The Eastland County Sheriff's Department has filed charges of forgery and passing against Henry Cecil Cope. Sheriff Lefty Sublett said the 48-year-old Eastland native has previously served time for forgery.

The checks, all drawn on the Ranger bank, were made out to "H. C. Cope" or "Cecil Cope." Sheriff Sublett estimated that more than $300.00 was lost by firms in Eastland, Ranger, Cisco and Gorman in the early part of May.

MAN ESCAPES INJURIES

Glenn Thomas Hunnicutt, 20, of Dyess Air Force Base escaped injury when the 1964 Chevrolet he was driving went into a spin and hit a tree near the Acme Welding Shop about a half mile west of Eastland at 12:10 a. m. Thursday. The car, owned by James

M. Haggard of 3608 State in Abilene, was reported stolen from a parking lot near the NCO Club at Dyess about 11:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Hunnicutt was charged with speeding and a minor conaming alcohol in the court of JP Wells Dalton and was jailed in Eastland. He was transferred at noon Friday to Abilene, where he faces charge es of car theft.
