THEN THE LAWYERS ACT

They Re-elect Davis to Serve, After Having Elected Him Once Against the Wishes of Milam, Who Desired Another to Serve-Queer Situation

The bar of Fort Worth and County Judge R. F. Milam are at loggerheads and as a result a delicate legal crisis exists in the county court that is as interesting as it is unusual. It resulted in some extraordinary happenings in the court yesterday afternoon

Yesterday morning finding that he would not be able to hold court for perhaps sev- of the National Congress of Mothers. eral days he sent word to the bar to Among the visitors registered at the Caelect a special judge to serve in his dillac today, where headquarters have place; it is understood that he intinated to the bar that he would prefer to see a certain local lawyer elected, naming the man.

DAVIS IS ELECTED The bar held the election with the result that James S. Davis was elected by a vote of 15 to 7 over the man samed by Judge Milam.

Late yesterday afternoon the case against W. T. Brown, a saloon keejer who was charged with Sunday selling. the case, did not take the decision in speakers will

A case not having been made against the prisoner on trial, the county attorney who was prosecuting the case, following the usual procedure wrote out an order for the court instructing the jury to find the defendant not guilty. Now it was Judge Milam's turn to ignore the special judge. He proceeded to equit the defendant and then announced the jury that it could consider itself excused for the balance of the week; he next adjourned court for the week. Then he left the bench and went home and to

BAR IS EXCITED

But the members of the bar who had witnessed the proceeding were up in arms. Special Judge Davis thought that perhaps the reason for Judge Milam's first action was that he considered that Brown should have been fined, or that he felt riqued because the man whom he suggested was not elected special judge. The nembers of the jury which is serving in the county court this week were called upon by Judge Davis to stand up and ancunce whether they considered his decision in the Brown case was a fair one. he five or six members of the jury who heard the case tried announced unanimously that they would have decided the case the same way the special judge did. The members of the bar meanwhile had een consulting. Several had clients in all who were anxious for trial and the prospect of their clients remaining in jail nother week for want of a hearing did rot please the lawyers. Therefore another neeting was called, which was attended by the following and others: W. R. Booth, W. R. Parker, Jeff D. Mc-Lean, Walter Scott, Will A. Hanger, B. D. Shropshire, Sam Canty, John Baskin, Mr. Dodd, M. D. Priest, Albert Baskin, O. Lattimore, Jordon Cummings and R. E.

G. A. R. IN SESSION

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., May 5 .- Several thousand visitors were in this city today when the thirty-seventh annual encamp ment of the department of Illinois, Grand Army of the Republic, opened. The visitors include the delegates to the Woman's Relief Corns Ladies of the G A R and other affiliated bodies holding their respective annual meetings here at this time. A parade and public reception were the features of the day's program. State officers will be elected tomorrow and from present indications the next department commander will be Judge Benson Wood of Effingham, who appears to have a good lead in the race for head of the state organization.

I Suffered Terribly Until I Took

Cured Me.

"For eighteeen years I suffered from nervousness and indigestion. I tried every remedy recommended by family and friends but I could get no relief at all. Two years ago, while being treated by local physicians, they informed me that I had become dropsical and that there was little hope for me. I then decided to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. I was unable to get to sleep after retiring at night until well on towards daylight during all this time. I had deep, heavy pains under my left shoulder, and a very se-vere pain in my left side. I was most miserable indeed and suffered terribly, but after taking one-half bottle of the Nervine I could sleep all night just as well as I ever did. The Nervine is the only remedy that gave me any relief whatever. I had not been taking the Nervine but a short time when I discovered that I could go out on the gallery and sit down of an evening and enjoy myse with the rest of the family, something I had not done in many years. I am now well and strong, eat and sleep well and I thank God every day of my life for Dr. Miles' Nervine."

JAMES A. GALT.

St. Paul, Minn., November 14, 1902.

Warner's Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y.: Exposure during the war, settled in my kidneys and bladder, causing severe inflammation and serious pains in passing urine. At the time of my discharge, I was simply unfit for duty and unable to work.

My father had been cured of gall-stone through the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and so he advised me to take it. I used it faithfully for three weeks before I found relief, but it seemed like a Godsend to me, I had endured suffering so long. I kept up the treatment for four months and was then completely cured. This is over eighteen months ago, but I am pleased to state that I have had no relapse since, but am enjoying most excellent health and gladly do I indorse your Safe Cure. Very respectfully yours, JAMES A. GALT, City Hotel, St. Paul, Minn. Secretary to Colonel Daggart, 14th U. S. Infantry, Regulars. President St. Paul Ski Club.
