CONVICTS BREAK FOR LIBERTY

Resume of the Events of the Week in California Which Involves a Desperate and Successful Effort of Felons to Get Without the Prison Walls—Story of the Men Who Found a Way to Freedom—Excitement in the State Over Daring of the Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., August 1.—The resume of the events of the past week is a story of the most sensational jail break in the history of California.

In the earlier hours of the morning matters at the prison went forward in the ordinary grooves. There was no indication of trouble.

The prisoners marched into the dining room and had breakfast. Warden Wilkinson, as was his wont, scrutinizing their action.

Each of the desperate men was armed with a "file" knife or a razor, and in a twinkling they were in the midst of the assembled guards and officers.

Warden Thomas Wilkinson, Captain R. J. Murphy, Harry A. Wilkinson, the warden's nephew, and five other guards were assembled in the captain's office in readiness to hold the usual morning session of court.

The assembled officials and guards expected anything rather than trouble. They heard something like a scuffle at the main entrance and Captain Murphy rose from his chair, intending to investigate.

Each of the desperate men was armed with a "file" knife or a razor, and in a twinkling they were in the midst of the assembled guards and officers.

Warden Thomas Wilkinson, Captain R. J. Murphy, Harry A. Wilkinson, the warden's nephew, and five other guards were assembled in the captain's office in readiness to hold the usual morning session of court.

They were desperate. They had staked their lives on the move, and one man clothed with authority and armed with a cane was not allowed to stand in their way.

In a twinkling the men sprang upon the intruder, and his body descended and razors flashed into his body. The other convicts seemed crazed by the onslaught.

Guard William L. Cotter, who has held the position for seven years, staggered, put his hands to his eyes, and cried, "My God, I'm done for," and then fell to the floor.

Then the convicts seemed to gather their senses sufficiently to enable them to carry out the conspiracy as planned. With guards and officials as prisoners they were practically immune.

Warden Wilkinson had received a slash across the abdomen, but only six or eight did not know the knife had more than clipped through his clothing.

William L. Cotter had been disemboweled and the intestines cut through with the knife and was also bleeding from various other wounds.

Like a slaughter house. It is about fifteen feet square and from the front porch to the rear door it is about fifteen feet square.

The meal was over in a few seconds. Captain Murphy, when the dash was made, realized instantly what was intended and dashed into the annex to the rear of the office.

Not a hair of his head was touched. Not a hair of his head was touched. Not a hair of his head was touched.

Life term loyal. Gatekeeper Chalmers was at his post of duty while the convicts were filing out.

When Father Arbitrarily Refuses to Consent to Wedding Because Girl Didn't Understand Housekeeping, Judge Appoints Guardian

READING, Pa., August 1.—Judge Bland in the Berks' orphan court today handed down an opinion of far-reaching effect on marriage and the rights of young women in relation to their parents' wills.

William Rissmiller and Mary Lorah of Bland are both 20 years of age and her parents contend she is "too young and not sufficiently acquainted with household duties to marry."

Allen Lorah, the girl's father, refused to sign the application for a marriage license, as is required in Pennsylvania where the girl is under 21 years of age.

Henry Sinclair Oubridge, serving a 10 years' sentence for forgery, from Alameda county, is a man who is high in the affairs of the "Convict Council" at Folsom.

Charles Barry, serving 20 years from San Joaquin county for robbery, another member of the "Convict Council," is rated as one of the most desperate criminals ever sent up from anywhere.

"Convict Councilman" O. C. Clark, forger, is a fifth term man. He has passed the greater portion of his life behind prison bars, and is rated among police officials as a man who is as handy with his pen, knife or gun as he is skilled with his pen.

Charles Abbott, a native of San Francisco, is one of the "Convict Council," who is serving a life sentence for robbery.

His alias is Charles Hunter, and he was first sent to the penitentiary from this city on May 29, 1883. His sentence was for four years, and the offense was assault to rob.

As before stated, this precious seven, among the most desperate men ever put behind the prison bars, are the virtual rulers at Folsom.

Gatekeeper Chalmers was at his post of duty while the convicts were filing out. When the two who had been detailed to attend to his case rushed him he threw one of them to the floor and in the tussle that followed he was severely cut on his left hand and arm.

A SEARCH FOR BURIED GOLD

Lady in Cleburne Dreams of a Pot of Money Which Was Hidden Many Years Ago in That Locality

PALMISTS TELL HER TREASURE IS THERE

Digging Commences, But With No Success at First—Quest Will Not Be Abandoned as Belief Is Strong That the Fortune Exists

CLEBURNE, Texas, August 1.—Numbers of times in the history of Cleburne there have been treasure hunters and seekers for buried gold abroad in her territory and there is at least one instance on record in which the search was successful.

The latest in this line, however, came to light yesterday afternoon. The circumstances are very peculiar in this instance, not to say in a manner weird and what the final outcome may be had not been watched with considerable interest.

Mrs. W. W. Murphy lives with her husband and children about two blocks east of the Santa Fe tracks on Ward street and is well known among a large list of neighbors and friends.

She in her dreams had found a big pot of gold which set just under a big rock. The rock was a shining one and deep under the ground, the location just in front and to the right of the Murphy homestead.

There happened to be in the city a company of palmists and mind readers known as the Niblos who had advertised to locate buried treasure.

Joe and Newt Campbell and a companion named Kinchlo were each fined $5 and costs by Judge Prewett. They sank "Bill Bailey" in front of a saloon at Twelfth and Rusk streets.

They were fined on the ground that their music annoyed and disturbed the people of that locality. It requires a wide stretch of the imagination to figure out how the singing of "Bill Bailey" by three negro glee singers, to the accompaniment of mandolin and guitar, in the evening, would disturb the negroes.

Prosecutor Roy made the charge against the negroes under section 578, revised ordinances, as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to ring any bell, or blow any horn, or bugle, or to make any loud noise, or to engage in any practice, performance or amusement or any musical entertainment tending to annoy others, or tending to frighten horses or teams."

The arrests were made by Officers Clark and Bilderback. They testified that the negroes were standing upon the sidewalk, singing and playing their musical instruments.

Judge Prewett held, however, that the ordinance had been violated by the negroes and imposed a fine of $5 in each case.

Notice of appeal was given. DENISON WOMAN DIES

Notice of Appeal Given After An Interesting Trial in the Corporation Court—Arrests Made by Officers Clark and Bilderback

If a decision made by Judge C. T. Prewett holds good, the melodies of negro glee singers will be heard no more in the streets of Fort Worth.

They were fined on the ground that their music annoyed and disturbed the people of that locality. It requires a wide stretch of the imagination to figure out how the singing of "Bill Bailey" by three negro glee singers, to the accompaniment of mandolin and guitar, in the evening, would disturb the negroes.

CARDINALS VOTING IN THE COLOMNE

Two Ballots Were Taken During the Morning With No Result Very Impressive Ceremony—Each Takes an Oath as he Deposits His Ballot—Smoke from Burning Ballots is Mute Message That No Selection Has Been Made—Some are Ill in Their Cells.

ROME, August 1, 1903. a. m.—The cardinals all awoke at an early hour this morning to the ringing of a loud bell, to a realization of the solemn business before them.

The scene was really most majestic when the members of the sacred college, as humble communicants, advanced to receive communion from the hands of the camerlingo, who gave subsequently a short address on the solemn nature of the occasion.

Each cardinal in turn, holding his ballot between his first finger and thumb, so that every one present could see it, advanced slowly to the altar.

Then passing them into a receptacle placed on a table in the center of the chapel, two cardinal scrutineers opened the first ballot and passed it into a third cardinal's hands, who read in a loud voice and other cardinals noted the votes on a printed list of names with which each was provided.

As no cardinal received the prescribed two-thirds votes, a supplementary ballot was taken with no better results.

Consequently at 11:20 a. m. all ballots were burned in the Sistine chapel, and the left side of the piazza of St. Peter's, where a few curious people, mostly newspaper men, gathered to record this mute message.

It was said on good authority that Cardinals Herrera and Langenieux were unable to leave their cells this morning, so that when the time came for voting, immediately after having taken to the altar his own vote, Cardinal Gregalis showed the members of the sacred college a small empty box, having a tiny slit in the cover.

This box was locked in the presence of all the cardinals, and the key placed on the altar, after which three cardinal scrutineers carried the box to the apartments of the invalids, who, after taking the prescribed oath, dropped their ballots through the slit into the box, which was taken back to the Sistine chapel, unlocked, and the votes counted.

asked Officer Clark to say whether it was the music or the crowd that annoyed people he replied that both were sources of annoyance to passersby.

THE ARGUMENT. Mr. Roy made only a brief address in which he read the ordinance. W. H. Slay, counsel for the defendants, also spoke briefly.

Mr. Noble was a member of Fort Worth Aerie No. 62, Fraternal Order of Eagles, under whose auspices the funeral will be conducted.

EXPERIENCE. The young reporter was unfortunate enough not long ago to interview Sir William Van Horne, head of the Canadian Pacific railway.

NO BALLOON ASCENSION

Wind Took the Airship from its Moorings and Broke the Guy Ropes

The expected balloon ascension, parachute leap and fireworks display billed to occur at Handley last evening, did not materialize. Professor Green, the aeronaut, had all things in readiness, when a gust of wind blew the huge balloon to one side, breaking the guy ropes and permitting the balloon to escape. The accident was especially unfortunate for Mr. Green, as his compensation for the performance is contingent exclusively upon a successful ascension and leap. The balloon was recovered a half mile from the point at which it escaped. Tonight the program will be enacted in full. To avert the recurrence of last night's misfortune, two balloons are now on the grounds at Handley.

DEAR SIR:

After a good week's market last week our market opened up with liberal receipts this week, but trading was brisk Monday at steady to strong prices. As the day went by, however, the receipts increased, advices from the Northern markets showed lower prices and the condition of the market here was a little easier at the close. Tuesday opened with another big run, much lower prices North, and our market went down between 10 and 11 o'clock 10c to 15c. At the close of Tuesday's trading we were about a quarter lower than Monday's opening, prices were dull and lower throughout the entire week with liberal receipts until Thursday, when the run slackened up a little and the week wound up a very unsatisfactory one on all classes of cattle except choice veal calves, which are selling higher than for some time past, bringing $3.25 per 100 pounds very readily. Butcher cows are selling at from $1.85 to $2.20; 800 to 900-pound decent grass steers, $2.25 to $2.65; fed steers from $3.00 to $4.00, with but a very few good steers coming to market. There were 7,254 head of cattle on the market this week.

Hog receipts for the past week were 1,549 head, but notwithstanding the light receipts, our market has had another decline of from 5c to 10c, which was brought about the first of the week, since which time the market has held up steady. Our best hogs are bringing from $5.50 to $5.60, with the lighter and ordinary kinds at from $5.00 to $5.40. Sheep receipts this week were 913 head, which was very light. Our best sheep are bringing from $3.00 to $3.50, and something extra good might bring $4.00; lambs, $3.50 to $4.50, if good; stock sheep, $1.50 to $2.25, according to quality.

We give below a few of our representative sales for the past week:

COUNTRY CLUB WILL BE OPEN THIS EVENING

The Country Club will be opened this evening and from now on it will be for use by the members. The grill rooms and dining rooms will be used for the first time and the entire building will be opened for the comfort of the guests.

The work on the club house will be completed this afternoon and the building formally turned over to the board of directors.

Now that the building is completed its superior architectural convenience and beauty are impressive. Possibly the state does not offer a club house better adapted to comfort and all the uses for which this one is intended. It is located upon a high bluff overlooking the West Fork of the Trinity and from its broad piazzas can be seen the waters of the river, while the wide reaches of prairie are diversified by rich farms whose harvests of grain and cotton furnish contrasts of color that form an unsurpassed picture.

The club house is built on the site of the old Arlington Inn, that hostelry that was noted far beyond the confines of the state for the elegance of its appointment and service.

Now that the club house has succeeded its every loyal citizen in Fort Worth whether a member of the club or not takes pride in it and is congratulating those who have brought it to completion.

The club is equipped with all the advantages that any country club in the state has. The building has two billiard and two pool tables and within a short time there will be constructed two standard bowling alleys. A tennis court will be finished within a short time. This court will be where the old court of the Arlington Inn was and will be one of the best dirt courts in the city. During the fall it is the intention to build a nine hole golf course within a short distance of the club house.

A meeting will be held next Tuesday evening at 7:30 when the members of the club who have received their membership certificates will meet and elect a new board of directors. The present board is composed of W. G. Turner, S. B. Burnett, Winfield Scott, W. S. Wilson, D. B. Keeler, John F. Lehane, William Bryce, W. G. Newby and A. S. Goetz.

At the meeting on Tuesday a constitution and by-laws will also be adopted. A date will be set for the formal opening of the club house.

BACK FROM CONVENTION

Mr. Niles Impressed With Beauties of the Convention City

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Niles returned last night from Detroit, Mich., where they have been attending the international convention of the Epworth League. They also visited Niagara Falls, Chicago and other eastern cities during their absence.

Mr. Niles, in referring to the beauties of the convention city, said he was very favorably impressed with the arrangements of the streets in Detroit, which, in many instances, are similar to the plan which has been suggested for Fort Worth. The beautiful parkings of the Detroit streets are one of the features of the city which makes a lasting impression on all visitors.

There were about seventy-five Texans at the convention.

WHAT IS A JOURNALIST?

The editor's only son was seemingly struggling with a perplexing problem, says the Memphis Scimitar. He moved un- easily on his hobby-horse and finally twisted all the mane off his steed. Then he crawled up on his father's knee and, looking enquiringly in his face, said: "Pa, what is a journalist?"

"My son," said the editor as he medi- tatively stroked the golden head of his offspring, "My son, a journalist is a man who wears a plug hat and no shoes and borrows money from newspaper men."

THE STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, August 1.—There has been scattered selling of stocks hypothe- cated in loans this week, but not of so general a character as recently. Prices have consequently recovered somewhat, but the market has shown a progressive tendency toward dullness at the advanc- ing level. The money market has grown easier as a result of the liquidation and also as a result of light demand for cred- its. Reports of railroad traffic and of general business have been favorable and no serious harm has been reported to crops. An extremely conservative tone, nevertheless, dominates the stock market and the disposition is to wait for assur- ance that the long stock market depres- sion will not react upon the general busi- ness situation.

Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., secretary in the Yale corporation and assistant rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Hartford, Conn., who is being discussed as the possible successor to President Smith of Trinity college in Hartford, is one of the most popular members of the university set and one of the most valued members of the executive department of Yale.

About the time that Whistler, the artist, was causing a sensation with the paint- ings which he called "A Harmony in Black and Red," "A Nocturne in Blue," or some such names, he had a misunderstanding with his club regarding dues. The secretary finally wrote to Mr. Whistler saying that the club would be glad to receive from him "an arrangement in gold and silver."

The Cologne Gazette soundly berates the Germans for their loud talking and noisy conduct in general hotels and else- where. It declares that they have come to be known in Italy, Switzerland and other countries frequented by tourists as "the noisy nation," and that it is chiefly on their account that the builders of hot- tels are being compelled to make sound- proof doors and walls.

The noted sharpshooter and ex-member of company K, rough riders, Sherman M. Bell, now adjutant general of the state of Colorado, has just come to Washington accompanied by a fair young bride. The young westerner won the warm regard of Colonel Roosevelt in the Cuban cam- paign and when the latter made his whirl- wind race for the governorship of New York Bell was at his side from start to finish.

By visiting the places where witchcraft is said to have been practiced he expects to gain large additions to the lore in his possession.

MISSED ONE BATTLE

Colonel Elijah Walker of the Fourth Maine Infantry, now residing in a Bos- ton suburb, is said to be the oldest sur- viving field officer of the army of the Potomac and he was a marked feature in the Hooker monument ceremonies at Boston recently. He is 85 years old and on his birthday Kinsey post, G. A. R., of which he is a member, presented him a handsome easy chair. Colonel Walker missed only one battle of the army of the Potomac and at the battle of the Wilderness he had two horses shot from under him and was wounded five times.

MARKETS CLOSE DULL

NORTH FORT WORTH, August 1.—July closed an August opened with dull and listless markets. In the cattle yards this morning but eight cars were offered and three of them, after remaining on the market all morning were started for Kansas City in the afternoon.

Another cause for the depression was the quality of the stuff offered. Good cattle did not suffer a decline of more than 10 cents. The ordinary and poorer grades, however, probably fell off 25 cents from last week's prices.

A noticeable feature of the week's buying was that of the feeders, who are taking advantage of the low prices to pick up good young steers at all the ways from $1.50 to $2.50.

The two cars of hogs offered this morning were divided between the two packing houses. The prices were about 5 cents off.

NEW ORLEANS MARKET. NEW ORLEANS, La., August 1.—The price of August being a bank holiday in England, Liverpool is closed. Our market opened unchanged to 1 point lower on new crops, and today's session was typical of a summer Saturday with its usual dullness. Interests seem to be placed to receive the bureau report on Monday. One firm in New York received $1 as the likely figure for the July condition. Considering that the period underlying it runs from June 25 to July 25, and that weekly crop reports during it spoke of continued improvement, the above figure is not out of the question. On the other hand, the government's correspondents, in shaping their report, might have been influenced to some extent by a comparison of the degree of blooming and fruiting of the plants with the conditions of what it was last year, just as the correspondents of the Journal of Commerce have been, in which case the effect of the improvement in size and other conditions would be certain.

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN

The Austin Statesman has addressed a letter to the leading democrats of the country in relation to the democratic prospects for national political success next year. Quite a number of responses have been received and on next Sunday will be printed the first installment, which will comprise the reply of Mr. Bryan, who treats exhaustively of the subject. The Statesman forecasts the general sentiment by saying: "It may be said in advance that while none of the writers betray any great enthusiasm, they all express a confidence somewhat surprising at first glance, but which appears perfectly reasonable in the light of the treatment accorded the subject. There is a strong sentiment throughout the replies which favors a getting together on grounds of mutual interest, ignoring all questions upon which there is not a mutual agreement. This spirit, perhaps, is more wanting in Mr. Bryan's letter than any other. But while in the judgment of the Statesman nothing will find its way into the next democratic platform to which Mr. Bryan is strenuously opposed, on the other hand not all that he wants in it will find a place in the declaration of principles. Mr. Bryan is still a powerful factor in the democratic party, and properly; but he is not nearly so completely the whole thing as he has been during the past eight years. The democratic party has been radical under Mr. Bryan's leadership. That radicalism served one good purpose—it called back into the party a tremendous faction which had been driven out by Mr. Cleveland's policy. Yet on the other hand it drove away the Cleveland faction, which until this time has not entirely re-entered the fold from which it bolted at Chicago.

but they were not prepared to desert because of that disagreement. When the campaign of 1896 was on Mr. Cleveland had ceased to be an issue and in platform building and candidate selecting the best judgment and best men of the party were at the command of the people. Bryan, with his pyrotechnics, carried the delegates by storm and with his magnificent personality he won the highest honor in the gift of the party. Instead of Cleveland's policy in meeting conditions there was offered the Bryan theories. The people did not take to those theories, and while Mr. Bryan may have called to his support many who were dissatisfied with Cleveland, he turned from the straight ticket a great many more. Mr. Bryan is no longer a powerful factor in the party. He is a disorganizer and a malcontent. Twice defeated, he should be convinced that he is not a choice of the people, and common decency should induce him to gracefully retire. Mr. Cleveland is not a possibility. He has been three times the nominee and twice the president. He has seen his day, but because he has been successful his counsel should be valuable. On the other hand, Mr. Bryan is a stumbling block. The democratic party does not want to draw its inspiration and secure its advice from a man who has at all times been unsuccessful. The next democratic platform will be a document which will meet issues, and the nominee will be a man who has heretofore seen success. Mr. Bryan will not write the one or select the other.

The Fort Worth Free Fall Festival promises to do great things. It will bring people to this city, and they will be permanent advertisers of Fort Worth when they return to their homes. The festival will result in good to all. It is well to encourage such expositions, and while they at times start on a small scale, year after year shows improvement and the result is that later experience and gradual increase of proportions, makes the affair something big.

Diplomatic relations between the New Orleans Cotton Exchange and the New York Cotton Exchange have been broken off. The New Orleans Exchange refused to sign an iron-clad agreement to not give quotations to the bucket shops, the New Orleans Exchange considering the request of the New York Exchange to be in the nature of an insult.

The indications are that Dallas will defeat a proposition for public parks. The people of that town appear to be selfish and do not care to go to some expense to provide play grounds for posterity. Fort Worth will be willing for the Dallas children to come over and play in the parks here.

That negro in the Tarrant county jail, who is charged with criminal assault in Dallas county, is safe from the cruel hands of an "angry mob." When a fellow gets in the Tarrant county jail he stays until the strong arm of the law reaches out to shoot back the bolts.

The reports do not say that any one of the cardinals took a last, lingering look at the world before going into the conclave, although one of the sixty-two has gone into the retreat to remain, if the next pope is to continue to insist upon the temporal power of the church.

The statute of limitation now operates to the benefit and pleasure of the Hon. Perry S. Heath, formerly first assistant postmaster general. The Hon. Perry may now talk as much as he wants to.

Above whose aged head is the triple crown suspended? Who will lay aside the red cap for the tiara?

Those expositions which bring people to the town are helpful to the town.

HOW EDITORS PLAY POKER

The Waco Times-Herald and The Fort Worth Telegram talk of "four of a kind," "four aces" and "deuces" as though they really knew what such combinations were capable of doing.—Texarkana Courier.

Yes, we have recently heard King Edward's name referred to as a "roval flush." The editors are coming to know too much of kings, queens, deuces and royal flushes. We fear they are straying from the old democratic doctrine.—Denison Herald.

Which doctrine is to take it straight, which we always does.—Waco Times-Herald.

TOO MANY AGAINST HIM

James R. Mack, the attorney, tells this reminiscence of his law practice in Ohio: "One Sam Johnson, a negro, was indicted in Cincinnati charged with the theft of a ham. Johnson was stiff-necked, and the only witness against him was a man of his own color, and 'one nigger's word is as good as 'nuthers,' said Sam. 'Hell swar I did it, an' I'll swar I didn't.' The case came up for trial and the indictment was read: 'The State of Ohio against Samuel Johnson, defendant.' etc. As he listened, Johnson turned gray, and at the demand for a plea, rose to his feet, ignoring the counsel assigned to him.

"Youth hornah," said Johnson, "I got not been treated right, nohow. I thought dar wuz only one nigger 'gainst me, an' heah's de whole state of Ohio. I wuz not 'fear'd ob dat nigger what seen me hook de ham, but I see got no show now. De whole blame state 'gainst me's too much. Yeses, I took de ham, I plead guilty. But I'd like ter know whar all de water wuz hidin'." I suddenly wuz."

SERVANT GIRL QUESTION

The English are learning to solve the servant girl question. Here is a "character" given by an English servant to her mistress: "In answer to your letter, it's not a bad place; the Mrs. understands her duties, and is sivel and obliging, but troubles about getting up early of the mornings. There is plenty, and if you don't mind a place whar only one other young lady is kept besides yourself, you might give them a month's trial. I like more society, which is why I am leaving."

Letters to The Telegram

Editor Telegram: Kindly permit me space to remark in regard to your article of Thursday evening about the lady ordered from the front porch of a store on Boaz street, that I fully approve of your commendation of a person guilty of such an action. I wish to assure the public at large an especially those who find it necessary to wait for a car at Boaz and Henrietta that the place referred to was not the confectionary store on that corner, and I hereby invite one and all to make free use of our front porch and the chairs placed there for the use of those who find it necessary to wait for a car. Very truly, A. D. ROSSETER.

To Young Men:

If you should happen to see this letter and read it, it is my intention to try and help you. Where were you raised, and what kind of influence controlled your life in boyhood days? Were you blessed with a good mother who taught you to do right and tell the truth and respect the Sabbath? Would she blush if she could see your inner life today? Where are you at present? Have you drifted away from home teaching, from mother's influence and from that tends to uplift and elevate? Where are you today, boys? Have you drifted with the tide, that great mass of young men in life who are contented to do nothing and to be floats up, always down. Now turn over a new leaf tomorrow, give the good in you a chance, get up early, go to some sabbath school, attend church, and attend the Y. M. C. A. in the afternoon. Seek the society of the elevated and uplifting. Now give me your hand on it, that's right, spend one Sunday as your mother would have you. W. E. H.

WHAT THE SCULPTOR HEARD

Augustus St. Gaudens was passing near his equestrian statue of General Sherman at the Fifth Avenue entrance to the park lately when he met a group of people looking it over, and the spirit of curiosity took hold of him to hear what they might be saying. So he walked across and came to a sudden halt near the people who had first caught his attention, casting his eye over the statue with an air of saying to himself, "Well, well, what's all this?" The man at his side was not abashed at being heard and spoke with the precision of one voicing a great artistic judgment and a good word of a chance passer-by: "Well, don't you know," said he, "I don't quite feel satisfied with that treatment. Sherman on a horse and Victory on foot? A false note. Why not have poised Victory above him?" This delighted the sculptor, and he edged around to two Irish cooks to hear their opinions. "Well, Nan," said one, "it's pretty fine, ain't it?" "Oh, yes; as one might say, 'tis pretty fine."

A CASE OF SWELL HEAD

While President A. J. Cassatt of the Pennsylvania railroad rarely talks for publication, he never avoids the public eye, and a certain railroad official told a story the other day which indicates that he is thoroughly alive to the importance of the small amenities. Mr. Cassatt was engaged with a high official of his company one day when the representative of a New York newspaper called for routine information. The official was rather brusque with the scribble, and that Mr. Cassatt noticed it was shown a few days later when some friend presented him with a new hat. The railroad magnate tried it on and then, turning to his secretary, remarked: "This is too big for me. Send it to Mr. ———, mentioning the high official's name."

SCOTCHMAN REBUKED THE CZAR

The czar of Russia was one night playing a game of whist at Homburg, and his majesty the king, at that time Prince of Wales, and several of his friends were of the party. Among those friends were Sir James Mackintosh, a well-known social lion of a few years ago, and another Sir James was one of those blunt, downright, rough-spoken Scotchmen who, like so many of his countrymen, know no fear or awe of any man. In the course of the game Sir James called out to the czar: "You've revoked!" "Everybody's blood ran cold. The Prince of Wales kicked the Scotchman under the table and the czar, blushing and confused, exclaimed in bewilderment: "Revoked? Why, I never did such a thing in my life." But Sir James persisted, and one monarch was proved to be in the wrong, whereupon Sir James replied to the observation of the czar: "I dare say you've often revoked, your majesty, but this is the first time you were ever told so."—Boston Post.

FOUND OUT HIS IDENTITY

Peter A. B. Widener, the Philadelphia financier, is so immersed in business that he does not often find time to wander over the grounds of his magnificent country place, Lynwood Hall, which is decidedly the show place of Pennsylvania. One day, however, Mr. Widener had an hour of idleness and strolled through his huge stables. In a corner he came upon a little boy (the head coachman's son) who was with a fox terrier. The financier and the child admired the terrier for a while together and then, for some reason, Mr. Widener said: "Do you know who I am?" "Yes, sir," said the boy, "of course I do." "Well, who am I?" "Why, you're the man that rides in my father's carriages."

POLITICS IN DENTON ARE WARMING UP

THREE CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE ARE PROHIBITIONISTS, AND IT IS BELIEVED ANTIS WILL PUT OUT ONE MAN TO MAKE THE RACE. CAMPAIGN IS READY

DENTON, Texas, August 1.—Those who enjoy a spirited political campaign are anticipating a "big time" during the next campaign in Denton county, which will soon open, over the race for representative from Denton county in the Twenty-ninth legislature. No candidates have yet bobbed up, nor have no prospective ones even been spoken of, for the other offices to be filled at the same time, but there are already three men in the county who, if not avowed candidates, have manifested a desire to become sacrifices for representative. These are Hon. F. F. Hill of Parvin, who represented the county in the Twenty-seventh legislature; Captain Ed B. Willis of Denton, who has almost a state reputation; and J. E. Doyle of Slidell, who was defeated for the Twenty-eighth legislature by a small majority by Hon. E. C. Smith, the present representative.

MEETING AT BROWNWOOD

Arriving at Battery Park Mayor Low delivered an address of welcome and the statue was unveiled by Miss Rachel Hartley, designer of the statue. The new statue replaces the old one of the great Swedish inventor which has occupied a position in Battery Park near the emigrant office for the past ten years. The new statue stands nearer the center of the park and in a more conspicuous position.

Judge Bell Estes of Granbury, Hood county, is in the city today for the purpose of investigating the case against his brother, Dick Estes, arrested by Detective Maddox Wednesday evening after a long chase. Dick Estes was endeavoring to dispose of a tea and wagon at a cheap price, which action the officers considered suspicious. It was in Dick Estes' coat the recipe for a powerful explosive was found.

TRAVELED LONG DISTANCE

Boy Who Beat His Way to City is Hospital Patient. ST. LOUIS, Mo., August 1.—The police have nipped in the bud "Dora" Shea's dreams of life in a large city. "Dora" is a 13-year-old boy from Pryor Creek, L. T., where his mother and step-father live. He left Pryor Creek last Saturday with 35 cents and a determination to find employment, which he says a young man named William Adair of St. Louis told him would be an easy matter. He beat his way on freight cars to St. Louis, a distance of 400 miles, and tried to locate Adair, who was to meet him. Late Wednesday the police found him wandering about the streets, and sent him to the detention ward at the city hospital. He will be sent back home when his stepfather is heard from.

BIRTHDAY OF CHINESE EMPEROR

LONDON, August 1.—An interesting account has reached London of the recent visit of the Chinese emperor and the emperor dowager to the imperial tombs, where the unhappy monarch, who it may be mentioned in passing, will reach his time comes. The correspondent describes the tomb in which he is to lie when his thirty-first birthday tomorrow, selected the emperor as looking thin and sad and very shy, while the empress, though she is well along in the seventies, appeared full of life and energy. The correspondent adds: "If the native reports be true, there are times when the emperor can speak to the point, simpleminded though he is supposed to be. On reaching the palace at Pao Ting-fu, which had been lavishly fitted up absolutely regardless of expense, the emperor called Yuan Shi Kai to his apartments and pointed out that he desired in his travels to see the condition of the people and learn their needs, so that imposing royal pageants were unnecessary."

YOUNG ATHLETES TO GO ABOARD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The plan which has been in contemplation for several years looking to an international contest between schoolboy athletes of America and England seems at last likely to realization. R. S. Patterson, who has been chiefly instrumental in promoting the plan, sailed for England today and will endeavor to bring about a meeting next spring. Inasmuch as it will be out of the question for the English schoolboys to come to this country, it has been practically decided to take a team to England from this side. The team will probably be picked from among the boys making the best showing in the Greater New York meets, though it may be decided to give representation to other parts of the country.

SWITZERLAND'S BIRTHDAY.

GENEVA, Aug. 1.—Switzerland today celebrated its national festival, which was established August 1, 1291, and has been kept up without interruption during the six centuries that have since elapsed. The celebrations consisted of patriotic exercises and festivities, concluding at night with grand illuminations on the mountains.

ERICSSON STATUE UNVEILING.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The new statue of John Ericsson in Battery Park was unveiled today with interesting ceremonies. The unveiling was preceded by a mammoth parade of the Swedish societies of New York, Long Island and New Jersey. A corps of naval veterans and several detachments from the United States Marine Corps also participated in the parade.

The Churches of Fort Worth

ST. ANDREW'S PARISH HOUSE

At St. Andrew's Parish house at 11 a. m. Sunday, Very Rev. Hudson Stuck, dean of St. Matthew's cathedral, Dallas, will deliver the sermon. Dean Stuck is one of the most prominent divines in Texas. He has attracted a great deal of attention by his magnificent sermons, and throughout the diocese of Dallas there are many who have heard him and who delight in his strong personality. Dean Stuck will preach also in the evening. Rev. Bartow B. Ramage, rector of St. Andrew's, is busy, with arrangements for the quarterly missionary meeting to be held Wednesday next. After that meeting Dr. Ramage expects to leave for a vacation of about four weeks, and during his absence his pulpit will be filled by Rev. William Cross, rector of St. Paul's church, Gainesville. Dr. Cross came to Texas but a few months ago. For years he has been a prominent minister in the diocese of Mississippi. During the Spanish-American war he was a chaplain in the army, and by his contact with human nature in the military camp, while fighting high water in the Mississippi valley and in the regular walk of life, he has become educated on the people now on earth. Personally, he is a delightful companion, and in the pupil he is very strong.

CHRISTIAN TABERNACLE

Rev. James S. Myers, pastor of the Christian Tabernacle, will Sunday evening preach on the subject, "Catholicism and Protestantism, the strength and weakness of each." Dr. Myers has been a close student of the life and policies of the late Pope Leo, and just at this time, when the head of the church has passed away and the successor is yet in a doubt, Dr. Myers believes there is sufficient general interest to warrant a discussion of an important doctrinal subject. Services Sunday morning from 11 to 12 o'clock. Subject, "Bread," or "Feeding the Moral Nature." Evening services from 8:15 to 9:15. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 7:15 p. m.

HE WANTED A FRY

Will J. Lampton, the poet, is telling a sweetly poetic story these days, and he insists that it is perfectly true. Once upon a day he was making a driving tour through the country near Harper's and stopped at a little wayside inn for refreshment. A sign in the window announced that oysters in all styles were to be had, and Mr. Lampton ordered a fry. "Don't you want a stew?" asked the man in charge. "No," said Mr. Lampton, "I want a fry." "Raw wouldn't do, would it?" queried the man, who seemed to entertain a prejudice against unnecessary exertion. "No," repeated the poet, "I want a fry." The man walked over to the stove and sought the trying pan. It was lying on the floor.

THE VOLCANO IS A HILL AND SMOKE RAISES FROM THE TOP.

"A volcano is a mountain with sulphur and a collection of iron and lead. Soon after a few years they get hot and bursts the mountain. Does a lot of Damage to the country." "A volcano is a mountain which has a large amount of lather, and this sometimes overflows and burns villages down." "The most flattering answer runs as follows: 'The boundaries of England are united states america and Europe.'" "Latitude and longitude," said another student, "are terms used to describe certain spots on the sea."

SOME AMUSING ANSWERS

The London Globe contains a number of amusing answers in a recent examination for office boys in a government office. Some of the descriptions of a volcano are graphic. "A volcano is a hill and smoke raises from the top." "A volcano is a mountain with sulphur and a collection of iron and lead. Soon after a few years they get hot and bursts the mountain. Does a lot of Damage to the country." "A volcano is a mountain which has a large amount of lather, and this sometimes overflows and burns villages down." "The most flattering answer runs as follows: 'The boundaries of England are united states america and Europe.'" "Latitude and longitude," said another student, "are terms used to describe certain spots on the sea."

HOW INGALLS FOOLS 'EM.

M. E. Ingalls, president of the "Big Four" railroad, is a Maine man and whenever he visits his native state he always spends a portion of his time in Harrison, where he began the practice of law. On his last visit there he dropped into the village store and there met an old fellow whom he knew a long time ago. "They say you got more'n $10,000 a year. How is that?" Mr. Ingalls admitted that the statement is true. "Well," said his ancient acquaintance, "it does beat all how a man can fool 'em if he only has the gall." The remark was made in such perfect good faith that the railroad magnate laughed more loudly than any of the others present.

CARTOONS THE VISIT.

Caran D'Acho, perhaps the first of French caricaturists, treats the visit of Loubet to England as pure persiflage. In a series of four cartoons he represents France and England as the two high contracting parties to the following weighty convention. France, on her part, undertakes to speak no more of Cretet or Agricut and to remember them as seldom as possible. In consideration whereof England consents to forget all about Fontenoy, except as to the good manners of the bellcrankers. (a pretty illusion to the "Messieurs les Anglais, fire first.") No more is to be thought of St. Helena and the French bind themselves by a self-denying ordinance against chaffing the British tourist in comic song, the tourist reciprocating by ceasing to present himself at the theater in summer flannels.

CHECK FOR NEWSBOYS

Marcus Daly, the mining millionaire, left a fortune of $11,000,000 and was accounted one of the most generous of the rich mineowners. He had his own ideas, however, about the time and place of giving. A newspaper woman called upon him one evening for a contribution to a newsboys' home. "These poor little flowers of the street," said she, "couldn't you give me a goodly sum for them?" "There is only one kind of flowers I like," answered the miner. "What are they, Mr. Daly?" "Four o'clocks. They never collect money after closing time in the afternoon." The visitor took the hint. Her next morning's mail brought her a good-sized check for the newsboys.

This remembrance was given because of the fact that Miss Clark attended the reunion, took notes of all business transacted, forwarding them in neat form to Colonel Goodman after the reunion, and accompanying them with a letter stating that she made no charge and was glad that she had been given an opportunity of showing her reverence for the old soldiers.

GIVES SELF PATRONAGE

Judge Sends Business to Trust Company of Which He is President.
NEW YORK, July 31.—Judge Andrew Kirkpatrick of the United States court of New Jersey occupies the unique and delicate position of dispensing patronage from the bench to a trust company of which he is president.
New Jersey is the home of trusts and corporations, and Judge Kirkpatrick, as the federal judge of Essex county, has had the appointment of receivers for some of the largest concerns in the world.
The particular case which is attracting attention to Judge Kirkpatrick is the appointment of the Federal Trust company of Newark, N. J., as a repository of funds collected by the receiver in bankruptcy for the Southern Car and Foundry company. Judge Kirkpatrick is president of the trust company.
Until the Federal Trust company began business there were two concerns in Essex county authorized to receive deposits of funds collected by receivers in bankruptcy. These were the Fidelity Trust company of Newark and a concern in Orange. Both of these concerns were designated by Judge Kirkpatrick, and as soon as his own company was organized he added it to the list. Each concern gave a bond of $10,000 to the United States for the proper care of the funds.
Judge Kirkpatrick says he sees no impropriety in designating his own company.

Former Governor Lon V. Stephens has taken charge of Mr. Folk's campaign and has arranged to have the chief justices and towns of northern Missouri during the next few weeks. Later the campaign south of the Missouri river will be taken up and Mr. Folk will be heard at Sedalia, Carthage, Springfield and other points. The managers of the Folk campaign express themselves as well pleased with the outlook and especially in regard to the friendly attitude adopted by the democratic press of the state.

IS NOT AN ENGLISHMAN

Bourke Cockran Denies Story That He Would Live Abroad.
NEW YORK, August 1.—Denying that he intended to renounce his American citizenship and become a "naturalized Englishman" and accept a seat in parliament, Bourke Cockran returned on the Kaiser Wilhelm yesterday. He still shows the effects of his illness in Egypt.
"I went away in December with the intention of passing six months in Europe," said Mr. Cockran. "I spent most of the time in Egypt, some time in England and some in France."
Mr. Cockran, in speaking of the political outlook, said: "I think that if Mr. Cleveland's friends could force his nomination he would be elected. Mayor Low is the logical candidate of the fusionists for re-election, if the fusionists can be logical. If Mayor Low is not their candidate, why then they would have to admit that they are not fusionists."
"What is the matter with Wall street?" I am greatly surprised at the news of the slump and of the failures of the firms, whom I know perfectly well. I don't know what is the matter."
Mr. Cockran is very much in doubt whether he will take any part in the city campaign. His heart is said to be weak.

Other prominent speakers who have accepted invitations to address the assembly are Lorado Taft, the well known sculptor and lecturer, and Commandant Herbert Booth, son of General William Booth of the Salvation Army.

AN IMPORTANT BRIDGE

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—A stranger view of the new Williamsburg bridge from its old structure would not know that it was not in use, so nearly is it completed, and New Yorkers and Brooklynites are delighted over the prospect of the bridge's being opened for traffic on schedule time next winter. With the exception of the short span on the New York side and a little work about where the cables are anchored, the iron of the bridge is in position. This will be one of the most important of the thirty bridges on Manhattan island.

LARGEST ENGINE EVER CONSTRUCTED

Alton Railroad in Receipt of Equipment Built Expressly for Exposition Business.
The Alton road has just received from the Baldwin Locomotive works two new express passenger engines. They are the largest and most powerful ever built. There is nothing in the world today to equal them. They have been built expressly for the expected heavy business of the Louisiana Purchase exposition in St. Louis.
The duty of these engines will be to haul trains made up of twelve passenger cars, and weighing about 600 tons, exclusive of passengers and baggage. Such a train will accommodate 750 people, whose aggregate weight would not be less than fifty-seven tons, and estimating their baggage at fifteen tons, the total weight of the train behind the engine will be 675 tons. Such a train will have to be hauled 110 1/2 miles in two and one-half hours, making two stops and three slowdowns for railroad crossings. This will reduce the actual running time to two hours and twenty-four minutes, and necessitate an average running speed of forty-six miles an hour.
The cylinders are about two inches in diameter by twenty-eight inches stroke; the driving wheels are eighty inches in diameter and the working steam pressure is 220 pounds to the square inch. The engine is carried on twelve wheels, a forward truck, six connected driving wheels and a trailer beneath the firebox. The total weight on the driving wheels is 141,700 pounds. On the front truck the weight is 35,200 pounds, and on the trailing wheels 41,500 pounds, the total weight of engine being 219,500 pounds, and the total weight of the engine and tender is about 347,000 pounds. The tender, which has a capacity of 8,400 gallons of water and nine tons of coal, is the largest yet built by the Baldwin company.
The bore of the straight type and seventy inches in diameter with 32 1/2 inch tubes twenty feet in length. The firebox is nine feet long by six feet wide, six feet deep at the front and five feet four inches deep at the back. There are 292 square feet of heating surface in the firebox, 2,848 square feet in the tubes and twenty-eight square feet in the firebrick tubes, making a total of 4,078 square feet of heating surface. The grate area is fifty-four square feet.
A remarkable feature, which in itself is illustrative of the great size of these engines, is the smokebox, which is 10 1/2 feet in diameter and 15 feet in length. The tractive effort is 31,500 pounds; that is, if the tender drawbar were attached to a dynamometer it would register over fifteen tons.

BUILD FROM BUCKLIN

New Railroad Rumor Comes From Western Kansas.
There is a rumor floating around in Ford county, Kansas, especially at the mining town of Bucklin, that a Frisco extension will be built to Bucklin from the southeast to connect with the Dodge City branch, and that the Rock Island's track will be extended to Goodland. Some who claim to have inside information say that the northwest and southeast road is a certainty. The road from here to the northwest will open up a new cattle and wheat country and will as well traverse the "oil belt." The Rock Island will feel the pinch of this happens, run the western coal, as well as other freight direct from Bucklin to the south instead of hauling it around by Herington. The line which is to come to Dodge City from the northwest will be another short cut gulfwards and the wise ones say that it will be a mighty valuable road.
Since the Rock Island division was first located at Bucklin, a great many people have pinned their faith to the belief that a cross road would be built. Now some of the original enthusiasts claim that the matter is all settled.
If it proves to be anything in this kind of information, it will cause a big boom for Bucklin and Dodge City. Such a road would help Dodge City some claim a whole lot more than the Santa Fe cut-off. It is to be hoped the road will become a reality instead of a rumor.

ICE IS SCARCE

NEW YORK, August 1.—The ice trust has again come in for its share of public abuse. The poorer people of Harlem and the Bronx are suffering grievously through the policy of this organization to freeze out the small retailers and serve customers direct. As a result the small consumers are neglected simply because they are small consumers, they say, though the trust officials protest that it is in account of the scarcity of ice.

GLENWOOD AND POLYTECHNIC HILL

Since the hard rains for the past two days the people of Glenwood have come to a keen realization of the fact that they need sidewalks and more improvements on the streets and roads. Very few of the streets are graded, and after a rain they are almost impassable. One of the leading business men stated this morning that Glenwood has only one good street—Vickery boulevard—which is the principal thoroughfare, and that the residence streets receive little or no attention. He stated that he did not believe there are 200 feet of good sidewalk in Glenwood, most of the sidewalks not even being gravelled or cindered.
If the sidewalks in front of the houses on the principal residence streets were even gravelled it would make a great improvement both in looks and in conveniences.
Messrs. Hyatt & Roak have opened a new grocery store just west of the school house.
Mrs. Owens of 118 Cromwell street is convalescing after a severe attack of typhoid fever.
Frank De Witt of Amarillo, who, while visiting here, was taken ill, has returned and will make this place his home in the future.
Rev. A. P. Collins, former pastor of the Glenwood Baptist church, who moved to Graham two years ago, has returned and will make this place his home in the future.
Mrs. C. B. Ambrose returned yesterday from a visit to friends and relatives in McKinney.
Miss Emma Cown of Weatherford is visiting Mrs. R. F. Cook.
Cars now stop in front of the Glenwood notion store and seats will be found in front of the store for the accommodation of persons waiting for a car.
Mrs. Satterwhite and daughters have returned from a visit with friends in the territory.
The lawn party which was to have been held Thursday evening on the lawn of the school house, was postponed until Tuesday evening next.

ENLISTMENT LIST GROWS

Ten New Men Joined the Navy Here This Morning.
At noon today the number of enlistments at the navy recruiting station had reached the number that was enlisted here during the entire week last year. Thirty-four men passed the examination before 2 o'clock today and signed the necessary papers. Six more had passed the examination, but had not signed the papers, as they were minors and had to have the consent of their parents first. The number that was enlisted in Fort Worth last year by the commission that was sent out was thirty-four.
Lieutenant Richardson completed arrangements today whereby the men who are enlisted here this week will be sent to Norfolk Sunday. They will leave here on the Frisco train in the morning for St. Louis on a special car and will go east from there over the Big Four and the Chesapeake and Ohio.
Lieutenant Richardson expects to more than equal here the record of forty-eight that was made at Dallas last year. He said this morning that the new men were coming almost fast enough to take care of them. Ten men were enlisted this morning.

FOOT MASHED BY WHEEL

Jack Carter, Call Boy for Texas and Pacific, Seriously Injured.
Jack Carter, aged 11 years, employed as call boy by the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company, met with a serious accident in the east yards yesterday at 11 o'clock. He was crossing the tracks in front of an approaching train, when his foot became wedged between two rails in such a manner that it could not be extricated in time to avoid being crushed under the wheels. Carter was removed to his home, corner Calhoun and Annie streets, where his injuries are being given proper attention. The attending physician stated this afternoon that the member was only badly bruised and that amputation will not be necessary.

KNIGHTS WILL PICNIC

Committees to Meet Tonight to Make Arrangements.
Committees from Fort Worth commandery No. 2, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and Eleanor Temple, No. 38, Bathhouse Sisters, will meet at Knights of Pythias hall this evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the basket picnic and dance at Grunewald's park, Friday, August 7. The event will be given under the auspices of the above societies, and the proceeds will be forwarded to J. F. Orlon, grand chancellor of the order of the Knights of Pythias in Texas, to be placed with the fund for the widows' and orphans' home.

A Surgical Operation

Is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: "I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since."—H. A. Tisdale, Sutterton, S. C. For Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by all druggists.

DOUBLE HEADER HERE TOMORROW

Two Games Will Have to Be Played, as Drummers Have the Park Today

Since the time when Corsicana persisted in playing George, or Grey, in all of their baseball games when he should have been playing with Fort Worth, The Telegram has been the only paper in the state that has been printing the correct standing of the Texas league teams.

Since The Telegram began printing the standing as it should be, Manager Ward has received a letter from President Farrell sustaining him in his decision in regard to Grey, and saying that he was entirely correct in the matter of the games that were thrown out.

Manager Ward said today: "Corsicana gets more credit in the standing as it is now than the team deserves, but the ruling of the president was everything that could be expected in the matter.

REPORT OF WEATHER BUREAU FOR JULY

The monthly report for July weather as issued this morning from the Fort Worth weather bureau shows that the mean temperature was lower for the past July than in any other years except 1899 and 1900. The rainfall for the month was less than the average but at the same time it was heavier than most of the months of July since the weather bureau was established here.

The highest temperature recorded during the month was 98 degrees which came on the 14th. The lowest was the 29th when the thermometer went down as far as 67 degrees. The mean temperature for the month was 81 degrees. The mean temperatures for the months of July since the establishment of the office in 1895 are as follows: 1895, 82 degrees; 1896, 87 degrees; 1897, 87 degrees; 1898, 84 degrees; 1899, 81 degrees; 1900, 81 degrees; 1901, 85 degrees and 1902, 82 degrees. This makes the mean temperature for the month of July for the nine years 83 degrees. The deficiency for last month 2.7 degrees when the fractions are taken into account.

The entire year so far has been much cooler than the average. The deficiency amounts to 333 degrees for the seven months, making an average of 1.8 degrees deficiency for each day.

The prevailing wind during the month has been from the south. The total number of miles of wind that has passed over the bureau during the month was 7,882. The daily average was 254 miles while the average rate of the wind for the month has been 10.5 miles. This corresponds very nearly with the past years. In 1900 the average velocity was 10.7, in 1901 it was 10.2 and in 1902 it was 11.2 miles per hour.

The entire amount of rainfall during the month has been 1.84 inches. The deficiency for the month from the average rainfall in Fort Worth for the preceding eight years is 1.06 inches. The July rainfall for the past nine years is as follows: 1895, 4.40 inches; 1896, 1.12 inches; 1897, 1.55 inches; 1898, 1.35 inches; 1899, 1.66 inches; 1900, 5.90 inches; 1901, 6.29 inches; 1902, 1.84 inches.

The rainfall for the seven months of the year has been somewhat lighter than usual. There is an accumulated

CATHOLICS ARE NOW IN SESSION

Representative Attendance at Opening Day of the Third National Convention of the Church Workers

BISHOP McFAUL IS VERY MUCH PLEASED

Delegates March in a Body to Solemn Pontifical Services. Many States Represented. Memorial Services for the Late Pope

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 1.—The large and representative character of the attendance at the opening today of the third national convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies was such as to give pleasure to Bishop McFaul of Trenton and the other eminent members of the church who have labored incessantly for several years to bring about a working union among the great Catholic organizations of America.

When the convention was formally opened this morning there were present accredited delegates from state federations throughout the country. Ohio, where the movement has gained the strongest foothold, was represented by several hundred delegates, while Indiana, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and numerous other states had members in attendance. In addition to these delegates there were present more than two score archbishops and bishops of the church and the representative character of the gathering was further accentuated by the presence of delegates from several Indian tribes and Port Rico societies and from the Centro-Catolico of the Philippines.

As a preliminary to the convention the delegates marched in a body to St. Nicholas church, where solemn pontifical services were held. Afterward the business sessions were begun in the Morris Guards armory, with President Thomas B. Minahan of Columbus, O., presiding.

The roll call by Secretary Anthony Matre of Cincinnati showed that delegates were in attendance representing the Catholic Order of Foresters, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Catholic Knights of America, Catholic Mutual Benevolent association, German Central Verein, Catholic Knights and Ladies of America, Knights of St. John, Young Men's Institute, National Total Abstinence Union, Young Men's Catholic Union, Catholic Benevolent Legion, Irish Catholic Benevolent Union, French and Bohemian federations, the state federations of Ohio, Indiana, New Jersey, Kentucky, Vermont, Louisiana, Georgia, Tennessee, Pennsylvania and many other county federations, state leagues and other organizations scattered throughout the country.

Tomorrow morning there will be a grand pontifical mass in St. Nicholas church. Another feature will be solemn memorial services for the late pope, at which addresses will be delivered by a number of the highest prelates of the United States. The business sessions, which will continue until next Wednesday, will be devoted largely to discussions tending to strengthen the federation movement.

Mayor Deal of Bangor, Me., is serving his seventh consecutive term as chief magistrate of the city and has boarded at the same hotel for forty-one years.

IN DYING NAMES HIS SUCCESSOR

Shay Was Designated to Act as Head of the Locomotive Engineers

MEADVILLE, August 1.—Grand Assistant Chief Engineer A. B. Youngson of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who by the recent sudden death of Chief P. M. Arthur, became executive head of the brotherhood, has named M. H. Shay of Youngstown, Ohio, as his successor, to act in case of his death.

There is no better engineer in the country than M. H. Shay. For the last twelve years he has been chairman of the grievance committee of the organization. He was born at Watkins, Tyler county, New York, June 19, the son of B. L. Shay, a baggage master for forty years on the Northern Central railroad at that place. He received his education in the public schools, leaving them when a mere boy to become a pilot on Lake Seneca, his duty being to conduct canal boats across the lake.

In February, 1860, he began his life work as a railroad man, running as a fireman on what is now the Buffalo division of the Erie, Bowen, Corning and Buffalo. In 1863 he was transferred to the Susquehanna division, where he remained for two years, coming thence to the Mahoning division at Youngstown. He was made night engineer dispatcher here and in 1865 became freight engineer. In 1873 he was promoted to a passenger run on this division between Cleveland and Youngstown, where he has been almost continuously since that time.

Mr. Shay is an ardent worker in the Trinity Methodist church, of which he
