GOVERNMENT MAKES HIGH WATER WARNING

REPORT SENT OUT THAT RIVERS ARE ON RAMPAGE

NEAR DANGER POINT

HEAVY RAINS ARE CONTINUING AND VOLUME OF WATER IS INCREASING

MANY PEOPLE HOMELESS

The Mississippi River Sweeps Upon Helpless People Below Alton, Ill., and Farmers and Stockmen Are Moving Out. Water Rises Steadily at Memphis. More Rain in the North

(Special to The Telegram.) WASHINGTON, March 9.—The weather bureau today issued the following: The heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday materially increased the volume of water in the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and tributaries.

The danger line stages will prevail from Cincinnati to New Orleans. The greatest height above the danger line is at Evansville, Ind., where it is 6.05 feet. The Mississippi above Cairo is rising rapidly.

The Arkansas river is also rising, while the White, Black and Red rivers are now at flood stages.

Another disturbance is now over the upper Missouri valley, and threatens to cause more rain Tuesday and Wednesday in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys.

If this rain should fall in considerable quantities it will still further intensify the flood conditions and all preparations should be made for still higher stages.

MANY ARE HOMELESS THROUGH RISING WATER

(By Associated Press.) ST. LOUIS, March 9.—One hundred families living below Alton, Ill., have been rendered homeless and many lost their belongings as the result of the rise of the Mississippi river, which also threatens to inundate all the fine farming lands in Missouri points across the river.

Farmers and stockmen are preparing to move out. Reports from Hannibal state that great volumes of water are coming down from the upper Mississippi, and the river is higher for this time of the season than for many years.

RIVER RISES RAPIDLY—MEMPHIS LEVEE HOLDS

(By Associated Press.) MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 9.—The river is slowly rising and now registers 34.07 today. The low lands are flooded in all directions and farmers with stock are seeking shelter in high places. The rapid rises noted in the Ohio and Mississippi rivers are causing apprehension. The levees are holding and engineers express confidence in the system.

SITUATION SERIOUS VICKSBURG, MISS.

(By Associated Press.) VICKSBURG, Miss., March 9.—The river today registered 46.8. The heavy rise of the upper river renders the situation serious. People living outside the levees are abandoning their homes.

BROWNWOOD TO HAVE NEW GRAIN ELEVATOR

(Special to The Telegram.) BROWNWOOD, Texas, March 9.—The Brownwood Mill and Elevator Company, capitalized at $30,000, will erect a 150-barrel flouring mill here in time for the wheat crop of 1903. The company will maintain a warehouse and elevator at Coleman and at Goldthwaite. The Coleman roller mill has sold its property to the new company. Brownwood already has one 150-barrel mill and this will give the town and country unusual flouring facilities.

GLANDERS EPIDEMIC IN NEW YORK CITY

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 9.—Because of the unprecedented prevalence of glanders among horses in this city quarantine rules may be so rigidly enforced as to work great inconvenience to owners, particularly to those doing heavy trucking business.

A careful inspection has been ordered, and a quarantine has already been placed upon one stable in which 100 horses are boarded. Several other large stables are under suspicion, and one of the largest milk dealers in the country may have his stables closed today.

BROWN COUNTY HAS 1200 ACRES NOW IRRIGATED

(Special to The Telegram.) BROWNWOOD, Texas, March 9.—The Brown County Irrigation Company is building a large dam across the river to store water for irrigation purposes. There are now over 1,200 acres under irrigation in this county and every week some farmer reports that he is building a dam for irrigating a portion of his farm.

THE WHEELS OF THE GOVERNMENT STOP HE TERMS IT AS THE "BRONCHO" METHOD

JOHNNIE BULL HOLDS HIS THUMBS TILL CHAMBERLAIN GETS HOME

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 9.—Mr. Chamberlain's return is anxiously awaited, cables the London representative of the Tribune. So far as actual business is concerned, the government is almost at a standstill in parliament because the colonial secretary, who is the mainspring of the cabinet, must be consulted before any leading items of the legislative program can be introduced and before Mr. Ritchie can put the finishing touches on his budget.

It is evident from the speeches delivered by Mr. Chamberlain in South Africa that certain groups will have to be made which were not anticipated when he left England last November, and the chancellor of the exchequer must make provision for them in his budget.

The Irish land bill will involve a big demand upon the public purse, and it is only natural that the government should be required to consult its strong man on the policy to be embodied in that measure before it is introduced in the house of commons. The result of the indulgence which the members are now enjoying will be a congestion of work at the end of the session and a liberal use of the closure to stop discussion.

DEATH THE RESULT OF AN UNUSUAL ACCIDENT

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 9.—After completing the autopsy on the body of George Cooper, whose neck was broken while wrestling with Frank Wagner at Turnover in Green Girt, Friday night, the coroner's physician, Charles West, said death was the result of a most unusual accident.

Wagner had partially thrown Cooper, who suddenly lost his balance and fell off the mat, striking the floor on the back of his neck. His long-shanked collar button struck the side of the spinal column at its tenderest place, causing the fracture.

ITASCA AROUSED OVER GRAND JURY VERDICT

(Special to The Telegram.) HILLSBORO, Texas, March 9.—There is intense feeling at Itasca because E. E. Griffin has been indicted by the federal grand jury at Waco on a charge of stealing a mail pouch at Itasca. The case is the outgrowth of bitter local opinion feeling at Itasca. Griffin was acquitted on the charge at a previous session of the court, but it is claimed new evidence has been discovered. The witness was recently released from the poor farm, where he served a term of several months. Griffin is one of the leading bankers and capitalists of the county.

FRISCO LAYING OUT NEW TOWN OF WINCHELL

(Special to The Telegram.) BROWNWOOD, Texas, March 9.—J. W. Armstrong, town site agent of the Frisco, is laying off the new town of Winchell, on the Brady extension, in Brown county, near the Colorado river. The new town will be twenty-three miles south of Brownwood. A depot, section-house, stock pens and 2,000 feet of side track have been built there.

The first car of provisions for Brady was shipped from Brownwood. The road is not yet ready for business.

"NOTHING IN THE REPORT," SAYS RODEY TO GARRETT

(Special to The Telegram.) EL PASO, Texas, March 9.—Customs Collector Garrett has received a telegram from Hon. B. S. Rodey, representative at Washington from New Mexico, in which he states that he has investigated the report that charges had been filed in Washington against Collector Garrett and says there is nothing in the report.

UNCLE SAM BUILDING BIGGEST BATTLESHIP

NEW YORK, March 9.—The ways of the new battleship Connecticut at Brooklyn navy yard are complete and an announcement was made today that work on the actual laying of the keel will probably begin next week. In naval circles the progress in the construction of the Connecticut will be followed with closest interest.

In the first place, the battleship is being built by the United States at one of its own yards, something that has not been done since the days of the old wooden ships of war. It has been contended by many high authorities that the building of the nation's warships could be done better and more cheaply by private contract than by the nation itself. In order to put the problem to a fair test the government decided to construct the Connecticut itself and at the same time let the contract for her sister ship, the Louisiana, to a private contractor. The results, it is expected, will determine the questions as to whether Uncle Sam in future had better build his own warships.

There is another reason why the building of the Connecticut attracts unusual attention. The ship will be the largest ever built for the United States navy. She is to carry the heaviest armor and the most powerful ordnance for a vessel of her class upon a trial displacement of not more than 16,000 tons, and is to have the highest practical speed, and the greatest radius of action. The ship will, of course, be built of steel, and her hull protected at the water line by a complete circle of armor. She is designated as a flag-ship, and everything upon her will be of the most modern character.

HOUSE IN AN UPROAR IN A HOGG DEBATE

LOWER END OF LEGISLATURE LIKE UNCORCOR CHAMPAIGN

WON'T LET HIM TALK

EX-GOVERNOR IS ACCUSED OF USING BAD EPITHETS AGAINST MEMBERS

WOULD ROT IN HIS SEAT

One Legislator Gives Zest to His Objection to Letting Mr. Hogg Have the Use of Chambers for a Speech—Others Would Have Him Up for Contempt

(Special to The Telegram.) AUSTIN, Texas, March 9.—Ex-Governor Hogg was again discussed this morning before the legislature. The matter came up over a resolution offered by a dozen members extending him the use of the hall next Wednesday night, which resolution was voted down last Saturday.

Several members jumped to their feet and protested against the resolution, as it had been reported that Governor Hogg had used some vile epithets in a barber-shop last Saturday when he heard that the legislature here had turned him down.

The members thought that Hogg should be brought before the bar of the house and purge himself of contempt if he had used the language attributed to him. One member exclaimed that he would rot in his seat before he would vote for the resolution.

Representative Terrell called up Governor Hogg over the telephone and asked him if he had used the epithets attributed to him, and the latter replied that he had not, but he did not care to have Terrell say anything about it in the house, stating that he was able to bear it.

Representative Hancock said he construed the language used by Hogg to mean the lobby and not the legislators. No action was taken on the resolution, as the time for consideration of the resolution had expired and the chair would not entertain a motion to continue the discussion.

The house then took up the bill providing for the protecting of birds and is still considering it.

MYSTERIOUS SHIP WAS THE LOST PISA

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 9.—The mysterious steamer which the Slogan liner Pisa saw sink in the Atlantic on Feb. 15 was without doubt the Belgian steamship Maskeylene which sailed from New Orleans on Dec. 31, and Newport News on Jan. 7, for Antwerp. She became unmanageable on Jan. 24, all of her fires having been extinguished by water, which flooded the stokehole and engine room.

On Jan. 21 the British bark Crown of Germany, from San Francisco, took off Captain Tanner and his crew of thirty, landing them at Queenstown on Feb. 10. The Maskeylene was supposed to be sinking when abandoned.

GOV. PEABODY TO HELP SETTLE BIG STRIKE

(By Associated Press.) COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., March 9.—At a meeting of business men and miners at Cripple Creek last night a telegram was read to the effect that Governor Peabody had said he was ready to use his best offices toward settling the millmen's strike. In response to a petition of prominent business men of Victor the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners of the Cripple Creek district has agreed not to take any steps toward calling a sympathetic strike on miners for a week.

TENNESSEANS GO BACK TO COMMON LIFE AGAIN

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 9.—The visitors from Tennessee who came to New York to be present at the launching of the United States cruiser Chattanooga have nearly all started on the journey to their homes. Governor J. Frazier and his staff left yesterday afternoon and Mayor and Mrs. Chamberlain and their daughter, of Chattanooga, left last night in company with State Senator and Mrs. Carmack also of Chattanooga.

Before his departure Governor Frazier expressed the liveliest interest in the American metropolis.

DENTON GRAND JURY FINDS 35 TRUE BILLS

(Special to The Telegram.) DENTON, Texas, March 8.—The grand jury of Denton county, after having been in session twelve days, adjourned yesterday. It returned thirty-five indictments, eleven for felonious crimes, seventeen for miscellaneous misdemeanors and seven for violating the local option law. This is the first term of the grand jury since the local option law was adopted, having been adopted Sept. 6 last at the polls, but did not go into effect till Oct. 23.

NEW ARCHBISHOP SOON BE AT CHICAGO

(Special to The Telegram.) CHICAGO, Ill., March 9.—The clergy and laity of the Roman Catholic province of Chicago have made extensive preparations for the reception of Archbishop Quigley, who takes his farewell of his Buffalo bishopric today preparatory to assuming his new duties as archbishop of Chicago. He is expected to arrive in the city Wednesday and the same evening there will be a mammoth welcoming demonstration in St. Mary's cathedral.

For several years prior to his death Archbishop Feehan was unable to take an active part in the management of the affairs of his archdiocese. Consequently the coming of Archbishop Quigley, who has the reputation of being one of the most advanced and active prelates of the Catholic church in America, is pleasing to the Catholics of Chicago, who regard the change as likely to result beneficially to the church.

JEALOUS EYE IS ON UNCLE SAM

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 9.—The development of American trade in the British colonies is watched with a jealous eye by many people in this country, says a London dispatch to the Tribune. Complaints are raised that the Americans have late monopolized the markets of Malta for flour and oil to the disadvantage of British trade. Formerly these articles reached Malta from London, Liverpool and Hull, but the cheaper prices quoted from New York have ousted the British goods. This result is attributed to the direct steamship service inaugurated last year.

The outlook in connection with the Canadian trade is an engaging subject of discussion in Bristol. At an early date the Canadian Pacific Railway will, it is stated, open a branch office there and it is understood the Grand Trunk line will follow suit, so that the port will soon be receiving attention to an unprecedented degree from two rival organizations with great influence.

GAME OF CARDS LEADS TO A FOUL MURDER

(By Associated Press.) WATERBURY, Conn., March 9.—Vincenzo Sanzerzera, an Italian, has been arrested, charged with the murder of a fellow countryman, Tony Giniera, a bootmaker.

The murder took place at the home of the murdered man, 24 Jackson street, and was, it was believed, the result of a game of cards. The police are looking for a brother of the murder who, it is alleged, stood with a knife ready to stab Giniera if his brother did not. The brother cannot be found, but it is believed that he is hiding in the vicinity of Waterville.

A NEW LABOR UNION HAS 20,000 MEMBERS

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Ill., March 9.—Fourteen unions whose members are engaged in the handling and transportation of freight, have formed a central body, to be called the Shipping Trades' Federation. The new organization is for mutual aid and protection and will control over 20,000 men, most of whom are preparing to demand shorter hours and an increased wage.

The federation includes every union man who handles freight from the time it leaves the factories or wholesale houses until it goes out of the switch yards or is loaded on the lake steamers. Its members are employed by the wholesale houses, railroads or boat lines.

MAKE FAVORABLE REPORT ON TREATY

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, March 9.—The senate committee on foreign relations today agreed to favorably report the Columbian canal treaty to the senate.

No action is taken on the Cuban or other reciprocity treaties. The Columbia treaty was reported, as in the former session, with some amendments.

MANY CLIMES DRAWN ON FOR A FAMILY REUNION

NEW YORK, March 9.—Two hundred and fifty descendants of Elias Meyer Ries of Baden, Germany, from all over Europe, the United States and Australia, have held a reunion in this city. Many met for the first time.

Elias Meyer Ries of Baden died some years ago, leaving twelve children, four sons and eight daughters. The descendants live in Germany, Austria, Belgium, Holland, France, England and the United States and number over 300. It took a year to correspond with all of them and

COURTS HAVE LIGHT BUSINESS

BUT TWO CASES COME UP AT THE COURT HOUSE

One in County and One in District Court. Big Real Estate Transfer Is Filed. Justice Rowland Holds Inquest

The only case disposed of at the court-house up till 3 o'clock this afternoon was that of Will Hopkins, a negro boy who stole a hat from another negro. Officer Temes arrested Hopkins this morning, took him to the county court, and Hopkins pleaded guilty, being fined $5.

WANTS $2,000 DAMAGES

In the Seventeenth district court the damage suit of Charles Fenwick against the Texas and Pacific railroad for $2,000 damages, is being heard.

Fenwick is a minor and in his petition alleges that he was hurt in a wreck near Mineola, July 17, 1902, while he was employed as news agent on the Texas and Pacific.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

The most important real estate transfer filed today was that of the north fifty feet of a lot on Taylor and Jackson streets, transferred from E. J. Crider to Martin Lavin for $5,200.

HELD INQUEST

Justice C. T. Rowland held an inquest yesterday over the body of a workman named Redman, who was found dead in a rooming house at 1208 Main street yesterday. Redman was about 40 years of age and his sole personal effects consisted of one bottle of whisky. The verdict was death from natural causes superinduced by heavy drinking.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

CORSICANA, Texas, March 9.—J. L. Brown of Farmersville died suddenly of hemorrhage here in a boarding-house at 1 o'clock today.

BOARD OF TRADE SUSPENSION

CHICAGO, Ill., March 9.—The suspension of William Young & Co. is reported on the Board of Trade today.

Miss Martha Foster of Denison, and Miss Denzmann of Rock Island, Ill., are visitors in Fort Worth today.

ABOUT FIVE THOUSAND QUALIFIED VOTERS

City Auditor J. J. Nunnally this morning estimated the number of qualified voters in the city as a result of the recent payment of poll tax. It was found that there are 4,770 qualified voters in the city, a number that exceeds all expectations of the officials.

At the office of the county collector the exact number of qualified voters has not been computed, owing to the difficulty in separating the payments, but it is thought the number of voters will reach between 7,000 and 8,000.

SUSTAINS DISTRICT COURT'S DECISION

An opinion has been handed down by the supreme court of Texas affirming the decision of the district court of Tarrant county in the case of M. M. Barnes vs. the Cotton Belt. The case was decided against the company and was appealed by the railway. The court's summing up of the case is as follows:

"M. M. Barnes sued the St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company and the St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company of Texas to recover damages on account of five shipments of live stock to National Stock Yards, Illinois, from Mount Pleasant, Texas, and Pittsburg, Texas. He alleged that the shipments consisted of ten car loads of fat cattle, each intended for market, and that by reason of overloading the trains with dead freight, delays, rough handling and extra feed, en route, he was damaged in the sum sued for. Our conclusion as to the facts will sufficiently appear in connection with our discussion of the assignments of error.

"We conclude that the evidence is sufficient to sustain the finding of the jury that the appellant did not use ordinary care to deliver the telegram with reasonable promptness and that by reason of such negligence on the part of appellant the appellee was damaged in the amount found."

MANY DELEGATES GO TO WOODMEN CONVENTION

Nearly fifty delegates, including the Woodmen of the World band, left this morning for San Antonio to attend the state convention of the order, which is in session there this week. The delegates left with the intention of making a strong fight to secure the convention for Fort Worth in 1903 and the famous band will play an important part in the meetings of the convention.

Among those going this morning were County Attorney O. S. Lattimore and Judge W. R. Parker, Q. T. Moreland, Dr. Brown, C. C. Cunningham, Max Mayer, C. H. Walton and J. A. Todd.

Two of the Most Interesting Monuments in England

GLADSTONE MEMORIAL

1902, by W. R. Hearst.

The two pictures at the top show two of the most interesting monuments in England. One is an imposing memorial chapel just dedicated in memory of Gladstone, the grand old man of England, at Hawarden. The other shows the naval temple erected on Kynin hill, near Monmouth. The temple was built in the beginning of last century as a memorial to England's great naval heroes. It bears on medallions the names of Nelson, Vincent, Rodney, Hawke, Dridport. In the year 1802 a public breakfast was given to Lord Nelson in the temple, which has now been bought by the National trust. The third picture has just been received from Rome, where patriots have long felt it as a disgrace that no national monument has been erected in honor of King Victor Emmanuel II, liberator, to whom Italy owes its existence as a nation. The picture shows a monument which has been approved and which shortly will be erected in Rome.

Patti, Who Gets $2.50 for Each Breath She Draws is Coming to Dallas

Patti is coming to Dallas. In the old opera days, when the sheriff regularly attended each performance, with suspicious-looking papers bulging out of his pockets...

 ADELINA PATTI WILL MAKE $5,000 for each concert. 50 per cent of receipts that exceed $7,500.

of Seville" or "Lindi di Chamounix," and be it understood, she may miss any concert by reason of indisposition.

Each and every night she demanded a part of her nightly pay before the tinkling of the bell sent up the first curtain. At the end of the first act the little formality of a Napoleon or a Strakosh or a Maritzak stepping back with a bundle of bank bills was a necessity and before the last act was begun the diva had her pay for the night in full—the last act never happened.

 The stipulations, covering two sheets of foolscap, are many and the demands exact. Besides the payment of $5,000 for to sing in more than ten concerts in one month—she is to receive 50 per cent of each concert in which the receipts exceed $7,500.

As at present planned, the tour will begin in New York on Nov. 3 with two concerts, a matinee, which will be given in the Metropolitan opera-house, and an evening performance in Madison Square garden.

The farewell tour she is to make of the western hemisphere, beginning at the Metropolitan opera-house in New York Nov. 3 next, by shrewd contracts and careful precautions will net her nearly half a million dollars, which is something of an inducement to forsake the comforts of home and face the rigor of a tour, which has been ameliorated by all the known arrangements a cleverly worded contract can secure for the personal happiness of the diva.

At each concert she is to sing one solo, one concerted number and appear in a scene from "La Traviata," "The Barber

She will then go eastward and, returning to New York, visit in turn Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Omaha, Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Los Angeles, New Orleans, Galveston, Dallas, Memphis, Nashville, Columbus, Toledo, Buffalo, Toronto, Rochester, Syracuse, Montreal, Albany, Brooklyn and then back to New York for two more concerts—one in the afternoon and the other at night.

THE RECENT STORMS AND CATTLE LOSSES

The Daily Tribune-Chief of Quanah, is authority for the statement that the O T ranch will divide their lands and sell them to farmers and small stockmen. Other large ranches near here will be doing the same thing before long.

not run faster than ten miles an hour. He noted three freight wrecks between Fort Worth and Texarkana. "I did not care to travel on a track under water faster than ten miles an hour," said Mr. Ritchie.—Abilene Reporter.

Childress Index: G. S. White, of the O X ranch, was in Childress Monday from the ranch on his way to Carson county, where they have a string of steers. He says the loss on the ranch has not been very large, but if rough weather should keep up much longer it may be a different tale they'll have to tell.

The late snow and freeze has been a costly lesson to stockmen of this country. Cattle cannot winter here without feed and protection from wind and snow.—Dalhart Sun.

J. C. Finley was in from his ranch Monday. He says this snow was the best thing that ever happened for the plains. It will kill a few cattle, but will teach farmers not to overstock their pastures and to feed better before cold weather comes.—Claude News.

Abilene Reporter: A gentleman just returned from Big Springs tells us that cattle are dying in considerable numbers out west, especially north of the Springs. The slaughter ranches are said to have lost more cattle this winter than in five years up to this date. The dangerous time is still ahead, as there is no grass left over, and a cold snap just after the new grass springs up would knock many a poor brute cold. Of course losses out west are nothing compared with the handle and plains district where the snow and ice were so deep.

The Club ranch, near Wichita Falls reports the loss of 1,500 head of cattle as the result of the recent blizzard.—Young County News.

Dr. Thornton and two guides, while on the way to the Caldwell home in Moore county, lost their bearings and lay out on the prairie all night. It was a terrible experience, the night being one of sleet and bitter cold. To add to the discomfort the party possessed neither fuel nor wraps.—Channing Courier.

After all, ticks are not the only drawback to the stock business. The time must soon come that will see no man attempting to raise cattle on grass alone. Breeder must be grown to meet such emergencies as have had to be faced this winter.

S. B. Scoville was in from his Fargo ranch Tuesday. Up to the present writing he has lost only four head of cattle. Very few cattle died in his neighborhood during the past bad weather.—Vernon Hornet.

J. B. Gray of the Moon ranch, Cottle county, says the loss on the Moon ranch from the recent storm was about 100 head, but that he has some 300 head of poor cows that will die if bad weather keeps up much longer. But Mr. Gray is going to be prepared for cold weather after this. While here he purchased ten head of work mules and a big lot of farm implements and informed the Index that he would establish on his ranch a 1,200-acre farm. The farm will be used for the growing of feed, consisting of johnson grass, sorghum, kafir corn, milo maize and like forage crops.—Childress Index.

ABILENE IS IN A GROWING CONDITION

W. H. Grove, the attorney, who has just returned from a visit at Abilene, says that that town is now in an unusually prosperous condition and it is rapidly growing.

The state epileptic colony buildings are rapidly nearing completion. The federal building, one of the most modern buildings of its kind in the state, is nearly finished. A block of two-story brick business buildings has just been finished, in one of which the Citizens National Bank, with a capital stock of $175,000, has just been opened.

The town is hopeful of getting a new railroad soon. The line is an extension of the road already built from Wichita Falls to Seymour, and is headed for Stamford and Abilene. Grading is already in progress at Haskell.

Recent rains have made fine crop prospects and the pastures are in good condition. The people in that section speak in glowing terms of the Fort Worth packing houses, as they will afford them a close market for cattle, hogs, sheep, chickens and eggs.

GEORGE R. WENDLING TO LECTURE TONIGHT

George R. Wendling of Washington, D. C., who lectures this evening on "The Imperial Book," under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at the city hall, reached the city late this afternoon. For years Mr. Wendling has been regarded as one of the most polished orators on the American lecture platform and his lecture on "The Imperial Book" is regarded as his best. Secretary Reeves of the Y. M. C. A. returned this morning from Waco, where Mr. Wendling lectured last week, and said that Waco was greatly pleased with the number on the lecture course there which Mr. Wendling filled.

FORT WORTH DELEGATION LEAVES TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Party Representing the Fort Worth Board of Trade Goes to El Paso in Special Car and Will Come Back With Promise of Next Year's Meeting in This City

A few weeks ago when an effort to secure the next National Cattlemen's Association convention for Fort Worth next year was made many Fort Worth business men said frankly, "We'd rather have the state convention and we are going to get it."

That idea has been borne in mind and further carried out by the action of the Board of Trade. Captain E. B. Padlock, secretary of the Board of Trade, devised the clever badge, "Come Home," and the delegation that left last night on the special Pullman car Eloise left with the intention of securing the convention for Fort Worth in 1904 or dying in the attempt.

The members of the party left by way of the Texas and Pacific at 3:30 and were as follows: W. G. Turner, Marion Sansom, F. G. McPeak, Jake Washer, J. W. Spencer, A. F. Crowley, A. Johnson, A. J. Long, Sam Davidson, Tom Holeran, H. M. Durrett, J. W. Montague, A. D. Evans, H. A. Pierce, V. S. Wardlaw, E. G. Hall, George T. Reynolds, G. H. Connell, W. C. Forbes, F. A. Deupree, Judge G. H. Garland, Robert E. Crowley.

On Monday, the 16th instant, Dr. Packard of Taylor, Tenn., is expected.

LAWN TENNIS TOURNAMENT IS NOW ON AT NICE

PARIS, March 9.—The lawn tennis tournament for the championship of the south of France was begun today at Nice. This year Americans are chiefly interested in the meeting because the Doherty brothers hold the championship titles in both the singles and doubles. H. J. Doherty is the singles champion, and paired with R. F. Doherty, holds the doubles. Another reason for the interest of Americans is the fact that Eugene Higgins of New York has given several thousand francs as prizes for the tournament.

NEW YORK, March 9.—A playlet written by Roland E. Molineux, whose trial and acquittal last fall on a charge of murder attracted world-wide attention, was given its initial presentation today at a local vaudeville theater and was favorably received. The piece deals with an episode of the revolutionary war and was sketched out by Molineux while he was an inmate of the death chamber in Sing Sing prison. Quality is what makes price. NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Fort Worth Telegram will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given at the office, 1010-1012 Houston street, Fort Worth.

The greatest enemy Fort Worth has is M-U-D.

March came into Fort Worth rather timidly and the hope is that the lamblike entrail will not develop into a lionlike exit.

The press dispatches say that China is meditating another revolution. One at a time, please: Macedonia has the floor at present.

The grand lodge I. O. O. F. chose Sherman over Fort Worth as the place of their next annual meeting. They are Odd Fellows, for certain.

Jeffries and Corbett have at last signed articles to fight. May the Lord put the power of a steam hammer behind the blows of both and may they strike at exactly the same instant!

We in Fort Worth are not overly enthusiastic about raising the governor's salary. Just now we are thinking more about sending all the spare cash we can raise down east to enable those six per cent bondholders to live in well-fed ease and plenty. It is true that three or four per cent is the average per cent of return that investments in bonds bring, but we have our Civic Conscience to consider. A Civic Conscience is a bit expensive, but of course every well regulated city must have one.

If the timid little prairie dog knew how much time the legislature of the great state of Texas is spending in discussing him, he would swell up to the size of a fat 'possum and laugh in blithesome glee. The legislature can arrange railroad rate schedules and kick all a man's relations out of office without serious strain, but when it comes to exterminating the prairie dogs from the plains of West Texas, it faces a task that makes the problem of disposing of the mud on Houston street look as simple by comparison as the multiplication of two by four. As the Honorable W. B. Ware, from the county of Donley, somewhat theoretically express it, "The prairie dog can no more be exterminated through legislation than a Panhandle cyclone can blow the stars out of the firmament above."

The Austin Statesman says: "Blowing your own horn is all right, providing you do not annoy your neighbors." And still the Statesman sounds its own bugle so loud and so often that one can't help but wonder if it holds to the theory that it is exempt from taking its own medicine. The Telegram has no exception to take to the Statesman's statements. It was only wondering if the Statesman would give up its self advertising if it really and truly thought that its neighbor the Tribune were being annoyed. Very likely not. The blowing process would likely be augmented. The Telegram believes it is proper for anyone to blow his own horn. The Telegram blows its own horn. No one else will do it for The Telegram. No one else could do it satisfactorily. The merchant is tooting his own bugle when he is advertising his ware. The wholesaler is blowing his own horn when he sends out traveling men to drum up trade. There isn't a line of business that is exempt. The housekeeper does it. The servant does. None escapes. And usually the neighbor or the competitor is not given very material consideration. Keep it up, Mr. Statesman. You're getting out a good newspaper and you have every right

In the world to wind that horn of yours and wind it hard and often. And it particularly pleases The Telegram that the Statesman is showing such a good front—because its old-time city editor, Mark Goodwin is business manager of the Statesman.

THE CITY HEALTHFUL

The annual report of City Physician Chambers which has just been filed shows the death rate for 1902 to have been a little more than eight persons for every 1000 of the population.

The showing is remarkable in that there was but one more death in 1902 than in the year 1902, despite the fact the population was increased more than 5,000.

The healthfulness of Fort Worth is a claim that can be met by very few of the cities of the United States. It is something that is of prime importance to those selecting a city in which to live. It is a source of self-congratulation for those who are already its citizens.

But with the assurance that Fort Worth is still in the foremost rank of healthful cities, comes the warning to make provision to keep the condition at its present excellence.

To wait until the outbreak of an epidemic is poor time to make provision for its prevention.

In his report, Dr. Chambers points out the fact that there have recently been several cases of typhoid fever in the city, resulting from impure milk and water. The thought of disease from such a cause is one that is sufficient to make thinking people act. The danger from impure milk, impure water, impure food of any kind, is all the greater because it is concealed.

Dr. Chambers says the city ought to have a milk and food inspector. His suggestion is one that concerns the vital statistics of the city and one that deserves prompt action.

In a few weeks the city will enjoy a system of artesian waterworks that will forever remove the danger of disease from its public water supply, but it will not remove the danger from private wells, from poorly kept dairies, from unclean bakeries, and other sources of disease.

Fort Worth's healthfulness is too important to be a matter for argument. The time to make proper provisions for its maintenance is now.

In the race for honors and cash in the play writing field now on in England among several authors, J. M. Barrie would seem at present to have the best of it. His comedy, "The Admirable Crichton," is one of the most successful plays of the season in London, and some little white bird has been whispering new shames in his ear. Anthony Hope, one of his rivals in the race, wrote a letter to a friend in New York the other day, which he closed with the following eloquent words, speaking as he said, for the rest of the rear guard, also: "Barrie tells me that his head is full of plots—curse him."

Sedley Brown, former stage manager of the Woodward stock company, is now filling the same position with the Players' stock company of Chicago. Last week a new play by Mr. Brown, called "The Minister," was given by his company, and was well received by the public and the Chicago reviewers.

Triels Friganza, who followed Marie Cahill in "The Chaperons," is now playing the role in "Sally in Our Alley" that was created by Miss Cahill last season.

British Cruiser a Record Breaker

The new armored cruiser recently built for the British government is a record breaker, having developed the fastest speed of any vessel in their navy. In medicine, however, we have the record breaker in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Introduced over fifty years ago it has forged ahead until today finds it occupying the foremost position as a family remedy, and is used largely to the exclusion of all others. Don't fail to try a bottle, especially if you are weak and run down or suffer from poor appetite, heartburn, belching, nausea, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia or constipation. It cannot help but do you good, and if taken regularly will surely restore you to perfect health. The genuine must have our Private Stamp over the neck of the bottle. Refuse all imitations.

THE PRIZES TO YOUNG GATHERERS OF NEWS

Here is a chance for some bright and energetic boy or girl to earn $5 between now and April 5. The Telegram offers the chance to anyone who is energetic and wide-awake.

The Telegram wants items of news. It wants to know when people leave the city or come to it. It wants to know who are visiting here. It wants to know about the meetings of societies and other organizations. In other words, it wants to know all the little as well as big happenings in Fort Worth.

Such items are news and The Telegram wants to print news. The Telegram believes every boy and girl in Fort Worth has fifty and perhaps a hundred friends who come and go and hold meetings that should be mentioned in the paper. Believing this, The Telegram hereby offers prizes for boys and girls who will bring to The Telegram office or write and send to it or telephone to it bona fide items of news such as have been described.

THE PRIZES OFFERED

Two prizes are offered. The boy or girl sending in the largest number of items by April 5 will receive $5 in cash. The one sending in next to the largest number will receive $3 in cash.

Each boy and girl must keep a "string" of the items he or she sends in. Each one sending in items will make a "string" by cutting from The Telegram the items sent in and printed and pasting all the clippings secured in this way together.

The Telegram office will also keep a "string" for each boy and girl and the winner of the contest will be determined after figuring up the "strings" at the end of the month.

GIVE YOUR NAME

In order that The Telegram office may keep its "strings" correctly, every item sent in must be accompanied by the name of the boy or girl who sends it. No boy or girl will be given credit for an item which is not accompanied by the name.

The Telegram office is at 1010-1012 Houston street, and the editorial room telephone number is 675.

RULES FOR ITEMS

Every item must contain the correct name and initials and address of every person mentioned in it. The names must be spelled correctly.

The facts stated in the item must be correct. Any boy or girl who sends in an item which is found to be untrue will be ruled out of the contest.

All items must be in The Telegram office before 1 o'clock of the day on which they are to be used. Remember, The Telegram wants always to know about things the day they happen. Announcements for future events will be all right and will count in the contest. Items that have already been printed in The Telegram, whether gathered by regular reporters or by contestants will not be printed a second time and will not count in the contest.

Mrs. Brune, the new star who has been attracting attention for two seasons, is a Californian, born in San Francisco, virtually under the walls of the famous "Old Drury" of the Pacific coast, the California theater, familiar to all students of the stage as the home of one of the greatest stock companies the world has known. John McCullough, Lawrence Barrett, Thomas Keene, Harry Montague, Lewis Morrison, Laura Keane, Jeffries Lewis and a score of other famous ones used to see the little tot, Minnie Tittel, playing around the stage door. Minnie Tittel is the youngest of the talented Tittel sisters. Charlotte is now permanently located in New York City. Esther has been identified for several years with the Frohman forces and Minnie is now known as Mrs. Brune. A few years ago she was the Edith in "Editha the Burglar." Then she was the dashing Flirt in "A Trip to Chinatown," then with Charles Frohman's comedians in "Settled Out of Court," "Wilkinson's Widows," etc. Following this came a few years of stock work upon the Pacific coast. Returning to the East she became co-star with Frederick Warde, and with that excellent actor successfully played Juliet, Virginia, Fortia and a repertoire of classic drama. Three seasons ago she was exploited as the successor of Fannie Davenport in the Sardou repertoire. Her success as an emotional actress has been emphatic. Her last season's production was "Theodora," and now she has what is said to be her greatest role in "Unorna," an elaborate dramatization of F. Marion Crawford's "The Witch of Prague." Her manager and brother, Wallace Munro, secured this play from this distinguished writer, and is said to have given it a fine setting.

DAILY SHORT STORY

The Sin of a Grandfather

By Louis Honig (Copyright, 1903, by W. R. Hearst, Great Britain Rights Reserved.)

"I almost wish you never had a grandfather, Rob. I know the name of Edward Thorncliffe will stand as a bar to our happiness. He is the one man against whom my father harbors any hatred. The wrong done him by your grandfather will never be forgotten. And I might have been so happy, were it not for this one misfortune—for it is a misfortune greater than you imagine. Oh, the deuce take grandfathers!"

Watching the sun drop from one stratum of cloud to another and slowly and silently sink into the sea, Robert Horton and Virginia Wright sat upon the sands of the Monterey beach, forgetful that the hour for dinner had arrived and that the convention of wearing evening clothes at dinner had not been abrogated. During the previous winter they had met in New York for the first time. Virginia Wright was a product of the west and in point of beauty, manner and style she might suffer any judgment or criticism. Robert Horton was of New York, a lawyer of some promise in his profession with an income greater than even his promising career before the bar could ever reach under the most fruitful circumstances. His wealth came to him from his grandfather, whose vast estate devolved entirely upon him by right of inheritance, as there were no other closer heirs.

Save for the plangent breaking of the surf the beach was as silent as the sad great sea. The twilight had come upon the couple and the desertion was general. The man had confessed his love and been assured of the girl's return. In telling of his family Robert Horton mentioned the name of his grandfather. The discovery was a great shock to the girl, for she knew of the man's treachery to her own father when the latter was quite a young man; how his business had been wrecked by the vindictive opposition of the former, and how finally her father had quit the seething, tripartite life of Wall street to come to a new land to build his fortunes on a new foundation. She had often heard the story from the wronged man's lips. In her heart she felt that parental acquiescence would not be forthcoming when Robert Horton should expose the genealogical map to the eye of her father.

Of course the young man felt oppressed at the unexpected difficulties of his position. He had heard and read of the peculiar business methods of his grandfather, who was not a lovable person. In fact, he rarely agreed with him, and only protected his inheritance by keeping as possible under the circumstances. But he could not use this disaffection as an argument to Horace Wright. On the very face of things he could not demean himself or abuse the memory of one of his own progenitors, even though it be to help him ride smoothly through a rough sea.

That night on the porch of the Del Monte club house Wright and Horton sat over their Scotch and sodas, discussing finance. The younger man angled to draw the older in the troubled water of his early Wall street career, but without success. For more than an hour they talked, and Horton had made no progress. Then just as they were about to break the parlour door, Horton ordered another round of drinks and "some of those heavy Havana cigars." The influence of the balmy air, the sweet smell of the flowers, the mellowness that comes from a libation mingled with a fine Scotch and its tempering soda, reduced the reserve of the girl's father and he went back to his Wall street days.

The seared memory allowed no incantation. He told of his early struggles and the death blow delivered by Edward Thorncliffe, damning without stint the grandsons of the man before him. His vehement speech seemed to exhaust his wrath somewhat, for the concluding words of his speech were:

"Yet what good will ever come of my hatred to Edward Thorncliffe? He is bred to, and the law of God orders him to be allowed to rest in peace."

Here was the chance the young man had been awaiting. Without a moment's hesitation he jumped into the midst of his heart's desire and asked for the hand of the daughter. So rapidly did he speak that the father was forced to listen to him until he had completed his account of himself, his family and the impossible grandfather. Concluding, he said:

"It is not for you to judge the sins of men out of the generation. It is not your province to visit the sins of the grandfather on the grandson. I love your daughter. I have her word that my love is returned."

With a dignity that was so free from assumption that it could not be separated from the personality of Horace Wright and leave a whole being the father answered:

"Mr. Horton, personally I have no objection to you, but an alliance of our families is impossible."

He left and walked to the hotel. Horton sat at the table smoking and drinking for several hours. The next day the Wrights left for San Francisco. Horton returned to New York.

ful consummation of his plans. Wright's entire fortune was rimmed in this deal, and to him it meant life or death. He viewed the transaction from many sides but could see no possibility of failure and he accounted himself shrewd. Then came the struggle—one of those fierce, frenzied fights on the Stock Exchange, involving the most frantic, hysterical money market in the world. Horton and his supporters held on with a bull terrier grip. The papers headlined the fight of the newcomer in a strange market as something phenomenal of its kind. They even went so far as to predict victory for him. Wright's blood went into the battle. There was no withdrawing now. To win meant an accession to his wealth far beyond his expectations. Originally he went into the fight only to protect himself. Now the love of light gripped him and all his belated attributes were put on razor edge. The market saw-sawed for several days. Then came the crisis. Two millions of dollars were needed by the westerners to put them on a rock foundation. They had taxed their strength too early. The securities could not be obtained. The combination was blocked and Horace Wright and five of his friends were ruined men. The long, powerful financial arm of the East had reached out and cut short the impudence of the West.

It was at noon when Wright gave up. All his friends had gone the limit of their fortunes. They were wrecked men in a foreign mart.

Limp, used up, beaten, Horace Wright sat in the Wall street office of an ex-western senator, the tape in his fingers, but his eyes on the ground. One hope remained—it was not founded on reason, but a vague Providence, for it was the impossible—that his enemies would quit too soon.

Just then the ticker began to sound and the tape to move. Wright, with his mind on his daughter and his wrecked fortunes sounding all the "depths and shallows" of despair, did not hear or see. Suddenly, without exercise of will on his part, he grabbed the tape and read the meaningful dots and dashes. Fear took hold of him for he could not believe what he saw before him. He became terrorized. Point by point his stock rode the waves of resurrection. He was saved.

It took a day before the storm surging through the body of Horace Wright subsided. Then he and his friends began searching for the mysterious influence to which they should bow and show the thankfulness that is born of complete despair and death changed to joy and living. They found it in the firm of Hunt & Clark of which Robert Horton was a silent, but heavily interested, partner.

A month later Horace Wright, broken down utterly by the strain of his last but greatest financial contest, died in the rooms of the Holland house. His daughter had nursed him to the last. On his deathbed the dying man sent for Horton. His last words were:

"It is not for me to judge the sins of men out of their generation. It is not my province to visit the sins of the grandfather on the grandson."

THE CITY IN BRIEF

THE WEATHER

Forecast for Fort Worth and vicinity until 8 p. m. Tuesday: Occasional rain this afternoon and tonight with some thunder and lightning. Generally fair Tuesday. Slight changes in temperature.

AMUSEMENTS

MOREY STOCK COMPANY

The Morey Stock Company opens a five-night engagement at Greenwall's opera house tonight with a grand scenic production of their society bill of "Credit Lorraine." They carry eighteen people and more than a carload of scenery and properties. Every piece presented is set with their own beautiful special scenery.

MARY JOHNSTON'S GREAT STORY ON THE STAGE

At Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, March 14, theatergoers of this city will enjoy an unusual opportunity of witnessing Liebler & Co.'s great production of Mary Johnston's "Audrey," with the extraordinary successful comedienne, Miss Eleanor Robson, in the title role.

WAR HERO IS COMING HERE

RICHARD P. HOBSON

HOBSON'S VISIT TO THE CITY

WILL DISCUSS THE QUARANTINE QUESTION

At the meeting of the Seventh District Bankers' convention to be held at Wichita Falls March 17, in the St. James hotel, the "Cattle Quarantine Regulation" will be one of the principal matters for discussion.

WILL GIVE FAREWELL TO MRS. R. F. BUTTS

The ladies of the Taylor Street Cumberland Presbyterian church will hold a farewell meeting at the church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in honor of their retiring president, Mrs. R. F. Butts, who leaves the last of the week for Houston, where she will make her future home.

IS A SOUTHERNER

"Captain Hobson is a southerner and has all the southern fervor of nature that makes his flights of oratory truly impassioned. His language is beautiful, always well chosen, and never lacks for a word. His voice is full, round and sonorous and is pleasantly modulated. He is not only an orator and a thinker, but a student of international affairs. He was well educated before he entered the navy and in his voyages to many ports has picked up a rare collection of facts and moulded them into great lessons."

THE MAYOR'S AMENDMENTS

Section - Upon petition of 15 per cent of legal voters of the city of Fort Worth to the city council it will be the duty of said council to submit to the qualified electors of said city any amendment or amendments to this charter, as set forth in said petition; and in the event such amendment, or amendments, receive a majority vote of the electors of said city the same shall be submitted to the next legislature of the state of Texas for adoption or rejection.

Section - The city council shall make necessary provisions by ordinance for submitting such amendment, or amendments, to the qualified voters, as herein provided, and to canvass the vote in the same manner as herein provided for canvassing of other election returns.

Section - The city council of the city of Fort Worth shall not grant to any person or corporation a franchise, or extend the life of any existing franchise, for the use or control of any public utility, unless such franchise or extension shall have first been submitted to a vote of the people of said city, at either a general or special election called therefor, and until the same shall have been approved by a majority of electors of the city voting thereon at such election. No franchise for a longer period than twenty-five years shall ever be granted or given by the city of Fort Worth.

Section - All propositions for public utilities which are to be submitted to a referendum vote shall be published by title and in full, at least once a week, for eight consecutive weeks, immediately preceding said election, in at least two newspapers published in the city of Fort Worth, and the city council may require that any and all expenses thereby entailed shall be paid by the party or parties applying for the franchise, provided that the foregoing sections shall not apply to the granting of any franchise for an extension, not exceeding one-half mile in length on any street, where a franchise exists, for term equal to the unexpired term of the franchise of the line so extended.

Section - All business done by virtue of, or in connection with any public franchise, shall be subjected to frequent and thorough inspection and auditing by city officers.

Section - The city council shall have the right to regulate the rates charged and the service given by water companies, gas companies, electric light companies, street railway companies, telephone companies and all other services of public utilities in the city of Fort Worth, and the said charges, whether made by individuals, companies or corporations, shall not exceed the rates required to cover operating expenses (including depreciation) and a reasonable percent of interest or profit on the real present value of the actual legitimate investment, or the actual value of the physical plant (cost of duplication, less depreciation) plus the present value of any amount legitimately paid for franchise, considering the proposition of the franchisee term still unexpired, and the city council shall have the discretionary power to regulate said rates at least once each year.

Section - The city of Fort Worth shall have the power to build, construct, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain, conduct and operate waterworks systems, works for lighting, heating and other power purposes, cable, electric and other railways, telephone system, and all other public utilities, with full jurisdiction and authority to make, regulate, control and operate the same within the limits of the city, and to condemn private property when necessary for the use of such utilities. All ordinances passed under this section shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city for adoption or rejection at either a special or general election.

Section - The city council shall have no power to alienate or sell the waterworks now owned and operated by the city of Fort Worth.

ONE OF THE MOST REMARKABLE CASES

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Penner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength."

"Hobson's Choice"

Tobias Hobson was the first man in England who let out hackney horses.

When anyone wished to hire a horse, he was obliged to take the one standing nearest the stable door—he had no selection. Hence the old proverb, so familiar now, was born:

"To elect there is but one— 'Tis Hobson's choice—take that or none."

Before the introduction of Uneeda Biscuit buying soda crackers in a paper bag, was like hiring Hobson's horses—there was no choice. In kind and quality there was but one—take that or else take none. Whether stale, soggy, dirty or old—'twas ever the same—"Hobson's Choice."

Uneeda Biscuit in In-er-seal Packages have revolutionized this old method and set an example that has received the stamp of public approval, as the sale of over 200,000,000 5 cent packages attest.

The In-er-seal Package, insures their quality, cleanliness and crispness, because it is airtight, moisture proof, dust proof and germ proof.

THE PROGRAM FOR THE Y. M. C. A. MEETING

THE TWENTIETH ANNUAL SESSION SOON TO BEGIN AT LAMPASAS

The twentieth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Texas will be held at Lampasas, March 14 to 17, inclusively. The sessions will be held in the Baptist church of that city.

The music will be charge of Fred L. Willis of Omaha, Neb., general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at that place. The Texas Y. M. C. A. quartet will sing frequently. The convention theme as announced in the official announcement and program will be "Move Forward."

The members of the program committee comprise Charles A. Boynton, John L. Hunter and Wilbur M. Lewis, while various members of the Lampasas association have been selected for making the usual arrangements for the state meeting and the reception of the delegates and visitors in attendance.

A number of people will attend the convention from Fort Worth, among whom will be the secretary of the local association, J. G. Reeves, who will preside at the afternoon session on March 17.

A summary of the program, which is now in the hands of the local members, follows:

Saturday evening, March 14, organization and welcome address, the latter by M. M. White, Lampasas; response, president of the convention.

Sunday morning, March 15, prayer service, followed by gospel addresses in the churches of that city.

Sunday afternoon will be devoted to mass meetings for ladies and boys, and a college men's conference. A men's meeting will be held at the courthouse Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A grand rally at the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will be the feature of the convention Sunday evening.

Bible study, open discussion of questions, in the association question drawer, weak points in the work for railroad men in Texas and its remedy, weak points in the city work of Texas associations and an address by A. G. Irons of San Antonio will be the features of the session on Monday morning, March 16.

Bible study, religious work conference, an address by William J. Parker of Chicago, Ill., and a college work conference will constitute the program Monday afternoon.

On Monday evening, following a gospel song service, will be addresses by T. S. Clyce, D. D., president of Austin college, and S. F. B. Morse, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific Railway system. The report of the business committee will conclude the work of that period.

Tuesday morning will open with Bible study, followed by a business session and an address by A. F. Hardie, of Dallas.

Tuesday afternoon open parliament will be presided over by J. G. Reeves of this city, which will be followed by an address by Rev. David Everett, D. D., of Waco.

A grand farewell rally Tuesday evening, followed by the report of the committee on resolutions and a farewell will conclude the work of the convention.

VETERANS AND SONS DISLIKE OPPOSITION

Resolutions heavily scoring Hon. Clarence Stewart of Tarrant county for his opposition to the appointment of a clerk for the Confederate home at Austin were passed yesterday afternoon both by the R. E. Lee camp of Confederate Veterans and by the Sons' camp, both of which were in regular session at the courthouse. The resolutions passed by the Veterans' camp were as follows:

Resolved, That this camp is deeply pained by the conduct of Clarence Stewart, one of the representatives for this county in the legislature, in opposing the bill recently passed by the house providing for a clerk to the superintendent of the Confederate home; and,

"2. The camp, in the name of the eight hundred members and the 1,500 Confederates of this county, earnestly request Mr. Stewart to withdraw any further opposition to said measure and instead of opposing to cordially support this and all other reasonable measures proposed for the proper conduct and maintenance of said home.

"3. That the adjutant of this camp be directed to forward to Mr. Stewart a copy of these resolutions."

THE SONS' RESOLUTIONS

"Whereas, It has come to the attention of R. E. Lee camp, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, that Hon. Clarence Stewart, a representative in the Texas legislature from Tarrant county, is opposing a bill passed by the legislature which provides for the appointment of a clerk and bookkeeper for the Confederate home; and,

"Whereas, The appointment of such an official must be conceded on the grounds of good business to be a necessity for the proper conduct and correct management of that grand institution; and,

"Whereas, It is the earnest desire of the Texas division of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, a patriotic body of young men who contribute a large percent of the taxes of this great state, that nothing shall be left undone to care for, protect and safeguard the interests of these grand old soldiers in their declining years; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the twelve hundred members of the R. E. Lee camp, U. S. C. V., of Fort Worth, That Hon. Clarence Stewart in his opposition to this timely and useful measure, does not represent the sentiment and wishes of a very large majority of his constituents, and it is a source of deep regret and sore disappointment on the part of his many friends in this camp that the honorable gentleman should have assumed such a position; and, be it further

Resolved, That we remind the honorable gentleman that he occupies his honored position by virtue of the suffrage of the people of Tarrant county, and it is his solemn duty to voice their wishes and that we earnestly request him to desist from further opposition to this as well as all other measures for the betterment of conditions at the Confederate home, an institution in which every citizen of Texas feels a just pride; and, be it further

Resolved, That the adjutant of this camp be directed to send a copy of these resolutions to the Hon. Clarence Stewart, and that he furnish a copy to every paper in Tarrant county and also to the Dallas News."

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

The new commander of R. E. Lee camp, Confederate Veterans, W. T. Shaw, presided yesterday for the first time and announced the following list of appointments:

Executive committee—J. J. Mayfield, chairman; L. H. Attwell, L. C. Vaughan, W. D. Farris.

Finance—J. B. Littlejohn, chairman; E. W. Yeates, J. H. Murphy, M. B. Loyd, H. C. Edrington.

Mortuary—J. J. Melton, chairman; J. C. Richardson, T. J. Brim.

Examination—H. C. McGar, chairman; W. L. Norwood, J. H. Dunlavy.

Historic—C. C. Cummings, chairman; K. M. Van Zandt, S. P. Greene.

AMONG EXCHANGES

Clarksville Times: Half sick and half busted, dog tired and disgusted—we of Red River are sore of the mud; mired up to the collar, soaked through to the hollow—we are mad as the mischief and thirsty for blood.

Hall County Herald: Governor Latham's first veto will be generally applauded by the people of Texas. This old gentleman doesn't believe in all this new-fangled streaked intermarrying. He thinks love and marriage both a business proposition and that the people should quit falling in love with their stepdaughters, stepfathers and the like.

Farm and Ranch: Good butter? What a rarity in these days! No wonder that it retails for 40 cents per pound in our towns. In Mexico they rarely see good butter. Texas is very near to Mexico. Under existing market conditions it is no wonder that process butter and pale oleo are coming into Texas by the car load. There is room in Texas for 50,000 good dairymen and 1,000 up-to-date creameries.

Colorado Spokesman: Flattering reports come in from the Pecos country of range and stock conditions. It is said that though the fine season put in the ground by the three good snows that have fallen in that section. Grass will rise early and the ranchmen will be enabled to market their steers at least six weeks earlier than commonly.

MISS BALL CHOSEN SPONSOR

At the meeting of R. E. Lee camp Miss Virgie Ball was elected sponsor for the camp at the New Orleans reunion. Miss Ball was present at the meeting and thanked the camp for the honor conferred.

At the meeting of the Sons' camp, Miss Fannie Yeates was recommended as brigade sponsor at the New Orleans reunion.

OTHER BUSINESS

Among other business disposed of at the meeting of the Veterans' camp was the passing of resolutions on the death of the late W. N. Paxton.

Miss M. K. McDougal, representing the Anna Lee Carter chapter, donated $10 toward the fund which will be used in marking the graves of dead comrades.

NEW SENATORS SWORN IN

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Senators Stone of Missouri, Gallinger of New Hampshire and Clarke of Arkansas were sworn in in the senate today. Clarke went to the speaker's desk alone.

MURDER MYSTERY UNCHANGED. BUFFALO, N. Y., March 9.—The Burdock murder mystery remains unchanged today. The police are working quietly. Nothing was given out.

CORPORATION COURT'S TWO DOLLAR MORNING

It was two-dollar morning in corporation court today, and more fines of that amount were assessed than of any other kind.

Robert Speed plead guilty to disturbing the peace and got the first $2 and cost. Similar fines were assessed against Frank Massey, charged with an affray. Lula Groves got a like fine.

Daisy Straus, who was charge with using abusive language sometime about the idea of March, was fined $5 and costs. Walter O'Meara, who was fined $5 and costs Feb. 24 for hitting a man who said he was "straight Irish," was dismissed, because of earnest petitions on his behalf. It cost Bernice Jackson $1 and costs because she became intoxicated, while William Springlie got off for a similar offense because he said he would lose his job if he had to serve time, and declared solemnly he would never get drunk again.

Jesse Redman, a 15-year-old boy, who is said to have run away from his home in the country, is being held by the police. His case comes up tomorrow.

ADDITIONAL CITY BRIEFS

Young County News: At the residence of the bride's mother near Profit, at 7:30 p. m., Feb. 27, Edley Pritchett and Miss Eva Tankersley were married. Rev. Summers, of Throckmorton, officiating. The groom is a young teacher of much promise and intelligence, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of the late W. L. Tankersley. They will leave this week for Fort Worth, their future home.

Carrollton News: C. J. King of Fort Worth is in our town, the guest of his friend, V. M. Barton.

County Judge John B. Litterer of Big Springs, Texas, was in the city today on his way home from Austin.

The westbound morning passenger on the Texas and Pacific was well loaded with passengers for El Paso, and two extra sleepers were added to the train here. Few left, however, from Fort Worth, the majority of the crowd having gone last night.

There is still a heavy movement of oranges from California. From seventy-five to 100 cars are being received daily.

An enjoyable sacred concert was given last evening at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, under the direction of Rollin M. Pease. The other soloists were Miss McLaughlin, Mrs. Smith and Mr. Johnson. Owing to the bad weather, the stereopticon lecture to have been given at the Tabernacle Christian church has been postponed until Friday night.

REMAINS OF DR. McJUNKIN ARE SENT TO DALLAS

TERRELL, Texas, March 9.—The remains of Dr. S. W. McJunkin, second assistant physician of the asylum, who died yesterday, were shipped to Dallas today for interment there.

CASE AGAINST GRIFFIN IS DISMISSED TODAY

A case against Jim Griffin, charging him with theft from person, on complaint of a man said to be a blacksmith from Thurber, was dismissed this morning from lack of prosecution.

The man alleged that Griffin "touched" him for several hundred dollars near the Standard theater, but when the case was called Saturday he failed to appear to back up his charge. This morning the case was again called, and as the complainant failed to appear, was dismissed.

PAVEMENT OF STREET IS NOW COMPLETED

The pavement of Main street from the Texas and Pacific tracks to the end of the Texas and Pacific reservation has been completed and the street was thrown open this morning for use.

The improvement over the old mud holes that existed a few weeks ago is too great for comparison. The expense of the paving (the distance was about 600 feet) was paid by the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company and the Northern Texas Tractor Company, on the same basis as the regular city contracts.

ITEMS FROM TOWN OF CLAUDE

A Car of Hay Sells at the Rate of $10 Per Ton

CLAUDE, Texas, March 6.—Lee Rivers, an Amarillo stockman, bought one car of hay at $10 a ton from A. T. Collins.

This is the first fair day Claude has had in two weeks and there is great loss of cattle all through the county, caused by the cold spell.

Rev. Camp conducted a quarterly meeting at the Riverside church last night. Adam Herbert and family spent Sunday in the country.

Mr. Wilber has begun building a new residence in Riverside.
