TRICK OR TREAT — Spooks of all descriptions were out in numbers Thursday night, as they made their rounds collecting goodies. Pictured above are two examples as they retreat from a door knocking session. The activities, for the most part, were treats as a cooling norther brought showers to dampen the spirits of trickers.

Come And Help Us Celebrate!

We here in Ranger and at Ranger Junior College can hardly wait for you to get here for the HOMECOMING on November 9. We have much to show you and many things to talk over.

The building program, only a dream in years past, is now a reality. The boys' new dormitory, occupied in January, 1963, was doubled in size during the past summer and now houses 106 students. Newell Hall was completely renovated during the summer, and many spots on the campus underwent repair, paint, etc.

Our BIG NEWS is the construction of four buildings, now under way on the southwest area of the campus. These four include an administration-science-classroom complex, joined by covered walkways, and a gymnasium which is located just northeast of the others. Work started on these buildings the first week in October and will be completed in August 1964, ready for occupancy at the beginning of the 1964 school year.

The land for this expansion program was deeded the college by the City of Ranger. It would have been close to impossible to carry out this building program without the wonderful cooperation of the City and the citizens of Ranger. Our gratitude to Ranger citizens and officials is most sincere.

For the third time in as many years, Ranger Junior College has been selected as the site for the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference and athletic meet, which will be held on the campus next April. The excellent facilities for this meet, which brings several hundred athletes to the campus for track, golf and tennis competition, keep them coming back.

David Flinn, chairman of the chemistry department, Roger C. Martin, band director, Kenneth Alford, chairman of fine arts department, and Larry Parker, coach, have arranged an interesting schedule for the HOMECOMING, beginning with the parade at 2:30 P. M. A barbecue dinner for students and ex-students will be held in the college cafeteria at 5 P. M. and the Ex-Students Association meeting will be held there immediately following, at which time officers for the coming year will be elected.

The Student Union Building will be open all afternoon for visiting. Highlight of the day will be the football game, played in Bulldog Stadium at 7:30 P. M., when RJC RANGERS meet Wharton Junior College's team. A HOMECOMING dance will be held, following the game, in the Fine Arts Building (Armory) and an orchestra will provide the music.

By the way, DO arrange your day so that you will have time to make an inspection trip to the new building sites. We are excited about the vast improvements and hope you, too, will be.

We are looking forward to seeing you at HOMECOMING. We need your interest and support. It will not be a real HOMECOMING without you.

Sincerely,
Richard Bonney, President
Ex-Students Association
Ranger Junior College

MRS. HERBERT WILLIAMS

Mrs. Williams Elected As 1963 'Coming Home Queen'

Mrs. Herbert Williams of Ranger has been named Coming-Home Queen for the 1963 Ranger Junior College Homecoming November 9.

The former Mary Jo Stie, Mrs. Williams was chosen this week by the executive board of the Ranger Junior College Ex-Students Association.

A 1954 graduate of Ranger High School, she attended Ranger Junior College in 1956-1957. She was a member of Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary scholarship society for junior colleges, and was elected Miss Personality of the Evening Division of the college for the 1957 Ranger.

After her marriage to Herbert Williams of Ranger, she lived in Odessa for two years. She has been an employee of the Lone Star Gas Com-

Lone Star Gas Co. Line Thru Area

The Lone Star Gas Co., pipe line division, is currently in the process of constructing a section of pipeline from Gordon to Sweetwater.

The new line will be used to handle the excessive flow from the fields west of Cisco and Sweetwater.

The line crew, moving west with the operation is presently headquartered at Gordon.

As the construction progresses west, their headquarters will be moved into Ranger where they will be housed for approximately thirty days.

The section from Gordon to Baird is scheduled to be completed by December 31.

Fall Winds Can Spread Flames, Warns Fire Chief

Citizens should be extremely careful in burning trash and other refuse when stiff breezes are blowing," Fire Chief Charlie Isabell warned Friday.

Sparks and flaming bits of paper, he said, are easily wafted into grass and frequently soar upward onto roof tops creating extremely dangerous fire hazards.

The Ranger Volunteer Fire Dept. extinguished a grass blaze on Highway 90 east at 12:10 noon Wednesday. Cause of the fire — sparks from a refuse burning in a trash barrel.

No Bargain Rates In Fines; Times Typos Corrected

There are no bargain rates when it comes to fines assessed offenders in the court of Justice of Peace M. D. Underwood — regardless of what might have been read in Thursday's edition of The Times.

Four participants in a fistic battle paid fines of $34.50 each and not $3.50 as reported, and another local law violator was assessed a $49.50 — not $9.50 — penalty for another offense.

The "bargain rate" figures were typographical errors, and The Times is happy to make this correction.

UF Drive Lags; Current Total Reported $2,205

Ranger's 1963 United Fund campaign contributions — at the windup of the initial 10 days of the annual fund-raising drive — totaled only $2,205.

In releasing the latest total, Ranger's UF Chairman R. E. (Dick) Henderson called for a speedup in pledges and contributions. "We've got to get this important campaign out of low gear and into high," he said.

"This is not a financial load to be carried by the few," he added. "The United Fund is a united effort of all our citizens — and that means each of us."

Ranger's quota in the current UF drive is $6,275. Slightly over $4,000 remains to be contributed.

Funds contributed to the campaign by Rangerites support seven important welfare and civic agencies — American Red Cross, Child Welfare, Texas United Fund, Teen Town, Ranger Library, Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

Bulldogs Victims of Albany Lions By Score Of 44 to 12

The Albany Lions proved up to their ratings Friday night as they chilled the Bulldogs by a score of 44 to 12.

The game, played at Albany, was attended by many Ranger fans who went with the hopes that perhaps, with a few breaks, which did not develop, the Bulldogs would come home victorious.

The Lions capitalized on an early break, recovering a Ranger fumble following the opening kickoff. Running from the Bulldog 38, the Lions drove to the 6 only to be met by the stubborn forward wall put up by the Ranger team. From the six, the Lions were held for three downs and allowed only five yards before the big Lion fullback wedged through from the one.

The bruising ground attack of the Albany team made defensive stars out of many Ranger boys as they consistently forced the Lions into down situations. Five times out of ten possessions they were forced to use the big play in order to keep a drive alive. The 201 pound fullback Charles Brewster, along with the running of quarterback Johnnie Woodward, were keys to these situations.

Midway in the first quarter, the Lions once again capitalized on a break as a Ranger punt ran afoul of the stiff breeze blowing from the north, drifting the kick to the sidelines and a four yard loss.

In the closing seconds of the first quarter the Bulldogs drove to the Lion seven yard line only to see their efforts die on a fourth down passing attempt.

From the seven yard line the hard charging Albany team drove 93 yards for the longest scoring drive of the evening with quarterback Woodward passing to Garry Barbee for 25 yards and the score.

Bullpups, Dogies Tie 14-14; Junior High Band Stars

Ranger's bullpups and the Eastland Doggies, red-hot rival junior high school grad machines, battled to a 14-14 standoff at Maverick Stadium in Eastland Thursday afternoon.

If the lightweights' joust is any indication of potentials of the respective varsity eleven of Ranger High School and Eastland High School, there'll be a cliff-hanger duel next Friday night at Bulldog Stadium in Ranger.

In their initial public debut of the pigskin season, the nifty Ranger Junior High band and twirlers entertained the fans attending the junior high tilt at Eastland Thursday afternoon.

The aggregation drew applause during halftime as they went through an impressive drill in precision marching.

Building Program Moves At Rapid Pace On Campus

Ranger Junior College was recently awarded a contract of $281,163.00 to Haney Construction Company of Abilene for the construction of four new buildings on the campus, according to Chairman of the Board, Richard Henderson, Eugene Elam of Wichita Falls is the architect.

An administration-classroom-science building complex will face northwest on 4.68 acres of land, recently deeded to the college by the City of Ranger, and located due south of the present campus.

The gymnasium will be located just southeast of the athletic field.

The new entrance to the campus from Highway-80 will be located southwest of the fine arts building (armory) and will utilize another 7.57 acres of land given the col-

Following the kickoff, the Bulldogs, unable to move, were forced to punt. The Lions ran four plays before Jesse Renteria fell on a fumble on the Ranger 49 to set up the first Bulldog scoring drive.

The sharp passing of Johnny McGee along with the receiving and running of L. H. Pounds kept the Bulldog gears in motion for the 51 yards plus one five yard penalty.

On third down from the 49, McGee screened out to Pounds for 15 yards and a big first down. Following a five yard penalty the situation once again became critical with third and needing seven, the screen to Pounds paid off with a sixteen yard gain and the first down. In keeping with the trend the next series wound up needing the big play as they faced fourth and ten on

Former Ranger Banker Foils Extortion Plot

Wilson Guest, former Rangerite now president of National Bank of Sweetwater, foiled a threatened bomb plot and $250,000 extortion attempt resulting in the arrest of a 25-year-old Sweetwater investment salesman late Friday by the FBI.

Guest received a letter Oct. 23, signed "The Saxon," outlining plans to trigger allegedly pre-set bomb explosions threatening the lives of about 4,300 persons in Sweetwater schools, hospitals and the five-day deadline to meet the extortioner's demand for payment of a quarter million dollars in cash.

Guest immediately notified the FBI and local law enforcement agencies who went to work undercover on the case and the fantastic plot was kept secret until the pickup of Ronney Marvin Mason in Sweetwater Friday at 6:30 p.m. Had the public known of the bomb threat, officers said, it would have created almost "uncontrollable panic" among citizens of that city.

A native of Strawn, Guest was a former vice-president of Commercial State Bank, Ranger. He continues to serve as a director of the Ranger institution.

The accused investment salesman, who admitted engineering the plot, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Gladys Walls in Abilene Friday night. His bond was set at $10,000.

She returned this summer after spending three years in Germany, where she was attached to the special Services Department serving as Librarian for the Armed Forces. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Linn of Gainesville, she is a graduate of North Texas University with a Bachelor of Arts degree and of Texas Woman's University with a master of Library Science degree. For ten years prior to going to Germany, Miss Linn was associated with the Veterans Administration as a librarian, serving in this capacity in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Temple, Texas, and Fort Bayard, New Mexico.

Mrs. Dalton Covington and Mrs. Charles Milliken of Ranger have been employed as part-time teachers. Mrs. Covington teaches a class in shorthand and is secretary to Dr. Theodore Nicksick, Jr., president of the college. She is a graduate of Florida State University, Tallahassee, with a Bachelor of Science degree in commercial arts in the School of Sciences.

Mrs. Milliken is an instructor in freshman English and speech. She is a graduate of Ranger High School, of Ranger Junior College, and of Texas Christian University, where she has also done fifteen hours in the Fort Worth Public Schools. The mother of three children, Mrs. Milliken takes an active part in civic work in Ranger.

Mrs. Margaret Ellen Moore is an addition to the secretarial staff of the college. A graduate of Gordon High School, she serves as secretary to the registrar. Mrs. Moore, whose husband is stationed at the U. S. Naval School in Jacksonville, Florida, has three children.

Wayne Thrasher, a sophomore tackle weighing 225 pounds, is a business major and plans to attend a senior college after completing his work at RJC. A graduate of Hawkins High School, Hawkins, Texas, he says that his main interests are fishing, skating, and hunting. He was recently elected president of the Student Council.

George Geldard, a guard for the Rangers from Kermit, is a pre-med major. After finishing Ranger Junior College, he will enter Lamar Tech in Beaumont and then the medical school in Galveston. Building model cars and doing oil paintings are his major hobbies.

RJC's Fine Arts Division Has Many Depts.

The fine arts division of Ranger Junior College, under the chairmanship of Kenneth Alford, has many departments, including bands, under the leadership of Roger C. Martin. Since organizing the band in 1962, Martin has developed a 66 piece marching band, a stage band, a concert and two small combos have organized among the band students.

Alford teaches voice, piano, organ, brass instruments and organized a 25 member choir.

Mrs. L. R. Pearson, Jr., is chairman of the art department and instructs classes in oils, pastels, charcoal drawings, live model drawings, and sculpture. Her students make field trips to paint landscapes, landmarks, and points of interest near Ranger.

The art students on the campus, with easels set up, some sketching while sitting on the lawn, make a pretty picture and add that touch to the campus which makes for a college atmosphere. Some of the students are now doing charcoal drawings of the old administration Building which will be abandoned, once the new buildings are completed in August, 1964. These drawings could become collectors items, once the old building is gone.

RJC's Science Department Shows Growth

Ranger Junior College's science department had increased enrollment this year which necessitated the addition of one part-time instructor.

David Flinn, chairman, David Allsup and Mrs. Kenneth Alford make up the department faculty.

Flinn said that the schedule of the department was kept at a fluid state so that courses may be added or dropped as the demand grows in any field.

Allsup is head of the biology department, with Mrs. Alford as laboratory instructor. Flinn is head of the chemistry department.

Methodist Group Observes Prayer, Self Denial Day

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Tuesday, October 29, 10:30 a. m. in the sanctuary of the church for a "Call to Prayer and Self-Denial" program.

Hymns, "Sweet Hour of Prayer", "For You I Am Praying", "Close to Thee", were softly played on the piano by Mrs. F. S. Pearsall, pianist for the day.

Mrs. B. L. McCord was in charge of the program. Using the poem "Praying Hands", she explained the worship center. The green cloth was a symbol of growth, the red flower in the vase, love, and the praying hands were above the open Bible.

Mrs. Ted Nicksick presented the meditation, Peace With God, with each member reading silently portions from the Bible. The hymn "O Love Divine What Hast Thou Done" by Charles Wesley was sung by Mrs. Richard Bonney.

Mrs. W. F. Creager presented the meditation Peace with God, and Mrs. S. M. McAnelly "Walls".

Mrs. B. L. McCord adjourned the meeting and the group retired to the dining room for the luncheon. Mrs. C. E. May presented a meditation of the Prayer Life of Jesus.

Following the meal, the group reassembled in the sanctuary with Mrs. McCord continuing the program.

The offering of the day was to be used in ways described by Mrs. Gaston Dixon, The Campbell Friendship House, Gary, Indiana; Mrs. James Townzen, Wesley Community House in Fort Worth and Savannah Wesley Community Center, Honolulu, Hawaii; Mrs. Beverly Dudley, Jr., Educational Fund for the Upgrading of Institutions in India; Mrs. G. . . . owners of land as well as prospective owners often discuss with us the many problems growing out of the ownership of real estate. One of the big problems, of course, is the title problem. We remind them that a few dollars invested in an abstract now may save them hundreds of dollars later on. The old saying that "a stitch in time saves nine" is still true and very aptly applies itself to many modern-day, real estate transactions.

We Must PROTECT Our Vital Wealth-Producing Livestock Industry!

Let's Wipe Out Destructive Predatory Animals which Inflict Heavy Economic Losses on Farmers and Ranchmen!

Income from livestock (cattle, hogs, sheep and goats, wool and mohair, etc.) accounts for over two-thirds of Eastland County's wealth-producing agricultural industry which contributes in excess of six million cash, spendable dollars to our area economy — and EVERYBODY, in town and country alike, BENEFITS and PROFITS! Livestock are constantly menaced by predatory animals—wolves, foxes, bobcats, etc.—which cost farmers and ranchers thousands and thousands of dollars annually. And — without a trapper to eliminate these vicious pests, stockmen's losses would soar to even more staggering proportions! Continued growth and prosperity of our livestock industry obviously is a key factor in our economic future. Especially significant is rapid expansion in production of wool and mohair derived from an increasing sheep and goat population constantly harassed by predatory animals. Goats, by foraging on weeds and brush, clear land and thereby increase its value. In addition, sheep and goats have brought profitable diversification of the livestock industry.

A Full-Time Trapper is a Sound Investment that Pays Dividends . . . Today and Tomorrow!

CHECK THE FACTS - THEN GO TO THE POLLS NOV. 9 and GIVE YOUR LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

The record speaks for itself! Eastland County, along with 115 other Texas counties, has benefitted from employment of a full-time trapper for 10 years. Investigate — check with farmers and ranchers and you'll find trapping has PAID OFF in cash dividends which have contributed to our over-all economy. The cost? Again, check facts. The trapper's salary is modest and far less than half of the total is supplied from county tax funds. Fifty per cent comes from State and Federal governments — and a portion is generously contributed by the Eastland County Trappers Association. The county trapper employs snares and traps to bag predatory animals. Cyanide poison is used only as a last resort — and even so, trappers always have written permission of the land owner before working on his property.

The Welfare and Destiny of Eastland County's Livestock Industry Is In Your Hands!

- Eastland County citizens, your VOTE OF CONFIDENCE at the polls on November 9 will be a vote FOR continued progress of Eastland County agriculture!

Browsing With Bev

It's almost gobbletime again and every homemaker should know some of the basic rules for buying turkey.

The first consideration when buying ready-to-cook turkeys is the amount of turkey to buy and whether to buy a whole turkey or a turkey roll. Whichever the choice, the homemaker should consider cost on the basis of the edible portion of the pounds bought to get a true picture of the cost of each.

When deciding the amount of turkey needed, she must also take into consideration the number of people to be served and whether she wants to have left-overs. When buying whole turkeys allow about 1/2 pound to 3/4 pound per person, and about five to eight ounces of uncooked turkey roll or five to six ounces of cooked roll per person.

Quality and wholesomeness is the next consideration in buying turkey. The bird should have a broad breast, large drumsticks, and bulging thighs, be well covered with fat over the body and be fully fleshed. It should be free of defects such as torn skin, bruises, and broken bones, and should be free of pinfeathers.

Wholesomeness means the condition of the bird as to cleanliness, freedom from disease and completeness of processing. If processed under USDA supervision, tags on the wings of the birds will show their grade and that they have been inspected for wholesomeness.

Turkeys vary in price from one to another because of differences in quality, wholesomeness and in some cases because of special sales at holiday seasons.

tistics going into the second half with 95 yards rushing to Navarro's 43.

In the first half, Larry Lee of the Rangers, playing head-up pass defense, intercepted two Navarro passes, all to no avail.

Ranger took the second half kickoff with a touchback on the 20 yard line. From that point, Billy Clary, running the quarterback position carried for 6, Tony Pietoso carried for 21 and a first and ten on the 47. Four plays later the drive died at that point with Navarro taking over on downs.

Three consecutive penalties forced Navarro into their own territory and with a third down, needing 20 for a first, a 32 yard pass from Bobby Ford to Joe Wilhoite kept the Bulldogs alive on the Ranger 18 yard line. Five plays later with the aid of a Ranger penalty, Richard Cutrer scored from one yard and the one point conversion made it 14 to 0.

Ranger took the kickoff, running one play before fumbling on the 29 giving the Bulldogs good field position for their second touchdown of the third quarter. Bobby Ford scored on a quarterback keeper from the 10 yard line.

Navarro scored in the fourth quarter after a pass interference call against the Rangers gave the Bulldogs first and ten on the 13 yard line.

The final score was Navarro 27, Rangers 0.

Barker, Thresher, Campsey and Franz were standouts on defense as the Rangers fought to stay alive, running only 28 offensive plays from scrimmage in the second half.

The Rangers will meet the nation's third ranking junior college team when they play their homecoming game with Wharton here next Saturday night.

Collegiate Band Expands; Spring Tour Is Mapped

Ranger Junior College Band under the direction of Roger C. Martin, has grown from 39 members in 1962 when it was organized, to 66 members this year.

One of the big assets of the college, the band has followed the football squad to every out-of-town game this season and has performed at all the home games.

A 1964 Spring Tour is being planned for the band. This will be the second tour, the band having played concerts at some 18 schools within a 15 mile radius of Ranger, during March, 1963.

The band season was started off with an appearance in the Fourth Annual Peanut Bowl Parade on September 14, in Eastland and a half-time performance at the football game that night.

Frank Miller, student from Ranger is president of the band and James Lovren from Fort Worth is vice-president. Tony Torres, sophomore student from Fort Worth is drum major and Gracie Tankersley from Eastland is secretary-treasurer. Butch Owen of Ranger is the Sophomore Band Councilman and Charles Beard from Houston is the freshman representative.

The band will march in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, January 24, 1964.

A side story on the band is their trouble in obtaining new uniforms for their greatly increased ranks. The uniforms were ordered last summer and under ordinary circumstances would have been here before September 1. BUT, a garment workers' strike in the East delayed delivery on the uniforms. In fact, the band has performed full strength, all this season with the new members dressed in dark trousers and white shirts, in contrast to the elaborate purple and white uniforms. Martin has cleverly arranged the marching sections and the drill performances to use the two groups to advantage instead of letting this lack of uniforms hinder the band's appearances.

Beside the marching band, the group has developed a stage band, a concert band and two small groups who call themselves the Ranger-Tones and the Dixieland Band and are available for entertainments in this area.

New Gymnasium Features Unique Roof Structure

A unique sidelight on the new building program at Ranger Junior College: Among the four buildings to be built on a recently awarded $281,163.00 contract will be a gymnasium with an arched roof.

The arches are of laminated wood and will be hauled by truck to Ranger from Magnolia, Arkansas, under police escort. They are some of the largest arches of this type ever built in the United States.

A special engineering project will have to be worked out to route the giant 102 ft. arches to Ranger—many overpasses and bridges will be impassable. It will be interesting to check later and see how many miles they had to travel to get from Magnolia to Ranger.

BUILDING—

The gymnasium will have 102" clear-span laminated wood arches covering the gym floor. Reinforced concrete raised bleachers on either side of the playing field will seat approximately 1300 persons.

Below the seating area will be dressing and shower rooms for both boys and girls physical ed classes. The open entry will have four offices and a ticket booth. The athletic and physical education departments will be housed here.

The gym will have 17,088 square feet of space, the classroom building will have 5852 square feet and the science building 6474 square feet. The gym interior walls will be of concrete block with the exterior walls matching those of the other buildings. The ceiling will be of exposed wood decking.

A sidelight on the arches for the gym roof reveals that they are some of the largest laminated wood arches ever made in this country. They will be hauled by truck to Ranger under police escort, from Magnolia, Arkansas where they are manufactured.

Henderson said the bounds for the building program were approved by Ranger voters in March 1962. "This culminates one year and seven months of work toward this project and I, for one, am glad to see the work start."

FLOWER WORKSHOP

The Ranger Garden Club will have a Flower Arranging Workshop Friday, Nov. 8, at 9:30 a. m. under the direction of Mrs. Sam B. Kennedy, national flower show judge, Abilene.

Mrs. Luther Gohike is chairman for the day, and Mrs. L. H. Kay will give the flower show forecast for Nov. 15.

At noon there will be a pot luck luncheon with the social committee as hostesses.

Members will bring flowers and dried materials and Mrs. Kennedy will assist each in making her arrangement.

alive. With fourth and needing eight, McGee threw to Hinds for 13.

McGee to Pounds for ten on second down gave the Bulldogs first and ten on the six. Three plays and one yard later, the Ranger team was once again faced with a fourth down and long yardage situation. Ronnie Hinds pulled in the pass between two Albany receivers and went in for the score to keep the Bulldogs hopes alive. Try for two failed.

Albany scored two more times in the waning minutes of the fourth quarter to drive the Bulldogs down, the final score 44 to 12.

Ray Newham, running the linebacker position on defense came up with defensive honors. Ronnie Hinds, Jesse Renteria, Richard Herwick, L. H. Pounds, Jimmy Drennan and Johnny Comacho co-starred in the defensive show.

The forward line of the Bulldogs, giving up 70 and 80 pounds at the tackle positions performed nicely against overwhelming odds.

The Bulldogs will meet Eastland at Bulldog stadium next Friday night before closing with Baird the following week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Bryant visited in Cisco recently with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hagen.

Mrs. Albert Hendricks and Mrs. D. F. Eaves and Deliah were shopping in Eastland on Wednesday.

Only Two Arrests Reported Here

Things were dull on the local law enforcement front this week with only two arrests reported.

Constable Ralph Veal picked up an inebriated Cisco man charged with drunkenness, he later was released on payment of a fine.

Officers of Ranger Police Department picked up a Ranger man on a warrant from the sheriff's office at Eastland.

Basketball Pilot Hopeful For RJC Cage Campaign

Jim Lewis, athletic director at Ranger Junior College, and basketball coach, has had his squad training since school began in September and is optimistic about prospects for the coming season.

The original twenty-odd students who reported for practice, has been cut to the required squad of 17. The squad has been having practice scrimmages with neighboring schools and plans to get the official season off to a good start in November.

Coach Lewis said several of the boys showed good promise and he was well pleased with the practice performances of most of them.

Burn Victim Dies At Ranger

Jack Brittain, 33, of Maryneal, a truck driver for the Chemical Express Co. of Dallas, died at 5:10 p.m. Friday in Ranger General Hospital of injuries received when his truck jackknifed about 10 miles east of Ranger on U. S. 80 early Friday morning.

A Ranger physician said Mr. Brittain received third-degree burns over most of his body. Funeral arrangements were pending at Killingsworth Funeral Home Saturday.

Eastland County Highway Patrolmen E. M. Rogers and Jack Therwhanger assisted in the investigation.

NEWSPAPERS ARE TOP SALESMEN

Television, like radio before it but to a far greater degree, has brought about major changes in the advertising picture. It has been an aggressive competitor with the other media, and its appetite for the advertising dollar, with the cost of producing even Grade B programs running to comparatively astronomical sums, seems insatiable.

But the power of the written word still gets top recognition. An announcement from Sears, Roebuck and Company will interest those who like to read as well as to stare. Last year the figure was $58 million, which represented 71.2 per cent of Sears' total retail media expense. The balance went to advertising through circulars, magazines, radio and television, and other media.

A spokesman tells the story: "This is tangible evidence of our continuing faith in the potency of newspaper advertising. From the day Sears opened its first retail store, the company has made greater and greater use of newspapers. It is obvious that Sears store managers continue to regard the newspaper as their major medium for more than historical reasons. Their evaluation is based on the day-to-day results in their stores."

Television advertising is a catch-as-catch-can affair — you have to be looking at the set at the moment and it's gone in an instant. Print is durable and the prospective buyer can scan and consider it at his leisure.

Ranger Citizens Voice Opinions On Bldg. Project

Some of the quotable quotes heard from Ranger citizens concerning the building program at Ranger Junior College:

John A. Bates, Field Superintendent of gas cycling plants for Lone Star Gas Company in Texas and Oklahoma: "The college is one of our factors for growth in Ranger and it is due our whole-hearted support." Bates is a former member of the Board of Regents.

J. Floyd Killingsworth, also a former member of the Board of Regents said, "I am thrilled and quite proud of the new building program at Ranger Junior College. Congratulations to Dr. Nicksick, the faculty, Board of Regents, student body and the other progressive thinkers of Ranger and this area, who have made this program possible. The college is the greatest asset Ranger has and the building program will surely contribute to our growth. I am proud to be numbered among the ex-students of RJC. I was a member of the first class in 1926.

Mrs. D. E. Pulley, business owner in Ranger: "The college is a great asset. As much as we appreciate it, we do not show enough appreciation. Whenever we build to the college we build Ranger. I am for the college and its growth, 100 percent. Ranger people should realize the educational, cultural and financial advantages of the college. I love the fall season when the young students come back to Ranger. It puts life in our town."

Dr. W. P. Watkins, Ranger

physician: "That is real fine...the biggest asset Ranger has, without a doubt. I wonder if people of Ranger really realize what the college means to all of us. We surely would miss it if suddenly it were not here."

Morris Newnam, Mayor of Ranger speaking for the City Commission said of the Ranger Junior College building program: "This is what we've been looking forward to for some time. Support of the college by the Ranger citizens is at an all time high as witnessed by the overwhelming vote in 1962 for bonds to finance the college. The City Commission is more than glad to have been able to obtain land for the college's growth. We are happy we have just the land needed to give to the college."

Marjorie Maddocks, Ranger business woman and a former student at RJC said: "The college is the best asset Ranger has. I'm proud to be among the ex-students of RJC. I had a wonderful time while

Ranger Jr. College Shares Its Place In The Community

Ranger Junior College is closely related to the city of Ranger as are some of the famous landmarks.

Ranger Junior College is an integral part of the community and has been since 1926, when the Ranger Independent School Board saw the need for a junior college in this area. For many years, the college was housed in the Ranger High School building. Many remember when the teacher attending the college and learned much."

Dr. S. J. Jones, who has instituted a Medical Assistants School in Ranger said: "I have a very personal interest in the science building. — would like for the building program to have included a girls' dormitory. Hope this will materialize in the near future."

Don Yarbrough, cashier of Commercial State Bank and president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce said: "I think the whole town realizes that the college is the largest asset we have and certainly any expansion on their part is looked on favorably by the people of Ranger."

Roy Plumley, manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce said: "It is a fine thing. The citizens showed their whole hearted backing of the college by voting the bonds for the building program. Certainly, what is good for the college is good for all of Ranger."

F. H. Huff, manager at Montgomery Ward said: "Everyone here is overwhelmed at the building program at Ranger Junior College. Sometime I think we do not all really appreciate the value of the college. It is without a doubt our greatest asset and Ranger people are behind it."

W. F. Cramer, executive vice-president of Commercial State Bank said: "The new dormitory and the other new buildings surely add to the college. The quality of instruction will increase accordingly. The increased facilities, both physical and educational should be quite attractive to new students. I support this program all the way. Without a doubt, the college is our biggest asset."

system and the administration system overlapped in the two separate institutions.

Few residents of Ranger, who have lived here and reared their families here, have passed through those years without direct contact with the college. Very few indeed, who have a vivid memory of this asset, right at our doorstep, have anything but high praise for the productive, inexpensive years spent in working toward higher education in Ranger Junior College.

The newer families who now have school-age children, may well look forward to the college education for those children, which may be begun right here.

Adults, feeling the need of furthering their education, are encouraged at very little expense, to enroll in any or all classes at the college. And it would surprise most people to know just how many adults are doing just that.

What man, trying to run his own business in these days of taxes, reports, and more reports; records, and more records, does not feel that a refresher course in the new office techniques would be of inestimable value in trying to keep ahead of the race.

The business administration department of the college has available the courses needed by these men and women. New business machines, needed to speed the work of modern offices, have to be mastered before they can do the work intended for them. Here, again, the training needed for these new office routines, is available.

But whether for business gain, for saving time, or for the pure pleasure of learning, Ranger Junior College is available to the people of Ranger. Literature and history can be pure pleasure, when studied for just that reason.

Ranger has always been proud of the college and individually and collectively, has supported the institution. Proof of this was in the bond election in recent time, when the people of Ranger said "yes" to the need for more money to support their college.

With the opening this fall of a new music department, many who have yearned for the opportunity to indulge a suspected talent, will take advantage of a variety of classes offered. Appreciation and history of music for the non-performing music lover; technique, theory and harmony for the ones wanting to improve and learn; and piano, organ and vocal groups to satisfy the needs of the musically gifted. All these are available.

Art for art's sake, may be the goal of some frustrated painter or sculptor. This desire may be fulfilled with enrollment in the college's art department.

These things are available to the people of Ranger and the surrounding area, along with academic courses for the student beginning the climb toward higher education.

This business of education is a never-ending thing. We have, right here, the facilities for "catching up" or for starting out; whatever the need might be.

Cooper Library Grows To Satisfy Needs of Students

Cooper Library, on the campus of Ranger Junior College, is growing in size and effectiveness to meet the needs of the students and faculty.

Miss Dorothea Linn is head librarian and Mrs. E. H. Bobo is her assistant. Two girl students, Tonia Arnold and Shirley Schwesig, both from Strawn, are library assistants on college scholarships. They contribute ten hours each, weekly, to the library staff work.

The library was enlarged, to nearly double the floorspace, in 1962 and has been completely renovated and refurnished. It has the latest type steel bookshelves and the paneled walls have complementary magazine racks, newspapers per racks, shelves and furniture.

Miss Linn said the library now has approximately 7,200 volumes with 306 being added this year. Most of the new books, she said, are in the field of humanities, but many are special cultural books. The fine arts department library has been doubled in number of volumes.

Library hours have been extended this year to accommodate the students' schedules. Opening hour is 8 a. m. and continues until 5 p. m. Beginning at 6 p. m., the evening hours are until 9 p. m.

The library also affords the students and faculty 70 magazines each month and five newspapers are placed regularly in the reading room.

Mrs. Hamrick
Guest Speaker
At Gorman Club

Mrs. R. L. Hamrick, chairman of the department of humanities at Ranger Junior College was a recent guest speaker for the Excelsior Club in Gorman. The meeting was held in the Fellowship Hall of Methodist Church, with the president, Mrs. John Kirk, presiding and introducing the speaker.

Special guests for the occasion were members of the Woman's Club of Gorman, the Desdemona Study Club, and members from DeLeon.

The Club's theme for the year is "A Woman's World in Review" and Mrs. Hamrick spoke on "Status of Women of the World."

Mrs. Hamrick gave a comprehensive word picture of Woman's position in Africa, India, Japan, China and other key spots in the world, concluding with a thorough review of the status of the American woman, through the eyes of a foreigner and those of a contemporary writer. The plight of the married woman in Texas was pictured as the worst of all — as far as the laws are concerned, Mrs. Hamrick stated. "There are laws 47 on the statutes of Texas which discriminate against married women."

There has been for some time, an amendment in committee in Austin, which, if it could ever get to the Legislature, would correct these discriminations. It could be passed there, then the Senate would have to pass it before it could be placed before the voters for approval.

Mrs. Hamrick appeared before the Gorman club through arrangements with RJC Speakers Bureau, which makes this service available, free of any charge, to all clubs and organizations in this area.

RJC

RJC College Song:
Raise a cheer for dear old Ranger, in the dear old Lone Star State.

Where there's lots of room for friendship, and no room at all for hate,

When the years have wrought their changes, when our days fade into night,

We will still remember Ranger and the purple and the white!

The past year has seen the paving of the streets on the Ranger Junior College Campus as well as new vapor lighting down the main thoroughfare.

Ranger Junior College has cooperated with many civic projects for the benefit of itself and the city of Ranger: The art department, under the direction of Mrs. Florene Pearson assisted with the Christmas decorations, constructing and painting, life-size figures of carolers for the Highway-80 entrance into downtown Ranger.

The art department also made the giant backdrop for the Lions Club Minstrel, held in the High School Auditorium.

The college co-sponsored with Ranger CofC, the adult education class, taught by the Texas Education Agency for the benefit of sales personnel in the businesses in Ranger. This session seminar was held in the college library.

The faculty of Ranger Junior College boasts some of Ranger's outstanding civic leaders.

Dr. Theodore Nicksick, president, is the immediate past president of the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference, which has met for the past two years on the campus of RJC. He also is past president of the local Lions Club and is active in Jaycees, CofC, Methodist Church, etc.

Dr. Nicksick is a state director of Texas United Fund and has been placed on the all-important Finance and Budget Committee.

Mrs. James Morris, chairman of the department of social science, has served as president of several Ranger Clubs and is much in demand as a speaker throughout this area. She specializes in book reviews, comments on the current scene and travels, which are reviews of her extensive travels in Europe, the United States, Canada.

Mrs. R. L. Hamrick, chairman of the department of humanities, is again serving the Ranger Garden Club as president. She was the first president of the organization. She also has served as president of the 1920 Club and of the Association of University Women.

For more than 25 years, Mrs. Hamrick has sponsored the Sub-Debs, a social club for high-school girls. She also is sponsor of Debs, a social club for Ranger Junior College co-eds. A member of the First Baptist Church, she is active in church work.

David Flinn, head of the chemistry department at RJC, is a member of the Lions Club and has filled several engagements this past year, speaking before service clubs and organizations on "Education." His theme for the talks is to inform the listeners on the current needs for up-grading education to meet the needs of the nuclear age and the age of automation.

The Speakers Bureau of the college affords a service to clubs, churches and other organizations in this area; sending speakers free of charge to meet the program needs of each group.
