IT MATTERS NOT

How Sick You Are or How Many Physicians Have Failed to Help You.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy Will Cure You if a Cure is Possible.

Doctors are not infallible and there are many instances where they have decided a case was hopeless and then the patients astonished everyone by getting well and the sole cause of their cure was Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. A case in point is that of James Lettuce of Canajoharie, N. Y., who writes:

"Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and side that were fearful in the extreme. I could not control my kidneys at all and what came from them was mucuous and blood. I was in a terrible state and suffered intensely. The partner of Dr. Vanderveer of Albany, N. Y., decided that an operation was all that would save me. I dreaded that and commenced to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I felt better almost instantly. When I had taken about two bottles, the flow from the bladder was much cleaner, the pain stopped, and I was saved from the surgeon's knife and am now well."

Dr. W. H. Morse, the famous physician of Westfield, N. J., has this to say of this great medicine:

"I have known it to cure chronic inflammation of the kidneys, where the attending physician pronounced the case incurable. No form of kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common to women, can long withstand the great curative power of this famous specific. "A small quantity of this wonderful medicine has more $4.30@5.40; Texas sheep, none; lambs, curative power than barrels of other remedies," says a prominent New York physician. Its record of cures has made famous in medical circles everywhere. All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the new 50 cent size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

The offices of the Bank of England to which this young adventurer now se nonchalantly directed his course. were then not housed in any such stately edifice as that which now covers the heart of the financial world nor did the location of the young and struggling institution, in a by-street of a concern which still lacked importance and assuredness. Thither, then, might have gone almost any young traveler who needed a letter of credit cashed, or a bill changed after the fashion of the passing goldsmiths.

Yet it was not as mere transient cus. tomer of a money changer that young Law now sought the Bank of England nor was it as a commercial house that the bank then commanded attention. That bank, young as it was, had already become a pillar of the throne of England. William, distracted by wars abroad and factions at home, found his the supply. More than that, the people of England discovered themselves in possession of a currency fluctuating, mutilated, and unstable, so that no man knew what was his actual fortune. The shrewd young financier. Montague, chancellor of the exchequer, who either by wisdom or good fortune had sanctioned the founding of the Bank of England, was at this very time addressing himself to the question of a recoinage of the specie of the realm of England. THE SOUTHERN CROSS AND STARS ago for Oklahoma, was in town today evening by the author, Mrs. W. T. Ellis of Fort Worth.

> All hail, our blue-cross banner! The breeze hath never kissed. The eye of man hath never seen More glorious flag than this. They may call it "conquered banner" And our southern rights "a cheat," The dear lost cause can never die. 'Tis deathless in defeat.

Adown the vista of the years To come I see them shine, The brightest name on history's page. No record pure as thine When nations yet unborn shall read Of famous storied wars, The grandest flag that figures there

Will be our cross and stars.

The purest cause that e'er was lost, The bravest men that died, The noblest women God e'er made, Have stood that flag beside.

We loved it then, adore it now. 'Tis shrined within our hearts. Where memory faithful ward will keep Till all of life departs.

Dear southern flag, your silver stars Are faith's eternal light: The principles you symbolize

Will shine through darkest night. The hope that nerved heroic hearts, Pure like your ground of blue; Your red is but the patriot flame That glows with love most true .

Flag of our loved ones gone,

Thou art thy children's legacy Till breaks eternal morn:

Triumphant through the cross.

> A Constitutional Question While the reports were being given it developed that two elections for Tom Greene chapter at Brenham had been ordered during the year and the question arose as to whether or not the president had the constitutional right to do this. This aroused a lively discussion, participated in by Mrs. Eads, the secretary; Mrs. M. P. Hardy of Austin, Mrs. C. B. Stone of Galveston and Mrs. Mary Hunt Afflick. The latter provoked levity by saying: "We did not have a right to have a charter, but when election time came around our aid was solicited."

> Mrs. Stone, who is generally recognized as the "lawyer" of the convention, stated that she had written to the president general and secretary general of the order and ascertained that an unchartered chapter had no right to vote. She attributed the discussion at this time to a misunderstanding and this was the general view of the mat-
