

DOOMS THAT PASS IN THE NIGHT

ONE IN PARTICULAR IS PUNCTUAL AND ANOTHER LAGS

THIRD TERM "HOODOO" ALL THAT KEEPS THE PARTY FROM TURNING TO CLEVELAND.

GORMAN IS LOOKED TO AS THE MOSES TO LEAD HIS PARTY IN FORTHCOMING CAMPAIGN.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Every big state in the union, with a delegation worth counting, has held its convention, and the Hearst boom has been punctured so many times that the possibility of the young editor as a candidate is no longer seriously considered. The Parker talk, which was general three weeks ago, has also dwindled to almost nothing. The fear of Tammany opposition and the knowledge that the empire state can not go democratic without the help of that state is not seriously considered. It will be owing to the fear of the third term hoodoo. On the other hand it is known that if the Princeton sage should be successful he will have general support throughout the south; would be backed by big financial interests of the country as well as the army of officeholders.

Cleveland has been out of public sight for eight years, but his mind has been an open book to democratic readers. He has been writing for the magazines and an analysis of all he has written would indicate that he is in a receptive mood. The democrats, all of whom seem to make a study of the national situation, anticipate a mighty struggle when the big St. Louis show is pulled off. The conservatives cry down the talk that Hearst, Bryan and their silver delegation will be factors in the convention. But they admit that Hearst and Bryan together ought to control one-third of the delegation, which would cause a deadlock, and this result is most dreaded.

Colonel James M. Guffey of Pittsburgh will not succeed Chairman James K. Jones of Arkansas as head of the national democratic committee. There are reports flying between New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Atlantic City, where Leader Charles F. Murphy of Tammany hall is at work, who has the democracy of that state in the hollow of his hand, will preside over the destinies of the next democratic standard bearer. The talk of Gorman for national chairman seems to many democratic minds to indicate the nomination of Grover Cleveland.

Gorman steered Cleveland to victory in one memorable national battle and the astute minds of the party in the nation have singled him out as the leader for 1904. Colonel Guffey could get the place if he consented to become a candidate, but it is well known among his intimates that he has no ambition of the kind. He is willing to tender any aid within his power for the success of the ticket and will be one of the wise counselors before the convention and until the end of the campaign.

Murphy of New York has been suggested as chairman, but this selection would prove undesirable to the upper New York state faction under David B. Hill. Gorman's record in the party, his well-known political ability and the success he has already had as national chairman will cause a demand for his activity in the next campaign. Guffey realizes that the next national chairman will undertake a herculean task, and while he is full of democratic zeal it is believed that his private business is so extensive that he could not make the sacrifice the labors of a chairman would require.

THE JUDGE LIVED IN A RAILROAD CAR

ASHVILLE, N. C., May 30.—United States Judge James E. Boyd kicked like a steer when a United States court was established in his district of Wilkesboro. He did not like the accommodations and swore he would not live in the employ of the court. He went to see Roosevelt and tried to get the court abolished. He appeared before congress for the same purpose.

The court remained and it behooved Judge Boyd to make his home. He took his butler along to prepare his meals and he lived in a railroad car. The court is now in session and his honor is having a great deal to say. He paid his respects to Roosevelt and to congress for sending him there.

He sent the United States marshal and court officers ahead of him to prepare for his accommodations.

STENOGRAPHER ELOPES WITH INDIAN GIRL

SEDALIA, Mo., May 30.—George R. Smith, a stenographer for the Dawes commission in Tahlequah, I. T., and Miss Beulah Lipe of Okmulgee, I. T., daughter of the late chief of the Cherokee nation, eloped and were married in the territory last week. The couple arrived here this morning on a visit to Mr. Smith's parents. The bride is 19 years old. She was graduated recently from the Tahlequah seminary. The bridegroom is 22 years old and has been in the employ of the Dawes commission two years.

Consumption is a rare disease in Japan. Even in winter coughs are of rare occurrence, and this despite the fact that the real Japanese do not heat their rooms with anything more than ahiabachi, a tiny charcoal stove.

HILLIS SAYS IT WILL BE VULGAR TO BE RICH

NEW YORK, May 30.—In his sermon in Plymouth church, Brooklyn, Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis has expressed the belief that in the next generation it will be considered vulgar to be rich.

"It will be vulgar to have jingling chains on your horses," he prophesied, "so that people may know of your approach, vulgar to have bright colors blazing on your carriages in the form of monograms, vulgar to publish in the newspapers 'the amount spent on flowers at a funeral on reception, and if any continue to be so vulgar you'll pass such a man as you would a common beggar or criminal."

This country is very soon going to learn sobriety, prudence, simplicity and the essential vulgarity of the wearing on the outside the exhibit of the property of the possessor.

Dr. Hillis takes issue with the pessimists who talk of the "good old times" and who declare that society of today is rapidly going to the bad. He continued:

"We talk now about a great gambling mania. You say that all men are rushing out on Sunday to gamble. Read what a minister wrote two generations ago: 'Three-quarters of all our people have become gamblers.'"

"You say that there is a lack of intemperance. Read that itemized account for wine and whisky for the entertainment of the Congressional Ministers' Association of an eastern state in the early part of the last century. 'God has saved us from horse races. There are a few people who are interested in them now. One day in the spring perhaps 50,000 people go to a horse race that is the center of attention. In the old days there would have been such races in a year when the city would have been deserted for the race track. We must remember that God has helped this nation a great deal and we must remember that he will see us through in the future.'"

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT PAYS TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER DEAD ON BATTLEFIELD OF GETTYSBURG

FOLLOWING CUSTOM OF PREVIOUS PRESIDENTS HE VISITS SCENE OF GREATEST BATTLE OF CIVIL WAR—REFERS TO ENMITIES PASSED AWAY.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—President Roosevelt is paying his tribute to the soldier dead on the battleground of Gettysburg. He left here at midnight Sunday, May 29, and arrived at Gettysburg this morning. At 7 o'clock on Monday morning he was on the battlefield. Four hours were employed in going over the historic ground. At 11 o'clock he delivered the oration of the day. Prayer at the exercises was offered by Dr. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the United States senate.

It was at Gettysburg that the tide of civil war was turned, and there President Lincoln made the famous Gettysburg address, when the cemetery was dedicated in November, 1863. Other presidents have delighted to journey there and do honor to the brave men who fell in the country's greatest battle.

President Roosevelt spoke from a vine-clad forum in the national cemetery set aside in a corner of the battlefield after the war. General Daniel E. Sickles, who lost a leg at Gettysburg, at a point which is now marked by a little monument, is one of the distinguished men present at the exercises. President Roosevelt is accompanied by some of the high officials of the government, Eugene F. Ware, commissioner of pension, is a member of the party, and also made an address.

Points of the battlefield where the heaviest carnage took place, or that in other ways are of peculiar interest, have been carefully preserved by the government, and marked with appropriate monuments and statues. Among these is the "Bloodied ground," a monument in the shape of a cross, stands as a marker of green where Pickett's charge spent its force. The place is marked by a tablet in the form of an open book, resting upon a heavy stone foundation and flanked on two sides by field pieces, relics of a battle. Behind this monument is a grove of trees that were pointed out by Pickett to his men as their objective—the point where it was planned to break the union line. Pickett's men reached the point and some of them penetrated a little to the right, where was the "Bloody angle." Behind this monument is the "Crescent of Confederates" made a gallant but unsuccessful stand. They had reached the point designated in their orders, but were so broken and had suffered such a terrible loss that they were thrown back upon their own army.

Little Round Top, so familiar that it appears in all the stories of the battle and which was the key to the entire field on the second day of the battle, is surrounded by a statue of General Warren, who was chief engineer of the union army. It was he who discovered Little Round Top unoccupied at a critical stage in the operations and rushed forward a union force just in time to save it from the Confederates.

HIGH WATER TAKES BRIDGE OVER KAW

TOPEKA, Kan., May 30.—The Kaw river is eighteen feet above the low water mark at this point today, and is apparently at a standstill. The run of driftwood has been very heavy and the Rock Island railroad people were busy the greater portion of the night dislodging the accumulation at their bridge with dynamite. Notwithstanding these efforts, the greater portion of the false work at this bridge, which is being reconstructed, went out, making it unsafe for traffic. The street railway bridge was also knocked out of alignment, making the passage of cars impossible.

GREATEST RAILROAD ACROSS CONTINENT

OTTAWA, Ont., May 30.—The house of parliament, after an all-night discussion on the third reading of the Grand Trunk-Pacific bill and passed the measure by a vote of 165 to 53. This assures the construction of the greatest transcontinental railway in the world, with the single exception of the Trans-Siberian railway. The bill provides for the building of a road from Montreal, by the way of North Bay or Grandhurst and Wainwright, to either Buffalo inlet or Port Simpson, a distance of 3,125 miles. The project is estimated to cost about $125,000,000, and is promoted by the Grand Trunk Pacific railway. It will open up 500,000,000 acres of fertile land in the Northwest capable of producing between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 bushels of grain, or give times the total crop of the United States in 1900.

KUROPATKIN GETS LETTER FROM RUSSIAN

Inference Is That Williams' Sympathies Are with the Russian Army

BERLIN, May 30.—The Asien, the organ of the German Asiatic Society, says Emperor William sent General Kuropatkin, through Major Runkel, who went to Manchuria as German military attaché with the Russian army, a long autograph letter.

High military officials here remark upon the unusually lively interest the emperor takes in the military events in the Far East. His majesty has his general of staff send him twice daily reports regarding the situation there. These reports are accompanied by maps and plans of the military operations.

JAPANESE ADVANCE ON KWAN TIEN BEGUN

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30.—The war office received the following dispatch from General Kuropatkin under today's date: "This morning I received a report stating that the Japanese advance on Kwan Tien had begun from Salmatza. The number of the enemy is not known."

EMPEROR HEARS FROM GENERAL KUROPATKIN

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30.—The emperor received the following dispatch from General Kuropatkin under yesterday's date: "Detachment of Japanese cavalry, consisting of 150 sabres, moved forward from the main body May 27 and approached within eight kilometers southeast of Wao Fenk Hoon station. But on encountering our frontier guards they fell back rapidly. On May 26 the Russian patrol heard heavy artillery firing in the direction of Kin Chou."

RAILROAD REPAIRED NORTH OF KIN CHOU

LIAO YANG, Sunday, May 29.—Lieutenant Colonel Shirdonoff of the Fourth Trans-Amur railroad battalion, has repaired the railway line north of Kin Chou, between the stations at Chinchen and Van Zalla, and tomorrow will complete the work between Hanyou and Waidian.

The Chinese are readily offering themselves for employment. A typhoon prevails, which hit the Japanese landing operations and heavy rains are spilling the road.

ANOTHER DIVISION DEPARTS FROM JAPAN

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Advices received here report the departure from Japan of another army division. While its destination is not stated, it is conjectured that these troops are about to close in on the Russians in the rear of northeast Korea, cutting off raiding parties which have threatened General Kuropatkin's communications.

ASSAULT MAY BEGIN WITHIN TWO WEEKS

LIAO YANG, May 30.—The impression at headquarters is growing that the main objective point of the enemy is Port Arthur, and it will not be surprising if an assault on that fortress is begun within a fortnight. No important movement of General Kuropatkin has been reported up to the time this dispatch was filed.

JAPS DEFEAT COSSACK BAND

TOKIO, May 30, 3 p. m.—A detachment of Japanese troops attacked and defeated 2,000 Cossacks at Ai Yang Pien Men, northeast of Feng Wang Cheng Saturday. The engagement began at 10:40 p. m. and ended at 10:30 a. m. The Japanese lost four men killed and twenty-eight wounded. The Russian casualties are not known.

SCHOOL STATISTICS IN WAXAHACHIE

WAXAHACHIE, Texas, May 30.—The final report of Professor W. L. Acker, superintendent of the city public schools, has been completed and forwarded to the office of the state superintendent. The report shows that during the term just closed the total enrollment of pupils of all ages was 1,377. Of this number 331 belonged to the colored school. Number of pupils enrolled between the ages of 7 and 17; white, 985; colored, 325; total, 1,313. Number of children unable to read and write when they entered school, 315. Entire number of teachers employed, 21. Total amount paid to teachers, $9,210. According to the report, the school houses and grounds belonging to the city are valued at $27,200. School furniture valued at $2,500. School libraries and apparatus valued at $4,075.

CAPTURE OF PT. ARTHUR HAS BEEN THE OBJECT OF JAPANESE CAMPAIGN

AMERICAN CRUISER ARRIVES AT TANGIER

BROOKLYN IS THERE AND THREE OTHERS ARE EN ROUTE—LIVES OF CAPTIVES TAKEN BY BANDITS THREATENED—SITUATION OMINOUS

TANGIER, Morocco, May 30.—The United States cruiser Brooklyn, flying the flag of Rear Admiral Chadwick, has arrived here. Other vessels of the United States squadron are following. The authorities here consider the position of the American, Ion Perdicaris, and his stepson, Cromwell Varley, a British subject, who were kidnaped by bandits led by Raisali, now more serious than before.

AMERICAN CRUISER ARRIVES AT TANGIER

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Mr. Gummere, the United States consul at Tangier, in a cablegram received at the state department over night, says threats against the lives of Raisali's captives, Perdicaris and Varley, have been made unless the bandits' demands are granted. A dispatch from Admiral Jewell, commanding the European squadron, announces the departure for Tangier of the cruisers Olympia, Baltimore and Cleveland.

WILL BOTTLE UP SHIPS

This Will Be Done to Prevent Possible Losses in a Naval Engagement

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30, 2:18 p. m.—According to information received by the Associated Press from a high source, important news regarding the Japanese plan of campaign, which has reached Russian authorities since the battle of Kin Chou, compels the conviction that the advance of General Kuropatkin and the activity of his scouts northwest and southwest of Feng Wang Cheng is part of a well-executed feint to prevent General Kuropatkin from detaching his strong force to hamper Oku's operations on the Liao Tung peninsula. Under cover of General Kuropatkin's screens it is added, part of the Japanese army landed at Takushan and removed southward into the peninsula, while Kuropatkin attempts to make Kuropatkin believe he intends to force a decisive engagement with him.

STREAM OF MONEY ORDERS POURS IN

NEW YORK, May 30.—Money orders from all over the country, aggregating $20,000,000, are pouring into the general postoffice for a concern known as the "Easting Trading Company." Mail thus addressed was ordered held up a month ago by the postal authorities because it is alleged, of a circular which fell into the hands of a mail clerk informing him that he had won a prize of some sort for which, to his knowledge, he had never competed. Advertising in the local postoffices throughout the country has failed to check the stream of money orders and they are being returned to the senders as fast as possible. One clerk is kept busy remailing the letters at the rate of 1,000 a day.

DEFENSE WAS DEMONSTRATIVE

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30.—A semi-official telegram from Mukden, dated today, says: "Owing to the impossibility of defending the position southward from Kin Chou without the aid of the fleet, the Russian defense at that point was only a demonstrative character. The defending force was armed with guns taken from the Chinese in 1900, and had little ammunition. The occupation of the position by the Japanese was at great cost to themselves, and does not alter the situation."

YAZOO CITY WILL NOT ASK FOR AID

YAZOO CITY, May 30.—A committee, headed by Mayor Holmes, reported today that 500 families lost their homes in the fire and that one-half of that number were destitute.

The committee declined to make an appeal for outside aid, but announced that any contributions would be received and distributed.

FARMERS IN CRUSADE AGAINST THE WOLVES

LEXINGTON, Okla., May 30.—Wolves have been causing much trouble to the farmers in the southeastern part of Oklahoma this year, and in many places, extensive wolf hunts have been held in an effort to drive the pests from the country or exterminate them. A number of farmers and local sportsmen, headed by Captain Dan Parnell, succeeded in killing three large grey wolves and wounding several others near here. These wolves have been killing young stock, and were more or less a menace to life in the neighborhood. Similar tactics have been pursued against them in other places in this section, and a big hunt is scheduled to be held from Stroud, soon.

VERNON VISITED BY TERRIFIC WINDSTORM

VERNON, Texas, May 29.—Last evening this section was visited by a terrific wind storm accompanied by a heavy rain. Red river is booming, which indicates a big rain in the Panhandle also. Near Fargo, ten miles north of Vernon, the farm and houses of Mr. Masoner were literally torn to pieces, seriously injuring his baby. Many roofs, signs and awnings were blown down. The rain is a blessing as cotton, corn and other crops were suffering. A telephone message from Wichita Falls says the wind did much damage in that town.

TRUST SQUEEZES OUT DENTAL SUPPLY HOUSE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 30.—Elmer E. Kirkpatrick, an Oklahoma City dentist, has learned what "trust" means as applied to trade conspiracies fostered by the republican party. Mr. Kirkpatrick was conducting a very successful business here in handling dental supplies and realizing a profit amounting to several thousand dollars a year from the business as well as accommodating the dental trade throughout the two territories.

ALL WANTED TO BE PULLMAN PORTERS

WACO, Texas, May 29.—A "sleek" negro, claiming to be from San Antonio, and giving the name of Willie Howard, ran afoul of trouble yesterday afternoon, and police officers arrested him on a charge of getting money under false pretenses. His scheme worked like a charm as far as duping the negroes was concerned, but it is claimed that he tried to do too much business and in reaching out for more trade he overstepped himself. He represented that he was getting men to work for a railroad company, and offered negroes $1.75 a day to lay steel. He found no trouble in interesting a number in this proposition, and the next thing sprung was the announcement that his company also wanted a number of negroes to act as Pullman porters, chair car men, etc., at good pay. This proved a winning, and there were applicants enough to man all the roads in southwest Texas. Here is where the financial feature is said to have shown up. Howard demanding that money be put up to cover certain expenses incident to getting the jobs, such as providing for proper uniforms for the porters, railroad fare of the track layers, etc. He is said to have secured numerous sums of money from various negroes, ranging from $5 per man up to $15. At this point the police interfered and the railroad magnate was taken in tow. He is now in jail.

IRRIGATION FROM SYSTEM OF WELLS

AUSTIN, Texas, May 30.—Colonel Asher Richardson of San Antonio, while comparatively a young man, is a pioneer in the development of West Texas, has set an example that others will follow and make that portion of the state flourish like a bay tree.

He was here yesterday and talked in a most interesting way of what he had already accomplished and what his plan of further operations would be.

Colonel Richardson owns a large body of land in Dimmit county near Corral Springs, purchased for the purpose of raising stock, which he did successfully. He was impressed with the wonderful productive possibilities of the soil if only water for irrigation purposes could be secured, and determined to try for an artesian supply.

He sunk one well, obtained a fine flow. This encouraged him to drill a second some distance from the first, with results just as satisfactory. These wells each flow 1,200 gallons per minute, or 3,456,000 in 24 hours. Between the two he constructed a large circular reservoir, with three storage, and the constant flow he has an ample supply of water to irrigate 1,000 acres of land. This he is reducing to cultivation as fast as it can be grubbed, and is rented at $15 per acre the day it is ready to plant.

He was asked for a statement as to what crops were raised and in answer he grew both eloquent and enthusiastic. "Why, we can raise almost anything raised on earth in the fruit and vegetable line, onions, beets, potatoes, cabbage, cauliflower, melons, berries of every kind, and fruit of every variety. One hundred tons of beets can be produced on an acre, and the onion crop this year yielded 26,000 pounds per acre. Last year I cut my alfalfa nine times, getting a ton from each acre each cutting. This year I have already cut three times with about the same yield.

"Strawberries grow until people are tired of picking, and we are now gathering the second crop raised this year. We are forty-two miles from a railroad and of course handicapped in marketing our stuff, but some day we will have a railroad, when Dimmit and some other counties in that immediate section will show up as the greatest fruit and truck producing country on earth. The climate and healthfulness of the country is unsurpassed and it is one of the most pleasant places to live in the state."

Colonel Richardson was born and raised in Maryland. He came to Texas in 1877, as he says to make a fortune and return to his native state. He has succeeded in business, gratified his ambition, but is an enthusiastic Texan, and says he has no idea of going back to Maryland, or ever leaving the state.

MANY BURIED BY FALLING WALLS

NEW YORK, May 30.—The side walls of a four-story building on Eighth street collapsed today and many persons are believed to be injured. Three of the wounded already have been sent to the hospital and the police report that several more are probably still in the ruins.

SHEEP MAN SHOT FROM AN AMBUSH

CASPER, Wyo., May 30.—Lincoln Morrison has been probably fatally shot from ambush while driving through the town of Thermopolis. Morrison had some sheep that graze on the range claimed exclusively by cattlemen.

Not many months ago another prominent sheepman in Thermopolis was assassinated.

MILLIONS AND ONE MAN LOST IN FIRE

NEW YORK, May 29.—One death may result from a fire that started last evening on the Starb barge. Allen C. Churchill, in a conflagration which swept over the seven Delaware, Lackawana and Western Railroad Company's freight and coal piers. The police were informed to each pier each evening. This year I have already cut three times with about the same yield.

The police estimate the loss by fire at $1,000,000. This, however, they say is a conservative estimate and it may be found that the loss is several hundred thousand dollars higher. The officials of the railroad company are unwilling as yet to give out any definite figures on the loss, as it so far has been impossible to learn just how much freight was destroyed. Three engines are still pouring streams of water on the smoldering ruins.

FATAL SLEEP ON RAILROAD TRACK

AUSTIN, Texas, May 30.—Peter Dohl, foreman of the bridge gang on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas extension from Georgetown to Austin, was run over and instantly killed this morning at 6 o'clock. He was asleep on the Central track three miles east of Austin and was run over by a Central freight train. The body was frightfully mangled.

BATTLESHIP MISSOURI HEROES ARE PROMOTED

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Three enlisted men of the battleship Missouri, who showed extraordinary heroism in the tragic explosion on that vessel off Pensacola last month, were ordered promoted to acting warrant officers. They are Chief Boatswain's Mate Michael Higgins to be an acting boatswain; Chief Gunner's Mate Mons Monssen, to be an acting gunner, and Chief Machinist George Crofton, to be an acting machinist. Upon the expiration of the required period of probation the president will give them warrants.

Monssen was in one of the magazines of the after thirteen-inch turret. So intense was the heat in this magazine that copper powder cases were melted and paint work scorched. Monssen hustled the powder cases to the rear of the magazine, closed the door and threw water on the overheated places. More promotions will be announced later.

MAY START STORES TO FIGHT MERCHANTS

DENISON, Texas, May 29.—There is no abatement of the labor excitement. Everything else seems to have given way to this subject. The merchants are standing firm against alleged labor aggressions by C. W. Woodman, national organizer of the American Federation of Labor.

In a manifesto he says: "To the men of Denison I will say, that if it is your wish to have a better life, you must become necessary to start commissary stores, commissary stores will be started. Further, united labor stands behind you and your needs will be attended to."

Five labor organizations held a large meeting at the opera house last night.

WILL TRY TO AID THE WILLACY BILL

DENISON, Texas, May 29.—Prominent anti-prohibitionists were in session here Saturday evening. The session was secret. An effort will be made to influence legislation in favor of the Willacy bill. A determined fight will be made along these lines throughout the state. Every city and town will be urged to stand up for the subject. Men will be nominated for the legislature who stand pledged to permit cities to govern themselves in the liquor traffic. It is very probable that Hon. W. B. Munson, capitalist and railroad magnate, will be a candidate for the legislature from this district.

NEGRO'S PLOW STRUCK CHARGE OF DYNAMITE

MUSKOGEE, I. T., May 30.—Deputy Marshal Thompson arrived this evening from Broken Arrow, having in custody Ed Lister, A. J. Lister, Seymour Lister and Lathan McQuerry, all white men, charged with murder.

About thirty days ago a negro was killed near Tulsa in a very peculiar manner, and these men are supposed to be responsible for the negro's death. A large amount of dynamite had been buried in a field where the negro had to do some plowing, and it was so arranged that the plow point, in passing over some wires that had been fixed for the purpose, the dynamite was exploded, and the negro was literally blown to pieces.

WE WILL BUY YOU A BOTTLE OF LIQUOZONE, IF YOU ARE SICK—WE'LL PAY YOUR DRUGGIST OURSELVES FOR IT AND SHOW YOU HOW TO GET WELL.

We paid $100,000 for the American rights to Liquozone. And we have spent $500,000 in the past four months to buy a million bottles and give them to a million sick ones. Don't you realize that this product must be of wonderful worth to humanity? Won't you see what it means to you?

Acts Like Oxygen

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there any alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process which requires immense apparatus and 14 days' time. Each cubic inch of Liquozone represents the virtues of 1,250 cubic inches of the gas. The process by which these virtues are concentrated into liquid, stable form, has been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research for more than 20 years.

The result is a product which does what oxygen does. Oxygen is the nerve food, the blood food, the scavenger of the blood. It is the very source of vitality, the most essential element of life. But oxygen is a gas and unstable; while Liquozone is fixed and concentrated. It gets an excess of oxygen virtues into the blood, to go wherever the blood goes. The result is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare.

Kills Inside Germs

But the great value of Liquozone lies in the fact that it kills germs in the body without killing the tissues, etc. There is nothing else known which will do that. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken in-

CONDITIONS GOOD SOUTHERN PLAINS

MIDLAND, Texas, May 28.—Midland county on the southern plain of Texas is very hot. A heavy rain fell here yesterday and last night. This with the recent rains will insure fine range for the cattle. The grass is now green and coming fast. The conditions of the southern plains have changed very much in the last few weeks, cattle are fat, and the cow men on the Midland country are in fine spirits.

The southern plains are almost a perfect level, some slightly rolling, but not too much so. The lands are first class, covering an area of about sixty miles north, about the same distance south, and about forty miles east and west. The greater portion of this country would be termed agricultural lands, or lands suitable for the plow, at the present time, however, these lands are being used for grazing purposes by large stock men, who have been leasing them from the state and others for a number of years. As fast as the leases expire on the state lands they are being taken up by actual settlers.

The country to a certain extent is undergoing a change from the extensive cattle range to the stock farm proposition, and later will terminate in a general farming enterprise. Water can be had in unlimited quantities at from 20 to 80 feet deep, by the aid of which numbers of acres can be irrigated successfully. Our climate is delightful, nights always cool during the summer, and later, winters mild. Our altitude is 3,000 feet, the natural health level.

CHANGES IN CHOCTAW DIVISION ON JUNE 5

ARDMORE, I. T., May 30.—On June 5 the Choctaw division will be moved from Haleyville to South McAlester, and all trains from the Ardmore branch will be run into South McAlester. On that date a double daily passenger service will be established, instead of one passenger train each way, as at present between here and Haleyville.

On June 5 a regular daily passenger service will be established over the Arkansas and Choctaw between Ardmore and Paris, Texas.

DECISION AGAINST DRY GOODS COMPANY

SHERMAN, Texas, May 30.—The case of Wallace vs. Hocker et al, a suit growing out of the continued complicated litigation over the assets of the Denison, Dry Goods Company, which has engaged the attention of the local courts for some time, was brought to a close after a week's hearing Saturday afternoon, when Judge Jones of the Fifteenth district court instructed the jury to return a verdict for the National Bank of Denison as intervenor, for the sum of $19,421.61 and for J. W. Hocker in the sum of $5,830.46 as against the Denison Dry Goods Company and the Hocker-King Dry Goods Company. Intervenor, Jesse and Hope Carlton, were denied judgment.

ANARCHISTS ATTACK RECTOR OF CHURCH

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 29.—An attack supposed to have been instigated by anarchists has been made upon the Rev. Antonio Isleri, rector of the church of St. Mary Magdalen di Pazzi. During a pageant in honor of the church's patron saint a band of men rushed to the priests' carriage, the leader leveling a revolver. He and three others were captured by the police and the rest were driven off.

The Italian quarter was for a time wild with excitement and the crowd threatened vengeance on the prisoners. The priest had been warned by anonymous letters. The cause for the attack is not known. These letters were communicated to the police, who were on hand and frustrated the attackers.

WINE, WOMAN AND SONG DRIVE VISCOUNT TO SUICIDE

PARIS, May 30.—Viscount Allister Evans, grandnephew of Dr. Thomas Evans, the renowned American dentist and son of Dr. John Henry Evans—Marquis d'Oysey, is dead from a bullet wound at the hospital Rue Dudinot, as a result of a shooting in his rooms at Hotel Rivoli.

With him at the time of the tragic act was Mme. Pfucker, a fascinating Peruvian woman, the mother of two children, and whose home is at Lima. She says that young Evans killed himself. The police were suspicious for a while and an autopsy will be held. They say it was a plain case of suicide.

Evans and the woman met some months ago. They at once plunged into excessive dissipation. Her husband became furious, and threatening the pair, fled from the French capital.

Three months ago Dr. John Henry Evans hurried to Monte Carlo, as Allister had telegraphed from there that unless 50,000 francs were forthcoming by the day following he would kill himself. Dr. Evans found his son and Mme. Pfucker in the froth of Nice gambling rooms. He argued, appealed, to no avail. Then he returned here, leaving his son, then penniless, to do the best he could. Mme. Pfucker sold her jewels, and two months ago the couple took rooms at Rivoli, where, as man and wife, they had lived as best they could. Meantime, the husband has gone to Peru with the two children. The woman says that while they were taking tea last Monday afternoon Evans quickly drew a revolver and shot himself in the stomach. Not realizing the gravity of his condition, she tried to nurse him, but his condition alarmed her and she had him taken to the hospital.

Dr. Evans, his father, is a millionaire dentist, having come to Paris from Philadelphia at the height of his uncle's fame. Dr. Thomas W. Evans, preceding the Franco-Prussian war, in which Dr. Thomas W. Evans distinguished himself by assisting in the escape of Empress Josephine.

Market Quotations

NORTH FORT WORTH, May 30.—With close around 2,000 marketable cattle received, the market today opened early at an advance over last week on all good qualities of cattle of 10 to 15 cents, common and medium quality steady.

There was a continual movement to the scales during the entire morning and the noon hour found the yards practically cleaned, only a few bunches of ordinary mixed stuff remaining unsold for the afternoon market.

One bunch of choice graded short-horn steers averaging 1,289 pounds sold at a top of $4.35, topping the steer market for the year, with the exception of a few sales of heavy, fat cattle during the fat stock show.

Cows were in excellent demand at a fine advance with steers and the bulk of the supply passed over the scales in fair sized bunches. The best fat butcher cows sold at $2.85@3.25, good medium butchers at $2.50@2.75, and the ordinary killing kinds around $2.00@2.10.

The lightest Monday supply of hogs received on the local market this year were yarded today and while the common quality did not justify a good showing in sales the market ruled strong, closing easy with one small bunch unsold.

Best hogs offered weighing around 200 pounds of medium butcher quality sold at $4.55, with the lighter kinds at $4.45@4.55, and pigs at $4.00.

With strong closes at the various markets throughout the country last week, local salesmen looked for a fair movement of marketable hogs today.

The United States government has set aside the sum of $2,000,000 for the beginning of the large irrigation ditch in Butte county, South Dakota, known as the "Bellevue project."

Professor W. H. Olin of the Iowa State College has been engaged as assistant professor of agronomy at the Colorado Agricultural College. He will assume his duties at Fort Collins about the first of August.

It is estimated that 18,000 cattle will be shipped from Texas to Cuba this summer. The cattle industry in the latter country is in a very poor condition, but the indications are that it will be rapidly built up in the near future.

CHOKED TO DEATH BY TOO HACHE

PARIS, Texas, May 30.—Creed Taylor, a noted negro politician, and at one time alderman here, possessed of considerable property, was choked to death by swelling of tonsils caused from toothache.

MADE A FIGHT FOR SOUTHERN HISTORIES. WACO, Texas, May 30.—Major J. J. Smith of Houston, formerly of Burnet, spent Saturday in Waco on his way to Turnerville to visit his son, Major Smith, who is one of the most earnest advocates of text books suitable for southern children, in the schools, especially as to the war histories, and made a memorable fight along this line.

Major Smith is a member of Dickson's cavalry, U. S. V., in heavy action, and in the civil war was a member of the Thirty-first Georgia regiment, and is the only surviving color bearer of that regiment. General Gordon, under whom he fought, saved his (Smith's) life on one occasion.

Major Smith is writing some personal recollections and reminiscences of the war in Northern Virginia and has written a good deal along other lines.

WACO, Texas, May 30.—Ex-Mayor J. W. Riggins was in Waco the latter part of last week. He came up on business and to dispose of several car loads of Irish potatoes raised on his truck farm east of the city. He has found truck farming profitable for the past few years.

QUAY'S SON MAY BE CHOSEN SENATOR. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 30.—The impression appears to be well defined here among the senators, that the Matthew Stanley Quay in the United States senate will be his son, Richard Quay, who is a banker in Beaver, Pa., and is interested in banking in Philadelphia.

Governor Pennypacker is a kinsman of the Quays and was picked out for governor by the late senator. It is said that the senator, some months ago, when he became apprehensive of his health, intimated a desire that his son should succeed him, and even contemplated resigning at that end.

Young Quay would receive the place by appointment, serving without disturbance at least until the election by the legislature, which does not meet until January next, a full month after congress assembles.

Meanwhile other candidates are expected to develop. Already Congressman Joe Sibley, a multi-millionaire through Standard Oil interests, and William Flinn, a wealthy contractor and builder of skyscrapers, are known to be aspirants for the senate.

HOUSE AT FUNERAL. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 30.—Speaker Cannon has appointed the entire Pennsylvania state delegation as a committee to represent the house of representatives at the funeral of the late Senator Quay at Beaver, Pa., Tuesday next. A special car will be attached to the Pennsylvania Railroad train leaving Washington at 7:15 p. m. Monday for the use of such members of the committee of the two houses of congress as may be in this city at that time.

Other members will be met at Pittsburg Tuesday morning and the entire congressional party will proceed to Beaver by special train.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN ARE BUOYANT. WACO, Texas, May 30.—There is a feeling of great buoyancy abroad among farmers and business men owing to the fine rains of the past few days, and business has felt the effect of the prospects for good crops already. It is thought that the corn crop is now practically assured, as corn is in fine tassel and much further along than usual at this season, while the fairly good crop of small grain is being harvested, and hay is more than usually plentiful. Truck farm output is up to or above the standard thus far for the season, while the fruit yield is also fair. As to cotton, this crop will be an unknown quantity, but it is felt that the country cannot be in very bad condition when other crops are good, especially as much money is brought in by the diversified raising in this section. The ground was beginning to get quite dry and the rain was a welcome relief, inspiring everybody.

MISSING LEADER OF SOCIETY IS FOUND

NEW YORK, May 30.—Mrs. Herman Leroy Jones, the well known society woman of noted family, is back in her home at 6 East Twelfth street, after her remarkable absence of ten days. Her mysterious disappearance she has explained to her husband and to Robert L. Cutting, who assisted him. She is now being tenderly cared for by her family.

Her return was almost wholly brought about by the publicity given by the newspapers. A boarding house proprietor in West Twenty-second street, having seen the picture in the American, reported Mrs. Jones' presence to her husband, and her husband met her and took her back to her home and the little heartbroken lad who had been awaiting her.

ALABAMA STORAGE COMPANY DESTROYED

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 30.—Fire destroyed the plant and warehouse of the Alabama Storage Company here today, entailing a loss estimated at $400,000, which is practically covered by insurance. The plant is located in a suburb of Montgomery, about a mile from the nearest fire station, and by the time of the arrival of the department the flames were raging fiercely and it was evident that the loss would be total. The blaze originated in the cordage department and spread rapidly. Between the plant proper and the warehouse where was stored 4,600 bales of cotton, was a parapet wall of twenty feet high, built for fire protection. The flames leaped this wall and the warehouse was ignited. A strong wind was blowing at the time, and it was a matter of minutes to see that the flames could not be extinguished. The heat was terrific, the rails on nearby tracks reaching white heat and being warped and twisted out of position. It is not yet known whether the owners will rebuild.

A PECULIAR CONDITION.

Waco presents one of the most peculiar conditions of any town in the state and all Texas will watch with interest the effort being made by the county judge and a justice of the peace to enforce the gaming laws.

Some time ago County Judge Gerald commenced a war on the gambling houses. They were closed for a time, and then reopened. The county judge in person made a raid on the various places, and again they were closed. It appears that the judge is unable to get the assistance of the peace officers in his moral campaign, and he proposes to have this or some one will resign.

I have notified the officers of the city of Waco and the county of McLennan that I will no longer do their duties in enforcing the gaming laws in this city; that I will not pay another dollar out of my private pocket to do what they are paid to do and sworn to do; that from now on they must enforce the laws against any and every open form of gambling, or I will call a meeting of the voters of the city and county and state the case, and if they do not approve of my acts, I will resign the office of county judge; but if they do, I will then ask them to pass a resolution calling on every elective officer in the city and county by name to resign their offices.

There is much building in Fort Worth today, and, with its population of 46,000 rapidly increasing, Fort Worth bids fair to be the greatest city in the state. Let the people of Fort Worth bend every effort to make Fort Worth that which her natural advantages call for. We need now an auditorium. There are several big meetings to be held in Fort Worth next year. Let us be prepared to entertain them in a hall which will accommodate the numbers.

A whole town in Ireland is to be sold at auction—Castle Martyr, in Cork county. It belongs to a count who needs money, and to raise it gives the inhabitants of that town a chance to buy the place they live in. It is sometimes good for the general public for those whose soft hands can do no work to be driven to financial embarrassment. The public then gets an opportunity to enjoy life.

There is a demand from the people for cleaner gutters along Main and Houston streets and on the cross streets between the two. It is a condition which should be looked into, and the sooner the better. The filth which accumulates from day to day and from hour to hour, lies from day to day. The water from the sprinkling wagons forms pools, and the result is anything but beneficial to the health of the community.

am "whipped till I can't prosecute them," in the language of one of their chiefs. It is a bad state of affairs when the trial judges must come out in newspaper articles to insist that they will prosecute offenders for violations of law. It would appear that the county judge and the justice of the peace are judges to try cases when offenders are brought before them, but here is a condition which shows them to be in the nature of prosecutors. Is Waco without police officers, a sheriff's office and prosecuting attorneys, that judges, who are supposed to be unbiased when persons are brought before them, must go about and look up such violations and bring the offenders into court?

Will the people of McLennan county attend such a mass meeting and support the county judge or will they ask him to resign? Will the gamblers heed the warning and leave town or will they attempt to operate the games, the judge to the contrary notwithstanding?

It looks like Waco is up against a war. Here's a dollar to a dime the county judge will win the fight.

And with it all the Times-Herald is maintaining a Judge Parker silence.

WILL THE FENCIBLES GO? The Fort Worth Fencibles is one of the companies designated to go to St. Louis to represent the Texas National Guard. It is required of the young men that they pay their own expenses. This does not appear exactly right, as they are to be representatives of this state and this city at an international exposition, and the benefit of the advertising will be for the commonwealth and the community.

The broad features of Stanley's work show that it had humanitarian and economic as well as geographical value. He was the first to give us an approximately accurate idea of the form and size of Victoria Nyanza, the second largest fresh water lake; he revealed the Congo Basin, of which we had no conception, as surpassed in size and in water tribute to the sea only by the Amazon system; he showed the gloomy and almost impenetrable mazes of the forest belt, larger than most of our states; he made over four hundred treaties with native chiefs who learned to know him as a man who kept his word, and the relations of friendship and confidence which he established with the natives, the merchant, the explorer and the colonial governments of Europe; he studied the peoples and the economic resources from sea to sea through tropical Africa and incessantly proclaimed that these peoples were capable of development and that they needed the guidance of the world's seeking; he called for missionary volunteers to go to Uganda, where today there are ninety thousand professing Christians, three hundred and twenty churches, and fifty thousand persons able to read; he preached the gospel of humanity to the natives, used firearms against them, also! but only on the comparatively few occasions when the existence of his expeditions was at stake; and in his dealings with them he set an example of patience, mercy and justice that has not always been emulated. For over twenty years, he saw the African movement impelled, not only by his own hands, but also by ceaseless reinforcements of strong men and mighty influences, and he lived to see the leading European nations firmly established in nearly every nook and corner of the continent.—From "What Stanley Lived to See Accomplished in Africa," by Cyrus C. Adams, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for June.

It appears that the recent disclosures regarding the evils in national affairs made by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow is not the first time a member of that family has figured in such matters in this country. Sunday The Telegram published a fac simile of the copy of the Fort Worth Democrat, published July 6, 1876, and one of the editorial paragraphs read: "In refusing to give to the public the list of defaulters made up by Secretary Bristow, prior to resigning his place in the cabinet, the administration has shown a fear of having its affairs investigated. So let it be. The people know enough already." Verily the Bristow family must be composed of many sleuths.

The Parker men say they will never support Hearst because he believes in a larger navy and the retention of the Philippines. Can they assert that Judge Parker does not believe in these things? The difference between the two men is that we do know something of Hearst and nothing of Parker. If the Texas speeches of Mr. Bryan do not result in breaking the silence in Esopus, then there is little hope that the New York jurist will ever speak.

ONLY FEW ATTEND THE MEETING OF LEE CAMP

Veterans Decide to Select No Official Route to the Reunion at Nashville

The attendance on the Lee camp meeting, United Confederate Veterans, yesterday was the smallest in many months.

Adjutant McConnell objected to selecting any special route, and on motion it was decided that members select his own route.

Under the head of history, Historian Cummings read an article from the Review of Reviews, with reference to history. "Teachers of the History" was the caption of the article read by Judge Cummings.

There was much discussion of war records of members. It was insisted that each Confederate should see that he is properly recorded.

Communications were read in regard to an effort being made to increase the dues and also to make New Orleans the permanent place of holding the general reunion, at least every other year.

These questions are to be considered at the Nashville reunion. Judge Cummings moved that all delegates to the reunion be instructed to vote against any change. He said that it was a fact that while the membership was growing smaller the expenses were getting larger.

The following list of delegates to the general reunion at Nashville was appointed:

K. M. Van Zandt, S. P. Greene, C. C. Cummings, Duke Goodman, George Jackson, R. E. Beckham, E. W. Taylor, W. M. McConnell, T. T. Ball, H. L. Abston, H. C. Cantrell, W. N. Turner, J. W. Adams, J. B. Stone, Captain O. Fairpre, J. C. Terrell, J. H. Curtis, Colin Adams, Z. T. Serber, H. C. McGar, H. M. McNeely, J. J. Massie, J. B. Littlejohn, T. E. Carson, E. W. Yates, F. M. Leath, J. W. Rusk, C. V. Glenn, William Barr and Captain Barrer.

The list of alternate delegates to be reported at next Sunday's meeting.

Thomas P. Stone and party, Waco, Texas; Past Commander in Chief Lieutenant General N. R. Tisdal, Fort Worth, commander of the Trans-Mississippi department, U. S. C. V., and the most prominent candidate before the confederates for the honorable position of commander in chief; Miss Virginia Ball of Fort Worth, assistant to the commander of the Trans-Mississippi department; L. V., sponsor for the Texas division, U. S. C. V.; Miss Fay Lane of Fort Worth, chief maid of honor; Miss Mamie Trigg of Amarillo, Texas, maid of honor; Miss Margaret Pickering of Victoria, Texas, maid of honor; Miss Gene Cartwright of Terrell, Texas, maid of honor; Mrs. E. N. Baker of Waxahachie, chaperson Texas division, U. S. C. V.; R. E. L. Costen of Fort Worth, quartermaster general; Americus Johnson of Fort Worth, assistant quartermaster general; W. J. Ghivis of Fort Worth, commissary general; J. M. Donaldson of Amarillo, Texas, commander Fifth brigade, U. S. C. V., and many others.

A vote of thanks of the camp was extended W. P. Morris for his liberality in furnishing ice to the camp.

A committee, composed of Comrades McConnell, Taylor and McNeely, was named to select a sponsor for Lee camp to the general reunion.

The camp then adjourned.

THE SONS MEET There was an unusually large attendance on the meeting of the Sons yesterday.

J. B. Watson was admitted to membership.

The report of a committee to draft resolutions favoring the creation of a legal holiday of Jeff Davis' birthday, was adopted.

Two general orders, naming chief sponsor and maids of honor for the Sons for the general reunion, were read by the presiding officer.

The following donations for the fund which is to be used in the erection of a monument to the memory of the women of 1860 to the above cause, and the members are now making an effort to raise the pledge by the time of the Nashville reunion. The Sons hope to be able to report at that time that their pro rata of the grand total has been secured.

John M. Adams addressed the camp on the heroic deeds of the private soldiers during the civil war. Colonel Abe Harris also spoke on the same subject.

When the business of the camp had been concluded an interesting program was rendered by several young ladies.

Corsicana Lets Down the Fort Worth Team with Three Hits—Two Home Runs

Corsicana 2, Fort Worth 0. Markley and Salm each took a shot at the boundary lines between Tarrant and Dallas and their two home runs won the game for Corsicana. Pitcher Huddleston attended to Fort Worth.

In the sixth Thibo made first on an error and Coyle fled to Dunn. Langley sent a screamer to center field. Dunn was close on its path and shot it to Huddleston. Thibo was anteloping toward home. Hubbard threw to McMurray. Thibo was not yet at third. Mac threw to Tulliar who caught and fagged the Oil men's fastest sprinter. Shelton fled to Reitz.

The only base on balls presented by Jackson was in the ninth, Maloney walking to first for Shelton's single to right. Markley hit to Hubbard, who got Maloney. Shelton was left on third when Salm fled out to Reitz.

GALVESTON 10, HOUSTON 2 GALVESTON, Texas, May 30.—Before 4,000 spectators the Sand Crabs slaughtered the Houston aggregation here yesterday. The score was 10 to 2.

BURNS, the Houston pitcher, was batted hard, and as the game progressed his supporters fell to pieces. The locals did something home running and took a good many liberties with Moore, the Houston catcher.

For the home team Lutch pitched a good game, though in the first inning he was touched up a little. The score: Houston 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 6 5 Galveston 0 0 0 2 2 3 0 0 10 12 4

AN EVEN BREAK SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 30.—A double-header was played here yesterday, San Antonio winning the first by a score of 2 to 1, and Beaumont taking the second by 4 to 3. Twelve hundred rooters were present at the exhibition. The scores: R. H. E. Beaumont 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 5 0 San Antonio 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 2 6 3

PEACOCKS 4, DENVER 2 In an eleven-inning game played on the new grounds at Handley yesterday the Peacocks defeated the Denver team by a score of 4 to 2. Inasmuch as it required eleven innings to settle the struggle, it is needless to say that the game was interesting. The feature of the game was the fielding and general playing of Griffin. Batteries—Peacocks, Johnson, Hawn and Robinson; Denvers, Wright, Mallard and Pulliam. Umpire—Richardson. Time of game—One hour and fifty minutes.

BROWNWOOD, Texas, May 30.—The ball game at San Angelo yesterday resulted in a victory for the San Angelo team. The score was 9 to 0.

SEVENTH WARD STARS The Seventh Ward Stars and a picked team from the same ward played a good game of ball yesterday afternoon, the score being 10 to 7 in favor of the Stars. The Stars have played twelve games so far this season and have won ten out of that number, the first two being lost before.

PARIS DEFEATS DALLAS Dallas, Texas, May 30.—Paris shut out Dallas yesterday, winning the game by a score of 3 to 0. The locals had no trouble in finding Craig, who was on the slab for the visitors. Mulkey was also hit freely.

A large crowd came from Dallas to see the game, and it had not been so muddy. The features were Mulkey's fielding and Arbogast's hitting. The score: PARIS. AB. R. H. PO. A. E. There is only one graduate for this the first year, and she is a Denton young lady, Miss Beulah Kincaid. Right Rev. Alexander C. Garrett of Dallas will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, June 5, at the Methodist Episcopal church, south, in this city.

JAMES ROSS The death of James Ross, aged 46 years, who has been under treatment at St. Joseph's infirmary since last February, occurred yesterday evening. Ross was injured several months ago at Mexia by falling into an open fire, his death being the direct result. A brother was with him at the time of his death and will take the remains to Mexia this morning for interment at the family home.

CHILDLESS MARRIAGES A fact that may have considerable significance in connection with the divorce problem has just been brought to light in the English official record of judicial statistics for 1902, namely, that out of 1,650 suits in that year for dissolution of the marriage tie 415, or nearly half, were cases where there had been no children by the marriage. That children form a strong tie to bind parents together is a fact of common knowledge, but that childless marriages in themselves tend to the divorce court seems a fair inference from these statistics.

JURY DISCHARGED The jury failed to agree in the personal injury damage case of Reynolds vs. the Red River, Texas and Southern Railway Company, Saturday, and was discharged by Judge Smith of the Seventeenth district court. The jury reported that it disagreed only as to the amount of damages to be awarded, ranging from $3,500 to $10,000.

ARMY OF BUMS ON THE MARCH

Hundreds Are Tramping From the Northwest to the Cotton Growing States

TACOMA, Wash., May 30.—An army of tramps now moving over the northwest is causing much concern to railroad operations. An unusually large number of hoboes has been supplemented by hundreds of workmen who are out of work through the shutting down of scores of logging camps, lumber and shingle mills. Groups of men carrying blankets scattered along railroad lines represent the workmen portion of the crowd. Such men are going in both directions, comparatively few being eager for work. A great majority of the tramps are pure vagrants. They have been driven out of Tacoma, Spokane and Portland, and hundreds of them are walking toward California, being apparently on the way to cotton growing states, where times are reported good for trampdom. All trains are thick with breakbread riders. They are so numerous that trainmen find it impossible to entirely rid the trains of them. Strikes, which have been numerous in building and other trades for several years past, are unknown this year. Employers believe this is largely due to the plentifulness of unemployed who would be willing to take strikers' places.

HURRICANE VISITS TOWN OF LUBBOCK

LUBBOCK, Texas, May 25.—A brisk hurricane visited this town at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and did quite a lot of damage to wind mills and out houses. Judge Beatty had one good two-room house torn entirely away. Dr. Overton's wind mill tower was pulled up and carried some distance. John Green's wagon yard was torn up pretty badly. Quite a number of barns and sheds were torn down. Dr. D. Benson, an attorney of this town, returned yesterday from Seymour, where he had business with the district judge. He secured a temporary writ of injunction against Lubbock county and the road overseer of the Lubbock and Hockley road, restraining the county and overseer from opening up the said Lubbock and Hockley road.

The rains of the past two weeks have put new life into this country. Farmers are busy with their crops and stockmen are preparing for the spring work. Elder Penney and Miss Mary Lee are to be married today at the residence of the bride's parents in Lynn county. Mr. Penney is the proprietor of a confectionery establishment in this city.

REV. MOTEN TELLS OF HIS VISIT NORTH

Rev. D. S. Moten returned last week from Chicago, where he went to attend the general conference of the A. M. E. church. While away he visited several places of interest. He states with delight how he enjoyed Monday last at the St. Louis Exposition. He says he observed the affair with much interest and pleasure. His visit to the educational building was the most interesting of all possibly with one exception, the star building of the state of his nativity, Texas. He refers to the exhibit in the educational building from all Texas, but especially from Fort Worth. The entire schools of the city were represented. He congratulates the teachers, with their pupils, for such good work on exhibition and prominent positions of same in the great educational building of the Texas department. He says he carefully scanned the general exhibits and was greatly gratified. He says Professor I. M. Terrell and Professor Coleman of the High school of color are due special mention with reference to the meritorious work. Rev. Moten returns to a loyal and faithful church of parishioners and friends, who joyfully welcome him back home, and would not allow the general conference to take him from them for the C. E. department, at least yet.

"PHONEY" MARRIAGE TURNS OUT NO JOKE

NEW YORK, May 30.—The sensational story of a young Italian priest who was forced into marriage against the laws of his church, then lost his clerical robes, and fled to the United States to escape his bride, came out yesterday with the filing of a bill for the annulment of the marriage in the supreme court of Westchester county. The case will come up for hearing on Saturday at New Rochelle.

INDICTMENTS FOR PROMOTERS OF POLICY

CHICAGO, Ill., May 29.—One hundred indictments were voted by the grand jury this afternoon against defendants in the "policy shop" raids recently made by the police under the order of Chief Schuetter. Eighty-four cases taken before the grand jury later and considered after and true bills were voted. Soon afterward about a score of other cases were taken up, resulting in indictments being found. It is the belief of the police that many of the leaders or backers of the game were caught in the net. The jury adjourned to meet again on Tuesday, when about sixty additional cases will be considered. In addition to the 155 men arrested indictments are sought, according to the police, for alleged backers of the "policy ring," including "Tom" McGinnis, Harry Perry, "Social" Smith and James McDermott.

RAILROADS

THE LATE J. T. CLEMENTS

The Houston Post prints the following interesting story regarding the late J. T. Clements of Fort Worth, who was commercial agent of the Texas and Pacific. From the fact that the incident was probably never related by Mr. Clements, it will be read with interest by the many friends of the deceased:

Frederick S. Johnstone of this city, who was for some years city auditor of Fort Worth before removing to South Texas, told a Post representative yesterday of an incident that shed additional light upon the ability of the late Jay Gould to spot the death of my friend, Captain J. T. Clements, commercial agent for the Texas and Pacific Railway at Fort Worth yesterday, recalls a little episode of early Texas railroad days," said he.

"Clements was a sold man in every sense of the word, but rather uncommunicative and utterly devoid of ostentation. Years ago he came to Fort Worth and accepted a subordinate position with the Gould lines. He had been in the service but a few days when Jay Gould came along upon one of his periodical inspection tours, and in walking through the local office he saw Clements and asked his name, and before his departure not only made his acquaintance, but had him accompany him over the yards. A few months later those in authority decided Clements' services could be dispensed with and so notified him, but about this time Mr. Gould dropped in again, at once seeking Clements and inviting him to join him in a walk about the yards, and in the course of their conversation, Clements informed Mr. Gould of the situation. The latter said nothing, but before the arrival of the time of his "resignation" orders came direct from Mr. Gould himself for his retention and this was followed shortly afterward by his marked promotion in the service.

"The friendship thus starting between the two continued to the very day of the great magnate's death, and after that but few men in the service of the great system enjoyed the confidence of George Gould in a greater degree.

"Clements was for many years joint freight agent for all lines entering Fort Worth, and he probably declined more offers for advancement than any other one railway man in Texas. His position was arduous and responsible, but it suited him; he realized the fact, and long retained it. In fact, it was but a short time ago that he surrendered it for that of commercial agent for the Texas and Pacific. He belonged to the old school of railway men, the ranks of which have been sadly thinning out of recent years."

A PLANTATION ROAD

The Buena Vista Development Company, which operates the Buena Vista plantation in the county of Vera Cruz, is making arrangements to build a narrow gauge, three-foot railroad from its plantation to connect with the Vera Cruz and Pacific road. It is stated that the road will be completed and in operation by December 31, 1905. The road will be a private one and no concession will be asked from the government. The route is now being surveyed and the right-of-way will either be purchased or leased from the owners of the land through which it is to pass. While the road is to be constructed primarily for the benefit of the Buena Vista plantation, it will do a general business. Active construction on the road is to be commenced soon.

TO OPEN JUNE 1

President A. J. Davidson of the Frisco has issued a circular announcing that the line from Southeastern Junction, Mo., to Cape Girardeau, Mo., 124.1 miles, will be operated by the Frisco company, and will be known as the St. Louis division, and will be opened after June 1. The jurisdiction of officials of the Frisco is extended over the same, and regular service will be maintained.

A RATE WAR THREATENED

A rate war is threatened between the direct St. Paul-St. Louis lines and those running through Chicago. The Chicago-St. Paul lines insist that short line rates be applied through Chicago. The direct lines claim that the rate through Chicago should be $3 higher. They threaten that they will maintain this difference if they have to cut the rate to $2 from St. Paul to St. Louis to do it.

The present rate applicable to both routes is $16, but the route through Chicago is 100 miles longer than the short line service. The Chicago lines are inclined to regard the threat as a bluff on the part of the direct lines. They claim to be fully entitled to a share of the World's Fair business, and the only way they can get it is by applying short line rates through Chicago.

TEXAS AND PACIFIC RATES

The Texas and Pacific has announced a rate of $10 to St. Louis and return, good on the coach excursion of May 31. It is understood that this cut of $5 in the authorized rate was presented by the action of the Illinois Central in contracting for the movement of several hundred students of the state university at a $10 rate. When the Illinois Central first put in this rate the Texas and Pacific forced them to withdraw it. Later the Illinois Central contracted for the business at the $10 rate. General Passenger Agent Turner of the Texas and Pacific immediately put in a rate of $10, with the announced intention of continuing the rate as long as circumstances warranted.

SOME FRISCO APPOINTMENTS

President A. J. Davidson of the Frisco and the Chicago and Eastern Illinois has been elected president of the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad, which connects with the Eastern Illinois at Terre Haute and is now a part of the Frisco system. Effective June 1.

Captain J. F. Hinckley is appointed by Vice President Hammond chief engineer of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois. Captain Hinckley is chief engineer of the Frisco system.

W. S. Dawley is appointed engineer of maintenance of way of the Eastern Illinois and the third division of the Frisco, which includes the St. Louis, Memphis and Southeastern.

The Soda Cracker of To-day. Until a few years ago people didn't think very much about soda crackers—housewives bought them occasionally, but the position of the soda cracker in the family larder was a very humble one indeed. What was the reason? There were two: first the soda crackers were not of the best possible quality; and second, the method of selling them in bulk from barrels or boxes resulting in loss of flavor, and exposure to damp, dust and odors. Then the National Biscuit Company came upon the field. This company saw the possibilities of the soda cracker—saw that it possessed many of the qualifications of an ideal article of food—and started in to perfect it. First they improved the quality of the cracker itself—used only the finest materials and gave a care to the baking hitherto unknown. Next they adopted a new and better way of packing these crackers—they packed them fresh from the oven in air tight, damp proof packages so that they reached the consumer with their delicate flavor fully retained, pure, clean, and crisp. Then these crackers were named Uneeda Biscuit and sold at the remarkably low price of 5c. a package. Their success was instantaneous, unprecedented. To-day Uneeda Biscuit are one of the staples of life. They are sold in every city, village and hamlet in the country. They are bought in place of the old fashioned crackers, and they are bought by people who never bought the old fashioned crackers. But perhaps the best proof of the place that they hold in the hearts of the people, is found in the fact that in five years America has eaten over 300,000,000 packages of Uneeda Biscuit. OPEN BIDS FOR POST SAN ANTONIO, JUNE 16

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 30.—Captain J. L. Fleming, construction quartermaster United States army, headquarters here, announced today that bids would be opened at his office June 16 for the construction of the new military post in this city. The construction of this post will entail an expenditure of about $400,000. Bids will be asked on eighteen sets of officers' quarters, six large barracks buildings, three double mess halls and kitchens and six lavatories. Plans of the new post are on exhibition here; also at Fort Leavenworth, at the depot quartermaster's office in St. Louis and at the chief quartermaster's office at Chicago. The government reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

MONT PELEE REPORTED TO BE ACTIVE AGAIN

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 30.—According to a letter written by a young girl resident in Rosseau, Island of Dominica, to a friend here, the volcano, Mont Pelee, in Martinique, on May 8 last, by a singular coincidence, observed the anniversary of the catastrophe of May 8, 1902, when 30,000 lives were lost and the city of St. Pierre destroyed, by again bursting into active eruption. No mention is made of any loss of life.

The letter states that "there was a very active eruption on Sunday, May 8. There was an immense outburst of smoke and cinders, and the central cone within the crater appears to have been entirely ejected.

Mont Pelee is visible from Dominica. At the same time there was some slight volcanic disturbance at Guadalupe island, and the boiling lake in a crater at Dominica was unusually agitated."

BILL WAS SIGNED FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

TOPEKA, Kan., May 30.—Topeka is going to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the passage of the Kansas-Nebraska bill this week. That bill was signed by President Pierce just fifty years ago today. There will be a week of festivities in celebration of the event. Secretary of War Taft will deliver a memorial address this afternoon. There will be a parade and meeting every day and night, and a street fair will do business on the state house lawn.

A reporter asked about a half dozen officials round the state house what event was to be celebrated. Attorney General Coleman came the nearest to making the right reply. He said it was to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of something. Seth G. Wells thought it was an old set-

Homespun

Homespun is typical Spring and Summer material that didn't grow popular—it was born that way.

A strong, coarse yarn, spun from long, combed wool into rough, lumpy fabric of crude, homely patterns makes swaggar clothes.

There's something about the looks of Homespun that appeals to man's esthetic taste.

They're comfortable and satisfactory.

"EDITHA'S BURGLAR" PLAYED IN REAL LIFE

CHICAGO, May 30.—"Editha's Burglar" was played in real life early this morning when R. D. Smyers of 6799 Washburn avenue, hearing a noise in his front hall, took a revolver and crept down to investigate. He found a masked robber, who drew a gun and pointed it at him. In the second that intervened his daughter Helen, 8 years old, sprang out, a little night-gowned figure, between the men and cried: "Oh, papa, don't shoot the man! She stood in front of her father and seized his outstretched arm.

Smyers turned deathly pale as he lowered his revolver. So did the burglar when he saw the little night-gowned figure step in between him and the man at the head of the stairway.

The robber turned away and left the house.

Mrs. Smyers, who was carrying 3-year-old Russell Smyers, soon arrived in the hall.

Many other burglaries and robberies in the neighborhood of the Smyers home have been reported to the police lately, and it is believed that this man, who seem to operate alone, is responsible for all.

The police of the Englewood Station, who are searching for the "lone burglar," have been unable to get any trace of him.

SAY GEORGE GOULD WILL ENTER POLITICS

NEW YORK, May 30.—Republican politicians received with much satisfaction the report that George J. Gould is about to enter politics, and that he will try at the forthcoming election for a seat in the house of representatives from his district in New Jersey, which embraces Lakewood, where he has his country seat. Mr. Gould is a staunch republican and should be decided to become a candidate politicians of his state will welcome him with open arms. His private fortune is now estimated to be not less than $70,000,000.

For the extermination of Jackals a poisoning club for the whole Cape Colony is suggested.

AGED NEGRESS IS INJURED ON THE INTERURBAN

She Is Warned by the Whistle, but Returns to Danger Point Before Car Was Checked

An old negro woman, perhaps 70 years old, was picked up on the right of way of the interurban last night, after being struck by an incoming car.

The car which was the first one to leave Dallas was in charge of Motorman E. D. Starks and Conductor Billy Mosher. Nearing the bridge which spans the Sycamore, near the signal station about three miles from Fort Worth, the motorman noticed a woman walking west on the city and interurban tracks, but as the car approached within about 100 feet of her, she walked back to the track and sat down on one of the projecting ties. The motorman then threw on his air full force, but the momentum of the car carried it on several hundred feet, striking the woman and throwing her completely off the right of way. She was picked up unconscious and bleeding about the right arm and shoulder, her arm having been broken and her shoulder badly dislocated. She was placed upon the car and brought to the city and upon its arrival sent to the office of a physician of the company. Just before removing her from the car it was thought that she was dying, but after reaching the doctor's office, she revived slightly and this morning was still alive.

After the accident the motorman stated that when he first saw the woman she seemed to be in a dazed condition, but when he blew his signal she cleared the track and when within a short distance she turned and sat down near the north rail, near enough to the track for the pilot to catch her. It was learned today that the old woman had left her home near the mattress factory during the morning without telling her neighbors where she intended going.

URGES NECESSITY OF NEW JURY LAW

Ben M. Terrell States Reasons Why Three-Fourths of Jury Should Return Verdict

Evening Telegram: I desire to offer through your columns a few suggestions relative to an important public question, or rather upon a question which the public make important.

The result of my observation and experience of late concerning jury trials in civil cases strongly convinces me that there ought to be a law passed permitting three-fourths of, or nine out of twelve, jurors in any civil case to return a verdict. Such a law exists in New York, Kentucky, Indiana, Missouri and many other states of the union, has been held constitutional whenever tested and has been found to operate admirably, especially in that it prevents one or two members of a jury from stalling and opposing to the accomplishment of real justice.

Sometimes a contrary juror, and especially one who hangs around court house steps, preparatory to being summoned for service, often has ideas and a conscience, either from occupation, association or some such condition, so fixed as to matters and issues involved in a trial, as to stamp it but folly for any one not an idiot to even whisper the word justice in a court room.

In some of the states where such three-fourths verdict laws have been enacted the courts have been called upon to construe their constitutionality and in every instance so far as my research extends have sustained the legislature in their passage. In Texas such constitutional objection could not possibly prevail because the state constitution expressly provides for the passage of such a law if deemed by the legislature expedient so to do, and thereby did the framers of our constitution wisely anticipate that conditions might arise for the truly they have now arisen) rendering the passage of such a law an imperative public necessity, if fairness shall longer be expected to prevail in the administration of justice.

Candidates for the lower house of the legislature in some Texas counties are now urging the necessity of such a law, and if their constituencies could but realize the importance of the issue there would be no doubt of the success of such candidates.

I know that certain members of the Texas senate intend to introduce a bill for such a law on the opening day of the next session and will make it a "special order" each day until enacted.

I desire to call upon every attorney in Texas who is interested in seeing fair and even-handed justice characterized by the proceedings of our courts to join with me in an earnest endeavor for the enactment of such a just measure. Very truly yours,
BEN M. TERRELL.

"IT'S NOT TOO LATE, GET OFF," CRIED HUSBAND

Strenuous Appeal to Wife Who Was Leaving Him Is of No Avail at the Union Station This Morning

Marriage is a strange thing, and some of its consequences are still stranger. At the Texas and Pacific station this morning a young husband was seen, seated by a youthful wife, trying to persuade her to go back home with him.

It is the same old story—they couldn't get along together and the young bride packed up her clothes and went to "mother."

The young couple resided in Bonham. Several days ago the wife, becoming dissatisfied, left her husband and came to Fort Worth. The husband followed and tried to get her to go home with him. This she refused to do, saying that she was going to her parents, who live up the Denver.

True to her word, with bag and baggage, she was at the station this morning. The young husband followed, hoping, no doubt, to persuade her at the last moment.

In the waiting room a tearful scene was enacted. He begged and wept and she wept and refused.

At last the station master called out her train—the northbound Denver. The young husband made one last eloquent appeal—it was useless—the bride was determined to go to mother.

The young husband picked up her satchel and helped her on the train. He then stood by the window and begged, grasping at the last straw. As the train pulled out he rolled to one last slogan, "It's not too late; get off! Get off!" but the bride turned her face from the window and was gone.

G. A. R. OBSERVES MEMORIAL DAY

Decoration of Graves by the Members of the Local Post Is the Program

The decoration of graves of comrades by members of the G. A. R. in this city took place this morning at the city cemetery, a large number of the federal soldiers and their auxiliary associations attending the ceremonies and placing flowers upon the tombs.
