"Thank You, Folks"

RADEN LEE JOHNSON
Eastland County March of Dimes 1965 Campaign Boy, has issued the following "Thank You" to persons who have donated to him and the MOD drive which this year is emphasizing an attack on birth defects:

"I am Raden Lee Johnson (son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Lake Leon) and I am now three and a half months old. I am doing real good for now. My mother and daddy and I want to thank all of our friends for their prayers and donations. Your contributions have paid about one-fourth of my hospital bill. (Haden Lee recently had extensive surgery). My big brother Leslie (2 years old) wants to thank you for his Christmas presents too. We are all very grateful to you."

(Haden Lee will be taken for further tests and examinations in about six months, his parents report).

No Ruling Yet In Drowning Death

An official ruling in the recent drowning death of Earl R. Platter is awaiting receipt of blood tests report from the Department of Public Safety in Austin. Justice of the Peace Wells Dalton said at mid-week.

Samuels were sent to Austin immediately following the death two weeks ago, Judge Dalton said.

Platter, a 42-year-old carpenter, was found dead Saturday, Jan. 2 by Sheriff L. E. Sublett and Police Chief Ray Lanev who had been tipped by another man.

The same man was cleared of any connection with Platter's death following polygraph (lie detection) tests which he had requested and which were made in Waco Monday.

The body of Platter was found in about four feet of water in Leon Creek after he had been missing about 48 hours.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Aaron of Eastland and is suffering from injuries received in a one-car accident Monday Jan. 4 near his home in Wichita Falls. His parents remain at his bedside.

R * H * S REPORT

By SARAH COOPER

Well, the faces one sees in the halls of RHS are certainly grim these days, with the semester exams going on and the knowledge that report cards will be issued next week. No matter how hard we try to forget about our grades, this time of the year always seems to jog our memory.

An appropriate alphabet is that of the Flunker: A-Aw, come on, not homework for tomorrow; B-Believe I'll take a nap in English today; C-Can't you cheat just a little; D-Didn't hear the assignment; E-Easy! I'll remember without taking notes; F-Fail! Who, me?; G-Gotta go get a coke now - I'll study tomorrow; H-How do you expect my social life to prosper if I study all the time?; I-If you'll tell me what's on the Algebra test, I'll show you my government; J-Just can't understand why the teachers don't like me; K-Knew it once but I forgot; L-Lost my paper on the way to school; M-Mv book's at home, so I can't study; N-No one else is picked on like me; O-Oh! If I could just remember that answer; P-Please give me until tomorrow; Q-Quick, slip me the answer; R-Read the question again; S-So what if she said they were due today? T-Thought we wouldn't have class today; U-Unless you curve the grades, I'll flunk!; V-Venison sure would taste good if I could skip school and go hunting; W-Wait, I'll hand it in at 4:00; X-Xcuse the scribbles; Y-You didn't have to flunk me this six weeks; I worked hard; Z-Zero, the usual end.

This week the basketball teams have had a rest because of the tests, but they will be back with more action against Cross Plains here this Friday night. This will be the second encounter of the two schools this year. I'm sure everyone has heard of the good game the Bulldogs played against DeLeon last Friday night in the gym there. The final score was 60-49.

The Beta Club had a called meeting last Monday, January 11, at 10:40 in the Beta Room for the purpose of electing delegates to send to the State Beta Convention. The convention will be held in San Antonio on February 5th and 6th, at which time Jon Watkins and Carol Drennan, the elected delegates, will go along with the club's sponsor, Miss McEver. There are an expected 16 of other Betas to go also, but will leave after school Friday, February 5th.

The planned meeting of the Drama club has been postponed from last Monday night to next Monday night because of semester tests. It is still not too late for any Junior or Senior to try out for the club. Those who are members are urged to pay the monthly dues, however.

The Student Council met last Wednesday, January 5th, at 10:30. Discussed at the meeting was the upcoming March of Dimes Drive, and what the high school will do for it this year. The point system will be used again this year; a goal will be set for each class according to the number of students in that class. Points will be given in reaching that goal and also to the top three teams winning the intramural activity. It has not been decided yet whether to play volleyball or basketball, but the game will not be played until the close of basketball season.

On January 8 at 10:30 the FHA met in the auditorium for their regular business meeting. Discussed at the meeting was the banquet to be held the next Saturday night. Projects chairman Alice Hodges announced that the Ranger chapter had sent 106 Christmas cards to state hospitals for the state-wide project. The balance was announced by Treasurer Dorothy Ewing to be $166.70.

The FHA banquet held last Saturday night in the basement of the First Methodist Church was a big success, as everyone who went will tell you. "Chez Paree," the theme of the banquet meaning Paris by Starlight, was carried throughout the evening.

A duet of Barbara Dawson and Tawana Nichols sang several French songs, and a program of French customs and education was presented by Carol Drennan, Debbie Johnston, and Dorothy Ewing. A highlight of the evening occurred when Mary Sue Twyman presented a relaxer.

Each month's flower was given as those born in that month rose and listened to their supposed characteristics. Born in the same month, both Mr. Rush and Mr. Garrett always have a smile on their face!

On January 22 there will be a rough and tumble basketball game sponsored by the F.T.A. Two teams will compete, one of coaches in Ranger and the other made up of senior boys on the Bulldog cage squad and other F.T.A. members.

It should be an unusual game, with the things the coaches make the boys do come to light through themselves.

TOWN TALK

NEWS • NOTES • BRIEFS

HERE'S AN example of "Ingenuity — or How to Succeed Without Really Buying!" It's from a bulletin published by the Omaha (Neb.) Better Business Bureau —

One of the bosses in a Middle Western factory was getting married, and a bright young lad in the mail room was named to take up a collection and get him a gift.

He made the rounds of 2,000 employees and hit each of them for a quarter. This gave him $500. With this money he purchased 2,000 packs of cigarettes — the kind with the coupon on the back. He traded in the coupons for a silver coffee service, and this became the wedding gift.

Now he gave each of the contributors a pack of cigarettes. Thus their two bits came back to them in full measure.

This was truly ingenious, and when the management heard about it, they called the young man in.

"You've a head on your shoulders," he was told. "We can use your sort in the front office. Such cleverness deserves a reward!"

The chap was properly appreciative, but in all honesty, he had to confess he'd already gotten his reward. Along with the purchase of all those cigarettes, he'd been given trading stamps — 5,000 of them. He had then cashed the trading stamps in on a complete fishing outfit.

THE TIMES learned from a reliable source over the weekend that appointment of a judge to fill the existing vacancy of the 91st District Court will not be made soon. The word from Austin is that Eastland County Democrats are "split" and that the appointment is a "hot potato" for Gov. John Connally who has played a major role in welding together conservative and liberal party factions on a state level.

The Ranger Jaycees will hold their weekly breakfast sessions at the Ranger Junior College cafeteria annex beginning Thursday, Jan. 14. Kenneth Pendleton, president of the organization, announces that the breakfast session will convene at the usual hour — 6:30 a.m. Due for discussion at this week's session: their current poll tax drive and their upcoming 1965 Rodeo, a stellar event slated for early in July. Following the next EC-65 seminar — subject, industrial sites — to be held in Cisco on Thursday, Feb. 4, the county group will next meet at Gorman for a session on financing. The fifth and final seminars will be held at Cisco, Gov. John Connally is expected to be present during that April seminar, according to County Judge Scott Bailey.

IN THESE times of rising living costs, news items like the following are mighty few and far between:

Mineral Wells City Commission revised rate schedules Jan. 6, which will reduce electric rates in Mineral Wells by an average of approximately 3 percent.

About $1.2 million of the annual reduction was made possible by continuing general improvements in operation efficiency and by an increase in the average use of service. The additional $1.8 million was made possible by the recent reduction in federal income taxes.

EDITOR NORMAN Fisher of The Baird Star writes a good column for his newspapers at Baird and Clyde. McCall's Magazine lifted an item he wrote recently and quoted it (giving him credit) as follows:

"Usually parents who are lucky in the kind of children they have, have children who are lucky in the kind of parents they have."

MEMORABLE and somewhat daffy dates for January, as supplied by one of our contributors:

Jan. 4 — Congress convenes once again. Many new faces have been sworn in, many old ones ousted out.

Jan. 5-1755 — F. M. Rimmer, Boston mortician, introduces first lay-away plan.

Jan. 9, 1901 — Little Orphan Annie discovers the fountain of youth.

Jan. 11, 1957 — AA-AAA formed for drinkers who drive.

Jan. 15, 1950 — Dick Dolan, big money maker from the east, goes to jail when caught making money about a quarter inch too big.

Jan. 19, 1959 — UN delegate from Arabia causes traffic snarl by facing East on a West-bound street.

Jan. 23, 1932 — After years of research Dr. Raymond Brand, noted sociologist, concludes that marriage is the chief cause of divorce.

Texas royalty owners received $456 million from oil and gas production in 1963.

Mrs. Cheatham's Rites Monday; Rosary Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Agnes Cheatham, 85, were held Monday, 4 p.m., at the St. Francis Catholic Church, with interment in the Eastland Cemetery. Rosary was said at 7 p.m. Sunday at the Arrington Hammer Chapel.

Mrs. Cheatham died Sunday morning in Eastland Memorial Hospital after an illness of three months. Born Jan. 29, 1879 in Dalton, Ga. she was a resident of Eastland since 1918, moving here from Fort Worth, and was a member of St. Francis Catholic Church.

Survivors include three sons, James H. Cheatham of Houston, C. Aubrey Cheatham of Beaumont and William B. Cheatham of Midland; seven grandchildren; and 17 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, James H. Cheatham, in 1936.

When you take in everything, there's more room inside this car than in any Chevrolet as far back as they go. It's wider this year and the attractively curved windows help to give you more shoulder room. The engine's been moved forward to give you more foot room. So, besides the way a '65 Chevrolet looks and rides, we now have one more reason to ask you: What do you get by paying more for a car—except bigger monthly payments?

Safeway Realigns Operations In Division Expansion Plan

Carl C. Fester, Division Manager of Safeway's Dallas operations, announced today the reorganization of its Merchandising Department and named two Dallas District Managers resulting from the changes.

Some forty new or extensively remodeled stores opened in 1964, or to be opened in 1965, require that we streamline our backstage operations, Fester said.

Mr. Fester is a former Eastland resident, a graduate of Eastland High School, and his late wife was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Quinn of Eastland.

Ken Roberts who has managed the company's South Dallas and Ellis County stores for the last four and a half years, has been assigned the North Dallas area. The District includes stores in North Dallas County, Denton, and Gainesville.

Milton Lynn from the company's Seattle, Washington, Division has been selected to fill the post of South Dallas District Manager. Mr. Lynn has had an extensive career in store management and in recent years has held the assignment of Materials Handling Coordinator at Seattle. Recently he attended the company's Executive Development Training Program in Oakland, California.

Bob Griffiths, a second newcomer to Safeway Dallas Division has been named Non-Foods Merchandiser. He held a similar position in the company's San Diego, California, Division. Griffiths will direct the non-foods operation at retail level and will be a member of the buying committee for non-foods.

T. M. Temple, Eastland store manager, reported that there are no changes anticipated for the local store at this time.

Harold T. Johnson, veteran Supply Manager for Safeway's Dallas operations has been assigned the position of Non-Foods and Grocery Supply Manager and will co-ordinate all activities in the procurement of items. He will report directly to the Division Manager.

Andy Couch, formerly Grocery Supply Manager, has been assigned the post of Perishable Foods Merchandising Manager. He is responsible for procurement of all supplies in this field and reports to the Division Manager.

Ray Dowell, who has managed the North Dallas District for past year, has been named Sales Promotion Manager with responsibility of coordinating the selection of advertising and sales promotion programs for the Grocery Department. He will also coordinate the activities of the Price Reporting Office, and will assist other Merchandisers and the Advertising Manager in the over-all Merchandising program. Mr. Dowell reports to the Division Manager.

Arnold Sember, Meat Supply Manager; Henry Squires, Produce Supply Manager; Ron Giglio, Advertising Manager; and "S" Brand Merch-andiser Bob Myers remain in their present positions and report to the Division Manager.

Bill Compton, formerly Non-Foods Supply Manager, becomes the Retail Non-Foods Merchandiser and reports to John Whathan, Retail Operations Manager.

Bill Glasscock serves as Grocery Buyer and reports directly to Harold Johnson.

Foster stated that a Non-Food section was added to the Company's Gari and Distribution Center in 1964. Some twenty new retail units have been added to the Texas operations in 1964 and a like number are scheduled for 1965 opening. This is in line with the company's continuing plan with the growing economy of the Southwest.

Introducing The 1965 RJC Basketball Squad

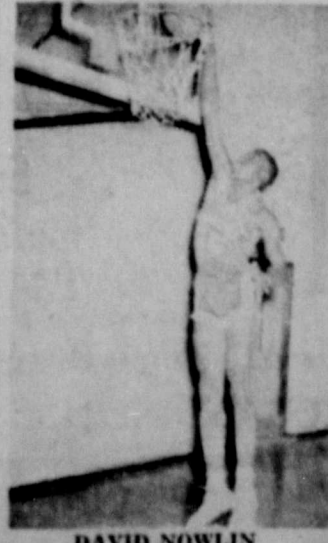

The three members of the Ranger Junior College basketball team to be introduced this week are all freshmen starters. They include guard Bob Hughes, center Oscar McClendon, and forward David Nowlin.

Bob Hughes stands only 5 feet 11 inches tall but he is a dangerous sharpshooter from the outside as well as a hard-driving ball handler on the fastbreak. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hughes of Syracuse, New York. This curly haired, friendly Yank graduated from Saint Vincent De Paul High School in Syracuse before coming to RJC to begin his major in business administration. Bob is a well-liked campus personality and has contributed a great deal to the success thus far of the RJC team. Not only his high scoring, but also his attitude and his desire to win make Bob a very valuable man on the court.

ROBERT HUGHES

The Big O Oscar McClendon, from Houston, Texas, is a well-known figure to all who patronize the RJC basketball games. His 6 foot 3 inch, 215 - pound frame makes Oscar a conspicuous person just as his good scoring and successful rebounding make him a standout on the graduate of Ralph J. Bunche High School in Crockett, has chosen physical education for his major. He is undecided upon the college where he will complete his education, but he is working to enter the coaching profession. Bigness seems to be about the only adjective to describe Oscar. He is a big man physically. He wears a big number 42 on his uniform. He is a big man in the eyes of all his friends here at RJC. He is also a big reason for a winning basketball season.

DAVID NOWLIN

David Nowlin, who is the tallest of the RJC casters this year at 6 feet 8 inches is a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School in Breckinridge, Texas. Dave has the makings to become an outstanding college ball player and Coach Ron Butler is certainly happy to see him begin it here at RJC. Miss Garrett won the right to represent her state after winning the title of "Miss Texas Rural Electrification." At that time, she was an entrant of the Comanche County Electric Cooperative in Comanche.

Presently attending Tarleton State College in Stephenville, she plans on continuing her education at the University of Texas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Garrett, who are well known Angus cattle ranchers east of Cisco.

Miss Garrett and other beauty contestants will arrive at the Fontainebleau Hotel on January 24, and will be entertained there until the meeting concludes on January 28. "Miss Rural Electrification" will receive her crown jointly from the president of NRECA, Albert C. Hauffe of South Dakota, and the 1964 beauty queen, Bonnie Bell of Georgia.

More than 8,000 rural citizens, representing nearly 1,000 rural electric systems in 46 states, are expected to participate in the five-day event.

The National Rural Electric Cooperative Association is the national service organization for these systems — serving approximately 20 million people on a non-profit, cooperative basis.

State Park Work Progressing; Big Year In Prospect

AUSTIN — Authorized state park improvements are well ahead of schedule, according to J. Weidun Watson, executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department. He said indications point to 1965 as the greatest park year in history.

The executive director said during the year substantial new facilities were completed at Bastrop State Park, Goose Island State Park, Tyler State Park, Buescher State Park and Port Lavaca Causeway State Park.

But the major emphasis, said Watson, was in creating a new park at Dam "B" near Woodville, and the development marked creation of a "The LBJ State Park" near Johnson City, in honor of Texas' own, President Lyndon B. Johnson.

In addition, said Watson, the park field staff was busy serving an increase of more than a half million guests during the year. The 1964 attendance was 7,900,000, compared with 7,200,000 in 1963.

"We consider the attendance noteworthy," said Watson, "because the near record heat of the early summer curtailed visitations. Then there were prolonged drought spells in some areas that definitely curbed patronage."

Watson said the 1.2 million dollar development program has advanced so well that it is anticipated every contract will be encumbered, as of December 29. The last deal was for a new concession building at Falcon State Park.

Falcon State Park has been open for partial use with screened shelters, a large boat ramp and the airplane landing strip completed since early fall.

Tuesday during a conference between the Ranger man and LCB officials.

The officers made the raid on the old Parrish place about six miles south of Ranger on Farm-to-Market Highway 571.

Complaints were filed at the downtown office of Ranger Justice of Peace M. D. Underwood.

By Wednesday at 5 p. m., 24 of the men charged had paid fines of $25.00, plus costs, which totaled $40.50 each. In addition 16 others had posted appearance bonds of $200 each. A group of Abilene men, Justice of Peace Underwood said, posted bonds through a legal counsel and declared intentions to "fight" their cases.

About half a dozen of those arrested were from Ranger. Practically every community in the county was represented and also present were men from New Mexico, Oklahoma, Baytown, Houston and Abilene.

The Sunday morning raid was one of several conducted recently by the Texas Rangers in this section of the state. Chicken fighting is illegal in Texas. It is lawful, however, in Oklahoma and New Mexico, although betting on the fighting cocks is an offense in those states.

An officer said it was his "understanding" that chicken fights were scheduled to get underway Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m.

In addition to the men picked up at the rural site, it was also reported that there were several dozen others in Ranger Sunday morning and allegedly were "planning" to attend the afternoon fights.

As evidence the Rangers picked up many sets of gaffs and also took a picture of the pit which they say was to be used for the fights.

Constable Ralph Veal said Tuesday that about a year ago he warned a Ranger man against staging chicken fights at the same location. The Ranger heeded the warning, Veal said, and hurriedly cancelled the event.

Only one of the men arrested was jailed. He was held in the city jail in Ranger only a few hours.

"You can't put me in jail unless my roosters go with me," the man said.

Chief of Police Bill Ogden, acting on Rangers' orders, locked the man in a cell along with three roosters in coops.

"It was the first time," Chief Ogden said, "that we ever locked up any chickens in the city jail."

After a few hours the Abilene man was released after paying a $40.50 fine to Justice of Peace Underwood.

Data Available On GI Insurance

DALLAS — All veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict who believe they are eligible to purchase the new GI insurance beginning May 1, 1965, can get full information at Veterans Administration regional offices throughout the country.

VA has urged those who can to visit or telephone the regional office nearest their home while those who live at too great a distance may write for a printed information sheet, outlining the provisions of the new law. In the Southwestern area, letters may be addressed to VA regional office at Waco, Houston, Lubbock and San Antonio, Texas; Shreveport and New Orleans, Louisiana; and Jackson, Mississippi.

All eligible veterans will have ample time to acquaint themselves with the choices of insurance available since applications for the new insurance cannot be accepted before May 1, 1965. Veterans will then have until midnight, May 2, 1966, to purchase the insurance.

The light-gathering power of the 80-inch telescope at McDonald Observatory is about 150,000 times greater than that of the human eye.

Subject to weather conditions and other undetermined phases, Watson said the other two parks, also on large reservoirs already noted for their fishing, will be ready for the summer season.

SCREWORM ERADICATION CONTINUANCE IS ASKED

The Eastland County Livestock Raisers Association has adopted a resolution asking that the Southwestern Animal Health Research Foundation continue its screwworm eradication program for this county, it has been announced.

Funds for the campaign are expected to be depleted by March of this year and another drive for funds is considered necessary to carry on the important program.

Mr. Sam Kimmell of Cisco is president of the county raisers association.

The Cisco Rotary Club and the agricultural committee of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce are likewise endorsing the request for continuance of the program, it is reported.

On the committee to draw up the resolution were Glynn Gilliam of Ranger, Ben McKinnis of Eastland, and J.M. Cooper, county agent.
