THWARTED. BANDITS DECAMP

Train Guarded by Pair of Thugs Who Keep Up Fusillade Along Cars—No Attempt to Molest Passengers

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 26.—The westbound Northern Pacific train was held up at Sand Point, Idaho, 65 miles east of here at 11 o'clock last night.

The robbers of whom there were seven forced the engineer to stop the train after which they uncoupled the baggage car. Then they compelled the engineer at the point of a revolver to pull up the track about three miles further, where they tried to wreck the baggage car with dynamite.

The explosives failed to work for some unknown cause and after spending 15 minutes with the car the robbers decamped, allowing the engineer to go back to the train with his engine. The other thugs had guarded the train, keeping the passengers inside by firing revolvers along the sides of the train. No attempt was made to molest the passengers and

HANDCUFFS LIKE TWINE

MUTINOUS SAILOR BREAKS THEM WITH EASE

Two of Them Proceeded to Hammer Up a Policeman, all of Which Lands Them in Court

New York, Aug. 26.—Several sailors who are said to have been indulging too freely in stimulants have caused a fight on George W. C. Drexel's yacht, the Alcedo, from Philadelphia, which almost amounted to mutiny, says a Halifax dispatch to the Herald. Several members of the crew became intoxicated and began smashing things on board. The captain called in a policeman but he was powerless.

Reinforcements were called and when they arrived the sailor who was the principal cause of the trouble retreated down a hatchway. The policeman closed with him and after putting trousers on him brought him to the deck. Then they started to handcuff another sailor. Meanwhile the prisoner snapped the handcuffs apparently as easily as if they were made of twine. The two prisoners finally were taken to the station, but during the scuffle the policeman had his helmet broken and got many cuts. The prisoners were paid off by the captain and they will be arraigned in court.

PRICE OF BOTTLES TAKES UPWARD SHOOT

Advance from Ten to Fifteen Cents Necessary Owing to Increased Cost of Labor and Material

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Prices of bottles will be raised from 10c to 15c a gross. This statement was made last night by J. L. Turner, president of the Western Glass Bottle association, which has been in session in Chicago, and which authorized the advance. He said the cause of the raise was the increased cost of production, due to the advance in the price of both labor and materials. The association includes 18 of the largest manufacturers of the United States.

DISCUSS SECURITIES

Status of Suits Is Gone Over, and Coal Strike Referred to—Neither Magnate Talks for the Public

New York, Aug. 26.—Fresh from a tour of the railroads in which he is interested, James J. Hill, president of the Northern Securities company, has returned to this city enthusiastic over the agricultural prospects. Mr. Hill visited the office of J. Pierpont Morgan, with whom he was in consultation for some time.

During this consultation the position of the Northern Securities company is tipped to have been discussed and the status of the suits that are pending was gone over. In addition to this there were other matters discussed about which neither Mr. Morgan nor Mr. Hill would talk.

It was only incidentally that the coal strike situation was alluded to.

CORSICANA IS WINNER

FORT WORTH LOSES TO THE CHAMPIONS YESTERDAY

Had the Game Tied Until the Ninth Inning When the Home People Made a Sprint—Score 8 to 14

Fort Worth went "into camp" before Corsicana yesterday with a score of 8 to 1, and the pity of it was it was all done in the last inning. One to 1 was the score at the end of the first inning and 1 to 1 it remained through seven more innings. A wild throw in the ninth started the break and the winning team then crowded seven men across the plate. It was a magnificent exhibition of good playing on both sides, Corsicana making but one error and Fort Worth two. The score by innings and summary:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

Summary—Stolen bases, Maloney and Hill; two-base hits, Hill, Pendleton and Ripley; home-run, Maloney, double plays, Welter to White; bases on balls, off Method 1, off McKay 1; struck out, by Method 2, by McKay 4; passed balls, Wolfe; earned runs, Corsicana 6; left on bases, Corsicana 5; Fort Worth 7; sacrifice hit, White; time of game, 1 hour and 27 minutes; umpire, Eldridge.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by N. E. Grammer, druggist.

HE JUST HAD FORTY

How a Texan Was Easily Relieved of His Roll

Former Congressman Hawley tells, apparently with great pleasure, how J. A. Galbraith, former general freight agent of the International and Great Northern, paid $40 for having his leg pulled when he was in New York recently, says the Houston Chronicle. Galbraith was walking in Twenty-fourth street, when suddenly an excruciating pain in his foot developed. It alarmed him, and, seeing a doctor's sign a few doors away, he limped to the house and went in. He explained how he had been stricken and the doctor examined the foot.

"My dear sir," said the disciple of Galen, "go home at once; delay not."

"Why," said Galbraith in affright, "I live a long way off. I'm stopping at a hotel, and—"

"Well," said the doctor, "if you don't wish to go to the hotel I have a sanitarium here."

Galbraith was assisted into a room and went to bed. The doctor glanced at Galbraith's foot and gave a sleeping potion to him. Galbraith was in an agony of apprehension.

When he awakened in the morning the horror of his position was the first thing that came into his mind. He wondered for a long time whether the foot was paralyzed. He was afraid to move because he didn't want to know the horrible truth too soon. For half an hour he lay there in torture. Then slowly and most gingerly he moved the foot that wasn't affected. Then he waited a little while until his courage became stronger, when he tried to move the other foot. As he did so he thought of what the doctor's words portended, "Go home at once; delay not." Did it mean he would be crippled for life? Thought-

DON'T DELAY. MR. HENDERSON INVITES YOU

It is "Putting Off" Till Some Other Day that Causes so Many Sudden Deaths.

Be sure you need a medicine before you take it, but having once found out that you need it, lose no time in getting the best. If it's for the kidneys, liver, bladder or blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia, chronic constipation, or the weaknesses peculiar to women, the best is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and a very simple way to find out if you need it, is to put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours; if it has a sediment or a milky, cloudy appearance; if it is ropy or stringy, pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that your kidneys and bladder are badly affected.

The Rev. Theodore Hunter, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Greensburg, Ky., writes us the following:

"It gives me much pleasure to state that I have received great benefit from the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Some time ago I had a severe attack of kidney trouble, but a few bottles of 'Favorite Remedy' have entirely removed the malady."

"Favorite Remedy" speedily cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, burning scalding pain in passing water, the staining of linen by your urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whiskey and beer. All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the new 50 cent size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn, and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. PUSHING THE VIADUCT

Union Banner: Two men, a nigger and a monkey wrench were hard at work this week on the viaduct. If continued at this rate it will surely reach completion during the twentieth century and be an ironical monument to the steel trust. The west approach is covered with weeds and sunflowers. It is proposed next year to plant it in kaffir corn or cotton. Contractor Leversedge may not live long enough to finish the work but he expects to leave children and grandchildren who will keep on world without end. Finale futuribus.

Southern Minnesota's prosperity is said to be due to the many creameries, which have made it the "butter state" of the Union.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE MANAGER ANXIOUS TO EXHIBIT NEW SYSTEM

Wants to Show You Through the Works and Explain the Central Energy Apparatus—Special Invitation to Lady Patrons

Manager Henderson of the Telephone Exchange announces that the central energy system is now about complete, and all the old phones have been replaced. Mr. Henderson is anxious for patrons of the exchange to call and be shown through the building, and suggests parties of ladies and gentlemen to call at any time and he will take pleasure in showing them through and explaining the workings of the system, and will also give a lecture on the uses and abuses of the telephone. If such parties will phone him and get an hour he will make it convenient to be at the exchange.

There is a great deal that can be explained to patrons in this manner that will prove beneficial not only to the patron but to the operator as well. For instance, there are a great many patrons who go to directory and hurriedly select a number instead of a phone number; the connection is made with that number, which of course proves to be wrong. The operator is blamed for the mistake, when the patron is at fault. There are other things which come up every hour in the day and night equally as vexing, and besides being put aright on these points it is interesting to see how an up-to-date telephone system is carried on.

Mr. Henderson hopes that every patron of the system in the city will accept this invitation, especially the ladies. He only asks that he be notified by phone beforehand in order that he may be at the exchange when his patrons favor with a visit.

IT NEEDS A TONIC

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland avenue, Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. Smallwood & Anderson, Anderson & Smallwood.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHIEFS OF POLICE

Secretary Forrest of the State Association Has Sent Out the June Proceedings—A Neat Compilation

Chief of Police Rea, who is president of the State Police Chiefs and City Marshal's association, has received the printed minutes of the last session, held in Fort Worth in June, they having been sent him by Secretary Martin T. Forrest of Houston. These minutes are for the eighth annual meeting, and are quite complete in all respects. The pink tea color scheme of the cover commands admiration at a glance. It is a lesson itself, before one opens the pages, being suggestive of the peace and harmony, the dwelling together in unity, that the chiefs and marshals have ever taught to their wayward classes. It brings to mind gentleness and good manners. The selection is attributable to the taste of President Rea and Secretary Forrest. The contents include valuable statistics and addresses upon subjects of vital interest to every city and town in Texas, which means the people that make them, including the women and children. Among the contents are papers from Edgar Watkins on "Industrial Schools," report of the committee on same including the "Youthful Criminal," "The Migratory Criminal," by Chief Blackburn, and a number of other subjects.

The neat manner in which the proceedings are prepared reflects the painstaking efforts of Secretary Forrest, and is suggestive of the reason why he is from year to year reelected.

SEES THINGS AT NIGHT

THE CORRESPONDENT ONCE MORE GETS IN HIS WORK

The following "special" from a correspondent at Hillsboro, Tex., who is evidently shy of copy and also sensations, has been published in some of the state papers:

"For the last few nights moon-gazers have been rewarded with the sight of a beautiful phenomenon. Shortly after the moon rises there appear four streamers of light extending two degrees from the outer edge of the moon, forming a perfect cross in the sky, with the moon exactly in the center. The light streamers are very tenuous and many persons fail to see them, but to many others they are plainly visible. Last night I could not see them at all out in the open where the light flooded the eyes, but well back in a dark room, looking through the open window, and again with a tube of cardboard darkened inside, a good view was obtained."

It might be interesting to know that the "beautiful phenomenon" has been seen in the world since about the middle of the year 1, and will doubtless continue to be seen as long as there are Augusts in Texas. As for being new, it is almost as good as a story about the aurora borealis being seen at Hudson bay would be. "The phenomenon" usually lasts two weeks and is often seen at other times in the year, in fact, as often as the atmosphere is in the right condition.

AN IMPOSITION ON BUSINESS MEN

Our business men should not confuse our graduates with those of other schools. It is an imposition, to the business man and a wrong to the student to recommend a half prepared stenographer or bookkeeper.

The Fort Worth Business college does not guarantee or make other false promises; therefore does not force its students on the public before well prepared; special cash rates before September 1; tuition may be paid in installments; a limited number of scholarships will be issued for board.

MADE OF POSTAGE STAMPS

Governor Sayers the recipient of a Unique Cane

Austin Dispatch: Governor Sayers has been made the recipient of a much appreciated gift, being a handsome and unique walking cane, sent with the compliments of the little son of Colonel W. M. Lack, assistant superintendent of penitentiaries. The young man supplied a life term convict at Rusk with 10,000 postage stamps, which were strung on steel rod, compressed and then rounded. It is an attractive stick, and as the different stamps are arranged as to colors the harmony is striking. The handle is of horn. The surface, which consists of the rounded edges of the stamps, is smooth and polished, the packing is so tight.

YESTERDAY WAS A SWELTERING ONE

THERMOMETER WENT TO 100 DEGREES AND MORE IN SOME PLACES

Yesterday was a hot day in Texas. At Dallas, Beville, Brownwood, Corsicana, Cuero, Greenville, Houston, Lampasas, Paris, Tyler, Waxahatche, Waco and Weatherford, the thermometer went to 100 degrees. In Henrietta it was 104 and in Fort Worth it was 98.

Not a drop of rain fell in Texas, and as far as is known none is in sight for today or tomorrow.

There are no marked storm developments in the country today east of the Rocky mountains. The weather is cloudy along the Rocky mountain slopes, with thundershowers in New Mexico, Colorado and thence eastward to the lower Missouri valley.

Clear skies prevail in the cotton region east and west of the Mississippi.

A government expedition has found a Mexican cactus known as "dry whisky" for the reason that the leaves, when eaten, cause intoxication.

CATTLE WERE WELL DIPPED

WORK OF RIDDING STOCK OF FEVER INFECTION TICKS

Successful Experiments at Wilson & Robinson's Ranch in Archer County on Saturday—Big Barbecue Also That Was Enjoyed

C. J. Larimer returned yesterday from Archer county where he went to witness the cattle dipping experiments by Dr. Victor Norgaard. The dipping was successful in every particular and very satisfactory to the cattlemen who witnessed it.

There were present about a hundred guests, including neighbors and stockmen from the vicinity. Fort Worth was represented by C. J. Larimer, Joseph E. Loving, and Mr. Maury. Others present were W. M. Moore of Ardmore, J. T. Speer of Quannah, and Ed. Wellesley of Windthorst. The Fort Worth party left here at 6 o'clock Friday afternoon and shortly after midnight left Wichita Falls in carriages for Wilson & Robinson's ranch, which is twenty-five miles southeast of Wichita Falls, where the dipping was to be done.

There were about 600 head of cattle dipped, requiring four hours' time. The work was done partly in the early hours of the day before the heat became oppressive.

The trouble with most dips is that if they are strong enough to kill the ticks at once the cattle are injured. With the present dip the ticks die within twelve or twenty-four hours after dipping and in the meantime it is claimed that all propagation ceases.

The cattle dipped Saturday were turned into a pasture and will be dipped from time to time as occasion requires, the object being to clear the pasture as much as possible of them. There will be a vat built also at a railroad station so that a final dipping can be given whenever it is desired to ship them across the line.

Mr. Larimer saw some cattle belonging to T. B. Jones which he saw dipped three weeks ago and says they were in good condition and did not appear to have suffered any ill effects from it. They have just taken another dip also.

The barbecue was one of the features of the occasion, a 600-pound yearling being browned to a turn, and the juicy morsels were accompanied by other eatables and drinkables that made a well-rounded out feast.

THE HIGHWAY OF THE EMPIRE

Two Views of the New York Central Secretary Shaw's campaign joke book, which has been accepted as law and gospel, contains this:

"I stopped off at Syracuse not a great while ago and listened to two men talking about the tremendous business development of this country in which everybody was sharing. One of them was pointing the point that the general prosperity was for the benefit of the entire community.

"Look at this great railroad, with its four tracks running east and west," he said. "It is a highway of empire, carrying each day to the Atlantic or the Pacific the product of the factory, the mine, and the loom. Wipe it off the map and everything comes to a standstill, and we become involved in a common ruin."

"Just then the Empire State Express came rushing along and a red hot cinder struck the speaker in the eye."

"These engines," said he, "wish there was not a railroad in the country." —New York Herald.

Government Employees Dismissed.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Secretary Shaw has ordered the dismissal from the treasury department of Lorenzo G. Warfield, a clerk in the division of bookkeeping and warrants. The attention of the department was called a few days ago by a circular, said to have been issued by an organization in which Mr. Warfield was treasurer. The circular gave the plans of a proposed association by which the stockholders could probably reap large returns from a scheme to play the races. One clause in the circular cited the fact that Mr. Warfield held an important position in the treasury department and gave this as an evidence of the respectability of the association. The dismissal was based on the use of the departments name in the case.

At these points preparations will be made for the army and navy maneuvers which will be held the last part of this week.

PRESIDENT IS STILL TOURING

GIVEN A WELCOME IN THREE MASSACHUSETTS TOWNS

A CROWD AT BOSTON

Roosevelt's Main Subject Is Trusts—Reception in Lynn and Nahant Was Extraordinary — in Maine Tonight

Boston, Aug. 26.—President Roosevelt left at 8:35 a. m. to continue his tour of New England, his first stop to be at Lowell. He will travel in New Hampshire today, speaking at Dover and go into Maine as far as Augusta where he will be the guest of Governor Hill tonight.

Boston, Aug. 26.—This week's tour of President Roosevelt through New England began in earnest Monday afternoon when he departed from the summer home of the junior senator of Massachusetts, Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, at Nahant, and amid the enthusiasm of the greatest number of people he has faced since the Pittsburgh visit on July 4, rode into Lynn under cavalry escort and spoke from a platform in the city hall.

Then he came to Boston by special train and on arrival went to Symphony hall, there addressing a great gathering of Boston business men. His speech there was devoted almost entirely to consideration of the trust question. From the hall the president went to Hotel Touraine, where a little later in the evening he was the guest of Governor Crane.

Nahant and Lynn again divided honors in welcoming the president. He spent a quiet morning and afternoon at the Lodge home, and at 2:30 o'clock started for the platform in Nahant, where he was to deliver his address. Simultaneously with the moving of the procession a battery nearby fired a salute of 21 guns. As the president appeared on the platform he was loudly cheered. About 15 minutes were consumed in his address.

The drive from Nahant to Lynn occupied about 20 minutes. At the city hall the president was met by Mayor Shepley and a committee and escorted to the city hall by two companies of militia and one of the naval brigade.

From the city hall the procession was taken to the depot where there was a wait for the special train to take the party to Boston. The president held an informal reception on the platform. He will leave here for Maine.

An Engineer Suicides

Cleburne, Tex., Aug. 26.—Al E. Alden, one of the best known locomotive engineers in Texas, shot himself through the head with a pistol Monday. He had been employed by seven railroad companies in this country. Two years ago he quit the road and went to farming two and a half miles from this city and it was in the barn on his farm that he shot himself. He left a note to his wife. He was a member of the B. L. E. and carried several thousand dollars insurance on his life. An inquest was held and a verdict of self-destruction returned.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by N. E. Grammer, Druggist.

Laredo, Tex., Aug. 26.—One of the most numerous signed petitions ever got up in Webb county will be sent through Governor Sayers to the next legislature asking that in consideration of the frightful distress which has resulted in this, one of the oldest counties in the state, on account of the continuous drought which prevailed in this section for the last three years, the taxpayers be exempted from paying the state taxes this year.

IS IT AN EPIDEMIC?

Vital Statistics Show an Alarming Increase in an Already Prevailing Disease—Are Any Exempt?

At no time in the history of disease has there been such an alarming increase in the number of cases of any particular malady as in that of kidney and bladder troubles now prevailing upon the people of this country.

Today we see a relative, a friend or an acquaintance apparently well, and in a few days we may be grieved to learn of their serious illness or sudden death, caused by that fatal type of kidney trouble—Bright's disease.

Kidney trouble often becomes advanced into acute stages before the afflicted is aware of its presence; that is why we read of so many sudden deaths of prominent business and professional men, physicians and others. They have neglected to stop the leak in time.

While scientists are puzzling their brains to find out the cause, each individual can, by a little precaution, avoid the chances of contracting dreaded and dangerous kidney trouble, or eradicate it completely from their system if already afflicted. Many precious lives might have been, and many more can yet be saved, by paying attention to the kidneys.

It is the mission of the Mail-Telegram to benefit its readers at every opportunity and therefore we advise all who have any symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble to write today to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a free sample bottle of Swamp-Root, the celebrated specific which is having such a great demand and remarkable success in the cure of the most distressing kidney and bladder troubles. With the sample bottle of Swamp-Root will also be sent free a pamphlet and treatise of valuable information.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

TO REDEEM POSTAL CARDS

IMPORTANT DECISION OF THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED

Heretofore Only Stamped Envelopes Were Returnable and Result Was Often a Loss to Lodges and Others

An important order has just been issued by Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden regarding the redemption of unused and unserviceable postal cards. Heretofore unused stamped envelopes which are of no use to the owners, have been redeemed at 2c each and there are no less than 5000 such envelopes at the local postoffice which have been redeemed since last March. It is unkind to disclose it, but many of the envelopes are received from men who save the self-addressed and stamped letters they receive in their daily mail, till they get a little pile and then cash them in for postage stamps, postal cards, or other stamped envelopes.

There has never been any redemption scale for postal cards, and the offer of 75 cents per hundred will be a great convenience to lodges and other organizations which sometimes have several hundred postal cards printed, and afterwards are compelled to discard a large number of them. To be redeemed the postal cards must be whole and not mutilated, other than by printing or a spoiled address. They must not be embossed or enameled and they will be redeemed only in postage stamps, other postal cards, or stamped envelopes, no cash being paid for them. There is a regular scale for fewer postal cards than 100, the allowance being 1c for 2, 2c for 5, etc. A 2c postal card will be redeemed at twice the scale.

For New Cranes.

Bids are being considered in Washington for new devices to take mail on moving trains. The old-fashioned crane that stands at the little way stations where the through mail trains pass at 60 miles an hour, is not wholly satisfactory to the mail clerk who has to stand behind a shield because of the rushing wind and guess at the correct distance as he manages his crane in order to catch the pouch well. Sometimes the pouch is missed and sometimes it does not stay in the crane, but drops down and is ground under the wheels where the mail is cut and pressed into "greatly condensed news for family reading." The government is considering a catching device similar to a basket, but no decisions have been made public.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

ANOTHER VEIN FOUND.

Brewster County Rich in Cinnabar Deposits According to Reports.

Austin, Aug. 26.—Dr. W. B. Phillips, professor of field geology in the State university, who is at the head of the state geological survey, has made some important mineral discoveries in Brewster county, according to information received here. It is stated that while conducting the annual survey in that section he discovered some rich veins of quicksilver. The vein of this discovery is about 50 miles northeast of the town of Boquillas, near the Rio Grande border, and about 50 miles east of the Terlingua quicksilver district. It is believed that the new field will develop into one of the richest quicksilver districts in the country. The rock formation in which these quicksilver veins are found is believed to extend across the Rio Grande into Mexico and a quicksilver district will probably be opened up on the other side of the river.

Ardmore, I. T., Aug. 26.—Rev. John son of the Chickasaw nation has requested Agent Schoenfeld to send a militia company to Tishomingo when the Indian legislature convenes on Sept. 1. Tribal officials apprehend a clash between followers of Byrd and of Moseley, candidates for governor of the tribe. Both factions are claiming the election of their candidate. The legislature is to canvass the vote and declare the result. Tribal officials expect bloodshed to follow the decision of the legislature. The Indian agent cannot send troops, but has ordered the Indian police to report at the capital by Aug. 28.

Refuse to Issue License.

Lake Charles, La., Aug. 26.—Barney Nirdlinger and Charles Rea filed a petition to enjoin the mayor and officers of Jennings from interfering with their liquor business, and asking $1000 damages. The trouble arises from the failure of the Jennings city council to fix the amount of saloon license after the ward in which Jennings is situated had voted for license. The Jennings authorities claim that liquor selling is illegal as long as the council does not act.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, AUG. 26, 1902

Patronize Fort Worth industries. That's an oft repeated cry. But it's a poor song that won't bear repeating.

Br'er Watterson shouts out, "Ho! Democrats! Right about face! Turn your back upon the past and the face to the future!"

A paper up north talks about a congressional convention which cast 257 ballots before making a nomination as an occasion to be remembered.

A FEW STORIES

When Admirals Evans and Schley were both assigned to duty on the lighthouse board, which convenes in rooms at the treasury department in Washington, the Philadelphia Post relates, the colored messenger at the door one morning stopped Admiral Schley.

The small daughter of a German-town dentist was recently sent on an all-summer visit to an aunt in Me-happen, Pa. The child had always been very devout, and at home had been in the habit of kneeling by her bed, saying a formal prayer aloud in her mother's hearing, and then inaudibly adding a little invocation of her own composition.

Senator Billy Mason is making a great howl that the governor of Illinois has sanctioned an assessment of 5 per cent of the salaries of state officials. If some one shouted, "Cut it out!" Billy would say, "You are mistaken, my dear fellow. This is a case of cut it up."

The detectives who are trailing Watkins, the swindler, report slow progress, due, no doubt, to unexpected checks. If the people of Kyoto, Japan, were so inclined, what a breezy old time they could have! One factory there turns out three million fans a year.

Three Kentuckians who refused to go to work were tied up by masked men and lashed. These noble colonels teach us that the old American spirit which bids a man to suffer for his principles is not dead.

Tough soldiers mistook Jim Corbett for a farmer the other day and got a beating. When thousands of people mistook him for a champion pugilist they lost their money. Surely Jim is a hard man to size up.

The French monopoly on tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and matches is a peculiar enterprise. Last year everything went up in smoke, but France made seventy millions of dollars without holding a fire sale.

CASE By... Emile Gaboriau

Madeleine continued talking, and it was by closely watching the face of Lagors, clearly revealed by the lamp on the mantel, that M. Verduret hoped to discover the meaning of the scene.

Madeleine took the papers, but did not appear satisfied. She again entreated him to give her something else. Raoul refused, and then she threw the papers on the table.

"I certainly am not mistaken. Those papers—red, green and yellow—are pawnbrokers' tickets."

Madeleine turned them over, as if looking for some particular ones. She took three, which she put in her pocket, pushing the others aside.

She was a sweet young thing with a shy, timid air, which suited with her quiet costume and her bloomer hat. When the young man she got acquainted with at Brighton asked her to have some refreshments at a nearby pavilion she hesitated, but at last consented to take something to drink at the restaurant.

At the same time Madeleine and Raoul appeared in the doorway. Raoul set the lamp on the bottom step and offered his hand to the girl, but she refused it with haughty contempt.

"Man-hattan," she said, innocently. "Do women drink that?" "Why, of course, there are some women drinking them now," he responded, pointing to a couple who seemed to be enjoying the seductive and exhilarating mixture.

"You must be mistaken, George," Schley replied. "I happen to know that Commodore Evans, like the rest of us, thinks highly of your distinguished services."

"Oh, I'm sure," persisted the colored man, "that Commodore Evans don't like me no more."

"What makes you think so?" demanded Schley. "Well," explained the messenger, "usually when Commodore Evans arrives in the mornin' he says, 'Hello, George, you blankety-blank-blank fool! How are you?' but this mornin' he done say merely, 'Hello, George!'" a few forlorn looking people remained. The clown thought it a favorable opportunity for carrying out his project. He abruptly left his position, somersaulting his swivel and beating his banner, and, crossing the gallery, seated himself in a chair between Mme. Fauvel and the door.

"Ladies and gentlemen, this very morning I obtained a license from the authorities of this town. And what for? Why, gentlemen, for the purpose of exhibiting to you a spectacle which has already won the admiration of the four quarters of the globe.

"Now, ladies and gentlemen," he resumed, "you wish to know what I am doing outside if the piece is to be performed under the tent. The fact is, gentlemen, that I wish to give you a foretaste of the entertainment which you may enjoy by paying the small sum of 10 cents.

"Do you know this clown?" asked an enormous Turk of a melancholy Punch. "No, but he can imitate a trumpet splendidly."

The clown was endeavoring to attract the attention of Mme. Fauvel, who since Raoul and Madeleine had left her had abandoned herself to a mournful reverie. He succeeded. The showman's shrill voice brought the banker's wife back to a sense of reality.

"Now, ladies, we are in China. The first picture on my canvas, here to the left"—he pointed to the top dais—"represents the celebrated Mandarin Li Fo in the bosom of his family. This pretty woman leaning over him is his wife, and these children playing on the carpet are the fruits of a happy marriage.

"You know, M. Verduret"—half seriously, half banteringly—"what you promised me?" The clown bowed respectfully, but with not the slightest shade of humility.

"Monsieur the count need not be uneasy; he has my promise."

The count walked off, but during his short colloquy the quadrille had ended, and the clown lost sight of M. de Clameran and Madeleine.

"I shall find them near Mme. Fauvel," thought he. And he at once started to search among the throng for the banker's wife.

Incommoded by the stifling heat, Mme. Fauvel had sought a little fresh air in the grand picture gallery, which, thanks to the talisman called gold, had been transformed into a fairylike garden, filled with orange trees, japonicas, laurel and many rare plants.

Madeleine was very sad. She had plucked a camellia from a plant near by and was mechanically pulling it to pieces as she sat with her eyes downcast. Raoul and Mme. Fauvel were sitting together in conversation. Their faces were composed, but the gestures of one and the trembling of the other betrayed preoccupation and a serious discussion.

"There they are," muttered the clown. "The two rascals certainly hold these poor women in their toils. What can be the secret of their power?" His attention was attracted by a commotion in the picture gallery. There was to be a wonderful minuet danced in the ballroom.

CARBOLIC ACID ENDS TROUBLES

DEPENDENT OVER FRIEND'S ILLNESS AND INCARCERATION

A Woman Swallows Three Ounces of Carbolic Acid and Dies in Great Agony—She Was Well Connected

Insofar as the troubles of this world are concerned, Pearl Zarbrew is at ease. She is now a corpse at the morgue of George L. Gause, and will be buried this afternoon.

Pearl Zarbrew, perhaps this is as near her real name as the general public need to know, had long lived in Fort Worth, being the daughter of respectable parents, but for the last five years led a disreputable life.

It is said that she claimed to have been married, though she and the husband alleged, had not lived together for some time. He is now in business in Fort Worth, and is well known. Another whom she claimed as a friend is now in Dallas, ill in jail, and is waiting to be sent up to serve a five years' sentence. However, it is claimed that this man had forsaken her prior to his trouble. It is further said by her associates that it was because of brooding over the Dallas man's incarceration, illness and sentence that caused her to take the fatal step.

She at the time of her death had apartments at Madam Beebe's, Eleventh and Rusk streets, and it was in this room she died this morning at about 5 o'clock. Soon after 4 o'clock Madam Beebe discovered that the woman had taken poison. She at once summoned a physician and all was done for her possible, but recovery was an impossibility. Her mother was notified, and while the justice of the peace was viewing the remains she came. It is said by those who witnessed the grief of the old mother, that even the most calloused of the hardened ones turned away in tears.

The remains were removed soon afterward.

FALL FESTIVAL MAY BE POSTPONED A MONTH

In November Texas Breeders Can Join With an Exhibit of Fine Stock and Fall Races May be Had

It has been about concluded to postpone the Uniform Rank street fair until November, the principal reason being to give opportunity to the Texas breeders of fine cattle to make an exhibit at the same time. Besides it will give more time in which to complete the arrangements. It is also intimated that fall races can be arranged for at that time.

The full title of the enterprise is the Uniform Rank Merchants' Fall Festival, and as the committee is now negotiating for attractions it would be glad to receive suggestions from citizens regarding features and methods. The committee is considering the merits of 14 tent shows that want to make engagements and four open air concerns, and give it out that only the best will be engaged. It is determined that everything shall be clean and wholesome.

THE FRISCO'S EXPERIMENT

WILL ESTABLISH TWO FARMS ON SOUTHERN LINE

To Prove Adaptability of Kaffir Corn, Sorghum, Macaroni Wheat and Alfalfa to Dry Soils — General Railroad News

The Frisco system is making preparations to lease two 40-acre tracts of land for the purpose of demonstrating how profitable crops can be raised on dry or semi-arid lands. One of these tracts will be located probably in Comanche county and the other in McCullough county, near Brady.

Leases will be made for a term of five years and all improvements and the expense of raising and harvesting the crops will be borne by the railway company and the products will be used largely for exhibition purposes. These experiment stations, for such they are practically, will each be divided into four sections of 10 acres, which will be planted in kaffir corn, sorghum (a new variety), macaroni wheat and Turk-estan alfalfa. This variety of alfalfa is also known as mountain alfalfa and flourishes on high land. It has a peculiarity, in that it grows away from water—other varieties grow towards water.

It has been pretty well established that Kaffir corn and sorghum are adapted to dry sections and the greatest interest will be centered in the alfalfa and macaroni wheat experiments. If it can be demonstrated that these will flourish in a dry climate it will add two exceedingly valuable crops to such sections.

It is believed that seed can be secured from the government for the purpose of starting the experiments. When once under way they will be continued for five years, giving opportunity to judge of results under different conditions.

JOHNSON BOOM SPRUNG HERE

FIRST MENTIONED FOR PRESIDENT BY C. H. DUBOIS

IN THE UNION BANNER

Peculiar Situation in Ohio Town Where Single Taxer and Mark Hanna Live on the Same Street.

The greatest figures in Ohio politics today are Marcus A. Hanna and Tom Johnson. Living within a few doors of each other on the beautiful Euclid avenue, one of the most handsome residence streets in the United States, they are intimate friends and yet one is partly conceded to be the power behind the throne in the Republican party while the other is now talked of as champion for the Bryan end of the Democracy.

A unique figure is Tom Johnson. He has seen the rise from poverty to affluence. He has been a poor man, an oppressor of the poor man, and is now the champion of poor men. Universally respected as mayor of his city, he holds the esteem of many outside his party and thus displays strong qualities of leadership which mark him a strong man to fill a candidate's position in a campaign where hard work is called for.

In the Union Banner, Fort Worth's labor paper edited and published by C. H. DuBois, was sprung the first hint of Johnson as a possible candidate in the next campaign, noted in Texas. Mr. DuBois in an editorial over a year ago suggested Johnson as a possible leader and his predictions show a possibility of being fulfilled. When asked about his Johnson article Mr. DuBois said:

"Yes, I claim to be the first man in Texas to point out Johnson as an available candidate and probably the only one who might unite the eastern and western wings of the party. It was in an editorial published in the Union Banner and was headed, 'I think, 'Keep Your Eye on Johnson.' I sent him the editorial and received in reply a pleasant note of acknowledgment. Of course the Union Banner is not a political paper. The trades' unions have not as yet got into politics except in a few cases where, as in Hartford and San Francisco, they have gone in with a rush and won. They may do so elsewhere but they are biding their time, keeping close watch of the old parties to see what men and measures are advanced friendly to organized labor."

"Considering Johnson, the situation appears somewhat peculiar that in the city of Cleveland two of the hardest exploiters of labor live near each other and each one loves what he formerly despised. One is Tom Johnson and the other is Mark Hanna. Tom Johnson has made most of his money in the street railway business. As owner, he changed a nickel, now he sees that a three-cent fare is enough and he will force the issue in Cleveland. As owner of railways, he never paid a cent in the way of taxation, but he thinks the time has come for the other fellow to pay. Isn't he right?"

Johnson's Strong Point
"It's only bull-headed selfishness that impels men to get labor as low as they can, just as they get raw material and freight rates. When a man views these things from the standpoint of the highest and best interests of the public, he sees that greed must be checked and that the workers must have a larger share of what they produce."

"This is the groundwork and the motive that explains the exceptionally strong position of Tom L. Johnson. It is said to 'take a thief to catch a thief.' Roosevelt selected a trust-former, Knox, to be his trust-buster and he will either bust a trust or they will bust him. We will see if he can stick to the trust broncho. Tom Johnson can beat Roosevelt at his own game when it comes to the big combinations. He has helped make them and he probably knows also their weak points. As to taxation or ownership of franchises by cities, the people want a leader on this subject and also in regard to government owners of express lines, telegraphs, telephones, perhaps some railroads. Direct legislation is a demand of the times everywhere."

Believes in Single Tax
"Tom Johnson has Bryan's heart and a better head for business. There is no tomfoolery about Tom."

"He did not antagonize free silver, but as a practical business man he could not advocate impairing the obligations of contracts for the benefit of the owners of the silver mines. Johnson has good ideas as to taxation. He believes in the single tax to which such a really great man as Henry George devoted his life. That principle put into practice would beautify our cities and restore the plain people their rights to the land. The old Democracy is dead. If it is to be a political factor in the future, it needs new issues and new leadership, men in sympathy. The plain people as against Republican aristocracy and greed."

A WORM KILLER.
J. A. J. Montgomery, Purico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge: the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. 25c at H. T. Pangburn & Co's.

Mayor's Proclamation
Whereas, by law of congress and the legislature of the state of Texas, the first day of September of each and every year is set apart as a legal holiday in recognition of the dignity, worth and respect due the laboring classes of our great country, and whereas, labor is one of the most important factors of the wealth, progress and civilization of this country, it is befitting that our city should duly acknowledge our respect to these people, as we can show to the world more monuments of progress due to their zeal and energy than any other city in Texas. Therefore, I, T. J. Powell, mayor of the city of Fort Worth, Texas, do hereby call upon our citizens to close their places of business on the first day of September, 1902, first out of respect due the laboring people, second in order that all our people may partake of the festivities and pleasures of that day.

Given under my hand and seal of office this 20th day of August, 1902.

T. J. POWELL, Mayor.
Attest: John T. Montgomery, City Secretary.

HOUSEHOLD MAPS

The map of the United States, which the New York Central railroad-passenger department has been publishing in the various newspapers of the country, showing important places of interest on its lines, is indeed a happy thought as well as a gift-edged advertisement. We are reliably informed that the map, which is 11x16 inches, is now being gradually used by families in the rural districts as household maps and as a rule is the only map about the premises.—Jersey Shore, Pa. Herald.

REPUBLICANS OF TARRANT COUNTY HOLD A CONVENTION

MINORITY PARTY IS IN SESSION TODAY

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

Judge F. B. Stanley Criticizes Local Democrats for Supporting Jim Wells—Also Digs Into Senator Bailey—Favorable to State and Congressional Ticket

The Republicans of Tarrant county are in session this afternoon for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State convention which meets in Fort Worth September 3. The attendance is not very large and up to press time harmony prevailed in the ranks. The following resolutions were drafted and adopted:

"We Republicans of Tarrant county, Texas, in delegated convention assembled, hereby reaffirm our unshaken faith in the wise and patriotic principles of the Republican party, which enacted into law, have brought happiness and prosperity to our people beyond measure.

"The wisdom of Republican policies is seen in our stable business conditions; of money, our universally employed labor at increased wages.

"We, as Republicans, are proud of our record, and redemption of every pledge made in our platforms of 1896 and 1900.

"We believe it essential to the growth and success of the Republican party that harmony among its members shall prevail and that factional strife should be discouraged.

"We pledge our unequalled support to our courageous, patriotic and gallant young president, Theodore Roosevelt, in carrying our Republican principles and policies, and we declare him to be the logical candidate of the Republican party for president in 1904.

"We mourn the untimely death of William McKinley, the Christian statesman and leader. His Christian statesmanship will be a continual inspiration to his fellow citizens to follow his example and policies for the continuation of peace and prosperity."

Executive Committee Meeting
It was 11 o'clock this morning when eleven members of the county executive committee met.

J. L. Carter, postmaster of Arlington, was made temporary chairman in the absence of Chairman Lon Barkley, who was unable to attend on account of sickness.

sension in the ranks. His policy was to get together and let these little personal matters as to who was to be chairman, or this thing or that thing go its way. He discussed the poll tax feature as a perquisite to right to vote. He thought there should be no tax on the ballot, and that every man should walk up to the box and cast his vote without paying a cent. The Republican party had been criticised for granting the right of franchise to the colored man. The Republican party did that because the party leaders thought it right, and he was not prepared to dispute it. He said that the Democratic party wanted to disfranchise the voters in many of the counties in the state in which the Democratic party thought there was a chance of electing a Republican congressman.

He criticised the Tarrant county delegation for endorsing Wells for state chairman when they were really Cockrell men, and left Fort Worth ostensibly for Cockrell. "But," said he, "they had not heard from Joe Bailey. Bailey is at the head of the Democratic syndicate which manages such things. They heard from Bailey, and voted for Wells, and did not want him."

Judge Stanley spoke to the point of the three Democratic candidates for congress. He said that he did not believe the Democratic party would make a selection from the three men. He thought it would be a good thing for the Republican party, and he favored a good strong delegation to the Congressional convention with a view to placing a Republican candidate in the field.

Judge Moore Also Spoke
Judge N. B. Moore was called. He introduced his remarks by paying tribute to McKinley and the man who succeeded him. The Republican party in his opinion is equal to any emergency, and went marching on while the Democratic party, with Joe Bailey as leader, was like a state barking at its heels. The Democratic party had no policy. It had forced upon the Republican party the war with Cuba, and it had been taken care of. It had forced upon the Republican party the conditions in the Philippines, and that is being taken care of. Now the Democratic party was attacking the army and the boys fighting.

"Now, I say, put a ticket in the field if we only get two votes. If we do not put a county ticket in the field, but I do say put a state ticket in the field, and by all means put out a congressional ticket.

The committee on organization reported that the temporary organization be made permanent.

Mr. Carter of Arlington moved an amendment that the committee's report be received and filed, and that the convention proceed to elect county officers.

Mr. Nies and many others moved to table the amendment. The original motion prevailed, and was so announced.

Mr. Carter insisted upon a roll call to ascertain whether or not the amendment should prevail. The roll was called, and the committee's report prevailed a second time—65 to 27.

Dr. Brewer moved a reconsideration in order to find out what the country precincts wanted. It seemed that there was a sentiment that the city was arrayed against the country and the country against the city. It created a storm of criticism and there was something going for 30 minutes. Finally Dr. Brewer having aired his point, bravely withdrew his motion.

Dough Campbell, R. D. Simpson, O. M. Ashton.
Chairman Nies read the names of the state, congressional and senatorial delegates, and the same were approved.

BOER VETERANS FOR THE PHILIPPINES

AN ENGLISH OFFICER TENDERS SERVICE AT AMERICA'S LONDON STATION

THE WIFE HAS RIGHTS

NEW YORK JUDGE MAKES RULING ON MATTER OF HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES

New York, Aug. 26.—Justice Spring of the New York supreme court, sitting in the appellate division has handed down a decision in which he holds that gross extravagance and forgery committed by a wife to raise money do not in this state constitute a cause of action for a divorce, and he therefore refuses to reverse the action of the lower court which dismissed the complaint in a suit brought on the grounds mentioned. In discussing the case Justice Spring is quoted as having said:

"A husband takes a wife for better or for worse and because she does not conform her expenditures to his notions of economy is not a ground for casting her from him."

CONTEST PROBABLE

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES ON TODAY IN SOUTH CAROLINA

FOR M'LAURIN'S SEAT

IN ANY RACE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE MUST RECEIVE MAJORITY OF ALL VOTES

OTHERWISE SECOND PRIMARY

Six Candidates for United States Senator, and Five for Governor—Jelks Wins in Alabama by 10,000 Majority

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 26.—Democratic primaries are being held throughout the state today for nomination of governor and other state house officials. State legislators and congressional representatives will also be named and a successor to United States Senator McLaurin selected.

Under the constitution of state the successful candidate for every office must have a majority of all the votes cast in the primary. In case no majority is received by any candidate a second primary must be held in which the two candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the first are entered.

The result of these primaries is equivalent to an election in this state. Owing to the number of candidates contesting for different offices there seems to be little prospect for settling rival claims in today's primaries. With the exception of the state treasurer's primary every nomination has been most bitterly contested.

Following candidates entered the gubernatorial race: J. H. Tillman, present lieutenant governor of the state and nephew of United States Senator Ben J. Tillman; W. J. T. Talbert, who resigned from congress to enter the race; W. H. Timmerman, M. F.

GENERAL MILES TO VISIT PHILIPPINES

Washington, D. C., Aug. 26. President Roosevelt's order to Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles to visit the Philippines, reached the war department office today. General Miles is instructed to "proceed about September 15 to the Philippines to inspect the army there with reference to instruction, discipline and supplies." It is understood that General Miles is not to interfere in any way with Gen. Adna R. Chaffee or his successor, General Davis, in the direction of the army of the Philippines.

Ansel and D. C. Heyward. Probably two of these contestants will reach the second primary as it is conceded Heyward, Tillman or Talbert will receive today's highest votes. Six candidates are entered for the United States senatorship nomination, including Former Governor John Gray Evans.

Jelks Wins in Alabama
Montgomery, Aug. 26.—In the Democratic primaries held Monday nominating candidates for state officers, Wm. D. Jelks of Barbour, the present governor, won over former Governor Joseph F. Johnston, of Jefferson, for governor by a majority which will probably reach 10,000.

This election was the first held since the adoption of the new constitution in which the negro is eliminated as a political factor in Alabama, and the new organic law was made an issue in the campaign. It was endorsed in its entirety by Governor Jelks, and ex-Governor Johnston also guaranteed it uphold it, although he opposed its ratification.

R. M. Cunningham of Jefferson, defeated C. E. Walter of Hale for lieutenant governor.

The election passed off quietly throughout the state. R. R. Poole of Marengo, commissioner of agriculture; Thomas L. Howell of Walker for auditor and J. Craig Smith of Dallas for treasurer had no opposition, they being accorded a second term by precedent.

For attorney general Alex Troy of Montgomery, A. M. Robert of Talladega, Massey Wilson of Clarke and former Congressman J. E. Cobb of Mason were the contestants. It is not believed that any of the four was nominated and a second primary will be held, the men receiving the highest vote to be the entries.

For secretary of State, J. T. Heffy of Chambers, F. N. Julian of Colbert and James L. Tanner of Jefferson were the candidates and a second contest will probably be held between the first two.
