

BY JAY BETHANY

There is no doubt that everyone will accept the fact that football is the king of autumn sports, taking up where baseball leaves off as our favorite national pastime. For some, living is merely endured from one football season to another.

Just assuming that we all like the game, and at least understand the basic concept of the way the game is played, but how many know the lively history of the sport.

A game called "Harpastion" was played by the Spartans as early as 50 B.C. In this game a ball was kicked, passed, or carried across the opponent's goal line, according to Compton's Encyclopedia.

A game called "Calcio", a modified form of harpastion, enlivened medieval tournaments in Italy. The game was played with 2 men on a team and used line and backfield formations similar to those of football today.

A brawl like kind of football was played in England as early as the 10th century and soon became a national problem. It was making London a bedlam. In addition it was diverting yeomen from archery, the sport that fitted them to defend England. The game was prohibited by King Edward III for military reasons.

The game was reinstated in the 17th century where the goals were set three to four miles apart and two or three parishes united to play others in games that sprawled over the countryside.

In the famous boys' school, Rugby, a game was being played between two class teams. The score was tied and with night coming on, one boy grabbed the ball, tucking it under his arm, raced across the goal line. The score was not counted. The event made history, however, and began Rugby football from which the American game is directly descended.

An inflated pig bladder served as the ball in early games.

Early in the 19th century, football games were played at Harvard and Yale, to determine class supremacy between freshmen and sophomores. Those games were hardly more than mass rushes and slug fests, known as "football fights."

The first American intercollegiate football game was played between Princeton and Rutgers on November 6, 1869.

It was not until 1875 that the principle of running with the ball was introduced to the American football game. In that first game, the two teams played the first half under "Soccer" rules, and the second half under "Rugby" rules. This so impressed the Harvard players that the "somewhat sleepy game" then played was abandoned.

This started the game we now know.

In 1882 a rule was introduced calling for the surrender of the ball to the opponents if the ball had not been advanced at least 5 yards in three plays. This eventually gave way to our present 10 yards-four downs system.

In 1882 the Big Ten was organized which pioneered in setting up and enforcing eligibility rules and amateur standards. This was made necessary by the formation of professional football the year be-

RJC To Host "Get Acquainted Party" Monday

Ranger Junior College will have a student get-acquainted party in the Music Department building (Armory) at 8 p. m. Monday, September 9.

Highlight of the evening will be the secret ballot election of 5 cheerleaders for the college 1963-64 year. According to Mrs. James P. Morris, sponsor, there are no specific requirements for cheerleader contestants — "only a willingness to do hard work," she said.

Contestants may be girl or boy students, and may be either freshmen or sophomore students.

Miss Sanya Sullivan, student counselor and coordinator for the evening, said copies of college yells and the Alma Mater would be available in her office and contestants may come by and pick up copies so as to familiarize themselves with material before the election. The evening will likely develop into a pep rally for the up-coming Peanut Bowl game between RJC and Cisco Junior College, September 14.

Girls are reminded to bring slacks or bermudas and suitable shoes to don for the try-outs.

The evening's entertainment will include dancing and get-acquainted activities. Head Coach, Gerald Williams, will introduce the football squad.

All students who are to attend RJC are invited to attend, although they are not yet registered. The band and football students have been on campus since September 1 and it is necessary to elect cheerleaders at this time in order to be organized for the Fourth Annual Peanut Bowl game.

Enthusiasm is running high for RJC to win this year as the score now stands: Cisco, 2 games and Ranger 1 game.

RJC FRESHMAN ASSEMBLY IS PLANNED FOR MONDAY

Ranger Junior College freshman assembly will be held at 8 a. m. Monday, September 9, in the college auditorium, according to Miss Sanya Sullivan, director of student personnel.

Dr. Theodore Nicksick, Jr., president, will give the welcoming address and introduce the faculty.

Mrs. James P. Morris, chairman of the department of social science and associate director of student personnel, will tell the students "What Is Expected of the College Student".

Miss Sullivan said a sophomore student will also give the freshmen an upper-classman's view of what is expected of the first-year student.

Glynda Wilson In Peanut Bowl Queen Contest

Glynda Wilson, a freshman student at Ranger Junior College, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wilson, Route 2, Ranger, has been selected to represent the college in the Fourth Annual Peanut Bowl Queen Contest to be held in the Majestic Theater in Eastland at 8 p. m. Monday, September 10.

The contest is held each year in connection with the Peanut Bowl festivities and sponsored by the Eastland Jaycees. It is climaxed by a football game between Ranger Junior College and Cisco Junior College each year at Maverick Stadium in Eastland. Date of this year's Peanut Bowl will be Friday, September 14.

During the past summer months, Miss Wilson has been employed as a secretary at the college and will register as a freshman September 11.

RJC Has First General Faculty, Staff Meeting

Ranger Junior College's first general faculty and staff meeting was held at 9 a. m. Thursday in Cooper Library, with Dean of the college Ernen Haby presiding. Attending were 29 persons who teach or work at the college.

Dr. Theodore Nicksick, Jr., introduced new teachers and staff members, some of whom have been with the college for several months but had not heretofore attended a general meeting.

Introduced were: Mrs. Edie Shinn, bookkeeper in the business office, Mrs. Dalton Covington, secretary to the president and an instructor in the department of business administration, Gerald Williams, head coach, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Alford. Alford is chairman of the department of fine arts and Mrs. Alford will teach in the biology department.

Also introduced were Norman Randall with the maintenance department, Jack Allen, business manager and instructor in the business administration department, Miss Sanya Sullivan, director of student personnel, Miss Dorothea Linn, librarian, and Mrs. Arthur Murrell, director of the department of Public Relations.

Dr. Nicksick announced the leasing of the National Guard Armory to be used temporarily as headquarters for the Fine Arts Department and the leasing of Tiffin station and some 25 acres of land to be used for future development of a technical training department. Land adjoining the Armory building will be given to the college by the City of Ranger, to be used for campus development.

Dean Haby announced there would be no night school at the college this year. Other rules and suggestions to the faculty and staff included regulations regarding the wearing of shorts in the public buildings on the campus.

Shorts will not be worn by either staff, faculty or students in the administration building, the cafeteria or classrooms.

Bulldogs Look Good As They Lose Opener to Cisco, 16-0

Bulldog stadium once again echoed the familiar sounds of football as the Ranger Bulldogs and the Cisco Lobos opened the 1963 season here Friday night.

An almost-but not quite feeling was carried home by Bulldog fans as a passing attack brought the home team to within a gasp of a possible tie ball game.

The first half was played, for the most part, on or near the 50 yard line.

A display of heads-up defense by both kept the deepest penetration of the half within the thirty yard line.

Ranger received the second half opening kickoff.

On a fourth and one situation, Douglass Browning, handling the kicking chores for Ranger, had to avoid two would be tacklers to get off a low, bouncing kick that died on the Cisco 41.

On second down, needing five, Cisco clicked on a pass and run that was good for 22 yards and a first down on Ranger's 33.

The next play was good for 10 and a first down on the 23. After gains of 5 and 6 yards, Cisco recovered their own fumble on the Bulldog 12 yard line, keeping the drive alive.

On the next play, Ranger was caught offside, making it first and 5 on the 7.

It was Cisco's all-district fullback, Danny Phipps on the next play, dragging Ranger tacklers into the end zone for the first score of the ball game. A two point conversion made it Cisco 8 - Ranger 0.

Early in the fourth quarter, Cisco set the stage for their second score.

On first down, following a pass interception, Danny Phipps found a hole up the middle that was to account for the longest run from scrimmage of the evening. The play was good for 53 yards and the touchdown. Another two point conversion made it 16-0 with 11 1/2 minutes left to play.

Following a quick series of exchanges via the fumble route, the Bulldogs started their comeback drive.

It was a pass play, Johnny McGee to Jesse Renteria, that started the drive rolling.

In the next series of downs Cisco was called for pass interference, giving Ranger first and 10 on the 26.

From the 26, Johnny McGee found Ronnie Hinds in the flat with a short screen pass that carried down the side line and out of bounds at the three yard line.

With first and goal from the three Ranger drew a 5 yard penalty, making it first and goal at the 8.

Four plays later, a deflected pass in the end zone killed the threat on the six. The drive started on the Cisco 44.

A fourth down pass with little more than two minutes left to play, set up a first down for the Bulldogs on Cisco's 29 and paved the way for the real heartbreaker of the evening.

Following two intercepted passes, McGee pulled the trigger on a perfect pass to Renteria who raced untouched into the end zone.

Teen Town Is Opened On Thursday Night

Lake Leon Couple Arrested In Worth Robbery

Mr. and Mrs. John Blackwell of the Lake Leon area were arrested in Ranger Friday in connection with the March armed robbery of the Worth Food Store in that town.

Sheriff Lee Horn reported Saturday that he had filed accessory charges on the couple several weeks ago but that arrests hadn't been made.

Millie Jones and W. W. Splawn, charged with the robbery, implicated the other couple after they (Jones and Splawn) were returned from Idaho, where they were captured.

Bill Vineland of the Ranger Police Force arrested the Blackwells and Deputy L. E. Sublett brought them back to the Eastland County Jail.

NO WEDDING BELLS?

Criminal Cases Set Monday In District Court; Jurors Called

The wedding bells apparently won't ring for Millie Jones and W. W. Splawn, at least before they are tried for the armed robbery of the Ranger Worth Food Store.

Their cases are among those posted for trial in 91st District Court beginning Monday.

Fifty county residents have been subpoenaed to appear as potential jurors for the criminal cases Monday.

Cases include: two counts each, Gary Lynn Marsh, Eddie Langford and Terry Gosnell, all of Cisco, charged with burning grassland; Ernest Edward Maxwell, burglary, F. G. Gilchrist; Raymond E. Cummings; Gus Orman; Dean Nichols, theft over $50; and Jones and Splawn.

It was announced after Jones and Splawn were returned from Idaho that they might be married in the Eastland County Jail. Captured in Idaho after the March Worth Food Store robbery, the pair broke out of a jail there, only to be re-captured and returned to this county for trial.

They said they got about $900 in the robbery.

The three Cisco youths were tried once before for the setting of fires to grass land, but the suits resulted in mistrials when insufficient evidence was presented.

Frank Sparks of Eastland represents the three youths, Gilchrist, Orman and Nichols. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells represents Maxwell. Nichols was found guilty in

A flag on the play and an illegal motion penalty against Ranger nullified the score.

On the next play, Cisco intercepted a pass.

With less than a minute to play the clock ran out with time for only two plays.

The next game on the Bulldog schedule will be at De Leon next Friday night.

Mrs. Tibbels Attends Gift Ware Shows

Mrs. John Tibbels of the Ranger Farm Store, attended the Gift ware show held in Dallas this past week.

The show was held in the Baker Hotel, Trade Mart and Market Place where manufacturers and distributors from across the nation had displays.

Mrs. Tibbels attended the show Sunday and Monday, bringing back many items for her gift ware shop. Her items in the "Imperial" glass ware line, according to Mrs. Tibbels, make lovely and inexpensive gift items.

The "bitterscotch" is something new in the decorative fruit line and is now on display at the shop.

No. Because you want the coat, vest and pants to match. You buy 'em all at the same place. Likewise, well planned personal and family and home and car insurance should "match up"—should be bought of one agent.

MRS. RONALD CARROLL

Miss Beckett and Mr. Carroll Wed
In Double Ring Ceremony August 31

In a double ring ceremony Saturday evening, August 31, in the First Baptist Church in Sanderson, Miss Linda Beckett became the bride of Ronald E. Carroll. Wilfer La-Fleur, minister of the Church of Christ, directed the couple in the exchange of vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Beckett and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Carroll of Ranger.

A large arch, covered in greenery and white roses, was in the background of the church altar. The illumination came from candles in the windows and seven branched candelabra with floor baskets of white mums and chrysanthemums on each side. W. A. Lancaster and Lem Railsback lighted the candles.

Mrs. Jim Neal played piano selections and the traditional wedding marches. Miss Ruthie Allen and James Crowder sang a duet, "I Love You Truly," and Miss Allen sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a solo.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white peau de soie over taffeta, the bouffant skirt cascading into a short train. The sculptured bodice with round neck was fastened in the back with small buttons, with buttons also on the long petal-pointed sleeves. Lace medallions were appliqued on the dress with iridescent sequins. A tiny pearl crown held the bouffant illusion veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of orchids with tiny green throated orchids caught in the knots of the satin streamers and loops.

Miss Diane Brown was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Paula Hanson, Joan Wood, Sheila Lynn Cox, and Patty Parks of Houston, a college roommate of the bride, and Alice Goldwire was the junior bridesmaid. They wore street-length dresses of crystal poule in three shades of green, matching shoes, and starched white veils attached to small circlets in the same shade as their dresses. Their nosegays were of white carnations and white satin ribbons.

Jim Wilborn served as best man. Groomsmen were Don Ratliff and Bob Beckett, brother of the bride, of Houston, who also served as ushers.

After the wedding, the reception was held in the Legion Hall.

Floor baskets of white chrysanthemums were beside the fireplace and white spider mums formed the mantelpiece.

Fayrene Chism and Dawn Harrell were at the bride's book at a table at the entrance for the guests to register.

The bridesmaids' nosegays surrounded the miniature bride and groom standing beneath an arch, the decorations taken from the top of the bride's cake to form the centerpiece of the refreshment table covered in a white cutwork cloth. Mints and nuts were also served. Alternating at serving the cake and punch were Misses Terry Hodgkins, Ruthie Allen, Kathleen Robbins, and Mrs. J. A. Neal.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, Mrs. Carroll's ensemble consisted of a beige silk suit, a beige hat with a brown band, alligator shoes and bag, brown gloves and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. They will reside in Sanderson in the Fletcher duplex. Mr. Carroll is employed there as an engineer in the office of the resident engineer for the Texas Highway Department.

The bride, a graduate of the Sanderson High School, attended Texas Western College for one semester.

A SAD STORY
FOR SALE
Behind many "For Sale" signs there is a sad story: A family borrowed more than they could afford to pay for a home, or payments and interest rates were too high; the home had to be sold, often at a loss. This tragedy could often be avoided if the families would seek help from a home loan specialist, such as our Association.

We work with you to arrange for a loan that's as easy to handle as monthly rent.
