MASS FOR THE REPOSE OF LEO

College of Cardinals Celebrated It at Rome in Presence of a Distinguished Assemblage of Diplomats

FIRST OF ITS KIND SINCE PIUS DIED

Cardinal Gibbons Did Not Participate as an Officiant, but Sat With Cardinal Martinelli in the Congregation—Noble Guard Prostrated

ROME, July 28.—The first of the great requiem masses under the auspices of the college of cardinals for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo, was celebrated this morning in the Sistine chapel.

In the chapel stood a huge white catafalque thirty feet high and on it, upon two scarlet cushions, rested the triple crown of gold, shining brightly in the light of a hundred candles.

At the four corners of the catafalque burned candles ten feet high. Beside these stood noble guards motionless with drawn swords.

At the altar Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli, assisted by Cardinals Agliardi, Vincenzio Vannutelli, Sattoli and Richard, wearing white mitres and silken vestments.

Among the extraordinary array of the cardinals, was Cardinal Gottl, who instead of the scarlet cape wore a white mantle of the Carmelite order and was one of the most prominent.

During the ceremony one of the noble guards on duty beside the catafalque was overcome by the heat and had to be led out. Another guardman instantly took his place.

MASS IN LONDON LONDON, July 28.—Requiem mass for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo was celebrated at the oratory at Brompton today in the presence of an enormous congregation.

MASS AT BALTIMORE BALTIMORE, Md., July 28.—Impressive memorial service for the late Pope Leo XIII were held in the cathedral this morning.

TREASURES OF THE VATICAN Untold Riches Are Said to Be Stored in the Papal Residence

ROME, July 28.—Probably no one living aside from the papal treasurer or the any conception of the value of the treasures in the vatican. It is estimated that there is more gold than has ever come out of the Klondike mines, besides a fabulous collection of diamonds and other precious stones.

ANOTHER FIGHT WITH CONVICTS

Poses and Militia Have the Escaped Felons Surrounded and Will Capture or Exterminate Them

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 28.—At last accounts troops and posses organized by the sheriffs of the different counties are keeping in close touch with the convicts who broke out of the state prison at Folsom and their prisoners—the guards and jail officials—whom they have taken with them for self-protection.

BUREAU REPORT ON THE COTTON

Summary of State Conditions Shown by Answers to Government Inquiries

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The following is the state summary of the bureau crop report issued at noon today:

Arkansas—Making good growth, fruiting well; not all laid by; some grassy.

Alabama—Generally rain needed; still small, clean, growing well; fruiting slowly.

Georgia—Cotton improving rapidly, taking on squares and bloom in north.

Florida—Generally well worked; made fair progress; healthy and fruiting well, though small.

Louisiana—Warm, dry weather until the 25th enabled farmers to finish cleaning crop; cotton two to four weeks late in many sections; plant smaller and healthy; rust reported in few northern parts.

Mississippi—Doing well; growth not so rapid, branching and fruiting nicely; much in good condition.

North Carolina—Continues to do well, blooming freely and fruiting well.

Oklahoma—Cotton laid by, fruiting well with good growth, but small and late.

South Carolina—Cotton improved on clay lands; fruiting well and growing, but on sandy lands is shying and not growing or blooming satisfactorily.

Tennessee—Cotton growing well; generally small, but some fruiting.

Texas—Cotton healthy and generally made growth; but crop between two and four weeks late in northern and middle portions; plants generally fruiting well; boll weevil doing little damage.

Warden Henry, the administrator of the state plantations of Mississippi, has just returned from a trip to the delta, and reported that the cotton on state plantations and throughout that section has very good prospects.

RAINY WEATHER WILL CONTINUE ANOTHER DAY

Rainy conditions existed throughout Texas yesterday. The cotton region, especially throughout the southern and the eastern portions of the state were well watered yesterday.

MRS. MATTIE D. RICH RELEASED FROM PRISON

CHICAGO, Ill., July 28.—A dispatch to the Tribune from El Paso, Texas, says: Mrs. Mattie D. Rich of Chicago, who was sentenced in 1900 by Mexican courts to fifteen years' imprisonment in the penitentiary in Chihuahua for the murder of her husband, John D. Rich, in Juarez on the night of April 27, 1899, has been released.

PLANS TO MERGE ELECTRIC LINES

Immense Holding Company May Be Organized to Form a Traction Combine

JAIL BIRDS HAVE KEEPERS IN STRIPES

Several of the Escaped Prisoners Are Killed in the Engagements Which Have Occurred. Stage Driver Saw the Fleeing Party

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 28.—The Times today says: An immense holding company may be organized within six months to merge all the interurban electric lines tributary to Los Angeles.

The holding company was one of the details hinted at when it was recently announced that Huntington had secured a vital interest in the Los Angeles Traction Company, through its purchase by the Southern Pacific interests.

It is reported by the driver of a stage which passed between Pilot Hill and Colima that he saw the convicts walking close together.

The result of the fight between the convicts and officers at 7 o'clock last night, near Pilot Hill, in Eldorado county, was the death of Fred Howard, a convict, killed outright, and the wounding of another convict, a negro named Seavie.

When last seen the convicts were in citizens' clothing, while the prison-ers were in stripes. The latter appeared to be having a hard time of it, as they were heavily laden with bundles and ammunition.

The latest information is to the effect that another encounter has taken place between the fleeing convicts and pursuers, resulting in the death of John Allison, a convict, and another, whose name is yet unknown.

The posses and militia are closing in on the desperadoes and it is likely they will in a few hours be surrounded on all sides.

The weapon used was a 45-caliber revolver, the shot entering Clark's heart.

A MILLION AND A HALF

Decision Involving Large Amount Handed Down In Federal Court

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 28.—A decision has been handed down by Judge Ray in the United States circuit court, involving $1,500,000.

Jacob Edwards, one of the principal stockholders of the Bay State Gas Company of Delaware, brought an action against the Mercantile Trust Company of New York and the Bay State Gas Company of Massachusetts.

From a clerical error the action has grown into an intricate piece of litigation, and a demurrer to the complaint was filed by the Mercantile Trust Company, and this is upheld.

EIGHT MEN ENLISTED

Lieutenant Richardson Is Well Satisfied With Work

Lieutenant Louis C. Richardson, who has charge of the enlisting for the United States navy, which is going on here this week, was very enthusiastic about the matter when spoken to by a Telegram representative this morning.

"I have had a very good business here, eight men have enlisted in the two days that I have been here this week, which is a very good showing. At that rate I would get fully twenty-five men before the end of the week, which is far more than I ever expected. This visit will be a very successful one, and I have enlisted good material already. Those men that I have enlisted here have applied for positions as electricians, firemen and stenographers. I would like to see a fine crowd of young men enlist from here. The ones I have so far are just the kind of men that the government wants. There is no reason why Fort Worth shouldn't be well represented in the navy. San Antonio has thirty-two who enlisted there a short time ago."

JETT AND WHITE TRIAL

CYNTHIA, Ky., July 28.—Court opened at 10:30 a. m. this morning for the second day's trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of J. B. Marcum. One hundred men whose names were drawn yesterday were summoned to attend as jurors responded today and the session of the jury proceeds.

GEN. T. N. WAUL GONE TO REST

The Funeral Will Take Place in Fort Worth from W. B. Harrison's Home Tomorrow Afternoon

DISTINGUISHED IN LAW AND IN WAR

Performed Brilliant Service for the South as Commander of Waul's Legion—Was the Uncle of Mrs. W. B. Harrison, Whom He Raised

Word was received in Fort Worth this morning of the death last night on his farm near Greenville of General Thomas N. Waul, who during the civil war commanded Waul's Legion of Texans with signal gallantry and success.

General Waul was the uncle of Mrs. W. B. Harrison who was raised by him. W. B. Harrison and Mrs. Harrison were at the distinguished general's bedside when the end came and the funeral will take place in this city tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock from the Harrison residence, 328 Adams street.

The remains will be brought from Greenville over the Cotton Belt this afternoon. The pall bearers will not be named until late this evening.

General Waul was an intimate friend of Major K. M. Van Zandt with whom he was closely associated at various times during the civil war.

CONSTABLE CLARK IS KILLED

Gainesville Officer Shot in His Office at Noon Today—Liv- erty Man Arrested

GAINESVILLE, Texas, July 28.—J. Lem Clark, constable of Gainesville precinct and for several years a deputy sheriff of Cooke county, was shot and killed in his office at the courthouse at noon today. J. J. Tripp, a prominent delivery man, was arrested charged with the shooting.

The weapon used was a 45-caliber revolver, the shot entering Clark's heart.

ON ENGINE PILOT HE SAVES BROTHER'S LIFE

CLEBURNE MAN PERFORMS AN ACT OF HEROISM WHEN DANGER THREATENS ONE OF HIS BLOOD.

HAS GREAT PRESENCE OF MIND—SUSTAINED SERIOUS INJURY, BUT WILL RECOVER

CLEBURNE, Texas, July 27.—The Telegram has published a short account of an accident which happened to Frank Shaw in the Cleburne yards of the Santa Fe.

Frank and Jesse Shaw are brothers, long resident of Cleburne. They came in on the same train from Gainesville and were at the front end of the line, up switch for entrance to the yards. Frank got off to set a switch and started around the engine to climb to the guard, when his foot was caught in the square rail. He did not get it extricated till the engine was upon him. Realizing that he had but one chance to escape, he tried to mount the pilot, where his brother was standing. He fell and Jesse caught at him, by main strength keeping him from going further

STRAIN TELLS ON YOUNG GIRLS

Strenuous Life at Newport Is Too Much for the Debutantes in the Ultra Fashionable Set at the Famous Resort

FROM EARLY MORN UNTIL LATE AT NIGHT

They Start With Tennis and Wind Up With a Dance—Physicians Advise That Unless There Is a Rest They Cannot Survive the Pace

NEW YORK, July 28.—The strenuous life at Newport is making serious inroads upon the health of the young women, and hence a halt has been called by their parents or guardians, says the World.

Long before the dew is dry on the tennis courts at the Casino, bright girls, minus hats, and with flowing hair and arrayed in chic white gowns with short skirts, assemble to play tennis and patronize the squash courts.

The players, mostly young women, play until lunch. Then comes the driving hour, a visit to the golf club, then a reception and at night they are expected at dinners.

The strain is great and is particularly noticeable upon the wan faces of the debutantes. Several of the latter have been advised by their physicians to seek rest and are preparing to obey.

MARK TWAIN IS TO GO ABOARD

His Physician Advises That He and His Wife Need the Trip to Benefit Their Failing Health

THEY ARE TO GO TO THE MEDITERRANEAN

Gives Up His Riverdale Home to George W. Perkins and Return Is Doubtful—Says That He Is a Native of Old Virginia

NEW YORK, July 28.—Mark Twain feels his wife has become an invalid, and, as he has been advised by his family physician to take his wife to a warmer climate, he has given up his American home. It is said that the prescription was recommended as much for Mr. Clemens as for his wife, and in an interview the humorist announced that he had decided to make another visit to foreign lands. This, he said, would not be a tramp abroad, but would be by boat and rail direct to Italy.

They will go direct to Florence by way of Genoa, and expect to sail the latter part of September on the Commonwealth.

"I have chosen this boat for two reasons," explained the author, "One reason was because the name of the vessel is homespun and comfortable and the other is that she is of the Old Dominion line."

"Now, very few even of my own family are aware that I am a native Virginian. That is, my folks—which is the Misssippi name for ancestors—came from Virginia, and I also came from there—by the wireless system, of course."

"Yes, we have abandoned our home at Riverdale in favor of my friend George W. Perkins. He has purchased it, and I presume, will take charge at once. We have grown much attached to the old place and leave it with a double regret, because there is no telling whether or when we shall return to the United States."

"From its wide windows and broader verandas we have enjoyed the still wider sweep of the river which the house commands. Perhaps the view has been a trifle too fine to make a joke of, and that is why I have not been in a humorous mood for several months past."

"Only the other day I was browsing through some of my books in search of some facts which had escaped my memory. I remembered that the well I was looking for were invented by Huxley and Darwin. My memory is not quite as good as it was once upon a time. I suppose I need a change also."

"I have never set up in the prophet business, and so cannot predict how long we shall remain in Italy. We are going there because the atmosphere of Florence was beneficial to my wife when we were there before."

under the engine. Jesse wrapped one leg about the drawhead and thus got one of his hands free to pull the air plug, set the brakes and stop the train. The terrible strength exerted strained his back and shoulders badly, but the almost superhuman feat saved his brother's life, and had it not been for this he would have been ground under the engine. As it was he sustained a compound fracture of the lower right leg just above the ankle. He was at once taken to the home of his mother, on West Henderson street, and there attended by Santa Fe surgeons. Later he was carried to the Arcadia sanitarium, where Dr. E. B. Osborn reset the bones, using silver wire to pull them together, and today he is doing very well.

TO RESTORE CYCLING

NEW YORK, July 28.—Plans are under consideration for the re-establishment next year of the defunct Intercollegiate Bicycle Racing Association. National Amateur Champion Hurely, who is a sophomore at Columbia, has been in consultation with the manager of the former Yale Cycle Club, and together they agreed to make an effort to put cycling back into its former place in college sports.

Inasmuch as Columbia and Yale were the prime movers and most frequent victors in the former championship meetings, their efforts are likely to be backed up by the other colleges.

WILL REPORT VERY SOON

NEW YORK, July 28.—The commission appointed by President Roosevelt some time ago to examine into affairs in the custom house at this port, has nearly completed its labor and it is said a report will be made in the next few days.

Among the many abuses that an effort will be made to correct is the long swing around the circle taken in the regular course of examination into complaints. At present, in the first place, the complaint is referred to the secretary of the treasury. If it concerns undervaluation it is referred to the collector.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at H. T. Pangburn & Co's.

The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver, bladder or uric acid trouble you will find it just the remedy you need.

If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this great kidney remedy, Swamp-Root, and a book that tells all about it and its great cures, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing, be sure to mention that you read this generous offer in the Fort Worth Daily Telegram. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

referred by the secretary to the assistant secretary of treasury having charge of customs. He in turn refers it to the supervising special agent, Mr. W. D. Christy, to the agent in charge from which it goes to the agent, then the appraiser, who passes it over to the man who originally makes the examination.

Thus a complaint after passing all around the circle comes back to the man who made the original examination and he is asked to pass judgment upon himself.

BREAD RIOT IN NEWARK

NEW YORK, July 28.—A "bread riot" has occurred in Newark, N. J., owing to the strike of the Hagerman bakers, who demand a holiday on Saturdays. The supply of unleavened bread having become exhausted, two Hebrews journeyed to New York and returned with two wagon loads. They were quickly held up by a clamoring throng of hungry persons and a riot on their stock was made. Men and women fought their way to the wagons and a riot was provoked when a number of men began throwing the bread into the crowd. Many persons were trampled down and trampled upon and several women were carried fainting out of the crowd.

The police appeared when the trouble was at its height. After a vigorous fight, they dispersed the rioters.

BANTAMWEIGHTS TO GO

CHICAGO, Ill., July 28.—A dispatch to the Tribune from San Francisco says: A permit has been issued for the twenty-round boxing bout between Harry Forbes of Chicago and Frankie Nell of San Francisco for Aug. 13, the night before the big battle for the heavy-weight championship. The fight will take place at Mechanics' pavilion and will be for the bantam-weight championship. The boys will weigh 115 pounds at 3 p. m. on the day of the fight.

HE IS LIKE NO OTHER MEN

An American woman who met Whistler, the artist, a year or two ago was amazed at the brilliancy of his wit and the originality of his character. "He was like no other human being I ever knew," she says, "a creature of moods and epigrams, but altogether delightful. After an hour's chat with him I felt as if I had been conversing with a flash of lightning."

THE FARMER FAILS

In health just as does the city-man, and he fails commonly from the same cause, "stomach trouble." The farm is a wholesome place to live; the farmer's life is a healthy life; but no external advantages can overcome the effects of a diseased stomach. When the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased, the food eaten is imperfectly digested and assimilated, and the consequent loss of nutrition results in physical debility.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of 'Pissant Pellets' a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. J. Thompson, of Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to one hundred and twenty-five pounds, and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly one hundred and sixty and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose, therefore accept no substitute for Golden Medical Discovery.

WANT A DAY AT FALL FESTIVAL

Colonel McChristy of Brownwood in Fort Worth This Morning on Uniform Rank Business—Prefer Ft. Worth

COLONEL TALKS OF CROPS AND RAILROADS

Harvests in Brown County Have Been Good—Crops Are in Excellent Condition—General Opinion Is That Frisco Extension Will Be Built

W. D. McChristy, of Brownwood, was in the city this morning en route home from Dallas where he has been during the past few days in the interest of the Texas division, Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias.

Besides occupying the important office of lieutenant colonel of the First Texas regiment, Mr. McChristy is also clerk of Brown county.

There has been some effort put forth to secure for the coming Dallas fair a special Uniform Rank day. October 7 has been selected as the date, and if the plan is carried out there will be a large gathering of members of the order at Dallas at that time.

Mr. McChristy found when he arrived in Fort Worth that there is an equally strong effort being made to arrange for a Uniform Rank day at Fort Worth during the time of the Fall Festival, and that there is a general belief that either Dallas or Fort Worth will have a most flourishing condition. Crops have been good and late rains have practically insured those which have not already been harvested. Wheat yielded 20 bushels to the acre, while oats went as high as 75, 40 bushels being below the average. Corn looks fine and there is an abundance of everything on the farms.

BROWN COUNTY FLOURISHING

Mr. McChristy reported Brown county and its entire section of the state in a most flourishing condition. Crops have been good and late rains have practically insured those which have not already been harvested. Wheat yielded 20 bushels to the acre, while oats went as high as 75, 40 bushels being below the average. Corn looks fine and there is an abundance of everything on the farms.

EXPECT THE EXTENSION

The general opinion in Brownwood regarding the much talked of extension of the Frisco from Brady to San Antonio is that the company will make the improvement within the next year. Mr. McChristy said that while nothing definite has been announced as far as he knows, yet in Brownwood it is expected the building of the line will be one of the improvements of the present year.

INSTALL THEIR OFFICERS

Members of Local Societies Planning Picnic at Handley

At the regular meeting of Floral Tent No. 47, Maccabees of the World, last evening, the recently elected officers of that society were installed for the ensuing year.

After the installation, J. B. Sawtell, of Waco, state commander of the order, who officiated as installing officer, addressed the members present on sub-ject of general interest to the order. Mr. Sawtell has been a member of the Maccabees for sixteen years.

RIISING POETICAL STAR

Charles Dumas, who has been honored by the Society of Letters of Paris with the Sully-Prudhomme prize, which is equivalent to being made poet laureate of France, is an exceedingly young man, just out of his teens. His political works have the fire of genius and he seems to be possessed of more than the average mental balance for a poet. He is the rising poetical star, and his recognition by so important a critical body as the society of which Marcel Prevost is president is as great a compliment as the bestowal of the laureate wreath.

HOME AT WACO BURNED

S. P. Trott Apprised of Fact by Telephone This Morning

S. P. Trott, at present a resident of this city, received a telephone message this morning from Waco, stating that his house at that place was destroyed by fire last night. Mr. Trott's family is living in Waco, but was undisturbed. Mr. Trott departed for Waco this morning.

SHE IS THE QUEEN

The countess of Warwick, one of the most beautiful women in England, has been a queen of London society this season in spite of the fact that the king and queen ignored her splendid entertainments. When the countess was Lady Brooke she was a guest at Tranby Croft at the time the celebrated baronet scandal developed. The prince of Wales, King Edward, was also a guest and because of his presence an effort was made to hush up the matter. But Lady Brooke talked and cured quickly, thoroughly and permanently with only one small dose a day of Drake's Palmetto Wine.

Any reader of the Telegram may have a trial bottle of Drake's Palmetto Wine sent free and prepaid by writing to Drake Formula Company, Lake and Dearborn streets, Chicago, Ill. A letter or postal card is the only expense.

$5,000. Reward for the Arrest and Conviction of——the parties who originated and circulated, the rumor that "Force" Food contained drugs or other injurious ingredients.

$5,000. additional will be paid to anyone proving that "Force" does, or ever did, contain any drug or other injurious or unhealthful ingredient, being composed solely of Wheat and Barley, with a seasoning of table salt, steam cooked, flaked, and roasted.

Do us the justice, if you question the absolute purity or healthfulness of "Force," to send a package to the Health Department of your city for analysis.

The "Force" Food Company, Buffalo, N. Y. GENTLEMEN—A rumor having reached me that your product, "FORCE," contained injurious ingredients I took the occasion to analyze it, in the interest of my own family and of some friends who are liberal users of it.

It may interest you to know that I found it consisted exclusively of Whole Wheat, Barley and Salt, and is absolutely free from any injurious elements whatever.

Permit me to express my sincere regret that such a serious and baseless rumor should gain footing with the public.

You are free to use this letter in any way that will help to do your product justice.

Yours truly, WILBUR L. SCOVILLE.

Massachusetts College of Pharmacy. Boston, June 30, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern: At the invitation of the "FORCE" Food Company, of Buffalo, I have visited their Mills and made a careful examination of the materials from which "FORCE" is prepared, and the processes which convert it into its finished condition.

I found that "FORCE" consists exclusively of what my previous analysis indicated, viz: Whole Wheat and Barley, with a favoring of Table Salt, flaked, cooked and sterilized by 300 degrees of heat.

A feature of the manufacture which impressed me considerably was the fact that the process is entirely mechanical, the food being prepared, cooked and boxed by machinery, without ever coming in contact with the hands or clothing of the mill operatives.

I was also gratified to note that an experienced chemist daily supervised the entire output, and that each day's manufacture was also tested by an expert cook.

Signed, WILBUR L. SCOVILLE, Professor of Theory and Practice of Chemistry.

HERBERT M. HALL, Ph. D., Analytical Chemist and Assayer. June 26, 1903.

The "Force" Food Company, Buffalo, N. Y. GENTLEMEN—In view of the rumors regarding the alleged adulteration of "FORCE," it has been a satisfaction to me to visit your Mills, investigate, and analyze your product.

You are free to publish this statement made over my signature, that I found "FORCE" to be absolutely pure, consisting solely of Whole Wheat and Barley, flavored with table salt, and free from any injurious substance whatever.

I examined, in detail, the various steps in the manufacture of your product, such as the steam cooking, the flaking and the roasting, as well as the packing, and find all to be remarkably clean and of absolute healthfulness. The final roasting is done at a temperature above 300° F., which, with the steam cooking, completely sterilizes the product, and the entire process, from the first step to the final sealing of the package, is a mechanical one, the product at no time coming in contact with the hands or clothing of the persons handling the machines or packages.

Very respectfully, HERBERT M. HALL, Chemist to the City of Buffalo.

STOCK YARD NOTES
Messrs. C. and M. A. Branch of Edna, Jackson county, had 206 steers on yesterday's market, which averaged 988 pounds and sold at $3.25, one of the best sales made on this market for some time. M. A. Branch, in speaking of the sale, said the market was very satisfactory and their only regret was they didn't bring the rest of their steers at this time. The steers sold yesterday on telegraph orders and were cake fed. Mr. Branch says that crops in the vicinity of Edna are fully a month behind, on account of the rain early in the season. The boll weevil is bothering the cotton here, in addition to the short stand on account of the late season, this makes the outlook for this year's cotton crop rather unsatisfactory. The acreage of both cotton and corn is less than it was last year.

W. G. Heggs returned Sunday from Chicago, where he took twelve loads of Texas steers. He was fortunate in striking a good market.
G. E. Waters and Dave Diller of Moran, Tex., were at the yards today with four carloads of steers. The steers were mostly 3-year-old graded Herefords and averaged in the neighborhood of 1,050, bringing $3.45.
J. T. Vandiver of Richland had a load of steers on today's market. He has been having good showings recently, said Mr. Vandiver, "and crops are all in fine shape. There is more feed stuff this year than ever before in our section."

D. S. Criner and D. S. Sexton of Ardmore, I. T., were at the yards today with two cars of cows. They report good crops near Ardmore with more rain than Fort Worth has enjoyed. There are plenty of cattle, but no hogs left near Ardmore, they say.
E. Riley of Jacksboro had three cars of steers and cows on today's market, and accompanied the shipment here.
W. M. Perkins of Jacksboro was at the yards today with a carload of cows.

OF INTEREST TO STOCKMEN
The feeling of the west Kansas stockmen over the recently enacted dipping law has become so bitter that it is believed the order will be modified by the governor. Governor Bailey says it was not the intention of the state board to compel the dipping of uninfected cattle, which appears to be the case from the way the order now stands.

Farmers in the vicinity of Shawnee, Ok., are experimenting with a variety of seed corn imported from Mexico, which is said to produce a crop that drouth will not affect. One farmer says he has raised a crop yielding forty-six bushels per acre last season, which did not have a drop of rain after the seed was planted. More than 15,000 Iowa farmers are now receiving daily weather reports over rural telephones, the forecast being telegraphed from the office of the weather bureau in Des Moines to the principal towns and reported for the benefit of subscribers by the exchange operators in the various rural telephone offices. At this particular season of the year the service is proving immensely popular. Such a plan is possible of being carried out in Texas as well as the Hawkeye state.

The Chicago market opened steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 6 points and on call showed some little firmness as a result of covering based on firmer cables. The weather man indicated favorable climatic conditions, however, and after opening there was a continuation of selling noted yesterday which carried the new crop months down about last night's closing. Supporting orders for September around 10.50 and October at 9.50 developed, checking the decline and prices again exhibited an upward tendency. Trading is quiet and fluctuations narrow.

W. H. Davison of Hurnville, near where oil has just been discovered, was at the yards today with a load of cows and 37 head of sheep. IN THE STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, July 28.—Although opening prices of many stocks were higher than at yesterday's close, the stock market showed a hesitating tone in the early dealings. Nevertheless, there was more good buying of high priced railway shares, though in moderate amounts. A few high grade industrials exhibited marked firmness. The sentiment is increasingly cheerful. The absence of any more failure announcements in the first half hour helped to create a better feeling. The short covering is again extensive. Prices yielded later on partly as a result of realizing.

AN EMERGENCY RATE

Texas Railroad Commission Orders Merchants' Rates in Force
On account of reduced rates to merchants' conventions at Kansas City, St. Joseph, St. Louis and other points outside of Texas, and which said rates are participated in by the Rock Island, the Katy, Santa Fe, Denver and Frisco, the Texas railroad commission has ordered an emergency rate of one and one-half fare for round trip tickets between points in the state.

The oil belt is about thirteen miles from the railroad, Henrietta, on

Fort Worth and Denver and Missouri, Kansas and Texas being the nearest shipping point. The land where the oil was found is ordinary Texas prairie and no unusual soil or rock is encountered.
The farmers and ranchmen in the vicinity of Hurnville are anxious to have the field developed as rapidly as possible, and C. B. Morgan, with whom an interview was published in The Telegram of Sunday morning, is overwhelmed with orders for derricks and wells. Before oil was struck land was selling at $10 per acre, but now choice ground is going readily at from $75 to $100 per acre, and will rise still higher, says Mr. Davison. He expects to have a well drilled as soon as Mr. Morgan can get the derricks on the field, as he has 240 acres in the heart of the belt.

FEARLESS NEGRO BOY WINS ACQUITTAL

Cosby Black, a most unusual little negro boy, was charged with trespassing on the railroad tracks and in the railroad yards of the Santa Fe in the corporation court this morning. Cosby is mostly lip, the rest of his face receding in almost horizontal gradations from his labial projections. His shirt was so dilapidated and perforated that he had to fold his arms to keep it from falling off, and even then much dusky hide was in evidence. He pleaded not guilty in a most determined way and marched around to the seat set apart for prisoners when on trial, with his arms folded and a belligerent stride that indicated trouble if anyone attempted to swear to anything against him.

On account of reduced rates to merchants' conventions at Kansas City, St. Joseph, St. Louis and other points outside of Texas, and which said rates are participated in by the Rock Island, the Katy, Santa Fe, Denver and Frisco, the Texas railroad commission has ordered an emergency rate of one and one-half fare for round trip tickets between points in the state.

COUNTRY CLUB TO BE OPENED NEXT TUESDAY

At a meeting of the directors of the Country Club held yesterday in the afternoon at the Farmers' and Mechanics' bank it was decided to have the meeting for the stockholders of the club postponed to the following Tuesday, August 4, at 7 o'clock.
At this meeting the members of the club who have paid up their membership and received their stock certificates will elect a new board of directors for the new year. The question of the formal opening of the home of the club will also be decided. After the meeting is over the members of the club will be taken through the clubhouse and a general inspection will take place.

AUSTIN, Texas, July 28.—The governor appointed the following delegates at large from the state of Texas to the Trans-Mississippi commercial congress, which will meet at Seattle, Wash., on Aug. 18 next: W. C. McKamy of Dallas, J. W. Link of Orange, R. B. Norvell of Beaumont, J. A. Mooney of Woodville, S. P. Jones of Marshall, A. L. Clark of Tyler, W. M. Inboden of Rusk, George D. Neal of Navarro, H. G. Gil of Palestine, W. Gregg of Palestine, George C. O'Brien of Beaumont, Paul Waples of Fort Worth, Ed H. Harrell of Houston, Waller S. Baker of Waco, R. M. Johnston of Houston, W. H. Stark of Orange, R. G. Lewis of Galveston, J. Polk of Galveston, M. E. Foster of Houston, J. L. Thompson of Willard, James B. Wells of Brownsville, A. P. Duncan of Waco, D. B. Henderson of Galveston, Dudley G. Wooten of Dallas, George F. Sooter of Dallas, Louis J. Wortham of Austin.
Chartered—Farmers' Gin Company of Lone Oak, Hunt county, capital stock $20,000. The Trinity Valley Trust Company of Dallas filed an amendment to the charter, increasing the capital stock from $2,000 to $4,000.
Five large companies whose charters were forfeited June 6 for non-payment of franchise tax, paid the tax and were reinstated today.
The sham battle, an exciting feature of the encampment, will be pulled off Aug. 24.
Instructions have been issued by the city collector to the city marshal to file complaints against every doctor, lawyer and agent in Austin, who are delinquent in the payment of occupation tax.

STEERS WERE FED HERE

Frank Carson has returned from St. Louis where he went last week with eight cars of steers for William Anson, which were sold late Saturday evening. One load averaged 1,188 pounds sold for $5.15, beating the top price for native steers at St. Louis that day by 15 cents. The other seven cars averaged 1,141 pounds and sold at $4.90. Swift taking the entire eight cars.
"Old commission men who say the load which brought $5.15 said it was the best load of Texas steers ever sold on a St. Louis market," said Mr. Carson this morning.
The steers were shipped to Fort Worth in February from Coleman, Tex., and had been fed for ten months. They were all deboned and were mostly Herefords and shorthorns. They struck a lower market and it was said if they had reached St. Louis Thursday, the tops would have readily brought $5.40.

IN THE COURTS

John Brown, a young man of 20, who resides at 1215 W. 10th street, was released from the Tarrant county jail last night. He had been in jail on a charge of horse theft. This afternoon he is again in jail and the same charge again. It is alleged that Brown was released on his own recognizance for the theft of a horse from his uncle, Rube Hedges, last night; also with stealing a saddle from J. P. Shelton. He was caught this morning.

A MOB IN INDIANA

LOGANSPORT, Ind., July 28.—Armed with shotguns, revolvers, pitchforks and clubs a mob of infuriated citizens of Harrison township are scouring the country for an unknown negro who last evening attempted to assault Mrs. Joseph Wats on the road near her home, about three miles from Lucerne, this county. The mob is headed by George Wats, son of the woman assaulted. He will be hanged. The posse hopes to catch the negro in Sutter's prairie.

FEARLESS NEGRO BOY WINS ACQUITTAL

Cosby Black, a most unusual little negro boy, was charged with trespassing on the railroad tracks and in the railroad yards of the Santa Fe in the corporation court this morning. Cosby is mostly lip, the rest of his face receding in almost horizontal gradations from his labial projections. His shirt was so dilapidated and perforated that he had to fold his arms to keep it from falling off, and even then much dusky hide was in evidence. He pleaded not guilty in a most determined way and marched around to the seat set apart for prisoners when on trial, with his arms folded and a belligerent stride that indicated trouble if anyone attempted to swear to anything against him.

THE IDLER'S NOTE BOOK

Did you ever meet a "wasone"? I do not refer to the common and rather slangily-named sort of creature known as the "hasbeen," but to a real, genuine, simon-pure, quarantine-inspected wasone.

He comes into the office about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when you're rushed to death trying to write three desks to a head and can only think of words enough for two, and then dropping into the nearest chair beside your desk, he remarks sympathetically, "I was once a newspaper man."

Stranger to say, the announcement yields you little comfort, still less when he proceeds to tell you that he reformed from the newspaper business a number of years ago and is now selling life insurance, and his disease is incurable, so he might as well be home with one.

Unlike the hasbeens, there are three kinds of wasones. There is the man who was once something and now isn't anything. There is the man who was once something and is now something else. There is the man who was once not much of anything and is now something. All three are equally bad, and all are equally incurable.

The man who was once telegraph editor of the Enquirer and who is now sticking type when any of the regular men happen to be off duty belongs to the first class. Occasionally he imagines he is at his old job and cheerfully volunteers suggestions on how to run the paper as he would have done it in the old days.

Occasionally he imagines he is at his old job and cheerfully volunteers suggestions on how to run the paper as he would have done it in the old days. He contents himself with sarcastic oscillations of his lips like criticism and talks sadly of how times are changed. This same species of wasone isn't confined to the newspaper office, for the piano-tuner who formerly conducted a studio in New York, the tailor who once owned and maintained a grocery store, the ex-railroad magnate who is now selling cigars, all belong to the same category and doubtless you have met some one of them some time or some place. Maybe you live with one.

The wasone who isn't now, however, is in some respects better than the second species mentioned. The man who used to sell typewriters but who is now collecting laundry, he still started out to take voice culture and no no manure, the life insurance agent who used to take subscriptions for an encyclopedia, really haven't gone up or down so much, but they're all fond of telling what they used to do and giving elaborate explanations as to why they happened engaged in what they are doing now.

GRAUSTARK

By GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

Greenfall Lorry, a wealthy American globe-trotter stumbles into acquaintance with a charming foreign girl on the train from Denver to Washington. The pair get left at the station when the flyer stops for repairs in West Virginia. Lorry wires ahead to hold the train at the next town. He hires a wagon to drive them the intervening four miles. They catch the train. Lorry learns the young lady's name is Miss Guggenlocker and her companions are her uncle and aunt. They arrive in Washington and Lorry is asked to breakfast with the trio. They leave for New York. Lorry spends a day trying to work, but gives it up and rushes to New York, hoping to catch a farwelling glimpse of Miss Guggenlocker before she sails. Just as the Kaiser Wilhelm steams away he catches sight of her and throws a kiss from the tips of his fingers. To his great surprise the gesture is returned. Lorry joins his old friend Harry Anghuish, an American artist, in Paris. Graustark and its capital, Edelweiss, are located by a guidebook. The Americans get no trace of the Guggenlockers there. Lorry sees his charmer driving in a carriage with a beautiful companion of her own sex. He gets a glance of recognition, but the carriage rolls on, leaving the mystery unsolved. Later he receives a note at his hotel, signed Sophie Guggenlocker, inviting him to visit her next day. In the evening Lorry and Anghuish rattle about the grounds of the castle where dwells the court of the Princess of Graustark. They overhear a plot to abduct the princess to resolve to capture the Princess re-handled. Following the conspirators, Lorry finds himself in a room he hears them designate as that of the princess. Lorry tells the princess of the plot. Miss Guggenlocker, however, the guard is in the abduction plot. He tells Lorry with a terrible blow. Anghuish to the rescue. Lorry quarters in the castle. The princess visits him, but forbids all talk of love. Graustark is bankrupt and owes the neighboring principedom of Apxhain $30,000,000. The creditor demands cash or thecession of the richest districts of Graustark. The Princess of Apxhain offers to extend the loan to the princess, marry his son Lorenz. Prince Gabriel of Dawsbergen also bids for the princess' hand with offer of a loan. Yetive tells Lorry that she belongs to her people and will marry Lorenz. Lorry discovered kissing the princess while she is seated on the throne. He quits the castle by royal command. Betrothal of the princess to Lorenz. The Americans recognize Gabriel as chief conspirator in the abduction plot.

Their disease runs to expanding statements regarding what they did while at their other occupation. Occasionally they are more sincere and sorrow because they didn't stick at what they started out to do. Isolated cases of this latter sort develop into the sub-species known as the I-could-have-beens, but it isn't my purpose to drag those unfortunate people into these paragraphs.

Lastly, there is the successful fellow who was a poor boy—heaven only knows he's familiar enough to every one. He may be manager of an office and started as office boy. If so he'll tell you before you've talked to him ten minutes, even if you only dropped in to inquire the price of embossed oil cloth. Sometimes he's religious and has vagaries for telling Sunday school recitations how he happened to make a trail of glory out of an ordinary brush-pile mudgig. Sadder of all this sort is the man of this sort who thinks it needful to preach to the other fellows in the office beneath him on how he did it till the weakness of the flesh makes them plug their ears with absorbent cotton and curse between their teeth in sheer despair.

Oh, there are lots of the wasones. Maybe you know some that don't come under any of the three sorts mentioned. If so save them to yourself and win a martyr's crown. The world will honor you for it and really won't miss them. By and by they will gently glide into the realm of hasbeens. After a few years, even that wasone will cease to hold them any more, and then one happy day they will sink into the sweet and blissful oblivion of the isn't-any-more and great joy will be your own. The Americans recognize Gabriel as chief conspirator in the abduction plot.

The case was crowded with men and women. In a far corner sat a party of Apxhain nobles, their prince, a most democratic fellow, at the head of a long table. There were songs, jests and boisterous laughter. The celebration grew wilder, and Lorry and Anghuish crossed the room and, taking seats at a table, ordered wine and cigars, both eager for a closer view of the prince. How Lorry loathed him!

Lorenz was a good looking young fellow, little more than a boy. His smooth face was flushed, and there was about him an air of dissipation that suggested depravity in its advanced stage. The face that might have been handsome was the reflection of a ruse, dashing, devilish. He was fair haired and tall, taller than his companions by half a head. With reckless abandon he drank and sang and jested, arrogant in his mighty merriment. His cohorts were not far behind him in riotous wit.

At length one of the revelers, speaking in German, called on Lorenz for a toast to the Princess Yetive, his promised bride. Without a moment's hesitation the prince sprang to his feet, held his glass aloft and cried:

"Here's to the fairest of the fair, sweet Yetive, so hard to win, too good to lose. She loves me, God bless her heart! And I love her, God bless her heart too! For each kiss from her wondrous lips I shall credit myself with 1,000 gavvos. That is the price of a kiss."

"I'll give 2,000!" roared one of the nobles, and there was a laugh in which the prince joined.

"Nay! I'll not sell them now. In after years, when she has grown old and her lips are parched and dry from the sippings I have had, I'll sell them all at a bargain. Alas, she has not yet kissed me!"

Lorry's heart bounded with joy, though his hands were clinched in rage. "She will kiss me tomorrow. Tomorrow I shall taste what no other man has touched, what all men have coveted. And I'll be generous, gentlemen. She is so fair that your foul mouths would blight with but one caress upon her tender lips, and yet you shall not be deprived of bliss. I shall kiss her thrice for each of you. Let me count. Thrice eleven is thirty-three. Aye, thirty-three of my kisses shall be wasted for the sake of my friends. Lucky dogs! Drink to my princess!"

"Bravo!" cried the others. And the glasses were-raised to lip. A chair was overturned. The form of a man landed suddenly at the side of the prince, and a rough hand dashed the glass from his fingers, the contents flying over his immaculate English evening dress.

"Don't you dare to drink that toast!" cried a voice in his astonished ear, a voice speaking in excited German. He whirled and saw a scowling face before his own, a pair of gray eyes that flashed fire.

"What do you mean?" he demanded, anger replacing amazement. The other members of his party stood as if spellbound. "I mean that you speak of the Princess of Graustark. Do you understand

Oh! screamed the prince, convulsed with rage, starting back and instinctively reaching for the sword he did not carry. "You shall pay for this! I will teach you to interfere!"

"I'll insult you more decidedly just to avoid misapprehension," snarled Lorry, swinging his big fist squarely upon the mouth of the prince. His royal highness landed under a table ten feet away.

Instantly the cafe was in an uproar. The stupefied Apxhainians regained their senses, and a general assault was made upon the botheaded American. He knocked another down, Harry Anghuish coming to his assistance with several savage blows, after which the Graustark spectators and the waiters interfered. It was all over in an instant, yet a sensation that would live in the gossip of generations had been created. A prince of the realm had been brutally assaulted! Holding his jaw, Lorenz picked himself from the floor, several of his friends running to his aid. There was blood on his lips and chin; it trickled to his shirt front. For some moments he stood panting, glaring at Lorry's mocking face.

"I am Lorenz of Apxhain, sir," he said at last, his voice quivering with suppressed anger.

"It shall be a pleasure to kill you, Lorenz," observed his adversary, displaying his ignorance of leze majesty.

Anghuish, pale and very much concerned, dragged him away, the prince leaving the cafe ahead of them, followed by his chattering, cursing companions. Prince Gabriel was standing near the door as they passed out. He looked at the Americans sharply, and Anghuish detected something like triumphant joy in his eyes.

"Good Lord, Lorry, this means a duel! Don't you know that?" cried he as they started upstairs. (Continued tomorrow.)

AVERAGES OF THE PANTHER PLAYERS

Disch Leads Now With a Percentage of .333, While Combs Comes Next With .302

The batting averages of the Panther team for the last eight games show a decided improvement over the averages of week before last. The average of the team has advanced from .228 which it was on July 19 to .254. The team has been batting well, in fact the number of hits made in the past week was probably greater than any other week. Nevertheless the Panthers have been unfortunate in winning games and can only boast of two games out of the eight. The reason is that although so many hits have been made they all came in different innings so that runs could not result.

The greatest improvement has been shown by Disch who has been to bat 33 times and has made 14 hits. Up to Saturday's game he had an average of .500 for the week but in the last two games he has made but one hit out of eight times at the bat. This brings his batting average over three hundred again for the second championship series. Combs has also advanced into the .300 class. He had a batting average week before last has dropped into third place although he did make four hits out of four times at bat Friday. His percentage has not suffered very greatly, however, as he has only dropped off 17 points.

Buchanan made a great improvement on account of one game in which he made three hits. Lockhead has remained about the same and Jarvis has made up for the improvement shown by his fellow pitchers by dropping off as much as he advanced.

FIELDING AVERAGES

In the fielding there is no one that has a perfect record any more. Buchanan who led last week made three errors in one game and lost his record. Schaezke spoiled his chances for a clean slate by fumbling an easy one Sunday. Hippart, the only other player who could have a perfect record, dropped the only two chances he had and consequently is at the bottom of the list.

The other leaders, McMurray, Disch and Jarvis have all advanced one place on account of the dropping of Buchanan out of first place. Their relative position remains the same, however.

The team has stolen 12 bases during the week. Peer and Disch have pilfered 7 each while the rest are divided among the rest of the team.

Quite a number of extra base hits have been made during the week. The total number of extra bases made on hits has advanced from 25 to 42. Disch and McMurray have made the best advance with two two-baggers and one three-bagger and four two-baggers respectively.

ADDITIONAL REMARKS

Jarvis pitched three games last week and now has a record of six straight losses, which is quite different from his ten victories out of eleven games at the first of the season. He has now pitched seventeen games.

Schaezke returned to the game last week. After playing one game and part of another, he retired as he found that his ankle was not strong enough to bear him up in quick starts. On that account, while he was in the game, he was somewhat of a detriment to the team because he was unable to take chances which should have been handled by him. Several hits were safe which a whole second baseman would have smothered. His return Sunday showed that his condition was again perfect.

The umpire question has been problematic.

A Surgical Operation

is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried WeDitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: "I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since."—H. A. Tisdale, Summertown, S. C. ably settled for good. Two umpires have been appointed who seem to be giving satisfaction. Mackey has proved to be a find as he runs his games according to schedule and allows no talking back. The umpire at Circassia the forepart of last week and for some reason was assaulted by the players twice, once on the field and once off. He did good work here in the series that began Friday.

The action of the league officials in throwing out the games in which Gray, or George, as he is called now, played has made quite a difference in the standing as it is with the games recorded they were played would put Corsicana in third place instead of in second where she is now. To be sure the difference is not very much as the three points that Corsicana is ahead of Waco will not amount to much after Waco and Corsicana finish their series this week.

HIPPARD RELEASED

Hippard, the new third baseman signed by Manager Ward for the Fort Worth team last week, played in the game Sunday, was released yesterday. He failed to show up in any kind of form in the game that he played and the team is in such a condition that his services are not needed to give more credit. He fumbled both the easy chances that he had Sunday and struck out two out of the three times that he was at bat.

BENEFIT FOR SCHAEZKE

A game of baseball has been arranged between the Panthers and the Frisco line to be played at Hansen park, Montgomery, Arkansas, for the benefit of Captain Schaezke, who has been out of the game so long on account of injuries. A good game is expected, as the Frisco team is Oklahoma and Indiana Territory. He fumbled both the easy chances that he had Sunday and struck out two out of the three times that he was at bat.

South—Tonight and Wednesday showers, warmer tonight.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

Showery conditions continued during the past twenty-four hours over the greater portion of the Texas cotton region, especially over the south and east portion of the district; the temperatures, as a result of the showers, were much lower. Out of thirty-six Texas stations, nineteen report rain, and only twelve report a maximum temperature of 90 degrees or a little above.

The following stations report heavy rainfall, viz: Beville, 1.68; Brenham, 1.22; Brownwood, 1.00; Corpus Christi, 1.48; Cuero, 2.50; Galveston, 1.38; Hearne, 1.90; San Antonio, 1.35; San Marcos, 1.02.

Showers fell along the east gulf coast and in Tennessee, but little or no rain in the territories or western Texas for a considerable period.

Showers will occur in Fort Worth vicinity during the succeeding thirty-six hours.

THE AMERICAN SPIRIT OF FAIR PLAY

If there is any one thing the American loves, on a level with liberty, it is fair play.

To that robust and unassuming spirit of righteousness is due much protection of life and property that the law alone could not give.

The lesson of this spirit is visible in such organizations as the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and in the many feeding in a crowd which will not permit a big bully to beat a man half his size without running the risk of being himself beaten by an onlooker, as a sign of disapproval.

But, if such a bully merits condemnation, what shall be said of the assassin and the incendiary, and of the gossamer monger, who ruins reputations, starts a "run" on banks, or poisons the public mind against a worthy enterprise, for the mere pleasure of gossiping, or the deeper design of injuring another to his own profit.

Small slanders are smiled at, and passed over lightly, because of the limited amount of damage they can do, but when they are of such a nature and design as that against which the notice of a Buffalo corporation is today directed, in this paper, they assume an importance which makes their exposure, and the reader indignant that there is no law to reach the offenders.

Fifty million packages of "Force" Food had been sold before it occurred to some one to start a rumor that it was drugged to promote appetite.

The absurdity of the rumor is apparent when it is considered that there is not a single case on record of these fifty million packages having injured a single individual.

Aside from this, the government inspection of foods, and the health department of every city, would have promptly put a stop to the sale of any food, sold in such quantities, which contained any unwholesome ingredient whatever.

That the "Force" Company are fully aware of the insidious nature of such a rumor, and suspect an interested origin, is shown by their offer of $5,000 reward for the conviction of its initiators or circulators.

Their further offer of $5,000 more for proof that a single package of the fifty millions sold contained any injurious substance whatever, being made solely for whole wheat and barley, seasoned with table salt, shows how empty such rumors can be, and how energetically the "Force" Company follow up an attempt upon their market.

The magnitude of the injustice done is indicated by the fact that it has cost the "Force" Company over $50,000 to refute the rumor in the newspapers of the United States and Canada, exclusive of such juries as may have been temporarily done to the sale of their product.

Catarrah of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrah of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrah of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R.
