HALLOWEEN is just around the corner and there will again be a carnival (see story elsewhere in this issue.) Better start saving now for remember-fun and food is costand there's nothing free about the carnival except admission to the grounds; but it's worth it to watch the kids

THEY SAY there is no cure someone come up with a foolproof remedy Friday morning, he could have made a not too small fortune in Ranger. Many football fans sounded as if they had swallowed a goose, and all the home remedies, plus shots at the doctor's office were employed in earlier. preparation for the game.

WE'RE TAUGHT that "names are news." That be ing true, no one can deny that this issue of the paper is newsy. The United Fund list continues to grow with names published each week. The paper has always devoted much space to this altrustic community project and either publishes or witholds names of donors according to their requests . . . Another honor roll this week is that of Young Elementary School whose students "get in print". . . Then high school students and to all we say "Congratulations!"

ACP Practices Completion Due By End of Year

All soil and water conser vation measures being installed by farmers under the 1969 Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) must be substantially completed by the end of the year, according to Robert G. Lyerla, Chairman of the Eastland County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Commit-

He urged farmers to complete their conservation work as soin as possible. "Sometimes a man will plan to get the work done in November ers who are outstanding men ober Eastland County farmers or December, and then bad and women in their local com- will receive crop questions res weather holds him up. First thing you know it's New Years Day the ACP work isn't finished, and the ASC Committee can't approve the Federal share of the costs, "Chairman Lyerla said.

He also reminded farmers that whenever a request for costshares under the ACP is approved, the ASC Commit be sets a completion date for the practice. If a farmer is unable to report the conservation practice completed by the date set, he should request a time extension and explain why it is needed.
