expected home within a few days for an extended leave following his return to the United States after serving more than a year in the Far East. He arrived in San Francisco on Sept. 28, aboard the transport USS Gen. Nelson M. Walker, after serving with the First Marine Division in the Far East for the past 14 months.

The transport ship had been originally scheduled to dock on the Pacific Coast on Sept. 25. The returnees will undergo about five days of administrative processing at Treasure Island before being released on leave to visit their homes.

A member of the family said they were expecting him to arrive in Ranger possibly Sunday or Monday.

of God have to do with sin? What was his death on Calvary attributed to, certainly not to natural cause of organic failure but the certainty of "the wages of sin being death." Attend Sunday night and learn the Bible truths about this power of Satan over the ways of man. There will be a baptismal service at the close of the worship hour. Visitors and friends are always welcome to attend the services. Our Nursery is open and little ones will be under expert care. You are always welcome.

Weekly Schedule Church of Christ Mesquite & Rusk

The following is the schedule of services for the Church of Christ at Mesquite and So. Rusk, Max R. Crumley, Evangelist.

SUNDAY: Crusade for Christ (KERC 1590) 7:45 a.m.; Bible School 9:45 a.m.; Morning Worship 10:45 a.m.; Young People's Class 6:00 p.m.; Evening Worship 7:00 p.m. WEDNESDAY: Assembly for Praise & Devotion 7:30 p.m.; The Children's Hour 8:00 p.m.; Adult Edification 8:00 p.m. Sermon Subjects: Sunday morning: "The Call of the Mountains"; Sunday Evening: "The Thief on the Cross." Many pertinent lessons that are helpful to the weary pilgrim, who is journeying to the Eternal Hills, are found in a study of the Mountains of the Bible. Some of these will be discussed Sunday morning.

There is always an abiding interest in the thief on the cross, who, in his dying hours, repented. Many accept his example as a case of conversion of the Gospel. Was he saved? Was he a Christian? And if so can we be saved as he was? These and other very vital questions will be discussed in the sermon Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

"Able to See!"

It is God who "healeth all my diseases." At the divine touch of the "Great Physician," a man who was born blind was "able to see." He saw a new world for the first time... he saw good and bad. How much can you see? Your vision may be 20-20, but can you see the order and beauty of the universe in the star-lit sky? Can you see Him in the bursting rosebud and the ripening grain? Can you see the church on the corner? Can you always see the difference between right and wrong? Can you? If the scales have started to form over your eyes, if your vision for good things is getting blurred, you better stop in at church this week. You'll be able to see.

You In The Church... The Church In You
 Form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. Be a faithful worker. Attend every service.

How Often Have I Wondered—

... why so many other people get along better than I. Ever have that feeling? If so, it's time for us to do a little soul-searching together. If we are day-dreaming or drifting along aimlessly without thought or reason, let's stop and about face. Let's begin to do things wisely. Let's guard against buying property with faulty titles. Investing in good titles is a sure way to get along better financially—better than those who don't. I will if you will!

The young people are all invited to have fun through games and wholesome Christian fellowship to be found in the youth fellowship hour at 6 p.m. Sunday at the church.

Christian Science

Biblical assurance of man's dominion and power over sickness and discord will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

On the subject of "Unreality," selections from the King James Version of the Bible and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read. They include this verse from II Timothy (1:7): "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

From Science and Health the following selection based on the fact of God's allness will be among those read (p. 16): "The understanding that the Ego is Mind, and that there is but one Mind or Intelligence, begins at once to destroy the errors of mortal sense and to supply the truth of immortal sense. This understanding makes the body harmonious; it makes the nerves, bones, brain, etc., servants, instead of masters."

The Golden Text is from Matthew (7:18, 19): "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire."
