STATE REP. Wayne Gibens had a busy span of toil luring the recent session of e Texas Legislature.

Here, in brief, from an Ausin newsman is comment reating to Rep. Gibbons accomdishments:

"As was the case with chairen of other demanding comittees, Rep. Wayne Gibbens of Breckenridge had little time o his own bills. Most of the is time was taken with some 00 insurance bills, most highy technical and several, highcontroversial.

"But some significant legislation carries Gibben's name, including the Oil and Gas Pooling bill which he co-authored; one to create a Water Resources Board: one authorizing five days' paid sick leave annually for teachers, and one panies to pay $500 annual fees to the State Insurance es students in need of finan-dent's salary, and the hiring to pass included those authorizing joint stockmutual insurance companies; one relating to re-insurance provisions in health insurance policies; a roposal to create a sources Research Institute, and one to create a Juvenile For County Residents; Board in Eastland County."

Ranger Whips Eastland Nine. 6-5, Tuesday

The Ranger Bulldogs won a close battle with Eastland here Tuesday night by a score of 6 to 5.

Eastland got things started with two runs in the first inning, but Ranger retaliated with 3 in the third. The big blow was a bases loaded dou ble by Melton Kennedy.

The score remained that way until the fifth when Eastland scored two more to out front again. Ranger took the lead again in the sixth walk to Wayne Boone. East land tallied a run in the 7th to tie the score, but Ranger bases loaded walk to Boone. Leading the hitting for Ran-

After a hard played 18 holes, it's good to settle down on a soft chair in the club house and add up the score with friends. What better time for the drink that scores with almost every golfer -cool, thirst-quenching beer? Yes, beer's great to relax with, great for refreshment, great for taste. So whatever your sportboating or bascball-swimming or tennis-relax afterwards with the zestful taste of beer.

The Greatest

reth? Many people regard Him as a great teacher, a prophet, a gifted philosopher, or the best man ever to live; but do not accept that He is the Christ, the divine Son of God, the promised Messiah, and Saviour of the world, (Matthew 26:63, 64; Luke 2:11; John 1:41), Careful consideration reveals that Jesus must be what He has claimed or else He was not a good man at all. IF Jesus is not the Christ, the Son of God: He was a fraud, a liar, a false prophet, and the greatest imposter the world has known.

The influence of the life and teachings of Jesus is proof of His claims. The supreme test of His divinity was met in the death He died and the life to which He was resurrected, ". . . He showed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs . . ." (Acts 1:3).

Surely it is evident that we cannot think more highly of Jesus than we think of the claims that He has made, To refuse to believe on Him as the Son of God and accept through obedience His mit desivation. is but to belie Jesus as immoster!
