

ON TEXAS FARMS

Organization is in the air these days. Scarcely an interest can be named but it is found to have its group organization. It is a feature of modern life. "A condition, not a theory."

Texas farmers and ranchmen are no exception. They have their Sheep and Goat Raisers' and Cattlemen's associations. They have their cotton cooperatives. And rural home makers have their home demonstration councils.

A very wise person has been considering all this business of organization and makes the following interesting observations.

"Organization is not the beginning of a movement. It is the concrete expression of liberated energy. If no organization is effected, making effective group action possible, the energy is often dissipated.

"The growth of a successful organization is like that of a tree. It grows from the bottom up—from the inside out."

"The roots of the organization are the individuals who compose it. Their coming together makes strength which may be likened to the trunk of the tree. The results obtained correspond to the flowers and fruit."

"For best results the organic law of the group should be simple and flexible. Adjustments and changes should be made so as not to disturb the harmonious growth of the whole."

"Danger lies in wait when an organization grows in wealth and power beyond the development of leadership to direct it."

HENDERSON—A new picket fence has been completed, rock fences have been built across the washes, and the yard had been filled in with new soil by Christene Moore, yard improvement demonstrator of the Oak Flat 4-H club in Rusk county, according to Miss Lotye Thomas, county home demonstration agent. A plan was first drawn up covering three years of work, and these are the first improvements necessary in carrying out the plan. In addition, Christene has cleaned under the house thoroughly and is now underpinning it with split pine palings such as the fence is made of. Foundation plantings have been begun and trees will be planted where needed for shade and for screening the outbuildings.

GILMER—With a total cash expenditure of $1, Mrs. Ivey Reynolds of Upshur county has transformed a bare unpapered clothes closet without shelves or rods into a nicely painted and papered one with shelves for folded clothing and a rod for hangers, she reports to Miss M. D. Worth, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Reynolds built shelves down one side with boxes which her husband had brought home from town. Old coldframes covers were used for the canvas and the paper used in papering the closet was some that had been on hand for 10 years. The rod for the hangers was an old broom handle. Her only expense was $1 for white paint with which to paint the shelves.

PANHANDLE—In choosing a balanced menu from the 689 containers in her pantry, Mrs. L. L. Stalls of Carson county can supply everything except bread, according to Miss Dalton Burelson, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Stalls has a total of 60 varieties of meats, vegetables, fruits, pickles and relishes from which to choose, and even has 12 cans of fruit cake. She produces milk, eggs and butter at home and also has enough home made soap stored in the cellar to last for a long period of time.

FALFURRIAS—A 30-ton trench silo filled with hegarri bundles is being used by John Negri, Brooks county dairyman, to carry his dairy herd until Sudan pasture is available, according to Louis Franke, county agricultural agent. The work of constructing the silo, harvesting the feed, and filling the silo cost Mr. Negri $18, and this figure includes his own labor at current prices.

More than 50 persons have visited the Negri farm to observe the silo while construction, filling, and feeding operations were under way. The trench silo is new to Brooks county, but Negri's demonstration plus the current shortage of roughage has converted many local dairymen to this economical method of storing feed, according to the county agent.

EMORY—A net profit of $28.95 was made from a flock of 194 hens during February by Homer Foster of Rains county, according to his report to Roy King, county agricultural agent. Foster's hens produced 2,958 eggs during the month, and he believes that by keeping a good laying mash before his birds at all times he can con-

President County Judges Writes On Increased Gas Tax

Editor's Note: The following is a letter written by Judges E. L. Pitta, president, State County Judges and Commissioners association, to Representatives A. B. Tarwater, H. Emmett Morse, Bob Alexander, George Moffett, B. L. Rogers and J. Doyle Settle, concerning the proposed increase in gasoline taxes.

"I am reliably informed that you gentlemen are among the leaders of the fight against the passage of House Bills Nos. 325 and 483, introduced for the purpose of adding one-cent tax on gasoline to retire county and road district bonds incurred for the purpose of building lateral and local roads. Please be assured that you have the support of many good citizens in your efforts to defeat these bills. We have had the charge made against us of being selfish, but it occurs to me that those who favor the passage of such bills should be the last people in the world to impugn the motives of others who oppose the bills, since those who sponsor these bills cannot give any other reason for so doing than self-interest.

It is unfortunate that some counties, during prosperous times, voted such a burden for the construction of lateral roads that have become almost unbearable during the past few years. But the attempt to lift their burden to the counties that had no voice on election day in their respective counties in the creation of such indebtedness, is contrary to the policy of the American government and has been so recognized since the Boston Tea Party; they are trying to do this, it would be taxation without representation." We are sorry for those counties who have such burdens; we are likewise sorry for our many friends and acquaintances who bought homes on the installment plan when times were good, but they were unable to meet their payments when the depression came; yet, our sympathy does not prompt any of us even those who are urging the passage of these bills, to dip down in our pockets and take the money we have earned for the support of our families and voluntarily contribute it to those who are losing their homes that they may save same. That is the very principle the advocates of these two bills are urging upon counties that have not seen fit to bond themselves to construct lateral roads.

In my judgment, it would not be proper to add an additional gasoline tax at this time, but if such is to be added, it should be equitably distributed and thus allow counties to receive a portion of it for road purposes whether they have any outstanding bonded indebtedness or not.

Some are still inclined to call the proposed plan the "County Judges' Plan," but these bills were not prepared by the County Judges' association nor did not originate with such group. They were prepared by the county auditor of Dallas county and Hon. W. P. Dumas of Dallas, Texas, one of the outstanding bond attorneys of the South, and I daresay they were prepared particularly to fit the needs of Dallas county, and incidentally they may fit the needs of several other counties, but there are many counties whose needs they do not fit.

These bills have been urged as "The Bond Assumption Bills," without any explanation as to what the one-cent additional gasoline tax is for, and without telling the origin of the bills. House Bill No. 483 has been drawn closely tied-in with the bill passed by the legislature authorizing the payment by the state of bonded indebtedness incurred by counties and road districts for the building of designated state and federal highways. It is, therefore, confusing and misleading to denominate these bills as "The Bond Assumption Bills," and I charge also that it would be more appropriate to call the "plan" the "Dallas County Plan," or "The Bond Holders' Plan," than it would to say "The County Judges' Plan."

Some have expressed surprise at me for taking the position I am when so many of the legislative committee whom I, as President of the State Association, appointed from each senatorial district in Texas, are advocates of these bills, but no committee can commit me to any legislation and not a one time to expect good production. Foster sells infertile eggs which he guarantees to be good, and therefore he receives a small premium on all sales.

ELDORADO—Seven Schleicher county 4-H club boys received a total of $21.00 for their club work during 1934, according to C. Shell, county agricultural agent. The boys fed out 112 head of lambs and won $409 in prize money at two shows. The sale prices for the lambs varied from seven and one-half to $3.50 per pound. Meell moore sold his prize winning lamb at $3.50 per pound, and Edgar Sauer sold his lamb for $1 per pound. A car load of lambs brought $9.75 per hundred.

of them has ever challenged any statement I have made concerning the matter, so far as I know; therefore, I am at a loss to know why they are surprised unless it is because I am divulging too much of the truth about who originated the bills and where the one-cent additional gasoline tax will be spent, if levied. I have no crow to pick with them and have allowed them the privilege of proclaiming their convictions as loud and as long as they may choose, but I shall take the same privilege.

I apologize for writing such a lengthy communication to you busy men, but again I express my appreciation to each of you and to all others who are opposing these unfair measures. I am confident these measures will not pass the legislature for the simple reason I believe we have too many fair-minded, aggressive men in your ranks who will see that such measures do not pass. I am not basing my hopes on the fact that I am opposed to the measures myself and that my influence will cut any figure in the matter, but upon the fact that there are too many good men among you to let such a tragedy happen.

The above are my personal and deliberate convictions without any apology to any man, and any one or more of you are at liberty to use them if you choose.

4,986 to Enroll In Texas CCC Camps

AUSTIN.—Authority to enroll 4,986 Texas boys in citizens conservation camps in the eighth corps area was received here last week by Neal E. Guy, enrollment supervisor for Texas.

County administrators were notified immediately to instruct boys selected to report to recruiting stations between April 17 and 23. Enrollment will be for a six-month period as usual with an opportunity to re-enroll for an additional six months.

Effect of this new enrollment of boys will be to take approximately 5,000 Texas families off the relief rolls by June 1, at which time first checks will be received by beneficiaries of enrollees.

Guy said approximately 2,725 young men will be sent out of the state to camps in Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, and Wyoming. The remainder will go to the 55 camps in Texas.

Enrollment of these boys will again bring the quota of Texas young men in CCC camps to the maximum figure of slightly more than 14,000.

JOHNSON CONVICTED OF HAMMER MURDER
WICHITA FALLS, April 18.—Fred Johnston today was convicted of the hammer murder of Mrs. Maud Hefley, his sweetheart and given a sentence of 55 years in prison.

Johnston's attorneys had attempted to show by testimony of his son, Ernest, and others, that Johnston was insane. The son said his father brooded and acted queerly the last year.

Turn Onto the Road to Church

Church helps a man from his moral ruts and starts him on the highway of right thinking and right living. The longer we travel in ruts the deeper they become and the more difficult it is to get out of them.

The churches of this community are here to help you out of both social and moral ruts. They provide Christian fellowship and offer the only solution for sin: the gospel of Jesus Christ. No man ever regretted the time he spent in church attendance. Let us help you out of your ruts—perhaps you will help us out of ours. Come to church Sunday.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

National Jamboree

The members of the Comanche Trail council jamboree committee state that there may be some vacancies in the National Jamboree troop. Should there be any vacancies, scouts who want to go and can finance their way should put in their applications at once. A number of applications with fees attached have already been received at the office. This will certainly be a wonderful experience for scouts who are fortunate enough to have an opportunity to attend and will mean so much to the troops who are taking care of delegates' expenses. Each scout, who has had a part in sending a representative from his troop should be commended for the part he has played.

There will be some 30,000 scouts and 5,000 or 6,000 leaders—a tented city of 35,000 population. What a camp!

I think that it is understood that each scout who goes as a delegate will have the responsibility of bringing the jamboree back to his own troop as nearly as it is possible for him to do so.

Camp Billy Gibbons

The folder and registration blank for Camp Billy Gibbons is now being printed, and will be sent out to all scouts in a few days. Council officials feel that this will be the greatest camp in the history of Comanche Trail council. Instruction in water activities, and handicraft, including archery, leathercraft, silversmith, horncraft, beadwork, airplane building, etc., will be offered. Also hiking, cooking, and other outdoor merit badge tests will be given. Of course the camp paper, "The Daily Bugle Call," is to be in full swing again, giving the daily results of contests, comical incidents, and all other happenings in camp.

Discharge Cisco Man as Executor McMurray Estate

Discharge of P. R. Warwick of Cisco as executor of the estate of James Lindsey McMurray, who died Oct. 3, 1934, has been made by the county court, papers on file

"OUT OUR WAY" ----- By Williams

BORN THIRTY YEARS TOO SOON.

Thursday in the county clerk's office showed. The discharge had been requested after estate papers had been filed.

Since he had charge of the estate, Warwick's papers showed, $35,055.72 had come into the estate while estate debts were paid out in the sum of $27,217.75. Other money paid out totaled $1,469.73.

There remained a bank balance of $5,928.29, the papers stated.

JEANETTE MACDONALD AND NELSON EDDY STAR IN VICTOR HERBERT'S "NAUGHTY MARIETTA," SCREEN'S FIRST MUSICAL ADVENTURE STORY

Produced on a spectacular scale by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, with Jeanette MacDonald, the Sonia of "The Merry Widow" and acknowledged one of the greatest singing stars of the American screen, and Nelson Eddy, American operatic baritone, hailed as a sensational "discovery" among romantic leading men, "Naughty Marietta" was filmed as a thundering drama of the romantic Creole days of St. Louis, a vehicle that gives to the famous Victor Herbert music the importance it merits.

"Naughty Marietta" is acknowledged one of the five greatest comic operas ever composed in America, the others being De Koven's "Robin Hood," and Herbert's "Serenade," "Fortune Tell" and "Mlle. Modiste."

It was first produced in the New York Theatre, Nov. 7, 1910, by Oscar Hammerstein, with Emma Trentini, from grand opera, and Orville Harrold. Herbert's music had a libretto by Rida Johnson Young. It took the country by storm. "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," one of its greatest songs, remains popular to this day and is hailed as one of America's musical masterpieces. "I'm Falling in Love with Someone" is another song that has come down the years as popular today as at its premiere.

Herbert, America's greatest romantic composer, was born in Ireland, received his musical education in Germany, and then came to this country where he composed his great musical shows. Among them were "Naughty Marietta," "Babes in Toyland," "It Happened in Nordland," "Rose of Algeria" (in which the late Lon Chaney was a comedian), "Wizard of the Nile" and "The Idol's Eye." He also wrote a grand opera, "Natomas."

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's screen transcription of "Naughty Marietta," which will be shown here starting Monday takes on as much importance as its original stage premiere because of the unique handling of the story. The old comic opera libretto was laid aside, and the stirring incidents, historical facts and dramatic thrills referred to in dialogue in the stage version are actually shown.

The importation of the Casquette girls from France to mate with the settlers in Louisiana, the New Orleans marriage auction, the battle of the Everglades, the giraffe capture of the casquette ship, the Paris of Louis XV and other authentic and dramatic details of the history of the founding of one of America's most romantic cities were woven into a thrilling adventure romance, directed by a master of adventure, W. S. Van Dyke, of "Crazer Horn," "Thin Man," "Manhattan Melodrama," "The Pagan," "Cuban Love Song," and other successes.

Mrs. MacDonald plays a princess who masquerades as a casquette girl, and Nelson Eddy a British officer in New Orleans. Their scenes are backed by huge symphony orchestra, a chorus of a hundred voices, and many musical novelties fitted into the score by Herbert Elothart, famous American composer and one-time associate of Herbert.

An elaborate cast surrounds the famous singing principals, including Frank Morgan, Elsa Lanchester (Mrs. Charles Laughton), Douglas Dumbrille, Joseph Cawthorne, Cecilia Parker, Walter Kingsford, Greta Meyer, Akim Tamiroff, Harold Huber and Edward Brophy.

"Mississippi" is a tuneful film of Old Dixie

Bing Crosby, as Dixie's fiercest fighter and sweetest singer, heads the comedy, singing and romantic cast of Paramount's "Mississippi," which comes Saturday to the Arcadia Theatre.

"Mississippi," a story of the old South, stars Crosby with W. C. Fields and Joan Bennett, while Queenie Smith, John Miljan, Gail Patrick and the Cabin Kids are prominently featured in the supporting cast.

The plot of "Mississippi" revolves about a Yankee youth, unfamiliar with the ways of the Old South, who declines to duel for his sweetheart's hand. Branded as a coward, he finds refuge with old Commodore Jackson's troupe of actors as a singing attraction. Under the Commodore's tutelage, he becomes the most feared gunfighter on the river, and, just as he is about to return to the girl, he finds that he is in love with another lady who detests duelling.

DESDEMONA

On Tuesday afternoon of last week the clubhouse of the "21" Study club was beautifully decorated with potted ferns and vases filled with locust and wild plum blossoms, carrying out the club colors of white and green, the decorations being in honor of the coming of the Gorman Excelsior club to present their annual exchange program. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. A. B. Henslee, president of the "21" Study club, who spoke a few words of welcome and then gave the meeting over to the Excelsior club. Roll call responses were rules in parliamentary law. Mrs. Ed Sutton gave a splendid talk on State and National Government, and Mrs. Ellen Oldham followed with a very interesting discussion of County Government. All present felt that much information had been gained from hearing these talks. One feature of the afternoon's session that was much enjoyed was an exhibit of original paintings owned by members of the "21" Study club. Mrs. W. E. Barron had three oil paintings which she had painted, though she had never taken an art lesson. Mrs. David Parks exhibited three pictures painted by her daughter, Miss Dorothy Parks, a junior in our high school, and also a landscape of a place near Big Spring, painted by Mrs. Parks' sister, Mrs. Gifford Acrea had an exhibit of paintings of swans and water lilies made by Miss Avis Brown who died a few years ago, and also three silhouettes made by her brother, Mr. Pritchett of Ranger.

John O'Rear and his two sisters, Mrs. Mollie O'Rear and Mrs. Annie Daniel, enjoyed a visit Sunday afternoon from Mrs. Cora Morris and her daughters, Misses Fannie, Cora Etta and Helen, and Messrs Milton Tipton and Joe Offord, all of Seymour. Mrs. Morris formerly lived here and this was her first visit here in 45 years. Her friends here several years ago, and Mrs. W. C. Bedford had a pastel of "Evangeline," painted by Miss Sal. He Bacon, formerly of Cisco, but now of Fort Worth. After the program, the hostesses, Mrs. Roy Ashburn, A. B. Henslee and W. C. Bedford served an attractive refreshment plate of meat and nut sandwiches, golden glow salad on lettuce, saltines, pickle, angel food squares iced in green, and coffee, with Easter rabbits as favors. These present from Gorman were Mrs. Ellen Oldham, Ed Sutton, Blis, Teitens, Wright, Foster, Sperry, Iser, and the following Desdemona ladies: Mrs. S. E. Snodgrass, J. E. Heeter, Mattie Henry, John Mendonhall, C. W. Matthy, A. C. Robert, David Parks, Clarence Ragland, W. H. Davis, Stanley Stark, D. E. Lewis, A. B. Henslee, Roy Ashburn and W. C. Bedford.

W. A. Tate of Carbon visited friends here Thursday.

A. C. Robert, Jr., returned to Kilgore Thursday after a few days visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robert, Sr.

O. P. Newberry, president of the First National Bank of Gorman, came over on business Monday afternoon.

G. A. Koontz drove up to Eastland on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Everett of Ranger were guests of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Stark, Friday night.

of former years were delighted to see her again.

Mrs. W. E. Barron and Mrs. Charles Lee returned Thursday afternoon from Breckenridge, where they had attended the annual Missionary conference of the Central Texas Methodist conference. Mrs. Barron, who has served as secretary of the Cisco district (the highest office in the district) for the past four years, was elected unanimously to serve a fifth year. They reported the meeting to have been well attended and of great interest. Mrs. Barron was on the program several times.

N. D. Gallagher of Cisco, came down Monday to look after his property and while here visited with a number of old friends who are always glad to see him and who still think of him as one of our citizens.

The many friends of Dr. P. M. Kuykendall of Ranger were glad to learn that the final report for the county board showed that he was elected by a safe majority. The vote in Desdemona was 40 for Dr. Kuykendall and 6 for his opponent, showing that his friends and former neighbors remember how well he served as trustee for our local schools for a number of years and know that he will serve equally well on the county board.

E. C. Gibbons, who has been here nearly a year, working for the Radio Oil and Gas Co., left Tuesday morning for Ada, Okla. While here he made many friends who regret to see him leave.

A pre-Easter revival meeting is in progress at the Methodist church, with the pastor, Rev. H. H. Nance doing the preaching. Quite a good interest is being taken in the services and much good is being done.

Mrs. Roy Ashburn, Clarence Ragland, J. H. Jackson, Mattie Henry and J. N. Williams drove up to Cisco Monday and attended the Easter Star school of instruction for this district.

Mrs. Clarence Ragland was hostess Thursday afternoon at the club house at a delightful party given in honor of her friend, Mrs. Obie Elrod, who was presented with a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

The committee composed of W. B. Crossley, Dr. D. T. Wier, Floyd Killingsworth, Charles J. Moore, and A. N. Swanney of Fort Worth, formerly with the "Chuck Wagon Gang" and known as "Biscuit Bob" to direct the play, arrange for costumes, curtains, script, songs—in fact, do everything that will insure a good minstrel, full of songs, dances, jokes and fun.

A large number of Ranger people are being visited by the Lions and asked to work with the club in making the show a success by taking part and lending their talent. The first meeting has been called for 7:30 p. m. and every person who would be willing to take part is asked to come to the American Legion hall and let Mr. Swanney cast them in the part best suited for each person's talent.

According to the Lions working up material for the cast and visiting the many Ranger people who have talent for entertaining, the response has been wonderful, everyone talked to has been very enthusiastic and they in the part best real success.

RANGER MAY GET NATIONAL GUARD ARMORY

The Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of a letter from Carl Nesbett, adjutant general of Texas, stating that Ranger is in line for a $40,000 armory building under a new building program now being planned by the federal government.

The plans, as tentatively outlined by the government, call for expenditure of 6,000,000 in Texas for permanent national guard armories, to replace present armories on which the government is paying rent. Ranger is in line for one of these buildings because of the fact that the town has maintained a national guard unit for the past eight years.

Under the plans the city must furnish the lot on which the armory can be built, and all other expenses in connection with erection of the building, under army specifications, will be furnished by the federal government.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Helped Miss Kesterke

We quote from her letter: "Three years ago, I became constipated. I tried many laxatives. But as soon as I got used to each kind, I began to get the same trouble.

"Last summer I was on my vacation. They served Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I just loved it. I eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN every morning, and ever since I have not had to take any more laxatives."

*Due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN is also rich in vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle. It resists digestion better than the fiber in fruits and vegetables, so it is often more effective.

Isn't this food safer than risking patent medicines? Two tablespoons of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. If seriously constipated, use with each meal. See your doctor, if you do not get relief.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

House-to-House Peddler Forces Way Into Home

(Minneapolis Daily Star) ... A house-to-house canvasser who insisted on smoking a cigarette before he left the house today gave Mrs. L. H. Peterson, 2516 Thirty-Seventh avenue, S., one of the most unpleasant experiences of her life, she said, after she finally got rid of him.

versed in all the tricks of the trade, the salesman came into the house uninvited, and proceeded to make himself at home. She was in the basement attending to her household duties when the front doorbell rang. Hurrying up to open the door, Mrs. Peterson was confronted by a man who insisted on presenting her free of charge one of the articles he was selling.

"I don't want it," Mrs. Peterson told him. "I won't give you an order anyway, as I don't need a thing."

"Just let me give you this," the man insisted. You needn't give me an order. We want you to try our article and see how you like it, etc."

BOY TELLS OF BODY PLACED IN TANK CAR

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 15.—Records of the movement of a string of Sinclair Refining company tank cars were studied today so officers could run down the cars and look inside for the body of Mrs. Isabel Couch, 24.

D. A. Couch Jr., 5, the woman's son, told police that his father, an unemployed oil field worker, "killed mother and threw her in a hole."

The youngster pointed out some oil tank cars and said they were like the tank in which the father crammed the body. The father denied there had been a killing.

"I am innocent. She just ran away. She ran away last November and was gone a week. She will come back this time. We had trouble, but I did not kill her. The boy just had a dream. I want to find her so I can get out of jail and back to my two babies."

Couch said he believed his wife had gone to visit her parents in North Dakota.

The cars, meantime, may be filled with oil or gasoline by now and may be in as many states as there are cars. It was necessary to check on all empty cars on the railroad siding near the Couch home on the evening of March 19.

L. C. Owen vs. Bertha May Owen, divorce and partition of cattle.

"I don't want anything," she told him over and over, but the salesman was undaunted. In fact, when she turned her back for a moment, he doffed his overcoat and lit a cigarette. Nor would he leave the house until he had finished his smoke, in the meantime flicking his ashes into the fireplace and rattling off his sales talk.

"May I leave my case here, madam, for about an hour?" the man wanted to know when he was finally ready to leave.

"I should say not," Mrs. Peterson, thoroughly exasperated, told him. "I won't be here and couldn't give it to you anyway."

"Well, maybe I can leave it next door," the canvasser said, threw his cigarette end into the fireplace, put on his overcoat and left.

The girl, who enjoyed the movie with the youth the night of Feb. 5, brought a solution of the mysterious killing after a lovers' quarrel.

Russell Boley, the teacher's college freshman with whom the girl kept company, awaited arraignment on a double murder charge. He contemplated his blasted romance and the possibility that he may face death in the chair.
