

PETER IS MADE KING

Member of the Karageorgevitch Family Will Ascend the Steps of the Servian Throne as Successor to the Murdered Alexander.

UNANIMOUS CHOICE BY JOINT ASSEMBLY

Selection Made a Few Minutes After Noon Today—New Ruler—Is About Fifty Years of Age, a Widower and Said to Be of Pleasing Disposition

BELGRADE, June 15.—Prince Peter Karageorgevitch, at 12:15 p. m., was unanimously elected king of Servia by the senate and skuptchina in joint session.

THE NEW KING The newly proclaimed king, Peter Karageorgevitch, long known as "Peter the Pretender," comes from a family of noted revolutionists.

His ancestors were swine dealers and the family had no political importance prior to 1804. They became prominent in a revolt against the Turkish masters of Servia in that year and maintained an ineffective resistance for ten years.

In 1820 the Karageorgevitch family aided Milosh Obrenovitch in another uprising, which proved successful.

Obrenovitch made peace with the sultan, and as a reward was recognized as the hereditary ruler of Servia. Thus he founded the house from which Alexander was descended. The family of the new king was also a claimant of the royal title and bitter enmity was engendered between the two houses. The feud extended through the reign of each succeeding monarch.

FATHER A CONSPIRATOR In 1858 King Milan IV, was assassinated and Prince Karageorgevitch, father of the new king, was convicted in "contumacious" of being one of the principal instigators in the plot.

Prince Karageorgevitch married a sister of Mirko, the eldest daughter of Prince Nicholas, and, although she died in 1887, he is still considered a member of the Montenegrin family, and the relations between his sons and their uncles and aunts in Montenegro are very cordial.

Two of these sons are now at military school at St. Petersburg and a third is in the Russian army. It might be that Peter would renounce formally all pretensions on the part of himself and the Karageorgevitch family to the throne of Servia if his brother-in-law, Mirko, were proclaimed heir apparent.

AN AGREEABLE FELLOW The new king was a member of the fashionable diplomatic set while a resident of Paris a number of years ago. He is about 50 years of age and is described as being of agreeable personality. During his lifetime he has been a frequenter of the leading clubs and hotels and a patron of races and sports.

He was educated at St. Cyr Military College and entered the French Academy in 1870 with the rank of captain. One of his brothers, Prince Arsene, is still living in Paris.

The shooting was done with a revolver and four shots crashed through the smoker, while two shattered a window in the Pullman sleeper. Sheriff Mink is investigating the matter, and says he has a good clew to work on. An arrest will probably be made in a day or two.

Reports from Mr. Cromwell's agent in Colombia at present are of great interest, and it was to urge delay in opening negotiations with Nicaragua that Mr. Cromwell saw the president. Mr. Cromwell is said to have confirmed the report that Panama would secede from Colombia if the treaty was not ratified. Mr. Cromwell, it is said, told the president that his advice was that the treaty would be ratified. The president has declared that unless there is positive action by June 22, or thereabouts, or definite arrangement for a vote he will reopen negotiations with Nicaragua.

LITIGATION IS AT LAST ENDED

Young Millionaire Is Declared of Unsound Mind and Fred Chase Is Appointed Guardian of His Son.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The long Chase litigation is at last ended. Judge Raob has appointed Fred Chase as the guardian of the property and person of his insane son and placed him under a $200,000 bond.

The jury came in at five minutes of 12 o'clock noon Friday and the verdict declared that Moses Fowler Chase was an inhabitant of Tippecanoe county, Indiana, and a person of unsound mind.

Moses Fowler Chase is the hero of a strange and dramatic story. It is a story, which, though running over twenty-five years, seems only well begun.

FAMILY DIVIDE OVER MARRIAGE

Lafayette, Ind., is a city to which men retire after they have made a competency in corn raising, stock raising, milling, land speculation, and "merchandising." One man who moved to Lafayette after he made his fortune was Moses Fowler. He was the founder of Fowler, Ind. He established the Fowler National Bank of Lafayette, of which his son, James H. Fowler, is president. He had two daughters, Annie, who was the apple of his eye, married Frederick S. Chase. Moses Fowler's wife, Eliza, and his son, John H., were filled with horror, it is said. They insisted that Moses Fowler cut his recreation daughter off with a shilling, and that she no longer be considered a member of the family.

Moses Fowler, the people of Lafayette state, saw nothing so serious in the marriage of a young man yet in affluent circumstances. He declined to change his attitude toward his daughter. A split in the family occurred. John H. Fowler siding with his mother. After the old man died it was found that his will left Mrs. Chase $400,000. The son she bore was 6 years old when Mrs. Chase died. To him the fortune descended. His father was appointed his guardian during the years of his minority. In September, 1857, Moses Fowler Chase entered Yale. While there he acquired the golf habit. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Duhme live in Cincinnati. Mrs. Opelia Fowler Duhme was a sister of young Chase's mother. Duhme did not side with her brother, and Mrs. Eliza Fowler in their fight against Chase.

In August, 1888, during vacation, Moses Fowler Chase visited Cincinnati. He was out playing golf one day when he was overcome by the heat. When he regained consciousness he appeared to be insane. The young man was taken by his father to the Oak Grove sanitarium, at Flint, Mich. He came of age June 4, 1893. The father, who still believed the son of unsound mind, went to the sanitarium and took Moses home, where he intended to go before the court and ask to be reappointed guardian with control of the estate. At Hotel Cadillac, in Detroit, he and his son were met by Mr. and Mrs. Duhme. They induced the young man to go home with them. This act the father calls an abduction. He asked Governor Pinaree for reappointment papers for the Duhmes. They were denied.

Frederick S. Chase immediately applied for a receiver for the estate of his son, and turned over property valued at $500,000. An increase of $100,000 over the amount inherited. The receivership was vacated November, 1893. Then, it is charged by Chase, the Duhmes became trustees of the estate without legal formality.

INCARCERATED IN MADHOUSE In April, 1900, they started on a voyage of Europe. They were accompanied by their nephew. They returned to America without him. Frederick S. Chase employed a Chicago detective to locate the young man. He traced him to Paris, and there lost the trail. He worked three months. Then he left for home. Mr. Chase's attorney, Addison C. Harris, who was formerly minister to Austria, had a strong connection with the state department. He is not only a friend of Secretary Hay but of Consul General Goudy. He interested Secretary Hay and the consul general in the case. The consul general interested the Paris police. It did not take them long to find that a young American, under the name of "James Brown," was being held in a sanitarium in Boulogne. This sanitarium is kept by a Dr. Cromar. He told the inspector he had found out the young man's identity two months ago. The public prosecutor will make it necessary for him to tell the court why he continued to harbor the patient under a false name, which is punishable in France by a year's imprisonment. The real name of the patient appeared on his steamer trunk below that assumed.

The discovery of the young man was made early in March. Secretary Hay made an appointment as guardian to Consul General Goudy. He placed Moses Fowler Chase in the hands of an attendant named Faquette and sent him aboard the North German Lloyd steamship, Kron Prince Wilhelm at Havre, on board which he finally reached America.

PITTSFIELD, Ill., June 15.—As the result of a double killing committed here yesterday, Fred Mink, 21 years old, is besieged in a deserted house on the edge of town, while a mob and a sheriff's posse are seeking to effect his capture. FARMER SHOT FROM BEHIND A FENCE

Bullet From Rifle Strikes Him to the Ground—Murdered Flees

PITTSFIELD, Ill., June 15.—As the result of a double killing committed here yesterday, Fred Mink, 21 years old, is besieged in a deserted house on the edge of town, while a mob and a sheriff's posse are seeking to effect his capture. The members of the mob declare they will lynch him, and the sheriff and his deputies are trying to make him prisoner and take him to jail.

Mink shot and killed Newton W. Harris, a farmer living near town, and then killed his stepmother. Rage over the refusal of Harris to allow him to pay attention to his daughter, is thought to have inspired one killing, but the death of Mrs. Mink is not explained.

Mink, who is 21 years old, recently returned from the state of Washington. Before leaving home for the west he paid attention to Beulah, the daughter of Mr. Harris, and his suit had been discouraged by the father. Since his return Mink has declared that he intended to even up scores.

Mr. Harris was in his pasture lot yesterday when Mink crept up behind him. He was armed with a rifle, and from the shelter of a fence he fired on the unsuspecting farmer, who fell. Mink then ran to the prostrate man and shot him four times in the back and side as he lay on the ground.

Alarmed by the firing, Mrs. Harris ran from the house, a short distance away, and started toward her husband. Mink drew a revolver as she approached, and fired one shot, missing her. Then he ran from the field and disappeared in the woods nearby.

A search was instituted for Mink, and a number of people went to his home. Searching an entrance they discovered the body of Mrs. Mink lying on the floor. She had been shot a number of times and was dead when found.

ERATH ANTIS WILL CONTEST ELECTION

STEPHENVILLE, Texas, June 13.—The antis have employed attorneys and will contest the prohibition election held here on the 6th. The county went dry three to one, but the antis think they have good grounds to fight it on.

A revival meeting will begin at the Baptist church Sunday. It will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. B. Williams, and the Dublin pastor.

GANG OF RUSTLERS AT SIOUX CITY, IA.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, June 15.—A secret circle formed for the purpose of rustling cattle which in its sensational details reads like a dime novel has just been unearthed in Lyman county, Iowa. The scheme is a gigantic one, involving several of the more prominent cattle raisers. Some of the more honest ones have been forced into the organization through fear, and at present a bounty of $500 is on the head of one of the Hancock brothers, who has been especially stern in his hostility to the rustlers.

A secret agent of the government has been at work on the case for some time, and the confessions of a quartet of redskins employed by the rustlers are thought to complete the chain of evidence against the rustlers.

It also has been decided to exclude personal items containing notices of the illnesses or recoveries of people except in unusual cases, or in cases where the persons concerned are of special prominence.

Contestants are again reminded that the prizes are: First, $50; Second, $35; Third, $25. In cases where contestants do good work but fail to win one of the prizes, a special prize will be given. The contest will close with the issue of Sunday, July 5.

LESSON OF FLOOD BEING DISCUSSED

Overflows of Western-Streams and Their Prevention by Intelligent Storage of Water Are Topics of Study.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The floods in Western streams are being discussed here in connection with the irrigation project. It has been suggested that a system of storage reservoirs could be built at the headwaters of the Missouri and Mississippi, which would draw from the great volume of water in flood time water which could be diverted for irrigation purposes. It is also pointed out that such a plan would do much toward reducing the water to a level below the danger line.

SECONDARY STORAGE "A feature of the flood storage question," said Guy A. Mitchell, secretary of the National Irrigation association and an authority on irrigation, today, "which may not be generally understood, but which would undoubtedly accomplish the desired result may be termed 'secondary storage.'"

The water storage proposition applied to the Missouri and its great tributaries involves the question of the irrigation of the vast arid domain through which these rivers flow. If irrigation storage reservoirs were constructed on these rivers, it is estimated that as much as 55 million acres of present deserted land would be reclaimed. The principal season of growing crops for this area would be April, May, June, July and August, and the reason that the lands are not irrigated at present is that, while there is plenty of water in the first three months, during July and August when water is absolutely necessary to mature the crops, these streams are reduced to mere threads.

If the storage reservoirs were built they would supply water for this land during July and the preceding months. The water for this great area of land would be drawn directly from the streams themselves by means of canals and ditches in almost incalculable quantities. The flood waters coming down during April, May and June, which cannot be stored in the reservoirs, would be taken out of the rivers and spread upon this land, which would take it up like a sponge, water which otherwise would go down the Missouri, the Platte and Arkansas rivers into the Mississippi and thus add to the flow of the torrent there.

REPEAL OF PLAN "Under such a system of irrigation the effect would be the same as though it had been possible last week to spread out the great flood of the Missouri, the Arkansas and the Platte flood, upon millions of acres of farming land in Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas, thus reducing the flow of the lower reaches of the Missouri to below the danger point. The combined volume of the water impounded in storage reservoirs at the headwaters of these great rivers and their tributaries and that contained in a network of hundreds of miles of irrigating canals and ditches, coupled with that absorbed by millions of acres of arid land, would have gone a long way toward palliating or preventing what will be known as the great flood of 1903."

MILAN'S SUPPORTER FIGHT

GENEVA, Switzerland, June 15.—King Peter received at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a telegram from Belgrade announcing that a sharp fight had taken place on the streets between the partisans of the new king and those of Milan, the legitimized son of former King Milan, father of the murdered King Alexander.

Young Milan had recently been living in Constantinople. His partisans posted a proclamation on the walls of Belgrade, and it was torn down by King Peter's supporters, after a free fight.

THIS UNION MAN HAS HEAVY FINE TO PAY

NEW YORK, June 15.—Accused of attempting to extort money from employees in a Newark, N. J., hat factory, David Richman has been fined $99.99 by the Hat Makers' Union. About eight months ago similar charges were made against Richman and he was fined $99.99. He was then a foreman in a department in the factory.

Although he declared at the time that the charges were trumped, it is said he has since then been paying the fine by weekly installments out of his wages. He declared that the new charges are trumped up and that he will not pay the second fine.

NIGHT OF TERROR FOR INHABITANTS

Sleepless Hours for Residents of Jackson, eKentucky

JACKSON, Ky., June 15.—Interest in the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of James B. Marcum, attorney for contestants for county officers, was secondary today to the preliminary hearing of the teamsters of the Hargis brothers arrested by soldiers on the charge of burning the hotel yesterday morning of E. L. Ewen, the principal witness of the commonwealth against Jett and White.

TEAMSTERS TRIED ON ARSON CHARGE

Excitement in the Preliminary Hearing Greater Than in Murder Case.

Although this place has become accustomed to assassinations and to incendiary fires during the feud of the past three years, it never had such a night of terror as that of last night. Many spent a sleepless night of vigilance. No members of any vigilance committees were patrolling the streets, but all were within their own doors as many were expecting the torch to be applied to their houses next.

POWERS ACCEPT THE NEW KING

Agree to Abide By the Decision of the Servian Parliament

PARIS, June 15.—It is said in official quarters that the official actions between the powers regarding their attitude toward Servia have now eventuated in an agreement that the ministers of the various powers shall remain in Belgrade to look after the current interests of their government, and that each minister will receive practically identical instructions to recognize the decision of the Servian parliament, if the latter has full liberty of action during the choice of king.

An agreement to retain the ministers at Belgrade appears to have met with strong objection on the part of some of the powers. The British government having first made known its desire to remove the British minister from Belgrade; but it later concurred with the other powers.

The ministers, however, will not be considered to have relations with the present Servian regime until the parliament at Belgrade freely expresses its will. At the French foreign office it is considered that the skuptchina's selection of Prince Peter Karageorgevitch as king is practically certain, so the agreement of the powers to accept the decision of the skuptchina appears to assure in advance the powers' recognition of King Peter.

Officials here say that the agreement did not include any regulations as to the punishment of the parties responsible for the assassinations.

PEOPLE OF JACKSON AGAIN TERRIFIED

JACKSON, Ky., June 15.—The feud-ridden town, people of which had somewhat shaken off the intimidation under martial law, is today the same timid place as before the state militia arrived.

Since the burning yesterday of the large new hotel of B. L. Ewen, the principal witness against Jett and White, and the rally of the Hargis faction to aid the men suspected with having burned it, even hopeful citizens shake their heads and say today the state can render no relief.

The Ewen family including several children in the military camp presented a pitiable condition today. Ewen tried to console his broken-hearted wife and daughters, but their distress was too great.

The two daughters had escaped from the burning hotel in wrappers and the smaller children in their night clothes. Kind hearted citizens, although feeling that in doing so they were risking their lives and property, have sent them clothing and bedding.

They were breakfasted by the citizens. The jail last night was under a heavy guard, and prisoners suspected of burning Ewen's house are detained in camp. They were kept in the guard house manacled so they would have no opportunity of escaping.

They were greatly frightened during the night fearing a mob would try to rescue them and that the soldiers would shoot them.

Crawford cried during the night repeatedly, "What a fool I am." It is believed these men will be released as the grand jurors are residents of Breathitt county and fear vengeance similar to that exacted upon Ewen if they indict the men.

The people of the town are completely intimidated with greater fear than ever. Joe Crawford and Ed Sharp were brought before Judge Redwine this morning and testimony was heard on a writ of habeas corpus, got out for their relief by the Hargis people yesterday. Judge Redwine decided to hold them to the grand jury which was reconvened this morning. After the habeas corpus proceedings out of the case of Crawford and Sharp, charged with arson, were disposed of, the trials of Jett and White for the assassination of Marcum were called. The prisoners who have been greatly alarmed over the arrest and detention of Crawford and Sharp on the charge of burning the Ewen hotel, were brought into court by the militia. The mothers of both alleged assassins were in the court, as was Miss Sarah Hargis, the young daughter of Judge Hargis, who all along has been very attentive to the interests of the prisoners.

There was much excitement about the court house and those entering the court room are not only searched but also watched closely.

PANTHERS LOSE THROUGH ERRORS

GAME DROPPED TO DALLAS AFTER BEING WON

Fort Worth Led Yesterday Until the Seventh Inning, When a Bad Throw by Reitz Allowed Dallas Three Runs—Dallas Again Today

Fort Worth met the enemy in the shape of Dallas yesterday, but after a spirited contest, was forced to retire. Dallas won, 8 to 5. The Panthers gained an advantage in the opening round of the scrimmage, but along toward the end a mis-play put the Cotton Pickers ahead.

Fort Worth started like a cyclone and two singles, a sacrifice and a double in the first inning netted two runs. Another in the fourth seemed to make things certain, but Dallas caused excitement in the next by sending two tallies across the plate. In the seventh trouble came by the bushel. With the bases full and the team playing close to cut off the run at the plate, a ground hit went to Reitz. Without looking to see whether Ditch was on first or not, he threw straight there, with a result that the ball went on to the fence and three of the runners scored. Dallas scored the remaining runs in the last inning and then the Panthers came in with blood in their eyes. A double, a single and another double after there were two outs, netted two scores, but it was too late and the game was soon over.

Corsicana defeated Paris at Waco yesterday, by a score of 4 to 1. Paris could not hit Hise. He struck out four men in succession, three in the fifth and the first man up in the sixth.

Fort Worth and Dallas meet again at Haines' Park this afternoon, playing off the game postponed on account of the rain Saturday.

ARMOUR DEFEATS SWIFT

The long-disputed point as to the best baseball team of packing-house employees was settled at Haines' park yesterday morning when the representatives of Armour & Co. and Swift & Co. met. The result was a complete victory for the Armour team by a score of 7 to 6.

The game started amidst tremendous cheering from the posters of both sides. Each player counted the entire responsibility as resting on himself and each roofer considered that if he didn't cheer his team would lose. The Armour & Co. club took a winning position from the start and, although its opponents fought for every point, could not be stopped. The game was very interesting, being full of startling plays, and although the score seems one-sided it was really not so.

BRAZOS BOTTOMS ARE IDEAL FOR ALFALFA

BRENNHAM, Texas, June 14.—The matter of making alfalfa, the crop of the Brazos bottom is being agitated here with renewed activity on the part of certain enterprising bottom planters, and there is no mistaking the fact that the alfalfa crop is gradually finding favor with this class. Several well known owners of Brazos plantations have recently taken the matter up and are now engaged in studying the crop from every side and the result so far is very encouraging to a greater diversity in the bottom lands next season. The remarkably high price of cotton at this time is not serving to make any more friends for that staple in this county, for the farmers are coming to believe that, even with cotton at 10 cents per pound, a judicious diversity of crops will bring them better returns for their labor.

A feature of the growing of alfalfa is that it will eventually lead to another diversity in the way of hogs. In view of the establishment of the big Texas packing houses this is significant. If the Brazos bottom planters go into the alfalfa business as it seems they will, it is safe to predict that in a few years' time Washington county will take front rank as a hog center, for all conditions are favorable and all that is needed is the proper encouragement to the farmers.

ROOSEVELT TO JOIN IN THE SAENGERFEST

BALTIMORE, June 15.—The German singing societies composing the Northeastern Saengerbund have reason to feel proud of their biennial fest, which was informally opened today. For twenty-four hours the delegates and visitors have been pouring into the city and at noon today it was estimated that fully 20,000 strangers were here. The city is elaborately decorated in honor of the occasion and the intertwined flags of the United States and Germany are everywhere in evidence.

President Roosevelt and a number of members of the diplomatic corps are coming from Washington to attend the big opening concert this evening. The program will open with the Wagner "Kaiser March." An address by President Roosevelt will be followed by three songs by the mass chorus: "God Greet Thee," Engelberg; "Old German Song," Malamet, and "Morning Call," Zschelner. The third number of the program will be the prettily and "Liebeslied" from Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde," Miss Louise Vogt singing the words of Isolde. The Wagner number will be followed by the andante from Beethoven's fifth symphony, given by the orchestra, directed by Melamet.

KEEPING TIME FOR HALF A CENTURY

BRENNHAM, Texas, June 14.—John Henry Hodde, father of H. C. Hodde of this city, was a watch and clock maker in Germany during his lifetime and obtained considerable notoriety in the Fatherland for the superiority of his product. Many of the old-fashioned time pieces manufactured by him were brought to America by the emigrants, and even yet some of them may be found in use by the Germans in this country.

Yesterday afternoon H. C. Hodde received one of these old clocks from a farmer friend at Burton. It was made by the elder Hodde fifty years ago, and notwithstanding its half a century of constant use, is still a correct time-keeper. Having been recently replaced by a modern clock of American manufacture, the old relic was sent to Mr. Hodde as a keepsake.
It is a diminutive specimen of mechanism, being only 10x12 inches square, having large, heavy weights hanging down several feet below it. The case is of wood, but the wheels are of steel and brass, and show but little signs of wear during its long period of service. Mr. Hodde values it highly as a family relic, and has placed it in position in his business office.

The people here regret to give him up, as he was liked by all.
Rev. J. Hightower of the Methodist church has returned from his vacation.
The county judge is busy tabulating the school census. Between that and holding sessions of the county court he has been a busy man the last week.

HOLLAND'S QUEEN MAY GO FOR HEALTH

THE HAGUE, June 15.—It is quite likely that Queen Wilhelmina will shortly go to a warmer climate for the benefit of her health, as she is suffering from a general breakdown. It is reported in medical circles that the young queen has shown signs of incipient consumption. Her condition has caused grave concern. The royal physicians have advised the patient that a year's sojourn in Madeira or Egypt probably would restore her to perfect health.

CORN IS SELLING FOR $2 PER BARREL

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 15.—Because of the flood, which washed away all the old corn in the Missouri bottom, there is no bushel of corn in Columbia, and none is being brought in by the farmers. AS IT IS VIEWED

The frank attitude of indifference that has characterized the representatives of the European powers since last Thursday morning's affair in the palace at Belgrade is one of the remarkable features of the bloody bit of business.

Much as individual rulers may be worried about the steadiness of the legs under their own thrones, and earnestly as they may strive to redouble their precautions against the outbreaks of anarchy, the real seriousness of letting a mob of soldiers indiscriminately slaughter its rulers, does not seem to call for any great protest and thus far has excited nothing more than conventional expressions of shocked surprise.

Even from England the opinion of W. F. Stead, which may be taken as representing the views of a large constituency, is not much more than an amused expression of surprise that so meek a man as Colonel Machin, with the demeanor and bearing of a country parson, should become so excited as to blow open the door of the royal bedchamber with dynamite and shoot down his king in cold blood.

The only inkling of protest has come in a semi-official announcement from Rome that the powers will demand of Servia's new ruler that the murderers of King Alexander be punished before they will recognize the Servian government.

Inasmuch as it has become more widespread than drawing-room gossip that the money of more than one of the self-same powers aided the conspirators in their annihilation of the Obrenovitch dynasty, the formal demand for punishment will look, to say the least, perfunctory.

Wisely enough, the United States is not mixing in the middle. Even its most strenuous advocates cannot extend the provisions of the Monroe doctrine to include the Balkan peninsula. So, if rubles, francs and florins went into the fund toward the establishing of a new Servian dynasty, we are supposed to be none the wiser and to merely change the conversation to the absorbing and thoroughly safe topic of meteorological conditions.

And after all, why should we care if pistol shots echo in the halls of Konak or powder flashes scorch lace curtains in the bedrooms of Servian palaces?

Do we not still have with us Kentucky?

DOING THE RIGHT THING

It is one of Fort Worth's causes for self-congratulation that it has never become a habit for any class of her people to take advantage of circumstances at the expense of others. During the times when the city has been thronged with visitors and hotel accommodations have been scarce, the cry raised against so many Texas and other cities, of attempting to bleed sight-seers, has not been made against Fort Worth, and even if rates were raised, such changes were recognized as being mere justice to the regular patrons who were inconvenienced by the unusual conditions.

During the past few weeks another striking example of this sort of Fort Worth spirit has been furnished, when disastrous floods crippled the St. Louis markets and entirely closed the yards of Kansas City, thus diverting an unusual amount of live stock to Fort Worth. There were those who waited the first move on the part of the Fort Worth packing houses to reduce prices, as an opportunity for criticizing the Fort Worth market, but they waited in vain.

Even though crowded, the market held its own and the buyers continued to take care of the offerings that came their way as if wholly ignorant that they had an opportunity to buy cheaply because the shipments could be sent nowhere else.

The result has been that newspapers in the Panhandle and the cattle country west of Fort Worth are now filled with paragraphs of praise for the Fort Worth market and its maintenance of good prices, despite conditions that might have tended otherwise.

The Fort Worth packing houses made a good investment in every dollar they paid out during the period, as they have succeeded in demonstrating that regardless of other market conditions, they intend to pay the best possible prices for the best stuff shipped in. The result has been that cattlemen are satisfied and the friendly feeling towards the Fort Worth market that began when the packing houses were located here has been more firmly than ever established.

In his address at Auburn yesterday, Mr. Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Baltimore Manufacturers' Record, made this statement that illustrates in striking manner the south's progress since the war: It may not count for much to say that the south's coal output is 66,000,000 tons a year, but it counts a great deal to say that this is nearly 20,000,000 tons more than the total bituminous coal production of the United States in 1880 and that it is ten times greater than the coal output of 1860. The production of coal in Alabama last year was about 11,000,000 tons, while the production of bituminous coal in the United States in 1880 was less than 6,000,000 tons. The pig iron made by southern furnaces is now four times as great as the output of the United States in 1880 and is almost equal to our total production as late as 1880.—Mobile (Ala.) Register.

When The Fort Worth Telegram was the first to get the news to Denton that East St. Louis was submerged and that her 32,000 inhabitants were flying for their lives there were those who wagged their heads and said: "It is sensational. The Telegram is a sensational paper. Hold on till you get such and such a paper and you'll get the truth." Sure enough, the next day the other papers referred to had the same news, copied from The Telegram.—Denton Monitor.

Karageorgevitch is too much name even for a king. When Servia's new chosen ruler is crowned, if that should ever be, they might abbreviate his name to plain George, leaving vitch to be understood.—San Antonio Express.

The first name of Prince Karageorgevitch is Peter, and when crowned king, if he ever gets that far, he will be known as King Peter. The late King Alexander's family name was Obrenovitch, but it would have been incorrect to refer to him as King Obrenovitch or to his wife as Queen Maschin.

That their mayor chooses to sleep on the roof of his own home should not concern the citizens of Toledo, Ohio. As long as he doesn't go to sleep in office they can be reasonably content.

Even New Mexican farmers have found out that the Fort Worth market pays top prices for hogs. The farmers of New Mexico deserve credit for discernment.

TO OVERCOME INSOMNIA

For those women who suffer from insomnia and thus dread the coming of the night, with its wretched, sleepless state, a few suggestions are made. Disrobe in the dark, for its blackness is supposed to produce a drowsiness, whereas light stimulates and arouses the activities. Just before going to bed take a sponge bath in tepid water, and after lying down, relax each and every muscle. The legs and arms should be stretched out over the bed, and the best way is to lie on the face. This is the manner in which babies sleep, and their methods, in this particular, cannot well be improved upon.

An empty stomach is apt to cause sleeplessness. It is a good thing to partake of some light food when preparing for bed, and for the woman who is suffering from insomnia nothing is better than a big, raw Bermuda onion with bread and butter. A French dressing helps to make it palatable. In regard to the time required for sleep, eight hours may generally be considered sufficient; that is, for the healthy woman who leads a normal life, with plenty of activity, both mental and physical.

SILVERTON STILL HELD BY POLICE

DALLAS, Texas, June 15.—Harry Silverberg, the J. Coleman Drayton impersonator of several years past, who was arrested here last night on orders from Houston, is still detained at the police station.

Chief Winfrey has heard nothing today from Houston. He has notified the Pinkertons at Chicago that he has Silverberg, and is waiting to hear from them. He has informed Silverberg that if neither the Houston officers nor the Pinkertons or other officers claim him by tomorrow he must leave Dallas, as his record is such, particularly in this city six years ago, that he cannot be permitted to remain here.

Silverberg admits having done nearly everything that was ever charged against him in the name of J. Coleman Drayton, but says he has done nothing on this trip in Texas.

"If I could make $25,000 or upward by smooth work without landing in prison for it I admit that I would do it without hesitation, right now," he said to reporters in Chief Winfrey's office today at noon.

"I don't need to do anything smooth at this time. I've got plenty of money, am well dressed, as you can see, and have six trunks with me."

Silverberg showed Chief Winfrey a large roll of money containing probably several hundred dollars or more. He is also dressed in the height of fashion.

FOREIGN INFLUENCE CAUSES HIGH FEVER

NEW YORK, June 15.—The opening of the cotton market today was again marked by excitement. There was another show of strength at Liverpool, where prices at 12:30 o'clock were 1 1/2 @ 2 3/4 points higher. Private cables from the other side indicate that the situation there is practically identical with that here and at New Orleans, with bulls apparently in full control.

Prices here started from a net 10 to 32 points higher and new high records were made, July selling at 12 1/2, August at 21, September at 11 1/2, October at 14 1/2 and January at 10 1/2 on call.

Later cables from Liverpool reported a considerable reaction and the local market became very irregular under a feverish covering on one hand and heavy realizing on the other.

MORE VICTIMS OF DEADLY OIL STOVE

NEW YORK, June 15.—Enveloped in flames from head to foot, Josephine Alonde, 19 years old, and her brother Alphonse, 17 years old, were rescued from their blazing apartments in Brooklyn, Josephine died a few hours later at a hospital and the brother cannot recover. The accident was caused by the explosion of an oil stove which young Alonde tried to fill while it was burning. The blazing oil instantly enveloped the brother and sister. The former carried Josephine to a window and succeeded in summoning aid before he fell unconscious.

LADIES AND CHILDREN INVITED

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Texas, says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by all druggists.

EVIL FOLLOWS THE CUTTING OF TREES

NEW YORK, June 15.—Rev. Dr. Frank Oliver Hall, preaching in the church of the Divine Paternity upon "God's Revelation Through the Trees," has declared that the desolation now apparent everywhere in Palestine, Asia Minor and other countries is due to the destruction of the trees. He said:

"There is the same story all the way round the Mediterranean and we may trace the path of civilization by the desolation it has left. If we could know the full truth about the garden of Eden I suspect it has left. If we could know the full truth about the garden of Eden I suspect we should find that the man was cast out of the garden, not because he ate of the fruit of the tree, but because he cut the tree down."

"And here in America we are doing the same thing. We send out our portable sawmills and each year a territory equal to that of Maryland is stripped clean of trees. We can already see the barrenness in New England, and now we are carrying out the same policy in Michigan, Wisconsin and elsewhere. The evils of flood and drought follow."

NEW LIGHT PLANT AND WATERWORKS

DENTON, Texas, June 14.—There is a movement on foot to build another waterworks and electric light plant in Denton. The plant that is here now is owned by a private corporation. Several months ago the city wanted to buy the plant and appointed Dr. J. P. Blount, president of the Denton County National Bank, to negotiate with the owners of the plant, with the view of buying it for the city, but nothing was ever done. Now a committee has been created in the city council for the purpose of figuring on building another plant.

NOT DRUGS
Food Did It.
 After using laxative and cathartic medicines from childhood a case of chronic and apparently incurable constipation yielded to the scientific food Grape-Nuts in a few days. "From early childhood I suffered with such terrible constipation that I had to use laxatives continuously going from one drug to another and suffering more or less all the time.
 "A prominent physician whom I consulted told me the muscles of the digestive organs were partially paralyzed and could not perform their work without help of some kind, so I have tried at different times about every laxative and cathartic known but found no help that was at all permanent. I had finally become discouraged and had given my case up as hopeless when I began to use the pre-digested food Grape-Nuts.
 "Although I had not expected this food to help my trouble, to my great surprise Grape-Nuts digested immediately from the first and in a few days I was convinced that this was just what my system needed.
 "The bowels performed their functions regularly and I am now completely and permanently cured of this awful trouble.
 "Truly the power of scientific food must be unlimited." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
 There is a reason.
 A dessert that helps the body, that's the thing? Any number of them in the little recipe book in each package of Grape-Nuts

 T. H. Glancey, the popular manager of the Metropole hotel, has just returned from Fort Worth, where he had been to attend the first annual meeting of the Texas Hotel-Keepers' Association, which met in that city. Mr. Glancey says that he is certain that movements were inaugurated at the meeting that will result in the enactment of laws that will inure to the good of the hotel men of the state and that will in a measure put the dead-beat out of business. Mr. Glancey says that the people of Fort Worth showed the members of the association every possible courtesy. They were taken to the great packing-houses, and he says that they were certainly a revelation to him. They are now running at their full capacity and already it has become necessary to add to the buildings, and plans have already been drawn up for this work. Mr. Glancey says that the packing-houses are going to be a help to all Texas and they have already put Fort Worth on a boom that exceeds any that she has ever had.—Waco Times-Herald.

OBSERVE FLAG DAY IN PHILADELPHIA
 PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 15.—Philadelphia held its celebration of Flag day today, though it was 126 years ago yesterday that congress, assembled at Independence Hall, resolved, "That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing the new constellation."
 Flags were generally displayed throughout the city today and appropriate exercises were held at the Betsy Ross house and at other places of historic interest.
THE DAY IN WASHINGTON

ARE BEHIND KING COTTON'S THRONE

New Powers Said to Include Sully, Brown and the McFaddens—Somebody Has Been Doing Things in England.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Have Daniel Sully, W. P. Brown and the McFaddens formed a compact for a worldwide corner in cotton?

That is the question dealers in real cotton and gamblers in the options were anxiously asking one another today. Reports said it was true and the action of the market seemed to verify it.

Mr. Sully has just arrived in England after closing out here one of the most spectacular and profitable deals ever made in the pit. With two Wall Street men prepared to lose $50,000 in backing him he made $2,030,000 without the expenditure of a single dollar of the money guaranteed to him. Some weeks ago Mr. Brown, who had been running a corner in July cotton from New Orleans, came here and repeatedly threw the market into a panic. New high records were made for all options. After a week of battle Brown returned secretly to New Orleans, it being reported on good authority that he wanted to be in closer touch with his financial backers.

Just before his departure for the south he had numerous and long conferences with Mr. Sully. It is said also that he saw George H. McFadden of Philadelphia and New York and had an understanding with him that John McFadden, George's brother, who was in Liverpool, should manage the market there according to orders from Philadelphia. Mr. Sully went abroad ostensibly to rest, but it was thought strange that he should leave his family at home. Since his arrival in England the same strange movements have occurred in the market that characterized it when he was in control of it here.

It is believed in Wall street that Mr. Sully closed out his original deal as announced to free himself from his Wall street backers that he might enter into more advantageous connections with the McFaddens and Brown. It is known that the company controls every bale of cotton in sight. The market Saturday turned about and rose sharply on sensational advances in Liverpool, where quotations were 10 to 15 points higher at the local opening than they had been at the close Friday. As the bears had gone home believing they had finally turned the tide, they were thrown into wild excitement by the Liverpool prices and a sharp rise took place at the opening.

WON'T CONGRATULATE THE NEW SOVEREIGN

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The administration is in somewhat of a quandary over the course it should pursue in reference to the assassination of the king and queen of Serbia. When the head of a foreign state dies it is customary for the president of the United States to personally express his sorrow, and if the death be due to assassination, his horror as well to the new sovereign or chief executive, or to the nearest of kin of the deceased ruler. But in the present instance it would be the height of irony and in the poorest taste for President Roosevelt to telegraph the new king that he was filled with horror over the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga and extend his sympathy to the successor to the throne.

It would also at this time, it is held, be in very bad form for the president to telegraph his congratulations to a man who had attained the throne by an act of blood to which he was presumably a party. The probability is, therefore, that President Roosevelt will not send any communication whatever to Prince Karageorgievich and that Mr. Hay, the secretary of state, will refrain also from expressing, in the name of the government of the United States, the sorrow felt here over the death of the king and queen.

ODDS ON THE DERBY FAVORITES CUT

The local betting fraternity is displaying keen interest in the prices being laid against the chances of the various candidates in the American Derby, which will be run at Chicago next Saturday. A dispatch from Chicago to The Telegram says:

Four to one is the price against Irish Lad, the favorite for the American Derby, in O'Leary's future book. Saturday the odds against the great eastern 3-year-old were cut twice, eastern commissions and several big local bets forcing the figures against him first from 6 to 1 to 5 to 1, and later in the day from the latter price to 4's. John A. Drake's Savable was also cut to odds of 4 to 1 Saturday night after the excellent showing he made at Harlem. Wagers were wired and telephoned to O'Leary until the cut was necessary.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it to-day. Try a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. Get a package at your grocers to-day. 10 cts.

There is no longer the slightest doubt that the Whitney & Duryea candidate for the big race a week from next Saturday is coming to Chicago. Word was received from the east that the colt will probably be shipped within the next few days. With a pony as a traveling and stable companion, he will be sent on from New York in a palace horse car attached to one of the fast passenger trains.

John W. Rogers, who trains Irish Lad, is not a man to do much talking, and he has been very quiet about his plans concerning the son of Gandarias. However, it is well known that there are two turf scalps which the Whitneys covet this year. One is the American Derby and the other is the Suburban Handicap. Irish Lad has been especially prepared to get the former and Goldsmith, belonging to William C. Whitney, is the one with which they hope to take the latter.

It is very likely that Jockey Tommy Burns will have mounts in both the races mentioned. According to eastern reports the rider will have the leg upon Goldsmith in the Suburban at Sheepshead Bay June 18. Immediately after the race he will take the train for Chicago to ride Irish Lad in the Derby, which is run two days later.

It is probable, however, that the Jockey question is not definitely settled. O'Neil rode Irish Lad in the Brooklyn Handicap and handled him in masterly fashion. It was due to the Jockey almost as much as to the colt that Irish Lad was just able to beat out Gunfire in the feature event of the opening day of the Gravesend meeting.

No chances will be taken with the Whitney colt when he is shipped west. Water and feed enough to last him during the trip and while he is in Chicago will be shipped with him.

WOULDN'T TAKE AN OLD MAN'S MONEY

An old man, bent, lame and halt, walked painfully into the Kansas City State Bank yesterday afternoon. He approached the desk where W. O. Cox, treasurer of the relief fund, was sitting and held out in his hand ten silver dollars.

"I have come to leave a subscription for the flood sufferers," he said, proffering the money.

Mr. Cox looked at the man almost in amazement. He seemed old and feeble and lines of suffering were marked on his face. "My good man," he said, "we do not need your money. Keep it yourself."

"The man seemed disappointed when told that his money was not wanted. "I am a tool sharpener," he explained, "and this money is what I have saved. I would willingly give it to aid those who are distressed."

As the old man walked laboriously from the building Mr. Cox made the following note opposite the man's name and address:

"This man offered $10 for the relief fund, but I declined to accept it, for the reason that he is an old and severely deformed man and I did not think it would be right to take his money."—Kansas City Star.

FORTUNE AWAITING AN UNKNOWN HEIR

HALF A MILLION DOLLARS IS SAID TO BE VALUE OF OKLAHOMA ESTATE WHICH IS NOW WITHOUT AN OWNER.

GUTHRIE, Ok., June 13.—T. C. Churchill, a lawyer of Miles, Mich., is in Oklahoma endeavoring to find a supposed heir to the estate of Banker Stevens, of Miles, believed to amount to half a million dollars. The search is a sequel to the first killing in Oklahoma, that of Frank Stevens, by Captain L. M. Townley, new of Kansas City. It has been a mystery whether or not the younger Stevens ever was married, and the effort which Churchill is making will no doubt solve that part of the mystery.

Stevens came to Oklahoma in April, 1889, at the time of the opening of the country and he and Townley fled upon the same lots in Guthrie. One day in June, the year of the opening, Stevens walked into a store kept by Townley, armed and intending to kill the latter. As soon as Stevens entered the place, he reached for his revolver, but it failed to work. In the meantime, Townley had drawn his pistol and shot Stevens, the bullet passing through the stomach of his victim. Stevens died almost instantly. Townley was arrested and taken before Judge Foster, at Wichita, Kan. The case was bitterly fought, the father of Stevens employing I. P. Campbell of Wichita and W. P. Hackney of Winfield to prosecute. He threatened to hire H. V. Trude, a noted criminal lawyer of Chicago, to take a hand in the case. Finally it was decided that Townley acted in self-defense and he was cleared. He was defended by Judge Frank Dale of this place. It is the mission of those trying to find the rightful heir to the elder Stevens' estate to learn whether or not he had a child or even a wife, and, if so, to locate them. Judge Dale believes the testimony brought out in the murder trial indicated that Stevens had been married, but had deserted his wife in Minnesota. Stevens was but 28 years old and so far as is known no child was with him there. One report says that Stevens had a little son, that his parents separated and he was afterward placed with a family and his name changed. But deep mystery surrounds Stevens' domestic relations.

Townley has lived in Kansas City a number of years. He was a Union soldier, and at the time of the opening he boasted of being the finest pistol shot in this territory. He is said often to have expressed regret that he found it necessary to fire a second time in killing Stevens.

FLAG IS UNFURLED AT HIGH SCHOOL

FLUNG TO BREEZE FROM LOFTY POLE TODAY

Appropriate Exercises, Including Speeches by Mayor Powell, Superintendent Hogg, C. E. Wise and Rev. Luther Little—Patriotic Spectators Sing National Air

Flag day was celebrated this morning at the high school by shore exercises in connection with the unfurling of the new twenty-foot flag upon the magnificent flag pole given by the Fort Worth Telephone Company. The raising of the flag was under the direction of Mayor Thomas Powell and the exercises that followed it were presided over by Alexander Hogg, superintendent of schools.

The exercises began by the raising of the flag upon the new pole, which stands ninety-two and a half feet high and is the tallest ground pole in the city. As the flag reached the very top of the pole a slight twist of the rope unfurled it amidst the cheering of the several hundred spectators.

When the cheering subsided Superintendent Hogg stood upon a chair at the foot of the staff and introduced C. E. Wise, who presented the flag pole in behalf of the Fort Worth Telephone Company to the school and the city.

ADDRESS OF ACCEPTANCE

The address of acceptance was made by Mayor Powell. He said in part: "This is flag day in the United States. If there is any day that should stand next to the Fourth of July, this is the day. That flag represents all that is best in the civilization of the world. If that flag should cease to exist it would be the greatest blow that the world could suffer." He ended with the following words of advice to the children: "Love that flag. Study its history and you will become men and women worthy of being called American citizens."

Rev. Luther Little was called upon next for a speech. He spoke of the connection of the flag to the church and said: "Old Glory is the protector and the power which makes the Christian church possible in the United States. It was under that flag that religious liberty had its real birth."

The exercises were closed by a short speech by Superintendent Hogg, who gave a few facts as to the procuring of the pole and the flag. He thanked both the telephone company and the teachers and pupils for the pole and the flag. He closed with the statement: "William McKinley said that 'trade follows the flag,' but I say that 'the flag follows education.'" Upon finishing he requested that the spectators sing "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," which was done with great enthusiasm.

FLAG DAY

Flag day comes on June 14, but as that day fell on Sunday this year the celebration was postponed until today, as is always done when a holiday comes on Sunday. Flag day is in commemoration of the adoption of the first flag of the United States by congress on June 14, 1777. Since then the flag has been changed somewhat on account of the admission of new states to the Union. The form of thirteen stripes, as it exists today, was the form adopted in 1777. For awhile new stripes were added as well as new stars for each new state, but after they began to get more numerous the number of stripes was settled at thirteen and a single star added for each new state. Flag day is not a legal holiday except in New Mexico, where the government has the power to proclaim it such. It is celebrated all over the United States by the display of flags and bunting and in public schools by appropriate exercises.

BRYAN ANNOUNCES HIS LIFE BUSINESS

LINCOLN, Neb., June 15.—W. J. Bryan hastens to deny in his Commoner the report that he is to retire from active political affairs. He says:

"In a recent issue of the Commoner Mr. Bryan discussed the question of leadership and said that he was not seeking leadership, and then proceeded to say that no man is in a position to do his duty who is controlled by the ambition to be a leader, or who is always looking out for his own political future; that leadership is not secured in that way, neither can one insure his political position in future years by centering his thoughts upon his own interests; that he leads who proposes the wisest measures and defends them with the strongest arguments, and that no one can see the truth who constantly gazes at himself.

The republican and gold democratic papers jumped to the conclusion that Mr. Bryan was renouncing interest in public questions and removing himself from the arena of politics. Nothing in the editorial would justify such a construction. Mr. Bryan is interested in political questions, and will continue to discuss them with tongue and pen. In fact, the study and discussion of public questions is the business of his life, and no paper is justified in assuming that either now, or ten years from now, or twenty years from now, he will be less earnest or active in dealing with those questions than he has been during the last ten years. Whether the arguments presented by him will have any influence will depend, not upon the wishes of the corporation controlled papers, but upon the judgment of the people who, like himself, are seeking a just solution of all the problems with which society has to deal."

VAST WEALTH OF ORE DISCOVERED

Reports From New Mexico Tell of Copper and Silver Within a Few Inches of the Surface of Earth

DALHART, Texas, June 13.—Much excitement has been caused here by the news of an exceedingly rich strike of copper and silver that has been made in the central part of eastern New Mexico. Late assays from ore mined in the region show that it will run from $102 to $120 worth of pure copper to the ton.

The strike was investigated a few weeks ago by R. C. Stewart, an old engineer of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, in company with Conductor Matlock. They found that the wonderful richness claimed was not exaggerated and on their return here quietly told their friends.

Several companies have already been formed, and are now in the field perfecting plans. Every employe of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific within the next few days a general rush will be on.

There seems to be no question as to the ore being rich in both copper and silver. Thousands of acres, so it is said, contain unlimited deposits which in many places are covered by not more than six inches of earth.

WHERE SITUATED

The new find is near Conant, a small station south of Dalhart, on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, and is about fifty miles north of Santa Rosa.

During the past week every business house in Dalhart has been forced to its utmost by the demand for prospectors' supplies.

Dalhart is the junction of the Fort Worth and Denver City and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, whose direct connections for the new field are made.
