YOUNG LADY LEFT FOR DEAD

Miss Katie Ryan Found Lying in an Unconscious Condition Near the Tracks of the Santa Fe.

OFFICERS WILL NOT GIVE OUT HER STORY

Man Who Had Property Belonging to Her Arrested This Morning.

Miss Katie Ryman, an estimable young woman, was found this morning at an early hour in an unconscious condition lying close to the Santa Fe tracks in the northeast part of the city, near the Peach street crossing.

She had been struck a fearful blow just back of the head and felled to the ground, and probably left for dead. What prompted the assault upon the young woman has not been learned. She was discovered about 5 o'clock and taken to her brother-in-law's home on Williams street, where she gradually gained consciousness and was able to tell her story, the particulars of which the officers refuse to disclose.

The doctors who waited upon her say that the skull is probably fractured, and that she is quite seriously hurt. Last night about 6 o'clock she was met at the store of N. E. Ruben on Houston street by a man who it is said, has been paying, or attempting to pay her attention for some time, and the two walked off toward the

This was the last seen of her until found this morning as described above, A man named Harry Dashiel was arrested on a charge of drunkenness. He was found lying in the alley in the rear of the local office of the Cotton Belt sound asleep and taken to the city jail. He was searched and on his person were found a pair of gloves, money purse and veil, the property of Miss Ryman. An officer took the above articles to the injured woman who said they belonged to her. information being secured, the man was transferred to the county and a warrant sworn out charging him with

He has several times during the past year been arrested for various offenses but al-

WHEN SHE LEFT THE STORE Miss Ryman was with Miss Georgie Ridecker from the time she left the store until 6:45 o'clock. Miss Ridecker was driving and Miss Ryman got in the buggy with her at the store of N. E. Rubin on Houston street. It is at that store that Miss Ryman has been clerking. They drove about the city a short time, and at 6:45 o'clock they stopped in front of the Grand hotel on Weatherford street where Miss Ryman got out of the buggy. She said she wanted to stop at that place. That is the last Miss Ridecker knows of her movements.

SHE IS UNCONSCIOUS At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the young lady was unconscious when a reporter for The Telegram called at the house. She is at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dashiel, at 1315 Williams street. Mrs. Dashiel says the injured young lady has not made a statement to her of how the affair happened. They have summoned surgeons to attend her, and at the time the reporter called there was every indication the young lady is very seriously injured. Mrs. Dashiel is not the wife of the man arrested this morning and who is the Outlook.

J. K. Rosson of the cattle commission firm of Campbell & Rosson, North Fort Worth, has just returned from a trip of several days' duration through South Texas and reports that cattle conditions in that part of the state are not very encouraging from a cattleman's standpoint. He gives as a reason for this the extremely and continuous drouthy season; that practically no rain to speak of has fallen in a long while, and as a consequence grass is uncommonly short and water scarce.

Mr. Rosson says that there will be pracically no cattle shipped to market from hat part of the state this spring, and the attle that will move will go to the asture country in the territories.

There are some cattle that have been a cake feed that will probably be shipped o market, but even this class of stock is in very poor flesh, but the feeders are bound to sell in order to realize the very best on them that is possible.

Last season the movement of spring cattle to market from South Texas points was quite large, but this year there will time, and had rheumatism in my shoulder and arm. I suffered everything; nobody but God knows how I suffered. I weighed 128 pounds. A friend recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I commenced to take it. I was so weak and run down that the first bottle did not do me much good, but I kept on, and the second bottle did me good and I began to gain. After taking the Nervura I never had a pain in my side, nor any headache, and I sleep well and have a good appetite. I don't believe there is any medicine in the world so good as Dr. ene's Nervura. It did me good right off, and I have had no return of my womb trouble. I had leucorrhoea, but since tak-ing Nervura that has disappeared. I feel strong, and last summer was able to do the work for fourteen in a family, and I fore nobody knows how I worked; but I had to work for my children. I sent two bottles to my brother in Nova Scotia, and it did him lots of good. I recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura to every one." If you have any of these complaints, or

Market Quotations

NORTH FORT WORTH, March 29.— With another moderate run of less than 1,200 cattle today, the market opened quantity. With the end of the winter packing season at hand, quality ought to strong, and, on an active basis, the yards were cleared early with the day's business practically ended at 12 o'clock.
Steers showed a falling off both in quality and quantity, the bulk of this class of last year, but der. Top steers, averaging 1.140 pounds. brought $3.50, with a range in prices or the good medium handy weight kinds be tween $3.10@3.40.

Buyers bought up the bulk of the she stuff on the first round, which was weighed up early at satisfactory prices to both salesmen and shippers. Heavy fed cows, of 622 pounds, sold at $2.75, with the bulk of fed stuff at $2.35@2.75; medium butcher stock at $2@2.25, and the ordinary stuff and canners at $1.50@2.

Calves and bulls were of ordinary quality and sold steady. Choice light veal calves are quoted at $4.50@5, with the fair to good kinds at $3@4. An offering of 1,200 hogs were on sale today, and, under stimulating influences both from local and outside points, the market ruled strong and active, the entire supply changing hands on early morning trading. Although the bulk of the receipts was composed of Texas hogs, the general quality was exceptionally good, and the heavy end of good killing hogs changed hands at $5.0212@5.15, with a top of $5.25 for choice medium to heavy hogs, averaging 243 pounds.

Texas farmers and stockmen who be gan raising hogs on a small scale one year ago, when the advent of the packing houses made it possible for them to cultivate this branch of the live stock industry with profit, are now, in a small ment and the results are encouraging others to lay down the hoe, thin out their J. T. Simmons, Argyle 69 May of the leading branches of the industry.

P. R. Stephens of Groom, Texas, who owns a ranch in Armstrong country.

owns a ranch in Armstrong county, J. F. speaks very encouragingly of cattle J. W. conditions in that part of the state. Hugh Mr. Stephens' ranch is a part of the old Goodnight ranch, which about two years ago was divided up and sold in small sections. The part owned by Mr. Stephens is used as a stock farm He as he raises high grade Herefords and He also carries on farming quite extensively. Registered bulls are used and the cattle marketed from this farm are among the best to be found on the market anywhere.

"Last year," said Mr. Stephens, "I cut 200 acres of alfalfa on my ranch. He four crops of hay and besides this had the use of the meadow for pasture purposes during the spring and fall. In addition to this I also raised on my ranch a great deal of kaffir corn and ruled strong and active, with a top of other rough feed so that I was well $3.50 for 1,140-pound steers, and the bulk prepared for any emergency that might of sales at $3.10@3.40. The sales: have come in the way of bad weather during the winter. It has been demonstrated that on one acre of alfalfa 1,00 pounds of pork can be produced. Tha will give an idea of this great feed.

"Stock raising and farming combined is becoming more profitable every year in that section of the state and all of the land owners who have gone into it are prospering. Hog raising has been gaining in favor all over that part of the country and is bound to become even a greater industry than it is already. The quality of cattle our stockers on the northern mark top the market more often than those of any other state. Last year all the stock cattle and calves raised on my ranch were sold to cattle feeders of Indiana, which is a pretty good indication of their quality."

Fred Slocum, one of the well known feeders of this state who maintains feeding lots near Crescent on the Ric Grande railroad south of Fort Worth on the line of Hood and Johnson counties, was a visitor at the yards yesterday. Mr. Slocum says that the recent heavy rain has given the feeders some hope and with early grass, which he thinks is already twenty days ahead of last year, the feeding industry will turn out more profitable than was at first anticipated by live stock interests when the situation looked so gloomy last fall. "I have about 400 head of steers on my place," said Mr. Slocum yesterday, "and with the indications of an abundance of early grass I think that the feeding proposition will pan out all right this summer. I am not, and never was a heavy dry lot feeder, but instead run my cattle on grass until shortly before they are marketed, when I put them on full feed for a short time. In that part of the state there are very few straight feeders, most of them feeding a little cake on grass during the greater part of the feeding season, finishing them up a short time before marketing on full feed."

Mr. Slocum says that he will not be ready to market anything out of his pastures before the middle of July at which time he hopes for a permanent improvement in market values. While here yesterday he endeavored to buy 28..... 288 a few cars of good feeders, but was unable to find what he wanted.

Denohue Brothers of Mulhall, Ok. topped the hog market today with one load of choice heavy corn-fed hogs which the list of regular patrons to this market since its inauguration and is always satisaveraged 250 pounds and sold to Armour fied with the sales as made by its commission firm.

It is probable that the shipping demand for hogs at Chicago will be strong all through the spring and summer months. Such nearby points as Cincinnati and other Ohio centers of population which usually receive enough hogs to supply the local fresh pork demand are buying here.

Sheep trade continues to show a healthy undertone. The southwestern drouth makes the statistical position of mutton look strong, as it precludes all possibility of materialization of the usual supply of fat grass sheep from Texas, Arizona and New Mexico.

The New Mexico Cattle Growers' Association, while in session at Roswell last week adopted a resolution favoring a national leasing law.

The association is unalterably opposed to the union of New Mexico with any other state or territory, and the stock growers who represent one-half of New Mexico's taxable interests, stand for single statehood or none.

DECORATION ON ONLIVESTOCK

Information was received in Fort Worth today by the different railroads to the effect that a combination rate has been decided upon on live stock shipments. As a result the railroads have or will at once authorize a rate on stock cattle from Texas and Pacific points to Kansas points in group five, a combina tion of locals through Fort Worth.

This makes the through rate some lower than it was under the old rate, but the exact figures have not yet been figured out by the local freight men in this city. The Frisco freight office this morning denied that that company proposed putting in proportional live stock rates, has nothing of the kind in contemplation and will make no attempt to put into effect any such rates as is charged by a publication in a morning paper.

The Commonest Facts

About your business are interesting to the public and may bring you excellent returns if told in a convincing way through the newspaper. In one of the largest cities of this country a department store made a strong point in all of its advertising that they would refund the money on all purchases which proved unsatisfactory to the purchaser. This fact made them famous throughout the community as the "Reliable Shop." As a matter of fact many other department stores in the same city had been doing the same thing for years, but it remained for this store to make this an advertising feature.

There are many facts about your business that would interest the public and make it distinctive. Pick them out and run them in The Telegram. Make your business the leader in its line.

Objects to the Sunday Meet- J. W. Spencer Outlines a Plan Which is Different from That of Capt. S. B. Burnett.

> There was a poorly attended meeting pointed by President Jacob Washer of the Fort Worth Board of Trade to take the initiative in the matter of building a auditorium or hall in this city. Thos who attended the meeting were Messrs Newby and J. W. Spencer, but what the meeting lacked in numbers was made up with earnestness and enthusiasm, for the which, under authority of a resolution passed by the Board of Trade, was to take hold of the proposition and devise, if possible, ways and means by which the uditorium might be built. On account of the meeting being se poorly attended it was decided to get to gether Wednesday afternoon at 4:30. Mr. Spencer outlined what he thought would be a good plan by which money could be raised. He suggested that a indefinite number of men, say 1,000, b secured who would agree to donate $2.50 each month for a period of one year. He said this plan would raise $30,000 or more which amount could be supplemented by money derived from giving socials, lawn

While this method would take quite a while to raise the desired amount, it would be certain.

Mr. Spencer also outlined a kind of building, suggested by Dr. Cooper, which in his judgment, would make a desirable auditorium, and thought that a plan of a Greek cross with a circular building in etsimated that it would not cost more than $75,000, possibly less.

In the circular portion of the building would be tiers of seats ranged about ar amphitheater, the flooring of which would be removable, leaving a turf ring for the exhibition of cattle or other purposes At one end of this central part of the building would be placed the platform for the holding of other forms of entertainments and broad aisles intersecting the sections of soats would give ready exit in cases of fire or panic. The prongs or wings would be used for offices and committee rooms, while underneath them could be placed rooms for refreshment stands, amusements, etc.

Mr. Spencer thought it would not be a difficult task to interest the wage

SEEN AND HEARD AT THE CAPITAL

Austin Bureau, AUSTIN, Texas, March 29 .- (Special.) -Senator J. T. Beaty of Jasper was in Austor Beaty is much interested in the enorcement of the game law of Texas, and says vigorous steps are being taken by the people in his section looking to this desirable end.

Senator J. H. Faubian of Leander was in Austin yesterday. He said there was not much interest in politics in that portion of the country, except for district judge and the state senate.

Colonel S. F. Singleton, a large stock raiser in Lynn county, spent Saturday in Austin, and told a truly remarkable story of his efforts to supply his ranch with water. He said he sunk forty wells from twenty to 300 feet deep without obtaining water, and concluded he would change his methods. In sinking these wells he encountered moist earth or sipes in several and he determined to drill a new one and There are three different manifesta- if a sipe was found he would follow it with a tunnel, much the same way that is done in mining operations. He went down thirty-four feet, struck a sipe, followed it with a tunnel 100 feet, the indications improving. Commencing on the surface at the further point of the tunnel, he sunk another intersecting it, followed the same vein 100 feet and struck a fine Both wells filled to a considerable depth, from both of which he pumped water to the surface.

> vell, 100 feet deep, obtaining a flow of ight gallons per minute. This was pumped into a tank to which the stock had acess. It proved to be so strongly impregnated with alkali and other poisonous minerals that it killed between six and seven hundred head of his cattle in a few days. It was filled and abandoned, of ourse, and a third well sunk in the same icinity, from which a good stream flowed to a tank placed and filled. Mr. Singleton said he drove 200 head of head of cattle to water at this place, and five died before getting out of the pool. The effect of the first water was gradual; the effect of the last, when it proved fatal, was almost instantaneous.

Six miles from there he drilled a third

Colonel Singleton did not have an analysis of the water made, but is inclined to the opinion that its deadly effect was owing to its extremely caustic alkaline properties, with probably a combination base of both mineral and vegetable. Alkalized water is not at all uncommon in the northwest, but this is supposed to be

TERRITORIAL PRACTICE WASHINGTON, March 29 .- (Special.)

Senator Clark has favorably reported the bill regulating the practice of surgery and medicine in the Indian Territory. It There is no law whatever regulating the practice of medicine and surgery in force in the Indian Territory. The conditions there are such that it appears ab solutely necessary that the 500,000 inhabitants, two-thirds of whom are white citizens, should have some law protecting them from being imposed upon by incompetent, ignorant persons who, from the mere desire of gain, assume to practice medicine and surgery without any previous experience and with no knowledge whatever fitting them for such professions. From the best information obtainable the territory is now suffering from many such swindlers and dangerous fakers who are now preying upon the people association of the Indian Territory, of the commissioner of Indian affairs, and of the secretary of the interior, and the committee is in receipt of numerous letters and suggestions from reputable citizens of the territory setting forth the great necessity for the early enactment of legislation along the lines of this bill. In view of all the circumstances in the case the committee recommend that the bill do pass without amendment.

soom, the chief military post at the time for the extension of the system to Fort WASHINGTON, March 29 .- (Special.) -mmittee on Indian affairs has reported favorably the Stephens bill which provides for the opening to settle-ment of 505,000 acres of land in the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache reservations. The lands are to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash. Representative Stephens of Texas, the author of the bill, in his report to the house, says that this land is at present used for grazing purposes and that it constitutes the best agricultural section of the reservation. Since this reservation has been opened up three lines of railroad have been built through it. The country already opened for settlement has all been settled upon by homesteaders and has proven to be good agricultural land. For these reasons the land reserved for pasture in said reservation is in great demand for farming purposes and if sold to the highest bidder, as proposed by this bill, it will not the Indians from $1.50 to $10 per acre, and the committee believes that this bill proposes the best disposition that could be made of these lands. The changng of these pastures into farms would add greatly to the welfare and development of Oklahoma, because fine crops can be raised on these lands without irrigation. We propose by our irrigation laws to spend millions of dollars in rethem from grazing to agricultural lands -while this bill, if it becomes a law, changes a half million acres of land (now ised only for grazing purposes) into farms which need no reclamation by irrigation, and it would seem to be almost criminal to withheld from settlement so large a body of good farming lands. The Stephens bill as amended reads as WEEVIL BILL Steps have been taken by Delegate Mc Guire to check the onward rush of the Mexican boll weevil now devastating the cotton industry of Texas and portions of Louisiana and Indian Territory. In the last three named countries the weevil is still in infantile growth, but its presence has been marked by the destruction of eral large cotton plantations on the oundaries of these states and to prevent this occurrance in Oklahoma, Mr. McGuire has introduced a bill in congress with which he seeks to prevent the contagion of his territory.

The weevil has not yet made its entry into Oklahoma and while the cotton production of that territory is not large, it does warrant steps and some action for its protection. Accordingly, the following bill has been introduced in the house and it is believed will be passed at this

Possibilities of Making Good Crops Have Induced Many Farmers to Put in a Large Acreage This Year.

A representative of the Cotton Belt railroad company who has just reached Fort Worth off an extended trip through North and Northwest and Central Texas, gives a report of conditions that is anything but encouraging, ex- lege. Dr. I. L. Van Zandt was presidcept that part of it which has reference to oat and wheat conditions.

He traveled as far into the Panhandle country as Memphis and Amarillo. The people in the Hereford and Canyon City country are making elabacreage of cotton this season, having been stimulated over the success of the experiments of last year. Up to last year it was not thought that cotton could be successfully grown in that cold country but the tests already made have conclusively demonstrated that just as good cotton can be raised on the plains country nearly as in the cotton sections of Central Texas, and as a consequence farmers propose to give the growing of the white staple a thorough test this sea-

An exceedingly large acreage of cotton will be put in this season in the Abilene, Cisco, Baird, Albany and Stamford country. The past season there was marketed from Stamford 26,-000 bales of cotton, which is considered a phenomenal success for the first trial in cotton growing in that part of the state. The Telegram's informant says the people of that section expect to make large increases over the output this season, and to this end are bending their energies.
