Monday morning, we had a talk with George Kloss, manager of Montgomery Ward. He told of having a phone call the other day and after telling the lady she had the wrong number she said "Are you sure? Kloss answered "Lady, have I ever lied to you?" Some days!

We welcome a new business to Ranger. The Fullen Sales Center is located on Highway 80, so go by and get acquainted. They are a fine bunch of people.

Don't forget to call 647-1667 or 647-3471 Saturday to have your auto cleaned. The high school cheerleaders are sponsoring a car wash to make a little cash so they can attend the S. M. U. Cheerleading School in Dallas.

The local fire department has really been on the run. After being up half the night Tuesday fighting the fire at Ranger Dry Cleaners, they fought grass fires during the day. With this dry weather, there will be more grass fires.

The Ranger Little League All-Stars team journeys to Weatherford Friday night to play the All-Star team in Weatherford. Let's all try to make the trip and give the boys support.

PART THREE...

Recent European Tour With Youth Conference Is Described

by DOROTHY OLIVER

The Gate of Paradise was the first place we visited in Florence. Everything in Florence suffered so much damage from the flood. We could see the water lines in every building we entered. We visited the Church of the Holy Cross, Dante's house, the Cathedral, Piazza della Signoria, Uffizi Gallery. In every building men are working, still trying to dry out the paintings and art treasures that were completely covered by the flood waters. Florence is so beautiful, the streets are so narrow, but clean. When we finally got our bus going, (after having it stop for a time) we went to a leather factory where we all bought gloves. As we left the factory, we were in for a rain storm and no taxi in sight so we were all soaked.

We left Florence for Rome and the weather there was beautiful. There we saw the remains of the old Roman Wall, the ruins of the Baths of Caracalla, which were the second largest of Roman Baths, with facilities for 1600. Also we saw the Circus Maximus which is the old race track. (The chariot race in "Ben Hur" was filmed here). I learned that St. Paul is really buried in St. Paul's outside the walls except for his head. His head is buried with John's and Peter's. The corridor, above street level, still leads from Castle of Saint Angelo to Vatican but isn't in use now. The fish is the symbol of Christ because in Italian, the initials of Christ's name and title, minus the first and last letters, spell a word which means fish.

In Sistine Chapel we saw Michelangelo's famous and magnificent "Last Judgment." There are 380 different faces and bodies in this beautiful painting. You know Michelangelo was a sculptor, not a painter, and he didn't want to paint this picture, but he did.

Only on Wednesday the Pope blesses the people at St. Peter's Basilica, and we were lucky enough to be there on Wednesday. The Pope is carried in and out of Basilica in a covered high back chair by Swiss guards. Just below the huge dome are in four corners of Dome where pillars hold up dome. In squinches there are medallions of four apostles. These are recognized by their symbol. Matthew, angel; Mark, lion; Luke, ox; and John, eagle. We also saw Michelangelo's Pieta (pee ah tah). It is kept behind a red curtain while Pope is in Basilica. When the Pope left, the curtains opened to reveal the Pieta, and it was very beautiful.

Later we visited the Roman Forum and walked inside the coliseum and saw the catacombs. Next day in Rome we saw the Trevi Fountain - the water so clear and beautiful. We also visited the Borgheze Museum. We hated to leave Rome, but we had to be on our way. On our way to Switzerland, we also visited in Rapallo and Pisa. We stopped for a visit in the Leaning Tower of Pisa and walked on the top of the tower. It is a strange sight, and gives one a strange feeling but it is a beautiful tower in its own way.

Interlaken is a dream world with the beautiful snow capped mountains and blue, blue lakes. We had planned to take an excursion up the Jungfrau before we left there, but the weather was so bad we didn't get to make the trip. We were all so disappointed because we had talked of it so much.

In Montreux we visited the appointed because we had talked of it so much. In Montreux we visited the Castle of Chillon. This is where Lord Byron wrote the poem entitled "Prisoner of Chillon."

Switzerland is such a beautiful sight after being in Italy, and people are very friendly. Last we arrived in Paris... and Paris is just great. It was more than we had expected... and dreamed of. We took an illuminated tour of the city at night. We saw the Arc of Triomphe, Notre Dame, Eiffel Tower, Opera, Place de la Concorde, and Louvre. We saw Venus. Here we used the metro system to go from place to place. Compared to London's tubes, it was very easy.

In all, we visited seven countries. People for the most part were very friendly. In France we saw signs and posters such as "Americans, Go Home!" It was the only (Continued on Page 4)

Spectacular Fire Destroys Ranger Dry Cleaning Plant

DESTROYED BY FIRE Tuesday morning was the Ranger Dry Cleaners. The cleaning plant was owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Jess Weaver.

Law Firm, Body Shop Has Water-Smoke Damage

A two alarm fire Tuesday morning July 18, completely destroyed a dry cleaning plant and damaged a body shop and law office on Austin Street in Ranger.

Destroyed by fire was the Ranger Dry Cleaners, owned by Jess Weaver.

The Weavers purchased the plant March 4, 1951 from C. O. Culpepper and has been in the dry cleaning business since 1927, in Ranger.

It was reported the fire occurred around 1:45 a. m. Volunteer Fire Chief Tom Fox, Jr. said the cause of the fire was due to faulty electrical wiring.

The Eastland Volunteer

Fire Department was called to help control the fire. Firemen took furniture and record files from the law office of Dewey Cox. An estimated $2,500 damage to law firm was reported. The firm had recently been painted. The Cox and C pet flooring was damaged smoke and water.

Harts Paint and Body Shop next door to the Cleaners was damaged by water - a smoke. Firemen removed autos and paints from building.

Frank Robinson of Ranger was reported to be the witness of the fire. Ber Mosley, night city patrolman assisted Robinson in breaking down the door to the cleaners.

An adjuster was in Ranger Tuesday evening Weaver said the customers could come to his home at 317 Pine or call MI 7-3179 and fill out form to get adjustments on clothing that was destroyed by the fire.

T. N. Sharpe Dies, Funeral Services Friday at 4 p.m.

Thomas Nathan Sharpe, 71, died at 8:40 p.m. Tuesday at Eastland Memorial Hospital, following a two-year illness.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. Friday in Arrington-Hammer Funeral Chapel. Officiating will be the Rev. Dean Franklin of Eastern Hills Methodist Church in Fort Worth, the Rev. E. Thomas Tribble of Olden Methodist Church, and the Rev. J. E. Lamb of Pentecostal Church in Ranger. Burial will be in Eastland Cemetery.

Mr. Sharpe was born August 6, 1895 in Erath County and married the former Effie B. Elliott March 31, 1918 in Ranger. He had been a resident of Olden for 49 years and was a former employee of the Olden Independent School District. He was a farmer.

Survivors include his wife, five daughters, Mrs. Vivian B. Kile of Galena Park, Mrs. Betty Elmore Gray of Eastland, Mrs. Anna Mae Felure of Galion, Ohio, Mrs. Mildred Squiers of Ranger, and Miss Tommie June Sharpe of Olden; four sisters, Mrs. Dora Fox, Mrs. Tony Wheeler, and Mrs. Ruby Williamson, all of Ranger; and Mrs. Myrtle Duggan of Rising Star; four brothers, Frank of Olney, Aric, Curtis, and L. D., all of Ranger; eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Woodie Gossom, John Miller, Fred Hayes, Jack Elliott, Larry Duggan, and James Lee Elliott.

Parcel Post Days To Be Expanded

The local postmaster announced that parcel Post deliveries in town were expanded from five to six days a week, July 14.

This is in line with a recent directive from Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien following the signing of a Post Office Department appropriation bill by President Johnson. The legislation contains an $8.5 million item for restoration of the six-day week delivery which had been cut back in May, 1964 as a economy measure.

Nearly 5,000 cities are affected, the postmaster said. The local postal official noted that the improved service will remove an inequity in many business and residential routes.

Postal customers served by "motorized" letter carriers have been receiving six-day deliveries all along. They were not covered by the 19-cent-back inasmuch as carriers on vehicles can deliver parcels of any size. Customer living on routes served by foot carriers have received larger parcels from a five-day a week parcel post route covered by a truck. Carriers on foot only deliver small packages.

Lacasa HD Club Has Meeting

The Lacasa Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, July 13, at 2 p. m. Mrs. Kenneth Mitchell called the meeting to order. Visitors were Mrs. H. M. Thomas, home-making teacher from the Breckenridge High School and her homemaker class: Jessie L. Harris, Kathy Todd, Fayla McIntire, Linda Green, and Pam Pack. A brief report from council was made and the Gold Bond projects were mentioned.

The program was turned over to Mrs. Sharon Struve, Home Demonstration agent. She brought a helpful program on Managing your Food Dollar with "Planned Overs." Wise buying will plan for leftovers that can be used for following meals, especially meat products. A family needs four classes of basic foods, depending on the health and occupation of the members of the family. She presented the members with some recipes for leftovers, serving one — ham — macaroni Bake. She also demonstrated the use of a blender and showed how she used it in making the special dish.

Present were Meses. Kenneth Mitchell, D. B. Raney, Mabel Jackson, A. O. Templeton, Mary Herrington, R. E. Miller and visitors, Kenneth Miller from Eules, Texas, and Diane Mitchell. The next meeting will be in September.

JOHNSON GETS L.C. HOLE-IN-ONE

Wallace Johnson of Ranger carded a hole in one on the par 3 - 128 yard No. 3 on Saturday, July 15, at Lone Cedar Country Club. Playing with Wallace were John Bates, E. B. Kelley and Bill Niska. Jake Jacoby sadly shook his head as he was forced by illness to leave the group shortly before the ace was made.

The ball will be mounted and given to Wallace as a memento of the occasion.

On the score board: Other golfers took advantage of the good weather this past week to use their sticks and balls with the following results.

Pete Brasher, also of Ranger, had an eagle two on the par 4 No. 6 hole. Jane Day of Eastland with a birdie 3 on the same hole. Both were commended for these fine scores since the green is somewhat a blind shot over the lake filled with tall cattails.

Homer Williams, Eastland, has recorded two eagle threes on No. 5, a par 5 and Bill Collings of Ranger with one.

REPORT ON...

I would like to spend at least two weeks in Rome, there is so much to see and enjoy. I loved Paris too, but prices were so high, and since this was our last stop, my money was running a little low.

The flight home was great and JFK Airport and Dallas looked good. The entire trip was one where one could enjoy every single minute and I only wish that every teenager could have the opportunity of such a tour with such friends and sponsors.

Weekend guests of Mrs. Ray Todd was her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Griffith and Grant of Odessa who were enroute to Norfolk, Va. to visit the Griffith's other son, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Ferrell, David, and Jimmy. Other visitors in the Todd home were her sister, Mrs. C. H. Henderson and daughter, Zola Mae Allen of Denison, who also visited another sister, Mrs. J. C. Kelly.

Linda Warford of Dallas was home for the weekend. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Worford.

Washington

"As It Looks From Here"

WASHINGTON, D. C. — How can governmental expenditures be substantially reduced?

One would think this is a question that could readily be answered by any Member of Congress, but a lot of us, including the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, remain in a state of real quandary as to just how it can be done.

Anyone, of course, would know that if we simply reduced the scope of the numerous Federal activities it would cost less money.

But the situation is simply this: There are 14 Departmental Appropriations, not including what we call supplemental. Supplemental are those funds voted for the over all operation of all Departments when at the end of a fiscal year it is found that more money is needed.

Each of these appropriations is handled by a Subcommittee which sits for months, going over each item with a fine-tooth comb. When it finally reaches the point of debate in the House of Representatives, each becomes the most important appropriation, and the 13 others are not seen at the time. The overall picture can not be seen until all appropriations have been concluded. This is usually near the end of a Session of Congress.

Unless substantial budget cuts are made in this new fiscal year, which just began this July 1, a gargantuan deficit must be faced.

Like the Old Soldier who never dies, so do obsolete Federal programs. New programs often come under attack because they have not been in existence long enough to build up a group of beneficiaries who will fight tooth and nail to see that benefits continue to flow. Yet, older programs which may be well outmoded continue because of empire-building in the Executive Branch and the efforts of a select group of program beneficiaries.

In the late 1940's the Rules were changed to bring all appropriation bills under debate at one time. In other words, it was a packaged deal. This procedure was abandoned because use it was found too difficult to handle them all at one time and careful consideration was lost. There is talk of returning to this system in the hope of establishing priorities to establish a balanced look at appropriations in their entirety.

There is proposed legislation to create a Government Program Evaluation Commission to analyze old and new Federal programs to determine whether they are cost effective, whether they should be continued and what priority they should be assigned. The Commission would report to the President and the Congress on or before Feb. 1, 1969. It would be composed of members from private life appointed by the President, the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate.

Many times the appointment of another committee, Commission or the creation of another Agency is a waste of time and money. On the other hand, a point of desperation has been reached as to how to better control the huge expenditures of the Government.

Aside from the fact we are having to finance a war in Viet Nam, Government costs continue to increase by leaps and bounds. Not only has the cost of Federal Government increased tremendously with all its new activities, but costs of government at all levels are adding to the burden of paying taxes, and unless better controlled, a point of no return is rapidly approaching.

Each Department of Government feels that what it is doing is the most important part of the Government's entire operation. This way of thinking extends to the individual Members of Congress in the various programs which directly affect their constituency and their area of the County. There are those intensely interested in the conservation of natural resources, which is divided between the Department of the Interior and the Department of Agriculture. There is special interest in labor, health, education and welfare. The State Department, Justice Department and Commerce Department come in for their partisan support. Public works are im-

Two Ranger Men Enjoy Taking Part In Odessa Treasure Hunt

The second annual Permian Basin Treasure Hunt was held May 28, 1967, with two Ranger men taking part. Charlie Rose and Bob Adair were the local participants with others coming from all parts of Texas.

Some 50 to 75 campers were on hand Saturday night to talk treasure, drink coffee, and even participate in a sing-a-long, accompanied by a fine guitarist imported for the occasion. The coffee pot ran dry around midnight and everyone began to drift away to catch a little sleep in preparation for the big event.

With the threat of rain the crowd of 250-300 hunters gathered at 8:45 a. m. next morning to hear reading of the rules and regulations governing the hunt, take care of the last minute registration, and view the prizes within a display case. Many a pair of eyes gleamed as they viewed the Goldmaster $63 first prize, the second place award of a pot of silver coins, topped with 20 brand new uncirculated Kennedy half dollars, and the trophies to be awarded to third place winner and the top finder within the Odessa Chapter of the Prospectors Club.

The rain was still holding off when Harley Smith fired both barrels of Old Betsy to start the hunt. The screams, clucks, whistles and pings of a couple hundred metal locators provided quite a musical background as the hunter swarmed into the field.

It had been decided to have as the target object of the hunt 230 Canadian cents, of which one side of each had been sprayed a silver color. To add to the confusion, quite a number of the other 2,500-odd coins of all denominations had been marked with dots of paint, crosses, etc.

The identity of the target coin, which was to decide winners of the prizes, was kept secret until the close of the hunt. A sample of the coin sealed within an envelope inside the display case with the prizes and was not revealed until tally time. Of course, many hunters suspected that one of the marked coins was the target item but no one knew for certain which one, which caused considerable conjecture on the part of the participants.

At 12:00 noon, a one-hour break was called to give everyone an equal chance to grab a bite to eat and freshen up a bit.

At 1:00 p. m., everyone was at it again. By this time the rain had spattered down intermittently and blowing sand had become a very bad nuisance, but the majority of hunters simply encased their detectors in plastic bags and kept right on looking and digging.

At 5:00 p. m., the hunt was signalled over, and the grand tally began. As a hunter's name was called from the registration book, he stepped to Judge James McKinney's table, was shown the target coin, and had his coins counted.

After the accounting, results stood as follows, Charlie Rose of Ranger, Texas was in sole possession of first place with 16 target coins, a tie for second existed between O. B. Taylor of Odessa and Joe Reith of Garner, Texas with 11 coins each. There also proved to be a tie for the Odessa PC Chapter trophy between R. W. (Dick) Umstot and Bob White, who had each located eight target coins.

Ray Newnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Newnham left Monday for Benton Harbor, Michigan where he will attend a four day training school sponsored by Whirlpool.

NANCY NEWNHAM COMPLETES SPECIAL FASHION, BEAUTY CLINIC

Recently attending The Ben Shaw Modeling Studio and the 1967 Finishing Touches Fashion and Beauty Clinic was Miss Nancy Uewnhaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Newnham of Ranger.

Nancy spent six weeks in Houston visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Newlin, and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McMillan while attending the school.

At the modeling school, she was taught the proper way to sit, stand, and walk gracefully. The course also included the correct method of applying makeup and a course in voice and diction.

Each Saturday in June, Nancy attended the Finishing Touches Clinic which was held in the beautiful Shamrock Hilton Hotel. Approximately 850 girls attended. Leading authorities on fashion etiquette make-up movement and posture lectured to us.

On Saturday June 24, the clinic closed with a luncheon attended by teenagers and their mothers. The program consisted of a style show and the selection of Houston's Model Coed.

Both the modeling school and clinic, were a lot of hard

Origin of Names on County Maps Sought in Special College Study

Residents of Eastland County and the other 25 counties to be published soon by the East Texas State University press. Before Dr. Fred Tarpley, professor of English at the university, submits his final manuscript he is appealing to county residents for assistance in contributing information about several names with unexplained origins.

With the following exceptions, the reasons for the choice of approximately 200 names found on detailed maps of the county have already been determined: Alameda, Allen Oil Field, Barkline, Owens Oil Field, Battle Creek, Bear Creek, Bear Springs, Bedford, Bluff Branch, Eranton, Brush Creek, Cedar Creek, Center Point, Chaney, Church Cemetery, Churchville Community, Colony, Colony Creek, Copperas, Copperas Creek, Corinay Oil and Gas Field, the Courtney Oil Field, Cross Road Cemetery, Curry Creek, Dead, Dead Horse Creek, Dinner Creek, East Sandy Creek, Ellison Springs, Flatwood, Fork Palo Pinto Creek, Freedom, Gorman, Gorman Oil Field, Gregg Cemetery, Gya Oil Field, Harrison Oil Field, Haskel, Hog Creek, Horse Creek, Hunting Creek, Jenny Creek, Jim Neal Branch, Jo Kiel Oil Field, Kirk Oil Field, Kleiner Oil Field, Kokomo, Lake Brelford, Lake Leon, Lake Olden, Lamb, Lamkin Oil Field, Lee-

River, Liberty, Lula Neal Oil Field, Mangum, Merrian, Mitchell, Morris Woods Oil Field, Murton Valley, Mountain Top, Murray, Natches Creek, New Hope, North Fork Curry Creek, Okra, Pioneer Pleasant Hill, Pleasant Valley, Pumpkin Center, Reagan Cemetery, Red Fork Rush Creek, Romney, Ruak Creek, Sabanna, Sabanna River, Salt Tank Cemetery, Simpson, Union, Way Side Cemetery, and Woodson-Hall Oil Field.

Dr. Tarpley, who started his research on Texas geographical names five years ago, has exhausted material available to him in history books, newspaper files, student research, and interviews with county leaders. He is hoping that the story behind the naming of the communities, communities, creeks, and other geographical sites listed above can be explained before his book goes to press. Information will be welcomed by Dr. Fred Tarpley, Department of English, East Texas State University, Commerce, Texas 75428.
