THE RIVER NOW ON A STAND AT NEW ORLEANS

LEEVES AT CRESCENT CITY ARE HOLDING FIRMLY

WEATHER FAVORABLE

WITH IMPROVED CONDITIONS THE EMBANKMENTS ARE REPORTED TO BE HARDENING

FRENCH QUARTERS ARE O. K.

Sensational Stories to Effect That the Old Section of Town is Two Feet Under Water Are Denied—Embankments Below Baton Rouge Have Not Broken

(By Associated Press.) NEW ORLEANS, La., March 15.—The river here has been stationary since Saturday morning, when it registered 19.2 feet, and the official government reading was the same today.

Better weather conditions have improved the indications, generally allowing the temporary levees to harden. The levees are all holding nicely.

Sensational stories have been sent from New Orleans to the effect that the levees below Canal street have broken and that the French quarter is two feet under water, and that the embankments below Baton Rouge have broken, flooding 200 miles of territory and seriously endangering New Orleans. They are absolutely without foundation.

RIVER STATIONARY NEW ORLEANS, La., March 15.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon the river was stationary, with no breaks at any point.

WATER IS STILL ON RISE AT MEMPHIS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 15.—The river gauge this morning marked 39.1 feet a rise of .6 since 7 o'clock last night. This is the highest stage of water ever known and government officials predict that a maximum of forty feet will be reached.

In North Memphis the situation is, assuming a very serious phase. Hundreds of people are abandoning their homes, and every industry located along Wolf river is being closed down.

Street car service in that part of the city is practically abandoned and skiffs are brought into requisition.

The Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad has annulled several of its schedules because of washouts south of here. Reports from Hollybush, north of here, state that the water is running over the top of the levee.

There is a weak point about one hundred yards long. Hundreds of sacks of sand are being thrown about the levee. Dyersburg, Tenn., reports immense damage to that section by high water. Many planters of the bottoms have fled to the hills for safety and report that their houses are being washed away.

THE GOVERNMENT SENDS OUT SPECIAL BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Ohio river at Cairo remains stationary at 59.6 feet and is now falling above.

The Mississippi at Memphis is now 39.1, with a rise of 1.2 feet since Sunday morning and 1.8 above the previous high record of April, 1898.

It continues to rise and probably a stage of forty feet will be reached in the neighborhood.

Below Memphis the river continues to rise slowly except at New Orleans, where it has fallen .1 in the last twenty-four hours and now stands at 19.2 feet.

NEGRO CABINS ARE TARGETS FOR RIFLES

(By Associated Press.) WAXAHACHE, Texas, March 15.—Some time ago a lot of negro laborers were brought here from South Texas to pick cotton on the Kemble farm, near Midlothian.

Last night several shots were fired into the cabins occupied by the negroes, and for several minutes excitement ran high. No one was hurt and the shooting is supposed to have been for the purpose of giving the negroes a scare, as the Middleman people do not allow them to live in that section.

LOUISIANA "JIM CROW" LAW CONSTITUTIONAL NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—The supreme court today affirmed the constitutionality of the "Jim Crow" street car law.

I. & G. N. TRAINS IN BAD WRECK AT KYLE

IN A REAR END COLLISION SEVEN PASSENGERS AND A NUMBER OF TRAINMEN ARE SEVERELY HURT

(Special to The Telegram.) SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 15.—International and Great Northern passenger trains Nos. 5 and 7 came together in a rear-end collision at Kyle this morning at 8:05 o'clock, during a heavy fog.

The engine of train No. 5 telescoped the Pullman on No. 7, and is completely wrecked. Seven passengers were injured, and were taken to Austin.

Frank Bryce of San Antonio, engineer of No. 5, had both feet cut off, and is injured internally. He may die.

Frank Behrhard and Rudolph Behrhard of San Antonio, mail clerks, are seriously injured. Express Messenger D. A. Vann is injured.

COMMITTEE WILL LOOK INTO THE TROUBLE

AUSTIN, Texas, March 15.—A joint resolution providing for the appointment of three senators and two representatives to investigate condition of the land in Texas where trouble is said to be brewing between the cattlemen and the actual settlers was defeated in the house this morning by a vote of 63 to 32. The anti-free pass bill was then taken up with an amendment providing that a railroad shall only issue passes to its employees. The senate did not meet today.

MANY WOMEN WRITE TO THE "HERB DOCTOR"

(By Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 15.—Seventy letters, written mostly by women, have been found in the home of George Hoosey, the negro "herb doctor," who is accused of being an accessory to the alleged murderer of William G. Danze. These letters, which are said to be of an incriminating nature, vary little in their terms, and it is asserted, show that Hoosey charged $100 for every case. Some of the letters point to payment of the fee in installments.

EPIDEMIC OF SCARLET FEVER AT COLORADO

(Special to The Telegram.) COLORADO, Texas, March 15.—An epidemic of scarlet fever is raging among the children in this city and more or less excitement prevails as a result. Health Officer Phenix has the matter in charge and as rapidly as cases develop the quarantine lines are thrown around it, by which means it is hoped to prevent any extensive spread of the disease. So far the form has not been virulent and will probably not become so.

Ed W. Smith, former county attorney of Howard county, has moved from Big Springs to this place, having accepted the position of private secretary to his cousin, Congressman W. R. Smith of the sixteenth district.

YOUNGER LEADERS WILL DO TALKING

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Ill., March 15.—Final preparations have been completed for the twenty-second annual banquet of the Iroquois Club at the Auditorium hotel tonight. The list of invited guests embraces many prominent democrats, particularly the element known as the "young blood" of the party. The club's action in inviting these younger leaders to address the banquet in preference to the old wheel horses of the party, such as Bryan, Cleveland, Hill and others, is regarded in political circles as of considerable significance in view of the approaching presidential campaign.

VALUABLE GRANT TO A. E. STILWELL

(Special to The Telegram.) AUSTIN, Texas, March 15.—A dispatch from Chihuahua, Mexico, says that the Mexican government has granted a concession to Arthur E. Stilwell, president of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railroad, for the utilization of the timber on two million acres of land situated in the western part of that state. It is the purpose of the railroad company to establish a number of large mills in the timber region through which the road will pass.

CHILI SPITS ON THE MONROE DOCTRINE

NEW YORK, March 15.—The Herald, according to a Valparaiso, Chili, dispatch to the Herald, publishes a remarkable article about the Monroe doctrine, in which it says "South America ought to quietly notify the United States that she does not seek the Monroe doctrine's protection, but her own. She ought also to notify Europe thus. "We cannot decently continue to be regarded as Tawks. That is to say, we are not outside the international law practiced by the great powers among themselves."

LORENZ MACHINE GIVEN FIRST USE HERE

A PUPIL OF THE FAMOUS SURGEON LENGTHENS LIMB THAT HAD BEEN OVER FOUR INCHES SHORT

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 15.—For the first time in this country the Lorenz machine has been used in an operation for hip disease. The operation was performed by Dr. Frederick Mueller, a pupil of Dr. Lorenz.

A girl almost 12 years old, who had suffered from a disease of the hip which drew her right foot up to and touching her left calf, was made normal in form in forty minutes. Her leg, over four inches shorter than the other, was drawn into its proper position and of equal length with its mate and the girl, after coming out of the ether, lay still and white, but without pain. The operation was long and painful to all except the patient herself, but the shining crib of silver did the work for which Dr. Lorenz had built it, and the girl will walk.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 15.—Whittaker Wright, who was arrested Saturday while leaving the steamer Letraime, on the charge of being a fugitive from English justice, today said he would waive his right of extradition and return to London.

HE HAS NOT HEARD FROM BONDHOLDERS

T. S. Chapman, the Illinois lawyer who did so much to bring about the agreement between the city and the bondholders by which the controversy over the bonds was settled, said to a Telegram reporter this afternoon that he had heard nothing from the bondholders since he notified them of the action of the city council Saturday evening. He will remain in the city until he receives telegraphic advices from the bondholders' committee.

SECOND WARMEST DAY OF THE YEAR SAYS REEDER

Today is the second warmest day of the year, the temperature at the local weather station at 3 o'clock registering 74 degrees. The highest point attained was on the 7th instant, when the registration was 75. The 74 mark today will be exceeded, as the maximum had not been attained at the hour at which it was taken.

STOCKMEN OF CONCHO COUNTY AFTER RODENTS

San Angelo druggists report that an active war is being waged by the stockmen of this section against the prairie dog, and that the demand for poisoned wheat and other essentials to extermination is heavier this spring than ever before in the history of the business. One firm sold 1,500 pounds of poisoned wheat to a single ranchman, Fayette Tankersley of Irion county.

HAS A NICE LOT OF THOROUGHbred STUFF

San Angelo Standard: One result of the fat stock show at Fort Worth was noted in San Angelo Tuesday, when a shipment of thoroughbred Hereford, Shorthorn and Red Poll cattle reached this point consigned to Messrs. Lee Brothers of San Angelo, J. A. Schwalbe and Charles E. Davidson of Ozona and A. W. Mills of Sonora. In the lot were two fine Hereford bulls for Lee Brothers, which were exhibited on the streets Tuesday afternoon before being sent out to Leadale, and attracted much attention. Messrs. Schwalbe and Davidson had a thoroughbred Shorthorn bull each, both beauties, which were started to Ozona Tuesday afternoon, while Mr. Mills received five head of Red Polls, four cows and one bull, which were started to his ranch in Sutton county Tuesday night. It was a handsome lot of stuff, and shows markedly the ever-increasing interest in fine stock which is being manifested generally by the breeders of this territory.

NEGRO HERB DOCTOR CHARGED WITH MURDER

EPIDEMIC OF HYDROPHOBIA AT KINGSFORD, TENN. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 15.—A special from Kingsport, Tenn., has reported an epidemic of hydrophobia among the dogs and cattle in that vicinity. Several persons have been bitten by the vicious dogs. Cattle are dying in large numbers.

DEADLY POISON IS SENT IN WINE

(Special to The Telegram.) NEW YORK, March 15.—Detectives in New York and several members of a Chicago detective agency have been at work attempting to discover a mysterious person who sent to John C. Fisher, a well-known theatrical manager of this city, a quart bottle of champagne charged with enough hydrocyanic acid and strychnine to kill instantly a hundred men.

DISCOVERED BY CHANCE

It was only by the merest chance that Mr. Fisher and three friends escaped death. The bottle was opened and the contents poured into glasses before it was noticed that it had a peculiar look and smell.

Mr. Fisher had the contents of the bottle analyzed and it was found that the wine contained 2.0116 grains of hydrocyanic acid in the fluid ounce and 22.4564 grains of strychnine, or enough of the two poisons to have produced sudden death had any of the champagne been even touched to the tongue.

WOMAN IN THE CASE

A young and handsome woman figures conspicuously in the case. According to credited information this young woman took the poison package to the Chicago express office and forwarded it in person.

A motive has been established and it implicates a woman, and possibly a man. Whom Mr. Fisher suspects he will not say at this time, but he intimates that developments may be expected any day in Chicago.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 15.—The Pretoria correspondent of the Morning Post understands, according to a London dispatch to the Tribune, that the Boer generals, Botha, Delarey and Smuts, are taking part in the Afrikaner movement, which is not in accordance with their utterances.

POLICE LAY THIRTY-FOUR DEATHS TO HIS DOOR

CASE IS DEVELOPING

FURTHER INVESTIGATIONS MAKE CASE FAR MORE SERIOUS THAN HAD BEEN SUPPOSED

IN JAIL AS AN ACCESSORY

Committed Sunday in Connection With Arrest of Mrs. W. C. Danze, Who Is Said to Have Given Her Husband Slow Poison—Philadelphia Officials Stirred

(By Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 15.—The police authorities have directed the opening of thirty-four graves, having secured evidence that leads them to believe that George Hoosey, a negro herb doctor, is responsible for at least that many deaths.

Hoosey is in jail, charged with being an accessory in the murder of W. G. Danze, whose widow is charged with having administered slow poison furnished by the negro. The police officials say the case is assuming proportions far beyond the comprehension of those connected with it at the time Hoosey was arrested.

Hoosey was committed to jail Sunday, with Mrs. Catherine Danze, on the charge of causing the death of the woman's husband eighteen months ago by poison. Mrs. Danze is said to be only one of a host of women whose object in consulting the doctor was not legitimate. The authorities say that they expect to trace a number of deaths to Hoosey's poisons.

Said one of the officials: "We are only beginning to uncover this case. It may prove one of the greatest criminal events in the history of the department. More arrests will follow."

Hoosey is the arch-conspirator in many crimes, the authorities say. They have learned that for many months past his headquarters have been patronized by many women, both married and single, whose names are now in the possession of the district attorney and detectives. When the negro was arrested detectives searched his house and confiscated a wagon load of bottled drugs, instruments and other paraphernalia, much of which will figure in the case.

Physicians in all parts of Philadelphia have reported cases to the district attorney that will probably lead to the opening of many graves and to the holding of many inquests by the coroner. In each of these cases the patient first appeared with a minor complaint, which grew progressively worse and which, just before death, manifested what are now recalled as the usual symptoms of arsenical poisoning.

OAK CLIFF WILL DECIDE QUESTION

(Special to The Telegram.) DALLAS, Texas, March 15.—Oak Cliff today decides, between the hours of 8 and 6, whether or not she will continue to be a village or come into the protection of Dallas. The total number of qualified voters in the village is about 400 and sentiment is so equally divided that the contest is exceedingly close. Throughout the day voting was spirited and by tonight, when the result of the election becomes known, considerable excitement is expected.

The annexationists have a big lead at noon. If they win 6,000 population will be added to Dallas and Fort Worth will be way in the rear.

A BOILER BURSTS WITH FATAL RESULTS

(By Associated Press.) TOLEDO, Ohio, March 15.—In a boiler explosion, which wrecked a large portion of the East Toledo mills of the Republic Iron and Steel Company today, one man was killed and two others were burned so badly they may die.

The dead: John Thompson.

The injured: Melvino Updegraff, Henry Fust.

The top of the boiler, weighing a ton, was blown half a mile through the air passing over the tops of twenty houses, and finally tearing a hole twenty feet deep in the ground.

The entire end of the mill was blown out, causing a property loss of $100,000.

LIVESTOCK MARKET

Sixty-three hogs, averaging 268 pounds, and shipped to the Fort Worth market from Chickasha, I. T., by Driggins & Sharp, were sold this morning for $7.52½, the record price for market hogs this year. This price was at least 5 cents higher than would have been paid for the same hogs in Kansas City. It pays to ship territory hogs to Fort Worth.

MARKET SLIGHTLY EASIER

NORTH FORT WORTH, March 16.—Following advices from the northern markets, coupled with heavy receipts for Monday, this morning's tone in the cattle market was slightly easier. Commission men estimate the falling off in cattle about from 10 to 15 cents. Hogs showed no decline in price and one lot of extra fancy stuff from Chickasha, I. T., brought $7.52½, the record price for straight market hogs this year. The quotation is fully 5 cents higher than could have been made on the Kansas City market. Sales of steers were active, after a somewhat dragsy opening, and Armour was the principal purchaser. The heaviest steers offered averaged but 1,015 pounds, which is somewhat lighter than the general run during the past few days.

The cattle market opened with 824 head on hand, and this number was later increased to 1,100, given the packers a plentiful supply from which to draw. Receipts of hogs at the opening were ten cars.

REPRESENTATIVE SALES

STEERS—Steers made the bulk of the morning sales. Prices were slightly lower than those heretofore ruling. Some sales:

O. W. Mathews, secretary of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Company; Ireland Hampton, of the National Live Stock Commission Company, and J. W. Carter of the Rock Island, returned last night from El Paso, where they have been attending the cattlemen's convention.

W. E. Davis, salesman for the Fort Worth Live Stock Commission Company, returned this morning from Sherman, where he was called last week by the illness and death of his mother, the late Mrs. M. Davis of Sherman, whose death occurred Friday. Mr. Davis was accompanied to Fort Worth by his father, M. Davis, who will visit him for some time.

W. R. Bingham, an Abilene cattleman, was a visitor at the stock yards today. C. J. Pearce, representative of Campbell & Rosson at Abilene, was a visitor at the stock yards today.

Fred Parker of Elm View, Texas, and a frequent shipper to the stock yards, had one carload of hogs on the market today.

W. R. Moore of Madill, I. T., was at the yards today with five carloads of cattle.

W. Decker of Bartlett, Texas, was on the market today with a head of cattle. Allen Searcy of McKinney had a carload of cows and yearlings on today's market that brought him $250. Mr. Searcy says that farmers near McKinney are beginning to plant corn on the uplands, though the bottoms are still somewhat wet.

Satchell & Co. of Waxahachie had 155 head of cattle on the market today.

J. F. Williams of Corsicana had five carloads of steers on today's market. They brought $3.60.

Wade Hampton had another carload of molasses-fed hogs on today's market, shipped in from Paul's Valley.

C. C. Carroll of Madill, I. T., was at the yards today with a carload of hogs.

W. E. Dysart was an active buyer on this morning's market for California shipment. He will send out eleven carloads tonight.

It does not take an awfully big hog now to bring a big price. At Fort Worth 216-pounders the other day sold at $7.45. Steers the same day went to $4.25 and cows to $3. If hogs stay up to even $6 it is going to be a fine business.—Abilene Reporter.

Reports from the ranges indicate that cattle losses to stockmen as the result of the recent blizzard have been very heavy. It is estimated that 40,000 head of cattle have perished in the territory.—Comanche (I. T.) News.

WHAT WEEK MAY BRING OUT AT AUSTIN

IMPORTANT BILLS WILL SEE EITHER DEFEAT OR PASSAGE IN NEXT FEW DAYS—THE WILLIAMS MEASURE

AUSTIN, Texas, March 15.—While the past week in the Texas legislature has been a busy day in both branches, and much business has been disposed of by the lawmakers, still this week will more than likely see the passage or defeat of some of the most important measures pending for consideration. This legislature has proven itself a body of workers, and had it not been for the few sessions which were allowed to creep in the law-making bodies much more would have been accomplished, but it seemed to have been necessary for the solons to have a little diversion, but now they will buckle down to business, as the lower branch seemed determined to adjourn at an early date and have a short session. They are working with that end in view, while the senate is inclined differently. The house is bent on adjourning sine die April 1, and then have the governor call an extra session to pass the general appropriation bill, but the senate seems to be of the opinion that the general appropriation bill should be passed at the $2 per day rate, and it is doubtful whether the upper branch will concur in the house adjournment resolution.

This sine die resolution is set for consideration next Tuesday morning in the senate, and it will no doubt evoke a lively discussion, there being a large number of the senators who are in favor of adjournment within the time indicated in the resolution, but when the resolution was up in the senate last week it developed that there was a slight majority in opposition to the resolution. "It smacks too much of the idea that the members do not want to work for $2 per day," said one of the senators, in discussing the matter, "and for that reason I am opposed to the resolution." There are others who think the same way. The house, on the other hand, is congratulating itself on the fact that the burden is with the senate whether the session shall be prolonged or not.

As far as can be ascertained, the Terrell election bill, which was engrossed last week, has not as yet been received from the printers. It is likely that the bill will come up this week for consideration if the members can get it. Judge Terrell, the author of the bill, is sanguine that it will now pass without being subjected to many more amendments. The bill is a thorough revision of the general election laws and goes a good way to prevent fraud being practiced at the polls.

THE WILLIAMS BILL

A most important bill which is set for consideration next Friday in the house is the bill by Representative Williams of Tarrant county to tax intangible property. This bill proposes to tax the assets of corporations and is one of the hardest problems that the legislature has to deal with, and it is very doubtful if it will ever become a law, there being so much opposition to it. It is claimed that the bill does not apply alike to all corporations of the state. The corporations of the state are opposed to the bill and many of the members of the house have already expressed themselves in opposition thereto. They declare that the measure is too far-reaching in its effect and would strike at the smaller corporations with more effect than the larger ones.

It is believed that an effort will be made this week in the house to discuss some more anti-trust legislation. The Connally-Meacham anti-trust bill has been engrossed, and it is up for final passage; then there are some of the governor's recommendations to be tackled, and there is the Shannon anti-merger bill.

British Cruiser a Record Breaker

The new armored cruiser recently built for the British government is a record breaker, having developed the fastest speed of any vessel in her navy. In medicine, however, we have the record breaker in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Introduced over fifty years ago it has forged ahead until today finds it occupying the foremost position as a family remedy, and is used largely to the exclusion of all others. Don't fail to try a bottle, especially if you are weak and run down or suffer from poor appetite, heartburn, belching, nausea, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia or constipation. It cannot help but do you good, and if taken regularly will surely restore you to perfect health. The genuine must have our Private Stamp over the neck of the bottle. Refuse all imitations.

which is by far the most drastic which has yet been presented. This bill, should it become law, would have the effect of stopping the merging of one corporation by another and do away with a dangerous phase of the trust question. Mr. Shan non will make an effort to have the bill considered this week.

NO ACTION LIKELY

The advocates of a new constitution for the state of Texas died hard, and some of them still have a lingering hope that the resolution will again come up in some form. The senate has adopted the David (De Witt) resolution, providing for calling a constitutional convention, and some believe that the house will reconsider its action and take up the David-son resolution, but it can be safely said that such will not be done at this session of the legislature. The majority of the members of the lower house do not want a new constitution, and that settles the question.

FOR IDIOTS AND IMBECILES

If all the bills providing for appropriations for the various classes of dependent and indigent citizens of the state should be enacted into laws it will take nearly $1,000,000 more annually to support these institutions. Already a bill has passed finally in both branches providing for the establishment of a home for the idiots and imbeciles of the state, to be located at Abilene. There is now a bill pending providing for an appropriation of $25,000 for the establishment of $25,000 for the establishment of the indigent colored citizens of Texas, and there is also one pending for a home for the adult blind of the state, and the latest addition to these is a bill introduced in the house by Representative Eagan (by request) of Harris county providing an appropriation of $25,000 for the establishment and maintenance of an old ladies' home, to be known as "Old Ladies' Home of Texas." The appropriation named is for a period of two years from July 1, 1903.

GENERAL APPROPRIATION BILL

Chairman Boyd of the house finance committee has a resolution pending that provides that the house shall devote every session commencing Tuesday to the consideration of the general appropriation bill. He made an effort to have the resolution adopted last week, but the house did not seem to take too kindly to it and it was laid on the table subject to call, and he may make another effort this week in that direction. The members want first to clear the calendar of other bills before taking up the general appropriation bill, as that will prove one of the hardest tasks yet undertaken by the lawmakers, and it is now believed that it will result in a free conference committee. The bill as reported now, is a committee substitute and carries a total appropriation of $7,191,667.46 for the two years, of which amount $3,778,362.46 is for the first year and $3,413,305 is for the second year ending August 31, 1905. In order to come within the estimated revenue and resources this bill will have to be trimmed over $1,000,000, and some big slices will have to be taken out in order not to come too close to the limit. The comptroller in a communication to the senate on the estimated revenue or receipts of the state places it at $5,300,000, thus it will be observed much pruning will have to be done.

Just where the pruning will be done is hard to tell, but it is believed that the appropriations for the institutions will have to be cut down to the limit. That is where the fight will come in.

In the senate the senate joint resolution by Senators Faulk and several other senators, providing for a system of good roads by submitting an amendment to the constitution for the levy of a tax of 15 cents on $100 for road and bridge purposes, will come up next Tuesday; at least it is set for that time. Senator Faulk is an earnest worker for a better road system for the state and he has secured an opinion from the attorney general that such a resolution would be entirely within the bounds of the constitution. Senator Davidson of De Witt county has a very important bill pending in the senate. The bill is known as the foreign corporation bill and its purpose is to limit all foreign corporations seeking to do business in Texas to one purpose only, and also to confine the place of business to one place only. Some of the senators consider this bill very drastic in its effect and would cause many corporations to be unable to do business in Texas. The fate of this bill is very uncertain. Some of the senators seem to think that the passage of the bill would tend to also keep out legitimate investments of foreign capital.

FARMERS PLANTING CORN IN FALLS COUNTY

WACO, Texas, March 15.—Travelers on the railroads passing through the lower half of Falls county, through Robertson and adjoining counties on the Brazos, say that the past three days have been filled with activity among the farmers of that area, and there has been a moving and hustling hardly ever equaled before.

Hundreds of men and teams are busy corn planting, as the land in this section is red and with sufficient sand to allow the water to escape freely. Every available negro and team has been put to work and the demand is for more. Thousands of acres of corn have been planted and some cotton land made ready. Agricultural operations in this section are conducted on a more scientific basis than elsewhere in Texas. The black belt has not been the scene of extensive operations yet, owing to the fact that the earth is so wet, but in a few high places some work has been done and everything is ready for a general start as soon as possible. If rain falls only a short time this start will be made.

I. & G. N. SHOPS AT MART ARE TO COST $50,000

AUSTIN, Texas, March 15.—Contractor Francis Fischer has returned from Mart, Texas, where he completed the contract for building roundhouses, machine shops and office buildings for the International and Great Northern railroad to cost fifty thousand dollars. This was the largest stone contract ever let in Texas, with the exception of the state capitol.

Miss Carrie Keith, modiste, dressmaking, is now located with Betts, Pigott & Sellers, 411 Houston, and would like to see her old friends and customers.

YOUNG MEN BACK IMPORTANT BILL

AUSTIN, Texas, March 15.—House bill No. 457, by Messrs. Tom Connally of Falls and McDonald Meacham of Grimes, the anti-trust measure of this session, has already been engrossed in the house, and with but little opposition openly made to it on the floor.

So important is this subject that Governor Lanham not only called attention to it in his message, but also had prepared and submitted with the message a bill on the subject already drawn to hand.

Messrs. Connally and Meacham had then already introduced an anti-trust bill differing very little from the administration bill, but they thereupon withdrew it and substituted in lieu thereof the present bill, drawn almost in exact accordance with the one submitted by the governor. It is a careful compilation and revision of the existing statutes on the subject, making them harmonious, reducing the penalties some in amount, extending the law so as to include parties "engaged in the preparation of any product for market," as well as those engaged in its purchase, sale and transportation, also authorizing suits for violation of the law to be brought by the attorney general "or the district or county attorneys, under his direction," and further providing that the repealing clause of this act shall not affect the right of the state to recover penalties incurred before its passage.

The subject is confessedly one of the most difficult and important of all those with which modern legislation has to deal, and it is noticeable that the gentlemen having this measure in charge are both young men and among the brightest in our state. Mr. Connally's speeches in nominating the incumbent of the chair for speaker and in opposition to a new constitutional convention, have justly ranked him among the best orators of the house. I have not yet had the pleasure of hearing a public speech from Mr. Meacham, but judging from his conversational powers and his accomplishments as a lawyer I feel safe in saying that any opponent of his favorite measure who may care to shiver a lance with him in the forensic tourney will find in him a foeman worthy of his steel.

TO ADVERTISE SALES

A measure of importance to the interests of the people as well as of special interest to the newspaper fraternity is senate bill No. 52, by Hon. D. A. Paulus of Lavaca county, which amends the existing statutes as to require that legal sales of property shall be advertised in some newspaper for three weeks prior to the sale. The present method of posting notices of sale may be a little cheaper, but it fails to notify the general public, and with the result that the property is usually sold at a much greater sacrifice than would have been the case had the sale been properly advertised.

This penny wise and pound foolish policy of cheap notices should now be relegated to the past along with such notices as one I saw many years ago, written with charcoal on a piece of clapboard, and which read:

"Korn for Sall Heer at 6 Blits & Hard Sider Two

"Hoorary for Old Arkinsaw"

Senator Paulus is admittedly the handsomest man in the senate, and as genial and popular as he is good looking, and his just recognition, in this bill of the power of the great modern Archimedian lever tends to indicate that he is a statesman as well. For his bill I predict that success, even in the terrible west end of the capitol, which its merits so well deserve, and in its behalf nothing more need be here said than "Fiat justitia et fiat lux."

THAT TWENTY-FIRST SON

And now, dear reader, let me tell you, strictly entre nous, that you missed one of the greatest and most soul-stirring scenes of modern times in not being present in the house the other day to witness the great patriotic outburst and demonstration that took place when it was made known to that body that Hon. J. C. Roberts of Foard county, the distinguished and venerable gentleman who represents the south panhandle district in the legislature, had received a telegram announcing the safe arrival at his home of his twenty-first son and heir. The scene beggars description, and I can no more do justice to this lofty theme than I could paint with this stub pen the tinted glories of the lily of the valley or the perfumed fragrances of the rose of Sharon's vale.

"Oh, could I speak the matchless worth, Oh, could I sound the glories forth, Which on this subject shine.

I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings And vie with Gabriel while he sings. In notes almost divine."

You remember the description by the third gentleman in "A Winter's Tale" of the long-lost Perdita was restored to the aching arms of her distracted father, the ancient pantaloon: "Then you have lost a sight, which has to be seen but cannot be spoken of; there might you have beheld one joy crown another, so and in such manner that it seemed sorrow wept to take leave of them, for their joy waded in tears. There was casting up of eyes, holding up of hands, with countenances of such distraction that they were to be known by garment, not by favor. . . . I never heard of such another encounter, which I lament report to follow it, and undoes description to do it."

After a resolution naming the new arrival in honor of Pat Neff, the handsome

A REMARKABLE CASE

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 145 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength," and popular speaker of the house, had been passed by universal acclaim and amid thundrous applause, the entire body joined in chanting, like the pealing roll of a great cathedral organ and the vaulted arches overhead and ringing far down the distant aisles of time, that sublime and patriotic hymn.

"What constitutes a state? Not high-raised battlements or labored mound.

Thick walls or moated gate; Not bays and broad-armed ports.

Where, laughing at the storm, rich navies ride;

Not starred and tinsel-courts, But men, high-minded men;

Men who their duty know; And, knowing, dare perform."

Some men are born great and some achieve greatness by devout ways, but my venerable and esteemed friend Judge Roberts, as unassuming as Cincinnati at his plow, has by simple, honest and untiring effort in the state's behalf and by a fidelity to duty such as challenges universal admiration, shown himself justly entitled to wear the laurel wreath and to have his name and fame perpetuated to future ages by a statue in the hall of the capitol here and at Washington as well. I am sadly afraid that this incident, sounds the death-knell of the World's Fair appropriation bill, for it suggests to every inquiring mind this question: Why should $200,000 of the state's money be spent to induce immigration when by properly using this illustrious example to stimulate to heroic and noble endeavor the aspiring youth of our land even better results can be attained, and without the expenditure of a single cent of the people's hard-earned cash? "Let us walk in the old paths," said the psalmist, "that we may find rest for our souls," and I heartily concur in the sentiment with which the eloquent Tom Connally closed his argument against a new constitution, "The old-time religion, 'tis good enough for me."

I am informed that a bill is now being prepared which provides that upon the due arrival of the twenty-first heir in the family of any citizen of this commonwealth the happy pater familias shall thereupon at once and ipso facto be entitled to have seven old maids legally annexed as supernumeraries to his seraglio by the process of "sealing" that prevails in Utah, to the end that they may no longer continue to wither away like un-gathered flowers upon their native stem, but may eventually appear at the great harvest home, bringing in their golden sheaves, and with the adoption of that bill as law the enticing allurements held forth by the Louisiana Purchase Exposition will have lost all their former charm. B. R. WEBB.

ST. LOUIS PLAYERS IN DALLAS YESTERDAY

DALLAS, Texas, March 15.—Ten innings were required yesterday to decide the match between the picked teams of the St. Louis National squad in training here. At the end of the tenth inning, the score was 13 to 12 in favor of the regulars.

There was a big crowd of Dallas visitors present, and they were rewarded for their attendance by seeing six of the best St. Louis pitchers at work, besides witnessing a dumberly contested game. Hitting was free, but there were only six errors on both sides. The Dallas team will play the St. Louis nine next Sunday here, and it is possible that a game may be arranged for Saturday or else the St. Louis nine may go to Fort Worth on that day for an exhibition game.

Ever since Frederick the Great the House of Hohenzollern has been conspicuous for its devotion to music. The latest instance is Prince Joachim Albrecht of Prussia, the second son of the Regent of Brunswick, who has just completed the music for a spectacular ballet entitled "The Miracle of Spring."

AMARILLO NOW HAS A BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB

(Special to The Telegram.)

AMARILLO, Texas, March 14.—A mass meeting was held at the courthouse last night for the purpose of organizing a business men's club. It was called to order by C. B. Pash, who stated that the object of the meeting was to organize a citizens' club, which would work for the material welfare and advancement of Amarillo and surrounding country. An election of temporary officers followed, resulting: Dr. D. R. Fly, president; T. B. Ware, vice president; J. A. Taylor, secretary; Dr. F. W. Burger, treasurer. Short talks were made by a number of those present in regard to matters of interest to the town. Rev. A. E. Beten made a short address, in which he explained the situation in regard to the Baptist college, which the Paloduro Canyon Association is thinking of erecting in some town in the panhandle during the present year, and stated that if such an institution were established Amarillo stood as good, if not better, chance as any other town to secure it. The names of those wishing to become members were enrolled, resulting in a total membership of forty-three. The chair appointed two committees, one to solicit new members, the other to draft a constitution and by-laws. Both of the committees are to report at the next meeting, which will be held next Friday night.

TO BUILD SAN ANTONIO TO AMARILLO

(Special to The Telegram.)

AMARILLO, Texas, March 15.—There is now projected a railroad which, if built, will be of incalculable benefit to the panhandle and western Texas. There is a gentleman from St. Louis by the name of Holt in Amarillo, who represents a number of St. Louis capitalists. Mr. Holt is in Texas for the purpose of ascertaining the feasibility of building a railroad direct from Amarillo to San Antonio. He has just returned from a trip on the plains south of here and states that he is very favorably impressed with the country, and has good reason to think that the road will be built. Mr. Holt leaves tomorrow for St. Louis, and if his report is satisfactory the promoters of the road will begin active preparations for its construction at once.

Should this road be built, and it is only a question of time until it will be, it would open one of the finest sections of undeveloped territory in Texas. This would give Amarillo its fifth railroad and seventh railway outlet, and would make it the commercial center of the plains.

WATCH YOUR SHOULDERS

When standing before a looking glass notice if your shoulders are the same height. Generally the right is higher than the left. The reason for this unevenness lies in the way one sits. You get into a comfortable chair or your desk chair and at once you rest your right elbow on the arm of your chair or on your desk, thus throwing one shoulder higher than the other. This is especially the case where one writes a great deal. When you notice that one shoulder is higher than the other the thing to do is to change your way of sitting at your desk. Two simple exercises will be beneficial. The arm of the lower shoulder should be extended upward, the hand grasping a dumbbell; that of the higher shoulder should be lowered and made to support a heavy weight.

The Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainsford of New York, when asked how he regarded the action of Vermont in repealing prohibition, said: "I would rather see a man free than sober."

THE BOND SETTLEMENT

For the present, at least, the city bond question has been settled. The special session of the city council held Saturday afternoon resulted in a transfer of the city's obligation in the matter of overdue interest, from the bondholders who were pressing for payment, to a financial institution willing to loan the amount required at no higher rate of interest and for an indefinite time.

Thus far in his administration, Mayor Powell has succeeded in a gradual, but steady reduction of the city's debt. Some of the outstanding bonds have been cancelled, others have been exchanged for new bonds drawing less interest.

Mayor Powell, in order to discharge the city's full obligation, has only asked the bondholders for more time. Matters might have gone on with no striking situations had not representatives of the bondholders attempted to force the issue and compel the city to pay up its overdue interest at once.

The money was due and in the first legal battle with the bondholders, the city lost its case in so much that judgment in the sum of about $40,000 was declared against it.

The simplest way out of the difficulty seemed to be to submit to the judgment, increase the city's tax levy, and pay the debt. This, the city council at its last session, decided to do.

Mayor Powell was earnestly opposed to such a course. He was determined to fight the case to the last ditch, if necessary, but to maintain if possible the present tax rate for the citizens.

In the matter of keeping the tax rate at its present figure or of getting some definite promise from the bond holders as to refunding if the higher tax was absolutely necessary, Mayor Powell had the hearty support of The Telegram.

At the critical stage when a practical deadlock existed, the plan of borrowing or overdrawing enough money to meet the obligation was suggested. The State National Bank was ready for the emergency with enough money and the loan was effected.

The Dallas Times-Herald acknowledges that the mighty Trinity is falling. It further chronicles a fall of four feet in twenty-four hours. Must be that some cow pulled her foot out of the river bed a mile or two below Dallas.

THE PACKING HOUSE BONUS

The Sunday Telegram contained an appeal for the early payment of the money that was subscribed by the people of Fort Worth to bring the packing houses to Fort Worth.

Of the $100,000 that was subscribed but a little over $7,000 has been paid to the committee in charge.

Over 1,000 names are on the subscription rolls.

Only thirty-four have actually paid their promised subscriptions.

The packing houses are both in operation. Nearly two thousand men are at work in the two plants.

The Armour and Swift interests have done all they agreed to do in the matter of construction and the employment of men.

They have done much more.

The original plans were for much smaller plants than have really been erected.

A manufacturing plant makes its plans and invariably finds during the building progress that the buildings are insufficient for future growth.

This is the case of the packing houses.

They have been made larger than originally intended.

Swift and Armour have carried out their portion of the agreement with the local committee.

It rests now for Fort Worth to do the same.

Fort Worth is already reaping the benefits of the location of this immense manufactory here.

Business of all kinds has been stimulated.

Real estate values have gone up. Owners of rentable property are getting bigger rents than they were a year ago.

Merchants, doctors, lawyers, every line of trade and profession has received and will receive large benefits.

Fort Worth must pay up the obligation assumed promptly and without coaxing.

The debt is one that all can afford to pay and pay promptly.

Let there be no sulking, no hesitation.

Some newspapers in Texas are always spoiling for a chance to jump hard on a trust or anything that has the semblance of a trust or any man who might have ever been guilty of having any connection whatsoever with a trust.

And yet those self-same newspapers are patting John Henry Kirby on the back and sounding his praises because he is reported to have made a statement that he would soon be able to manufacture print paper right here in Texas.

It does look pretty much as though it almost always depends on whose ox is being gored.

The figures in the prohibition election in Grayson county present some interesting comparisons. In Sherman the antis polled 844 votes and the pros 594.

In Denison the antis came near making it unanimous. They polled 1322 votes, while the pros whipped up but 214 all told.

These two gave the antis a lead of 1568 votes. But the country precincts came in strong, and not only overcame the city vote but went it 639 better.

Of the 42 country precincts only seven went anti and the majority in these seven counties was only 137 against prohibition. Howe precinct cast 252 votes of which 231 were pro. There seems to be no question of the sentiment in Grayson county. A vote on prohibition any place always brings out peculiar propositions.

J. C. ROBERTS AND THE ANTI-NEPOTISM BILL

AUSTIN, Texas, March 16.—Hon J. C. Roberts of Foard county, who enjoys the distinction of being the father of the only child ever named by a Texas legislator, is the first member of the house to submit a report under the nepotism resolution adopted by the house.

The report is a unique literary production, and is as follows: "To the Honorable Pat Neff, Speaker of the House: In obedience to the nepotism resolution adopted by the house March 2, I beg to submit the following: 'I am not related by affinity or consanguinity to any member of this house, its clerks, sergeant-at-arms, doorkeeper, assistant doorkeeper, postmistress, pages, porters or typewriters.'

"I am not related in any way to the heads of any of the departments of the state government except one W. T. Roberts, a brother's son. In the land office, 'The amount of his salary I am not able to state. He has been in the employ of the office four years, and is in no way responsible to me for his appointment or kinship, nor did he in any way assist me in my election as a member of the legislature. Nor is he in any way responsible for the extravagant price now received by me from the state of Texas, to wit, $2 per day.

"I desire to state further that, while it is notorious that I am the father of Pat Neff, I want it known also that my son Pat is not in any way connected with or related to our distinguished speaker.

"Neither is there any similarity between them except in name. Respectfully submitted, J. C. ROBERTS, Representative One Hundred and Fifth District."

"Sworn and subscribed to before me this 14th day of March, 1903. 'R. J. BLANCKFORD, 'Notary Public in and for the County of Travis, State of Texas.'"

This new and widely discussed bill. It presents an interesting study in the science of political economy, and will be far-reaching in its effect, especially on small corporations, should it become a law.

"Mr. Williams, the author of the bill is a great thinker, but in this instance I do not approve of his creation.

KUBENA AGAINST WILLIAMS' BILL

AUSTIN, Texas, March 16.—The Williams bill proposing to impose a tax on the intangible assets of corporations was called up in the house Friday and made the special order for next Friday at 10 o'clock.

The object of this measure, as its title indicates, is to tax the intangible assets of corporations and thus create a new source of revenue for the state. It has given rise to a good deal of discussion among the members of the house, and the announcement of some new doctrines and principles of taxation, upon which the members are divided.

Among those who will oppose the passage of the bill is Hon. John R. Kubena of Fayette county. Knowing this, a Statesman reporter approached him in the hall and asked him for some expression on the subject. Mr. Kubena was busy with some other matters, but found time to say, "I am opposed to the Williams bill because it does not apply alike to all the corporations of the state, and hence does not conform to the principle of equal and uniform taxation."

The average man or corporation does not care so much about the effect of legislation just so it applies equally upon all. Each feels that number one can be taken care of if allowed an even show. Now, the Williams bill applies to street railway companies but not to other railroads. If I were to vote for it, it would be to say, in effect, to the street railway companies as a rule you are the owners of a property that is a poor investment. You are not strong enough to maintain a powerful lobby in Austin, your stockholders in the majority of instances are Texas people and, therefore, I vote to double your burden of taxation. While to the railroad companies I would say you are wealthy, amassing immense fortunes and amply able to protect your interest before legislative committees as well as elsewhere.

"I object to the bill for another reason—it includes water companies in its provisions, but omits breweries. I am not ready to thus discriminate against the small enterprises who supply water to our people and protect the breweries."

"The bill imposes the tax on the intangible assets of electric light companies, but says nothing of cotton-spinning companies. The public-spirited men who invest their money in small electric light plants must bear the additional burden, but the 'round bale' trust is not disturbed. The bill includes also refrigerating companies and cattle companies, but says nothing of packeries. Common justice will not sustain this discrimination. Telephone companies are included in the bill among concerns whose intangible assets must be taxed, while many corporations whose franchise privileges are just as valuable are exempted. If I had the time I could point out other inequalities in Brooklyn Eagle: One of the humors—or tragedies, if you please—of the higher education of women has been that where women have fitted themselves with great labor for the law or medicine or the ministry most of them have had to be content with the small incomes at the bottom of those professions, while men have jumped into the naturally feminine business of dressmaking and cooking and have absorbed the cream. No mere man has ever been able to say anything one-half so derogatory to the capacity of women in business as is the fact that there are men who earn $10,000 a year as cooks, while women who earn even $2,000 in that business are scarce.

Hartford, Conn. Times: The president has thought it advisable to make a public statement in regard to his appointments in the southern states in the form of a letter to the editor of a democratic newspaper in Atlanta. He evidently has no desire to displease the southern people in naming a few colored men for important offices, and we can be sure that if he had his own way he would gladly turn over the "patronage" in the southern states to his most ambitious opponent for the next twelve months. His chances of obtaining a renomination and re-election would be better than they are if he could do this.

Daily Short Story

(Copyright, 1902, by W. R. Hearst, Great Britain Rights Reserved.) Birds flew south, for they knew winter was coming, with its snow and cold rain. Society, too, was fitting toward southern cities, and for a time deserted Chicago.

Only Ethel stayed at home to keep her father company.

One night Mr. Brownlee was kept at his desk long after his clerks had gone: all but one, and he was the confidential man, whose brain seethed with the secrets of the iron trade.

"It is so late, you had better dine with me," Mr. Brownlee suggested.

"The two men climbed on a passing car, and in due time were at the door of Mr. Brownlee. Gerald was surprised to find a tall young woman presiding at the board. He had been under the impression that Brownlee's daughter was a little girl. Of course, she may have mistaken the name, so he addressed her as "Miss Brown."

"Perhaps Ethel has grown more than I thought she had. At least, Mr. Metcalf, she is not 'Miss Brown.'" Mr. Brownlee laughed as he took his place at the table.

"That is a thing I could not help," Ethel smiled across the board.

"Now I was looking for a little girl." Then, after a pause, "but I am not disappointed."

When the coffee was served Gerald was at his ease, and, later, his voice mingled with hers as he stood by Ethel's side while she played the popular songs of the day.

"Your voice is suited for more difficult work," Ethel remarked, turning upon her visitor.

"Sometimes I sing the scores of the operas," he replied, and her hands sped over the keys and there came from the piano the strains of "Lohengrin."

"You sing as you dictate," declared Mr. Brownlee, rising to leave the room, "and that is well."

"The Irish Pawnbroskers" A frolicsome farce comedy with plenty of bright features, pretty girls in picturesque colors is promised at Greenwall's operahouse tonight only, when "The Irish Pawnbroskers" will be presented with those clever Irish comedians, Sullivan and Mack, and the favorite soubrette, Mazie Trumbull, in the leading roles.

It is a new piece under the direction of Joe W. Spears. The stars are players with established reputations as promoters of laughter, and this new, up-to-date farcical device is a good vehicle for a renewed demonstration of their varied talents.

They are aided in making hilarious merriment by clever young players, including a score of winsome girls. Songs, dances and witty dialogue give the play a brisk and in many places a swift movement. New scenery for each act and other features all combined, form an attraction that is rarely seen in farce comedy.

"THE MISSOURI GIRL" "The Missouri Girl," which will appear at Greenwall's operahouse Wednesday night, March 18, is a well known attraction that hardly needs any introduction to the theater-going public of this city, as the play has left a splendid reputation from its last appearance here.

The company at present presenting the comedy is exceedingly strong, everyone being selected for their peculiar fitness for the parts assigned. Those who have not seen this well known comedy, and they are few and far between, as it has been successfully presented in nearly every city in the country, should not fail to take advantage of its visit to our city, and enjoy the quiet pathos and humor that runs throughout the play.

The Olympia Opera Company Messrs. Seaman & Matchette are desirous of calling the attention of theatergoers and the public at large to their present Olympia Opera Company, which throughout the south and west has caused critics to pay homage to the authority and ease with which its principals render and portray the roles of the different caste and standard musical compositions.

The principals are all talented, and the girls are said to be pretty. The productions are elegantly costumed and presented in a finished and artistic manner, while the repertoire seems to contain the brightest and wittiest of librettos, filled with music that is tuneful and catchy, interpolated in which is to be found all the late song hits, worked up with artistic staged business and crowded in a most satisfactory manner—for these, and for many other reasons equally as good, no one should fail to be present when the curtain rises on the first act of their opening engagement.

The Olympia Opera Company open an engagement at Greenwall's operahouse for six nights, commencing Thursday night, March 19, with matinees Saturday and Wednesday. The repertoire for their engagement here will be: Thursday (opening night), "Wang"; Friday night, "Olivette"; Saturday matinee, "The Mikado"; Saturday night, "El Capitan"; Monday night, "Nell Gwynne"; Tuesday night, "Girofle Girofle"; Wednesday night, "H. M. S. Pinafore"; and Wednesday night, "La Perichole."

SKIN DISEASES THE OUTCROPPING OF BAD BLOOD

And while not always painful are aggravating beyond expression. With few exceptions they are worse in spring and summer when the system begins to thaw out and the skin is reacting and making extra efforts to throw off the poisons that have accumulated during the winter.

Then boils and pimples, rashes and eruptions of every conceivable kind make their appearance, and Eczema and Tetter—the twin terrors of skin diseases—Nettle-rash, Poison Oak and Ivy, and such other skin troubles as usually remain quiet during cold weather, break out afresh to torment and distract by their fearful burning, itching and stinging. A course of S. S. S. now will purify and enrich the blood, reinforce and tone up the general system and stimulate the sluggish circulation, thus warding off the diseases common to spring and summer. The skin, with good blood to nourish it, remains smooth and soft and free of all disfiguring eruptions.

Send for our free book on diseases of the skin and write us if you desire medical advice or any special information. This will cost you nothing.

BRIDE DISOWNS A MAN IN JAIL

JOHN STOUT'S TRUNK SENT TO POLICE STATION

Not the Disgrace Attending Arrest, But the Offense of Which He Was Convicted, Led Girl to Tell Him Good Bye Forever—Sent Him All His Personal Property

Shoved into a corner so as to be out of the way at police headquarters is a trunk. It is tightly bound with rope and across its top reclines a small rifle. The trunk and the firearm represent the earthly possessions of John Stout, who is serving out a sentence with the city chain gang under the concealing charge "trespass." He had a wife when he was arrested, but it is evident she has disowned him. And the pathetic part of the story is that she is a bride of four short months.

It is several days since Stout was arrested and sentenced to serve out a term of 35 and costs. His bride evidently struggled with the varying emotions of her heart for several days before she resolved to give him up. The resolution once taken, she packed his trunk, placed across it his rifle and calling an expressman dispatched the outfit to police headquarters.

In about ten days the sentence which Stout is serving will expire and then he will be at liberty to go anywhere in the wide world which his fancy may lead except home.

It was not the disgrace attending the arrest that brought Mrs. Stout to a condition of mind where she was willing to give up her husband; it was the nature of the offense which is one of the unprintable sort. Stout was caught under the Fort Worth Steam Laundry. One of the girls at work in the place saw him through a hole in the floor.

FARMERS FATTEN HOGS FOR LOCAL MARKET

E. C. Manning, formerly of McCord-Collins Grocery Company, is just back from the Indian Territory and Oklahoma, where he has been located the past five months. He says that Fort Worth people do not realize what the packing houses mean to the town; that everyone there has commenced to raise hogs with a view to the market here.

He also said that most of the stockmen were feeding their hogs a mixture of bran and black molasses and that they took on a pound to a pound and a half a day on that diet.

LIVES OF TWO MEN WERE ENDANGERED

Water Was Up to Their Necks and Rising, Yet They Continued at Their Post Until the Electric Lights Went Out and Left Them in Darkness Half Mile From the Main Shaft

Early yesterday morning Superintendent Ted Lakin, who is in charge of the construction of the Mead artesian water supply system, succeeded in clearing tunnel No. 7 of water after a contest that endangered more than one life.

The battle lasted two days. Friday night the two workmen who were drilling in tunnel No. 7 were compelled to desert their drill on account of a rush of water. They made their way back to the main shaft, 2,500 feet away, as best they could.

Water from tunnel No. 6 was the cause of the trouble. Tunnel No. 7, instead of running on an exact level, dips slightly after leaving the main tunnel. Water from No. 6 and seepage from several other laterals flowed into it. The workmen paid little attention to the water as it gradually rose about them. They expected it to reach a level and come to a stand. Instead it continued to rise until it was within a few inches of the roof.

The two men decided that it would be unsafe to remain longer, as the water was about their necks, and still rising. They determined to leave their post and take their drill out with them.

Just at that moment the water affected the electric lights and Stygian darkness came upon them in an instant. Without waiting for further counsel, the two men went creeping through the water toward the main shaft, which they gained in safety.

When they reported to Superintendent Lakin he set to work at once to clear the affected tunnel, which is the last one to be constructed under the present plans. After several futile efforts to clear it and recover the drill, Mr. Lakin decided to try a good-sized pump which he had on hand and which he considered powerful enough to perform the required work. This pump has been named the "Shanghai" by the men.

The superintendent placed the pump on wheels and pushed it through the half mile of tunnels to the mouth of No. 7. It was a tight fit and several times he found it necessary to halt and howl slivers of stone from the sides of the tunnel in order that he might continue.

Once the pump got into action, the emptying of the affected lateral became simply a matter of time and early yesterday morning it was clear.

The other work on the system is progressing rapidly and during the latter part of May all the wells will be "cut in," after which microbes and mud no longer will be served through the city mains.

THE DENVER EXPRESS

The play achieved one of the hits of last season. It contains liberal portions of rattling comedy and dramatic "thrills." It is built up of the materials that appeal to the theater goers who admire the simpler virtues. The villain can always be relied upon to merit the honest hatred of his audience, and the comic gentleman has an iron bound contract with the author that he be given opportunity to furnish a laugh every thirty seconds. "The Denver Express" comes to Greenwall's opera house Tuesday matinee and night, March 17. Matinee prices 10, 20, 30 cents; night prices 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents.

"UNCLE" JERRY BURNETT ILL AT HOME IN DENTON

LOCAL BALL TOSSERS OFF TO JOIN CLUBS

Several members of the Fort Worth baseball fraternity who have hung out their shingles in fast company will depart this evening to join their respective clubs.

Harry Steinfeldt, one of the star members of the rejuvenated Cincinnati Reds, who under the management of Charley Kelly, the former Baltimore and Brooklyn star, promise to cut a big figure in the National League pennant race this season, will depart tonight for Augusta, Ga., where the Reds will work themselves into a frenzy for the fray.

Cavender, who started out playing center for Dallas in the Texas League last season, was transferred to Texarkana and later played a few games with Fort Worth stars tonight for Birmingham, Ala., where he will join the Birmingham club of the Southern League. He finished out last season with Birmingham and made himself a strong favorite everywhere. He signed this year at a fat advance.

Kid Nance, who patrols the center garden for the Kansas City American Association club, will not join his team until April 1.

All three players are sober, industrious boys, who keep themselves in good condition during the off season. They will require little more than a limbering up before being able to put up fast ball. Cavender is a painter by trade. Nance and Steinfeldt keep themselves in good physical form by bowling and hunting during the winter months.

Bass, channel cat and white perch were the species that prevailed. The river was falling, but it was still running over the dams, thus preventing some of the fishermen from seeking their favorite spots from which to angle, as many of the local enthusiasts do not feel that they are getting their money's worth unless they can anchor themselves on one of the dams.

ONE WOMAN WHO HAS THE FEVER OF UNREST

The expressman who holds down one of the prominent corners on Main street ran his pencil down the list of names on the last page of his book, then he looked at the calendar. "March," he said. "It will soon be time for that Miss Hughes to move again. She has been at No. 138 for six months."

"Is Miss Hughes in the habit of moving every six months?" asked the visitor.

"Well," said he, "I wouldn't put it at six months to the day, but her stay in any one place is never prolonged much beyond that period. She is a pretty good customer. I first moved her seven years ago and since then I have moved her regularly twice a year. And she is not the only person who gives me a steady job by any means. I have a number of people on my list who move at regular intervals. Some of them make a change every month or two, others only once a year, but no matter how long or how short their residence in a certain house the fever of unrest is bound to seize them at stated times and along comes my order to move them again."

MISS EVA MAE SCOTT SPONSOR FOR U. S. OF C. V.

At the regular weekly meeting of R. E. Lee camp, No. 229, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, at headquarters in the courthouse yesterday afternoon, Miss Eva Mae Scott was selected sponsor for the camp at the reunion at New Orleans. Miss Scott will select her own maid.

J. M. Ball, lieutenant commander of the camp, presided yesterday afternoon in the absence of Commander W. R. Booth. A number of communications with reference to Representative Stewart and his position with regard to the appointment of a bookkeeper for the Confederate home at Austin, were read. They were filed, and the following committee appointed to take up the matter with Representative Stewart: Comrades O. W. Gillespie, W. P. Lane and T. W. Synor.

Encouraging reports on the candidacy of W. P. Lane for state commander, and N. R. Tisdal as commander of the Trans-Mississippi department were made by Comrades W. E. W. Nicholson and L. J. Stockett, who have traveled in various portions of Texas and Louisiana.

The importance of attending the reunion at New Orleans in uniform was discussed. Various routes were referred to, and the following committee selected for the purpose of negotiating with the several companies for rates, etc., with instructions to report at the next meeting of the camp: W. P. Lane, O. W. Gillespie, J. M. Ball, L. J. Stockett and W. S. Jarratt.

REGULAR WEEKLY MEETING R. E. LEE CAMP, U. C. V.

At the regular weekly meeting of R. E. Lee camp, United Confederate Veterans, yesterday afternoon, three new applications for membership were received and two new members were formally adopted into the society.

A communication from W. L. McGaughey of Tolar, Texas, on the condition and management of the soldiers' home at Austin, was read and placed on file. The communication referred to the good management and general satisfactory conditions. One of the closing clauses, "An investigation will soon disclose who are entitled to the care of the home," was interpreted to mean that there are men on the rolls of the home who had not and whom it is believed cannot prove they were Confederates.

A number of other communications were read and formally disposed of. The one from Representative Clarence Stewart was referred to the following committee: Duke Goodman, S. P. Greene and R. E. Beckham.

A communication from Austin cited the fact that included in the total of 7,985 named on the Confederate pension rolls there are the names of at least 200 who are dead, and the result is, the money which should be prorated among the pensioners goes back into the treasury's general fund. There will be $100,000 to distribute April 1.

The question of "honorable discharge," a wording that was required as a "filler" for one of the lines of the blanks brought Colonel Taylor to his feet with a warm protest against the frequent use of the word "deserted." He said when the armies were paroled they were discharged, and it was an honorable discharge, as much so as if the formal muster out had been made.

The session closed with prayer by General Van Zandt.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS

Arthur J. Duffy, the world's champion sprinter, is again to visit Europe to race at the various championship meetings. The champion surprised his friends with the announcement that he will go abroad, as it was expected he would remain here for the American championship meeting.

Sombroero and Cunard, two crack performers in the stable of Green Morris, will not be seen on New York tracks during the coming season. The veteran owner has announced that Sombroero will be placed in the stud at Rancho del Paso, while Cunard, which pulled up very lame in the Waterhouse Cup, will be turned out until next season.

Charles Castan, who rode Nasturtium when that fast colt won his first race, will pilot Jean De Reszke's thoroughbreds in Russia this summer. He will sail for Europe in ten days.

Joe Yeager, who is credited with winning $100,000 at the Hot Springs pool rooms this winter, is making things lively for the Crescent City bookmakers at present. He is at least $10,000 winner since his arrival at New Orleans a few days ago.

NEW YORK MAY GET FOUR ROUND BOUTS

NEW YORK, March 16.—While there seems to be no chance whatever of Senator Frawley's professional boxing bill, permitting ten-round bouts in this state, being passed and becoming a law, the amateur measure appears to have a good chance. It will permit of four-round bouts. It was learned from a reliable source in Albany today that Governor Odell had notified Senator Frawley not to make any further effort to have his professional bill passed, because if it reached him he would veto it. Acting upon this advice, Senator Frawley abandoned the measure, but went to work on the amateur bill, which is now before the codes committee. The reason Governor Odell called a halt was due to the numerous stories printed about finish fights being held in this state, and the report that a certain Broadway sporting man was making an effort to arrange a match between Eddie Hanlon and Terry McGovern, to be fought in this city next May. Frawley is confident his bill allowing amateurs to box four-round bouts will become a law.

En route home from the Arkansas resort practice games will be played with Little Rock, St. Paul, Pine Bluff, St. Louis Americans, Louisville, Indianapolis and Columbus.
