

Chief '99.9 percent certain' he'll quit

Dimmitt Chief of Police Don Franklin is expected to resign today to take a position with a New York City-based corporation.

Franklin told the News he is "99.9 percent" certain he will accept a position with Littlefield Enterprise Corp. as executive security manager. He was looking over the operation Wednesday, and is expected to make a final decision either today or Friday.

"If I do take the position, I will be overseeing site security in the US and overseas," Franklin said. "It's really the opportunity of a lifetime, and I really just fell into it."

"If I do go ahead and resign, the resignation will probably be effective around May 1," Franklin continued. "My intention is to help the city as much as I can. I will stay as long as I can to help, but I just have to see what day they want me to be there."

Franklin will be based in LEC's Brownwood offices, and told the News he will be making more than twice his current salary of $20,870, including benefits.

Franklin has been Dimmitt's police chief since July, 1982.

"The needs of my family and financial obligations led me to make this decision in the first place," Franklin said in a prepared statement. "Words cannot express my gratitude to the citizens of Dimmitt for the support they have shown me and my family.

"Thanks to the efforts of the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen for their concern in making Dimmitt a better place to live and understanding the needs of the Police Dept.," Franklin's statement continued. "Thanks to City Manager Paul Catoe for his support and help in making me a better police manager, and helping build the best police force ever in Dimmitt."

"We sure won't find a better place to live," Franklin said. "The people here have been tremendous. We hate to leave with the friends and public support we have, but we can't afford to stay. We're not trying to get anyone in trouble with that, we just can't afford to stay. The salary, benefits and opportunity are tremendous, and I just don't think I can turn it down."

THE UNVEILING of the newest Texas Historical Marker in Castro County was performed Sunday afternoon east of Dimmitt on SH 86. Participating in the ceremony are (from left) Ray Cowser, who read the text, and Edwin "Goose" Ramey and Roger Haberer, who performed the unveiling.

PMHA establishing Lifeline program

Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary is asking for applications from those interested in participating in the new Lifeline project, an emergency response system for the homebound.

With the base system already installed in the hospital, the auxiliary will have 18 remote units ready for distribution sometime next month.

Subscribers to the system will receive a unit that plugs into an electrical outlet and is connected to the telephone (it must be a private line, not a party line). They also receive a personal help button that is worn on a chain around the neck or on a strap around the wrist. A signal device activated by the mouth will be available for those unable to use their hands.

In case of an emergency situation where the subscriber is unable to get to the phone, the help button is pressed, sending a signal to the phone unit, which automatically dials the nurses' station at the hospital.

The nurses will call the subscriber to see what is needed. If the subscriber cannot answer the phone, the nurses will call one of the subscriber's pre-selected responders to go to the subscriber's home and check on them. Responders are usually a next door neighbor, friend or relative of the subscriber. Ideally, they should live near by, and must have access to the subscriber's home.

When the responder arrives, he or she will press the reset button on the home unit, signalling the nurses that help has arrived. The nurses may then phone the subscriber's home to see what sort of help is needed, and whether an ambulance needs to be dispatched.

Each home unit also has a special feature that will call the hospital even if the subscriber is unconscious or otherwise unable to press the help button. A timer is set for a specified period of time, and if the reset button is not pressed or the phone not used within that period of time, the unit will automatically dial the base at the hospital.

The Lifeline unit works even if the subscriber's phone is off the hook, and will continue to function for 48 hours during a power failure. The unit may be switched off if the subscriber is going to be away from home for an extended period.

The system will operate 24 hours a day. Cost to subscribers will be $16 per month. The auxiliary is seeking possible subsidies for subscribers unable to afford the service. Additional units will be obtained as needed.

"This service is ideal for the elderly, paraplegics, or the epileptic — anyone who may need emergency help. Units will be distributed on a first come, first served basis to anyone in the county," an auxiliary spokesperson said. Some adjustments in the system are required for subscribers whose phone number would be a long distance call from the hospital.

Those interested in subscribing may send their name and address to Beral Hance, Box 1036, Dimmitt, 79027, or phone 647-5444. Call 647-4488 after 6 p.m. for more information.

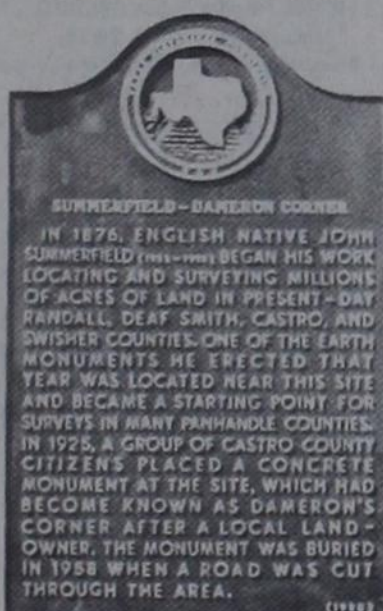

The auxiliary will be in charge of installing the devices, and will check them monthly to see that they are operating properly. Money for purchasing the system was provided through fund-raising projects of the auxiliary.

Historical marker dedicated Sunday

Over 75 people attended the dedication ceremonies Sunday afternoon for the Texas Historical Marker placed at the Summerfield-Dameron Corner in Castro County five miles east of Dimmitt on SH 86.

Presiding at the unveiling was Ray Cowser, Hereford attorney and the son of former Castro County Attorney Mark Cowser. The unveiling was performed by Edwin "Goose" Ramey and Roger Haberer. John Alldredge delivered the dedication address.

Information on the site states that the corner has been important in surveying since 1876, when early surveyor John Summerfield built an earth monument eight feet across and three feet high as a survey site. It became a beginning point not only for surveys in Castro County, but also for the counties of Deaf Smith, Swisher, Randall and others.

In 1925, when the mound was almost eroded away by wind and rain and trampled by cattle, a group of county residents placed a three-foot high concrete monument where the post had been. A marble slab was imbedded in the top of the monument, stating the significance of the site.

"Goose" Ramey was a leader of the citizens' group, which also included then County Judge Ray E. Sheffy, ex-sheriff

In case you don't read Texas Monthly magazine (and if you don't, you're missing out), its April edition contains a wide-ranging compendium of "The Best of Texas," including such as the Best Pie Shop, Best Margarita, Best Trail Ride, Best Jail, Best Yuppie Pizza, Best Mexican Breakfast, Best General Store, etc.

Included in the entertaining list is this one: Best Municipal Bumper Sticker: "Dimmitt, Dammit."

I didn't know there were any still around. I haven't seen one on a local bumper in years. The complete wording of the original was "I'm From Dim-

Her parents, Kay and Martin Young, lived here several years ago. They live in Sunray now. Ramonda told us her grandmother, Mrs. Joe (Johnnie) Young is in very poor condition in a hospital in Missouri. She had another massive stroke recently. The Joe Youngs also used to live here.

Sunday Ramonda Young visited her great-grandmother Hazel McCormick at Canterbury Villa.

Easter Sunday Dan, Oma

Also visited was her granddaughter Karen in Hayward, Calif. and a trip by BART train to San Francisco. There were many sights enjoyed and included a ride on the famed cable cars around the steep hills. Regene drove her back last week and they enjoyed their last "sightseeing" stop on the way in Old Town Albuquerque.

OLD Faithful is getting tired. Yellowstone's famous geyser, which has spouted every 69 minutes for almost a century, now makes visitors wait as long as 100 minutes between eruptions, reports National Wildlife magazine. An earthquake is partly to blame, say scientists, but so are tourists who persist in dropping objects into the geyser, thus reducing its water supply.

"I DON'T SEE ANYTHING"

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY TO SEE THROUGH A CAMERA

Did you ever try to look through a camera from the front side? Yes, most of us have . . . out of curiosity . . . but we would not even consider trying to take a picture in such a manner. There are many though, who go through life never giving themselves a chance to really see God. In order to see God, one must look at him through faith. Attend church regularly, seek God where others can help direct you in your search for God.

"So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Hereford investigator killed in wreck

A 33-year-old investigator for the Deaf Smith Co. District Attorney's office was killed Thursday in a one-vehicle accident just north of Dimmitt.

Terry Lloyd Colston, of Hereford, was pronounced dead at about 3:10 a.m. Thursday at Plains Memorial Hospital after the accident on US 385, 1.1 miles north of the city.

According to DPS trooper Ronald Morgan, Colston's car left the northbound lane, hit a traffic sign and rolled over 1½ times before crashing into a telephone pole.

The pole crushed the bottom side of the car, and members of the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. were called in to use the "Jaws of Life" rescue unit to free Colston from the wreckage.

The accident occurred at about 2:10 a.m.

Services for Colston were held Saturday in Hereford.

TERRY COLSTON'S 1983 OLDSMOBILE

More about Workshop . . .

invited to attend. There will be no charge for the workshop, however because there will be hand-out materials available, merchants are asked to call the chamber and confirm reservations for their employees by April 24.

The workshop is designed to help increase sales and profitability through customer relations. Dr. Greg Taylor of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will conduct the workshop. Dr. Taylor said that although the impact of the workshop is most evident in the area of retail sales, the principles covered also apply directly to any organization that deals with the public on a daily basis.

Dr. Taylor said the workshop will cover information that should help merchants reduce the loss of customers, gain new customers and increase the satisfaction levels of current customers.

Among the topics to be covered in the workshop are: Where do lost customers go? What do customers want and need? What constitutes a service plan? How can sales be multiplied? Can an angry customer be handled successfully?

The workshop should require approximately two hours, and Dimmitt business personnel may attend either session. All Dimmitt business firms are invited to participate.

Establishing your goals is the first step toward realizing them.

Chamber pushing more individual memberships

Dimmitt's Chamber of Commerce is looking to increase its individual membership rolls to get more persons involved in Chamber activities.

In the past, the local Chamber has emphasized business memberships, but that has led to difficulties in getting non-owners/managers involved in the Chamber.

"We want to make it known that individuals, and farmers, can join the Chamber, not just businesses," said local Chamber manager Delores Heller. "Anything we can do to make our Chamber stronger is going to help enhance the quality of life in Dimmitt, and with more individual members, it gives more people a chance to take part in building a better number of employees, the square feet of the building the business occupies, and the annual gross volume of the business.

"An individual might not be able to get something done on their own," Heller continued, "but, maybe they can get something done through the combined efforts of the Chamber."

"It's like (Past Chamber President and current membership chairman) George Sides said at our last board meeting," Heller said. "Anything we can do to help broaden the tax base is going to help with our individual tax burden. We're always trying to broaden our tax base."

Individual memberships are $60 annually, while business memberships are based on a minimum annual "fair share" formula that is based on the

AC to honor two local men

Two Dimmitt residents will be recognized at the Amarillo College Honor Convocation April 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the Concert Hall Theater on the Washington Street Campus.

Rodney J. Schulte, Route 2, Dimmitt will receive the outstanding major award for diesel and industrial engine mechanics; and Steven K. Birdwell, 714 West Cleveland, Dimmitt, the outstanding major award for electronic engineering technology.

Outstanding major awards are presented to students selected by department chairman and faculty on the basis of academic standing, growth while at Amarillo College, work with the department, and potential for contribution to major area.

Dr. Nicholas D. Gennett, Vice President and Dean of Student Development and Instructional Support, will be the moderator for the convocation.

REPORTS of child abuse and neglect to the Texas Department of Human Resources (TDHR) increased 9% in 1984 over 1983. Reports have risen 30% since 1981; Protective Services staff has increased 3% since 1979.

Lapins new WSC president

Former Dimmitt Amstar plant manager Doug Lapins has resigned his position as executive vice-president of Spreckels Sugar Co. to accept the presidency of Western Sugar Corp.

With Lapins' resignation, George Lamberth, who succeeded Lapins in Dimmitt, has advanced to the executive vice-president's position at Spreckels.

Western Sugar Corp. is a subsidiary of Tate and Lyle, based in the United Kingdom. Formerly known as Great Western Sugar Corp., WSC owns six beet-sugar plants and is based in Denver, Colo. Lapins will be hiring his own staff in the next few days.

Amstar recently sold its Dimmitt plant to American Fructose Corp., a partially-owned subsidiary of American-Maize Products Corp.

Lions establish new scholarship

A $300 scholarship will be donated by the Dimmitt Lions Club this year to the Salutatorian of Dimmitt High School.

The Lions, at their regular Tuesday meeting, voted to award the scholarship each year to the second-ranking individual in the graduating class at DHS.

The Lions also voted to provide airfare for a local youngster to attend a special summer school for sight-handicapped young people in Austin.

SOIL MANGEMENT FOR DRYLAND CROPS

Because drought during the growing season is the biggest cause of reduced yields in Texas, water conservation through soil management is critical. Farmers should follow soil and crop management practices that increase the water holding capacity of soil, says an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. Organic matter aids the soil in holding water, it decreases runoff and improves aeration, so crop residue management is important. Conservation tillage practices also help conserve soil and water along with contour farming and furrow diking. Chiseling and subsoiling can reduce soil compaction to increase water infiltration and storage.

Sunnyside By Teeny Bowden

Lyle Loudder and Tammy Graham of Muleshoe were married in Dimmitt Monday morning. They will make their home in the community, in the Doug Loudder house, recently vacated by Lance and Terri Loudder, Lacy and Jake. Lyle farms with his dad, and also has the Bolinger place rented. Tammy will be honored with a bridal shower in fellowship hall of the Sunnyside Baptist Church Saturday (April 20) from 2:30 until 3:30 p.m. Everyone is invited.

.20 of an inch of rain was recorded for Thursday, but there was more rain farther north. Eules Waggoner received .75 of an inch. The tornado warnings Thursday and Friday nights recalled, in the minds of at least a few of us, the April 12 tornado of 1960 which devastated the community.

Noah Spencer had his check-up and six-week tubing change, also an EKG in Lubbock Monday.

L. B. Bowden had his monthly check-up in Amarillo Wednesday with his dialysis doctor, and had an EKG with the cardiologist. He was very pleased with the good reading with the CardioBeeper, but was not sure what caused the irregularity.

April Guy is still weak and tired from her last chemotherapy because her counts are still down, but she is recovering as expected.

Rev. Bentley Gwyn preached a weekend revival at Fieldton Baptist Church. Hershel Wilson led the singing. Rev. E. D. Morgan filled the pulpit for the pastor Sunday. His daughter, Glenda, and Dr. James Sims, Kristi, Matt and Tim of Dimmitt were visitors in the morning services. Glenda and the children all visited in the evening services. Rev. Morgan has called Dimmitt his home since his retirement from 24 years as the Director of Plains Baptist Assembly near Floydada. He is away much of the time with a group called Baptist Retirees, who help build churches and work on encampment grounds all over the state.

Teeny Bowden attended the dedication of the Summerfield-Dameron Corner marker east of Dimmitt Sunday afternoon.

R. V. and Bess Bills returned home Tuesday from a visit with relatives. They spent two nights in Wichita Falls, and two nights in Dallas, where they attended the 50th anniversary of R. V.'s brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bills in Carlton last Saturday. They attended the church services with her sister and husband at Shiloh last Sunday, spent two nights in Klondike, and spent Monday night in Paris.

Jo Eddy Riley entertained the Dimmitt Bridge Club in her home Thursday afternoon.

Lynn Hyman played in a softball tournament in Clovis this weekend. Janice accompanied him. Marshall and Kay King, Lance and Lincoln attended the games Sunday and also went to the zoo.

Ezell and Verba Sadler spent the week at Hubbard Creek Lake working.

Ray Joe and Jo Eddy Riley, Kevin and Jodie visited in Dimmitt Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Don Ethington.

Juanita McGill and Jo Eddy Riley attended the Olton Area Luncheon sponsored by the Olton Chamber of Commerce last Thursday.

Alton and Betty Loudder fished at Lake Victoria and visited this week with Tom and Yvonne Messer of Houston.

Nazareth By Virge Gerber, 945-2669

Open House was held Sunday afternoon at the Senior Citizens Center for retired Father Stanley Crocchiola of Canadian. Many friends enjoyed visiting with him and were happy to see him looking so well. He was at the home of Leonard and Rosemary Wilhelm for several days.

Rev. Harold Waldow presented a papal blessing to several parishioners after mass Sunday morning. Tony and Mary Gerber received one in recognition of their 55th wedding anniversary, Ella Hoelting, Dora Albracht and Christina Hoelting received one in recognition of the church work they have done for many years.

A Ping Pong tournament was enjoyed this weekend. Winners were Charles McLean of Dimmitt 1st, Ralph Albracht 2nd, Stanley Hoelting 3rd and Sid Gerber 4th. Proceeds will go to the Nazareth Hall Fund.

A baby shower honoring Janice Backus of Amarillo was held Sunday afternoon. Attending from here were Joan Backus, Louise Braddock, Dorothy Schulte, Marilyn Wilson, Helen Backus, Catherine Huseman and Lenora Braddock.

Sisters Adrian, Anita and Josetta spent the weekend in Fort Smith, Ark. at St. Scholastica Convent. They stopped in Amarillo on their way home to visit with Sister Celestine Bellinghausen at St. Anthony's Hospital where she is recuperating from brain surgery. Her room number is 573.

Dolly Schulte is a patient in St. Anthony's Hospital. She will have shoulder surgery Tuesday. We wish her well.

Many relatives and friends attended the wedding Saturday evening of Cathy Rossi and Mike Smith at the Church of the Holy Spirit in Tulia.

RWSWCD banquet set for Friday

The annual Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District Awards Banquet will be held Friday at 7 p.m. at the Castro County Expo Building in Dimmitt.

The meal will consist of roast beef with all the trimmings, and will be cooked by local businessmen. Entertainment will be furnished by the Singing Farmers.

Chairman of the Running Water District Board of Directors, Clarence Behrends, asks that everyone come to honor the District's winners Friday night. Conservation Farmer of the Year and Conservation Homemaker of the Year will be recognized, along with essay and poster contest winners.

Tickets will be $5 each and may be purchased at the Soil Conservation Service office at 3rd and Bedford, or may be purchased at the door Friday night.

Field day will examine grazing

The merits of rotational grazing in the Rolling Plains of Texas will be examined at the April 25 field day of the Texas Experimental Ranch near Throckmorton.

The program begins at 9:30 a.m., said Dr. Rod Heitschmidt, associate professor of range management with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The ranch is 11 sections on the Throckmorton Ranch of the Swen R. Swenson Cattle Co. It is on US Hwys. 183 and 283, 10 miles north of Throckmorton and 20 miles south of Seymour.

"Particular emphasis will be given to the do's and don'ts of managing a rotational grazing system," Heitschmidt said.

Speakers will include Dr. Earl C. Gilmore, resident director of research at the TAES center at Vernon; Dr. Bill Pinchak, TAES range animal nutritionist; Heitschmidt, and range management research associates John Walker and Steve Dowhower. All are on the staff of the experimental ranch.

Other speakers will include Dr. Mort Kothmann, professor of grazing management and range nutrition; Dr. Jerry Stuth, associate professor of range management, and Dr. Robert Knight, assistant professor of watershed management, all from Texas A&M.

Also on the program are Dr. Nelson Adams, livestock specialist with the TAES at Vernon; Dr. Richard Connor, professor of agricultural economics, and Dr. Wayne Green, department of animal science, Texas A&M.

A Dutch treat lunch will be served at noon, Heitschmidt said.

Since its inception in 1957, the Texas Experimental Ranch has conducted research on livestock responses to rates of stocking, types of grazing systems and levels of winter supplementation of feed; long-term vegetation response to grazing treatments; effects of stocking and grazing systems on rate of water infiltration and sediment, production and calf growth and development.

The ranch is a cooperative venture of ranchers, businessmen and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, an arm of the Texas A&M University System. Pasture and livestock are provided by the Swenson Land and Cattle Co., TAES provides personnel and funds for research, and citizens formed the Texas Experimental Ranch Committee to raise private funds for construction of facilities. The committee also serves as a lay advisory board.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service has provided a variety of services over the years to small communities. Currently, one of their most requested programs is in the area of community development.

Dr. Greg Taylor is a Community Development Specialist with the Extension Service, headquartered in Amarillo. Dr. Taylor's work is oriented toward analysis of local economies emphasizing major trends in, and the relationship between, the agricultural, local government and retail/service sectors of the economy. Dr. Taylor also conducts specific workshops, seminars and other educational programs designed to assist local governments and individual businesses cope with changes in their local economies.

Dr. Taylor has been to Dimmitt in the past and has conducted a series of economic studies for our community.

THE forces of wind and water are not the only causes of soil erosion, says National Wildlife magazine. For instance, off-road vehicles, like the "dune buggy," have scoured more soil off parts of California than nature will replace in 1,000 years.

He will return to conduct a Customer Relations Workshop on Monday, April 29. The workshop is designed to assist local businesses in improving their customer relations. He will discuss such questions such as: Why do customers quit? How can I keep from losing customers? How can I gain new customers? How can I make my present customers more satisfied?

Two workshop sessions are planned at 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce. Merchants and their employees may attend either session.

Fees for the workshop will be paid by the Castro County Economic Development Commission; however, because instructional materials will be provided, we need to know how many will attend each session. All Dimmitt business firms are invited to attend and we ask you to call the Chamber by April 24 to confirm your reservations. Your early call will help us in our planning.

We think that this is a good opportunity for all who do business with the public to get customer relations training. The workshop is sponsored by the CCEDC, the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce, and the Extension Service.

their money is spent. "The breakdown of how ACS funds are spent in Texas represents one of the best returns of the dollar that I know of," Foskey said. "For every dollar we receive, we realize $1.11. The extra 11 cents reflects increased research allocations to Texas by the National Society."

"The ACS is currently sponsoring research investigations in 12 major Texas hospitals, medical schools and universities totaling over $6 million," Foskey said. "Because Texas has so many research institutions, the National Society allocates additional funds in the state."

One problem the ACS is facing is a cutback in federal funds.

"The federal cutbacks are going to hurt, actually hinder, research," said County ACS

President Doris Lindsey. "With fewer federal dollars, we'll be going backwards. That's why we need to raise more money in our county campaign here, and nationwide. We need more volunteers, and we need everyone's support."

MIKE FOSKEY (SEATED) IS THE CHAIRMAN for the 1985 Castro County Crusade for the American Cancer Society. The local chapter will be attempting to raise over $7,000 to aid the ACS prevention and research efforts. Some of the county volunteers who will be calling on county residents this Sunday include Ysleta Ball, local ACS chapter president Doris Lindsey, Jonalyn Jones and Mary Lynn Olvera.

MAGPIE birds follow one of the more unusual displays of bird behavior, says International Wildlife magazine. After the death of a fellow magpie, the flock assembles, then one by one, or in groups of two or three, the magpies swoop down to peck at the dead companion. According to an Idaho State University researcher they conduct these elaborate funeral "rites" to find out what killed the magpie and to see which of them died, so they will know how the death will affect the pecking order.

CUFUPU set April 27

"Anytime we get a north wind, we get a lot of litter all over town from the area around Taylor's," Mrs. Hopson said. "We want to have a concentrated effort in that area. We also need a concentrated effort around the baseball parks. (Kids, Inc. President) Jerry Stump has promised us a lot of help around there."

"We'll start with a kick-off breakfast on April 27 at 7 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church, and we want to encourage our volunteers to give four hours that day. We encourage everyone to come eat and work on our community projects or on individual projects."

"First Aid in the Home" was the subject of the program Mitzi Brockman, R.N., presented to the Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary at the April meeting.

Brockman gave pointers for home emergency care.

The annual awards brunch and installation of new officers will be held May 15 at 10 a.m. in Rhoads Memorial Library in Dimmitt.

Chairpersons Willa Mae Sadler and Sue Miller reported that over 1,000 hours have gone into the making of the quilt.

Educators honor two

June Parker and Sue Broderon, both teachers at Dimmitt High School, were recently initiated into Phi Delta Kappa, an honorary organization for outstanding educators.

Lombard resigns

He was a sporting goods salesman. No coaching experience.

He was a pretty fair college basketball player, and had grown up in a state that is as basketball-mad as Castro County — Indiana.

But all he had done since leaving Wayland Baptist University was sell sporting goods.

But Nazareth was in a pinch. It was late August, and girls basketball coach George Cox had just resigned to go to Carthage High School. And the only guy around was this sporting goods salesman.

His wife was a head coach at Hale Center. Maybe something would rub off.

Seven years later, that sporting goods salesman is leaving a good-sized commission check behind to tackle a new challenge.

Joe Lombard, who won 92.5% of all the games he coached at Nazareth, is leaving to take the girls head coaching job at Canyon.

"These past seven years have been the best seven years of my life," Lombard said Monday. "There were no problems (at Nazareth). It was a very difficult decision to make."

"I have many good friends, and two really good ball clubs for next year," Lombard continued. "I have had many second thoughts, but I just felt like this was a time in my career where a change was maybe necessary. I've had opportunities every year to go to another high school or take a college job, but Canyon bent over backwards."

Canyon had been searching for a new coach since February when Danny Dawson resigned. In his new position, Lombard will be making $31,500, be in charge of girls' athletics in grades 7-12, and have no classroom responsibilities.

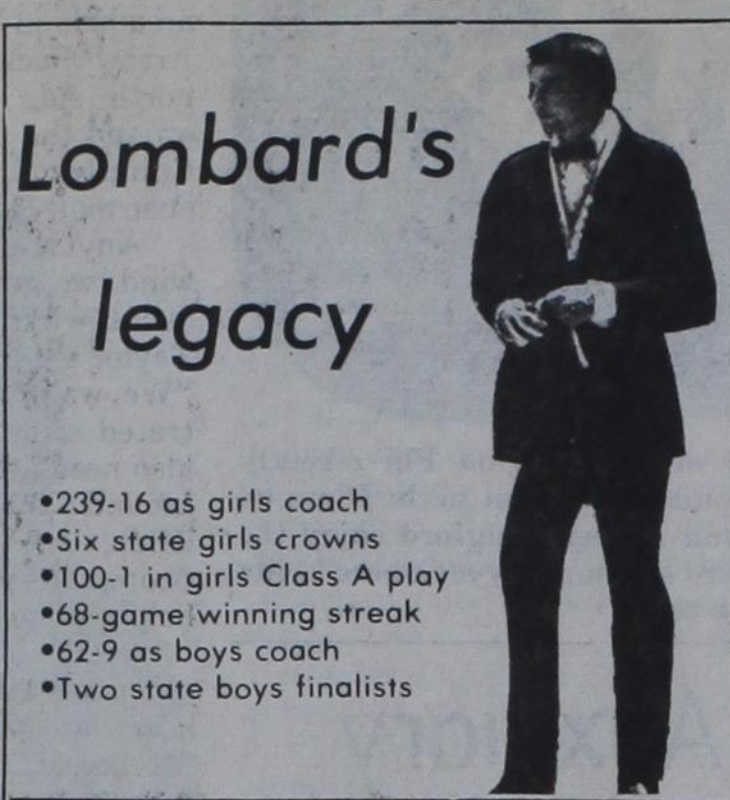

"Canyon really bent over backwards," Lombard said. "They've mapped out a program that should be conducive to winning for many years. I will have eight assistant coaches, and will be able to work with all of the junior high and high school programs. We have an opportunity to establish the premier program in the state."

"I knew it was going to take something like that for me to leave," Lombard said. "Nazareth is the best Class A job in the state. I received a nice raise, but that was not the most important thing."

During the last two seasons, Lombard has had to serve double duty as head coach for the Swiftettes and Swifts, and that took some of the fun out of the job.

"We've been so successful that it wasn't as much fun as it had been," Lombard said. "It's not anything against the kids, but coaching both teams took time away from working with the junior high program, and I wasn't doing as good a job there as I could have."

"Another problem was the lack of competition in our district," Lombard added. "We had to look forward to getting into the playoffs before we would find the tough competition we

Lombard's legacy

- 62-9 as boys coach
- Two state boys finalists were looking forward to. We'll be up against Levelland and other tough schools every night in district (1-4A)."

One regret that Lombard has is that he can't take some of his Nazareth players along.

"There are some kids I would really like to coach another year," Lombard said. "I regret not being able to do that, but the two teams ought to have a good chance to win state championships, and, at the same time, that should make it easier on whoever coaches the teams to win right off the bat and be successful."

"Whoever coaches the teams" could be current assistants Sandy Oliver and Johnny Hampton. Lombard told the News he has recommended them for the head jobs here (Nazareth), and I've given them an opportunity to go with me to Canyon. Both of them would do a great job if they stayed here, better than having someone from outside come in. It would be better for the two teams with Sandy and Johnny coaching them.

"I guarantee we wouldn't have been as strong these past few years without them," Lombard added.

"I'm grateful to Nazareth for giving me the opportunity to coach here," Lombard said. "We've made so many friends that it is difficult to leave. I'm leaving as friends, and there are no bad feelings on either side. This has been a great place to work, and the school board and administration have allowed me to have a program, and they've always backed me up. There are so many people I want to thank for our success."

Naz quartet named all-state

Four Nazareth Swiftettes and outgoing coach Joe Lombard were named to the 1985 Amarillo Globe-News all-state teams announced Sunday.

Leona Gerber capped her basketball career by being named Class A Player of the Year for the second straight year by the newspaper, which names the all-state teams each year.

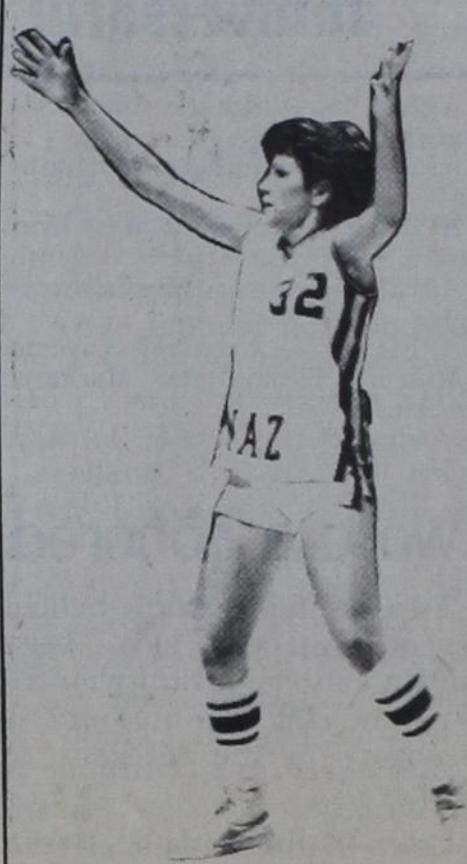

Joining Gerber on the first team is teammate Ramona Heiman, who was named to the second team by the Globe-News after her 1983 freshman season.

Senior LaDawn Schmucker was named to the second team, while junior Kelly Schilling was named to the third unit.

Lombard was named Class A Coach of the Year.

"We did pretty well," Lombard said in reference to the all-state selections. "I thought we would have two, but you never know who they're going to vote for. There's no doubt Leona opportunity. That's a great tribute to her hard work and dedication to make that great a turnaround in just one year. Her performance was a key to our success in being as good, as a team, if not better, than the year before."

and Ramona deserved to be on the first team — they are the two premier players in Class A, maybe any class.

"LaDawn was very deserving of her second team honor," Lombard continued. "She didn't play her best during the last two or three games of the season, but over all of the season she was outstanding."

"Kelly's being named to the third team was very gratifying for her and me both," Lombard added. "The year before she was just a part-time player, then, the next year, she makes the all-state team on her first

Raiders, Cowgirls move into Kids Inc. finals

If you're on the Raiders in the Dimmitt Kids, Inc. basketball program, you're in the finals Saturday at the Dimmitt Middle School gym.

In three of the four divisions, the Raiders have guaranteed themselves spots in Saturday's finals, beginning with the minor girls at 10 a.m., where the 6-1 Cowgirls have won a spot in the finals.

The major girls' Raiders (10-0) is the only team with an undefeated record in the program. Tonight at 6, the Maidens (7-3) will face the 5-5 Cardinals. The winner will face the Wildcats (5-5) Friday at 6 p.m. with the winner playing the Raiders at 12 noon Saturday. The Thursday and Friday elimination games will be played at the DHS gym.

The Demons (5-2) will meet the Nuggets (5-3) tonight at 6 at the DMS gym in a minor girls' elimination contest, with the winner playing the 5-3

Wildcats tomorrow at 6 p.m. The winner of the Friday contest will play the Cowgirls Saturday morning.

In minor boys, the Trojans (4-6) will face the Longhorns (4-6) at 7 p.m. at the DMS gym. The 'Horns upset the 8-2

Smurfs Tuesday night in overtime. The winner of tonight's contest will face the 8-2 Mavericks tomorrow at 7 p.m. at the DMS gym, with the winner of the Friday game facing the 8-2 Raiders Saturday morning at 11.

The Major Boys' Cougars (5-5) will take on the Mavericks (7-3) at 7 p.m. tonight at the DHS gym, with the winner facing the 7-3 Bears Friday at 7 p.m. The winner will tackle the 9-1 Raiders Saturday at 1 p.m.

After the finals, ribbons will be presented to all participants in the program. The ceremony will begin at about 2 p.m. at the DMS gym, and all teams should be present and in uniform to receive their ribbons.

Baseball forms now available

Registration forms are now available for the 1985 Dimmitt Kids, Inc. baseball season at several local businesses.

The forms may be picked up at the businesses and returned in the boxes, or turned in to Jerry Stump at Farmers Union Insurance or John Brooks at the Castro County News.

Fees will be $15 per player this season.

"The fee is up from $12.50 last year because of vandalism and a break-in over the winter at the baseball complex," said Stump, Kids Inc. president. "We lost well over $1,000 in equipment and in damages."

"We want to encourage all youngsters to sign up for our Tee Ball, Mustang, Bronco and Babe Ruth programs," Stump said. "We are going to be hosting the Mustang Sectional tournament beginning July 22, and we will have at least one all-star team from here entered in the tournament. We will have other all-star teams, of course, and plenty of games during our regular season, which will start about May 13."

Stump said the deadline for returning the forms is April 30, and that fees should be submitted to the player's coaches (not along with the form) before the first game of the season.

"We will also need some more coaches and umpires," Stump said. "Anyone who wants to help can contact me, Brooks, or Francis Acker."

District meets set Saturday

Nazareth's boys and girls teams will be among the favorites, while Dimmitt and Hart teams will also be fighting for regional berths in district track meets this weekend.

The Swifts grabbed the team title at the Sudan Invitational last weekend, edging Sudan by eight points. The Swifts will carry several threats into their district meet at Boys Ranch Saturday, including Russell Hoelting in the sprints, Chris Gerber in the 400 and discus, Billy Huseman and Billy Steffens in the discus and shot put, Ricky Backus in the hurdles and long jump, and Alan Birkenfeld in the distance races along with solid relay teams.

The NHS girls will also pack threats into most of the events at Boys Ranch Saturday. The Swiftettes finished third Saturday at Sudan after taking a close win in Dimmitt's Bobcat Relays two weeks ago.

Top threats for the Swiftettes include Leona Gerber in the mile, CeCe Kern in the 3,200, Kelly Schilling in the 800, and the 800- and 1,600-meter relays.

The Bobcats and Bobbies will be facing tough battles to win regional berths at the District 2-3A meet in Floydada.

"The team race should be a battle between Muleshoe and Idalou," said DHS track coach Roy Dudgeon. "Muleshoe is going to be real tough in the distances, especially, and Idalou is going to have great depth all the way through.

"Our top people in the boys should be Joe Alvarez (1,600 and 3,200 meters), Woody Glass (hurdles), Milton Carrasco (800 meters), Pat McDonald (400 meters), Mark Coker (long jump) and our relay teams," Dudgeon said.

"Our girls should have some success," Dudgeon continued. "Stephanie Killingsworth (200 meters), Cara Odum (400 meters), Stephanie Ryan (hurdles) and the relay teams should be strong."

Hart's teams will be running at Abernathy Saturday, and will feature Ronnie Rodriguez, one of the area leaders in the 300 intermediate hurdles, Lupe Ramirez in the 3,200 meters and the 400-meter relay team.

Ladies play at Farwell

Saturday, four teams from Dimmitt participated in the Farwell Country Club's Earlybird Ladies' Partnership Scramble, with two of the teams winning places.

In the third flight, Jo Hamilton and Shirley Underwood took first place with a score of 87, while Betty McClure and Mozelle Lilley took second with 88.

Playing in the championship flight were Betty Butler and her partner Sue Winborn of Pampa. Dolores Baldrige and Neva Hickey played in the fourth flight.

The tournament is the first of the year on the ladies' calendar.

The wheat is as pretty as it's ever been, thanks to the heavy rains we received March 21-22.

However, wheat rust could seriously cut the yields, Extension Agronomist Bob Berry and County Agent Seth Ralston warn.

"I've seen wheat rust every fall for the 22 years that I've been in this country," Dr. Berry said, "but only this year have we seen it over-winter. It has a potential of doing considerable damage to an excellent crop. In Central Texas in 1982, wheat rust cost them half of their yield."

Right now is the time for wheat farmers to make the decision on whether to spray for the fungus, Dr. Berry said.

"I think that if a person has a potential for a 50- to 60-bushel yield, he sure ought to seriously consider spraying," he said.

The problem is that if we get the kind of weather from here on in that's best for the wheat — including a heavy rain within the next week or two — that's the kind of weather that also promotes the wheat rust growth.

"If we can control the rust, we've got a beautiful crop," Dr. Berry said. "The stands are good, the moisture has been good, weed control has been generally good, and another good rain could make this one of the best crops on record."

Our newspaper doesn't have any secretaries. We have an office manager, an associate editor, a paste-up artist, a typesetter, an advertising assistant and compositor ... but no secretaries.

It saves a little money during Secretaries Week.

It's always kinda awkward when the CVAE girls ask if I'd like to buy corsages for the secretaries in the office, and I tell them, "No, we don't have any secretaries," and they look around at all these women with all these keyboards, then look at me like I'm some kind of cheapskate ...

Believe me, if they ever proclaimed a National Paste-up Artists Week, I'd buy Paula a corsage in a minute — or at least clip a pretty one for her from one of our art books ...

Herb pills can be dangerous

Herbs will add flavor and variety to meals, but herb pills and formulas are not special remedies for nutrition or health problems, and may be dangerous, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

Herbal remedies have been touted as good for any number of problems from arthritis to obesity, says Mary K. Sweeten. Often sold in health food stores or by people who sell vitamins out of their homes, they are claimed to be "natural" formulas.

"If these formulas contained nothing but herbs, they would probably be harmless, so consumers would simply be spending their money for diet aids which have no nutritional value," she maintains.

However, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) recently recalled an herb pill supplement product because it contained three powerful drugs in potentially dangerous doses, although the label listed only herbs as ingredients.

Screening is set

An early childhood screening has been set for next Thursday (April 25) from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Dimmitt Middle School library. There is no charge.

Pre-kindergarten age children will be tested for any indications of learning problems so that remedial work can be started as soon as possible.

A child with learning problems is not necessarily unintelligent. Most children with learning disabilities have at least average, and often above average, intelligence.

Signs to look for that may indicate a learning problem include a child who is extremely daring, easily distracted, or a discipline problem.

Other characteristics to look for are irritability shortly before or after meals, inability to sit still during meal times, a craving for sweets, or excessive thirst.

Awkwardness, frequent tripping or bumping into things, tip-toe walking, being a late walker, having trouble learning to skip, or constant touching of surroundings may also be indicators.

A child who "tunes out" his surroundings, has a short attention span, has frequent headaches, speaks abnormally loud or soft, was late in learning to talk, has difficulty to understand speech, or has difficulty naming familiar objects or following directions may show a need for help. It may be something to consider if a child is easily frustrated, is inconsistent in performance of tasks, or is easily tired.

Any of these symptoms should not cause alarm, but if a number of them are present in the same child, it would definitely indicate a need for screening to determine if learning problems are present.

Social Security in Castro County

By TERRY J. CLEMENTS

By TERRY J. CLEMENTS

This is the time of year when many local area farmers hire their summer help and they should know the rules concerning social security coverage.

It is important that farm employers keep the proper records and report their employees' earnings for social security purposes.

Employers should record their employee's social security number, name, address, wages paid, and their own employer identification number. This information is needed so that if reports are required, they can be promptly and accurately made.

If the worker's wages are covered, then social security taxes must be withheld. Agricultural wages are covered if the employee is paid $150 or more in cash wages during the year. Earnings are also covered if the employee is paid on a time basis — by the hour, day, week, or month — and works on 20 or more days during the year.

Should the employer withhold social security taxes from an employee's wages and then find out that the wages are not covered because neither test is met, the social security tax should be refunded to the employee.

Wages covered by social security should be reported by the farm employer after the end of the year in which they were paid.

More information about coverage of agricultural labor can be obtained at the social security office at 1401-B W. 5th Street, Plainview, or call us at 293-9623.

Police Calls

A high speed chase in which speeds of over 100 mph were reached started Sunday night in downtown Nazareth and ended outside of Hart, according to DPS reports.

The Nazareth City Marshall attempted to stop a 1980 Chevy Camaro for speeding in the city, but the vehicle fled. The DPS joined the chase as the car travelled the road between Nazareth and Hart, then cut across to Swisher County. Back in Castro County, the car proceeded to FM 145, then turned off on some county dirt roads, then back to 145, where it was finally blockaded near Hart.

Officially clocked at 111 mph, the driver, a 21-year-old Dimmitt man, was ticketed for speeding and for fleeing a peace officer. The Nazareth City Marshall also issued six additional citations for various infractions. A passenger in the car was charged with being a drunk pedestrian.

"It could have been more dangerous than it turned out, but we didn't encounter much traffic along the way," a DPS trooper said. "He was mainly a danger to himself."

Wayward U-Haul trailers were spotted in Dimmitt April 9 by an Amarillo representative of the company, Wayne Bevers.

Bevers told police he had seen a trailer that looked like one belonging to his company. Investigation at the location, the 400 block of Southeast Third, turned up a Dimmitt man who claimed ownership of the trailer and also two others. He showed police a bill of sale for them from an Abernathy man. However, company identifying marks were still attached to the trailers.

Bevers said that the company seldom sells the trailers, running them until they are deemed unrepairable and then using them for parts. The regional office of the company is sending authorization to the police to release the trailers to a company representative.

Criminal mischief was common during the past week, with a damaged mailbox, slashed tire and dented car on the list.

Randy Weaver told police Sunday that the antenna of his car had been broken off and there was a dent on the hood, as well as footprints on the roof and back of the car. He estimated total damages at $200. He had left the car parked at his parents' home at 1514 Ruskin Circle in Dimmitt. The damage is thought to have occurred during the past two weeks.

L. W. Jordan of 401 NW 4th in Dimmitt told police April 10 that a tire on his car had been cut at least five times. It happened sometime between 6:30 and 7:35 p.m. while the car was parked at his home.

Monday night Frances Anes of 507 SW 2nd told police that someone had apparently run over her mailbox, which had been mounted on a heavy steel post about 8-10 inches from the curb. Tracks indicated it was a vehicle with mud grip tires.

Last Thursday Joe Anderson reported to police that a CB radio was missing from the trunk of his car parked at 702 W. Dulin. He said that he had given his car keys to two men who were buying some car speakers from him about three weeks ago. The speakers were stored in the car's trunk. About a week ago Anderson noticed that the radio was also missing.

Two fender-benders during the week were attributed to improper backing.

April 10 Francisca Ibarra, 35, of Hart was cited for improper backing when her 1978 Chevy pickup struck a 1983 Oldsmobile driven by Stephanie Love, 49, of Dimmitt. Ibarra was backing from a parking lot and struck the driver's side of Love's vehicle, which was parked at the time. No injuries were reported. Love's vehicle had moderate damage.

Friday two cars backing from opposite sides of the street in the 400 block of Northwest Third met in the middle of the street. A 1981 Ford driven by Sylvia Deleon, 28, of Dimmitt, had no damage, while the 1974 Chevrolet driven by Maria Avila, 19, of Hart, suffered slight damage on the left back. No ticket was issued.

Five Lubbock men were stopped Saturday night, and the driver charged with DWI, and the passenger charged with public intoxication (PI).

Sunday, a car was stopped for repeated failure to dim its lights. A license check showed the driver was wanted on a Hereford warrant for theft by check and the passenger was wanted on a Hereford warrant for violation of probation.

J. A. Johnson, ex-County Clerk Kenneth E. Turner, 1925-era owner of the land at the site, Sam H. Cooper, and his son Bill Cooper, hotel owner John Bell, and County Attorney Mark Cowsert. Cowsert's grandson, Roger Haberer, who was three at the time the monument was placed, left his handprint in the wet concrete.

In 1958, a road was proposed in the area, so the marker was buried below ground level. Today there is nothing to see at the site, but the "Summerfield Hub" has been preserved throughout the years.

Among the out-of-county guests attending were Mrs. Gertrude Williams of Hale Center, a member of the Hale County Historical Commission, and her son Carl Joe Williams, Hale County surveyor; Ruth Draper and Manuel Ayers of Plainview, members of the Hale County Commission; Margaret Schroeter of Hereford, member of the Deaf Smith County Historical Commission; Mrs. Ray Cowsert of Hereford, Decima Beene of Friona, and Mrs. Bessie Saunders of Brownfield; Mrs. Roger Haberer, Phillip Haberer, Mr. and Mrs. Davey Haberer, Mark and Ryan, Camille Haberer Tipton, and Sarah Tipton, all of Earth; Wynona Day of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Noland of Summerfield; and Marilee Cooper Elledge of White Deer and Virgie Eva Cooper Gibson of Amarillo, sisters of Elsea Cooper Maxwell, all daughters of Sam Cooper.

The News captured third place in "Spot News Picture," "Special Edition," and "Feature Stories."

The Spot News Picture featured Kenny Ebeling on horseback towing water-skier Gay Mayhew on a rain-filled playa lake in west Dimmitt.

"Good composition," the judges said. "The photographer (News publisher Don Nelson) caught the action in an unusual situation that was probably difficult to shoot. Photo was played well... good spot news coverage."

The special edition entry was the Dec. 20, 1984 (Christmas) edition of the News. Judges praised the issue for "very clean copy."

Nelson's feature story on "Goose" Ramey celebrating his eightieth year in the county won in the feature category that included all divisions.

"Goose marks 80th year in county" is a good story," the judges commented. "... Shows patience in interview by writer Don Nelson to obtain facts illustrative of another time in Mr. Ramey's life as a small boy and young man."

The News gained honorable mention in the "Front Page Layout" category. Three editions, August 16, 23 and 30, 1984, were entered.

"Not bad looking pages," the judges said. "Good use of pictures."
