TO HANDLE ALL RICE

MAMMOTH CORPORATION IS BEING FORMED

IMMENSE CAPITAL

TEN MILLION DOLLARS STOCK TO BE SUBSCRIBED FOR NEW ORGANIZATION PROJECTED

START WITH A MILLION

Ten Per Cent of Total Capital Stock to Be Paid in and Work of Building Big Storage Elevators Preparatory to Handling Growing Crops Starts Soon

HOUSTON, Texas, April 18.—Plans have been completed for a $10,000,000 New Jersey corporation to handle the rice crops in Texas and Louisiana. A number of manufacturers are interested in the project and they have given the matter careful consideration. A charter will be applied for soon as possible, and in time to handle the crop now growing. Among those said to be interested are C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Mich.; George N. Minor of Buffalo, W. J. Clark of Salem, Ohio; N. G. Williams of Toledo and E. O. King of New York. A string of elevators will be built in the rice belt to store the crop.

MRS. LEE SAYS HER HUSBAND IS SICK

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 18.—Mrs. Lee, who arrived here last night, said regarding the absence of her husband, Lieutenant General Lee: "It was upon my advice that my husband went away. He is not in condition to appear before the grand jury. I wish to deny that he is suffering from nervous prostration. He is suffering from an attack to which he is subject. "When will he return?" was asked her. "I do not care to answer that question. He is not running away, however. There was no subpoena served upon him by the St. Louis grand jury. He is a sick man, and in no condition to take part in this trial."

ALABAMA'S GUNNERS NOW HOLD RECORD

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 18.—Gunnery of the battleship Alabama are now the champion marksmen of the American navy, having scored a general average of 81.7 out of a possible hundred at target practice. This covers the work of one week with guns of all calibers. At no time did the vessel steam at a less rate than ten knots or at a range less than 1,400 yards. This record takes the championship from the Massachusetts, which made an average of 56.

SOCIETY LEADER BECOMES A NUN

NEW YORK, April 18.—Society is surprised at Dorothy Smart, the daughter of Colonel Charles Smart, U. S. A., surgeon general in the Philippines, becoming a nun. She was a leader in the younger army and navy set at Washington. She is said to have taken the veil to escape the unwelcome attentions of Senator C. Depate, the son of the Venezuelan general.

TORPEDO BOATS TO FIGHT ICEBERGS

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 18.—The Canadian government has borrowed three torpedo-boats from the British navy. They will be used to blow up icebergs in the Strait of Belleisle, between Newfoundland and Labrador, so as to clear the route for the passage of trans-Atlantic liners.

WEALTHY MAN WEDS EX-TELEPHONE GIRL

DALLAS, Tex., April 18.—Charles Featherstone, a member of the well known Featherstone family of Texas, identified with the banking, mining and cattle business, was married today to Miss Myrtle Dedrick, daughter of Perry G. Dedrick, a journeyman printer. Featherstone's brother is a well known banker of that name in Harrisburg and he himself is a banker and the principal owner of a gold mine in San Marcial, N. M. The bride was only about a year ago a telephone girl in the Dallas exchange.

TWO LOVERS LESS IN THE BIG WORLD

NEWARK, N. J., April 18.—Enraged because he was jilted, Charles Gardner fatally wounded his former sweetheart and then put a bullet through his own heart, dying instantly.

INSANE BY JEALOUSY HE KILLS HIS WIFE

NEW YORK, April 18.—Driven to insanity by jealousy caused by reports he heard while at work in Cuba, George Jordan, a boat-builder, today shot and killed his wife and 11-year-old boy and then fired a bullet into his own brain. He chased his wife downstairs, firing at her. She fell dead on the sidewalk in a crowd attracted by the shots.

IS FOUND GUILTY GETS FORTY YEARS

WAXAHACHIE, Tex., April 18.—Special.—The Henry Willis murder case which has been on trial in the district court ten days came to an end this morning when the jury returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree. His punishment was assessed at a term of forty years in the penitentiary. There is yet another case of murder pending against the defendant.

ANOTHER CASE. Lavina Washington, colored, is now on trial for murder. It is alleged that one night last October she killed a young negro man by cutting his throat.

TELEPHONE WAR IS NOW ON AT DALLAS

DALLAS, Tex., April 18.—The municipal commission today disapproved the franchise ordinance of the Independent Telephone company. This brings the matter again before the city council on Monday next. Manager McGrath of the Independent company said tonight, "I don't know what our future course will be. I don't know whether the company will attack the constitutionality of the commission in court. What we want is a franchise, not trouble. We will go again before the city council. I have no idea whether or not the council will override the commission." A hard telephone fight is believed to be on.

RUSSIA GETTING READY TO GRAB

VIENNA, April 18.—News has reached here that the czar is quietly mobilizing his army and navy to be in shape to act promptly in the Balkans, should the opportunity arise. It is believed that Russia is determined that the time has nearly arrived when she can drive Turkey out of Europe and take Constantinople and the other ports of European Turkey that she desires, and she is getting ready to do it. The situation in the Balkans is distinctly more threatening.

COUNTRY CLUB MEETS TOMORROW

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock there will be a meeting of the Fort Worth Country club, either in the Board of Trade room or in the Farmers' and Mechanics' National bank, both being in the same building. It is expected that the club will be ready for occupancy within five weeks. The members have remitted under the last call promptly and the work on the beautiful club house is progressing rapidly. Important matters will be considered at the meeting tomorrow evening.

CANNADY CLEARED OF SERIOUS CHARGE

Walter B. Scott of McLean and Scott, received a telegram yesterday from Jeff D. McLean at Oklahoma City, O. T., that a jury had returned a verdict of not guilty in the H. B. Cannady criminal assault case. Mr. McLean has been in Oklahoma City several days trying this case. It will be remembered that Cannady was arrested in this city by one of Chief Rea's men, on advices from Oklahoma City, and later was returned to Oklahoma City by M. A. O'Brien, sheriff of that place.

ALL SAINTS' HOSPITAL BENEFIT PROGRAM

The program for the entertainment at the Tabernacle Thursday night, April 23, for the benefit of the All Saints hospital under the direction of Mrs. L. Trousdale of Dallas will be given by Prof. W. W. Heathcote and his pupils in elocution and dramatic art. A fine program has been prepared. By request, Miss Rose Ellis and Mr. Heathcote will give the scene "Cleopatra." Miss Mary Swayne and Miss Ellis will be seen as the queens, Mary of Scots and Elizabeth. Mrs. Harry

LOWER BODY HAS COMPLETED ABOUT THAT AMOUNT OF APPROPRIATION BILL WORK

WOULDN'T RAISE WOMEN

Senate Refuses to Increase the Wages of Fifteen Laundresses—State Insane Asylum Bill Is Passed—Effort to Do Away With State Rangers Fails

AUSTIN, Texas, April 18.—The house this morning passed finally its uniform text-book bill without opposition. Representative Love of Dallas made an effort to substitute the senate bill for the house bill, but it failed and a free conference of the committee will be asked. The house then took up the general appropriation bill and passed the state insane asylum appropriation of $216,170 the first year and $189,370 the second. The amendment to increase the salaries of fifteen laundresses failed. The southwestern insane asylum appropriation bill was then taken up and is now under consideration. The house is about two-thirds through its bill.

IN THE SENATE

The senate this morning spent the entire session considering the appropriation bill. The state purchasing agent's department appropriation passed, also the one for the adjutant general's department. An effort was made to practically do away with the state ranger force, but it failed. The department of public printing bill also passed. It provides $25,550 the first year and $23,550 the second.

BRITISH WARSHIP SAILS FOR GREECE

VALETTA, Malta, April 18.—The British battleship Victorious, which has been ordered to sail for Greece, owing to the threatening aspect of affairs in the Balkans, sailed during the night for Volo, Greece. A naval review and other ceremonies planned for today in honor of King Edward were countermanded in consequence of bad weather.

DELIGHTFUL CARD PARTY AT ABILENE

From Abilene comes the account of an evening euchre party that will interest many Fort Worthites, as the hostess, Mrs. O. W. Steffen, has many friends here. Decorations of roses and spiraea were used throughout the card suite and house, which is considered one of the handsomest in the west. A silver candlestick was the prize, and was won by Henry Sayles Jr. Score was kept by means of roses, white roses being counters for the men and pink roses for the ladies.

Mrs. Steffen was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Ward.

READY TO OPEN THE ROOF GARDEN

The arrangements for the opening of the Wheat Roof Garden on May 4 have all been made. The well known Curtiss Comedy company has been secured for the entire summer season. Manager Curtiss is now in the city looking after the details for the opening night.

CAN MAKE GREEN BUG REGARDLESS OF NATURE

WATSONVILLE, Cal., April 18.—Watson I. Clark, field assistant in the entomological department of the University of California, is about to issue the report of a remarkable result in insect biology. He has demonstrated it is possible to so far control the life of rose aphid as to force its development by chemical process, regardless of the so-called laws of nature.

HOW HE CEASED BEING MEMBER OF AESTHETES

PARIS, April 18.—Comte Marquis de Montesquieu, leader of the Aesthetes in Paris, has fallen from grace. He attended rat-killing contests in a fashionable club in evening dress, which violated all the canons of aestheticism, and he is now no longer recognized by the cult of the lily and asphodel.

FAVORS LEASING INSTEAD OF SELLING

AUSTIN, Texas, April 18.—The merits of the several land bills considered during the regular session of the legislature are now the theme of quite an amount of discussion among the members of the house and the views entertained are not only distinct, but may be said to be widely variant.

By some the policy of leasing is preferred, so others sales as quickly as they can be made on long time at a low rate of interest. Although mentioned as one of the subjects of legislation by the governor and while every member of the legislature realizes the necessity of a law on the subject, still with the wide divergence of opinion prevailing, any bill that becomes a law will not become so by easy sailing. Hon. O. S. York of Jackson county, who has bestowed quite a good deal of study on the subject, said to The Telegram reporter yesterday in a conversation on the land question: "I suppose the Murray and Nowlin bills will be reintroduced and I presume one of them will be passed. "It seems to have been the policy on the part of former legislatures to enact land laws, putting the school lands on the market, presumably for the benefit of the actual settler.

BETTER LEASE THEM

"My opinion is it would be better to withdraw the lands from the market altogether and lease them to any person who wishes to lease them in large or small tracts for pasture, or farms for any length of time, say from five to twenty years, to persons offering the best price, making no lease contracts for any size tract for a shorter period than five years at 5 cents per acre. In pursuing this plan the receipts from leases on this basis would exceed the interest on the amount of sales.

Besides, the value of the land for many years to come will be constantly enhanced in value, which will largely increase the principal of the permanent school fund of the state. "The school lands of Texas belong to the school-children of Texas, not alone the present, but future generation. Then why sell and fill the state treasury with millions of money from the proceeds of such sales to loan and invest in bonds, in some cases of doubtful value, when the land can be leased, bring more revenue to the school fund, with security, not only of unquestioned soundness, but becoming better every year."

BRITISH SOLDIERS REPORT CRUELTY

NEW YORK, April 18.—Four sailors of the British bark Glendovey arrived today from Cienfuegos and made complaint against Capt. James Larkin before the British consul general. They claimed they had been tied up by the writes to the rigging in a tropical sun seven hours because they refused "turnto" without coffee. The rope was so tight the flesh parted and blood ran down their arms. The consul will investigate.

GETTING PRIMED TO GREET KING EDWARD

PARIS, April 18.—Women in official circles are studying up on etiquette, so that they will make no bad breaks when King Edward visits Paris. On the occasion of the visit of the czar and zarina some bad fiascos were committed and it is proposed to have nothing of the sort when his British majesty is here.

DISTRESSED BY STRIKE TALK OF GOING SOUTH

LOWELL, Mass., April 18.—Interest in the cotton mill strike is now centered in the result of the inquiry of the board of arbitration.

In any event, it is probable it will result in opening the mills. If it is in favor of the owners they will open the doors in the belief that the effect on public opinion will be sufficient to enable them to get a force big enough to operate. The effect of the strike on the town is most distressing, as little business is doing and a number of stores are closed. There is some talk among the mill owners of going south to avoid the labor troubles, but it is believed most of it is for effect on the men.

REAGAN IS HERE TODAY

CONFLICT BETWEEN STATES SUBJECT OF HIS ADDRESS

AT THE TABERNACLE

LAST SURVIVING MEMBER OF THE CABINET OF JEFFERSON DAVIS

HE IS AN OCTOGENARIAN

Will Be Met at Station This Morning by a Committee from the Sons' Camp and Escorted to Hotel—Mrs. Reagan Accompanies the Distinguished Veteran

At 8:30 this morning Judge John H. Reagan will arrive in Fort Worth. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Reagan and will be met at the Texas and Pacific passenger station by a committee of three, representing R. E. Lee Camp, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, and escorted to his hotel. The committee, appointed to greet him and make his reception pleasant is composed of W. P. Lane, O. W. Gillespie and I. J. Stockett.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the distinguished guest, who as every southern born man knows or should know is the last surviving member of the Confederate cabinet, will deliver an address under the auspices of the local camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans at the Christian Tabernacle. He will speak on the causes of the war between the states. Certainly no living person can speak on the causes of the great conflict, from the standpoint of the southern, with the authority that is possessed by Judge Reagan and from the historical standpoint as well as from that of interest, his address should prove one of the most profitable ever uttered in Fort Worth.

OCTOGENARIAN.

He is past 85 years old and, while one year ago his life was despaired of, his great vitality and will force pulled him through the crisis safely and for a man of his advanced years he is well preserved and vigorous. Every member of the local camp of Sons who has a uniform is requested to wear it today. Special seats are reserved for the children and daughters of the Confederacy. The Veterans will meet at 2 o'clock and march to the Tabernacle in a body; the Sons have abandoned their regular meeting and will report direct to the Tabernacle. Every one is invited to attend.

MAJ. GEN. CARNAHAN COMING TO FT. WORTH

Major General James R. Carnahan, of Indianapolis, Ind., has formally accepted an invitation from the local Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, to attend the annual state meeting in this city, beginning April 28. General Carnahan is the highest ranking officer of the order in the United States, and his visit to Fort Worth will be an honor to the city. General J. H. Tiller, of the Texas brigade, said yesterday that it is expected that there will be more than 2,500 visitors in Fort Worth during the annual meeting of the Knights of Pythias. Already a large number have signified their intention of attending and every day brings additional announcements of this nature. The Uniform Rank meet at this time, as do also the order of Bathbone Sisters, the ladies' auxiliary to the order of the Knights of Pythias.

OVER 200 PEOPLE AT FOOTE'S OPENING

Over two hundred people were in attendance at the opening ball of the summer season at Foote's Dancing Academy, last evening. The ball has been equipped with electric fans which were appreciated by the patrons of this popular place. Foote's dancing school orchestra furnished the music.

STOLE VALUABLE RUG FROM DIEHL'S

A gray fox rug was stolen from in front of the curio store, on Houston street, opposite G. Y. Smith's store, yesterday morning. J. W. Diehl, the proprietor, has offered a reward for the return of the same.

BALKAN SITUATION LOOKS VERY GRAVE

ROME, April 18.—Private advices from the revolutionary committee in the Balkans state that preparations for an insurrection are ready. The revolutionary committee asserts that the whole of Macedonia will rise and ask for the sympathy of Italy. In government circles here little faith is expressed in a general insurrection while partial outbreaks are regarded

CONSUL URGES RELIEF FOR "BUSTED" AMERICANS

PARIS, April 18.—Consul General Gowdy urges the establishment of a mission in Paris to look after "busted" Americans. He says hundreds of Americans are stranded in the French capital through no fault of their own. Many of them find a last resting place in the morgue. He urges that many valuable lives might be saved if such a mission was established.

BIGAMY CHARGE IS FOLLOWER OF FORGERY

Boyd Wilder, an account of whose arrest on two forgery charges appeared in an issue of The Telegram last week, seems to be in more trouble than was supposed. Telegram readers will recall that Wilder was arrested in Waco, with or he repaired with a Fort Worth girl to whom he was married in Dallas. The girl was left behind when Sheriff Honea brought Wilder to Fort Worth. It is understood that she has since returned to the city.

It now seems that Wilder will be tried on another charge—that of bigamy. He had a wife living when he married in Dallas. Wife No. 1, all unsuspecting, was living in Fort Worth. She heard of her husband's arrest and repaired to the courthouse, thinking she might be of some assistance to him. Her appearance there had exactly the opposite result to the one she anticipated. Whereas, she expected to loosen the bonds that held him in jail, she only tightened them when she told Assistant County Attorney R. H. Buck that she was Wilder's wife. Wilder will be tried here on the forgery charges and then will be taken to Dallas for trial on the charge of bigamy. In case of convictions in both cases the sentences will be cumulative.

KATY SUSTAINS A HEAVY LOSS IN WRECK

The Katy flyer, due in Fort Worth at 7:35 p. m., did not arrive until twelve hours after schedule time Saturday morning on account of a serious wreck at Caney, near Denison, Friday evening.

The engineer, Julian R. Ritter, was instantly killed. The train was torn up for a distance of fifty yards and the property loss of the company was limited only by the size of the train. An engine and caboose constituted the train wrecked. While running at a high rate of speed the engine jumped the track, the engine falling on one side and the tender on the opposite. Engineer Ritter was pinned in his cab and was killed instantly. The fireman escaped unhurt, his side of the engine being upward. The wreck occurred near the time of the arrival of the flyer at that point, the latter train at the time being one hour late. The engine from the flyer was used to remove the wreckage from the main line, and all traffic was delayed until a temporary track could be constructed around the debris.

GIRL FATALLY BURNED EARLY THIS MORNING

At 1:40 this morning Miss Mary Butler, aged 18, sustained fatal burns while in her room in the Hotel Byrnes, at 308 East First street. She retired with her sister Pauline, who is several years her junior, at the usual hour last night. The girls left a lamp burning dimly.

Pauline Butler was awakened early this morning by her sister's screams. When she awoke the bedclothes were on fire and her sister's night dress also was in flames. The lamp had fallen upon the floor. Pauline ran to the door, crying for help, her sister following her. In the hall the latter fainted from pain and fright. Dr. Covert was summoned to attend the injured girl. After a hasty examination he pronounced her injuries fatal. The mother of the two young women resides in Glenwood. She was sent for and arrived in a hack at 3 o'clock this morning.

GILVIN HAS A BIG TASK

NEW ASSESSOR ASSUMES DUTIES TOMORROW

SOME RECENT SALES

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS OF THE PAST FEW WEEKS HAVE CHANGED SITUATION

NOTABLE INCREASES MADE

Prices Paid Show That Fort Worth Property is Rapidly Becoming Worth More Money Annually, and Tax Lists Are Therefore Materially Increased

It is announced that W. J. Gilvin, the new city tax assessor and collector, will assume active management of his office tomorrow. His deputies already have been named by The Telegram—Robert G. Littlejohn; Lem E. Day and B. G. Martel. It is understood that he will appoint one other deputy.

Assessor Gilvin is face to face with an unusually difficult problem. He must decide how much advance there has been in property values recently. The "old" Parker-Lowe corner at Sixth and Houston streets sold last week for $52,500. It is on the tax books at $22,000, so that the lucky owners of it were getting considerably less than a dollar tax rate, whereas the law provides that the rate shall be $1.75 on the $100.

JAHN'S CORNER

The Jahn's corner, at Eighth and Houston, which sold recently for $25,500, is on the tax rolls at $9,000, so that this corner was listed at less than half the value it was able to bring in the open market. The old Parker-Lowe corner is at present rented for 9 per cent net on $55,000. The assessments named were made for the first day of January, 1902, or fifteen months ago. It was some time after that date when actual work on the packing houses was inaugurated. If those figures were correct at that time there has been an immense increase in the value of realty in Fort Worth since that date, and it is the duty of Assessor Gilvin to ascertain in what this increase in the aggregate has been and get it on the tax rolls.

80 PER CENT PLAN

For some reason or other it has been the plan of past assessors to make their assessments at 80 per cent of the estimated value of property. In speaking of the increase in property values in Fort Worth, Deputy Assessor Lem E. Day, who will hold the same position under Mr. Gilvin that he held under his father, Captain G. H. Day, the outgoing assessor, said yesterday: "The increase in realty values has been large since January 1, 1902. People who were willing to sell lots for $1,000 at that time are holding them at $3,000 now."

SOME INSTANCES

A prominent Fort Worth man recently offered $22,000 for fifty feet on Main street between Fifth and Sixth, on which there is a building. The property is owned by parties in another city. The offer was rejected; he then offered in succession $25,000, $27,000 and $30,000, thinking that surely the last bid would result in a deal. But he was surprised when he received a telegram notifying him that the property was withdrawn from the market and was not for sale.

Several recent discussions in the city council have shown that that body feels that the big corporations of Fort Worth, including the railroads and the street railway company, are not on the books for sums that adequately represent their values and it is expected that the new assessor will devote particular attention to this matter in his next assessment.

FRATERNALISM WILL BE HIS SUBJECT

An address on the subject of "Fraternalism" will be delivered at the hall upstairs, corner Main and Second streets, Wednesday, April 22, at 8 p. m., by Mr. Adams of Denver. The meeting will be under the auspices of Loyal Lodge No. 549, F. W. of A. Music for the evening will be furnished by Mesdames Brantly and Cowan, and Miss Bessie Baulman. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody.

DALLAS, Tex., April 18.—Dr. Graves telephoned as follows tonight at 10:35 o'clock: "Judge Hurt is slowly sinking. His condition is worse than on yesterday. He is unconscious. At the rate of sinking for the past 24 hours he may possibly live forty-eight hours, but I look for the end sooner."

WILHELMINA MUST LOOK AFTER NAUGHTY SOLDIERS

BERLIN, April 18.—It is understood that the kaiser has determined to take drastic steps to put a stop to army officers murdering and maiming civilians who are guilty of trivial breaches of military etiquette. The people are thoroughly aroused and if the kaiser does not act in all probability the people will deal with the murderous ruffians in uniform.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY DEFENDANT IN SUIT

D. B. Crabill Seeks to Recover $1,995 Alleged Damages—Verdict for Fort Worth and Denver City Railroad Company. Other Court News

A damage case was filed in the office of the clerk of the Forty-eighth district court yesterday, entitled D. B. Crabill vs. the Western Union Telegraph Company, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover $1,995 alleged damages for purported delay in the delivery of a telegram.

The attorneys for the plaintiff are W. P. McLean and McLean & Scott, through whom he alleges that on Dec. 23, 1902, while his wife and baby were visiting at Mena, the baby was taken suddenly ill, and that Mrs. Crabill wired her husband to come at once, that baby was dying. The plaintiff alleges that no message was received and that he did not know of his daughter's illness and death until Dec. 25, after the remains had been interred. The telegram, he charges, did not reach him for twenty days. The charges further allege that the plaintiff resided at that time at No. 829 Daggett avenue, and that the telegram was interpreted "Dazard ave." as relating to the street.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT

A verdict for the defendant was rendered yesterday in the damage case of John Darsah vs. the Fort Worth and Denver City Railroad Company.

NO VERDICT

The jury in the case of William Harrington et al vs. George Davlin et al, a suit for alleged trespass, failed to agree. W. E. Simms vs. Atkinson Shoe Company is the title of a garnishment suit filed in the Forty-eighth district court yesterday.

SEVENTEENTH DISTRICT COURT
A decree was signed in the Seventeenth district court yesterday, granting a divorce to the plaintiff in the case of Johanna Shaw vs. George Shaw.

COUNTY COURT

In the county court yesterday, C. E. Blair pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated assault and was fined $50.
Ben Cecil, on a plea of guilty to the charge of adultery, was fined $100.

REPORTS SHOW EXCELLENT WORK

FIRE AND POLICE DEPARTMENTS MAKE A SPLENDID SHOWING

Two of the most interesting reports submitted to the city council Friday night were those of the fire and police departments, submitted respectively by Chief J. H. Maddox and Chief William Rea.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

The showing of the fire department was a remarkable one and is perhaps not equaled by any city of similar size in the United States. For the entire year the department answered 167 alarms. The total fire losses for the year were but $40,406.21. Of this amount, $29,730.21 was covered by insurance, so that the net fire loss for the year for a city of 35,000 inhabitants and having a total property value approximating $19,000,000, was but $10,676. Not a single fire got beyond the control of the department.

It cost $26,120.23 to maintain the department for the year, or $4.28 less than the total fire loss. The insurance collected was $6,390 less than the cost of maintaining the department.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The most remarkable part of the report of the police department was the showing in regard to the recovery of lost and stolen property. The amount reported lost and stolen was $19,895. The amount recovered was $16,900. Considering the number of bogus reports that are annually submitted to the police department by parties who falsely state they have been robbed, for reasons best known to themselves, the percentage of recovery is wonderful, as the actual amount of stolen or lost property was probably much less than reported.

The department made 4,121 arrests. The total amount of fines assessed in the corporation court was $19,991.33. Fines collected in the city court amounted to $10,620.95, and fines worked out or escaped amounted to $9,970.38.

The department is composed of one chief, assistant chief, one captain, three detectives, five mounted police, one clerk, one patrol driver, one prison guard and sixteen policemen, a total of thirty men.

TEST FOR YOURSELF THE WONDERFUL CURATIVE PROPERTIES OF SWAMP-ROOT

To Prove What SWAMP-ROOT, the Great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of The Telegram May Have a Sample Bottle FREE.

Convincing Letters From Texas Men and Women Cured By This Wonderful Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

HOW TO FIND OUT IF YOU NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore when through neglect or other cause kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most because they do most and need attention first.

If you are sick or "feel badly" begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince any one.

Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable. Makes you pass water often during the day and obliges you to get up many times during the night. Unhealthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints and muscles, makes your head ache and back ache, causes indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, you get a sallow, yellow complexion, makes you feel as though you had heart trouble; you may have plenty of ambition, but no strength; get weak and waste away, scanty supply of urine, frequent desire to pass it night or day, with scalding or burning sensation—these are all unmistakable signs of kidney or bladder trouble and prove you need Swamp-Root.

If there is any doubt in your mind as to your condition, take from your urine on rising about four ounces, place it in a glass or bottle and let it stand twenty-four hours. If on examination it is milky or cloudy, if there is a brick dust settling, or if small particles float about in it, your kidneys are in need of immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is used in the leading hospitals, recommended by physicians in their private practice and is taken by doctors themselves because they recognize in Swamp-Root the greatest and most successful remedy that science has ever been able to compound.

No matter how many doctors you have tried—no matter how much money you have spent on other medicines, you really owe it to yourself to at least give Swamp-Root a trial. Its staunchest friends today are those who had almost given up hope of ever becoming well again.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need you can purchase the regular 50 cent and $1.00 bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root—Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

D. H. DEAN, 1808 State Street, Houston, Texas.
Suffered from Rheumatism for Nearly 20 Years; Cured by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

I suffered from rheumatism for nearly 20 years, during which time I was treated by the best physicians in my home city without any relief. Seeing an advertisement of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, I decided to try it.

After taking several bottles I now enjoy better health than I have before in many years. I can not speak too highly in praise of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and am recommending it to every one whom I see troubled the same as I was.

You have my full permission to publish my photo and above as you may desire for the benefit of other sufferers. Yours very truly, D. H. DEAN,

An Influential Marshall Merchant Testifies to the Merits of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

MARSHALL, TEX., Sept. 27, 1902.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

Gentlemen—For two years I neglected to give proper attention to the moving and shooting pains in my back and bladder. I did not then know the symptoms which sick kidneys develop, and therefore was ignorant of the cause of these pains.

Awaiting my turn in the barber shop I carelessly picked up a newspaper and as luck would have it the first thing that caught my eye was an advertisement of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, in which there was a testimonial of a man who said he was cured by this remedy, explaining his symptoms, which were similar to my own. I then realized for the first time that I had kidney trouble. I asked my druggist about it and requested him to recommend a cure. He advised me to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I took his advice and never regretted it.

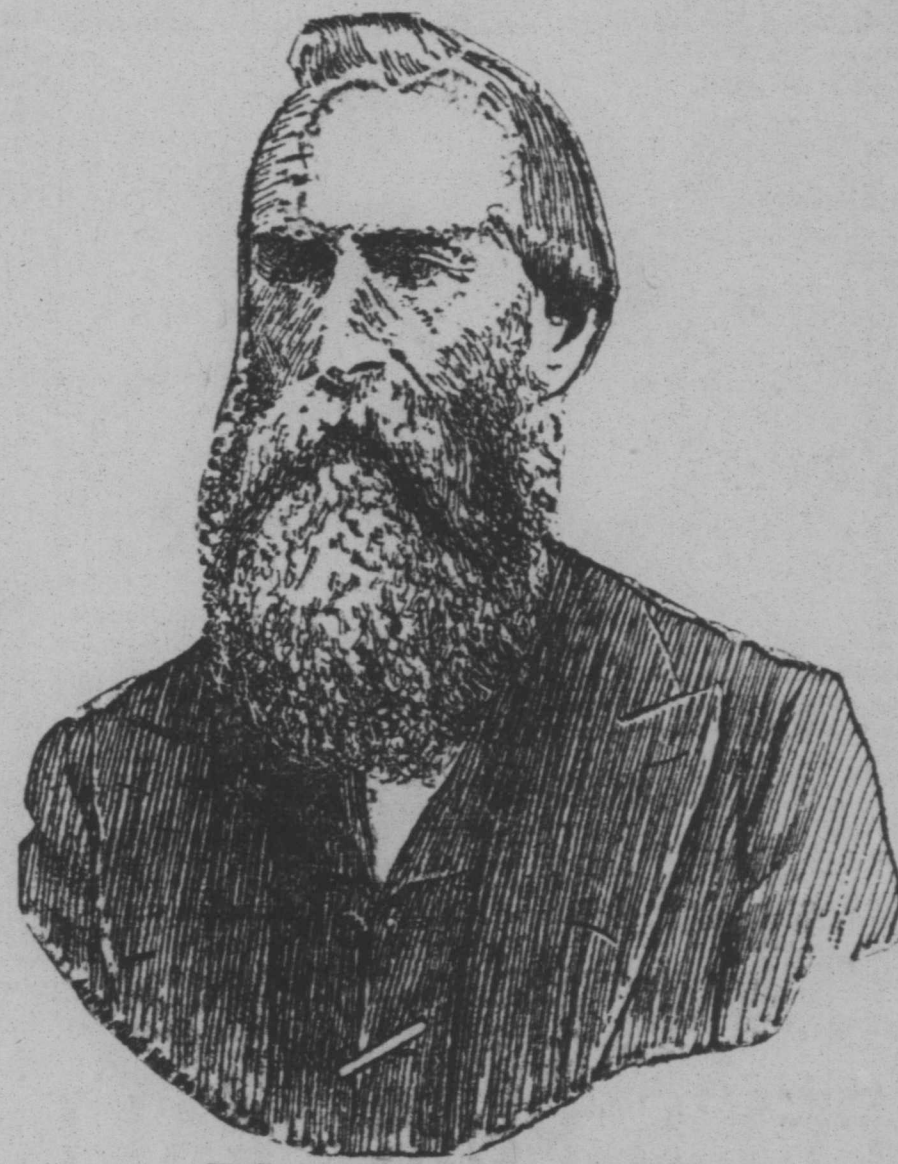

The first bottle I took had the effect of removing from my bladder a good sized diamond shaped stone, and with it two or three small pea shaped stones. With them came a discharge of blood. I consumed three bottles, and today am as well as I ever was in my life. This is all due to the wonderful remedy, Swamp-Root.

I have always been anxious to tell of this before for the benefit of other sufferers, but modesty held me back.

Whenever I hear of any of my friends suffering from kidney disease I am always ready to recommend Swamp-Root, which has done so much for me.

H. J. SNOW, M. D., Kaufman, Tex.
A Well-Known Physician of Forty-five Years' Practice Recommends SWAMP-ROOT.

To the Editor of The Telegram: KAUFMAN, TEX., Nov. 18, 1902.

Gentlemen—I have been engaged as a practicing physician in Kaufman, Tex. for the past forty-five years.

About four or five years ago several of my friends repeatedly called my attention to the results they had obtained from the use of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. At that time my own kidneys were giving me considerable trouble, and, unable to find more than temporary relief by the use of ordinary remedies, I began to use Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as an experiment, and was surprised to find that in a short time it relieved me and effected a permanent cure.

I have since recommended and prescribed it to my patients, many of whom have been cured of serious kidney trouble.

It is these cures, and others that have come to my notice here and in Dallas, that have given me the utmost confidence in the reliability and curative powers of Swamp-Root, and while it may be an unusual thing for a physician, yet I do not hesitate, in fact am glad to be able, to give my experience for this great remedy.

I will continue to recommend your remedy to all those who apply for an absolute cure for kidney and liver trouble. Yours truly,

H. J. SNOW, M. D.

Mr. John C. Graves, a druggist at Kaufman, Tex., says:

"I know the above statement to be true, as I sold Dr. Snow the Swamp-Root and know that he has recommended it to many who have purchased it from me."

Messrs. T. S. Pyle and Bro., another well known drug firm in Kaufman, Tex., says:

"We know the above statement to be true and correct."

A Prominent Texas Lady Testifies to the Benefits of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

The following testimonial is from Mrs. M. T. Pankey, wife of M. T. Pankey, a well and favorably known merchant who for the past ten years has been in the mercantile business on the corner of Peach and Elm streets, Fort Worth, Texas.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 22, 1902.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

Dear Sir—Last summer, while my husband and I were attending the great ex-Confederate reunion at Dallas, Tex., I was taken seriously ill with what was pronounced by the best physicians as Bright's disease of the kidneys in its worst form. I was carried home and the best medical aid summoned. After a consultation between skilled physicians they decided my case would prove fatal.

About this time an old girlhood friend of mine, Mrs. Rev. J. R. Abernathy of Plano, Tex., sent me word that a relative of hers had been taken ill the same way as myself and she was cured by "Swamp-Root," and she knew of many similar cases.

Mrs. Collins of this city, a neighbor of ours, also recommended it very highly.

I bought and commenced taking Swamp-Root, and dispensed with services of the physician who was attending me regularly. I commenced to improve as soon as I began taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I now feel entirely well, and can not speak too highly in praise of Dr. Kilmer's great remedy for kidney troubles, "Swamp-Root." Very sincerely,

MRS. M. T. PANKEY.

317 North Elm street.

MRS. M. L. COE.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

I feel so grateful for Swamp-Root, that I can not help writing you. I had inflammation of the bladder and other troubles. I became weak and run down, sleepless at nights and tired mornings, was in poor health off and on for over five years. I had four or five different doctors to treat me. They gave me some relief for a while, but I never felt that I was cured. The doctors did not seem to think that I had any kidney trouble, but somehow I felt differently about it, and having heard so much about Swamp-Root I concluded to send for sample bottle and the effect was so pleasing that I sent to town and got a large dollar bottle. I began taking it, and have had only two light spells since. Then I got the second bottle and took that, and have not been so well in five years. I cannot say enough in praise of Swamp-Root and what it has done for me, and how much better in every way I feel.

MRS. M. L. COE,

U. S. Has 3,536 Centenarians.

Almost Every One of Them Owes His or Her Ripe Old Age to DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, the Elixir of Life.

The census now being completed, shows that in the United States, with a population of 76,000,000, there are 1,289 men and 2,247 women of one hundred years of age or more. The leading nations of Europe have but half as many with nearly twice the population.

LENGTH OF LIFE INCREASING.

Quite a large number of these old people were recently interviewed and asked as to what they especially attributed their great age. In nearly every case the answer was hard work, freedom from worry, careful living, fresh air and Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey taken regularly according to directions. Duffy's is an absolutely pure, health-giving, life-preserving, tonic-stimulant, prescribed by all leading physicians and used in prominent hospitals everywhere.

As Well as 40 Years Ago.

Gentlemen: The benefit I derive from Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is marvelous. I owe my great age, vigorous constitution and remarkable freedom from disease to its daily use for many years. Though 104 years of age, I feel as young and hearty as forty years ago. My appetite is good and I still do all the chores. I cannot say too much in favor of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is a blessing to the old and sick. The Lord will surely bless the discoverer of such a great medicine and prolonger of life.

RALPH BULLOCK,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Hunt, who lives at 407 Adelphi st., Brooklyn, says: "My youthfulness and vigor are due to the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, my only medicine." Mrs. Hunt said: "I believe my long life and vigorous constitution are due to the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which I know has helped me wonderfully. If ever I take cold or contract a cough, I use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and my cough is quickly cured. I have a good appetite and sleep better than I have for several years. I am possessed of all my faculties and use no other medicine but Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I shall continue to use it as long as I live. It is, I think, the greatest blessing in the world for the old as well as the young."

On May 23, 1902, Mr. Miller wrote: "Though I am now past 104 years of age, I am today as strong and healthy as I was 50 years ago and still able to do a good day's work. I attribute my health, vigor and great age to the constant use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey daily for many years. It has kept me free from disease and prolonged my life 25 years. Duffy's is the greatest medicine in the world, a godsend to old people, and will never be without it. Yours truly, aids digestion, stimulates and enriches the blood, invigorates the brain, builds nerve tissue, tones up the heart, fortifies the system against all disease germs and prolongs life.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheek the glow of perfect health, take DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY regularly, a teaspoonful in a half glass of water or milk, three times a day, and take no other medicine. It is dangerous to fill your system with drugs; they poison the system and depress the heart (Quinine depresses the heart), while DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It contains no fusel oil.

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has stood severe tests for fifty years and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties.

The genuine is sold at all druggists and grocers, or direct, $1.00 a bottle. A valuable medical booklet containing symptoms and treatment of each disease and many testimonials will be sent free to any reader of this paper who will write Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Caution—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Unscrupulous persons, mindful of the excellence of this preparation, are seeking continually to put upon the market, for profit only, and will try to sell you, cheap imitations and so-called malt whiskey substitutes, which, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand "Duffy's" and be sure to get it. It is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey which contains medicinal, health-giving qualities. Look for the trademark, "The Old Chemist," on the label.

F. A. Lundberg Takes First Place at State Oratorical Contest Held in Sherman, and Is Accorded an Enthusiastic Demonstration on His Return Here

Students of the Fort Worth University outdid all previous efforts at celebrating last night, when their delegation returned from Sherman, bringing with them F. A. Lundberg, the victorious speaker in the state oratorical contest, which was held there Friday night.

Lundberg was the winner among the representatives of six Texas colleges, his oration, "The Supreme Age," being accorded the highest rank in thought, composition and delivery. His victory makes the fourth one of Fort Worth University in the seven years its students have been going after honors of this kind, the university having made its first entrance into the contests in 1896.

PARADE AND JUBILEE
When the Frisco train from Sherman reached the city last night bearing about forty members of the delegation who went from Fort Worth, they were met by all the students and members of the faculty who had remained here. There were also several of the university trustees, and the victorious orator was made the center of a ring of enthusiastic college mates.

A special stock yards car bearing the university banner and colors, had been chartered and with Lundberg and some of the trustees and members of the faculty, in a carriage leading the way the entire crowd rode slowly round the City Belt line, giving the university yells and making other demonstrations.

At the college campus Lundberg was carried around on the shoulders of fellow students and the demonstrations continued till supper time.

THE WINNER
F. A. Lundberg, winner of the state oratorical contest, is 27 years of age. He was born in Sweden and came to the United States when 9 years of age. He is of medium height and is the possessor of a commanding voice and excellent delivery. His oration, "The Supreme Age," shows careful thought and a rich store of language. It is full of optimism and belief that the present age is the greatest one in the world's history and that it has still greater triumphs in store.

THE CONTEST
The state oratorical contest was held in Sherman opera-house Friday evening. Six contestants from the Southwestern

PRESENT PRICES REASONABLE
CHICAGO, Ill., April 18.—"I consider the present prices for wheat in the country reasonable," says a prominent New York exporter who is just back from Europe and who is in the market now. "Even with the prospect of a crop of 800,000,000 in this country and of 875,000,000 bushels, including Canada, I think the markets about where they belong. The foreign crops are not promising well. A large share of the winter wheat of Germany has been re-seeded to spring wheat. The yield per acre of the latter in Germany is about one-half as much per acre as the winter. So there is a large loss in results if all the spring wheat is saved."

Wheat stocks abroad are small and the consumption has been astounding. Europe has taken 150,000,000 bushels of foreign wheat in thirteen weeks and has no better accumulations than before the big imports began. The ocean freights are at a minimum, and that means so much more for the grain. Europe is only paying 34c a bushel ocean tariff on the purchases it is making. I do not expect a sensational European demand and do not look for extraordinary wheat prices, but the prospect seems to warrant at least these present figures and to promise a fine season for the wheat exporter.

A feature in Great Britain is that all the large consumers of flour expect the new April budget to take the tax off of flour and wheat, and they are running along with no stocks. There is no improvement ahead for corn until the trash which has been marketed so far is out of the way. The spring in the United Kingdom is about three weeks early and the corn demand over there will be about that much delayed."

Bright's Disease and Diabetes Cured

University Chemist Acting as Judge.

Irvine K. Mott, M. D., of Cincinnati, O., demonstrated before the editorial board of the Evening Post, one of the leading papers of Cincinnati, the power of his remedy to cure the worst forms of kidney diseases. Later a public test was instituted under the auspices of the Post, and five cases of Bright's Disease and Diabetes were selected by them and placed under Dr. Mott's care. In three months' time all were pronounced cured, one of the most prominent universities in the United States having been chosen by the Post to make examination of the cases before and after treatment.

Anyone desiring to read the details of this public test can obtain copies of the papers by writing to Dr. Mott for them.

This public demonstration gave Dr. Mott an international reputation that has brought him into correspondence with people all over the world, and several noted Europeans are numbered among those who have taken his treatment and been cured.

The doctor will correspond with those who are suffering with Bright's Disease, Diabetes or any kidney trouble, either in the first, intermediate or last stages, and will be pleased to give his expert opinion free to those who will send him a description of their symptoms. An essay which the doctor has prepared about kidney troubles and describing his new method of treatment will also be mailed by him. Correspondence for this purpose should be addressed to IRVINE K. MOTT, M. D., 161 Mitchell Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OLD SAM WOODY'S OATH AND HOW HE KEPT IT

BY J. C. TERRELL

During the period of reconstruction in Texas, returning to Fort Worth from, I think, the last term of the district court of Johnson county that was held at Buchanan, and arriving at Nolan river, I saw, newly camped there, Sam Woody of Deep Creek, Wise county. He had about ten yoke of oxen, two or three horses and two large wagons, which were loaded with goods en route to Fort Worth from Calvert, 206 miles distant, but then our nearest railroad depot.

The weather was warm and the moon being full I preferred traveling at night, but accepting Sam's pressing invitation, spent the night with him; so, stripped my horse and picketed him with the others.

There was not on all the frontier a bigger soul or a more companionable man than Sam Woody. One of the first settlers of Wise county, he was raised in the mountains of Tennessee, a neighbor of governor Bob Taylor. He was fond of the good things of this life, and at home, as in camp, lived like a prince: a man of great piety, his word was his bond. Fond of joking, he never descended to the vulgar, and never exaggerated. Nearly everybody knew him and he was universally beloved.

WAGON WHEELS LOCKED
I noticed that the wheels of his wagons were locked, and asked his negro man the reason. He said he didn't know. "That Mass' Sam made him lock the wheels every night, but 'twas mighty strange. Just before passing off to sleep my eyes again caught the sight of the locked wheels and of an old horseshoe nailed to the wagon box. This suggests superstition in the owner—that some mysterious connection existed between the horseshoe and the locked wheel. What was it? All men are more or less superstitious, but mountaineers, sailors and frontiersmen are especially so.

Without doubt it is caused by solitude, and for the same cause, I take it, such men as Napoleon and Cromwell, compelled to mental isolation, became superstitious. Reflecting thus, while listening to the heavy breathing of the oxen, the crowing of plover, and the barking of coyotes, Sam leisurely arose, stretched himself and relit his pipe. At risk of giving offense I asked why he locked his wheels. Edgar Poe asked questions of the raven and answered them himself. Perhaps I would have to do the same thing. But I was consumed with curiosity.

HE EXPLAINS
With rather an embarrassed look after an uproarious laugh, he said in substance: "Cap, just after the war I went down to Fort Worth with a load of wheat for Field & Man's gristmill, above the blue hole on Clear Fork, and loaded back with sugar, coffee and one thing and another. A hired man—a tenderfoot—was with me. Seeing that he was getting too full I told him to go to camp across the river, above the junction and to yoke the oxen to the wagon and that I would be along directly. He wanted to take the jug, but I retained that in my hand. In an hour or so I went over to the camp. Well, sir, that fellow had hitched up the team, loaded the maces, tricks, got up in the wagon, went to sleep and away the whole shebang marched for Deep Creek. Left with that jug of whiskey I was in a fix. It was a full moon, like this. I walked over ten miles before I stopped them, and every mile I swore in good earnest always hereafter to lock my wheels. When that fellow woke up he said, "Well, you've come at last?"

"You see, Cap, not being a Catholic, there is no way for me to be absolved from them oaths." I told him that I thought he was wrong. He replied that Bro. Veal also told him so, but that the Bible says: "Thou shalt make thy prayer unto Him, and thou shalt pay thy vows."

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the advertisement of H. C. Pettigrew & Co., who have closed a yearly contract with The Telegram. This is in keeping with the rapid progress of this fast growing store; this firm is making rapid strides to furnish all North Texas with the celebrated line of buggies handled and has adopted the motto of "get what you pay for." The firm's business house is at 110 and 112 Houston.

BORROWED A PACKAGE

And Learned the Scientific Value of Pure Food.
 Taking notice of little things is a valuable faculty in life, and many great discoveries have sprung from a humble source indeed.
 "One day," says a lady of Norwich, N. Y., a sister of the County Judge and Surrogate of Chenango County, "I noticed on a grocer's shelf the now familiar package of Grape-Nuts. I asked him to let me see it, read what it had to say for itself, paid the 15 cents required by the merchant and became its possessor.
 "At this time I had lost my desire for food, having suffered so terribly from indigestion and all of its attendant evils that no food agreed with me or attracted me. But from the time that I began to eat my first package of Grape-Nuts I began to improve, eating it every morning and frequently at noon and night.
 "I very soon found my whole strength coming back to me with an added force. I gained in flesh and also found I could eat what others did with relish without any ill effects following. In short, it has changed my life.
 "A few weeks since I visited a niece in Penn., whose stomach refused to care for any food put into it. Rice, whole wheat bread and other foods had to be pumped out ten hours after eating. I suggested Grape-Nuts and she ate it and when the contents of her stomach were siphoned out there was no trace of Grape-Nuts to be found; it had digested and been assimilated. She made great gains in strength and flesh while I was there and made the six-mile ride to Scranton three times, something she had not been able to do for three months previous." Some Realities and Possibilities Suggested By Greater Fort Worth Home Week

Field for Wholesalers Is Offered Here

BY C. H. DUBOIS

Fort Worth is the nearest city of any size to a territory of 25,000 square miles in all of which there is not now can there be any competing city.

This means the doubling and quadrupling of the wholesale trade of Fort Worth in the near future.

Fort Worth leads all the cities in the state in its jobbing trade of groceries and is making a fair showing in hardware, drugs, furniture, etc.

There is one house here doing a jobbing trade as a mere diversion, being a little extra work carried on in connection with a retail store.

A firm giving this line its whole attention could do a half million of business the first year, is properly pushed and when well established, run up to two or three millions.

There are two more houses in their line would be welcomed since prospective customers would go to St. Paul, where there were four or five dry goods firms, two more houses went into Minneapolis and it became recognized as a good jobbing point.

The same argument applies to a shoe store here in boots and shoes, wholesale trade, had the same result in securing trade in these lines away from St. Paul and in favor of the younger city where a shoe factory was established.

On the boundary of the region where it is estimated that the wheat crop this year will exceed 35,000,000 bushels and may reach 50,000,000, there is no house here handling, specially, sacks and binding twine.

What was said as to the immense wheat area of Northwest Texas and lands adjoining in regard to bags, paper and twine applies with even greater force to the sale of farm wagons and agricultural implements.

During the past year a large firm has established itself here in the manufacture and sale of saddlery, harness, etc. James K. Coas "caught on" at once and are doing a very large business but there is room for one or two more.

A new wholesale drug house has come in but instead of hurting the business of the established house, it seems to have stimulated it, for the latter is building a large extension to its block which had been big enough until there was competition.

Mayor T. J. Powell is winning attention throughout the country for his remarkable management of the finances of the city of Fort Worth during the past year.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE SHOWS FINANCIALLY SOLID CITY

Mayor Thomas J. Powell's annual message to the city council and the citizens of Fort Worth, acquainting them with the general condition and progress of the city, which was delivered at the meeting of the council held Friday evening.

In Minneapolis it was wheat and the wholesale men found that wheat sellers would rather buy where they had sold.

Room for more? Yes, of course, and "Room at the top" if the new firms have good mettle and metal and lots of it.

and an unoccupied house in the city.

The last city directory contains a record of 35,482 residents of Fort Worth, and puts the increase in a year at 4,735.

Predictions of 15,000 within four years are frequently made not alone by Fort Worth citizens but by hundreds of visitors who have occasion to visit this city.

It is practically certain that within four years 5,000 men will be working at the packing houses; over 2,000 are employed there now.

Weather Conditions

The Rocky mountain storm, noted Friday in Utah, has moved eastward to South Dakota, where it was centered Saturday morning; it was a well developed and typical spring storm.

Following is the weather record for the last twenty-four hours—minimum and maximum temperature, wind in miles per hour at 8 a. m. and rainfall in inches:

SOCIALIST LEADER TO LECTURE HERE

John C. Chase, the former socialist mayor of Haverhill, Mass., will lecture next Thursday evening at the city hall on the topic, "The World Belongs to Its Workers."

The lecture in Fort Worth is under the auspices of the Trades Assembly, and should interest every business and professional man in Fort Worth as much as it will the wageworkers.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Absorbent Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although I sometimes get more and better charcoal than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

SOME OPPORTUNITIES FOR MANUFACTURERS

Manufactures build up cities rapidly and substantially because they draw a population of workers who almost invariably spend what they earn in their home city rather than elsewhere.

They create a demand for raw material in the immediate vicinity and give it a largely increased value. The product goes out to advertise the city and gives it prestige as a business and producing center.

Cities like Cleveland, Pittsburg and Minneapolis which go in strong for manufactures soon distate all competitors which are merely so-called trade centers.

Fort Worth has not one but two great staples as the basis of successful manufacture, viz: Wheat and provisions. Our mills as will be shown in detail in the special number of The Telegram, now run night and day and produce two-thirds of a million barrels of flour.

We have other lines of manufacture, which need not here be enumerated, the purpose of this article being to show rather what we need than what we have, to show what could be started here in the way of new lines, which would tend to build up our proposed Greater Fort Worth.

Entirely new lines may be suggested as follows:

A PAPER MILL. Common straw paper is manufactured all over the eastern half of the United States and sold at a profit, though the raw material costs from $2 to $3 per ton, according to location.

At a directors' meeting of the Geyer Oil and Development Company of Beaumont, Texas, held this day the following officers were elected: Colonel B. C. Rhome, president; Dr. W. B. West, vice president; Colonel A. M. Britton, secretary and treasurer and general manager.

COTTON MILLS

The cotton mills all over the south have been uniformly successful. Scarcely a

GOOD FOR CHILDREN

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and La Grippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.

Only $5.00 a Month

Dr. Robert E. Carlyle, will give all persons applying before May 2, an opportunity to be treated by the celebrated Magnetic Treatment, for the nominal sum of $5.00 a month, everything included. He wishes to impress upon the minds of the people that this offer positively expires on the 2nd day of May. Many cases are cured in one month's time. The medical profession amazed at the wonderful cures that are being performed. Hundreds of people have been unable to pay Dr. Carlyle's regular fees. Many have written requesting Dr. Carlyle to treat them at a lower rate. It is Dr. Carlyle's desire to give all the benefit of his treatment, and as all persons applying before May 2, for the nominal sum of $5.00 per month, everything included; this includes all diseases, and no matter what you may be suffering from you will receive as careful care and attention as you would if you were paying his regular fees. He wishes further to state that many cases are cured in one month's time, but if it should take any longer to complete a cure this low rate will apply until the desired result is reached. His offices during the past ten days have been a veritable mecca for those suffering from Deafness, Blindness, Lameness and all other Chronic Diseases that human flesh is heir to. Hundreds of homes have been made happier, and the people today are sounding the praises of his name. If you wish to take advantage of this unusual offer it is important for you to call as early as possible in order to avoid the rush that will naturally occur during the closing days of this phenomenal offer. He wishes to impress upon the people that this offer includes consultation, examination, treatment, including his famous Magnetic X-Ray examination. And no further charge will be made, but in order to get the benefit of it it is absolutely necessary to start treatment on or before the 2nd of May.

DR. CARLYLE'S MAGNETIC INSTITUTE,
No. 203 Houston Street, Corner First; 2nd up stairs. Office Rooms, 7 and 8. Fort Worth, Texas.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
Facts Truthfully Spoken—
As to my ability to do, come and see me. Suffered with inflammatory rheumatism for years and her arms made to bend and close her fingers in seven treatments.
Dr. Carlyle, Dear Sir:—
I wish to state for the benefit of those who are afflicted as I was, to not hesitate but try Dr. Carlyle's Magnetic Treatment.
Prior to April 6, 1903, I suffered with intense pain with inflammatory rheumatism which left me without the use of my arms. I could not use my hands or arms in any way, the pain was so great. I consulted some of the best physicians without any relief. My husband advised me to go and see Dr. Carlyle, the Great Magnetic Healer. I went to him and he said I had inflammatory rheumatism, and that he saw no reason why I could not be cured; I asked him how long it would take to cure me; he said it would take three months to effect a cure, but I would see a great change in seven treatments. I decided to be treated and in seven days he restored to me the use of my arms, and removed the rheumatic pains over my heart. I can't praise his method of healing too much or Dr. Carlyle, for restoring to me the use of my arms and hands.
Hoping that this statement will aid some one else to try Dr. Carlyle's Magnetic Treatment, I am, Yours very truly,
MRS. ADA J. NICHOLS,
North Samuels Avenue.

DALLAS, TEX., April 16, 1903.
Dr. Robert E. Carlyle, Dear Sir:—
Your favor of the 16th at hand and am only too willing to testify to your remarkable cure that you have performed for me, as I now feel perfectly cured of my paralysis and my hearing is as good as ever it was. Respectfully,
R. S. WALLAS,
Trust Building, Dallas, Texas.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 18, 1903.
Dr. R. E. Carlyle, Magnetic Healer, Ft. Worth, Tex. Dear Sir:—
In response to your request for a testimonial as to the results obtained for me through your treatment will say, that your treatment has entirely cured me. When I first called on you two weeks ago I was unable to walk without the assistance of a stick, but now thanks to you, I am a well man. Yours truly,
C. H. MLEAN,
208 West Fourth Street.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
Dr. Robert E. Carlyle, Fort Worth, Texas.
Dear Sir:—I wish to state for the benefit of those who suffer, that I suffered intense pain from rheumatism, and I could only get temporary relief. I decided to go and see Dr. Carlyle, the Magnetic Healer. I could not walk without the assistance of a cane, and I can state after the first treatment I threw the cane away, and I feel I am cured if I follow Dr. Carlyle's directions. And I believe any one else will stay cured if they give this method a fair show and follow the instructions given by Dr. Carlyle. Yours very truly,
GEO. W. REED.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
Dr. Robert E. Carlyle.
Dear Sir:—I desire to make this public statement for the benefit of those who are afflicted, hoping that they may obtain relief as I did. For over a year I had been in poor health, suffering from stomach trouble with gall stones. Everything I ate hurt my stomach, I could not even drink water without causing me great suffering. Since the first attack of gall stones I had had many additional attacks, each one increasing in severity until my suffering seemed unbearable. I had been treated by several physicians but could get no relief without morphine and it was losing its effect on me. When taken with one of these attacks I would suffer from one to three hours. The last attack threatened to be the worst I had ever had, my husband brought Dr. Carlyle, the Magnetic Healer, and he relieved me of that terrible pain in four days. I now eat anything I want without causing me any inconvenience. My health is better than it has been for years. I cheerfully recommend Magnetic Healing and Dr. Carlyle to all who suffer. Yours truly,
MRS. CARRIE MARTIN.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
Dr. Carlyle Cured Intense Pain in Seven Treatments.
I wish to state that I was badly hurt this fall by being thrown from a wagon in a runaway, the wagon running over my chest and right arm. Since that time I have never been able to use my arm and my chest gives me great pain, and I could get no relief. I went to Dr. Carlyle and took one treatment, which completely relieved me of all pain and restored the use of my arm. I cannot speak too highly of this treatment, and consider it my duty as well as a pleasure to recommend Dr. Carlyle to all who suffer. Yours very truly,
THOMAS JEFFERES.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
A Stroke of Paralysis—Paralyzed all over—Now able to do her own work.
Mrs. James W. Edwards says:—
"I believe that it is my duty to make this statement and hope it will lead some other sufferer to try Dr. Carlyle's Magnetic Healing. I am seventy-two years old, and have been paralyzed all over and was growing worse. My face was drawn, my speech was impaired and I was unable to walk or stand without assistance. My physician advised me to try Dr. Carlyle's Magnetic Treatment. Dr. Carlyle relieved me greatly in the first treatment. In seven treatments I was entirely cured. Now I can walk and talk with perfect ease and do my own house work.
I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Carlyle's Magnetic Treatment to all sufferers. Yours very respectfully,
MRS. JAMES W. EDWARDS.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
Cured of Sciatic Rheumatism in one week.
Dr. Robert E. Carlyle, Fort Worth, Texas.
Dear Sir:—I was a constant sufferer of sciatic rheumatism for eight months. I tried different kinds of liniments that were recommended to cure rheumatism, but with no permanent relief. I heard of Dr. Carlyle, and that he had benefited and cured similar cases, and possibly he could do the same for me. After the third treatment Dr. Carlyle gave me relief so I could sleep all night, and at the end of the weeks treatment I can say I am cured.
I can and do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Carlyle as a Magnetic Healer. Yours truly,
W. E. BINKLEY.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
A Man of Experience Recommends Our Course.
Dr. Robert E. Carlyle, Fort Worth, Tex., April 17, 1903.
After taking your course and instructions in Magnetic Healing, I began to work at once and I find that I can do anything, in healing that I undertake. I know you have given this subject years of experience and study. And know that your method of Magnetic Treatment is successful, when properly applied. Having witnessed some of the cures you have performed, I know that your methods are good. I can cheerfully recommend your ability as a teacher in Magnetic Healing. Yours truly,
C. L. HARPER.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
Our Treatment and Our Course Restored Him to Health.
Dr. Robert E. Carlyle, Dear Sir:—
I will say to all lovers of the truth, I will not preach a sermon, but it makes me so happy to know that your lessons of instructions have brought the hidden man to life, and teaches how to plan, when to possess and when to gather into the garner. I am growing thereby and working at it. Magnetic Healing is a wonderful blessing. The one treatment you gave and the course of instruction has cured me, I feel better than I have ever felt in my life. I have developed my self-conscious power, and can heal the afflicted by Magnetic Healing. I know I can do the work. All things are ours when we know the law, your method of treatment is positively correct and I am well pleased with your splendid course of instructions. Wishing you God speed, I remain, Yours truly,
P. W. SAMPLEY.

FORT WORTH, TEX., April 17, 1903.
Dr. Robert E. Carlyle, Fort Worth, Texas.
Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that for over a year, prior to December 10, 1901, I had been a great sufferer from acute inflammatory rheumatism in my knees. They were swollen tight and were very stiff and painful. When I would sit or lie down they would get so stiff that I could hardly get up. They were so sensitive I could hardly bear the weight of the bed clothes. I had used many kinds of liniments without any relief. On December 10, I went to Dr. Carlyle for Magnetic Treatment and in a weeks treatment the pains, swelling and stiffness was all gone. I was also cured for pain in the arm and shoulder, which made me unable to raise my arm above my head, this had bothered me for twenty years. Some time ago a horse stepped on my foot and mashed it. I had suffered from this ever since, but it was entirely cured in the weeks treatment. I feel better than I have for years and can heartily recommend Dr. Carlyle and his method of treatment. Yours truly,
LEWIS BROSMAN.

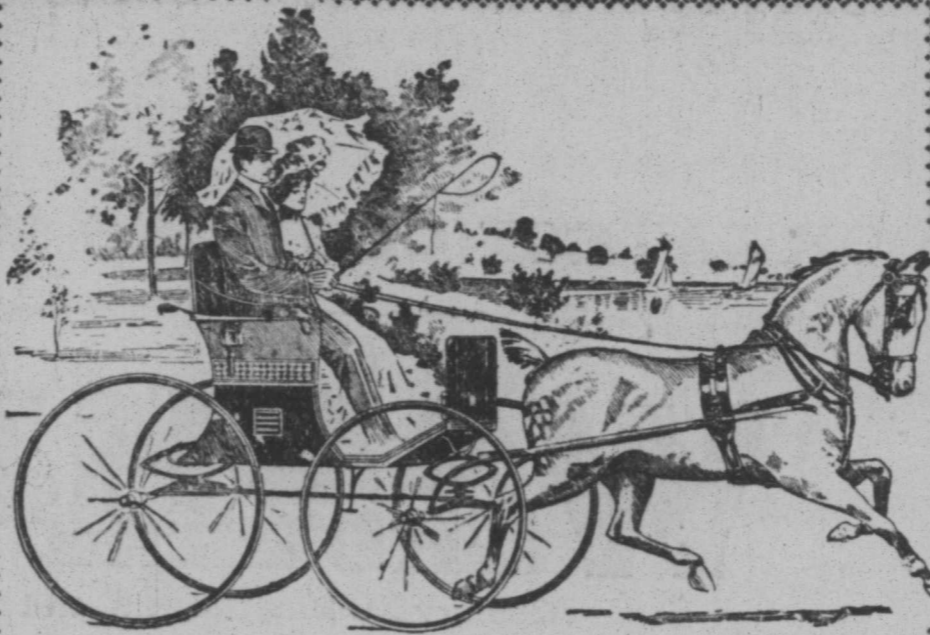

Restored to Health After Medicine Failed.
Dr. Carlyle, Fort Worth, Texas.
Dear Sir:—In answer to your request for word from me, will say that prior to coming to you for treatment I had been in ill health for six years, and for the past six months had been under constant medical treatment with no improvement. When I applied to you for treatment I was in a very bad condition and could scarcely ride to your office; my medical adviser said that I had nervous trouble and when my nerves were cured I would be all right. I was so nervous that I could not bear any noise at all. And I had a constant headache.
In consultation with you, you advised me that when the cause was removed my nerves would be all right.
Dr. Carlyle relieved me of the headache and all pain in the first treatment and I began to improve at once. I realize that he was treating the cause of my trouble instead of the effect, and in the short time of ten days I found all of my troubles removed and I feel perfectly well. I am pleased to recommend Dr. Carlyle's Magnetic Treatment, for it has done that what medicine could not do, restored me to health. Yours truly,
NORA D. FOSTER.

Had a Severe Pain in the Back—Was Cured in Three Treatments.
This is to certify that I suffered greatly with pain in my back all summer, this spring while in Ft. Worth. I was loading coal from a car to my wagon; I pitched a large lump and wrenched my back. This caused me such intense pain that I was hardly able to ride home. Although I thought skeptical about Dr. Carlyle's Treatment, I decided to let him try his hand on me. The first treatment greatly released me and after the third treatment my back was entirely cured and has not bothered me since.

Muscular Rheumatism Cured in Eight Treatments.
I wish to state that I had Muscular Rheumatism in my left arm for several weeks and had no relief and one day I happened to be at Dr. Carlyle's and he gave me one treatment which relieved me so much that I had him treat me, and after eight treatments I have had no return of pain since. I can heartily recommend his treatment.

GALVESTON EASY FOR FORT WORTH

SCORE IN THE FIRST GAME WAS 13 TO 3

Captain Lucid Knocked the Ball Over the Fence for a Home Run—Buchanan Fanned Fourteen of the Sand Crabs. Second Game Today

Fort Worth stacked up against Southern Texas League company yesterday and found the going to its liking. Indeed, if the local team encounters nothing more formidable in the Texas League than Gal-

CAPTAIN CON LUCID. He is the First of the Local Team to Knock the Ball Over the Fence For a Home Run veston proved to be yesterday, it will be cake-walking for the pennant. The final score was 13 to 3.

OVER THE FENCE
The feature of the game, aside from the excellent batting and base running of the locals, was the home run hit of Captain Lucid. It went over the left field fence on a line and was still going up when it was lost to view.

HOW RUNS WERE SCORED
Barrett was hit by a pitched ball in the first, stole second, went to third while Lucid was striking out and tallied on Conroy's error. In the third Barrett doubled and Lucid jammed it over the fence. Disch walked, stole second, took third on Fiedler's tap down the first base line, which the latter beat to first, and scored on Combs' out. In the fourth Bar-

WALKS WITHOUT CRUTCHES
I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons. All express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at H. G. Pangburn & Co.'s.

rett beat out a grounder that was fumbled for a second and scored on Lucid's double. Disch hit one through Hardy and Lucid tallied. Doubles by Combs and McMurray, the latter's being stretched by fast base running, chalked up another in the fifth.

In Galveston's half of the sixth the Sand Crabs got a start. Hardy got a life on a liner to center, on which Disch bobbed, stole the middle station and scored on Nelson's tap to center. Fort Worth pushed another brace over the plate in the seventh, when Fiedler walked, was forced by Combs, who took first when Hardy threw wildly to first trying to make it a double play; McMurray and Moynihan drove out hits and the runs went home. Barrett singled in the eighth, Lucid's out ticketed him to second, Disch's double sent him home and Fiedler's double ran Disch to the bench.

Notwithstanding the heavy scoring of Fort Worth the game was played in one hour and fifty minutes.

NOTES OF THE GAME
Blackburn for Galveston and Lockhead for Fort Worth will pitch today. Play at 3:30 p. m.
Manager Ward announced yesterday that fadies would be admitted free to all week day games throughout the season, barring holidays.

The street car company is not providing an adequate number of cars, nor is it running those that do go to the ball park at the right times.
To Manager Ward: Let the team get into the new uniforms today. Then it will look like a ball club in addition to being one.

Be Careful of the Children

Do you honestly believe your zinc-lined refrigerator to be a safe place to keep the milk you feed the precious baby? Read what Dr. Cyrus Edson, M. D., Sanitary Superintendent of the New York Board of Health, says on the subject below.

The Herrick. Old Style. "The Skeleton in the Closet"

"Her ice-box became the most dangerous thing in the house. This is true with such delicate foods as milk. There is a marked increase in the number of deaths from diarrhoeal diseases among children, so soon as the hot weather sets in, during which it is necessary to place the milk in the refrigerator. Children form the most delicate thermometer of health. Being more delicate, having less strength, being almost wholly without that reserve force of life we call stamina, they show quickly the evil effects of any cause. On the other hand, milk being a food in which the food elements are adjusted for digestion more perfectly than in any other, it will putrify more quickly than any other."

Parents should respect hygienic truth for the baby's sake, even though they do not for themselves.

PITTSBURG PAVEMENTS. They took a little gravel. And they took a little tar. With various ingredients Imported from afar: They hammered it and rolled it. And when they went away They said they had a pavement That would last for many a day.

But they came with picks and smote it To lay a water main; And then they called the workmen To put it back again; To run a railway cable They took it up some more; And then they put it back again Just where it was before.

They took it up for conduits To run the telephone; And then they put it back again As hard as any stone; They took it up for wires To feed the electric light; And then they put it back again Which was no more than right.

Oh, the pavement full of furrows; There are patches everywhere; You'd like to ride upon it, But it's seldom that you dare; It's a very handsome pavement— A credit to the town— They're always diggin' of it up Or puttin' of it down.

The pastor of a church in Connecticut resigned after a number of years of service and his congregation have had difficulty in securing a successor. They therefore have inserted the following paid advertisement in one of the local papers: "Wanted—A live, energetic pastor, capable of raising large sums of money, of smoothing out factions, of inaugurating new movements, preaching notable sermons, and in every way promoting the Kingdom of God in a great center of population. Must be a Congregationalist."

When they find a man filling these requirements will they please lead him to Fort Worth for a while. He might be able to bring together the property owners on Houston street as to street paving.

A St. Louis man fell in love with a telephone girl because of her musical voice. Here's venturing that he never heard her say "line's busy."

It is said there are in the United States 1,750,000 children between 10 and 15 years old who are employed at hard labor and $79,247 children between 10 and 14 years old who can neither read nor write. The number of children employed at hard labor in Massachusetts is 6,000, in New York 7,000, in Illinois 20,000 and in Pennsylvania, including the mines, 60,000. In Chicago, 60 out of every 100 children are illiterate and the attendance in the lowest grades in the schools is constantly decreasing.

Is it necessary to remind the clun women of Fort Worth and Texas that here is the greatest field for their labors yet made possible by modern conditions? The movement to prevent child labor by proper legislation before capital begins to employ it, was inaugurated in Fort Worth two years ago at a meeting of the City Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Drew Pruitt introduced a resolution that was unanimously adopted asking for the co-operation of club women in petitioning the legislature for an anti-child labor law. Since then the club women of Texas have worked unceasingly for legislative action and that they won at the last session of the legislature in spite of the strenuous opposition of a lobby sent to Austin by the interests that hoped most to profit by the work of little children.

The Texan, native and adopted, has his faults, though they do not look as large to those who know him well as to strangers, but to his eternal honor be it said he went on record as opposed to the commercial vultures that fatten on the lives of helpless children whose birth right is the opportunity for education, fresh air, exercise and freedom for healthful play.

In this triumph of the rights of the child a word is due the Texas labor organizations. They too left nothing undone that would place upon the statutes of Texas a law protecting a child from factory and long hours of physical labor.

THE SOCIAL SEASON

They set aside measures of direct importance to union labor to work for the bill setting an age limit on child labor.

But the child has also other rights. Though he be exempt from long hours at hard labor it by no means follows, as some kind hearted folk seem to think, that he is not to work at all. Work in moderation and of a kind that carries with it an educational value is as much his right as healthful conditions and recreation.

But where is he to get this training, which will combine work, education and recreation? There are many who believe that the industrial training school meets these demands. In every community and town there are a sufficient number of boys and girls to constitute a school of practical knowledge. On the streets of Fort Worth can be seen every day waifs of idleness, the offspring of ignorant parents who shrink in every possible way their responsibilities; children who profit not by the instruction of the schools, even if they go to school, because that instruction is from books, and very stupid books many of them are, while the child's mind craves action and the opportunity for manual exercise. The duty of parent or state, or parent and state, to minister to this need of the young, girls as well as boys, is a duty that as yet has not made itself felt in any pronounced measure. Since the trades unions have made it impossible for capital to employ child labor, will they not see to it that schools be supplied where instruction in the useful arts can be obtained, so that when the age limit be reached employment be not withheld on the ground of lack of skill? On this line of philanthropy the club women will be found active in interest and support.

Since it has been proved that these two powers in thought and action can work together and accomplish important results, why can they not unite their forces for providing opportunities for the young who may want to work? They have made it impossible for skill and mechanical knowledge to be required in actual employment. Is it not just that industrial training be given as a substitute? After all, is it not the man who works with his hands and brain the man who wins out in this keen competition between men in the race for success? How many young men today can repair any little accident to lock or key around the house? How many can mend a bit of broken harness if accident overtakes it away from sources of aid? How many can construct a cupboard, hang a door or solder a small leak in a pipe? Trifles to be sure, but it is the trifles that eat up the income and prevent the saving which is the salt that will never be put on the bird's tail.

Mrs. Sherwood in her recent art lecture has advised ceilings to be low if artistic effect is to be secured. This is giving some of us much concern. One Fort Worth woman is thinking of a sliding ceiling to be worked on pulleys, whereby the ceiling will be eight feet in winter and twelve feet in summer. She thinks by this plan she can be artistic five months in the year and comfortable the other seven.

An eastern physician says that the woman of this country will develop in the course of fifty years into a six footer, while the men will be not more than five feet ten. The Texas girl has already made a running start to accomplish this and the boys are determined that so long as cigarettes can be had from the time he is four years old and upward he will see that the doctor's estimate is not exceeded.

The man who has accumulated by economy, who has from a moderate income been able to get together respectable sums for investment does not share the American contempt for thrift and small things. But the man with small income is in the very great majority, and the education that helps him to a respect for the methods of living, that will make his income of the greatest purchasing power, is the education that is needed more than Greek or Latin, conic sections or logarithms.

Miss Edgington has issued cards for the afternoon of Friday the 24th, complimentary to Miss Eagon, Miss Boughton, Miss Crawford and Miss Margaret Crawford of Dallas, the hours to be from 2 to 6.

The '33 club' has issued cards for their reception at the residence of Mrs. B. C. Rhome on the afternoon of Monday, the 27th, from 4 till 8.

Miss Davison will give a recital at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett next Thursday afternoon. She will be assisted by Profs. Bauer and Belling.

Misses Daisy and Mae Evans will entertain with cards next Thursday evening in honor of Miss McGavock of Tennessee and Miss McCarthy, formerly of St. Louis, but now living here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barkdull of Henrietta have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Elise, to Frank A. Davis, Wednesday, April 23, at 12 o'clock. Miss Barkdull has been frequently a visitor in Fort Worth and has always been welcomed by the younger society folks, receiving many attentions. Mr. Davis is a well known traveling man whose friends are in all parts of the state. The congratulations of Fort Worth friends are shared by those in many Texas towns. The wedding, by the way, is the culmination of a pretty romance that began at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Howell. At this event Miss Barkdull was a bridesmaid and Mr. Davis a groomsmen.

The last of the dances for the season in the rooms of the Commercial club was the cotillon Thursday evening. It had been some time since the habitues of these dances had been together for one of these pleasant evenings and enjoyment was pronounced and apparent. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Stonestreet, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Camp, Mrs. Barron, Misses Pendleton, Larimer, McLean, Bessie McLean, Tarlton, Elizabeth Tarlton, Slaughter, Labatt, Stripling, Laing, Beall, Boggs, Croom, Crowley, Ellis, Crittenden, Chalk, Carter, Hollingsworth, Cannon, Bartels, Harrison, White, McCarty.

Major Elliott, Drs. Barber and Pollock, Messrs. Ridgway, Williams, Martin, Kretz, Van Zandt, Bauer, Maddox, Collett, Arnold, A. D. Smith, Nixon, Cheatham Beck, Saunders, Robert McMillin, Andrews, Adams, Malone, Davis, Nixon, Elgas, Reynolds, Bowman, Ferguson, Stark, Henderson and Bishop.

The Ladies auxiliary to the O. R. C. gave their annual ball Thursday evening at Crooms hall. The attendance was large, the guest of honor being L. E. Shepherd of Camden, New Jersey, the grand junior conductor who was here last week on official business. Miss Keboert's orchestra furnished the music which was unusually fine. During intermission refreshments of salad sandwiches, coffee and ices were served and then the dancing was resumed and continued with unabated enjoyment. In the earlier part of the evening the program was varied by recitations, Miss Lenora Bechler's "Angelina Johnson" proved so popular that there were calls for another selection, "The Universal Habit" or "She felt of her belt at the back" received further applause.

The reception committee, Mrs. Conlisk, Mrs. Gossett, and Mrs. McEwen were indefatigable in introducing strangers and welcoming hearty welcome. John Duffey assisted the committee by acting as floor manager.

The Ladies auxiliary has a large membership, the president being Mrs. W. R. Bell and the secretary Mrs. M. N. Foster.

The Children of the Confederacy held their regular literary program Wednesday afternoon, the attendance of members being augmented by several interested visitors. The following was the program: Piano, Virgie Lyle. Paper, "The Confederate Cabinet," Beasie Bibb.

Violin, Fannie Fern Masterson. Sketch of the poet priest and reading of the "Sword of Lee," Annie Andrews. Piano, Minnie Luther. Reading, John Adams, Elizabeth Hovenkamp.

Questions on the Confederate flag, its origin and changes, by Miss Melton, the director. The chapter will attend the lecture of Judge Reagan this afternoon in a body. The children enjoyed merriment of a different kind Friday evening, meeting in their rooms for a dance, Mrs. Melton paying for them.

The Gibson Girls met Wednesday with Mrs. J. M. Collins for the first time after last meeting giving even greater zest than usual to the afternoon. A handsome plate was the prize and was won by Miss White. The guests were Miss Edgington, Newlin, Triplett, White, Hornby, Hogsett, Bradley, Carter, Hyman, Stratton of Cleburne, Horsley, Spencer, Bennett Montgomery, Messdames Burke, Burns, Beckham, Shepherd, Cole and Cook, Morton and Gay.

Mrs. Cook will entertain the club next Wednesday afternoon. Last Thursday afternoon the members of the Progress whist club met with Mrs. H. Brann and remembering that the day was the anniversary of her birth they brought with them many handsome presents. The members of the Jewish Women's council sent as their remembrance, a silver inlaid fountain pen of exquisite workmanship and beauty. For this token of esteem and appreciation Mrs. Brann returned eloquent thanks.

Misses Kalisky of Chicago, Magruder, Weltman and Schultz were the guests. Score was kept on Easter bells of pink and blue enameled cards, the club prize a Limoges plate going to Mrs. Neumann, the purchasers prize, a set of Miss Kalisky and the consolation, a half dozen Haviland bread and butter plates, to Miss Schloss.

Fruit nectar was served throughout the game and lobster salad with mayonnaise dressing, stuffed olives, salted almonds, ice cream, cake, and coffee came as an ideal luncheon at its close. Mrs. M. Alexander will be the hostess this week.

When the Kensington Klub meets for the first time after Lent, there is always an atmosphere of pronounced enjoyment, and on last Thursday afternoon all of the members in the best Kensington Klub spirits were the guests of Mrs. Chamberlain. One member only being unable to attend. The needle work shown would have delighted an artist, and after an afternoon of conversation they were served with salads, olives, cheese crackers and coffee, and a desert of such enticing flavor, that before the guests knew a prize was to be given the one who first could analyze its construction, it had disappeared.

Those present were: Messdames Hart, Waller, Johnston, Murphy, Ramage, Scoble, Clayton, George Clayton, Covert, Laster, Jud, Wardlaw, Frost, Haines, Melton, Moore, Hurlburt, Goetz, J. H. Melton, Shropshire, Poole, Shilton, Beard, Triplett, Misses Clayton and Melton. In welcoming and assisting in dispensing hospitality Mrs. Chamberlain had for aids, Misses Chamberlain, Zane-Oeltl, Wells, Triplett, Ellis and Davis.

Pauline Strippling, Jessie Ross, Minnie Lee Maddox, Louise Slaughter, Nona Forbes, Florence Mary Jones and Martha Mayfield, met Friday with Pauline Strippling, and at once there were all sorts of jolly buzzings. This is one of the newest of the young folks clubs, and the coming of summer vacation will find them prepared for freedom from school duties.

The Kalph's festivities at Dallas last week were of great interest to our society folks, the parade specially attracting them in numerous parties. In one party were Dr. and Mrs. Capps, Misses Hunter, Van Zandt, Pendleton, McGlone and Beall.

The Kalph's ball seems to have been a great success. The costumes and management appealing to universal admiration. The Fort Worth guests were Miss Saunders, who was maid in waiting to the queen; Mrs. Scott, a dowager in waiting; Mrs. George Thompson, Misses Nellin, Edrington, Florence Smith, Boland, Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Menefee, Messrs. Harrison, Wynne and Paddock.

The members of the Entre Nous Club were the guests at a dance Friday evening at Croon's hall, as were a number of pretty maidens who are friends of the club. The dance was chaperoned by Miss Cante, Thompson, Pollock, Camp and Coppage. The grand march was led by Harry Shedd and Nina Coppage.

The Calanthe Club was entertained by Mrs. E. B. Sawyer and Mrs. Walter Hart, assisted by Miss Annie Sawyer, at the residence of Mrs. Sawyer, 299 South Rusk street, Thursday afternoon with a gum modelling contest. A souvenir, consisting of a small heart fastened to a tiny saw was given to each guest with a package of chewing gum.

The club colors, red, blue, white and yellow, were used in the decorations and refreshments. In the center of the parlor ceiling was a wheel, the spokes being of smilax, and the flowers of these colors. From each spoke ribbons were attached extending to the corners of the ceiling. A heart and saw were suspended from the wheel, forming an altogether unique decoration.

The luncheon was of heart-shaped sandwiches, cheese straws, ice cream and cakes, in the club colors, and coffee. The guests found their places by means of heart-shaped place cards, decorated in water colors. The mandolin club furnished sweetest music during the afternoon.

The guests were: Mrs. W. B. Quincy, Moore, A. R. Shultz, Robert Cook, J. B. Colton, Robert Addis, G. B. Johnson, T. E. Coppage, T. T. McDonald, W. J. E. Evans, C. C. Taber, H. Gernsbacher, S. M. Lloyd, H. E. Sawyer and Miss Annie Sawyer.

It will be some time before society ceases to speak enthusiastically of Mrs. Winfield Scott's musical last Tuesday afternoon, and it will be even longer before those who saw that assemblage of beautiful and handsomely gowned women will forget the thrill of delight the scene called forth. It was one of the events of the season, every detail being of character and special elegance. The program was of much merit, such singers as Mrs. Ducker, Mrs. Connelly, Miss Redeker, Miss Edrington, Mr. Jones and Mr. Reese, with Mr. Shreiner as violinist, and Mrs. Metcalf as pianist, taking part. The following program appeared in Easter lily covers, ornamented with original designs in water colors:

- Duet..... Selected "One Morn and Fairest Daughter"..... Verdi Mrs. Ducker and Miss Redeker "Mrs. Ducker, Mrs. Connelly, Mr. Jones and Mr. Reese. "Zeigenerweisen"..... Sarasate Jacob Shreiner. "Spring Song"..... Becker "Violets"..... Lynes Miss Redeker. "Jack and Jill"..... Caldicot "Mother Goose"..... Mrs. Ducker, Mrs. Connelly, Mr. Jones and Mr. Reese.

Piano solo..... Selected "Protestations"..... Norris Miss Edrington. The reception of each number was enthusiastic, that following Miss Edrington's singing of the dainty song by Norris, being specially insistent, and in response thereto the refrain was repeated to the great delight of the guests.

At the close of the program the doors of the parlors were thrown open, and the guests paid their respects to the hostess, who was surrounded by a group of charming young debutantes, Miss Andrews of Dallas being among them, in a setting of floral beauty. There were palms in hard- some jardiniere and smilax in waving and graceful strands intermingling with Easter lilies, the only flower used in the decorations. The center table had for its chief ornament a mound filled with lilies, out of which rose, as if in conscious dignity, many stems crowned with dozens of fragrant blossoms. Silver candle sticks with green shades were a part of the brilliant beauty of the scene.

The lilies were served in lily cups, café au lait following. Mrs. Scott wore an imported gown of point d'arabe, in lily design, applied on pink Dresden brocade. The corsage had a shoulder yoke with jewel lilies, the whole costume being completed by clusters of diamonds, in hair and on the corsage.

The young ladies of the house party were Misses Hogsett, Saunders, Nash, Fakes, Bradley, Edrington, Slaughter, Boland, Cannon, Andrews of Dallas, Terrell, Newlin, Evans, Montgomery and Hornby. In their dainty lace trimmed white frocks, crowned by youth and beauty, they gave evidence in emphatic manner of the taste of a hostess who always chooses wisely, and in entertaining proves the supremacy of tact and graciousness.

The guests of the afternoon were: Mesdames Walker, Mitchell, Van Zandt, Mullins, Scott, McCart, Lassiter, Bryce, Collett, Cook, Evans, Harrison, Cole, Folsick, Edrington, Cobb, Bomar, Jennings, Moore, Hertford, Burke, W. R. Thompson, McLean, Jr., Barnes, McCabe, Saunders, Sandidge, Ransom, Murphy, Scott Wilson, Goggin, Carlock, Templeton, Sanguinet, Fruit, Dawson, Hovenkamp, Wray, Brazelton, Colvin, Lowe, Schencker, Strippling, Ross, Keeler, Singleton, Barney, Nell P. Anderson, Trammell, Davis, Galbreath, Tempel, Ellis, Bury, Grammer.

SAVE THE LOVED ONES Mrs. Mary A. Villet, Newcastle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horchound Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horchound Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at H. G. Pangburn & Co's.

Spoons, Paddock, McDowell, Miller, Ware, Hyatt, Fakes, Turner, Davidson, Collett, George Collett, Tillar, Shepherd, Clayton, Menefee, Jackson, Washer, Carter, Bailey, West, Waller, Burney, Capps, McNatt, Burnett, Ben O. Smith, Weaver, Rose, R. D. Thompson, Goode, Hawley, Robert Anderson, Beckham, Mathews, Terrell, Gross, Dunklin, Thompson, Cantey, Morton, Newby, Swaine, James W. Swaine, Byers, Humphreys, Williams, Newlin, Lawrence, Nash, Brady, Stephens, Horrenden of Chicago; Misses Swaine, Byers, Bennett, Nash, Carter, Tarlton, Elizabeth Tarlton, Davidson, Reese, Florence Smith, Horsley and Zanzotti.

Miss Bernie Newlin is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Shary in Dallas and will be later the guest of Mrs. Volk. She has been the recipient of many attentions and was the guest of honor at a charming luncheon given by Mrs. George Volk last Thursday. At this Mrs. Nash and Miss Nash were also guests.

Mrs. W. R. Thompson will entertain next Saturday evening in honor of Misses Cannon and Polk of Galveston and Miss Oxsheer.

Mrs. W. T. Scott calls a special meeting of the D. A. R. for tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. Hyman, corner of Sixth avenue and Prewett street. There is business of importance for the chapter, and Mrs. Scott urges all the members to be present.

Mrs. Collett entertained the As You Like It Club Thursday afternoon, high five being the game favored. The welcome of a gracious hostess was accentuated by decorations of great beauty and artistic arrangements. Mrs. Thompson won a mayonnaise bowl, Miss Evans a spangled fan, Mrs. McKnight a coat hanger and Mrs. Stephens a Gibson belt. The club will be taken during a complimentary party next Monday evening by Mrs. Winfield Scott. The week following the regular meeting will be with Mrs. W. R. Thompson.

The reception given by Mrs. Burney to Mrs. C. S. Battle yesterday afternoon was one of the pleasantest of the pleasant gatherings of a week that has been one of the merriest of the season. The decoration of the reception suite was of roses, and roses filled out of doors with the fragrance of spring and hints of summer joys. The curtain were draped with rose wreaths and bowls were filled with pink and white beauties.

In the house party besides the hostess and guest of honor were Mesdames Stonemets, Bomar, Williams, Slaughter, Conner, Ware, Bennett, Fruit, Goode, Bailey, Layton, McLean, Templeton, Hardman, Burton, Cook, Misses Wilkes, Slaughter, Smith, Terrell, Paddock, Nash and Hornby.

Dr. and Mrs. Covert entertained the Euterpeans last Tuesday evening, an occasion which will be remembered with the specially pleasant meetings of this club, which has been the recipient of many courtesies from well known and accomplished hostesses. Mrs. Jaccard was the director for the meeting, and the pretty programs with charming designs of wild roses on the covers prepared the guests for the excellent numbers. The programs were the work of Mrs. Harvey Hubbard and are considered worthy of preservation as artistic souvenirs.

The program opened with a trio, violins and piano, by Professor Mueller and the Misses Davidson. The club has heard these musicians before, and their appearance called out many expressions of pleasure. A song by Miss Calhoun, rendered with expression and the understanding, was followed by a recitation, "The Soul of the Violin," by Mrs. Thornhill, with piano accompaniment by Miss Laneri. As usual, Mrs. Thornhill was applauded with enthusiasm, as was Miss Laneri, who gave a piano solo, a Chopin selection, as would be expected from an accomplished musician. Miss Davidson, who has recently returned from Boston, where she has been studying for some time, sang with the style of a student who has profited by good instruction and gave promise of future achievements of unusual merit.

Mr. Armstrong, a master of style, was heard in one of his finest selections, Mr. Higbee overnished with laughter with his humorous selections. Mrs. Hunter Gardner told the story of the adventures of a parrot and for encore she sang of a dusky damsel, both in the inimitable style that has given her a reputation as one of the most accomplished readers of dialect on or off the professional platform.

Mrs. Gross sang with sweetness and sympathy a selection by Nevin, the program closing with a quartet by Messrs. Estes, Irwin, Wyatt and Hubbard. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tillar, Mr. and Mrs. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Misses Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Jaccard, Miss Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Hovenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Higby, Mrs. Spoon, Mr. Pittner, Miss Laneri, Mr. and Mrs. Thornhill, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Captain and Mrs. Scoble, Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, Dr. and Mrs. Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Rawlins, Mr. Carter, Mrs. Gardner, Miss Roy, Miss Martin, Messrs. Estes, Wyatt, Irwin and Hubbard.

HAVE YOU Ever Written a Toast If not we would urge you to do so. It is easy when under the inspiration of Dr. Pepper THE YEAR ROUND $15.00 We announced in this paper last Sunday that we would give to the person writing the best toast on Dr. Pepper $15.00, to the person writing the second best $7.50, and to the person writing the third best $2.50. There is no objection to writing more than one if you care to. There is no restriction whatever on these lines. What we want is to get you interested in the best all year round drink in the world, and the more you write about it the more you will think about it, and then the more you will drink it. YOU CAN'T DRINK TOO MUCH That is, it will never harm you. It is not only a most pleasing but a most healthful drink. It sharpens the wits, quenches the thirst and leaves a pleasant farewell and gracious call back. Send in your toast at once. The contest closes April 28. You may win a prize—no telling. LATEST OFFICIAL QUARANTINE ORDER

Stockmen have recently suffered considerable annoyance because of their failure to become familiar with the latest order of the Bureau of Animal Industry regarding specially quarantined counties of Texas. The Telegram this morning prints amendment No. 2 of the order which is as follows:

"No cattle shall be moved nor allowed to move from counties of Hardeman, Foard, Wilbarger, King, Knox, Haskell, Stone, Jones, Fisher, Scurry, Garza, Borden, Howard, Mitchell, Glasscock, Sterling, Irion, West, Tom Green, Upton, Crane, Throckmorton and Baylor, and the western portion of Pecos county to any of that territory in the state of Texas lying west and north of said counties, except after having been inspected and found free of infection by a duly authorized inspector of this department or of the state of Texas, and upon written permission of such officer. The cattle from said counties shall be moved or allowed to move to any state or territory outside of the quarantine district (except as provided for immediate slaughter) unless they have been duly inspected and passed, and permit issued by inspector of this department, nor until permission has been obtained from the proper officials of the state or territory to which said cattle are destined."

TO CHARTER SPECIAL CAR TO BEAUMONT

The T. P. A's contemplate chartering a sleeper to Beaumont on April 22, to accommodate the crowd who contemplate attending the convention, provided a sufficient number can be procured. This sleeper will be run over the H. & T. C. The Beaumont people have arranged to entertain them in great style. The rate will be $11.75 for the round trip.

He heads the subscription list as one of thirty to raise the amount and opened a list in the Evening Mirror today.

Weak

And Run Down—Pain and Insomnia.
No Appetite—Food Did Not Digest.
Dr. Miles' Nervine Completely Cured Me.

Lucky the sufferer from nervous diseases whose symptoms are as plainly marked as those of Mr. Powell, as given below. Too often the symptoms are mistaken for some derangement of the digestive organs and the wrong treatment administered and continued until too late to make a change beneficial. Too many doctors make the mistake of trying to cure the symptoms instead of the disease. Dr. Miles' Nervine goes to the seat of the trouble, strengthens the nervous system, puts life and vigor into every muscle, every fibre, every tissue, every nerve cell. There is nothing so good for the nerves as Nervine.

"About four years ago I suffered from pains around my heart, and after the least exertion it would pain me in such a manner as to cause me much distress. I had a feeling of oppression in my chest, was nervous, could not sleep, lost my appetite and flesh, had pains in back and shoulder, my food did not digest and I could not eat anything without causing distress. My feet were cold at times and I became exceedingly weak and all run down. I tried ten different doctors, one or two of whom gave me temporary relief. Finally I saw that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine was advertised to cure sufferers from such nervous disorders as mine and procured a bottle. I am now permanently cured and I cannot say enough for the Restorative Nervine."—H. L. POWELL, Henderson, N. C.

HAS SEEN FOUR FLAGS IN TEXAS

Seventy years ago there came to Texas from Nashville, Tenn., Dr. B. Goodrich, a young physician who had just returned from a Philadelphia medical college. With him came his wife and baby daughter six weeks old. They settled in Washington county where Dr. Goodrich became a valuable member of the community, identified with its best interests.

That babe became one of the belles of early Texas days and now, crowned with years and honors, is a citizen of Fort Worth, surrounded by children, declaration of independence, a noted jurist and for many terms a member of the legislature, was the brother of Mrs. Scoble's mother. For him Grimes county was named.

Sam Houston was an intimate friend of my father's," says Mrs. Scoble, "and we often had him as our guest as he made his journeys through our part of the state. When he began that famous retreat across the state he foresaw that there would inevitably be a battle with Santa Anna on Texas soil, and he ordered all American families to withdraw across the Sabine. We grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mrs. A. W. Scoble saw the flag of Mexico fall before the victorious hosts of Houston at San Jacinto. She saw the birth of the Lone Star of the Texas Republic and watched it as it joined its splendor with the stars of the American Union. When the fortunes of Texas were cast with the Confederacy, she saw the Stars and Bars wave for four brief years, and then again the Stars and Stripes of a united nation.

Mrs. Scoble has a memory stored with incidents and anecdotes of these seventy years from the days when her father was an officer of the Mexican government through the stirring and epoch making periods that followed. When the Bustemante decree was issued Dr. Goodrich was one of the first to accept the issue, and to demand the right guaranteed by the terms of immigration. He was a delegate to the different consultations, and a signer of the declaration of independence.

He was appointed a surgeon for the Texas army before the battle of San Jacinto, but was detained at home by a serious attack of pleurisy and did not arrive at Buffalo Bayou until after Santa Anna's men had gone down before the men who remembered the Alamo and Goliad.

With Travis at the Alamo had been John Cathoun Goodrich, Dr. Goodrich's brother, and the avenging cry of the Texans found echo in a brother's heart. Judge Jesse Grimes, a signer of the got together all our belongings that we could well carry and started in a great hurry across the line. There had been much rain and the river was very high and we had to cross in a very boat. We camped until the battle was over and then returned home. We found everything at home in good condition. There had been no damage by the Mexicans as General Houston had been too prompt in falling upon them. They had no time for rascals.

"While we were living in Grimes county the Indians made a raid and carried off Cynthia Anne Parker, Wesley Berryman, a courier, came through the county warning everybody to hide out. We camped in a deep ravine until the Indians had passed through and all they got was my father's horse, he had only one, though they killed our dog.

"The Indians used to visit the plantations every year and dance for corn. They were too lazy to work and they took this way to get feed for their horses. The men and women would come with their faces painted and their heads all filled with feathers and would circle around a great tree and dance for hours at a time. The master of the house would tell them to go to the fields and help themselves. After a while, though, this got to be a great nuisance. They took off such quantities that the folks got tired of it. They were the Bedies and Choctaws, both very friendly tribes, even if they were too lazy to work.

"The parties for young folks then were just as jolly as they are now, but were managed quite differently. We went ten or twenty miles to a neighbor's house, going on horseback and carrying our party dresses in our saddle bags. We got there by early candle light and danced all night until day-break of the next day so that we would see our road home. It never hurt anybody, either, that I ever heard of, though now we are always worrying if our young folks stay out after 11. But then times have changed.

"Fifty years ago this month the peas were all growing and in bloom, and early vegetables nearly ready for the table, when we had a spell of weather that would surprise these newcomers considerably, I expect, if it were to be repeated. It began snowing one morning and snowed several hours. It did not hurt the peas or fruit, and did no greater damage than give everybody the biggest surprise they ever had—and something to talk about for a long time afterward."

Mrs. Scoble has been married twice, her first husband being John B. Harris, after whom Harris county and Harrisburg, the first capital of the Republic, was named. The children of this union are Mrs. R. H. Barnes, John B. Harris and Ben Harris, all of whom are now residents of Fort Worth. Mrs. Briscoe of Houston, who recently died, was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Scoble, Capt. and Mrs. Scoble have only one child, Mrs. J. D. Cover.

Diabetes and Bright's Disease.

Interview With Edward Short of the San Francisco Call.

Mr. Edward Short, connected with the business department of the San Francisco Call, interviewed:

Q.—You are reported to have been cured of diabetes?

A.—That is right.

Q.—Are you sure it was diabetes?

A.—I was rejected for insurance, and later falling rapidly, our physician told me I had diabetes and to put my affairs in shape.

Q.—Have more than one physician?

A.—Yes I had another confirm it. He, too, said I could not live long. I had dropped from 120 to 115 pounds and was very weak.

Q.—How long did you have to take it?

A.—About a year before I was perfectly well.

Q.—Did your physicians then test for sugar?

A.—Both did. Both reported normal. They were very greatly surprised at my recovery, for they had told me diabetes was incurable.

Q.—Know of any other cures?

A.—Several. I told my friend, William Martin, an S. P. conductor of Stockton, about it. He had diabetes, and was about to give up his position when I told him. He got the same results I did, and was well when killed a year or so later.

Q.—Any others?

A.—I told William Hawkins of the Custom, S. N. Castle, upon hearing they had diabetes. Both of them were cured. I also told a neighbor who had dropsy. In a month it was eliminated. I can't recollect all I've told.

Q.—Did it fall in any case?

A.—Not a single one. A positive cure in Bright's Disease and Diabetes, Go over and see Hawkins and he will tell you the same thing.

Medical works agree that Bright's Disease and Diabetes are incurable, but 87 per cent. are positively recovered under the Fulton Compound. Common forms of kidney complaint cured but short resistance. Price, $1 for the Bright's Disease and $1.50 for the Diabetic Compound. John J. Fulton Co., 433 Montgomery street, San Francisco, sole vendors. Free tests made for patients. WILL READ ANSWERS OF FIRST QUESTION

The service at the Christian Tabernacle Sunday evening will be somewhat unique in its nature. The pastor, Rev. James S. Myers, recently sent to about 100 of Fort Worth's thoughtful citizens six questions upon matters of vital and popular interest, inviting the frankest and briefest possible answers. The first one of these questions was, "What do you think of Christian Science?" The answers to this question will be read from the platform Sunday evening, and this will be known as People's service. There has been organized a People's Service Chorus choir of fifty voices, supported by an orchestra and the regular church choir, which will furnish music of a popular and attractive nature. Beginning with Sunday evening these People's Services will continue for six consecutive Sunday evenings. The brief comments of the citizens upon the themes suggested by the questions will be the prominent feature of each service.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC NEW SUNSET PORTERS

The Southern Pacific-Sunset route has inaugurated another decided innovation for the convenience of the traveling public, and at Houston a squad of blue uniformed and red-capped porters will be found at all hours of the day and night to handle the baggage of travelers to and from trains free of charge. The porters know all trains and on which tracks they stand, and their use will prevent confusion to strangers or to ladies and children, who heretofore have had to handle their own baggage, or let it be done by hotel porters. The Grand Central station at Houston is the first to adopt this convenience to the public, and signifies the further use of metropolitan railroad methods in Texas.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word, but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1867 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light coughs perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25-cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. W. L. Smallwood and Martin, Smallwood & Walkup.

NATIONAL COFFEE CO.,

Fort Worth, Texas.

Importers and Roasters of High Grade Coffees, Dealers in Spices, Condiments and Vinegar.

More and more do our people realize that the upbuilding of this great State can only be accomplished by the establishment of "Home Factories." The raw materials can be converted into the manufactured article in Texas just as well as in any state in the union, and the money circulates at home. Knowing this, we have at last come to the point where we tell each other with pride that we patronize "Home Industry."

Upon this basis the above Company has been founded, and we will prove to the people—aside from sentiment—what a great advantage it is to receive Coffee within twenty-four hours after it has left the roaster. Among our various brands, we call particular attention to our leader, "THE ALAMO," which it is our earnest desire to make as great, commercially, as that cradle of Texas liberty—after which it is named—is in history. We ask the people of Texas for their patronage and co-operation and feel sure we shall deserve it.

PIONEER SCHOOL OF HIGHER LEARNING

GREAT HAS BEEN THE SUCCESS OF FORT WORTH UNIVERSITY.

Exceedingly Bright Future for This Institution of Learning Under the Presidency of Dr. MacAdam—The School the Pride of Every Citizen of Fort Worth.

Increased interest is being taken in Fort Worth University with the announcement of the election of Rev. George MacAdam, to the presidency of the institution. In speaking of the history and growth of the University yesterday, one of the directors said: "Fort Worth University is one of the pioneer institutions of high learning in North Texas. Early in the 'eighties' it was chartered under the name of Texas Wesleyan College and began its career in the fall of 1881 in the building now standing on the southwest corner of Throckmorton and Seventh streets, moving from thence to a building on the spot where the government building now stands. "These temporary quarters soon became too small and the institution having been vested in Rev. A. A. Johnson, a site was soon found in the southwestern portion of the city where Dr. Johnson and W. H. Cannon purchased and donated ten acres for a campus. Meantime Dr. Johnson undertook to raise funds both locally and abroad for a building and the present main building, soon to be followed by Cadet hall were erected.

"The citizens of the city early took an interest in the enterprise. Some of the very best business men the city had, bankers, lawyers, stockmen, capitalists, etc., composing its board of trustees at all times during its history. Nor has it lacked for friends abroad. Some twelve or fourteen years ago its title was changed to Fort Worth University, and the aim has constantly been to make it a University in fact as well as in name.

"The various schools both those directly coming under the control and those affiliated with the University have given it the departments of liberal arts, fine arts, music and oratory, medicine and law, pedagogy and commerce. Under the presidency of Dr. O. L. Fisher, the University made great strides in all these departments and but for the lack of funds would be enjoying much greater facilities. The University has a standard curriculum in its college of "Liberal arts," where a full course can be taken in either the classical, Latin, scientific or philosophy courses, the same as any college course in the land. This latter was accomplished by and during the presidency of Dr. Fisher.

Great as has been the success of the University in the past, its friends are looking hopefully towards the future. Under the presidency of Dr. MacAdam.

"Enlargement in facilities and every thing else needful is confidently expected. While it has taken high rank among the institutions of learning of the state in the past great will be its strides in the future, for its friends will never permit its interests to lag. Under the leadership of its splendid young president, joined by an army of friends it cannot help but be even in greater measure the pride of every citizen of the city."

WILL MEET NEXT YEAR IN HOUSTON

The next state meeting of the Texas Sunday School association will be held at Houston, that city having been selected by the delegates in session at the twenty-ninth annual meeting in this city last week. The selection was made Friday afternoon. San Antonio was a strong contestant for the honors, that city having the largest representation with the exception of Dallas. There were thirteen workers present from San Antonio, and their united effort was put forth in an endeavor to secure the convention date in 1904 for their city. After the selection of Houston was made, however, the San Antonio delegation voted with the rest of the convention to make the choice unanimous.

At the closing session Friday evening the usual resolutions were adopted thanking the local committees for their work; the speakers for their services; the press and citizens in general of Fort Worth for courtesies and services rendered.

CLUBS.

The ladies of the literary section of the Department Club, actuated by a spirit of patriotism, rendered a fine program at their rooms yesterday afternoon, in memory of the glorious victory the Texans achieved sixty-seven years ago on San Jacinto field.

"Texas"—Dr. Dabb. "The Texas Soldier's Address to His Flag"—Mrs. Key. "Heroes of the Alamo"—Mrs. Prewett. "Houston's Crowning Glory"—Mrs. Andrews.

"The Lone Star Banner"—Mrs. Peter. "Sam Houston"—Mrs. Goodman. "Texas hymn."

"Texas Dixie." "Shall We Divide the State?"—Mrs. Murphy. "Our Texas Flag"—Mrs. Sawyer. "Texas Heroes"—Mrs. Gernsbacher. "Texas Land"—Mrs. Murphy.

Mrs. Stovall was the director of the program in the absence of Miss Martin.

The members of the department of philanthropy and civics are very busy these days, making arrangements for the benefit concert to be given at the opera house May 5. They are greatly encouraged by the heartfelt response received from almost everyone approached, and feel confident that the entertainment will prove both pleasurable and profitable to the cause for which it is given.

The kindergarten school opened in the beautiful room at the courthouse last Monday. Miss Kittle Belle Jenkins, Miss Winchester and Miss Caruthers teaching the class of twenty or more children. It is felt that a double benefit will be derived from this location, in that more people will see the school and how a kindergarten is conducted here than elsewhere, and this is a work that the people have to be educated to appreciate.

There will be a meeting of the music section of the Department Club in the studio of Miss Hendrick, 608 Burnett street, on Wednesday afternoon, April 29, at 3 o'clock.

Miss Capper will have an exhibition of her china work on April 28 and 29 under the auspices of the art department of the Woman's Club. This will be the last opportunity for admirers of china to inspect this fine collection, as Miss Capper leaves in a few days for her home in Toronto.

The art department appreciates greatly her efforts for them and will be glad to welcome with Miss Capper any friends who may call at the studio, corner of First and Taylor streets.

The Harmony Club will be entertained on the first Wednesday evening in May

Headquarters For Economical Buyers

The progress of this store in the short time it has been in the commercial field is gratifying to us; the general change throughout the store, the change in character of goods, the wonderful change in price on all classes of goods, Harris' up-to-date methods and the anxious-to-please spirit all go to make this the progressive, fast-growing store.

PRETTY MILLINERY Economy Prices

Millinery buyers were good to us this past week, they came in throngs all week long and the footing of sales clearly demonstrated the liberality of their patronage.

The strong tendency of the trade for straw shapes and in fact the depleted condition of our present stock necessitated our placing orders for the new ones coming out in natural straw, burnt straw and chip, also black and white and combinations of black and white.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Brigham Young and the Hall of Fame By Rev. Thomas Gregory

(Copyright, 1903, by W. R. Hearst.)
(Great Britain Rights Reserved.)

MR. ERNEST THOMPSON SETON, sometime writer on birds, foxes and such things, is branching out into new fields. Having told us of the wild animals he has known, Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton would now tell us of the great Americans he has discovered and whose names he would like to see immortalized.

The gentleman, in common with a multitude of others, is greatly interested in the coming Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis.

The management has decided to build upon the exposition grounds a Hall of Fame, in which it intends to place the busts of the men who won the West and helped to transform it from a wilderness into an empire.

Apropos of this idea Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton is quoted as follows—

"Do I award a place in the Western Hall of Fame to Brigham Young? Most assuredly. He was a Mormon, but what have we to do with his love affairs? Young was a pioneer of pioneers. He added millions of acres of arable land to our domain."

True! every word of it. Brigham Young was, in many ways, a remarkable man; and that he contributed to the building up of the great West no one who has read the history of the country will attempt to deny.

Brigham Young was a man of considerable intellect, of marvelous will power, and of extraordinary executive ability, BUT MORALLY SPEAKING HE WAS ONE OF THE WORST MEN WHO EVER LIVED.

He was a moral degenerate, and was as dead to the decencies of life as an Egyptian mummy.

Supremely selfish and wonderfully ambitious, his selfishness was always along the line of the material, while his ambition went no further than to be the autocratic master of a lot of cringing slaves.

This man Young never had a pure or a generous thought. He had no interest in humanity, except to make it serve his imperious will. He was a murderer, cold-blooded and with malice aforethought, a thousand times over.

It is perfectly true that Brigham Young went out into the West and "reclaimed from an arid desert millions of acres of land that are now filled with vegetation."

But upon those acres redeemed from the desert what did he plant? He planted—listen, Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton—he planted his INFAMOUS MORMONISM!

Every intelligent and morally normal person knows that monogamy, the marriage of one man to one woman, is the basis of all true and lasting civilization.

The HOME, the MONOGAMOUS home, is the heart of the world, the center of all that is true, beautiful and good in human life; and such a home Brigham Young did his level best to break up and destroy.

Could he have had his way he would have extended the harem system throughout the length and breadth of this golden land!

Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton knows that he would have done so. And yet he wants his bust set up in the Hall of Fame!

Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton knows that the old reprobate lived and labored but to strengthen the evil which, carried out to its logical results, means individual and national ruin!

And yet the gentleman would dismiss our indignation at the thought of putting Young's bust in the Hall of Fame with the coolly flippant remark: "WHAT HAVE WE TO DO WITH HIS LOVE AFFAIRS?" Indeed!

Well, the fact is that every patriotic American who loves his country and wishes it to live, has a GREAT DEAL TO DO with those "love affairs."

The kind of love affairs that Brigham Young was interested in would, if believed in by a sufficient number of the people, incontinently damn and ruin this great Republic of ours.

Therefore, it behooves every loyal, patriotic, decent minded American citizen to feel that he should have enough "to do" with Brigham Young's "love affairs" to at least FIGHT THE SPREAD OF THEM to the last ditch!

It is well enough to talk grandiloquently of the "millions of acres redeemed from arid desert and filled with vegetation," but when in the midst of the "vegetation" you plant the deadly upas, Mormonism, where is the particular GLORY of the business?

What are "millions of acres filled with vegetation" in comparison with the domestic virtue and personal wholesomeness without which society is but a mass of festering corruption?

No, we don't want Brigham Young's bust in the Hall of Fame at St. Louis. The sooner Brigham Young is forgotten and his infamy crushed the better it will be for our country and for the world.

The Frightening of Your Child x x x x By Winifred Oliver

(Copyright, 1903, by W. R. Hearst.)
(Great Britain Rights Reserved.)

THE OTHER DAY a young man, aged six, set out to see the world. Being in a hurry and of an independent nature, he did not bother about any incumbrance in the shape of mother or nurse. His sole assets consisted of a somewhat bedraggled American flag. His travels finally brought him to Central Park. There fate in the shape of a genial policeman stepped in and the traveler was, so to speak, arrested. He was weary and somewhat bewildered, this brave traveler. His small feet had covered a good deal of ground. The Flag of Independence trailed ingloriously in the dust. Had any of his natural protectors arrived on the scene he would have been unfeignedly glad to see them. It was the busiest hour of the day in the park. The driveway was crowded with horses and automobiles. The child was in danger of being run over. The policeman, realizing that he was lost, proceeded to take charge of him. No one could have been more gentle and kind than the policeman; no one could have been more terrified than the child. He had been brave amidst all the unusual noise and excitement; many had spoken to him; he had had hairbreadth escapes; but though dazed and frightened, he had not reached the breaking-down point. The minute the policeman hove in sight he was in an ecstasy of fear. The reason was plainly seen. He had been taught to be afraid of policemen. It was a clear case of "the bogie man will get you if you don't watch out." He belonged to the army of little sufferers who are taught to be afraid of the dark cupboard, the big black bear, the policeman, the black man and all the other "bogies" of childhood.

It seems impossible that in this enlightened day and age children should be threatened in this way, but it is an every day occurrence. You constantly hear mothers and nurse-maids say to children who are misbehaving, "Here comes the policeman; he'll take you away if you are not good"; or, "I'll give you to the black bear." Threats that do not seem very formidable by day assume terrifying significance by night, and many a nervous child sobs itself to sleep in terror of the bear or man with whom it has been threatened for some childish naughtiness in the day.

The foolish person who made the threat has forgotten all about it, but children don't forget that sort of thing. I remember hearing a mother urge a child not to eat a piece of rich cake. "Why can't I eat it?" said the child. "Well," answered the mother, "one reason is it will give you indigestion and bad dreams, and whatever you dream is sure to come true."

The child, who was as spoiled as the mother was weak, risked the bad dreams and ate the cake. In the middle of the night we were awakened by piercing screams. Part of the mother's prophecy had come true. The bad dreams were on hand. He dreamed a cow was eating him up and it took the entire household to convince him he was not in immediate danger.

"But you said it would come true," he sobbed, when his mother tried to reassure him. Relieved as he was to find his dream would not materialize his faith in his mother had received a dangerous shock, from which it took some time to recover. There are many ways of insuring obedience from children without threatening them. No person of sense ever threatens a child. It is a fault of ignorant nurses, and every woman who employs a nurse would do well to question the children and find out if she is in the habit of teaching them to be afraid of the most ordinary, every-day people and things. The child who was afraid of the policeman the other day was only one of many who are being taught the same misguided belief.

The THEATER

GAGNON-POLLOCK COMPANY BEGINS WEEK'S ENGAGEMENT

The Gagnon-Pollock Stock Company made good in its first performance at McDonald's theater, in Montgomery, according to the Advertiser of that city. The paper in speaking of the company says: "The bill which the company presented and the specialties combined, established a new mark of merit for popular price organizations. It can be truthfully said that the company exceeded all other popular price organizations seen here. It pleased a big audience, an audience that had gone there with no other idea than that the company presented the mediocre performance of a 10, 20 and 30-cent aggregation. This audience which crowded the house to the doors received the company's first bill with enthusiasm. It was not so much the play, 'The Sidewalks of New York,' nor was it the specialties alone that pleased the large audience, but the combination of the two made the performance a thing to be enjoyed."

This company comes to Greenwall's opera house for a week's engagement, commencing Monday night, April 26. Ladies will be admitted free with a 30-cent ticket if secured before 6 p. m. Monday. Matinees will be given daily except Monday. Opening bill Monday night, "On The Verge of Doom." Change of bill at each performance.

"BARON RUDOLPH"

"Baron Rudolph" with an excellent cast headed by the popular Thomas Keogh comes to Greenwall's opera house Monday matinee and night, April 27, as a benefit tendered Treasurer Mitchell W. Greenwall. The New Orleans Times-Democrat says:

"The usual large Sunday audiences witnessed the presentation of 'Rudolph' by Mr. Keogh, supported by the Grand Opera House Stock Company. The play is somewhat old-fashioned as compared with the present day products of the best dramatic authors, but it tells a rather melodramatic story, in which the interest is well maintained, and the characters well drawn, although like all the melodramas of its time, it is essentially a one-part play. There is a light comedy judge and a character lawyer, who cut some little figure, and there is also a young and attractive widow, Mrs. Nellie Dashwood, played by Miss Lizzie Montgomery, who has an opportunity to do a little acting on her own account, and it may be said right here that this character was well played."

"Mr. Keogh, as Baron Rudolph, did excellent character work. His work was well done, always artistic and legitimate. It is a German dialect part, and Mr. Keogh wisely refrained from trying to make it very pronounced. His intonation in this play next season, and he will have plenty of time to feel his way, as it were, in the acquiring of a dialect sufficiently marked to constitute an effective feature of the performance. Miss Alice Treat Hunt made a good deal of the lachrymose wife of Rudolph. The part was unsuited to her going without saying, but this clever young actress furnished an admirable example of her versatility in her able handling of it. As a matter of fact the whole cast was satisfactory, the character of the judge being particularly well presented."

The scenic production given "Sweet Clover" is one of the most elaborate ever taken on tour and requires a specially constructed car for its transportation. Ten of the latest improved calcium lamps for stage lighting are also carried to lend realism to the sunset, moonshine, firelight and tableau effects with which the play abounds. The first act is an exterior and represents "Farmer Holcombe's" pretty Connecticut home with its beautiful flower and wide spreading oaks which shelter the dooryard and extend a welcome to the visitors of the Holcombe farm. The sun has set, leaving a crimson glow in the horizon, the tinkle of the cow bells grows dim, crickets chirp and fireflies warn that peaceful night is coming on. The scene changes in the second act to the beautiful Queen Anne drawing room of Mrs. Emmett's New York mansion, a faithful reproduction of one of the most magnificent apartments ever conceived by an architect and executed by a multi-millionaire, the original of which exists today on Fifth avenue.

KING OF SPAIN IS FOND OF SOLDIERS

BY MAX O'RELL

(Copyright, 1903, by W. R. Hearst.) PARIS, April 18.—The young king of Spain is an ardent admirer of the Kaiser and is following his example as regards his interest in military affairs.

A few days ago he paid a surprise visit to the hussar barracks at Porto.

On his arrival he first reviewed all the officers and then went among the men and asked them if they had any complaints to make.

Subsequently he made a tour of the barracks, including the kitchen, and inspected and tasted the rations served out to the men.

Not content with this, he paraded the regiment and saluted them over some very rough country.

The Spaniards are delighted with their king's military ardor.

Over sixty religious congregations have now been condemned to disappear from France, the last being the famous Carthusians, who, as you know, do not use their monastery either to offer prayers to the Almighty or gracious hospitality to the weary travelers in the mountains, but to manufacture yellow chartreuse, which, people say, helps digestion, and green chartreuse, which makes men intoxicated quicker than any other liquor known in the world.

Where will they go and install themselves next?

Of all the religious orders the Jesuits seem to be the most difficult to dislodge.

Like the children of Israel, they are persecuted, expelled and the more driven away they are the more ubiquitous they prove to be. The list of their expulsions is rather interesting.

They were expelled from Switzerland in 1581, twenty-seven years after their foundation.

In 1579 they were driven out of England for an attempt at murdering Queen Elizabeth.

In 1578 they were expelled from Portugal and from Antwerp; in 1594 from France for an attempt on the life of King Henry IV. by one of their pupils; in 1685, from Holland; in 1696, from the republic of Venice; in 1807, from Sweden; in 1810, from Denmark; in 1818, from Bohemia; in 1819, from Moravia and Silesia; in 1820, from Hungary; in 1821, from Poland; in 1822, from Naples; in 1845, from Malta; in 1706, from Hungary again; in 1715, from Palermo; in 1725, from Russia; in 1759 from Portugal; in 1762, from France; in 1787, from Spain; in 1768, from Parma; in 1815, from Austria; in 1847, from Rhenish Prussia; in 1872, from Germany, and in 1880, from France again, and you will probably ask where are they now?

Why, they are everywhere.

I cannot refrain from sending you a very witty repartee that comes to me from the antipodes.

In a recent speech G. H. Reid, the witty and energetic opposition leader in the Federal parliament of the Australian Commonwealth, accused the government of constantly doing the will of the labor party, which holds the balance of power in the Federal parliament.

"You are steering from the steership," he exclaimed in an indignant voice.

Mr. Deakin, the attorney general, was equal to the occasion.

"If the honorable leader of the opposition was in power I have no doubt he would steer from the saloon," was the quick and sharp reply.

What adds strength to this very clever repartee is that Mr. Reid, the opposition leader and formerly premier of New South Wales, is supported by the Irish party, and that the bar saloons of Sydney and Melbourne, like those of New York, are kept by gentlemen mostly called Murphy, Sullivan, O'Brien and other compatriots of "Mr. Dooley."

Sarah Bernhardt is advertising a revival of "La Dame aux Camelias."

When the great French actress advertises this play you may come to the conclusion, which you arrive at when Henry Irving announces a revival of "The Bells," that the new play is a failure.

In the case of Sarah Bernhardt, it is not one failure, but a succession of failures for her this season.

Paul Hervieu's "The Reine de Mericourt" was a play in six acts, made up of six episodes of the French revolution, which was done to the extreme.

Next her revival of Racine's "Andromache" failed to awaken interest in the public and her last venture, "Werther," an adaptation from Goethe's work, was the most complete and deserved failure she ever had.

The monotony of this piece was beyond description.

Not even the genius of Sarah Bernhardt could give life to that sentimental idiot, the hero of the play, who spent his life writing love letters to a woman he had never seen, and who, when he found himself hard up for new materials fortunately committed suicide.

This was the only portion of the play that was appreciated by the public.

Society in Paris has now entirely discontinued the use of the bicycle. No lady now can afford to be seen on one.

Walking is quite the order of the day for fashionable people. Formerly the leaders of fashion were never seen out unless riding or driving.

Now duchesses and countesses vie with each other in walking long distances. The Bois de boulogne is full of them in the morning.

One of our most aristocratic women walks every day her twelve miles to go and take her lunch in Versailles.

Not infrequently she walks back to Paris.

This new fashion, which will probably turn into a craze, has naturally been baptized with an English name, naturally a wrong word has been chosen. They call it "footing."

They say "Le footing est tres fashionable." That's the kind of French we speak now in Paris.

King Edward has just concluded his visit to the earl of Derby at Knowsley, the Lancashire seat of a nobleman who would have been king if his father had not refused a throne.

When, in 1862, the late duke of Edinburgh refused the throne of Greece, to which he had been elected by popular ballot, the Greeks determined to secure an English ruler, wished to choose for their king the late Lord Derby, who especially appealed to their imagination on account of his being the greatest Greek scholar of his time.

The incident made a great sensation in England at the time.

"It is a dazzling adventure for the house of Stanley," wrote Disraeli; "but they are not an imaginative race, and I fancy they will prefer Knowsley to the Parthenon, and Lancashire to the Attic Plains."

"It a privilege to live in this age of rapid and brilliant events."

"It is one of infinite romance. Thrones tumble down, and crowns are offered like in a fairy tale."

"I think he ought to take the crown; but he will not. Had I his youth I would not hesitate, even with the earldom of Derby in the distance."

Knowsley has welcomed many English sovereigns, and the house contains many interesting proofs of royal gratitude, but there is also a striking commemoration of the ingratitude of one king.

It is carved on the Colonnade end of the house, and the inscription runs thus: "James, Earl of Derby, Lord of Man and the Isles; Grandson of James, Earl of Derby, and of Charlotte, daughter of Claude, Duke de la Tremouille, whose husband, James, was beheaded at Bolton, 15 October, 1652, for strenuously adhering to Charles II, who refused a bill passed unanimously by both houses of parliament for restoring to the family the estate lost in his loyalty to him."

Coats of paint have failed to obliterate the record on the stone, although time has no doubt offaced the ingratitude of Charles II from the memory of the family.

There are people who think that royal persons live a life of leisure, or at least that they never perform any manual labor, but they are evidently very much mistaken.

Sour Stomach

"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief, only for a short time. I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are really a great blessing."
