The annual Peanut Bowl football game is this Saturday night at 8 in the Maverick Stadium in Eastland with the Ranger Junior College Wranglers playing the Wranglers of Cisco Junior College.

Final Rites Are Held For J. S. Fonville

Funeral for John Sanford Fonville, 79, was held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Methodist Church of Desdemona with the Rev. S. A. Baker, pastor, and the Rev. Darrell Dosey, Desdemona Baptist pastor, officiating.

A native of Eastland County, he married Mary Holliday Moore.

Survivors are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Lee Etta Swain of Breckenridge; one son, S. J. of Strawn; four brothers, Thomas J. of Stephenville, Joseph H. of Ranger and Ben J. and Samuel L., both of Desdemona; one sister, Mrs. Addie Lee Slaughter of Cisco; 18 grandchildren and 46 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two sons, Zelwyn Johnny and T. W. A. Fonville.

3 p.m. Parade Route: East on Commerce Only

The Peanut Bowl parade will begin at 3 p.m. Saturday at the corner of West Commerce and South Connelle Streets and move east on Commerce to South Bassett Street.

The parade will not go around the courthouse square this year.

The Eastland Jaycees, sponsors of the annual event, will present the Peanut Bowl Queen who was selected from a group of seventeen beautiful girls Tuesday night.

The Sweetwater-Ettes, a 42-member precision marching team from Sweetwater, will perform in the parade and at pre-game festivities Saturday night.

A perfectly-restored century old circus wagon and eight giant Belgian horses will be a major attraction.

Grid Game To Climax Program Of Bowl Day

The football teams of Cisco and Ranger Junior Colleges will meet at 8:30 p. m. Saturday at Eastland's Maverick Stadium as the climax of the 8th annual Peanut Bowl program.

The contest will be the first time out this season for both teams and reports from their respective campuses indicate that two strong grid machines will be on the field.

THE WRANGLERS Coach Jim Puryear and his CJC Wranglers will be seeking their seventh victory in a row as they have managed to turn the Rangers back in all Peanut Bowl games except the first one when RJC won with Puryear as their coach.

THE RANGERS "A better team man for man than we had last year," is the way Ranger College Coach Jack Duvall summed up the 1967 RJC grid squad.

Wright, of Weatherford, has looked good in practice but hasn't been "under fire." His back-up man will be Freshman Ronnie Bell of Breckenridge.

Starting ends will be Mack Murphy of Marlin and Wayne Nail of Big Spring, both sophomores; tackles — Dail Slough of Lamesa and Robert Fisher of Marlin, also sophomores; guards — David Pearce of Abilene and Jim Brewster of Terrell, also sophomores; and center — John McKinley of Wichita Falls, another second year man.

The backfield will have an average weight of about 175 pounds, while the forward wall will be near 225 pounds.

The punting will be handled by a specialist this year — Mike Hays of Fort Worth, who was that city's top high school punter last year.

Coach Puryear said his team was free of injuries and will be ready to go "top speed."

Oscar Barron, 91, resident of Strawn since 1932, died at 5 p. m. Sunday in Ranger General Hospital.

Funeral was held at 3 p. m. Wednesday in First Baptist Church of Strawn with the Rev. B. C. McCoy, pastor, officiating.

Born Feb. 12, 1876 in Oxford, Miss., he married Vannie Guest Dec. 31, 1934 in Strawn.

Survivors include his wife, two daughters, two sons, one brother, one sister and several grandchildren.

The final stop on the day's tour will be at the Earl Walker orchard on the Rising Star highway, south of Cisco. Machinery for use in harvesting pecans will be shown at the Walker place.

Dr. Wendell Horne, Texas A&M extension plant pathologist, will take part in the tour and will discuss pecan diseases. Tom E. Denman of the Stephenville experiment station will direct a question and answer period.

Two Youths Are In Hospital As Result of Affray

Two youths were in hospitals and a police investigation was in progress as the result of an affray in Ranger Sunday night.

One, a native of Woodcliff Lake, N. J., was in Ranger General Hospital with a leg injury, and the other, 19, of Clyde, was reported in a hospital there for treatment of a groin injury.

Justice of the Peace M. D. Underwood reported that charges had been filed in his court against one of the youths and that a hearing would be set after his release from the hospital. He said that any further action in the case would be up to the District Attorney.

Hamilton Bulldogs were full-back Ricky Jones, tailback George Warlick, and Chris Ward.

In last year's game with Hamilton, the Ranger team was defeated 20-13.

Standouts for the local team in last week's game with the Eastland Mavericks were Tom Fox, who connected with Mavericks, throwing them for losses and Tom Golemon who did outstanding work as quarterback. Ricky Squires and Brad White also did some fine running. Andy Hamilton was among the linemen who was credited for getting most of the tackles.

The Ranger Bulldogs are in good shape for the clash this Friday night and are hoping for another win.

The grand jury was in session this week and it was reported that the District Attorney had no plans to present the case at this time.

The affray and resulting publicity brought from several Ranger officials an expression that "this was a most unfortunate and regrettable happening."

President Jack Cozart has issued an invitation to all FB members to be sure to mark the Oct. 2 date for the convention and chili supper.

Mr. King, Farm Bureau District 2 director, launched his career in agriculture when as a small boy he purchased four pigs on borrowed funds and joined the 4-H and FFA. He resumed farming in 1947, renting 320 acres near Brownfield. Joining the Terry County Farm Bureau that year, he was elected Secretary-Treasurer, an office he held until 1953 when he resigned to devote more time to his duties as state director. He now has about 1,500 acres in Terry and Eastland Counties and produces cotton, grain sorghum, and livestock.

As a youth, King served as vice president and later president of his local FFA chapter. In 1956, he received the District 4-H Club Silver Spur Award for contributions to the 4-H Club program. The following year he received the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce Man of the Year Award.

A member of the TFB board of directors since 1953, King is president of the South Gin & Co-op at Brownfield, and a director of the Plains Cotton Oil Mill in Lubbock and a member of the board of development for Lubbock Christian College. MRS. LEE MITCHELL

Mrs. Lee Mitchell Is Honored On Her 80th Birthday Last Sunday

A reception in Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday honored Mrs. Lee Mitchell on the occasion of her 80th birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Mitchell of Orange, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kribbs of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Robinson of Ranger. Guests registered at a table covered with a white linen cloth and graced with an arrangement of marigolds and pyracantha berries. The refreshment table was laid with a brown linen cloth; appointments were crystal and silver. The birthday cake, adorned with confection roses of pale yellow with green foliage, was served with fruit punch. Members of the house party were granddaughters and nieces of the honoree.

The Mitchell family moved to Ranger from Strawn in 1928, residing in McCleskey Camp until 1942 when they moved to 117 Cypress St., which is her home to this date. Her husband, the late Lee Mitchell, employee of T&P Oil Company, died in 1934.

Referred to by her pastor as "a younger member of the older set," Mrs. Mitchell possesses rare physical strength and buoyancy of spirit for one who has reached the four-score milestone. She retains the same interest in church and community affairs that has through the years, made her a prominent personality. Active in all phases of the church program, she is best known for her work in the Extension Department where, for more than 30 years, she has ministered, serving as Dept. Supt. for more than a quarter of a century. She is a former Sunday school teacher, G. A. Counselor, WMU President of baby sitter to scores of Ranger residents.

All these things, plus the fact that she is an expert seamstress and culinary expert, explain why she has had no time to even consider the boring matter of growing old.

Her three children, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren were joined by approximately 125 relatives and friends in a sincere wish for "Many Happy Returns."

SCS Booklet Says . . .

Worthless Brush and Weeds Waste Much Water In Texas

"Worthless brush and weeds waste nearly as much water as is used for all other purposes in Texas," according to H. N. Smith, State Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, Temple. "One of our greatest potentials for saving water is reducing this waste by non-economic plants."

Smith said at least 10 million acre-feet of water could be saved annually by a complete grassland restoration program in Texas. This is about three-fourths the amount now used by all consumers. This saving would go a long way to assist in easing future water shortages, he said.

This is part of the information just released by the SCS, "Grassland Restoration, Part V, Effect of Water Yield and Supply," by C. A. Rechenstain and H. N. Smith. The booklet is the fifth in a series dealing with Texas rangelands. It documents huge water losses that occur each year from brush and weed infestation. It shows how municipal, industrial, and agricultural water supplies are reduced on watersheds infested with brush and weeds.

In a 1964 survey, SCS found that 88 million acres, or 82 percent of Texas' 107 million acres of grassland, are infested with brush. Range conservationists say that four out of every five acres are producing less than half their potential.

More than one-third of the rain that falls in the State each year is being used up by non-economic plants, according to estimates made by Dr. J. R. Johnston of the Agricultural Research Service. He says that 138 million acre-feet are being wasted by weeds and brush each year.

Since grass uses less water than most other plants, there are vast opportunities for cutting water losses by improving infested grasslands.

Using the limited research available, Rechenstain and Smith give a detailed study in the new booklet of the effects of grassland improvement on water supplies. For example, treating salt-cedar infested areas could save as much as three feet of water per year for each acre treated. Savings on upland would vary from more than 6 inches in the eastern part of the State to smaller amounts in drier sections.

Annual water savings could total 2 million acre-feet each in the Brazos and Colorado River watersheds; one million each in the Nueces and Red River watersheds (Texas portion); three-quarter million each in the Rio Grande-Pecos and Trinity watersheds; and more than one-half million acre-feet in the Guadalupe-San Antonio Water sheds.

Smith said that water has always been one of Texas' most valuable but least abundant resources. He said saving water by improving grasslands will benefit all Texans. The booklets are available at SCS offices.

ON DISPLAY AT PIPKIN MOTOR COMPANY

In addition to dramatic new styling both front and rear, the 1968 Oldsmobile Delmont 88 — together with all the new Oldsmobiles — features a long list of important mechanical improvements. Among these are larger front wheel cylinders for better overall brake effectiveness and balance. Powering the Delmont is a standard 350-cu.-in. 2-barrel V-8 engine providing better mid-range performance, fuel economy, quietness of operation and durability. A 455-cu.-in. V-8 engine is also available.

New Oldsmobiles Show Thursday At Pipkin Motor

A new power train concept for all 1968 model Oldsmobiles will give the owner additional benefits in mid-range performance, fuel economy, quietness of operation and durability, it was announced here today by Oldsmobile General Manager Harold N. Metzger, at his division's National Press Preview.

In addition, he revealed a performance option and substantial styling improvements in the front-wheel drive Toronado, the development of a brilliant new front end look for the 88's and 98's, and a completely changed appearance for the F-85, Cutlass, Cutlass Supreme, 4-4-2 and Vista Cruiser.

The new Oldsmobiles go on display Thursday at Pipkin Motor Co.

"Of particular interest," Metzger said, "are the two-door models in the Cutlass Series identified as 'S' Coupes. We expect this line of coupes, pillar, hardtop and convertible, to augment Oldsmobile's recent gains in the youth market."

"The Cutlass 'S' Coupe," he continued, "is youthfully styled, agile in performance and may be customized with the use of any one of 12 engine-transmission combinations. Deluxe interior trim and special exterior ornamentation are standard, while dual exhausts, a wood grained steering wheel and rally-type handling components are among the new car's options. Bucket seats, standard on the convertible, are optional on the closed coupes."

The high performance 4-4-2 becomes the top of the F-85 line in 1968, with an extension of identity features, dual exhaust outlets discharging through rear bumper cut-outs, and 9 engine transmission combinations. Included is the availability of a ram-air performance option with a special high output camshaft, heat treated valve springs, and a special axle ratio. Boldly designed carburetor air intake scoops for this option are located below the front bumper.

In addition to the coupes, all other Cutlass Supreme, Cutlass, and F-85 models are completely restyled for 1968. Wheelbases for 4-door sedans and station wagons have been increased to 116 inches. The vent windows are now crank operated, replacing the friction type windows on former F-85 and Cutlass models.

Important changes have also been designed into the 1968 Vista Cruiser," Metzger continued, "resulting in its becoming one of the most spacious station wagons in the industry. Built on a wheelbase of 121 inches, the Vista Cruiser features 13" more leg room for second seat passengers, 13" more head room for third seat passengers. With the larger luggage locker under the floor, 2 more cubic feet of storage area is available. Optional for the first time on the Vista Cruiser is Oldsmobile's 400 cubic inch engine.

"Oldsmobile's Delmont and Delta 88's, the Delta Custom, the 98's and the Toronado," he said, "have undergone substantial restyling, front and rear, including new grilles, new side moldings, and revised rear-end treatment.

"The Toronado, in particular," Metzger said, "has taken on a more sophisticated personalized car look, with more graceful lines. Front and rear bumpers and lamps are new. Headlamps are concealed behind twin grilles which retract upward with lights on."

"A softer ride with smoother movement over bumps has been achieved in the 1968 Toronado," he said, "while retaining the unexcelled handling characteristics for which this car is noted."

1968 Buicks On View Thursday At Muirhead Co.

Buick Motor Division today introduced its 1968 cars with a completely new body with intermediate size models, plus a wide array of new safety and styling features throughout the entire line.

The new styling for the Special Deluxe, Skylark and GS models features the contoured sweepline down the side, introduced on the upper series last year, longer hoods and shorter decks and a shorter wheelbase for two-door models.

Rivieras have been given a new look — front and rear — and the regular size cars in the line, Electra, Wildcat and LeSabre also have a new '68 appearance with new grilles, hoods, taillights, bumpers, instrument panels and interiors.

All 35 models in the line have new side marker lamps that operate with headlights. Windshield wipers are concealed within a space provided by the curved edge of the hood.

The Buicks will display at Muirhead Motor Thursday.

STYLING HIGHLIGHTS

Styling highlights for 1968 include these features:

Electra 225: Most apparent change in front is the twin air intake grille, new hood top molding, which along with recessed windshield wipers accentuates the length of the hood. Taillights are recessed in a new rear bumper to provide a smart looking change, and also giving more impact protection.

Wildcat: This performance-minded series features new grilles, hoods, bumpers, and rear treatment. Width has been accentuated with the horizontal grille and wider headlamp housings.

LeSabre: The new front end treatment — two separate horizontal grilles, with the hood extension as the divider — is unique to the series. Taillights are extended and wrapped around the edge of the rear fenders to provide more dramatic day or night identification.

Riviera: The classic lines of the roof and profile are retained, but hoods, fenders, grille, and bumpers are new. The rear has been redesigned with new bumpers, and recessed taillights. The front has fresh eye appeal with a new plastic front grille, set deeply within the steel frame. On the Riviera, the lower portion of the body is covered with optional stainless steel moldings. Headlamps are concealed in the outboard edges of the front grille.

Skylark: An all new body with the emphasis on a shortened rear deck and a longer hood. A sculptured body sweepline predominates the side view. Grille is a continuous loop design with headlamps located on both sides. A new rear bumper, offering impact protection and smarter styling, encloses the taillights. Skylark Custom models have rear wheels enclosed in fender skirts, plus distinguishing ornamentation.

Special Deluxe: All new body with new front, rear and side treatment to distinguish this series from others in the line. Side markers, ports and identification script complete the design that is predominately the Buick sweepline. This is the longest set of hood and front fenders ever used on this series.

Sport Wagon: The popular wood grain side treatment continues as an option. The grille is new. A sleek new roof line with added glass area makes the new wagon look even lower. A new combination roof rack and back window air deflector is offered as a dealer installed option. Distinctive taillamp and rear bumper treatment provides a fresh new appearance.

'68 Buick. Now we're talking your language.

The new 230-hp., V-8 engine runs on regular gas. It's standard on all Skylark Custom models.

We also refused to limit your choices. Skylark Custom comes in four models, 15 colors and 32 trim combinations. So talk to the man who talks your language, your Buick dealer.

All Buicks have a full line of General Motors safety features as standard equipment. For example, side marker lights and energy-absorbing steering column.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

We changed the Skylark from front to rear, we gave it a whole new look, simply because we believe you want a car like this. In other words, we're talking your language.

We thought you'd like to have a little easier time parking. So we shortened the wheelbase of the two-door Skylark down to 112 inches.

The '68 Buicks are at your Buick dealer's now. He's ready to talk your language.
