Cub Pack 34 Has Cookout Saturday Night

Twenty-eight Cub Scouts and parents of Cub Pack 34, sponsored by the First Methodist Church, enjoyed a cookout at the Premier Dock on Lake Leon, last Saturday. Pat Collins, cubmaster, was in charge of the event and conducted a regular monthly business meeting during the outing. Tommy Brasher, den chief, led songs and directed games for the group. A Bobcat badge was awarded Wayne Patterson in recognition of his completing requirements for this rank. The next Cub meeting will be held August 3 at the church when several other awards will be presented to boys completing their work.

Man Pays Fine For Illegal Fish

M. S. Dry, Eastland County Game Warden, arrested an El Paso man at Lake Leon Saturday for illegal possession of two small bass. The man was taken before Justice Ruby Springer's court in Ranger and was fined $27.50.

Merchants Buy Uniforms For Local Teenage Teams

The Ranger Blue Sox and the Ranger Hawks teenage baseball teams are now completely uniformed, thanks to the cooperation of Ranger merchants, businessmen and individuals. At the beginning of the baseball season, parents of teenage boys called a meeting and formed a Teenage Baseball League. A sponsor was needed for the local teams, but the parents felt that it would be too much to ask any one business or individual to sponsor a team. So they decided to ask the people of Ranger as a group to be sponsors. As a result of the first meeting, parents of the teenagers contacted local merchants and received a tremendous response, thereby enabling them to purchase 30 uniforms for the two teams. Officers and members of the Teenage League, along with the boys, wish to extend their thanks to those that contributed and making the teenage baseball program possible in Ranger.

Following is a list of the players and their sponsors. Ranger Blue Sox Manuel Gomez, sponsored by Western Auto Associate Store; Billy Matthews Southwest Athletic Repair; David Mahaffey, Vinson TV; Ronnie Hinds, May Insurance Co.; Arthur Mendoza, Robinson's Food Market; Ralph Simmons, Ranger Dry Cleaners; Ray Newnham, Frozen Food Center; Jimmy Drennan, Adams Grocery; Jesse Renteria, Burton-Lingo Co.; Alex Garcia, Featherlite Corporation; Douglas Browning, The Globe Clothiers; Johnny Camacho, W. Ranger Blue Sox Team Wins Tenth Straight Game

The Ranger Blue Sox baseball team won three games last week and one this week to remain undefeated in league play. They now have 10 straight wins to their credit and have only five more games scheduled. The local boys defeated the Eastland Blue Sox twice last week by scores of 8 to 3 and 12 to 10. Also in another game last week, they came out with the big end of the score, 13 to 5 over the Eastland Greenbacks. On Monday night they played the Carbon team and won 19 to 0. If the Ranger Blue Sox can come up with a win Friday night they will win the league, and this win will let them represent this district in the play-off being held at Brownwood early in August.

Track Plans At Ranger Junior College Complete

DREAM COMES TRUE—Picture above are officials of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce and Ranger Junior College Board of Regents as they drive the first stake starting work on the new university type track to be built at the College. Driving the stake is David D. Pickerell, president of the Board of Regents, and holding the stake is Richard Henderson, member of the Board of Regents and the man that carried the dream through to a reality. Looking on from left to right, are A. N. Larson, president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce John Skeen, representative for Red Dog Tracks, and R. V. Galloway, manager of the C. of C. First Stake Is Driven Wednesday

Ranger Junior College and the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, in a joint announcement released today, revealed that plans for the RJC track are now complete. Work has already started on the university type cinder track. The first stake was driven Wednesday morning.

The track will be the only one of this type built to official specifications between Fort Worth and Abilene and Graham and Brownwood.

With interest in track at an all time high at this time, college officials believe the new track will offer both the college and the city a real boost in the arm.

The C-C Sports and Recreation Committee, headed by Dr. W. P. Watkins and Dick Henderson, worked closely with college officials in getting the drive underway. About half of the goal has already been reached, but more contributions will be necessary in order to complete the fund. Persons or firms wanting to contribute should contact Henderson or the Chamber of Commerce.

The track will make it possible for RJC to host many high school and junior college meets. Plans call for issuing invitations to all area high school districts—from Class B to Class AAAA—to hold their meets in Ranger next spring. Also in their planning stage is an invitational junior college meet. Such a meet would attract many of the state's top field and track men and give the college and city a big publicity boost. College officials will put in their bid for the state junior college track meet too, and if successful that would mean trackmen from 18 junior colleges would participate.

The cinder track will be a thinbedded dream. It will be curbed on both sides and have a six inch cinder base with three inches of "Red Dog" topping. The track will be complete with drain tiles and have complete facilities for all running events and pole vault, broad jump, high jump, shot put, discus and javelin.

The track will be located between the boys dormitory and the National Guard Armory. Contributors include: Southwest Athletic Repair, T. C. Wylie, Ranger Clinic, E. E. Youth Admits Slaying Of Church Secretary

Mrs. F. P. Curry, mother of Nathan Curry, admitted murderer of Mrs. Florence Hussey, Cisco First Baptist Church secretary, said Wednesday that her teenage son made his confession to protect her.

Mrs. Curry believes that her son picked up the planter box from the yard next door and then hid it, thinking maybe that he was protecting his mother. Cisco citizens, shocked a week ago today by the murder of a well known citizen, were shocked again Tuesday when a Cisco High student, who is not quite 15, signed a statement admitting the crime.

The big break in the Florence Hussey murder case came just five days after the crime, which officers have described time and time again as one of the most brutal in the county's history.

The youngster, identified by officers as Nathan Curry, lived just two doors from the Cisco church secretary who he has admitted stabbing to death. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Cisco, the same church where Mrs. Hussey was employed as secretary.

Murder charges were filed against Curry Wednesday. The youth's mother denied published reports that he admitted the crime to her sometime Tuesday. The boy signed a statement Tuesday night and led police to the bronze flower pot which was missing from the Hussey home. The pot is believed to have been used by the boy as a weapon, although knife wounds caused the fatal injury.

Lake Leon Favorite For Fourth

The Fourth of July in Ranger was very quiet. Most of the business houses were closed the entire day and others remained open only part of the day to serve customers. Lake Leon seemed to be the most popular place for the one-day pleasure seekers, although the Ranger Municipal Swimming Pool came in for their share of attention.

The 90 degree temperature didn't seem to faze the people seeking fun and relaxation. However, some people were less fortunate than others and spent their holiday behind a lawnmower, trying to catch up with the fast-growing grass in their yards.

Hundreds of people thronged to the new Leon Boat-Tel for the free fish fry at noon Tuesday. An estimated 350 persons enjoyed the hospitality offered by the owners and were served fried fish and all the trimmings. A steady stream passed through the chow line, keeping the cook and helpers hopping to stay ahead of the crowd. (Continued on Page 3)

Former Resident Buried Monday At Evergreen

Billy Thomas Williams, 62, former resident of Ranger and Odessa resident for the past 20 years, died Saturday morning in an Odessa hospital.

Mr. Williams was born May 2, 1899, in Hill County and was a retired oil field worker. He moved from Ranger in 1923. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Killingsworth Funeral Chapel with Lloyd Bryant, minister of the Mesquite and Rusk Sts. Church of Christ, officiating. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery.

He is survived by two brothers, Lawrence T. and J. L. of Odessa, a sister, Mrs. Tena Christian of Baton Rouge, La., and a number of nieces and nephews.

First Christian Church to Hold Dedication Services

Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock worship hour the First Christian Church will hold its formal dedication service for the recently remodeled sanctuary building.

The building program is a fulfillment of a dream of the membership of the church, which began during the late summer of 1950, for it was then that the first remodeling plans were made. Through the following fall and winter enthusiasm and interest grew; thus, the remodeling began around April 15 of this year.

Work has been under the supervision of W. N. Bourdeau, Jr., and Dick Jones, chairman of the Official Board for the past year, has been an active leader in the building program.

The exterior work includes a completely new brick front, new windows for the sanctuary and a repainting of the remainder of the exterior.

The interior of the church has completely been remodeled. The floor has been given a concrete base with a hardwood surface, and carpet covers the center aisle and the front platform. The walls and ceiling have an attractive light finish. Folding petition doors set off two rooms on each side of the front foyer.

The furniture of the church is completely new. Pews, pulpit, communion table, and railing are of pine with a clear finish.

A spokesman for the church said, "The leaders of the program have appreciated not only the work and the interest of many within the church, but of those within the community who have given encouragement to the program. The First Christian Church hopes in turn that the building will not only be an asset to the worship and spiritual life of its members but a silent witness to the entire community and to the beauty and glory of God."

Most Persons to Automatically Get SS Benefits

Most of the Eastland County residents who will directly benefit at this time from the Social Security Amendments signed into law by the President on June 30 do not need to write or contact their social security office, according to R. R. Tuley Jr., Abilene district manager for the Social Security Administration.

Automatic Changes
 1. Aged widows already receiving benefits on their late husband's account will get 10% increase in September, for August, 1961.
 2. Beneficiaries with no dependents, who are receiving unretired benefits of less than $40 will be raised to $40 in September, for August.
 3. Women receiving reduced retirement benefits because they started being paid before age 65, will get some increase if their basic rate, before reduction, was less than $40.
 4. Men may now receive benefits at age 62; on retirement, as dependent husband, or dependent widower, or dependent parent.

Men with continued high earnings (over $1200 per year) should check to see whether some payment would be possible despite such high earnings.
 5. Some persons whose claims were denied before this month because they did not have enough credits under social security should make new inquiry. The minimum requirement of the 1 1/2 years of credits was not changed; however, for those who needed more than that many credits, the number was reduced from 1 2/3 of the time to 1 1/4 of the time after 1950 and before age 62 for women and before age 65 for men. Men must have slightly more creditable time in the system than women.

Persons in group 4 or 5, should write to the social security office in Abilene, giving their dates of birth and social security number. Arrangements will then be made to talk with them when a representative of the Abilene office is at or near their home town.

Golf Tournament Plans at Cross Plains Announced

Lakewood Country Club, located midway between Cross Plains and Rising Star, will hold an invitational golf tournament the last weekend in July.

Qualifying rounds may be posted any time between now and tournament time, however, only scores turned in the last Friday in the month, July 28, will be eligible for medalist honors. Match play in all flights will begin Saturday morning, July 29. Finals will be played Sunday afternoon.

The nine-hole, grass greens layout at Lakewood is reported in best condition in recent years. J. C. Clower of Cross Plains, manager of the club, expects a minimum of four flights.

"We invite golfers from a 11 neighboring towns to shoot a couple of rounds with us before the tournament," he says, "and see if they wouldn't like to compete here."

Prizes will be awarded winners and runners-up of all flights, consolation victors and the tourney medalist.

 The boy was quoted as saying, "he couldn't control himself."
 Officers said the mother told them she had not found any blood on the boy's clothing. She also told them the boy had been sleeping in a lean-to back of the home lately.

Officers made the arrest after they began questioning residents in the area near the scene of the crime.

Mrs. Hussey was stabbed to death in her home at 501 West 6th either Wednesday night or early Thursday morning. The boy lived at 505 West 6th.

Officers had theorized from the beginning that a woman may have committed the murder since most of the knife wounds weren't deep. The youngster is of stocky build and stands about 5 feet, 10 inches tall.

Police, sheriff's officers and County Attorney Earl Conner were still working feverishly on the case Wednesday.

Complete details of the boy's confession were not made available.

The youth, a saxophone player, in the Cisco Band, was known around town for being industrious. He mowed lawns to make his spending money. The good looking boy did not show any interest in girls, his friends said.
 Officers started to give the youth a lie detector test Wednesday, but the test was not completed. His mother, Mrs. F. P. Curry said, "I do not believe he did it."

Lake Leon-

Quarles Lodge, also located at Lake Leon was crowded to overflow with fun seekers. Every available picnic table and shade tree was taken. And—all around the lake it was the same story.

There are some that over-exposed themselves to the hot sun and there was plenty of evidence Wednesday morning of sunburn. The drug stores should have done a rush business, selling sunburn remedies.

The local police department reported that this fourth was one of the quietest in recent years. Not a single accident was reported in the city limits or in the county. However, over the nation, the death toll mounted to a tremendous count of 886 dead. This high count includes 477 killed on the highways and the remaining number was killed in all other accidents.

Child's Arm Turns Hard, Stony; Medical Treatment Slows Process

Christine Versluis, who is nine and lives on the shores of Lake Ontario at Hilton, N.Y., is unable to straighten her right arm because of rheumatoid disease. Her arm and parts of both shoulders are becoming increasingly calcified, which means change of the muscle tissue into a hard stony substance.

Nine-year-old Christine Versluis must hold her right arm in this awkward upright position because it is turning into hard, stony substance. But there's hope for her in research sponsored by The National Foundation.

This somber-faced child is the tragic victim of dermatomyositis, one of the forms of rheumatic disease. Another form is rheumatoid arthritis. The majority of people don't know that children suffer from arthritis; they believe mistakenly that arthritis afflicts only the aging—someone's grandfather or grandmother, surely not the very young.

But there is urgent reason today why grownups and parents especially should be intelligently informed about arthritis among children. Dr. William S. Clark, director of medical care of The National Foundation, whose expanded program embraces arthritis, birth defects and continued work in polio, said this week:

"Rheumatoid arthritis is a type that can make children very ill indeed. They may become severely crippled. Their joints may 'freeze.' Happily, we can now demonstrate today that with proper treatment and care, most of the crippling caused by juvenile rheumatoid arthritis can be prevented."

But the cardinal point, Dr. Clark emphasizes, is that thousands of children have rheumatoid arthritis without knowing what the disease they suffer from really is. Their parents may dismiss the aching in neck, knees, wrists or elbows (or, more rarely, in all these joints simultaneously) as "growing pains" or for a variety of other reasons, the right diagnosis is not made. "We now estimate that in the United States, more than 30,000 adults who suffer from rheumatoid arthritis had their actual onset of the disease in childhood," Dr. Clark added. "Had they received modern treatment at that time, most of the crippling in maturity could have been prevented. That's one reason why The National Foundation's program in arthritis and patient aid for the young is so significant."

Child victims of rheumatoid arthritis are estimated to total 30,000 in this country alone, with 16,000 a year ill enough to need medical care. About 3,000 or 6,000 of these may require treatment as intensive as the rehabilitation needed for those stricken by paralytic polio.

There are at least 11 millions in the nation today who suffer from some form of rheumatic disease, including arthritis. Rheumatoid arthritis victims total about 1,500,000. The disease is the nation's No. 1 crippling.

To return to Christine, the little girl with the arm and shoulders turning into a stony element, she is receiving treatment at the March of Dimes-supported Arthritis Study Center at the University of Rochester School of Medicine—one of four National Foundation arthritis centers around the country. Her doctors hope they are slowing the advance of calcification but the outlook at this time is not certain.

Uncertainty, then, is the disquieting prospect facing this little girl. Her mother, Mrs. Eugene Versluis, hopes that if enough people support National Foundation research, perhaps in time Christine's right arm will fall back where it belongs and the stoniness will disappear, and that eventually the appalling figure of 30,000 children with crippling rheumatoid arthritis each year will decline.

Boy Scout Camp Termed Success By Chairman

"Some 400 Boy Scouts, Explorers and Leaders camped in June at Camp Billy G. O'bons to complete the thirtieth season and one of the most successful seasons" according to Lucius M. Stephens of Lometa, Chairman of Camping and Activities for the eight-county Comanche Trail Council.

Ranger Scouts, 41 strong, held the honor this year of having the largest number of boys present from any one town.

New program phases this year included twilight activities which include mosquito shoot, archery, canoeing, boating and nature. All-day hikes with cook outs and overnight camping were popular among the campers.

Advancement was at an all-time high with climax of Courts of Honor each Sunday following church service. Carl Arnsperger was director of the awards ceremonies.

Camping directors included Dabney Kennedy and a d Manley Webb of Brownwood, Lois Gee of Dublin and H. M. Causey of Comanche assisted by the professional staff. Twenty two staff members gave direction to the camp operations assisted by Scoutmasters and Explorer Advisors.

"The program was excellent and the food delicious and plentiful and there were no major accidents—all of which added to an outstanding experience for the campers," stated Dabney Kennedy of Brownwood who was Camp Director.

Scout Troops and Explorer Posts that were unable to attend the regular season camp are invited to bring their groceries and under their leadership camp during the week of July 24-31. No fee is charged and the Council will provide refrigeration, trucking and supervision. Leaders whose Units will be in camp are urged to notify the Boy Scout Office in Brownwood by July 15.

The 20th Century Minute Men who help defend America

Since 1941, thousands of folks in advertising, communications, and entertainment have pooled their talents to make U.S. Savings Bonds a household word

The first Minute Men put down their guns in 1783 after winning independence for themselves and their Nation.

In 1941 a new breed of Minute Men came to the aid of their country to help sell U.S. Savings Bonds. These were the actors, singers and musicians who entertained in behalf of Bonds all over the world, backed up by thousands of people in America's advertising agencies, newspapers, magazines, radio, television, outdoor and transit media.

A $50 million budget—free

Put all the Savings Bond advertising on a dollar basis and it would approach $50 million a year—a bigger advertising budget than most of the country's largest manufacturers. The total for 20 years of the Bond Program is estimated at $1.3 billion in free space, time and services.

This amount is swelled every day an uncountable amount by the folks in "show business." Yet not one penny of this cost is paid by the government or the taxpayers.

The built-in features

U.S. Savings Bonds are guaranteed safe by Uncle Sam—and guaranteed to grow in value. They pay 3½% interest when held to maturity. You can't lose your equity—your Bonds are replaced if destroyed or stolen. You can get your money back anytime you want it—with interest.

Every Bond you buy is a share in a stronger America. Come to your country's aid—and your own—now.

"The Advertising Council is proud of its role,"

says Theodore Replier, President, The Advertising Council

"Everyone in the advertising and entertainment fields and allied industries who has been involved with the U.S. Savings Bond Program will tell you what a rewarding experience it has been. We're proud of our part in the Bond Program which has helped Americans become owners of $43 billion in Bonds today."

Theodore Replier

You save more than money with

U.S. Savings Bonds

Buy them where you work or bank

For 37 years America's newspapers have published Savings Bonds ads at no cost to the Government. The Treasury Dept. is grateful to The Advertising Council and this newspaper for their patriotic support.

Eastside Church of Christ

Corner Young and Strawn Road

An article by the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic organization, was recently handed to me to read. In the article a Jim Brown was confused about the "One Fold" and the "One Shepherd" of (John 10: 16). How could Jim know which is the true fold? And how could he know which is the true shepherd? By asking a priest by the name of Crane was the solution. The priest told Mr. Brown that Christian history would provide his answer. The priest told Mr. Brown, "History will tell you, Jim, that Christ proclaimed His intention to establish a Church, with Peter as its head and the other Apostles as its bishops. History further tells us that this is the Catholic Church, which was established during the time of the Apostles, with Peter as its first leader—the Pope." I would like to see the history that states the above. First of all Christ never had any intention of making Peter head of the Church. He, Christ is head and will be until the end of time (Eph. 1:22-23). And there is no history, Catholic or otherwise, that tells us that the Church established in the days of the Apostles was Catholic. Catholic claims, not history, tells us this. It is common knowledge that the priest and those on up through the Pope can't be married men. Yet Peter had a mother-in-law (Mt. 8:14) and Jesus healed her. Not only this but many years after the church was established Peter (Cephas) and other apostles were leading about a wife. "Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?" (1 Cor. 9:5). No, friends, the Catholic church is not the "One Fold" of (John 10:16). Peter was never the head of the "One Fold", but was an apostle of the One Shepherd, Jesus Cephas? (1 Cor. 9:5). No, friends, the Catholic church is not God (Acts 2:4 Eph. 3:5) made it clear that the time would come when certain people would depart from the faith and in their departure would forbid marrying and command to abstain meats (1 Timothy 4:1-3). The Hebrew writer tells us, "Marriage is honorable in all" (He. 13:4). In "ALL" includes the apostles. The Lord Jesus Christ is still the only head of the church has ever had and he governs it through the Words of the apostles and prophets, the New Testament. He gave the "Words" that God gave Him to the Apostles and they received them (John 17:8), then he prayed for those that would believe on Him through their Words (John 17:20). God spoke through His Son (He. 1:2) and the Son spoke through the Apostles and prophets (Eph. 3:5). The apostles and prophets wrote the "Word" that we might read and believe (Eph. 3:4). By the Words of the New Testament The ONE Shepherd directs the ONE fold, the church. History proves one thing—man departed from the ONE Faith.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

I can remember talking to old railroad men who knew Casey Jones, and to a man who, when a lad, sat on the knee of Mrs. Dickenson, the survivors of the Alamo—(she was his aunt by marriage).

James Stephen Hogg lived in Tyler when he was elected governor and a group of his close friends was referred to by his political foes as "the Tyler gang." The friends accepted the designation and wore it proudly. Probably the last survivor was Capt. T. N. Jones. I heard him make a talk in the courthouse in Tyler, endorsing a graduate of Tyler High School who was then running for attorney general. That was in 1938. The candidate: Ralph Yarborough.

The Populist party went out of existence about 1909. I remember a lawyer in Eastland who was pointed out to me in 1921, as a former Populist who had held county office. Also along in the early 1920's, I met "Cyclone" Davis, (the original—the latter politician who also bore that picturesque name was his son.) Old "Cyclone" was one of the greatest debaters of the Populist party in the nation.

I have talked to three men who said they saw Lincoln. One was in the theater the night of the assassination.

At Doan's Crossing on Red River a trail-drivers' monument was dedicated about 1931 and on that occasion I saw a dozen men who had driven Nards of Longhorns up the trail in the 1870's and 1880's.

I once saw Dan Patch, perhaps the most famous horse of all time; and heard Capt. Richard Pearson Hobson, hero of "The Merrimack" (in the War with Spain) make a speech. I knew a Confederate veteran who captured a Yankee naval officer by the name of George Dewey; and as a boy I saw hundreds of Confederate veterans march, give the "rebel yell" and dance a jig as they paraded in Memphis 44 years after the war was over.

Then I talked to a banker in Clarendon who knew Temple Houston well when Old Sam's brilliant son practiced law there; and I interviewed an elderly man in Wellington who was a friend of Bob Olinger, the last man that Billy the Kid slew. Also, I have talked to four men who knew a certain killer for hire very well—the man who is supposed to have assassinated Pat Garrett. (Garrett was, of course, the man who killed Billy the Kid.)

In Eastland in the 1920's, I knew Harry Johnson—and in World War II he was military governor of Rome. Others whom I've met were Frank Kell, who built probably more short-line railroads than any other man; Battling Nelson, Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey; Edwin Markham, who wrote "The Man with the Hoe"; Alfalfa Bill Murray, John N. Garner, Bob Burns, Will Rogers, and William Jennings Bryan.

You know—maybe I ought to write a book sometime.
