The Pathfinder

By Lee Harr

"Are you acquainted with any of the jurymen?" the District Attorney asked the elderly witness. "More than half," answered the old gentleman. "Are you willing to swear that you know more than half of them?" persisted the D. A. The old man flicked a glance over the jury box. "If it comes to that," he drawled, "I'm willing to swear I know more than all of them put together."

A group of spectators that filled City Hall and jammed into the adjoining hallway before spilling out on the sidewalks in front of the building for the commissioners' meeting Tuesday night were somewhat disappointed when the meeting adjourned.

In all likelihood, the next few meeting nights will be calm and unpretentious.

Most of the great amount of spectators came for a lengthy, drawn out show, but had to settle for a 20 minute preview. If a meeting of any council has ever been such courtesy, in that, as it fell from the lips of some seemed almost unreal after Saturday's meeting.

The visitors were likewise awed to some extent. My dearest, I figured Before we were wed My pay was sufficient To keep us ahead. But, darling, the "bargains" You find in a store Is more than your husband Was bargaining for.

Beginning near June 1, we can expect to witness more of the Little League baseball games that last year, thrilled so many. Also, with current plans, we can expect additional pleasure from the Minor League, the league that is to be formed from those who do not make the Little League teams.

In most cases, the Minor League will be composed of younger athletes, who through the lack of age and experience are unable to make the "older brothers' squad."

However, as they grow older, they too will take their places among the best.

Plans are also being considered to add an additional two teams to supplement the four for next year. The number of interested boys in the 8 to 12 age bracket has made it practically mandatory that the league be enlarged.

Actually it probably will not be many years before the size of the league is at least doubled. Approximately 75 boys this year are attempting to get on the roster of the four teams, and none of the teams are more than five or six players short.

Of course, the Minor League is being organized to supplement the Little League, thus giving any interested boy the opportunity to play in some form or fashion. So by next season, if all plans materialize and the league is given enough support, every young athlete within the Little League age will be allowed to participate on some team.

Partly cloudy and continued warm Thursday and Friday. High both days near 90, low Thursday night 65 to 70.

Feed Slocum, Cresson ranchman is defending champion and is expected to be here to defend his title. Slocum defeated Lee Wise of North Texas State College 1 up in a thrilling match last year to win the crown. Jimmy Phillips, formerly of Ranger and well known in West Texas golf circles, now of Tulsa, Okla., has advised that he will compete. Phillips won the 1953 meet over Art Corbin of Dallas.

In addition to the prize for the winner of the tournament this year, a splendid trophy will be awarded, and prizes for winners in all flights and contests will consist of golf equipment only, according to James Townzen, club president.

Qualifying is now open to anyone except those who expect to compete for the medalists prize, which of course will have to be done on Friday, May 20. A barbecue and calcutta pool will be held Friday at 7 o'clock and match play will start Saturday morning and finals will be held Sunday, May 21. At least six full flights are anticipated.

Cast Announced For Junior Class Play

Final touches this week are being given on "You're Telling Me," the three act comedy that is to be produced by the junior class of Ranger High School in the auditorium Friday night.

Practice on the play has been continuing for the past month. The play will revolve around the home of an absent minded professor and the everyday shenanigans of his motherless teenage children whose only guidance comes from an inefficient house keeper.

Yvonne Hennon plays the part of Isabella, the heavy set housekeeper with slightly graying hair, a long dress, and a long face. Always in possession of a dust cloth, she often makes feeble attempts to use it.

Bill Andrews, the young brother of the family, so full of pep and ideas that he can hardly be contained in any home, is played by Bob Downstain.

Professor Andrews, a short, thin meek little fellow with graying hair, a wrinkled suit and shell rimmed glasses is portrayed by Stanley McAnelly. He always carries a book which he studies intently. Brilliant in his field, astronomy, he is woefully absent minded.

Janis Carter gets the call to play Jerry Andrews, a girl of 18 or 19, rather stubborn at times and with a mind of her own. When dressed in formal wear, there is no limit to her loveliness. She is often quite sloppy, however.

Cast as Donna Andrews will be Marie Chambers. Donna, the kid sister with anklets and sport clothes, is a lovable little person, running over with ideas that keep her in trouble. She sees romance in everything.

Beth Robinson, played by Patsy Shaffer, is not quite so soft and romantic. Her outlook on life is just a little bit harsher; she can be very sarcastic and sometimes almost domineering.

Archie Robinson portrays Dick Mallon, a good looking young fellow who is very much the leader type. He usually gets places pretty much on his own.

Cast as Joan Mayberry is Edna Holliday. Joan thinks the world should get to its knees every time she screams for attention. She takes supreme delight in being as nasty as possible.

Rounding out the cast is Joe Allcot played by Pete Jameson. Joe is a rather loudly dressed, loud spoken individual who would like everyone to think that he is important. He's a good fellow, although not the type that would be expected to speak at a Ladies Aid Society. Money is a very important thing to him and he is always interested in making a deal.

The junior class promises an evening of enjoyment and pleasure in their production which they have termed, "the best yet."

Burleson Pushes Federal Measure

"Pleased to advise that Secretary of Agriculture today authorized 7 1/2 percent increase in all 1955 peanut acreage allotments," Omar Burleson, representative of this Congressional District said in a telegram special to the Times, Wednesday.

Burleson has recently been attempting to affect the acreage increase with assistance from the Southwestern Peanut Shellers and the Southwest Peanut Growers Association.

The additional seven percent in Eastland County will amount to approximately an additional 2,475 acres. Nearly 33,000 acres were planted last year. However, some farmers have turned a portion or all of their allotments back.

Department of Agriculture officials has deemed the allotment increase necessary but legislative action was never completed to guarantee the increase.

Some of the officials feared that a surplus crop this year would flood the markets. However, the Southwest has had no surplus since 1950 and only recently, a limited supply of peanuts was allowed to be shipped into this country.

Shortages in the past three years have also thrown the price of planting seed skyward and a definite shortage of the planting seed is due to be felt in this area during the planting season. The increase in allotments will make the seed problem more acute.

Senator Price Daniel messaged Secretary-Treasurer Ray Norris of the County Farm Bureau about the increase.

"It is our opinion," said Mr. Norris, "that farmers will do well to check with the ASC office at the Courthouse, in order to make sure they are planting the right acreage."

H-SU Students To Conduct Hope Services

Bill Brock, freshman ministerial student of Fort Worth, who is a cheerleader of Hardin-Simmons University and Johnny Howerton, a two-year basketball letterman for the H-SU Cowboys will be in charge of the services Sunday, at the New Hope Baptist Church here.

Brock will be doing the preaching in both services and Howerton will be bringing a devotional to his testimony, due to the absence of New Hope's pastor, Rev. Jackie R. Taylor, who will be bringing the baccalaureate services to his hometown in Allison.

Howerton, a P. E. major, is a member of the Life Service Band and a member of the Who's Who of the Universities and Colleges of America, and devotional chairman of the Cowboys for Christ.

Brock, who is majoring in Bible and Journalism is the sports editor of the University paper, (The Brand) and a member of the Life Service Band.

Strained Courtesies Mark Council Meet

Second meeting of the city commissioners Tuesday night could not have been more different than that which transpired during the heated meeting Saturday following the inauguration ceremonies.

The courteous but strained business session was played before the one of the largest crowds that had ever gathered for a similar affair here.

Each of the minor business problems were handled by courteous discussion and completed in accord by each of the commissioners.

Action was deferred until the next regular meeting night on the choice of a city health officer, and city attorney.

City Manager Lester Crossley was appointed Corporation Court Judge, however.

A. H. Williams, water commissioner and mayor pro-tem asked what procedure would be used in "running the swimming pool this year."

Mayor Lee Dockery instructed Williams to work out any plans with Crossley.

The group also unanimously agreed to change the meeting time from 7:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Only 20 minutes of time was required to complete the entire agenda of business. A great portion of that was required to read the lengthy minutes of the Saturday meeting.

Seek Secure Vaccine Before Schools' End

Dr. Brown had just been informed that the polio vaccine allotted Texas for 1st and 2d grade inoc-ulations will not be shipped earlier than the latter part of next week.

Battle Creek Water Project Voted, Cisco

Cisco's Battle Creek water project was voted 459 to 213 — more than 2 to 1 — in a $400,000 water revenue bonds election Tuesday.

While 500 votes had been anticipated, 674 were recorded, with two incorrectly cast.

Under the proposition the City of Cisco would issue revenue bonds to finance a city water project at Battle Creek, six miles northwest of town. In this project, a channel dam would be built and flood waters pumped to Lake Cisco via a 24-inch pipeline.

The project provides $264,000 for the Battle Creek work and another $136,000 for improvements for the water system inside the city. The improvements would include a 500,000-gallon overhead storage tank and new water mains where needed.

The project has been under consideration by the City of Cisco for more than three years. Engineer Homer A. Hunter of Dallas developed the plans.

The engineering survey showed that Battle Creek runs enough to pump about 500 million gallons of water per year to Lake Cisco. The creek has a water shed of some 60 square miles, as compared with 28 square miles for Lake Cisco.

Work is expected to begin as soon as engineering details can be completed and contracts awarded. The $400,000 revenue bond issue would be retired by the City in a period of 30 years. Engineers said that the revenues of the city water department would need to be increased by 10 per cent to finance the program.

to Eastland several years ago and at the time of his death, was residing at the Connellee Hotel.

He began his career at an early age, teaching school to further his study of law. On entering the profession he practiced law in Eastland for many years and served several terms as county attorney. He was always interested in oil activities and was actively engaged in this work until the last.

He was a lifetime Methodist and at the time of his death his membership was in the First Methodist Church at Longview. Fondly referred to as "Judge," he was affectionately known by people in all walks of life, for he was a stately gentleman, a scholar, sportsman and friend. His wide variety of interests kept him youthful in spirit and keenly alert mentally, despite his years.

October 15, 1927, he married Jewell Glenn of Odessa, and to this union were born four children: Lucy, T. G. Jr., Danny and Molly. No distinction was made between them and his stepdaughter, Maxine, who was loved and cared for by him as his own. Their home was at Longview.

Surviving are Mrs. Jackson, three daughters and a son. The daughters are Mrs. Maxine Finch of Andrews, Mrs. Frank Darden of South America, Miss Mollie Jackson of Odessa, T. G. Jackson Jr., his son, is in the Marine Corps in Japan. He leaves a grandchild, Frank Darden Jr. Mr. Jackson also leaves three sisters, Mrs. June Kimble, Miss Mary Jackson and Mrs. Lucy Brogdon, all of Fort Worth, and two brothers, Charles R. Jackson of Lubbock and L. G. Jackson of Rising Star.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the First Methodist Church at Longview. Burial will be in the Longview cemetery.

Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"!

This is the engine that's writing a whole new chapter in the book of automobile performance records. This is the engine that has stock car timers doing a "double take" at their stop-watches wherever experts gather to compare the abilities of the 1955 cars.

For example, in the recent NASCAR stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Florida, Chevrolet literally ran away from every other car in its class—and a raft of others besides. In the one-mile straightaway run for low-priced cars, the first two places—and six of the first ten—went to Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one!

What's behind this blazing performance? A compact honey of a V8 that only the world's leading producer of valve-in-head engines can build. Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" has the shortest piston stroke in the industry (that means less piston travel...longer engine life!) And it delivers the highest power per pound of any V8 in the low-priced field. It's so efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five...needs less radiator coolant, too. It's the most modern V8 under anybody's hood!

It puts a new kind of fun in your driving life. You're in charge of 162 high-spirited horsepower—or if you're looking for even more excitement, the new "Super Turbo-Fire V8" (optional at extra cost) puts 180 h.p. under your toe!

Pick the one you'd rather have fun with, then come in and get behind the wheel. You'll see why the Motoramic Chevrolet is showing its heels to everyone else on the road!

Combine your new Chevrolet purchase with your vacation plans! Order a new Chevrolet through us, then pick it up at the plant in Flint, Michigan, see Chevrolets built, if you like, and drive yours home. Chances are you'll save a substantial share of your vacation travel costs!

Modeled in Rome, Italy, sunglasses are berry-trimmed to match. In a lighter mood, Italy's milliners have turned out the beach hat at right. ### Facts For Drivers

By members of the Drivers Training Class at Ranger High School. This column will be prepared and printed in the Times each Thursday.

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . .

Since all drivers are pedestrians at times, there are certain rules that they should observe while pedestrians. A driver should always be on the look-out for pedestrians and pedestrians should always be on the look-out for drivers.

- A pedestrian should:
1. Observe traffic signals.
  2. Cross the streets at pedestrian lanes or at intersections.
  3. Wait on the curb for traffic lights to change.
  4. Look in both directions before crossing the street.
  5. Never walk into the street from between parked cars.
  6. Walk on sidewalks or off the pavement of a highway.
  7. Walk on the left side when walking on a highway or road facing the approaching traffic.
  8. Wear white or light colored clothes, or better still, carry a light when walking at night.

Slogan for the week: "Be a cautious pedestrian and live longer."

... and go along together in the evolution of Progress. Two years ago in a Western city we witnessed the processing of 4400 County Clerk documents into the records of a large title plant. New Sowing Technique Better Grass Stands

Much high quality grass and clover seed is wasted because of failure to obtain stands under conditions that appear favorable.

Drilling of grass and clover seed at a depth of one-fourth inch and placement of fertilizer in bands one inch below the seed, with the soil packed over the seed, may be an answer to the problem of making better use of our seed supply.

Stand obtained when fertilizer is placed 1 inch below seed.

Tests are under way to develop better methods of planting these crops, by the U.S.D.A. at Beltsville, Maryland. The first season's results, as reported in CROPS AND SOILS by R. E. Wagner and W. C. Hulbert, were decidedly favorable to such precision placement of both seed and fertilizer.

Poor stand where seed and fertilizer were broadcast at same rates.

Results of these tests, which are being confirmed by the second year's work, tend to disprove the old theory that under varying fertility and moisture conditions, but that they would nearly always be favorable.

The advantage of fertilizer placement in a band below the grass seed became evident soon after the plantings were made in September of 1952. Although seedlings in all plots were up within a few days, those in which the fertilizer had been placed in bands one inch below the seed developed most rapidly and weeds were less prominent.

Plants in drill rows eight inches apart, with fertilizer an inch below the seed, grew rapidly and made growth enough to survive the winter, but plants between fertilizer rows developed slowly, many were winter-killed, and none of them con-

County HD Clubs Achievements Noted During Nat'l. HD Week

(Editor's Note: This week as Home Demonstration Week is being observed, it is interesting to note the work of the Eastland County Home Demonstration Clubs which have been appearing in each issue of the Times. Today's follows.)

In each of the eight Home Demonstration clubs there are garden and living room demonstrators. The demonstrator in the home demonstration club is a person conducting a result demonstration.

She is helped with special instruction through visits, letters, method demonstrations, bulletins and other printed material presented by the agent. They also follow extension recommendations and accept the obligation of sharing experiences and information with neighbors.

Some of the things which have been accomplished by the Eastland County living room demonstrators are reupholstering of furniture, refinishing of furniture, making of slipcovers, rearrangement of furniture, selection of accessories, selection of good color schemes, selection of wallpaper, making draperies and curtains, painting woodwork and walls, refinishing floors, and the selection of floor coverings. They have also done work toward encouraging better family living through their living room work.

The garden demonstrators have been concerned with raising food for home consumption in frame gardens and open gardens, preparation of food with new methods, preservation of foods by different methods, encouraging better family eating habits, learning to plan menus, providing proper storage for preserved foods, and experimenting with new garden practices and vegetables.

Labor-Saving Siding

NEW on the market is a revolutionary kind of siding that is much faster to apply than conventional siding. In addition, it comes in popular wide sizes, 10" or 12", at no premium in cost. Masonite Shadowvent siding is a free floating combination of prime-coated Tempered Plywood and a patented aluminum shadow line strip which is nailed through the sheathing to studs. No nails are driven into the siding itself, which fits quickly into the aluminum strip. The metal is vented at intervals to allow escape of moisture that may condense inside the walls. Field tests have shown that this combination permits carpenters to install Shadowvent Siding with substantial savings in application time. The siding and the aluminum strips are sold together at lumber yards.

The new quarter-inch siding is primed on the surface and bottom edge, and a clear sealer has been applied to the back. The combination of the long-lasting, smooth surfaced Tempered Plywood and the prime coat provides an exceptionally fine surface for top coats and assures a long-lived paint job.

Wooten Grocery v. Fred J. Coulter, abstract of judgment.

E. L. Weaver to W. R. Ussery, quit claim deed.

If you drive on WET ROADS

READ THIS ABOUT THE GREAT GULF TIRE

SURE-FOOTED TREAD WITH SHARP SAWTEETH

You'll find it a mighty comforting thing, especially on wet pavements, to know that you're riding on the great Gulf Tire. For this tire has 7 sharp-edged, zigzag ribs that fight skids. They flex-wipe as they roll, and thus break up water film on wet pavements.

LOW PRICED

- And there's less chance of blowouts and carcass failures with this Gulf Tire because a double breaker strip cushions shocks.
- 7 ribs give the advantage of a "riding bar" right down the center of the tire. Thus, where the load pressure is greatest, you ride on rubber—not on a groove.
- The Gulf tire runs cooler (and safer) at high speeds because of a special ingredient in the rubber.
- A flatter tread design meets the road more squarely, distributes the load better, so this

- tire wears more evenly, edge to edge—hence wears far longer!
- This tire can stand punishment. It has a stronger carcass with new-type cords and more cords in every inch of every ply!
- Sidewall shields protect tire against curbstone bruises.
- Warranty accompanier: every Gulf Tire is honored by Gulf Dealers everywhere!

Stop in and see the great Gulf tire—it's a beauty!

You win 3 ways when you CREEP FEED PURINA

1 AN EXTRA CALF out of every 10—that's the result of creep feeding Purina. In tests on over 3,000 cattle Purina creep-fed calves averaged 412 lbs., while their non-creep fed mates scaled only 373 lbs. So creep feeding Purina gave 390 lbs.—one extra calf—out of every 10. And there's no cow to feed or care for.

2 UPGRADING is important these days. Cattle grading Choice brought 18% more than those grading Good last year. The Good class brought 15% more than Utilites. There's a big extra value in upgrading, and Purina creep-fed calves produced 34% more Choice and Good calves in our tests.

3 EXTRA COW CONDITION held by cows suckling creep-fed calves amounted to a difference of 44 1/2 lbs. per cow over cows with calves that got no creep feed. In 2-year tests this added condition helped cows produce 16% more calves the following season.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS about the results they get creep feeding PURINA

Find out from us who is creep feeding Purina. Go see their calves. Then we feel sure you will want a Purina ration for your own calves.

FAMOUS TEXANS' RECIPES

Baseball Immortal Prefers Beef Loaf All Year Long

Dizzy Dean

Fort Worth—"Dizzy's Beef Loaf, hot or cold, is kept in our ice box all year long." Mrs. J. H. "Dizzy" Dean, wife of baseball's most colorful figure, confided on the eve of 1955's diamond season.

"I guess nobody knows better than Dizzy the sustained energy, the muscle-building proteins and the lasting nutritional value to be gotten by eating beef every day," Mrs. Dean said. "He prefers chuck roasts to rib roasts and would rather have his favorite beef loaf, a good round steak or one of the several ways we fix ground beef than any other meat dish."

Perhaps Dizzy Dean, a Texas-by-choice, likes "seasoned" beef recipes over just-broiled-and-served varieties because of the zest and gusto of his own personality. Who can deny this and remember his famous "slud into third" phrase and his continued adaptation of the English language to suit the demands of a vast following over CBS's televised "Game of the Week" throughout the last three baseball seasons?

A resident of Texas since 1938, the great Dizzy was a member of the "grashouse gang" of the St. Louis Cardinals and is recognized in the National Baseball Hall of Fame as well as in 31 state Halls of Fame.

The "Dizzy Beef Loaf" will be featured in the Texas Beef Council's "Famous Texans" recipe cookbook which is now being compiled. To make it, have on hand:

- 1 1/2 pounds round steak
1/2 pound pork
2 cups corn flakes
1 egg
salt and pepper to taste
1/2 teaspoon chili powder
1 mashed bud garlic
1 finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
#2 can tomatoes, mashed finely
Grind together beef and pork; add remainder ingredients. Mix well; shape into loaf. Bake in iron skillet at 350° for 2 hours. If gravy is desired, cover loaf for first 45 minutes; pour off juice and return loaf to oven uncovered for balance of baking time. Thicken juice from loaf with basic white sauce before serving.

Heirlooms Displayed At Tucker Home For Cheaney HD Club Meeting

"The good old days, compared with the new" was the program theme carried out, when the Cheaney Home Demonstration Club members met with Miss Betty Tucker for their regular meeting, April 28, 1955. Mrs. R. W. Gordon, president, led the group in repeating motto, pledge and prayer, and Betty Tucker read the scripture devotion, John 14. Six members and six visitors answered roll call. Speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Eva Underwood, who will be 90 years of age on her birthday, Aug. 21. She told of pioneer days in the early settling of the Kansas Territory, where the prairie grass was tall enough to hide a horse and his rider; of the first railroad that came to the town of Wichita, Kansas, which was once a postoffice, a general store, and a livery stable. Many incidents were told of Indian raids, and the hardships endured by these hardy pioneers, when she was a small child. Mrs. Sarah Wilson brought a china head doll, over 60 years old—her doll she played with as a little girl; a powder pouch from Civil War days; a letter to woman whose husband had died from wounds in the Civil War, written in ink and still legible; a Carpenter's Square, over 200 years old, which has been handed down from father to son in the Tucker family these many years; a muzzle-loading shotgun, some articles of old-time wearing apparel, quilts, and keepsakes which made quite an interesting addition to the program. Highlight of the show was the spinning of thread on the old spinning wheel, over one hundred years old, one of the Tucker heirlooms. The thread was made by a granddaughter, Mrs. Rosa Miller, from cotton which was grown last year. She removed the seed, carded the lint into rolls with old-time cards, and demonstrated how to spin thread as it was done many years ago. Refreshments were served to the following visitors: Mmes. Eva Underwood, Sarah Wilson, Mary Tucker, John Tucker, Jackie Melton, and members of the club, Mmes. Bill Reid, Lois Melton, Bill Tucker, R. W. Gordon, Eura Tucker, and Betty Tucker, the hostess.
