

Bulldogs Battle Albany Friday Night In Final Game

The Ranger High Bulldogs wind up their 1964 grid season at Albany Friday night when they collide with the team which may sack the District 10-A title with a victory over the Purple & White.

The charges of Coach Jack Duval, with a season record of five wins and four losses and tied for third in 10-A standings with three wins against two losses, were reported in good shape for the Albany encounter. The Maroon & Whites, after rigorous workouts Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, will be tapered off with a light drill Thursday.

The Ranger - Albany and Clyde - Baird pigskin battles will be in the spotlight Friday night. The Lions and the Bears of Baird are tied for the top spot in the seven-member 10-A loop with identical records of four wins and one loss. Ranger upset Baird earlier in the season.

If Albany, rated the favorite, can outscore the battling Bulldogs and the Clyde Bulldogs beat Baird, Coach Harold Barrett, former Ranger High mentor, and his Lions will own the 1964 10-A title.

Ranger's Bulldogs will be gunning to tame the Lions in Friday night's scrap. Still fresh in the memory of most of the RHS gridmen is their humiliating 44-12 defeat suffered at the hands of the Albanians last season when Coach Duval piloted the Maron & White to a seven won-three loss record for the season.

The Lions, rated the team to take the title by pre-season depsters have piled up 146 points in five district duels and their foes to 72 points. In the same number of tilts, Ranger has scored 93, their opponents 65.

In season play (covering scoring stats on nine games for each club), the Lions offense has rolled up 203 points to their opponents' 124, and the Bulldogs have garnered 156 to their foes' 117.

Coach Barrett has made an amazing comeback with his charges after having lost three of his top first-stringers — Guard Dick Shelton, Tackle Jim Sullivan and End Larry Bartee — who were dropped from the squad for "disciplinary action."

Due to start for the Bulldogs:

Johnny McGee, quarter; Jesse Renteria and L. H. Pounds, halves; Ray Newnham, full; Jerry Watson and Melton Kennedy, ends; Bill Robinson and Alec Garcia, tackles; David Speed and David Dunson, guards; and Jerry Mahaffey, center.

NEWS • NOTES • BRIEFS

THE BLINN Jr. College Buccaneers, final conference foe to be faced by Coach Gerald Williams 1964 Ranger Jr. College Rangers at Brenham Thursday night have contest Purple & White pigskin squads on seven prior occasions.

The Bucs have won four, the Rangers two. In their first meeting back in 1958 the two eleven battled to a scoreless tie.

In 1959 the RJC crew shut-out Blinn 25-0, and they also whipped the Bucs, 19-13, in 1960.

In 1961 and 1962 Blinn avenged those earlier defeats with 33-0 and 23-0 triumphs.

And last year, the two teams played twice during the '63 season. In the initial encounter, it was Blinn 14-0 and later in the season they racked up their biggest win, a 35-0 shutout, over the RJC squad.

Band Booster Club Selling Band Calendars

The Ranger High School Band parents are making door to door calls collecting names for the 1965 Band Birthday Calendar. The calendar has been very popular in years past with Ranger residents, and the Band Boosters are hoping the response will again be good.

The calendar sells for 75 cents, and each birthdate or anniversary listed is 25 cents. Boys and girls, as well as adults, enjoy seeing their names listed on their birthdates, and the calendar serves as a helpful reminder, a spokesman said. Each day on the calendar has space enough for the busy housewife to jot down notes of importance to be remembered.

Proceeds from the calendar sales this year will be used to purchase new plumes for the band hats and fulfill other obligations of the Band Booster Club's budget.

Band Booster members urge everyone to respond to the calendar sale. If you are missed, and would like to purchase a calendar, you may contact Mrs. F. P. Brashier, Jr. at MI 7-3142 or any other member of the Band Booster Club.

Ranger Pup Grid Squads Wind Up Undeclared Season As Champions

Two mighty frisky squads of Ranger Junior High Pup-pies last Thursday night ground out a pair of victories to wind up their season as champions of the four-member Little Oil Belt district. The junior highers' final triumph came on the turf of Bulldog Stadium Thursday night when they swept a twin-bill with the Clyde High Pup-pies.

The seventh grade gridmen won their tilt, 14-12, and the eighth graders hammered their foes, 24-0.

The twin victories climaxed a seven game schedule which saw both squads undefeated. The seventh graders won 4, tied 3, and the eighth grade juggernaut — comprised of promising Bulldogs of the near future — won six, tied one.

Here are the members of the two undefeated squads:

Ranger, Blinn In TJCFE Final Thursday Nite

The Ranger Jr. College Rangers wind up their Texas Jr. College Football Federation play Thursday night at Brenham when they challenge the Blinn Jr. College Buccaneers in a conference scrap.

Kickoff time at Thomas M. Spencer Stadium in the host city is slated for 7:30 p.m.

The Purple & White charges of Coach Gerald Williams will have one more grid battle to wage after the Blinn duel. Two weeks hence on Friday, Nov. 27, the Rangers travel to Monterrey, Mexico for a joust with a band of Monterrey "All-Stars," to wind up their football action for '64.

The Blinn Bucs are rated favorites in the Thursday night TJCFE feature. Blinn has an enrollment of 820 students and Leroy Dreyer is athletic director and head coach of the Buccaneers.

Blinn's grid fortunes haven't been bright this fall compared to their far more impressive campaign of a year ago when they won seven and lost nine. In round-robin play, their only losses were a pair to the same team — Wharton Jr. College by 7-6 and RJC twice, 14-0 and 35-0.

Coach Williams' probable starters in the Rangers' final picture.

TJCFE contest of the season:

The starting offense will include Bill Clary, 165, quarter; James Sneed, 145, and Joe Fitzgerald, 175, halves; John Demaria, 220, full; Skipper Voss, 180, and Larry Lee, 185, ends; Jerry Jones, 222, and Dale Fruge, 222, tackles; Lawrence Helton, 210, and Arnold Stevens, 195, guards, and Tony Jackson, 230, center.

Gear Crops to Future Needs

State Capital News

AUSTIN — Gov. John Connally remains the dominant figure on the statehouse scene. He received over 1,000,000 votes in the general election, to lead the Democratic ticket.

An overwhelming majority of Texas voters liked the Demo ticket headed by native son, Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Republicans were left with little to be encouraged about. However, GOP leaders insisted their party has "the zeal and spirit to make a fast comeback" and will begin the 1966 campaign immediately.

Statisticians for the two political parties have gone to work to explain the tremendous Democratic sweep of Texas. One logical explanation of Johnson's landslide simply was that 40,000 more Texans than ever before appeared at the polls. And apparently they were about all Democrats. Turnout was some 88 per cent of the qualified voters, also a new record in this century in Texas.

President Johnson received 64 per cent of the 2,700,000 Texas votes cast (to 36 per cent for Sen. Barry Goldwater). This represented the largest total in a presidential race since the late Franklin D. Roosevelt's 71 per cent margin for a fourth term in 1944.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough defeated GOP candidate George Bush by carrying nearly 56 per cent of the total. But Bush got more votes than any previous Texas Republican candidate for senator. The Houston oilman was the first GOP senate candidate to rack up more than a million votes.

Republicans, although better organized and financed than ever, lost every statewide and congressional race and all legislative races except one. GOP Frank Cahoon of Midland won. In the scramble the Republicans lost two congressmen, Bruce Alger of Dallas and Ed Foreman of Odessa, and nine members of the Texas Legislature.

Makeup of the Legislature in general remains conservative - moderate. Leadership will continue in the hands of Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and House Speaker Byron Tunnell. The latter is assured another term as speaker on strength of member pledges.

Texas voters also approved all three state constitutional amendments on the ballot. In so doing they knocked out legislative authority to transfer one per cent of the permanent school fund to the available school fund; authorized the Legislature to enact a program of medical aid to the aged not on welfare rolls but having difficulty paying their doctor bills; and required bills creating or substantially altering conservation and reclamation districts to be published in newspapers and cleared by Texas Water Commission.

Some Texans learned to their dismay that, if they had moved from one county to another within the last six months, they lost their right to vote.

Others found that if they had moved from one precinct to another in the same county, but had failed to transfer their poll taxes by Thursday before election, they had lost the right to vote.

These situations naturally led to talk of making changes in the law or of lawsuits to set aside the laws which cut off right to vote on technicalities.

The 32 junior colleges which are supported in part by state money gained 16.7 per cent in enrollments this fall.

Growth of community colleges was even greater than state colleges and universities, which checked in 144,309 students, a gain of 9.4 per cent over last year.

New emphasis on the need for higher education, plus the simple fact that the bumper "war baby crop" is reaching college age, accounts for growth.

Community colleges, to give vocational and technical courses, are a major part of the recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School. Need for at least a dozen new community colleges is indicated.

Contributions of any amount, large or small, are needed. Leave your contribution and your name at either C. E. Maddocks & Co. insurance agency or the Paramount Coffee Shop in containers provided at those locations.

Names of all contributors will be listed with the State and National Executive Committees. (Paid Political Advertisement)

Accent on Health

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

J. E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

The paradox that a "little hurt" can prevent a lot of sickness was discovered by scientists about a hundred years ago.

An English country doctor named Edward Jenner took a little serum from a cowpoke pustule on the arm of a milkmaid and scratched it with a lancet into the arm of a neighbor boy. A smallpox-like sore appeared on his arm, and he had other mild smallpox-like symptoms.

Today, thanks to Dr. Jenner, we can have a similar immunization and avoid the disfiguring and killing smallpox epidemics which once swept Europe.

Several years later in France, Louis Pasteur made a startling discovery one morning. The discovery — a re-inoculation of some chickens with chicken cholera — set the wheels turning in Pasteur's creative mind.

"I've found a way to make a beast a little sick . . . inject some aged microbes into a chicken so that it gets the disease, but only a little of it . . . and when it gets better . . . it can resist the disease! We can apply this to other diseases in man; we can save lives." These may have been some of the thoughts running through Pasteur's mind.

Pasteur also explored and experimented until he found a way to protect man from the dread rabies through a series of inoculations. Today we use about the same method to keep a man bitten by a rabid animal from developing the disease.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Please accept our thanks for the coverage you gave to the recently concluded campaign, and to those of you who endorsed the candidacy of President Lyndon B. Johnson, our special appreciation is added.

Many of you cooperated in helping our county chairman to prepare advertising for local purchase, and we are most grateful. There are never enough hours or enough people to do everything that needs to be done in a political campaign, and if it were not for the assistance given by thousands of others, we in the state headquarters would have an impossible task.

The result was a wonderful tribute to the first native born resident of Texas to serve our nation as President, and he joins me in expressing his thanks to all who made it possible.

Sincerely yours, Wm. Hunter McLean State Campaign Chairman

Another advance in immunology was made in 1923 when a toxin was developed to save hundreds of babies each year from a gasping death of diphtheria.

In the last 10 or 15 years we have read and watched the drama of polio vaccine unfold. Principal players in that drama were Dr. Jonas Salk of the University of Pittsburgh, and Dr. Albert Sabin, of the University of Cincinnati.

Dr. John Enders of the Children's Hospital in Boston, just recently developed a measles vaccine to save lives and impairments in hundreds of children.

These dedicated scientists did not conquer these diseases — smallpox, rabies, diphtheria, polio and measles — in the literal sense. They simply gave us a means of preventing them.

To take advantage of the paradox — a little hurt to prevent sickness or death — see your physician about an immunization schedule for your family.

Vets Questions And Answers

Q — What procedure should I follow to obtain an increase in compensation?

A — If you can present evidence to your VA Regional Office that your service-connected disability is possibly worse than when previously rated, a rating examination will be arranged and your right to an increase will be based on the evidence.

Q — A principal beneficiary under a National Service Life Insurance policy elected to take the proceeds on a monthly installment plan, even though a lump sum settlement was available. He died before receiving all of the installments. Who receives the unpaid portion of the policy, the contingent beneficiary?

A — The remaining installments would not be paid to the contingent beneficiary. Where the principal beneficiary has the option of a lump sum payment and survives the insured, the rights of the contingent beneficiary are wiped out. The commuted value of the unpaid installments would be paid to the estate of the principal beneficiary.

Q — My husband and I are receiving pension for two children of a deceased veteran who are living with us. Will the pension continue if we adopt the children? A — Yes.

ARTHRITIS PRODUCES PAIN DEFORMED JOINTS FOR MAN

Arthritis, says a new American Medical Association pamphlet, is a general word that includes several different but related illnesses. It comes from "arthros," meaning joint, and "itis," meaning inflammation.

The most common forms are rheumatoid arthritis and osteoarthritis. They are different ailments, but each produces painful, deformed joints.

Rheumatoid arthritis is a disease of the whole body. Three times more common in women than in men, it usually begins when a person is between 20 and 35 years of age. Early symptoms may include weakness, fever, loss of appetite and loss of weight. The skin, especially the hands, may be cold and clammy. Mental depression is common, and the patient both feel and looks below par. On or more joints become inflamed and swollen.

An attack may begin with a gradually increasing discomfort, or a sudden, dramatic, confining illness, or anything in between. Attacks may come and go for no apparent reason.

Treatment reduces the pain of an acute attack and usually increases motion. Often an attack of pain in the joint will subside by itself. It usually returns. The quick capitalizes on this tendency of the disease to fluctuate. He claims credit for the treatment being used at a time, when actually it is a period of natural remission.

Osteoarthritis is a quieter, less dramatic illness. However, when it does develop in a joint it is less likely to go away. Eventually the joint is injured, the smooth lining membrane and the cartilage pads are damaged and permanent changes within the joint limit its motion and make any motion painful.

Everyone will develop osteoarthritis if he lives long enough. It begins in middle age, usually in a hip, a knee, shoulder or in the neck. Overweight people whose work requires standing or walking, and hips, are especially susceptible to osteoarthritis. Often it is first noticed after an injury to a joint.

Management of arthritis involves skilled medical supervision over a long time, rather than periodic dosing with pain killers or going to bed when one's joints hurt. The physician individualizes his treatment. It is common to prescribe drugs to reduce pain and inflammation. Exercise and physical therapy may be recommended. Weight control may be necessary. An arthritic patient often must learn new ways to do common daily tasks. It is essential at all times, even in the interludes between acute attacks of pain and swelling.

A person with rheumatoid arthritis or osteoarthritis has a problem that will be with him for life. He should develop a tolerant attitude toward his disability without surrendering to it, rather than exhaust himself fighting against it.

Because the more common forms of arthritis are chronic conditions that fluctuate from better to worse to better again, they are a favorite field for the quack and the nostrum peddler, says the AMA pamphlet.

Leon Briefs

By Mrs. O. D. Quarles

Very few people are fish-nov. A few nice crappie have been caught. Crappie seem to prefer cold weather and "red horse" minnows.

Mr. R. V. "Rip" Galloway returned home Friday from a trip to Waco to visit his sister who has been ill. We're glad to hear that she was improving. Rip is Water Board secretary in charge of issuing our lake permit books. He lives in an area of the lake called "Dark Hollow."

We have some very unusual names of coves and inlets. Among them are "Lone Cedar," where the Country Club is, "Pollywog Slew, Kat Kove, Sandlers Jan Lee" and many more.

Eastland and Ranger can be justly proud of their lake. Built mainly for a water supply, it affords many pleasures.

Besides fishing, there are areas for swimming, picnicking, camping and skiing. Many family reunions are held at the lake.

The coming winter months will not afford many fishing reports. If you enjoy this little column, we would be happy to hear from you and welcome any suggestion as to the kind of news you'd like — or try to answer any question you might have.

County Delegates to Attend Farmers Union Austin Meet

Delegates for Eastland County Farmers Union, who will attend the Texas Farmers Union State Convention in Austin at the Driskill Hotel Nov. 12-14, are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fuller and Wayne Eaves, all of Gorman; and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dunn of Rising Star.

Business, which will be considered at the convention will be the election of the state officers and the delegates to the National Farmers Union Convention.

Problems facing farmers, which result from continued low farm prices without proportionately reduced prices on farm commodities at the retail level, will be part of the discussion.

Among the speakers will be Congressman Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls; Senator Ralph Yarborough; Tony T. Dechant, secretary-treasurer of the National Farmers Union, Colorado; Congressman Jake Pickel of Austin; President Hank Brown of the Texas AFL-CIO; and Ray Novak of Denver, Colorado, manager of National Farmers Union Insurance.

David Gault and Bob Barton, Jr. of Austin, co-chairmen of the convention Planning Committee, have announced plans for guided sight-seeing tours during the convention that will visit places of agri-

R*H*S REPORT

By SARAH COOPER

Great praise is due to everyone who made this year's EHS Homecoming a success, including all student council members, Roddy Carter and Dan Mitchell, who acted as host of the reception and provided good entertainment with his guitar. The high school study hall, where the reception was held after the game, was almost full of RHS-exes and present students.

Bulldogs, you played another great game. Keep it up for the last district game against Albany this Friday, when, if we beat Albany and Baird beats Clyde, Ranger will be in the 5-way tie for the district 10-A title. Everyone come out and root for the Bulldogs in what could be their last game of the season!

RHS band members who traveled to Eastland last Saturday for district band try-outs met with 100 per cent success. All six bandsmen made either the first or second band as follows: Connie Gilbert, sophomore, 7th chair French Horn in the 1st band; Lupe Hernandez, freshman, 2nd chair Eb Alto Clarinet in the 1st band; Jimmy Miller, junior, 5th chair bass in the 1st band; Jimmy Watkins, freshman, 1st chair Tympany in the 1st band; Stephen Lang, senior, 1st chair Bass, 2nd band; and Sandra Orms, senior, 4th chair Flute in the 2nd band. The second All-District band meeting will be March 6, 1965 at Brownwood.

Tennis Players To Be In Action Next Semester

"Tennis, anyone?" This expression will be heard from several RJC students this coming semester.

Jack Allen is going to teach this sport to anyone who is interested in coming out. Tennis will not be offered in PE classes.

Three top tennis stars of last year, Imogene Jones, Dale Wibbert, and Harry Lawson, will again compete in tennis for Ranger Junior College. Tommy Barker, an RJC freshman, plans to join the tennis team. Tommy should be an asset to the team, for he went to state in tennis last year in high school.

Last year a district tennis meet was held here for other junior colleges. This year, Pasadena is the site located for the meet.

Anyone who wishes to play tennis is asked to contact Mr. Allen.

cultural and historical interest in the Austin area. Plans have also been made for other activities that will be of special interest to the convention young people attending.

Plans Announced For Taking Agriculture Census In County

Plans for taking the 1964 Census of Agriculture in Eastland County were announced today by Eloise Parker and Floyd Johnson, newly-appointed census crew leaders for the county.

The job will be done in three stages, the crew leaders said. First will come recruitment and training of enumerators to count all farms in the county. About one enumerator for each 150 farms will be needed.

Shortly after November 19th, the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U. S. Department of commerce, will start the second stage by mailing agricultural census questionnaires to all rural boxholders in the county. This will give farm and ranch operators, who are required by law to fill out the forms, a period of time to consult their records and fill in answers to the questions.

In the final stage, enumerators will visit each farm in the county to collect the questionnaires. At the time of this visit, the enumerators will help farmers complete answers to any questions the farmers may have had difficulty with. Enumerator visits are scheduled to begin in this county on November 23rd. Enumerators will take about three weeks to complete their work, the crew leaders estimated.

The Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and to gather up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and facilities, farm products sold, and use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.

Reading-Math Conference To Be In Cisco Saturday

A Reading-Math conference will be held Saturday, Nov. 14, in the new high school auditorium in Cisco, according to R. B. Golemon, supervisor for Eastland County Public Schools.

Sponsors are the Cisco Independent School District, Superintendent T. M. Roach, Mr. Golemon, and La Dale Brimmage, staff associate for Science Research Associates, San Angelo.

Included in the conference will be a discussion of reading laboratories, pilot libraries, and other materials related to reading. There will also be a discussion of modern math. Mr. Brimmage will be in charge of the reading conference, and Dr. Clarence Darter of Lubbock will bring the math discussion. The schedule has been arranged so that teachers will have an opportunity to attend both sessions.

The conference will begin with registration at 8:30 a.m., followed by the first session at 9 a.m. Lunch will be served in the cafeteria at 10:30, and the second session will then be held. No fees are involved in the conference registration.

According to Mr. Roach, curriculum changes are being made from year to year, and the conference will give teachers an opportunity to see some of the materials associated with the change.

Elementary school faculties from Callahan, Comanche, Coleman, Stephens, and Shackelford Counties, as well as all Eastland County schools, have received invitations to attend.

A Boy Scout meeting was held Monday, Nov. 9, at the White Elephant Restaurant, at which time it was decided that a Pack meeting would be held Dec. 7. The meeting was held for the purpose of a planning conference, McFarland said.

4-H Award Banquet Is Set Nov. 21

The 1964 Eastland County 4-H Awards Banquet will be held in the new Eastland Elementary School Cafeteria Saturday, Nov. 21, at 7:30 p.m., according to Assistant County Home Demonstration Agent, Delmelia Dunn and Assistant County Agriculture Agent, Bill McCutchen.
