The following item appeared in the current issue of Imperial Type Metal Magazine: Despite all the talk and blood that have been spent for freedom, a lot of people still act as though they had no freedom.

Because they must declare themselves Democrat or Republican, thousands and thousands stay away from primary elections. Because they might be edled for jury duty, other thousands don't even pay poll taxes (or register) and thereby lose the right to vote at general elections. More thousands want nothing to do with law enforcement. Even though beaten physically or swindle financially, they refuse to file a complaint.

Such people offer all kinds of excuses for their queer behavior. Seldom do they mention cowardice, selfishness or irresponsi-

The Old Philosopher Looks at Consolidation

"You know our population today is the same as it was when I was a boy in 1905. We have all fought each other so hard that we live succeeded in almost killing each other. We had better work together so the kids will have something to work for. This school consolidation thing will save all of us money and will give the kids an education that none of us alone can ever give them."
