HEAD OF NEW ORLEANS PROGRESSIVE UNION TALKS

THERE IS NO DANGER

REVIEWS PRESENT CONDITIONS AND SAYS SENSATIONAL CONDITIONS ARE FALSE

CITIZENS HAVE NO FEAR

Solid Bank of Earth Several Hundred Feet Thick Protects Main Part of the City and an Overflow Would Be Carried Off in the Gutters and Sewers

(By Associated Press.) NEW ORLEANS, La., March 17.—M. J. Sanders, president of the Progressive Union, sends the following statement to the Associated Press:

"As president of the New Orleans Progressive Union, I desire to contradict absolutely and unequivocally the sensational stories which are at present being circulated by some correspondents of newspapers in this city to their principals in other parts of the United States in reference particularly to the high water situation in the Mississippi river and its possible effect upon the city of New Orleans. As a matter of fact, there is not, and has not been for a great many years past, the slightest risk of any damage to the city of New Orleans proper from a high river. All along the commercial front of the city there is no longer the usual levee, but the streets and property behind have been gradually graded up to the height established by the engineers as the extreme grade for levees, making a solid bank of earth in many cases for several hundred feet back from the bank of the river. The city, in addition, is surrounded by high levees, so that should there be any break in the levees in the country above the city or below not one drop of the water can possibly penetrate into the city. The very utmost that could happen by a still further considerable rise in the stage of the river would be the possible overflow of some small portion of the water, which would merely run down the gutters of the streets and to the drainage canal, benefiting rather than otherwise affecting conditions. In no sense is there any anxiety regarding their personal safety or the safety of their property on the part of the citizens of New Orleans, who are perfectly well aware that there is absolutely no danger of harm to the commercial interests of the city from the alarm reports which are being circulated and which in many cases are so absolutely exaggerated as to bear the earmarks of gross negligence."

CONDITIONS IMPROVING

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 17.—The river continues stationary today. The city embankments are constantly being improved. News of the breaking of the levees about St. Francis and at Bertrange caused disappointment, as the high water will be prolonged.

Eight inhabitants, it says, have been killed and a number of persons, including several soldiers, were wounded.

DALLAS HAPPENINGS

Eighteen votes in favor of the annexation of Oak Cliff decided the question yesterday. Throughout the day the contest was close, 284 votes were cast, and the annexationists won by a majority of eighteen. The victory adds about 6,000 to the population of Dallas. St. Patrick's day was observed in Dallas by high mass at St. Patrick's church, and an address by Rev. I. V. Donnelly of La Porte at that church. Tonight there will be a celebration at Phoenix hall. Members of the Dallas Commercial Club will tonight formally open new quarters in the Cotton Belt depot. Property owners of Ross avenue, east of the Houston and Texas Central tracks in Dallas, meet this evening to discuss plans for raising $5,000 in order to insure the paving of their street. Captain B. N. Boren, aged 51, died last night at his home in Dallas. He was born in Nacogdoches, and was Dallas' first fire commissioner. He served with distinction in the war between the states, attaining the rank of captain. The Dallas Commercial Club is receiving many letters assuring the club of a large attendance to the coming good roads convention to be held in Dallas March 19 to 20.

RETURNED FROM ITS BURDEN HELD BABIES AS SECURITY OF A DEBT

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, March 17.—Professor Ivess sails for New York by the Celtic, says a Tribune dispatch from London. After making arrangements for a comprehensive exhibit of European art at the St. Louis fair he has been detained in Europe by the force of circumstances, but he represents the idea that he is neglecting the interests of American art and favoring foreigners. He considers the American art exhibit of paramount importance and has labored successfully to secure an adequate and representative display of the artistic activities of the United States. His aim has been to obtain the most comprehensive exhibit of contemporary art which has ever been witnessed in the western hemisphere. He has been strongly urging Sir Edward Poynter and the British committee not to restrict their exhibit to the work of academicians, but to include the Scotch schools arts and crafts not favored by Burlington. Sir Edward Poynter has already secured the co-operation of Walter Crane for a representative show of British arts and crafts and it is probable that the doors will be opened for the New English Art Club as well as the Glasgow school. The British government is only allotting 30,000 pounds sterling ($150,000) to the commission charged with the organization of the British portion at the St. Louis fair. The same government spent $125,000 ($625,000) at the Paris exposition in 1900.

THE HOUSE ADOPTS THE SENATE RESOLUTION

AN EXTRA SESSION

THIS NOW CERTAIN, AS THE GENERAL APPROPRIATION BILL WILL OCCUPY THIRTY DAYS

GOVERNOR SENDS A VETO

Disapproval is Given to the Bill Passed by the Two Branches Providing for Home for Idiots and Imbeciles of the State on the Ground That Revenues Do Not Justify Such an Appropriation

(Special to The Telegram.) AUSTIN, Texas, March 17.—The Texas legislature will adjourn on April 1. This was decided this morning by the adoption by the senate of the house joint resolution by a vote of 17 to 5, providing for adjournment on that date.

This will force an extra session, as the general appropriation bill has not as yet been taken up, and it will take thirty days to dispose of it.

The senate today concurred in the house amendments to the senate bill repealing an annual occupation tax on merchants, lawyers, dentists and private bankers, and the bill now goes to the governor.

The governor today sent a message to the legislature vetoing the bill providing for the establishment of a home for the idiots and imbeciles of the state. While he thought the home necessary, he did not think that the revenues of the state justified the appropriation at this time.

Governor Lanham took occasion to remind the legislature that it should remain in session and pass the general appropriation bill before adjournment.

The house today killed the anti-free pass bill by having it recommitted.

LEE'S STATUE TO HAVE A PLACE

RICHMOND, Va., March 17.—The bill providing for a statue of General Lee in the statutory hall of the capitol at Washington tonight became a law without the governor's signature. His objection to approving the measure is understood as being that the legislation is unnecessary, unwise and inexpedient.

BOSTON OBSERVES HISTORIC DAY

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, Mass., March 17.—The observance of the one hundred and twenty-seventh anniversary of the evacuation of the town of Boston by the British on Sunday, March 17, 1776, brought about by the activity of the Continentals in fortifying Dorchester Heights and Hock's Hill, was celebrated with unusual spirit today. The program included appropriate exercises in the public schools, speech-making and a parade with the usual salutes, the flying of flags and the ringing of bells. As usual the celebration centered chiefly around South Boston.

General Nelson A. Miles was the guest of honor and one of the central figures in the day's festivities. The celebration began at sunrise with a salute of twenty-one guns. During the forenoon anniversary exercises were held in the public schools and pilgrimages to Dorchester Heights were conducted by several patriotic societies. The principal feature of the day, however, was the parade, which was held this afternoon. In honor of the anniversary and in order that the participation in the occasion might be as general as possible, most of the stores in South Boston closed at noon, and all the schools in the city were given a half holiday.

Shortly before 2 o'clock the start of the procession from City Point, South Boston, was announced by the booming of cannon. The bluejackets from the warships Bancroft, Topeka and Nashville, which vessels had been sent here by the navy department for the celebration, formed a conspicuous division of the parade. The parade marched up Broadway, South Boston, around Dorchester Heights and back to Boston, where it passed the common, statehouse and city hall. General Miles, Governor Bates and Mayor Collins reviewed the parade, which ended at Faneuil hall, where luncheon was served. The celebration concludes this evening with the customary patriotic banquets and a general illumination of the South Boston Board of Commerce.

STANDARD OIL STOCK DIVIDENDS PAID

NEW YORK, March 17.—Holders of stock in the Standard Oil Company were made richer today by the payment of a dividend of $20 a share on the capital stock of $100,000,000. The disbursement is an increase of $10 a share over the amount of the last November dividend, but is the same amount as was declared in February, 1902 and 1903.

The total dividends paid on Standard Oil shares in previous years have been as follows: In 1902, 45 per cent; 1901, 48 per cent; 1900, 48 per cent; 1899, 33 per cent; 1898, 30 per cent; 1897, 33 per cent; 1896, 21 per cent; from 1891 to 1895 inclusive, 12 per cent yearly. Judging from the amount of the first quarterly dividend it is believed in financial circles that the total disbursement for this year will be fully equal to that in excess of the best dividends of former years.

Betley, a missionary, who has been in the province of Shanghai, has just arrived here, and in speaking of the situation in China said: "The latest atrocity committed by the Boxers was the murder of three missionaries in the province of Chee-Lee. SMITH TO CONDUCT AN EXAMINATION (Special to The Telegram.) COLORADO, Texas, March 17.—Congressman W. R. Smith of this city has sent out the following to the newspapers of the Sixteenth congressional district: "I have been requested by proper authority to nominate from the Sixteenth congressional district of Texas a candidate for appointment as cadet to the United States Military Academy, and also a principal and three alternates for appointment as midshipman to the United States Naval Academy.

"In order to give all an equal opportunity and at the same time secure the best material for these appointments, I have decided to provide a competitive examination as a means of making my selections, and have, therefore, arranged for such examination to be held at Abilene, Texas, on April 4, 1903, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. All who desire to enter the examination should at once send me their names and postoffice addresses if they have not already done so. Information as to requirements for admission will be furnished upon application.

"As some of your readers may be interested, I send you this letter in order that you may give proper publicity as you may see fit. Very truly, W. R. SMITH, Member of Congress, Sixteenth Congressional District of Texas."

THE SCENE OF FLOOD DANGER IS SHIFTED

HIGHER LAND — GOVERNMENT REPORT WARNS OF DANGER IN SPITE OF RELIEF CAUSED BY CREVASSE TO THE NORTH

THE BOTTOMS FLOODED

BIG CREVASSE MADE IN THE LEVEE TWENTY MILES ABOVE THE CITY

HUNDREDS ASKING HELP

Many Leave Their Homes and Seek the Higher Land — Government Report Warns of Danger in Spite of Relief Caused by Crevasse to the North

(By Associated Press.) MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 17.—The river is slowly falling here, the gauge today marking 39.4 feet, against 39.7 last night. A break in the levee near Holly Bush, twenty miles north of here, is responsible for the fall.

The crevasse is three-quarters of a mile wide and the waters are rushing through with a roar that can be heard for miles.

The whole St. Francis basin will be flooded, and damage will be incalculable. No other breaks are reported, though engineers are watching many weak places.

The Memphis flood situation is growing more serious. In the northern part of the city hundreds of families have left their homes for the high ground. Street car service is abandoned. In South Memphis the water is threatening all the railroad tracks and hundreds of laborers are working there. The Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road is the worst sufferer, and its tracks are partially submerged for miles. Through train service is cancelled for the present.

The Illinois Central, which experienced difficulty at Auction street, has been "cribbled" over the water and all trains are running promptly.

Many appeals for help are coming in from flood sufferers, and the Sunshine Society in this city has established a refuge camp, where unfortunates will be well cared for.

CONDITION GROWS CRITICAL

(Special to The Telegram.) WASHINGTON, March 17.—The river situation in the Memphis district has become critical. The stage this morning is 39.4 feet, or 1.1 feet above the highest water stage since 1888.

Unofficial reports of the breaking of levees north of Memphis have been received. The breaks, if extensive, will doubtless modify the conditions somewhat. Nevertheless, a further rise to a stage slightly under forty feet may be expected at Memphis within the next thirty-six hours. Below Helena the situation is unchanged. The stage at Vicksburg is 49, a rise of 2, while at New Orleans the river is stationary at 19.2.

The Louisiana tributaries continue to rise. The Shreveport gauge records 39.3 feet this morning. The Ohio is falling except at Cairo, where the decline probably began today.

MORE SUNSHINE WILL MEAN SAFETY

(Special to The Telegram.) GREENVILLE, Miss., March 17.—The river here last night stood within one foot of the 1887 mark, but with a few more days of sunshine and enough men to work on the levees the people protected by the long line of earthworks can feel safe from an overflow this year.

John Atkins, who has the work in charge at Huntington levee, says that if he can get enough men that the levees there can be made to hold two more feet of water. Should a break occur at this point it would prove a most disastrous one, the great body of water it is holding to be turned loose would flood the whole country south and fill Greenville full of water in spite of the protection levee around the city. The water at this point where a force is at work sacking stands on the government gauge 2.1 feet above the high water mark. From that point to Greenville the levee is in a strong condition.

SECOND MRS. NEWCOMBE COMES TO THE FRONT

(By Associated Press.) WESTFIELD, N. J., March 17.—Mrs. Sarah Ann Newcombe, residing in Boston, has filed an application for letters of administration for the estate of her late husband, Mr. Newcombe, who died here two weeks ago. The filing of the application was a shock to Westfield society, as Mr. Newcombe and his young woman who was supposed to be his Wife were leaders in it. The local Mrs. Newcombe was prostrated by the shock of learning that her rights were to be contested. Her friends believe that if the claim of the woman in Boston is substantiated she has been cruelly deceived.

Mr. Newcombe came here about three years ago. He was president and general manager of the Manhattan Steamship Company at 11 Broadway, New York city.

SHREWDER CASE

COMES UP SATURDAY
The case of Nat Kramer, who has applied for a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Smith in the Seventeenth district court, will be passed on next Saturday. Kramer contends that he was indicted on testimony given before the grand jury by himself and that under the statutes the state is debarred from using the information he supplied in order to bring about his conviction.

IN THE COUNTY COURT
Several criminal cases were disposed of in the county court this morning, among them the following:

Henry McCauley, charged with theft of a knife; fined $1 and one day in jail.
Hallie Keller, charged with disturbing the peace; verdict of acquittal.
Ed Tutt, plea of guilty to charge of playing cards in a public place; fine of $20.

Shaw Brothers vs. the International and Great Northern is the style of the only suit filed in the county courthouse up to 2 p. m. today. This case was brought in the county court. BETTER THAN CHAMPAGNE
A Good Story is Told of a St. Louis Gentleman

A friend of his sent him a case of Red Raven Splits. It arrived while he was absent from home. His wife opened the box and seeing all the dainty bottles mistook it for champagne. She told her husband with a case of wine. He, being a genial fellow, went to the telephone and called a few friends.

In the evening when they came to open the wine the mistake was of course discovered. A prominent physician, who was among the guests broke into a cry of delight. "Why," he said, "this is providential. This beats champagne all to pieces. There is nothing that acts so gently on the liver, tones the stomach and gives a man such a feeling of health as Red Raven Splits. It is justly called the Prince of Aperients, and taken in the morning, after a dinner or banquet will surely cleanse the system and put one right for the day's work." He pulled the cork and poured the sparkling water into a glass.

"I do not think champagne could be more beautiful," he added, "nor half as efficacious." They all agreed, and each man took home a dainty bottle as a souvenir.

"MEDICAL TALK" Says:

Speaking of remedies for la grippe, the editor of Medical Talk, one of the popular medical journals of the present time, says: "Whatever may be said against proprietary medicines in a general way, the fact remains that there are more people who rely upon Peruna as a remedy for la grippe than use all other remedies combined. No other remedy is so widely used and implicitly believed in as a remedy for la grippe as Peruna. There is no way to account for this fact except that Peruna is what the people believe it to be—a specific for la grippe."

Almost everybody knows that Peruna will cure acute catarrh. But not many know that la grippe is simply acute catarrh. If they did they would use Peruna with the same surety of a cure as in any other case of acute catarrh.

Already the news is rapidly spreading that Peruna is a prompt and unfailing remedy for la grippe.

The demand for Peruna North, South, East and West, is taxing the utmost facilities of the drug trade. The present epidemic of la grippe will increase this demand four-fold.

The resources for the manufacture of Peruna are not unlimited. This extraordinary demand may exceed the possible supply of it.

Every Person, Especially Every Family, Should provide themselves at once with a supply of this well-tested remedy for la grippe.

Peruna has been the regular prescription of Dr. Hartman for over forty years. It has become the safeguard of thousands of households. In the midst of this epidemic no one should fail to take a dose of Peruna before each meal to guard against the possibility of an attack.

Those stricken with the disease should begin with teaspoonful doses of Peruna every hour, and continue until the acute symptoms subside, after which two teaspoonfuls before meals will be sufficient to continue the treatment until complete recovery.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

La Grippe is Epidemic Catarrh.
La grippe is acute catarrh excited by peculiar climatic conditions. It sweeps across a continent in a single week, like the blizzard of winter or the hot wave of summer. It does not depopulate whole villages like the black plague, nor desolate a home like malignant diphtheria, but it counts its single victims here and there incessantly, night and day, week after week.

Since 1850 Dr. Hartman
Has passed through four or five epidemics of la grippe. During all this time he has conducted an extensive practice of medicine. Few (if any) physicians prescribe for so many patients. His experience in climatic diseases has been simply prodigious.

Thousands of patients are continually under his directions, either personally or by correspondence. The Doctor's fame in treating la grippe is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The Doctor believes that he has never yet lost a case of la grippe, and is enthusiastic in the conviction that he never will.

Dr. Hartman's Remedy.
The remedy upon which the Doctor has relied for the cure of la grippe for over forty years is Peruna. Peruna is a scientific catarrh specific. It cures catarrh whether acute or chronic.

La grippe is simply acute catarrh, which sometimes rages as an epidemic.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
The annual meeting of the Fort Worth Carnegie Library Association has been called for the first Tuesday in April. At that time at least four new trustees will be elected. It is not known whether the terms of Mayor Powell's appointees will expire at this meeting or whether they hold over for another year. The mayor named three trustees at the last annual meeting, and if these hold only for one year there will be seven trustees elected at the meeting in April. A committee is at work on some proposed amendments to the by-laws, which will be presented at the coming meeting.

I have never known it to fail in restoring the organs affected to their healthful activity." 50c bottle at H. T. Pangburn & Co's.

LEATHER TRUST TO START TANNERY HERE

A dispatch to The Telegram from Cincinnati says:

"George Alter, a Cincinnati broker, closed a deal today by which Chicago and St. Louis capitalists bought a large share of the stock of the International Leather Company, of which Alter is president. It is known as the Leather Trust. The deal in entirety is said to involve $5,000,000. The company manufactures leather by a new process, which is claimed to be much quicker in tanning, patented by C. M. Walker, a resident of Alms Hotel.

"There is a tannery at Ashland, Ky., operated by the International and new tanneries are to be built at St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago and Fort Worth, Texas. By the deal all the patents belong to the trust.

Local packing-house officers, when shown the dispatch said that they had heard nothing official in regard to the news it contained, but they added that it was unlikely they would hear anything until the plans for starting the tannery here were fully matured.

Captain Paddock disclaimed all knowledge of the trust's advent into this field, but said that he had been negotiating for some time past with a New York company and that there was a fair outlook that the negotiations would be successful, although at present the New Yorkers were asking a little more than seemed reasonable.

OBTAINS OPTION ON TRACTION CO. STOCK

BOSTON SYNDICATE, BELIEVED TO BE STONE AND WEBSTER, IN A BIG DEAL

A dispatch from Cleveland brings news that a Boston syndicate has obtained an option on the holdings of the Northern Texas Traction Company in Dallas and Fort Worth, and also on the Inerurban line.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY QUIETLY OBSERVED

Sprigs of "reen, mostly artificial, but in a few instances genuine shamrock, worn on coat lapels of enthusiastic admirers of Ireland's patron saint, were the only evidence today of the observance of St. Patrick's anniversary.

Tonight at the city hall, under the auspices of the United Catholic Societies, an elaborate program will be given, and the celebration will be of an enthusiastic and appropriate character.

It had been expected that City Attorney E. C. Orrick would deliver the oration of the occasion, but owing to the death of his little daughter he will be unable to appear and the address will be given by J. J. Roche. Mr. Roche said this morning that he greatly regretted the unfortunate circumstances which had prevented Mr. Orrick from delivering the address. Regarding the one he will make this evening he said it would be of a general nature regarding Ireland and Irishmen.

The other features of the program, as published in The Telegram Sunday, will be given. The story of the life and work of St. Patrick will be told, recitations, songs, instrumental solos, and a number of other interesting features will make a good program. The entertainment tonight will begin at 8 o'clock.

MARKETS HOLDING STEADY

NORTH FORT WORTH, March 17.—Like the New Orleans levees, the markets held steady today, and in spite of bearish advice from the north continued about the same stage as yesterday. Sales were on practically the same basis as yesterday. The demand for good cows was active and prices were good. Steers are still hesitating about going up or down, and between the two tendencies the market remains steady. The feature of this morning's market was the brisk trade in calves of which there were more sales than have been recorded in many weeks, some little time. Tops brought $4.10, a night, tops bringing $4.25, and Armour bought a fair bunch of cows at $3.15.

REPRESENTATIVE SALES

STEERS—There were less steers on today's market than have been offered for some little time. Those brought $4.10, a good price for the class of stuff offered. Some of this morning's sales were:

INVALID SOLDIER ON A CHAIN GANG

Joseph Hoffman, aged 39, veteran of the Spanish-American and Philippine wars, wounded twice in the latter war and retired on a pension of $30 per month, arrived in Fort Worth yesterday and unfolded a melancholy tale in which cruel officers of the law figured.
The first thing he did upon registering at the Oriental hotel was to pawn a ring, the only remaining valuable he had. Then he sat down and wrote a letter to Governor Lanham imploring a pardon for his young companion, J. E. Brooks, who is now serving out a sentence on the Parker county chain gang.
Hoffman and Brooks were arrested at Weatherford last Wednesday, as near as Hoffman can remember, and they were tried and convicted of vagrancy. The fines and costs footed up $16.80 in each case, which meant that unless someone paid their fines they would have to serve thirty-three days each on the chain gang. Hoffman says that his wounded leg gave him great trouble, and he fainted several times from pain and exhaustion. He had a little money and his companion also had a little. Between them there was enough money to pay the fine of one. So Brooks gave up his money, and, although he is only 18 years old and not used to the hard work imposed on members of the chain gang, resolved to work out his sentence and permit Hoffman to go free.

Therefore, owing to Brooks' generosity, Hoffman obtained his liberty. He started for Dallas at once; he has relatives there. To a reporter for The Telegram he said: "We rode into Weatherford on a freight train. We were not stealing a ride outright, as we paid the brakeman. We paid our fares as far as Big Springs and there, as our funds were running low, decided that we would get to Dallas as cheaply as possible. Our decision cost us dearly. Those Weatherford officers gave us no mercy. They do not seem to like pensioners out there. The fact that I was wounded in the service of the country did not appeal to them. I was shot through the thigh and also sustained a wound in the lungs at Patros, Luzon, on March 13, 1899, just after the Filipino rebellion started. I was attached to company E, Twenty-second regulars. My pension dates from April 24, 1900. I receive $90 quarterly from the government. I received my last pay on Feb. 11 at Los Angeles, Cal., and I was trying to make my money last until the next warrant comes, when I was 'vagged' at Weatherford."

Hoffman's pension papers appear all right. He says that he showed them to the Weatherford officers and told them how weak he was physically, but they insisted on chaining him to a big negro, the chain being attached to his wounded leg, and forced him to work on the roads about ten miles out of Weatherford, until he produced cash enough to pay his fine.

W. G. Wright this morning wired from Dallas to Chief of Police Rice that his watch was stolen in Dallas last night. He describes it as a solid gold, box-joint Swiss movement, with engine on the back containing a diamond as a head-light.
Ellen Lelia, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Orrick, died yesterday at their home on Fifth avenue. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from their residence to the Catholic cemetery.

MAJOR ARNOLD'S GRAVE An uneven little pile of rough limestone slabs with two dwarf trees struggling for an existence from out of a crack the winter's frost and the summer's heat have made.

Such is the monument that Fort Worth has provided for her founder, her first citizen, Major Ripley A. Arnold, whose grave is almost unnoticed in a neglected corner of the city cemetery.

A few nights ago, more than a thousand citizens left their homes to give an enthusiastic greeting to a young man whose single act of heroism, coupled with the fame such as newspapers alone can give, made him a prominent figure before the public.

And yet Fort Worth citizens paid more last Saturday night to hear a young man, who up till less than four years ago was utterly unknown, than they have ever contributed towards marking the last resting place of the man who was the founder of their city.

Captain Arnold entered the United States army little more than a boy. For his conspicuous gallantry in pioneer days, and his brilliant fighting in the Mexican war, he was repeatedly honored.

mere exercise that drives her to tear her fellow students' hair or bowl them over like tenpins in a mad endeavor to get a goal.

There is a satisfaction to a girl in being able to think that one day when time may have whitened the temples, when the form may be bent with age and when the bright eyes' lustre may have been dimmed, some sweet little tot with gentle arms about her neck may whisper, "Grandma where did you get that awful scar?"

And then to think of the joy ripened to mellow sweetness by the years that have elapsed, that will come when the old lady can answer, "My dear, I got that in the game with Bryn Mawr in 1904. Things were going dreadfully against us, but I made three goals in the last half and when the whistle blew, we had them skinned six points."

Miss Hill means well, but she has no eye for the future.

By the annexation of Oak Cliff, Dallas gets something like 6,000 additional inhabitants. The case is analogous to that of St. Louis and Chicago. St. Louis annexed everything in sight to keep up with the packing house metropolis, but the efforts were fruitless. Dallas, in order to equal Fort Worth's growing tendency, will have to do something more than adopting a village.

Houston street is being paved, the city bond question has been settled, it has quit raining and the mud has nearly all dried up, Fort Worth gets the cattlemen's convention next year, the city will be supplied with artesian water within the next few weeks. Gee whiz! Isn't it too bad that St. Patrick's day isn't Thanksgiving?

The packing house bonus is still unpaid, but Fort Worth's public spirited citizens will not long let it so remain. The packers have made Fort Worth a better market for hogs than Kansas City. Their part of the agreement has been filled. Enough said.

It is to be hoped that after hearing Hobson's lecture and getting a close range view of the distinguished hero, no young man of Dallas will be moved to emulate his example, by sinking the famous snag boat.

In view of the venerable St. Patrick's effective work in ridding Ireland of snakes, why wouldn't his anniversary be a good day to get on the water wagon?

HAVE HAD THEIR DAY

Old-Fashioned Medicines for Catarrh No Longer in Vogue For many years past the usual treatment for catarrh diseases was with local douches, sprays, inhalers and liquid medicines composed principally of alcohol, all of which never cured but simply gave the temporary relief and stimulation.

A thorough cure can be made only by the treatment which removes the catarrhal poisons from the blood. A new remedy which meets the requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

The tablets act upon the blood and mucous membrane only. They can hardly be classed as a secret patent medicine, as they are composed of such valuable remedies as blood root, Hydrastis, red gum of Eucalyptus tree and similar antiseptics combined in tablet form, which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous membrane the poisons of catarrh.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant-tasting lozenges to be taken internally, allowing them to dissolve in the mouth, thus reaching the throat, trachea and finally the stomach.

If desired they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche. In addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bennett stated "that the internal treatment of catarrh by means of pleasant medicated tablets is rapidly taking the place of douches and local applications" and further says that "probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is the Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition, and all the really efficient catarrh remedies are concentrated in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cts. for full-sized package, and they will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, efficient and convenient cure known to the trade.

Good Stories Well Told

The Philadelphia Ledger turns out this list of good stories: Colonel James E. Jones considers that the late Thomas P. Ochiltree was one of the bravest men that ever trod in shoe leather.

One time Mr. Gladstone told Henry Chaplin that he had a confession to make to him regarding a certain Mrs. Chaplin, whom Mr. Gladstone believed to be Mr. Chaplin's grandmother.

When Frank R. Stockton had planned out his book of "Pomona's Travels" and was about ready to write it he resided in Philadelphia.

Thomas A. Edison is deaf, but, like many whose hearing is defective, he sometimes understands what is said when it is least expected.

The recent elections in Canada were bitterly contested and efforts were made both by the liberals and conservatives to stir up race and religious prejudice.

Advice to the Aged. Age brings infirmities, such as sluggish bowels, weak kidneys and bladder and TORPID LIVER.

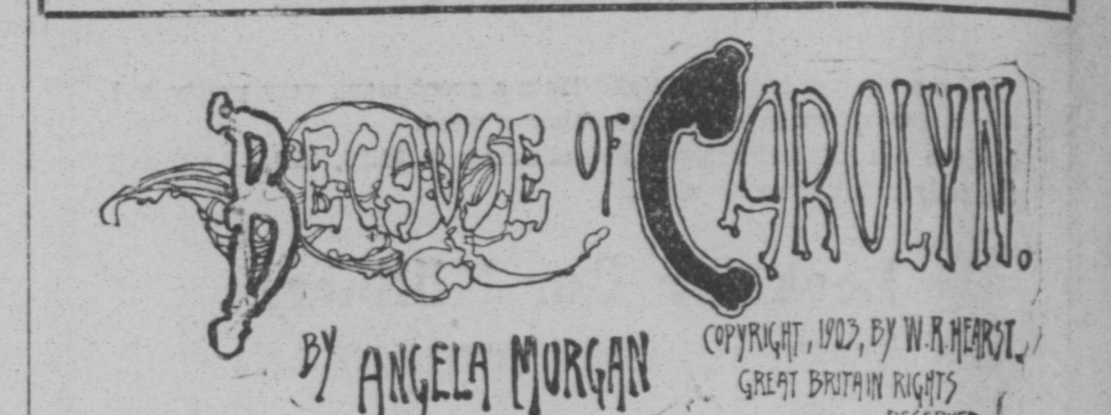

Tutt's Pills have a specific effect on these organs, stimulating their natural functions and imparting vigor to the kidneys, bladder and liver. They are adapted to old and young.

AMONG EXCHANGES Portland Oregonian: Speaking of rotten borough representation in congress, what's the matter with Delaware? With a measly 185,000 inhabitants so corrupt that even "Gas" Addicks owns and uses them like cattle.

Seguin Enterprise: To the credit of the state be it recorded that two bills passed both bodies of the legislature yesterday. One prohibits absolutely any child under 12 from working in any factory, all from 12 to 14 years old from working at night, and only those who can read and write, and no child under 16 can work in a distillery or brewery.

Daily Short Story

(Copyright, 1903, by W. R. Hearst; Great Britain rights reserved.)

Love! What had happened? Danbury bent forward in real alarm. Danbury was uttering cries of consternation while she struggled to extract something from the baby's throat.

From his office window in the adjoining building he had a refreshing view of the emerald lawn, well-kept flower beds and vine-hung fences.

Although by profession a physician, he had an artist's love of the bright and beautiful. The little spot of green next door became a very oasis in the desert of his monotonous daily experience.

Danbury's apartments were quite modest. So was his practice as yet. He had more time than patients on his hands, but being an optimist he utilized that leisure profitably by continued study, hopeful of success ahead.

So it happened that he sat often by the window at his books and rested his eyes when tired by looking at the stretch of green with its patches of glowing color.

There was a young mother who brought her babe out almost daily for an airing. The infant, being old enough to creep, was allowed to romp at will on the big blanket spread out for its convenience.

Danbury regarded the scene with distinct approval. Here, now, was a sensible mother, who determined to give her child a healthy development in spite of city limitations. Would that all mothers realized as did she the necessity of breathing fresh air!

Sometimes the father came out and joined in the romps. An extremely wholesome fellow, Danbury decided. After a time there came another figure into the group. That she was the baby's aunt Danbury had no doubt, from her striking resemblance to the young mother.

The new arrival he regarded with even greater approval. She was well, she was altogether an unusual sort of girl. Extremely pretty—no, not pretty. That did not express it. She was more than that. She was lovely. Danbury told himself so each day with increasing emphasis.

Autumn came and with it chill gray days that made outdoor exercise impossible. Danbury found the stretch of lawn desolate and unlovely these days.

He wondered if the sister were gone. Probably she had been visiting her relatives for the summer only. The thought was not comforting.

Finally there came a perfect day of glorious warmth and sunshine. Danbury, ever watchful of the lawn, felt his heart leap at sight of a familiar figure carrying a baby on one arm and a blanket on the other. It was the sister, and she was alone with her charge this time.

As moments passed and the mother did not appear, Danbury began to realize how important it was that he, too, should be breathing fresh air.

The rear hall opened upon a seldom used balcony porch. The young physician wondered why he had never before thought of studying out there instead of indoors. Truly, it would be a crime to stay in his room so alluringly.

He threw another look out of the window and felt suddenly abashed. But he knew the proverb concerning him who hesitates. With swift decision he seized a chair and pushed boldly out upon the balcony.

He thought that the girl glanced up in surprise at his unexpected appearance, and he felt foolishly conspicuous, like a green youth who enters a stage box believing the eyes of the entire audience to be upon him.

This conspicuousness grew even pleasanter and he bent assiduously to his books. But the words phrases held no logic for him today. He decided that babies were far more interesting.

What a lively youngster this one was! The lovely aunt had all she could do to keep him out of mischief. Evidently the aim of the little rascal was to test the virtue of every article within reach by putting the same in its mouth.

Yes, babies were certainly interesting. Babies and—

R. R. COMMISSION IN SESSION TODAY

John C. McCabe, general freight agent for the Chicago, Rock Island and Texas, is in Austin where he is meeting with the railroad commission with the view of adjusting the order which has been issued by that body, following the refusal of the Rock Island to participate in rates on wheat from points in Oklahoma Territory to points in Texas.

The officials at the local offices of the road had little to say today regarding the action of the commission, except that the matter has been taken up with it and it is expected, will be satisfactorily adjusted within a day or two.

THE OFFICIAL ORDER

The following is the official order as issued by the railroad commission and effective at noon, March 15:

Because the Chicago, Rock Island and Texas Railroad Company declines to participate in rates on wheat from points in the Oklahoma Territory to points in Texas, but does participate in the rates on flour from and to such points, and thereby fails to maintain a difference of 5 cents per 100 pounds in the rates on wheat and flour from points in the Oklahoma Territory to Texas points, which operates as a discrimination against the interests of Texas, the railroad commission of Texas, acting under the authority conferred upon it by the law, hereby orders that, until otherwise provided by this commission, the rates on grain and grain products, carloads and less, as provided for in commodity tariff No. 2-A, issued by this commission and effective March 10, 1899, and the amendments thereto, shall, on shipments moving locally, or only between points on the Chicago, Rock Island and Texas Railroad, be 50 per cent of the regular rates named or provided for in said commodity tariff No. 2-A, or amendments thereto.

It is further provided that in dividing such reduced joint line rates, the reductions herein provided for shall be borne by the Chicago, Rock Island and Texas Railroad Company.

KATY OFFICIALS ARE MAKING INSPECTION

A Dallas man who came in from the north on a Katy train last night related an incident of his trip to a Times-Herald reporter today.

"At Sedalia, Mo., an agent of the company, unknown to the conductor and train men, boarded and came south with us. At Parsons he made himself known to the conductor and requested that gentlemen taken up on his run. This caused quite a commotion, as it is customary for conductors to make reports and turn in tickets and cash fares to the proper parties at the end of the run. However, the unknown tourist showed his credentials and also the cash fares and tickets. This was repeated at Denison. It doesn't take news of this sort long to travel and railroad employes all along the line caught on without delay. It was the sole topic of conversation among railroad men at Denison and Sherman and startling developments are looked for. It is said that the officials of the company have been dissatisfied with the financial showing made on the upper runs and last week they decided that it was time to 'check up'."

The Times-Herald informant, who asked that his name be withheld, informed the representative of this paper that it was understood at Denison that special agents of the company were working, or would work all passenger runs from Hamblin to Galveston in order to make satisfactory investigation from the standpoint of the company.—Dallas Times-Herald.

A FORMER DALLAS BOY GETS GOOD PROMOTION

Circulars signed by General Freight Agent Lincoln and approved by Traffic Manager Stith, dated St. Louis, March 15, have been issued, announcing the appointment of W. R. Seagin as general traveling freight agent for all the lines comprising the Missouri Pacific system. Mr. Seagin is a Dallas boy, who commenced railroading with the Texas and Pacific railway at the time, moved to St. Louis with his family, since which time he has been connected with the general offices of the Missouri Pacific at that point, being for a long time confidential clerk to the traffic manager. During his service he has been closely associated with the traffic department and is therefore considered well qualified for the important position he has been called on to fill, while still a young man. His Dallas friends predict that the railway world will hear more of him.—Dallas News.

RAILROAD BRIEFS AND PERSONALS

The Katy recently closed a deal for 500 acres of land at Oklahoma City, Okla., on which it began yesterday preparations for the erection of its coal chutes, roundhouse and shops.

J. Trammel, chief engineer for the International and Great Northern, departed last night for a trip through Southern Texas. Mr. Trammel recently moved his family to this city, locating on the south side, where he erected a residence. His offices are still maintained at Palestine.

The Texas and Pacific is engaged in ballasting its tracks in this portion of the state, crushed rock being used for the purpose. The improvements of this nature made at this time will be of lasting benefit.

T. G. Hill, pumper for the Texas and Pacific railroad at this place for a great many years, has resigned, his place being filled by the former night man, Mr. Melton.

Peter Berg, a French count, now a Chicago bartender, has a watch that belonged to Napoleon. The watch was presented to Berg's grandfather by the general.

LEGISLATURE'S BURDEN LIFTED

ONE VIEW OF BOND CONTROVERSY'S END

Representative Stewart Says Whatever Fort Worth Asks Will be Granted—Date of Adjournment Rests With Senate—As to the Confederate Home Matter

Clarence E. Stewart was in Fort Worth Monday evening en route from his home near Grapevine in Tarrant county to Austin, where he represents this county in the state house of representatives.

"I do not know when we are going to finish and you see some of us seem to think that this is going to be the last legislative Texas ever will see, and therefore it is the earnest desire of those holding this option to pass laws enough for all time. The house some time ago adopted a resolution fixing the date of adjournment at April 1. Since then the house has been anxious to learn what the senate proposes to do about adjournment. We have learned one thing—the senate proposes to find out how many of its bills the house is going to act on favorably before it fixes a date of adjournment.

"I do not know how the canon about my opposition to the Confederate home appropriation came to be originated. In Austin it is well known that I am heartily in favor of large appropriations for former Confederates; in fact my record speaks for itself, for ever since I have been on the committee having this matter in charge I have argued for increased appropriations, and what is more, have outlined them. What I was trying to do was to prevent some people from getting fat jobs for themselves and relatives.

"I think that a general sigh of relief will go up from the legislature when it hears that the Fort Worth bond controversy has been settled. We have been figuring on the Fort Worth matter; we expected some sort of charter amendments would be submitted to us, but had no idea what form they would take. The gravest part of the trouble apparently is past and I think that whatever amendments are submitted that will be through without a murmur from any quarter."

BOND PLAN RATIFIED BY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE

Yesterday afternoon T. J. Powell, mayor of the city of Fort Worth, received the information from Charles S. Fairchild of New York, chairman of the Fort Worth bondholders' committee of the New York Security and Trust Com-

FOOD LESSONS

What Proper Food Will Do.

"It was but a few months ago that I learned how to feed myself right," said a man from Washington, Ill. "Then I was but a part of what I am now. I was greatly troubled with my stomach, my muscles were weak and flabby, and I was completely tired out, faint and dizzy after a day's work.

"I commenced using Grape-Nuts and in a short time noticed marked change. The food gave me just the kind of nourishment I needed and agreed with my stomach so well that I soon forgot I had one. I gained rapidly in strength, my brain became clear and the worn-out feeling at night entirely disappeared. Now I am in the best of health and weigh 150 pounds, which is more than I ever weighed before.

"I induced the son of a friend to use Grape-Nuts; he was sick and weak, caused mostly by indigestion and other troubles arising from a bad stomach. He then weighed 125 pounds; in a few weeks, after using Grape-Nuts daily, he was so greatly improved that he entered the field-day contests and acquitted himself splendidly. He kept gradually increasing in weight until now he weighs 145 pounds, all hard muscle, and is playing on the local foot ball team, a thing that a year ago anyone would have laughed at."

If half the people who have weak stomachs or are about half well, would stop eating poorly cooked food and use Grape-Nuts instead they would not only save money, but would soon be as healthy as the best. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

pany, to the effect that the 7 per cent bonds of this city can be exchanged for the details of which plan have been previously published in this paper. The telegram received by Mr. Powell was also congratulatory for the manner in which the city has disposed of this problem.

The reply to Mr. Fairchild's message was wired by Mayor Powell as follows: "The city administration appreciates your expression of approval and purposes to exchange matured bonds, and assures your committee that future interest payments will be promptly met."

AMUSEMENTS

"THE DENVER EXPRESS"

No play has been produced in years that possesses the numerous elements of success contained in "The Denver Express," opening among the snow capped hills of Colorado, among the Indians and outlaws. It then takes the audience to Hiram Garvey's home in the rude mountain hut, then to Lord Tynemath's beautiful country place near Frisco, leaving which you follow the fast flying Denver Express to the union depot at Denver, then to the Palace hotel where the storm clouds that have so thickly shadowed the lives of the hero and heroine are swept away, the villain brought to justice, and all ends to the entire satisfaction of the audience. This great scenic play will be at Greenwall's opera house tonight for the last performance. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

"THE MISSOURI GIRL"

A stage carpenter of one of the popular theaters of Chicago, while talking to some of the most noted dramatic critics a short time ago, made the following remarks: "It is the custom of all managers to boom their star as much as possible, but did you ever stop to consider what the average production would amount to, if it were not surrounded by the mechanical and scenic effects that go to make up a performance of any kind? (Take your most popular star and put either he or she on a bare stage without the scenery, or effects, that are invented and worked by the poor, so-called 'rusty stage carpenter,' and I'll warrant the audience will commence to grow restless and tired before the curtain falls on the first act, of the best piece ever written. A few years ago the theater-goer would sit in an uncomfortable chair in a theater, and when the curtain rose on the first act of some traveling production, the only thing that would meet his gaze would be a few threadbare looking trees, or a group of stunted mountains painted with diamond dies on a flimsy piece of muslin, while today he can sit in a chair that is as comfortable as his home rocking chair, and as the curtain raises his thoughts are carried to almost any quarter of the globe. Now who is it that deserves credit for these wonderful works of mechanism? It is no one but the man who is never thought of in front of the curtain—the carpenter and electrician. In a big production his services are as much required as Uncle Sam's gunners are to the great generals. In fact, he is the man behind the gun!" So it is when you see Fred Raymond's famous comedy-drama, "The Missouri Girl." It is not only the work of a good cast that goes to make it the great success it has been in the past eight years, but the work of the carpenter and electrician. "The Missouri Girl," in its entirety, will appear at Greenwall's opera house Wednesday night, March 18.

THE "OLYMPIA"

The success of the Olympia Opera Company in New Orleans finds no parallel for light theatricals in the musical history of the metropolis. In the brief period of ten weeks no less than eighteen operas were given thorough and complete presentation. In order for a company to represent such a large number of operas it certainly must have versatile and clever people. By referring to the New Orleans Times-Democrat, we find it reads: "The Olympia Opera Company has played many engagements in New Orleans, but instead of wearing out its welcome, it becomes a stronger favorite at every performance. The Olympia company is composed of artists, that is why people never tire of seeing it in its repertoire of bright and catchy operas. The Olympia Opera Company comes to Greenwall's opera house Thursday night, March 19, for an engagement of six nights, giving matinee Saturday and Wednesday. The repertoire for their engagement here will be: "Thursday night, "Wang"; Friday night, "Olyette"; Saturday matinee, "The Mikado"; Saturday night, "El Capitán"; Monday night, "Nell Gwynne"; Tuesday night, "Girolo-Girolo"; Wednesday matinee, "H. M. S. Pinafore"; Wednesday night, "La Perichole."

"KING KRANK" SUGGESTS VALUABLE IMPROVEMENTS

NOW IF I HAD MY WAY

To The Telegram:

Apropos of what we should do to have a better and greater Fort Worth, I have a suggestion to suggest, that there are a number of little things which could be done, that would add much towards making Fort Worth a more delightful and desirable city in which to live and do business.

Now if it was up to me and I had my way—

First—I would have the sidewalks on Main and Houston streets swept morning and night. Some business people do this, but a great number don't.

Second—I would stop shows and theaters from covering the awnings and fronts of business houses with thousands of ugly and untidy rag and paper signs.

Third—I would have the police, to arrest and the city court to punish, men who daily use vulgar and obscene language on the streets of the city.

Fourth—I would condemn some of the rotten, dangerous, dirty and unsightly awnings that now adorn Main street, and force the owners to tear them down.

Fifth—I would have many of the great, big, dangerous signs, that obstruct the view and that are unsightly along Main street taken down.

Sixth—I would have the police keep the sidewalks on Main street between Ninth and Eleventh streets, clear of the vulgar, loud-mouthed negro bucks who congregate there daily and who are a public nuisance.

Seventh—I would stop the cheap stores, or any other kind of store for that matter, from exhibiting on the sidewalks in the people's way, strings of old second hand shoes, dirty old clothes, dry goods, hardware, whisky kegs and barrels, raw meats, filthy old benches and all such.

Eighth—I would make the blacksmith and repair shops clear the streets around their places of old broken down wagons and vehicles, scrapers and old iron and keep them clear so that the people could pass.

Ninth—I would not permit people with brass horns, big drums, flags and with yells like the lion to parade or congregate on Main street, getting in everybody's way and frightening horses. Make them take a cross street.

Tenth—I would arrest and punish every old duck that walked or stood on Main street, but would regulate its speed to keep it on the walk at every step.

Eleventh—I would not let the Interurban cars run 25 miles an hour on Main street, but would regulate its speed to moderation before it crushes the life out of some citizen.

Twelfth—I would have the health department condemn some of the cheap bath houses on Main street, from whose front doors the heat and smell and stench constantly pours to the discomfort of every body, and would make them disinfect, clean up and keep clean or quit.

Now how would this little dozen do for a starter. There are many things for me to do, but if such little matters as these were looked after some, we would at least have a sweeter and cleaner and nicer city, whether it would be any greater or not. Most respectfully,

KING-KRANK.

TELEGRAM MONEY JAR GOES TO THE ARCADE

Tomorrow The Telegram money jar goes to The Arcade, 1212-1214 Main street to attend a special sale of all kinds of china, glassware, queensware, tinware, notions and all kinds of goods handled in the store.

So far The Telegram money jar has attended more special sales than even the most enthusiastic bargain hunter in Fort Worth and at every one it has brought good luck to the store.

The jar will bring good luck to someone else when the right guess is announced. People are sending in more guesses every day as to the sum of money the jar holds, and there will be more luck in holding the right guess than in finding a four-leaved shamrock on St. Patrick's day.

All day tomorrow at The Arcade visitors at the big special sale will receive a free guess as to the contents of the jar with every 25-cent purchase. The bargain sale and the free offer will hold good for just one day.

UNPARALLELED RUSH FOR BUILDING PERMITS

The announcement in The Telegram Monday evening that the police were preparing to make cases against persons who built houses without first obtaining permits from the city engineer caused a rush at the city engineer's office this morning which is unparalleled in the history of Fort Worth. By 9 o'clock permits for the erection of twelve houses had been taken out and three anxious persons were clamoring for those in front of them to hurry as they feared that the police were busy making cases against them down in the police court.

The police were prepared to file four cases, but those against whom the cases were to be made evidently were informed, because they were among the earliest to apply for permits.

"I think it strange when a man owns a lot and has money enough to build a house on it that a city should have the power to stop in and charge him a dollar before it lets him spend his money in the city," was the opinion of one irate citizen as he slammed his dollar down.

The following permits were issued:

Porter King, lot 2, block 2, Union Depot addition, four rooms, $500.

Porter King, lots 11 and 15, block 20, Union Depot addition, two houses, four rooms each, $500 each.

Mrs. T. A. Green, lot 5, block 2, Cunningham & Woodall addition, four rooms, $500.

Mrs. Thibault, lots 1 and 2, block B, Martin & Moody's addition, two houses, six rooms each, $2,500 each.

J. C. Ingram, lot 10, block 25, Union Depot addition, six rooms, $750.

J. C. Ingram, lots 6, 7, 8 and 9, block 29, Union Depot addition, four houses, $500 each.

F. E. Coppage, lot 6, block 10, Alford & Veale's addition, $500 each.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy I seldom need it, as it has cured me.

Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

DOCTORS INCORPORATE TO ROUT THE QUACKS

A dispatch from Austin to The Telegram brings news that the North Texas Medical Association, with headquarters in Sherman, has been granted a charter. Dr. Bacon Saunders of Fort Worth is named as one of the incorporators.

The various medical associations of Texas are incorporating. The purpose behind this movement was learned this morning. It is designed to protect the people of Texas from the schemes of quacks. Dr. F. D. Thompson said: "Texas for twenty years has been the dumping ground for the quacks and fraudulent practitioners of all other states in the union because she has not been protected by an adequate medical law, and it is the purpose of the reputable physicians of the state to see it, by incorporating and prosecuting these tricksters, they cannot at least in a measure reduce the evil. By incorporating we protect individuals from responsibility and any suits for damages growing out of our operations will fall on the society as a whole."

"Two years ago the legislature granted us a law which provided that before beginning practice in this state a physician should produce a diploma of graduation issued by a reputable medical college. We asked to have the law amended as a further protection to the people at this session of the legislature, but the amendment was defeated. Now, by incorporating, the medical associations propose to see if they cannot accomplish the desired end without further aid from the legislature."

WILL GO AFTER FUNDS TO BUY NEW BOOKS

The board of trustees of the Library Association have evolved a plan which they hope will give them their much-needed funds for the purchase of new books for the library.

Anyone who knows anything about the library knows the deplorable dearth of books. The number of books in the Fort Worth library would not do credit to a town of 5,000 people.

There are mighty few towns in the south where the library is used as much as is the Fort Worth library, particularly by the great masses of the people. This makes it all the more necessary that the book shelves be well filled.

But there are no funds with which to buy books.

The plan of the trustees covers the appointment of committees for the purpose of soliciting funds. Every branch of trade, business and profession will have assigned to it a committee. Each committee will be made up of one member of the library association and men representing the branch of business or profession in which that committee is to solicit.

Everybody in Fort Worth is to be solicited to give $3 each a year with which to buy books.

It is believed that $3,000 a year can be thus obtained. With $3,000 a year devoted exclusively to book purchase it will not be long before Fort Worth will have the kind of a library that it ought to have. The work of organizing the committees is now going on. Mrs. James W. Swayne has been made chairman of the work and Mrs. Willard Burton is assisting.

This work should meet with great success. The Telegram is going to help push this plan of the library trustees to a successful termination and readers will have plenty of opportunity from this time on to note the progress of the committees.

WEATHER CONDITIONS CONTINUE UNCHANGED

With the exception of the low pressure storm which has been nearly stationary over the plateau region during the past three or four days, the weather continues without marked or interesting features; the plateau storm is about stationary as to its center, but its area of influence has extended something over four hundred miles eastward, and now dominates the weather over the greater portion of the country west of the Mississippi, resulting in scattered thunder showers and warm spring-like weather over the southern and eastern portions, and colder with snow in the Rocky mountain region. Light rain fell in the Ohio, Cumberland and Tennessee valleys during the past twenty-four hours, but fair conditions prevailed over the greater portion of the valleys from Memphis to New Orleans.

Generally fair weather will likely prevail in Fort Worth vicinity until Wednesday when showers will very likely occur.
