Democrats at Houston Finish the Ticket and Name Frank Andrews of Houston Chairman of the State Committee

NEPOTISM AND PASSES

Platform Is Lengthy and Demands That the Free Pass Evil Be Stopped by Law—Opposes Family Conduct of Opposes Family Conduct of HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 4.—The democratic state convention completed the ticket yesterday afternoon by nominating John W. Robbins of Vernon for state treasurer and R. B. Cousins of Mexia for state superintendent of public instruction.

Frank Andrews of Houston was elected chairman of the democratic state convention.

The platform is in substance as follows:

It indorses the national platform adopted at St. Louis and congratulates the party on the harmony which prevails. Heartily indorses the administration of Governor Lanham.

Pledges a continuance of a liberal policy toward educational institutions and commends the legislature and city governments for the work for industrial education.

Favors ample appropriation for eleemosynary institutions.

Pledges the democracy to honest government, economically administered; recommends the abolishment of unnecessary offices, and favors adequate revenues for the state to prevent a deficiency.

Opposes nepotism and favors laws prohibiting the practice.

Indorses the Terrell election law.

Favors a revision of the tax laws to the end that all property, tangible and intangible, shall pay its just proportion of the expenses of government.

Demands a stringent anti-free pass law.

Indorses the proposed amendment to the constitution providing for state banks and denounces the article which has been so much talked about during the week, and towns to regulate the rates on public utilities.

Directs the legislature to pass laws which will encourage irrigation.

Recommends state purchase of the Alamo.

WEST VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS

There is a Discussion Over the White

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 4.—The democratic state convention was delayed today until almost noon, waiting for the report on resolutions. State Senator B. F. Kidd, on assuming the chair as permanent presiding officer, said at length on the national and state issues.

Chairman Bailey had no sooner finished reading the platform than cries were heard, "Where is white man's plank?"

John J. Davis as a member of the committee dissected on the proposition which did not specify state taxes on oil, coal and other products.

George Byrne, editor of the Charleston Gazette and formerly of Fort Worth, Texas, offered an amendment adding "the white man's plank" that has been so much talked about during the week, and an animated discussion began on that issue.

THE KANSAS FUSION

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 4.—The democratic and populist state conventions adjourned this morning after having effected fusion in the state, and nominated the following joint ticket:

Governor, David M. Dale, democrat; lieutenant governor, M. A. Housholder, populist; secretary of state, John H. Curran, democrat; justice of the supreme court, John T. Little, populist; state treasurer, Thomas M. Dolan, democrat; auditor, W. H. McDonald, populist; superintendent of public instruction, Martin R. Howard, democrat; attorney general, W. W. Wells, populist; superintendent of insurance, John Stowell, populist; congressman-at-large, Frank Brady, populist; railroad commissioner, F. H. Chase, populist.

Both conventions agreed on the same platform, which is confined largely to state issues, mentioning the railroad rate question.

The convention left blank one place for railroad commissioner, which means that the allied forces will support J. W. Robinson, the republican nominee.

Each party will vote for its own national electors.

RATIFIED THE NOMINATION

HOUSTON, Aug. 4.—The Holt action of the Eight congressional district met this morning and ratified the nomination of John M. Pinckney for congress from the district, the state convention holding the protests are not valid in the Holt-Pinckney contest.

LANHAM'S OPINION

AUSTIN, Aug. 4.—Governor Lanham who returned from the Houston convention this morning said: "The democratic convention was the greatest in the history of the party in Texas. The platform fairly states democratic principles and policies and I have no doubt it will meet the enthusiastic indorsement of the people."

THORN RUINS HIS EYE

SHERMAN, Texas, Aug. 4.—George Kimbrough, who last Saturday afternoon was struck in the left eye by a thorny limb, is now in Sherman under treatment of an oculist. Upon examining the wound it was found that a thorn had penetrated the pupil and destroyed the sight.

Some years ago Mr. Kimbrough, then a lad, lost an arm through the accidental discharge of a gun, making this affliction all the greater.

DROWNS WHILE BATHING

AUSTIN, Aug. 4.—While bathing in the Colorado, ten miles east of here, last night Lonnie Hornsby, 18 years old, prominently connected, was caught in a whirlpool and drowned. The body was recovered and will be interred this evening.

THE PEACE MOVE

Efforts to Bring About a Settlement of Packing House Strike Is Now Being Made by Unknown Parties

WILL MEET ON FRIDAY

President Donnelly Summoned to Headquarters—Strike Breakers Leave Plants in Chicago and Fort Worth—Wanted Little Ready Money

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—According to the leaders of the packing house strike certain influences have been brought to bear on the packers and peace negotiations will probably be renewed tomorrow afternoon between the strikers and their former employers.

The announcement was made by President Schardt of the Federation of Labor and J. J. Keppeler, business agent of the Machinists' union. Neither Mr. Schardt nor Mr. Keppeler would reveal the identity of the peace-makers, but said that the men who are about to intercede were not identified with any of the other peace efforts.

"I am not at liberty to give the names of the parties who are trying to bring about another conference," said President Schardt. "Mr. Keppeler and I conferred with several influential men by appointment and at the solicitation of disinterested parties. Just what they are doing or how many of the packers these gentlemen say I do not know. I am convinced that they were successful in a measure from the fact that it was asked if President Donnelly would return to city soon if a conference for Friday afternoon could be arranged satisfactorily. Mr. Keppeler said that President Donnelly would return to the city today and that the matter would be laid before him.

"I believe the parties who are trying to bring about another conference mean business," he said. "The labor men will meet them more than half way."

International Secretary Call of the butchers' organization declared today itself influences are again trying to bring about a settlement of the stock yards strike.

"I expect to meet an intermediary," said Mr. McCall today. "This person is the third party."

McCall declined to indicate who the person is nor would he discuss the further prospect for an immediate settlement of the struggle. It is reported the intermediary referred to by Secretary Call had a conference today with Mr. Swift and Mr. Call. The intermediary and Mr. Swift met today at Swift & Co.'s stock yards office.

A number of strike breakers employed in the packing plants are reported deserting in bunches of fifty or more each day. It is claimed by union leaders fully 50 per cent of the strike breakers are men who have been idle for a time simply wanted a chance to make a little ready money and having accomplished this purpose are quitting at the first opportunity.

DONNELLY AT KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 4.—President Michael Donnelly today united with the arate meetings of local unions of the white man's plank and other trades allied with the packing house strikers. All is quiet in the strike district.

PACKERS AND THE

MERCHANTS MEET

A meeting of ten merchants of North Fort Worth, most of whom are engaged in handling meats, was held at Frazer's hall in Marine yesterday afternoon. These men met with two representatives of the Armour packing company. One of the company's representatives was the foreman of the provision department and the other of the fresh meat department.

The object of the meeting, it is stated, was for the purpose of ascertaining from the retailers why Armour's goods did not have as much of a sale on the retail block as formerly.

The packing house representatives, it is claimed, stated that people had told them that they could not get the Armour goods. The merchants so it is claimed, explained to the two men that they were not handling any of the products of either Armour or Swift except when it was absolutely necessary, as meat had soared to such high prices that that profit was no longer a part of their business. They also stated that they were in sympathy with the striking employees of the two concerns and did not wish to be a hindrance in the cause for which these men were striking. Nothing further than this was done at the meeting. During the meeting an employe of Swift's dropped in, but took no part in the proceedings.

By intimation on the part of persons in authority it is presumed that the packers here are contemplating going into the retail business if the market cannot be prevailed upon to longer handle the packers' products. Such a plan has been suggested, but as to whether or not it will be carried out remains to be seen.

NEARLY A HUNDRED QUIT THE PLANT

Nearly a hundred men quit the Swift plant today. The men received their pay yesterday, but these men came back to work this morning and quit during the day in squads of ten and twelve.

Some of the men when talked to regarding the reasons why they have left the company's employ gave various excuses. Some were dissatisfied with the board, others the work and others claimed they had decided that they had a "stake."

Other men were hired to take their places and it is thought that this temporary depletion in the strike-breaking ranks will not hinder the workings of the plant, further than the strike has so far done.

TELEGRAPHERS

Very Little That Is New Reported Today in the Strike of the Operators on Line of Missouri, Kansas and Texas

REPORTS CONFLICTING

Company Claims There Are Desertions From the Ranks of the Union, While Union Leaders Say Their Members Are Remaining Firm

DENISON, Texas, Aug. 4.—The strike of the Katy operators on the Texas division of the road is practically unchanged from what it was when called at 4 p. m. Monday, and practically all the telegraphers closed their offices. At strikers' headquarters here advices are being received from all points on the Katy reached by the Postal Telegraph Company on the Katy that every striker is standing firm and there has been no desertions. All officials of the road are working as dispatchers and at some points are kept continuously on duty for twenty-four and thirty-six hours without rest. Every employe in other departments who could be induced to do so has been pressed into the station and telegraph department. All passenger trains are late and it is claimed are making no attempt to make the usual connections with other roads.

Very few freight trains are moving and all are running light.

Superintendent Sullivan issued a circular letter to all strikers yesterday to return to work, as the company was hiring new men and the strikers were deserting at other points on the line north. The strikers laughed at this statement and exhibited messages from the points named denying that there were any operators working or that there has been any desertions. The same messages were received from President Perham of the Order of Railway Telegraphers this morning, denying the report.

THE SITUATION AT HILLSBORO

HILLSBORO, Texas, Aug. 4.—The status of the operators' strike is unchanged except that there are now two operators and two ticket agents at the Katy depot on duty and one operator at the south yards. The operators claim to have assurances that the strike is practically unanimous and is going satisfactorily to them.

DISPATCHING AT TEMPLE

TEMPLE, Aug. 4.—During the telegraph operators' strike on the Katy, Temple will be a dispatching office. Two dispatchers from the Smithville office are on duty here attending to the regular duties of the operators as well as the more important one of train dispatching. The stations between Waco and Taylor are practically closed for business, the operators at these places, Troy, Lorena, Eddy, Bruceville, Hewitt, Little River, Holland, Granger and Bartlett being also the agents. Both freight and passenger trains are running very irregularly, southbound passenger train No. 3, due to arrive here at 1:45 p. m., being six hours late at last report and it was rumored that the dispatchers here did not know where the train was.

THE AGENT'S STORY

SHERMAN, Texas, Aug. 4.—J. J. Carson, agent of the Katy at this place, who has been assisting the chief dispatcher at Denison since the inauguration of the operators' strike Monday afternoon, came over home yesterday for a few hours' rest. He was seen by The Telegram representative to whom he stated that the strike had not materially affected traffic; that all trains were running with reasonable regularity and that two carload with operators had left St. Louis, to be distributed at vacated stations along the line. He stated also that several operators on the Sedalia division had applied for their old places, after being out a little over twenty-four hours.

Conditions locally are not affected by the strike, as all trains always run regularly between Denison and Sherman, and there is little occasion to use the key. The operator has other duties to perform and continued to discharge them, but the telegraph key is silent.

CHECKED IN AS AGENT
CLEBURNE, Texas, Aug. 4.—J. F. Dolard, commercial agent at Fort Worth, has been checked in as agent of the Katy here. T. F. Wright, the clerk here, remained at his post.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 3.—In reference to the charges made that he had reflected on the good name of President Roosevelt's mother through the columns of his paper, "The Commonwealth," Governor James K. Vardaman of Mississippi telephoned the Scimitar from Jackson today a statement which is in part as follows: "I have never in all my life written or said anything derogatory to or that reflected upon the fair name of the good mother of Theodore Roosevelt or any other good woman. I am not responsible for what campaign liars of Mississippi ascribed to me last year."

A FRISCO WRECK

Meteor Train Which Left Fort Worth Wednesday Meets With Disaster—Engine and Four Cars Going Into Ditch

NO ONE WAS KILLED

General Superintendent Ficklinger Receives a Brief Message From Sherman Regarding the Affair—Occurs at an Early Hour This Morning

VINITA, I. T., Aug. 4.—The northbound passenger train on the St. Louis and San Francisco railway, from Dallas and Fort Worth to St. Louis, was derailed near here today. The engine, baggage car, mail car and two chair cars left the track. Several persons were injured, but no one killed.

DENISON, Texas, Aug. 4.—Information was received here this morning that the Frisco Meteor for St. Louis, which left Fort Worth Wednesday, was wrecked near Vinita, I. T., shortly after midnight this morning. The report is that four coaches left the track and that quite a number of persons were injured, but at this hour the names can not be learned.

There was little to be learned in Fort Worth regarding the wreck. The Frisco headquarters did not know of the wreck until told by The Telegram. The dispatcher in this city has no wire to the territory, and does not keep track of trains after they leave the state.

Vice President and General Manager Ficklinger of the Frisco this afternoon received a brief message from Sherman in regard to this morning's wreck. The message stated merely that the train had been derailed, the engine and four cars leaving the track.

Several persons from this city are reported to have been on the northbound Meteor leaving this city yesterday. The only person definitely learned to have been on the train, however, was Mrs. Ida F. Edmonds of 210 North Florence street, who was en route to St. Louis.

Superintendent Gaines of the railway mail service this morning received a telegram from Chelsea, I. T., as follows: "East Texas, north—Tonight and Friday. Clerks uninjured. Mail slightly damaged."

Japs Advance and Occupy the Town as Russians Fall Back After Defeat Before the Oncoming Yellow Fellows

A BIG BATTLE TODAY

It Is Forecast in the Wednesday Dispatches From New Chwang, and if Kuropatkin Is Defeated He Must Either Retreat or Surrender

TOKIO, Aug. 4. noon.—The Japanese victors at the battle of Simou Cheng advanced and occupied Hai Cheng.

NEW CHWANG, Wednesday, Aug. 3.—(Delayed in transmission)—The report that Hai Cheng has fallen is premature. The Russian troops have only been driven back to their inner intrenchments, which they now occupy with over 75,000 men. A detachment of 2,000 Japanese with large supply trains is leaving here for Hai Cheng, where the greatest battle of the war is expected to open tomorrow.

General Kuroki with 100,000 men is now behind the Russian forces. The Russian army with an army of 50,000 men is on their front, while flanking them on the left is General Nodzu with his division of 50,000 men.

If General Kuropatkin is defeated in this battle he must either move westward or surrender.

The foreign military attaches are with the second army, en route for the front to witness the battle.

Japanese troop ships are expected here tomorrow. The Russian troops at Port Arthur have been driven back to the last line of their defenses. The Japanese attacking force has 350 guns in action.

THEY ARE DRIVEN BACK

TOKIO, Aug. 4.—Twelve torpedo boat destroyers, four torpedo boats and some gunboats emerged from the harbor at Port Arthur on the night of August 1, but were driven back again by the Japanese warships on guard outside.

OBSERVED AS A HOLIDAY

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 4.—This being the saint day of the dowager empress, a general holiday is observed throughout all Russia. All the members of the imperial family assembled at the villa Alexandria at Peterhoff to extend their congratulations, but on account of the condition of the young empress the usual reception was not had. All the shipping on the Neva is dressed in bunting and St. Petersburg is gayly decorated.

The streets are filled with holiday crowds, bent on pleasure and the tragic events reported from the seat of war seemed temporarily to be forgotten.

ARMY ORGAN TELLS OF JAP STRENGTH

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 4.—The army organ makes no effort to foreshadow the events in the immediate future in the far east and gives no clue to General Kuropatkin's intention, but it declares the events of the last few days demonstrate conclusively that the Japanese objective since the beginning of the war has been to strike the main army of the Russians and not as popularly supposed to take Port Arthur.

The paper says that the Japanese general advance began on July 23, the taking of Ta Tche Kiao being the signal for the final struggle in the valley of the Liao river.

On July 31, after six days' preparation, the armies of Generals Oku and Nodzu moved against Hai Cheng the same day General Kuroki began to advance on Liao Yang, rushing the position of the Russian eastern army at Yangtze pass off, the battleship Oregan and two other cruisers, with quite a flotilla of torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers.

CONFISCATES THE CARGO

VLADIVOSTOK, Aug. 4.—The prize court has decided to confiscate such portion of the cargo of the steamer Araba as is consigned to the Japanese, namely, 5,800 pounds of flour and railroad equipment. This portion constitutes less than half of the bulk of the weight of her cargo, the remainder consisting of 142,500 pounds of flour consigned to Hong Kong. The confiscated portion of the cargo is now being unloaded. As soon as this is completed the steamer will be released.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 4.—The announcement in the dispatches of the Associated Press from Vladivostok that the steamer Araba would be released and that only a portion of her cargo, that consigned to Japanese ports, would be held, will, it is believed, end the Araba incident, so far as the United States is concerned, as the United States asked nothing more than prompt action for the immediate release of the ship and a portion of the cargo not declared contraband.

THE CASE OF THEA

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 4.—Germany has not yet made representations to Russia in regard to the case of the steamer Thea, sunk by the Vladivostok squadron of the coast of Japan, but the matter is being investigated at Berlin. It is presumed that as soon as a decision is reached there at the embassy here will receive instructions.

GERMANY WILL ASK ABOUT THE THEA

BERLIN, Aug. 4.—The German government has instituted an investigation into all the circumstances connected with the sinking of the German steamer Thea by the Vladivostok squadron off the coast of Japan, preparatory to making representations at St. Petersburg.

Among the questions subject to inquiry is the amount of coal on board, whether it was too little to enable her to steam to Vladivostok, and about the proportion of provisions in her cargo, whether it exceeded half a cargo, thus subjecting the vessel to capture under the Russian prize regulations.

Germany is apparently doing nothing to clear up the matter through her commercial agent at Vladivostok, who is a Russian subject.

The owner of the Thea, Herr Dietrichsen of Kiel, will arrive in Berlin tomorrow for the purpose of having an interview with the foreign office, which relies on him chiefly in clearing up the status of the Thea, but the foreign office will probably also institute an inquiry with the American owner of the cargo.

The German government admits Vice Admiral Skrydloff acted within Russian prize regulations in capturing the Thea, but the officials intimate the foreign office questions the right of capture when provisions are consigned to private firms, instead of to a hostile government. The foreign office, however, says no serious complications will grow out of the case.

THIS IS WOMAN'S ERA OF HEALTH!

Pe-ru-na, the Key That Unlocks the Door to Health.

Pretty Mrs. Hessler Saved From a Severe Case of Catarrh of the Stomach of Long Standing by Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. D. S. Hessler, 1022 McBride St., Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "I take pleasure in expressing my satisfaction with Peruna as a remedy well worthy the confidence of those seeking relief from suffering. It is certainly a most efficient specific for afflictions of the digestive organs, especially catarrh, heartburn and kindred troubles of the stomach. It has cured me of catarrh and stomach trouble in three months, after I had suffered with these troubles for many years. I am certainly pleased with it."—Mrs. D. S. Hessler.

Causes That Lead to Dyspepsia Properly Called Catarrh of Stomach.

The reason for this is that dyspepsia in a great majority of cases depends upon catarrh of the stomach. Catarrh of the stomach may be had set up by an extension of the catarrh from the throat or head. Catarrh of the stomach is frequently produced by late suppers, indigestible diet, rapid eating, drinking ice water, use of alcoholic stimulants and many other indiscretions. Peruna cures all such cases of dyspepsia, simply because it cures catarrh wherever located.

The reason so many cases of dyspepsia suffer on and on without any relief, trying this medicine and that medicine, is that these conditions are not recognized as catarrh of the stomach. Any one suffering from dyspepsia, having tried the ordinary remedies without relief, would be safe to assume that their case is one of catarrh of the stomach, and should at once begin a course of Peruna. Peruna is sure to cure these cases. It never fails.

HOOK IS CAUGHT IN MAN'S JAW ON A POLE

Lineman Meets With Peculiar and Serious Accident While at Work

WATERBURY, Conn., Aug. 4.—Lineman Truman Judson of the Southern New England Telephone company, fell while at work on a forty foot pole and was caught twenty feet from the ground by an iron hook through his jaw. After hanging thus for a short time the flesh tore and he fell to the ground. Although he has concussion of the brain, a broken jaw, a lacerated scalp and fractured ribs, the physicians say he will recover. A man on top of the pole who saw his companion impaled fainted at the sight and was saved by the straps which held him to the cross bars.

THE CROPS IN TEXAS

The following are the crop conditions in Texas, as reported by correspondents of the United States weather bureau to L. H. Murdock, section director at Galveston:

Weather Conditions—The rainfall of the week was confined to the eastern one-fourth of the state and to a few southwestern counties. Scattered showers occurred over these areas throughout the week, being the heaviest and most general on the 27th. The weekly amounts usually ranged between one-fourth and one inch. The heaviest fall reported was 3.22 inches at Houston. Vegetation in the north-central counties is suffering from drought and all crops in the western two-thirds of the state would generally be greatly improved by a good rain. Temperature conditions were quite uniform and moderate, the average temperature for the week being about 2 degrees below the normal.

Cotton—Cotton is suffering from drought in the north-central counties and the crop in the western two-thirds of the state would generally be benefited by a good rain. Some shedding has occurred in all sections, but the loss of fruit from this source has been greatest in the southwestern portion. Boll weevils are now doing considerable damage in a number of central and southwestern counties. Boll worms are quite generally present in the central division and also in a few northern, eastern and southwestern counties. Serious damage by this pest, however, is confined to limited areas. The bolls are now opening well up toward the northern portion of the state and it is expected that picking will become quite general by the middle of August.

Corn—Late corn has generally been damaged more or less by drought in the western two-thirds of the state.

Rice—Early sown rice is heading nicely

A TREATY MEDAL

It Is Indicative of an Agreement Entered Into Between George III and the Red Men and Is Suitably Inscribed

IT HAS BEEN LOST

An Indian Has Given It Into Keeping of a White Man in the Territory to Keep Until the Proper Time Comes for Him to Claim It

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Aug. 4.—There was exhibited to a few friends in this city yesterday by a gentleman from Henryetta a silver medal struck in commemoration of a treaty made between the Creek people and Great Britain during the reign of George the Third.

The medal weighed three and a half ounces and measured three inches in diameter and was in excellent state of preservation, having been treasured in a buckskin pouch and exhibited only on occasions when political history was made and national festivities were observed. Upon the face of the medal appears in bold relief a picture of King George and a Latin inscription as follows: "Georgius III. D. G. M. Bri frae tibi rex, F. D." Upon the reverse side appears a picture of an Indian and a white man sitting under a tree smoking the pipe of peace and three ships resting at anchor in the distance and a rude settler's home nestled among the trees by the seashore. Above this picture is the legend: "Happy White United." Surrounding the medal is an eagle's wing and a pipe of peace.

This treaty medal is regarded as being the oldest in existence and probably commemorates the first compact established between the Indian and the Saxon. It has been handed down from chief to chief until about a half century ago when it was entrusted to the head men of the Tokepache Town, the most powerful of all the Creek towns. The medal then disappeared and was forgotten by all except by the Snake faction who have for the last five years endeavored to recover it, but without success. With the medal once in their possession the Snakes believed that they could secure the intercession of Great Britain in their struggle to restore their once happy estate in America. Though unsuccessful in their efforts to win possession of the rare and sacred treasure, they did not give up the search, but have continued to seek. A few days ago an Indian approached the gentleman whose name is withheld and entrusted him with the medal on condition that he should under no circumstance reveal how he came in possession of it. With the medal he also gave the gentleman a manuscript of parchment carefully folded and sewed in buckskin, indicating that it, too, had been handed down from a far-off time.

The Indian said: "I have known you a long time, you have been a good friend to the Indian and he is not afraid to trust you. These things which I give to you to keep until I call for them are my people's most sacred treasures. I must advise you, however, I am afraid to keep them during the dissolution of our tribal government and while there is so much dissatisfaction among my people."

The medal and the manuscript will be exhibited at the World's fair on Indian Territory day.

THE FIRST OF ITS KIND

A REMNANT MEETS NOW

Veterans of the Civil Conflict Have a Reunion in the Town in Which the Organization Was Formed—Talk of Incidents of Battles

WAXAHACHIE, Texas, Aug. 4.—Forty-three years ago this month Parson's Texas Cavalry Brigade, one of the best regiments that ever saw service in any country, departed from the then village of Waxahachie to take an active part in the great struggle just beginning between the states. Yesterday the remnant of that regiment, some two or three hundred veterans, whose hair has been frosted by time and whose shoulders are bent under the weight of years, returned to Waxahachie to enjoy the hospitality of the city two days. The first reunion after the war was held in this city in 1878 and at that time Parson's Texas Cavalry Brigade Association was permanently organized. Year by year the ranks of the association have grown thinner until now but a few hundred out of that noble band of 1,250 cavalrymen remain.

Parson's Brigade was formed of the Twelfth Texas, Nineteenth Texas, Twenty-first Texas, Morgan's battalion and Pratt's battery. The officers elected at the organization of the brigade were W. H. Parson, colonel; John W. Mullens, lieutenant colonel; E. W. Rogers, major. Officers appointed: John Hogan, surgeon; Dr. Embree, assistant surgeon; T. G. A. Willis, quartermaster; Frank Ayers, commissary; A. B. Burleson, adjutant; Rev. Fred J. Cox, chaplain. In this brigade were five companies, organized in Ellis county. The command was first mustered into state service for one year, but in October, 1861, was transferred to the Confederate service. The brigade never took part in any of the great battles in the east, was engaged during the entire war in protecting Texas against invasion by the enemy.

The reunion now in session is proving a source of great enjoyment to the veterans who are in attendance. Many of them had not seen each other for several years and some of the meetings were quite pathetic.

General W. L. Cabell was to have delivered an address yesterday afternoon, but was not able to be present and his time was occupied by veterans with short addresses.

Last night an interesting entertainment was given by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The leading feature this morning was a splendid address by Colonel C. C. Cummings of Fort Worth.

GEORGE H. LAFLIN, THE CHICAGO PIONEER, LEAVES TWO MILLION DOLLARS IN ESTATE

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—The will of George H. Laflin, the Chicago pioneer, which has been filed for probate, not only provides for the distribution of property valued at $2,000,000, but contains the following advice to his heirs:

"I would advise all my children to be prudent in their investments and not to purchase anything simply because it is cheap, but to remember that a long-time security drawing a low rate of interest is often more desirable than an investment which draws a high rate of interest."

"I would also advise them not to purchase anything which they can not pay for in full at the time of purchase, as more men are ruined by speculation than in any other way. I also advise them not to sign any note or bond and to look well to all transfers of real estate and not to incur any real estate except for the purpose of improving the same."

The effects of alcohol are especially seen in the case of mothers among the laboring classes of England; 56 per cent of the offspring of inebriate women die at birth or under two years of age, while in the case of sober women only 26 per cent die.

Market Quotations

NORTH FORT WORTH, Aug. 4.—A fairly liberal mid-week run of cattle were received today, the morning supply aggregating thirty-four cars, with enough received on the afternoon market to swell the total receipts to close around forty-six cars for the day's trading.

There was no marked improvement in the general quality over yesterday, but the demand was some better and trading showed more activity than usual.

Cows of good killing quality were in demand at an advance of 5c to 10c over Wednesday, while on the other hand calves were slow and weak at a decline of 5c to 7c for the week.

Steady prices were well represented among the offering, and, although several heavy drafts were sold and weighed up, nothing better than $3.75 was to be found among the sales.

Since the report of a demoralized market at St. Louis was received during the first part of this week, receipts there have shown a big decrease, with the result that conditions are now improving.

Today less than 2,000 cattle were yarded, but this small supply did not materially influence values and only tended to keep prices in line with the recent heavy declines at that point.

From all indications it would seem that the local plants here have about recovered from the effects of the strike and are again operating under their normal capacity.

The hog market opened early today, with two cars yarded and nothing in sight to influence the morning trading.

The general quality of the two loads ranged around medium to good, with the weights light. The best load shipped in by Bowersox & Manning of Allene, Okla., averaged 182 pounds, and sold at $5.40, with the smaller load from Durant, I. T., averaging 192 pounds, at $5.30.

The local market, as compared with other points, continues strong and active and salesmen are advising their customers to have no hesitancy in letting their good marketable hogs come.

At Chicago prices ruled steady with yesterday, tops selling at $5.55, and the bulk landing around $5.20 to $5.45. Kansas City reported a strong advance of 10c, while St. Louis, with light receipts, was able only to maintain a steady market.

Tops at St. Louis sold at local values, while best hogs at Kansas City fell short 10c from Fort Worth's top price.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE JUDGE BY A LADY

Miss Abigail Robertson of Rochester Calls Attention to His Decision and Urges the Kodak Fiends On ROCHESTER, Aug. 1.—About two years ago Chief Justice A. B. Parker, of the court of appeals, handed down a decision adverse to Miss Abigail Robertson, who had petitioned the court to restrain a manufacturing concern from using her photograph for advertising purposes.

The young woman was disappointed at the outcome of the case, but seems to think she is even with the celebrated jurist, to whom she recently addressed the following open letter, after Judge Parker had said: "I reserve the right to put my hands in my pocket and assume comfortable attitudes without being everlastingly afraid that I shall be snapped by some fellow with a camera." "I take this opportunity to remind you that you have no such right as that which you assert," begins Miss Robertson. "I have high authority for my statement, being nothing less than a decision of the court of appeals in this state, wherein you wrote the prevailing opinion. The action was one in which I was the plaintiff."

"You may recollect that the facts in that case were admitted; that the defendants, without my knowledge or consent and knowing that they had no right or authority to do so, had secured my photograph, and having caused it to be enlarged and litho-

The deceased was a Confederate soldier and a member of Lee camp, United Confederate Veterans.

The funeral will occur from the home of his son at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. He enlisted in the Confederate army at Grapevine, this county, in November, 1861, in company 5, Third Kentucky, Morgan's cavalry, and was in all important battles fought by Morgan's command up to the time of Morgan's capture at Syracuse, Ohio, July, 1863. Mr. Rogers remained in prison until the exchange at Camp Douglas, Ill., was made in March, 1865.

IN THE COURTS

The people of Tarrant county will have an opportunity of again voting on the stock law, as it has been discovered that the recent election on this measure in this county was not legal and consequently is void.

The announcement made by County Attorney Latimore, who has recently investigated the conditions under which the last election on the law was held. He reports that he found that the election had not been legally called, from the fact that the commissioners' court failed to give the proper notification of said election.

At the county attorney's office this morning it was stated that the petition of citizens asking the county commissioners to call an election should have laid over from one meeting of that body to a subsequent one, but this was not done, hence the decision of the county attorney that the election held under the call is null and void.

This being the case, petitions are now being circulated over the county, asking that the commissioners court order another election on the question. The petition reads as follows:
"To the Honorable County Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Precinct No. 1:
"Greeting—We, the undersigned freeholders of Tarrant county, Texas, and of the precinct indicated over our signatures, respectfully ask the county commissioners court of Tarrant county, Texas, to order an election for the whole of Tarrant county to determine whether or not horses, mules, jacks, Jennets and cattle shall be allowed to run at large in said Tarrant county, Texas."

The conditions of the stock law in this county were brought out recently in the filing of a case in Justice Rowland's justice court. However, it was never permitted to go to trial from some cause or other, and the next time attention was directed to the stock law was in the nature of another petition seeking signatures asking the county commissioners court to call another election.

IN THE COURTS

The people of Tarrant county will have an opportunity of again voting on the stock law, as it has been discovered that the recent election on this measure in this county was not legal and consequently is void.

The announcement made by County Attorney Latimore, who has recently investigated the conditions under which the last election on the law was held. He reports that he found that the election had not been legally called, from the fact that the commissioners' court failed to give the proper notification of said election.

At the county attorney's office this morning it was stated that the petition of citizens asking the county commissioners to call an election should have laid over from one meeting of that body to a subsequent one, but this was not done, hence the decision of the county attorney that the election held under the call is null and void.

This being the case, petitions are now being circulated over the county, asking that the commissioners court order another election on the question. The petition reads as follows:
"To the Honorable County Commissioners Court of Tarrant County, Precinct No. 1:
"Greeting—We, the undersigned freeholders of Tarrant county, Texas, and of the precinct indicated over our signatures, respectfully ask the county commissioners court of Tarrant county, Texas, to order an election for the whole of Tarrant county to determine whether or not horses, mules, jacks, Jennets and cattle shall be allowed to run at large in said Tarrant county, Texas."

The conditions of the stock law in this county were brought out recently in the filing of a case in Justice Rowland's justice court. However, it was never permitted to go to trial from some cause or other, and the next time attention was directed to the stock law was in the nature of another petition seeking signatures asking the county commissioners court to call another election.

HOGG'S SPEECH

The speech made by ex-Governor James Stephen Hogg before the democratic state convention at Houston has created a mild furore throughout Texas for the reason that it was most unexpected, inopportune and entirely out of place. The spectacle of the democratic ex-governor of the banner democratic state of the union appearing upon the platform in a democratic state convention and denouncing the national democratic standard bearer, while at the same time he expresses the warmest admiration for the republican presidential misfit, is a shame upon the name of democracy. Further than that, it has placed a cudgel in the hands of the enemy with which the party will be belabored from one end of the country to the other.

There are those who are censuring Governor Hogg roundly for his intemperate expressions, and many of his former friends are among them, while those who have always opposed him politically have found a sweet morsel in the present situation that will be rolled under many tongues as the daintiest of the season. While the big ex-governor made a most egregious mistake, The Telegram is willing to give him credit for good intentions. As Governor Hogg himself has often expressed it, he was born in a storm. His paths in political life have not been those of peace. On the contrary, they have been just about as tempestuous as it was possible for well organized and determined opposition to make them. Governor Hogg is a born fighter, and never in one solitary instance has he asked for quarter. A man of firm and decided convictions, he is always ready to defend those convictions with his very life if necessary.

And Governor Hogg is patriotic. There can be no question of the fact that the great heart of the man is thrilled with desire to better the condition of the masses. His every public and private act has indicated this, and the boys from the forks of the creek have believed in him as devoutly as they have in their God. This accounts for the wonderful hold the man has had at all times upon the masses, and why even today he has a most wonderful influence with the Texas voter upon all matters pertaining to state politics. But Governor Hogg is only human. He has his faults and frailties just the same as the ordinary individual, and one of his greatest weaknesses is his fondness for the spectacular. He likes to make a noise, and he likes for the world to hear it. When the lion roars it is desired that civilization shall realize that the name of the lion is James Stephen Hogg, and he is out after big game.

The services of Governor Hogg will always be remembered and appreciated by the people of this state, for he accomplished some genuine reforms during the time he served the people in an official capacity. Some of the wisest and best laws upon the statute book of this state were placed there at his behest, and while he apparently labors under the belief that every corporation in the land is an open enemy of the people, yet his statesmanship is of a high and broad order in other respects. He has been true to every trust that has been committed to his care, and even his most inveterate enemy will concede without reservation that he is today one of the brainiest men within the confines of the state.

But all these facts, while commendable in themselves, do not mitigate the offense of the governor's action at Houston. Just at the time when he should have shown his greatness of heart by forgetting any disappointment that may have come to him in the rehabilitation of the Texas democracy, and when he should in the eternal fitness of things, have talked harmony and counseled his people to stand with a solid front to the common enemy, he was betrayed into giving expression to matters he now no doubt greatly regrets. It is said in extenuation of Governor Hogg's remarkable philippic that at the time it was uttered he had just finished a review of the work done when he was at the head of affairs in Texas. That his mind and memory were fired with the recollection of the hard fights through which he had gone, and he naturally had on his fighting clothes at the moment. The Parker issue was sprung on him when he was in the wrong mood, and feeling that Parker was representative of practically all the things he had been fighting for years, he proceeded to give that gentleman a broadside without realizing that it would go beyond the walls of the convention hall.

But there was so much of the sensational in what Hogg said that it was placed on the telegraph wires and flashed half around the world in a few minutes. It has gone into the hands of the enemy and will be worked for all it is worth. Mr. Lyon, chairman of the republican organization in this state, expresses himself as delighted with the expressions given out by the big man who talked too much, and characterizes him as the most popular executive the state ever had. This shows that the republicans are preparing to do. That the Hogg utterances will be given to the world as the estimate of the national democratic nominee by the idol of the democracy of the banner democratic state of the union. What was said in the heat of momentary passion will go out as the calm and dispassionate judgment of a great democratic leader, and the false premises of the situation may do grave injury in the pending national contest.

Other democratic leaders combated the Hogg assertions on the floor of the convention. A telegram of indorsement and congratulation was sent to Judge Parker, but the Hogg incident will always remain as the one untoward act of an otherwise perfect and harmonious gathering of the cohorts of the state democracy. While there is considerable bitterness being manifested toward Hogg, that feeling will wear off in time, and he will again be the idol of his party. It is to be hoped that he may soon find some method of overcoming the effect of what he has said, and get in line with the balance of the party in making a record-breaking fight for every democratic nominee from constable to president. Governor Hogg is too big a man to remain with the shadow of this smallness resting upon him, and his friends will not be satisfied for it to remain there. He is a power on the stump, and should proffer his services to go anywhere they may be needed.

WELCOME TO FARMERS

In this city next week there is to be a meeting of the Farmers' union of this section of Texas. So far very little has been done toward entertaining the visitors, the arrangements having up to this time been made by C. W. Woodman. This will be a good chance for the board of trade and the merchants to present the advantages of this city as a market. These farmers are all producers. They seek the best markets for their products and the opportunity is at hand for Fort Worth. Let them prepare some character of entertainment for the visitors, get acquainted with them and give them encouragement to come here to sell what they produce and to buy what they want. There are many towns in this state which exist altogether on the farmers' trade and Fort Worth will find out by cultivating it that it is valuable. The coming of the farmers for this meeting is a chance which will not occur again in a long time and the business men can touch elbows with them and by the proper inducements persuade them to look this way for the cash for what they have to sell and for the necessities of life they must buy. Tell them how to get here and to always come and show them that they are wanted and they will give ear to the invitation. The farmer is a peculiar citizen. He beats any fellow in the world going where he is properly invited and he can drive farther around a town that does not want him than any traveler you ever saw.

FORT WORTH FOLK AWAY FROM HOME

The Farmers' union is growing. It has had but a small start, but during the few months of its existence it has increased rapidly in numbers. If Fort Worth will convince the members of the union that they are welcome and are wanted they will come. The bigger the union the more to come. It will be very easy to induce those who now go to Mansfield, Arlington, Joshua, Carrollton and other places to come to this larger market. Fort Worth can try it.

The postoffice department has refused to recognize the name Vardaman as the designation of a Mississippi town, the people desiring to thus honor their governor. This is rather a spiteful piece of partisanship, but postoffice or no postoffice, they had a right to call the town what they please.

If the board of trade and the merchants want to get the farmers to come here with their cotton and other products, it will be a good chance to get acquainted with them next week when they meet in this city.

Fort Worth welcomes the populists and republicans who are to come here this year for state conventions but we cannot promise them enough votes to do any good.

Houston got through with the democratic convention this year without calling on the police. Things have improved in twelve years.

POPE PIUS X FINISHES HIS FIRST YEAR IN CHAIR OF ST. PETER

Today Giuseppe Sarto, His Holiness Pope Pius X, has occupied the throne of St. Peter one year. He has just entered his 70th year.

The twelve months that have passed have been outwardly signalized by only two events of importance. One concerned the interior government of the church and the other its international status—the exposition of "Instruction on Sacred Music" and the letter of remonstrance addressed to the Catholic powers on the event of the French president's visit to the Quirinal. More or less authentic stories have also come to us of minor reforms in various departments of church government, in the hierarchy in Spain, in foreign missions, in the pope's entourage and in the administration of the affairs of his personal household.

CALLED TO THE PAPAL THRONE

It will be recalled that Cardinal Sarto, as the patriarch of Venice, was not a papabile, except insofar as all cardinal bishops, priests and deacons are "papabile" in a technical sense. At the time of the conclave a year ago very little was said about him outside of Italy. There, however, owing to his personal acquaintance with certain members of the house of Savoy, Giuseppe Sarto was lightly dubbed by the popular press "the Quirinal's candidate." But one heard a great deal about the candidacy of Cardinal Gualdo, the camerlengo of Cardinal Girolamo Gotti, prefect of the congregation of propaganda; of Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli, of Cardinal Domenico Svampa, archbishop of Bologna, and even of Cardinal Angelo di Pietra, a moderate "papabile." Especially prominent was the premier of the departed Leo, who had it not been for the "Spanish veto" exercised by the Austrian cardinals on the bidding of Kaiser Francis Joseph, might today have occupied St. Peter's throne. Still it was the Quirinal's candidate who won. Thus did the sacred college give an ironical rebuke to the popular press. However deeply his personal feelings and affections might be disturbed, Pius X would never allow himself to dictate the election of his sacred office, that the college was sure. Never would the dynasty of Savoy be recognized as ruling Italy until the good of the church needed such a step.

THE POPE AND HIS BRETHREN

Although a year ago much was made by the press of the peasant origin of Pius X, many of the stories concerning him in this respect are without foundation. He fully realizes the dignity of his great office. His brother and sisters, nieces and nephews, when calling on him, have never overstepped the mark of decorum, although they are ten sisters and two nephews. The pope's brother, Angelo Sarto, is a farmer in Grazia. Four of his sisters are married; two live in Riese, where they were all born, one of them as wife of the noble, the Swiss, the Palatine and the Noble. The duties of the Swiss Guards, he thinks, can very well be done away with. It has been their office to accompany the pope in his excursions in the gardens, to "keep" the famous bronze door and the entrance to the tunnel which leads to the Castle of St. Angelo, although the entrance has been walled up since 1871. When the pope heard the other day that King Peter of Servia was about to establish a guard of mercenaries, he asked with grim humor of a familiar: "I wonder if my Swiss would not please him?"

INSTITUTED MANY REFORMS

Years ago when Pius IX went about Rome the horses of the Noble Guard were the pride of the city. When the present pope came there were found just four horses in the stables. These have since disappeared. The stables will be used as storerooms. This corps has been cut down one-third and the Palatine Guard reduced from 200 to 100. The latter corps is commanded by Count Pecci, a nephew of the late pope. He is fully in sympathy with the present household reforms.

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE

When the sisters first came to Rome they dined one day with their brother. It is a rule in Vatican etiquette that the pope shall always sit alone at his own table. At this innovation the head chamberlain is said to have objected. As is well known, it is within the power of the pontiff to grant patents of nobility, and it was on one occasion suggested to Pius X by a very high personage that the sisters make countesses. "But they have a title already," blantly replied Pius. "They are my sisters."

The pope has one nephew, who is a parish priest, Don Giambattista Parolin. With slight changes in his retinue, Pius X adhered quite strictly to the ceremonies

THIS HOLINESS PIUS X.

This is the latest photograph of the pope, taken only two weeks ago, after he has been on the papal throne a few weeks less than a year.

The photograph is a remarkable likeness, and is remarkable as well for showing the change in the pope's features, and more especially his expression. For the most startling change is the look of sadness, as though weighted down by the cares and troubles of his high office, that has replaced his former jovial look. The photograph shows him in the white papal robes, the red cloak and red hat.

attached to his public life until after Easter. He then began to reform his guards—the Swiss, the Palatine and the Noble. The duties of the Swiss Guards, he thinks, can very well be done away with. It has been their office to accompany the pope in his excursions in the gardens, to "keep" the famous bronze door and the entrance to the tunnel which leads to the Castle of St. Angelo, although the entrance has been walled up since 1871. When the pope heard the other day that King Peter of Servia was about to establish a guard of mercenaries, he asked with grim humor of a familiar: "I wonder if my Swiss would not please him?"

The latter corps is commanded by Count Pecci, a nephew of the late pope. He is fully in sympathy with the present household reforms.

But Pius X has not sat on St. Peter's throne many months before reforms which extended beyond the Vatican were made. The fire in the Vatican library last winter caused the pope not only to order new fire apparatus to replace the obsolete hand engines and bucket brigade, but to take measures to have the books and manuscripts better protected. It would cost millions to make the library fireproof. Meanwhile the pope is paying freely the price of extreme vigilance. The poverty of the Italian press is proverbial. A program has been devised for their relief, but the pope has not yet made it public. It forms part of a far more important work. The following anecdote, which is vouched for, not only illustrates this subject, but shows the grim way in which Pius X occasionally administers justice. One of the priests of St. John Lateran got into trouble last winter because of his debts. He was ordered to the Vatican. A long explanation followed, in which the priest attempted to show that the calls on his purse for the poor had been so great that his usual high stipend of 20,000 lire was altogether too meager for him to live on. "What could you live on?" sympathetically inquired Pius, "if there were no calls for the poor on your purse?" "Oh, easily on 200 lire," rejoined the priest. A few days later his debts were paid, and he was removed to a charge where there was no almsgiving required, but where the annual stipend was just 200 lire.

FIRST PUBLIC UTTERANCE

Early in October of last year Pius X issued his first encyclical to "Patriarchs, Archbishops, Bishops and Other Ordinaries in Peace and Communion with the Holy See." It attracted little attention outside from the fact that it was the first public utterance by the new pope. Its marked strain of humility and piety caused the following scurrilous but curious, if unphobic criticism, as we shall see.

Judge Parker and Judge Parker's Neighbors

THE POSTOFFICE IS WHOOPING BUSY SINCE THE ST. LOUIS CONVENTION—MOST EVERYBODY IN THE COUNTRY HAS WRITTEN TO THE JUDGE

Photographed Exclusively for the Newspaper Enterprise Association.

WM. MONELL, AGED 16, ASSISTANT TO POSTMASTER NORMAN COLE.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Aug. 1.—For a scene of animation, bustle and heretofore unheard-of business visit the Esopus postoffice after the arrival of the noon train. If Judge Parker is elected president it is not considered probable that he would veto any legislation for a new postoffice at Esopus. Uncle Sam's present headquarters in the town are located in a shabby frame shed on Main street. The elm trees about it are so thick that you have to get right up to the door to see the place. Norman Cole is postmaster, and William Monell, a bright boy of 16, is his assistant. Between mails they sell tin soda water and candies to all comers.

"The two of us are handling more mail than they do in some cities ten times as big as Esopus," said the young assistant. "Some days we get six to eight bags and most of it goes to the judge's house. It keeps a fellow working. I can tell you, it keeps pretty near everybody in the country must have written to the judge by this time. Whew! It's hot work."

St. Hugh Reid, the Scottish statesman who has been visiting this country, takes the deepest interest in the political affairs of Great Britain, and feels that with the probability of a general election in the near future he must hurry home. He is the owner of half-penny daily newspapers in many of the provincial towns of Yorkshire and Lancashire, and was the founder of the Institute of British Journalists.

to be made of it by an eminent Roman Catholic commentator. "He will not be a political but a religious pope. He re-announces the vast designs of an ambitious diplomacy; he will not intervene in political struggles; he will not expose the prestige of the church and the interests of religion to the blows they would inflict receiving in the contest." This sentiment seemed to borne out by his appointment of Mr. Morry de Val as secretary of state and his subsequent elevation to the cardinalate. Del Val was then only 38 years of age, a Spaniard by birth and an Englishman by education. Although almost unknown in Rome, Madrid and had once been sent on a delicate mission to Canada.

FOR REFORM IN MUSIC

This appointment of a comparatively young man to a post that had been held at various times by such statesmen like Antonelli and Rampolla made it quite evident that Pius X intended to be a pope in a good deal more than name.

It has been customary for the popes to issue from time to time instructions on sacred music. Pius IX did not hesitate to issue such instructions, nor did Leo XIII. As the late patriarch of Venice had long been known both as artist and practical musician, it was deemed inevitable that, as Pius X, he would shortly avail himself of his prerogative in this respect. Concerning the character of music given in Roman Catholic churches, particularly in Paris, London and in the wealthier cities of the United States, it is unnecessary to go further than to point out that large sums are annually expended for it, and that certain musical instruments which had never been identified with sacred music and certain voices cultivated to give music its most artistic independent expression should both be forbidden in the church. The following passage from the "Instruction on Sacred Music" will convey an idea of the pope's status as an artist. It is for musical critics to show that his ideas are unsound: "Sacred music should possess, in the highest degree, the qualities proper to the liturgy, or, in particular, holiness, goodness of form, from which its other quality of universality spontaneously springs. It must be holy, and therefore must exclude all profanity, not only in itself, but in the manner in which it is presented by those who execute it. (2) It must be true art, for otherwise it will be impossible for it to extend to the minds of those who listen to it that efficacy which the church aims at obtaining when admitting into her liturgy the art of musical sounds. (3) It must at the same time be universal, in the sense that while every nation of every nation may receive an impression other than good on hearing them, they may be said to constitute its native music, still these forms must be subordinated in such a manner to the general characteristics of sacred music that no person of any nation may receive an impression other than good on hearing them."

WHAT CHURCH MUSIC SHOULD BE

"Sacred music should possess, in the highest degree, the qualities proper to the liturgy, or, in particular, holiness, goodness of form, from which its other quality of universality spontaneously springs. It must be holy, and therefore must exclude all profanity, not only in itself, but in the manner in which it is presented by those who execute it. (2) It must be true art, for otherwise it will be impossible for it to extend to the minds of those who listen to it that efficacy which the church aims at obtaining when admitting into her liturgy the art of musical sounds. (3) It must at the same time be universal, in the sense that while every nation of every nation may receive an impression other than good on hearing them, they may be said to constitute its native music, still these forms must be subordinated in such a manner to the general characteristics of sacred music that no person of any nation may receive an impression other than good on hearing them."

FAVORS GREGORIAN CHANT

The pope in his "instruction" by no means condemns the use of modern music in the church, "since it, too, furnishes compositions of much excellence, sobriety, and gravity that they are in no way unworthy of liturgical functions," and yet the pope might draw a distinction between the worship of God and the use of modern music, and also that they might start from the proper ground, he especially advised the restoration of "the use of the Gregorian chant by the people, a more active part in ecclesiastical offices, as was the case in ancient times."

DIES AT NOEL JUNCTION

CARROLLTON, TEXAS, Aug. 4.—A telephone message from Noel Junction announces the death at that place of John Pistole, a wealthy farmer and gin owner, of typhoid fever after only fourteen days' illness. He was a Kentuckian by birth, single, and leaves a large estate. Interment was by the Masons at that place.

SHOT BETWEEN THE EYES

SOME MORE YOUNG TRAMPS

The case of three young men, two of them charged with vagrancy and one with pistol carrying, was heard this morning. The young tramps from the questioning appeared to be inveterate robe trottlers, having been all over the United States as vagrants. Assistant City Attorney Roy while questioning one of the boys said: "What temporary job have you been doing since you left home?" The boy answered that he had been doing several things, among them that he had been to sea. "To sea what?" thundered Roy—the court room burst into laughter, and it required several minutes before all the smiles entirely disappeared. Of the three young tramps, two were fined, one $25 for pistol carrying, the other $5 for vagrancy, the third one on a charge of vagrancy was discharged, he having had $1.90 in his pockets when arrested.

Nash Furniture Company. A meeting of the striking packing house employes was held at the Marine school house Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was largely attended. Addresses were made by a number of the men and new life put into the cause. Statements were made by some of the officers of the various unions affiliated together that financial assistance had been offered the men and that none would suffer on account of not working. The meeting was quite an enthusiastic one and showed the men to be loyal to the cause that they are espousing. Following the meeting, the various executive committees met and transacted some routine business. A meeting is being held this afternoon, at which time each striker is to be accounted for. Reports of all the men that went out and what they are doing is to be made. The men not present, but at work at some other occupation will send in excuses for their non-attendance at this meeting. At the meeting yesterday afternoon it was decided to hold several meetings a week, as was formerly done. This matter will be discussed today.

Since the beginning of the strike at the packing houses but one man has been arrested and fined. This afternoon, at which the party was brought before the city recorder and pleaded guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace. He was fined $1 and costs by the court.

J. M. Nash and J. V. McEwen left this morning for a trip to the World's Fair at St. Louis. Mr. McEwen expects to go from the fair to his former home in New York state to visit with his father.

Work was started yesterday on Main street. The low places where stagnant water has been standing are being filled in and the street put in much better condition.

S. T. Percy has started the erection of a new cottage in the M. G. Ellis addition.

Tuesday afternoon during the heavy rain, a large piece of plaster fell in the hallway of the second floor of the Rosen Inn. Water had gotten into the building through a leak in the roof. By the leak, beside the damage done to plaster, some damage was done to goods in the rear of the Moore drug store.

Dr. C. M. Drew has gone to Collins, Texas. During his absence Dr. J. J. L. Ball is attending his patients.

J. W. Knight, the state veterinary surgeon of Houston, visited the packing houses yesterday. He returned home last evening.

R. Haddaway, the druggist, has gone to Easton, Maryland, to attend the funeral of his father. He will be absent about three weeks.

The question of building a bridge over the Trinity river at Sallis avenue will be submitted to the commissioners' court of the county at their meeting on Monday. People on both sides of the river are anxious to have this bridge built, as it means much to them. As it is now, school children attending the schools in North Fort Worth are compelled to go nearly a mile out of the road to reach the school, which is on this side. These children are in this school district and to them the bridge would be a great thing. One party has agreed to donate the land, another has signified his intention of giving $100 toward defraying the expense of building it and it has been ascertained that the council is willing to stand its portion of the expense.

STEAL AN ENGINE

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Aug. 4.—Yesterday morning at Wagoner, two men, heavily armed, forced a hostler on the Missouri Pacific road to abandon his seat in the cab of a locomotive and taking possession they left town, going toward Corleta. The operator at Wagoner informed the operator at Corleta, and that gentleman set the switch so that the engine would take a side track, which it did, doing considerable damage. The engine was pulling a dead engine, and the men had left it before reaching Corleta. What the object of the men in taking the engine was is not known.

SOME MORE YOUNG TRAMPS

The case of three young men, two of them charged with vagrancy and one with pistol carrying, was heard this morning. The young tramps from the questioning appeared to be inveterate robe trottlers, having been all over the United States as vagrants. Assistant City Attorney Roy while questioning one of the boys said: "What temporary job have you been doing since you left home?" The boy answered that he had been doing several things, among them that he had been to sea.

A NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH ON THE TRACK

Night Operator at the Texas and Pacific Was in Front of an Incoming Train

James McMahon, a night operator for the Texas and Pacific at the east yard office, had a narrow escape from death yesterday. After his night work the young man went up town. On his way to his boarding house at 109 South Boaz street, he took occasion to make a short cut by coming through the company's yard. Inadvertently the young man stepped upon the track of the outgoing Texas and Pacific, bound for New Orleans. The train had gotten up a good speed and was heading for the main tracks from the sheds.

A number of people at the depot saw the danger the young man was in and began to shout to him, but apparently he did not hear the cries of warning. The engineer of the train blew the whistle, but to no avail. Just as a number of people were closing their eyes to keep from seeing the terrible tragedy a car repairer rushed forward and pulled him from the track, thus undoubtedly saving the man from a horrible death.

Many people use these tracks for short cutting toward the south side. There are constantly day and night trains and engines being moved in the yards and unless one is wide awake he is in great danger of his limbs and life.

JARVIS GOES TO BEAUMONT TO PLAY BALL

Manager Ward Has Sold His Red-headed Pitcher to the South Texas League

Manager Ward of the Fort Worth ball team has sold Pitcher Jack Jarvis to the Beaumont club and he left for that place last night. The sum paid for Jarvis' release was $500 cash.

Jarvis will play his first game with Beaumont tomorrow against the Houston team.

Manager Ward said this morning that the sale of Jarvis would in no way weaken the Fort Worth team. He has another well known twirler engaged, who will be here in the course of a few days to take Jarvis' place.

This makes two sales of men to the Beaumont team. He recently released Hugh McMurray, catcher, for the sum of $500.

DALLAS WINS. DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 3.—The Dallas Giants shut out the Fort Worth Panthers here yesterday by a score of 6 to 0. The Fort Worth fellows were up in the air most of the time and Dallas had the game almost from the start. Clark's pitching for the home team was good, the visitors getting only four scattered hits off his delivery.

THE TELEGRAM WINS. The Telegram, Nine to seven. Such is the summary of the game which proved that The Telegram is always on top. For two hours and ten minutes yesterday the excitement at Haines park was as high as it has been any time this year. The members of The Telegram team, mindful of the three victories of last year, worked hard to duplicate the first one of them while the Record players did so want to win at least one game for a change.

It is almost impossible to describe the good plays that were made by the members of both teams. One sensational piece of work came almost every inning and sometimes more than one. Both teams claimed after the contest that it was the best amateur game played in the city this year.

Owing to the delay in the arrival of the Telegram's pitcher, Webb occupied the box for the first inning. The Record started well, or at least an error allowed them to score their first run. For two innings The Telegram was so anxious to pound the ball out of the lot that they made not a run. Webb's long two-bagger in the third evening the score by sending Atchley home. After the Record had scored three more in their half of the third and two in the fourth on errors. The Telegram players settled down and for four innings not a Telegram man made an error and consequently an account of the inability of their opponents to hit Cope not a run was scored.

The score at this part of the game looked bad but two hits in the fifth coupled with errors scored two runs. In the seventh The Telegram boys became tired of the three runs that they were deficient and four clean hits in succession scored three runs, and tied the score. The same number of hits and runs in the ninth won the game.

Col. George T. West Has Had a Consultation With the Adjutant General Concerning the Matter

Colonel George T. West returned last night from Houston, where he went to confer with Adjutant General Hulen in regard to what is being done toward the movement of the Texas troops to Manassas the latter part of the present month.

Colonel West stated that the preliminaries were well in hand and that by the 25th or 30th of this month the soldiers would begin to move. There will be something like 1,500 men and it will require six trains to carry the officers, men and equipment.

Just at this time there is a lively tilt on between the different railroad lines for this business, and bids are now being received by Colonel Roberts, quartermaster of the department of Texas of Atlanta, Ga. The Southern Pacific is probably making the greatest effort. Still north Texas lines are in the field for the business and may get it. However, it will depend entirely which line will carry the Texas soldiers for the lowest rates.

Colonel West said that it was not yet decided who will be brigade commander of the Texas troops, but the regimental commanders will be Colonels Hutchins of Austin and Townsend of Corsicana. It is practically settled that Adjutant General Hulen will have personal command of the Texas soldiers at Manassas. The encampment will continue seven days, but the troops will be absent from the state at least fourteen days. Colonel West states that a conservative estimate places the total number of troops expected to assemble at Manassas at between 35,000 and 50,000.

The Fencibles will be among the Texas troops to the number of about fifty. Under the rules of the United States army not less than fifty nor more than sixty will be accepted at the encampment.

There is a misunderstanding among some of the railroads, said Colonel West, to the effect that a part of the Texas troops may go by one route and the remainder by another line, but the colonel says this is not the case and that it has been ordered that all Texas troops must go by the same route. Colonel West will leave Fort Worth accompanied by Mrs. West on August 26 for Manassas to arrange for the coming of the Texas troops.

UPHOLDS THE LABEL OF THE HATTERS UNION

Sweeping Decision Which Is in Every Way in Favor of Organized Labor

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 4.—Judge G. Wheeler of the superior court has granted an injunction restraining C. H. Merritt & Son of Danbury from using a label which is alleged to be infringement upon the label of the United Hatters of North America. The petition was brought in the name of Martin Lawler of Danbury, the United Hatters being an unincorporated association. The decision is sweeping in its effect, the labor organizations being given a standing before the court and every contention upheld. The matter of a contract between the unions and employers is held to be legal. One of the salient features of the decision is the statement that strikes and their concomitants are not as injurious as some of the court decisions in the latter being permanent in their effect, while the strike and disorder are ephemeral.

LABOR NOTES

C. W. Woodman who recently visited the central body of the Dallas trades organizations in the interest of the striking butchers of North Fort Worth has been notified that his efforts have been appointed to visit the various unions and solicit subscriptions for the strikers' maintenance.

Returns from the ball recently held at Hermann park show that approximately $230 was raised by the affair which is being composed exclusively of Lone Star tourists and to be known as the Mantex club. The Texans thus far are quartered principally at the Baker house and the Sunnyside. Among the late arrivals at Manitou are Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher of Fort Worth, A. S. Haber, wife and children of Waco, Mrs. Lunn of La Grange, Roy B. Burnett and wife and Mrs. Kate B. Burnett of Benjamin, L. E. Hussey, Mrs. M. J. Wheelan and children of Jefferson and several others whose names are not given.

TRAGEDY MAY BE A DOUBLE ONE

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—James (Kid) Leonard, a pugilist who is employed as a porter in a Bowery hotel, was shot in the back while walking in the Bowery last night and may die.

Diego Caccicelo, 22 years old, a vender, was arrested after an exciting chase and is charged with the shooting. Mystery is added to the case by the finding of a bloody razor near where Caccicelo was caught, and the fact that there was blood on the prisoner's hands. Leonard was not out, and as Caccicelo ran as soon as he fired the shot the police think there may have been another tragedy.

TEXANS NUMEROUS AT MANITOU

Quite a Colony Is Gathered at the Resort and They Will Form an Organization

So many people are summering at Manitou, Colo., from Texas that there is a plan on foot to organize a club here to be composed exclusively of Lone Star tourists and to be known as the Mantex club. The Texans thus far are quartered principally at the Baker house and the Sunnyside. Among the late arrivals at Manitou are Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher of Fort Worth, A. S. Haber, wife and children of Waco, Mrs. Lunn of La Grange, Roy B. Burnett and wife and Mrs. Kate B. Burnett of Benjamin, L. E. Hussey, Mrs. M. J. Wheelan and children of Jefferson and several others whose names are not given.

At Colorado Springs there are also many Texans.

RAILROAD NEWS

Meeting of the Transportation Men and Cattle Growers at St. Paul to Discuss Rates on Live Stock, Etc.

TO BE AN ARBITRATION

If Northern Lines Will Grant Relief Asked for by Shippers They Will Not Be Brought Into the Investigation

An important meeting is being held this week at St. Paul, by representatives of the railroads and the cattlemen from all over the country. The railroads parties to the conference are mainly northwestern lines, and the meeting is at the request of the railroads for the purpose of seeing if certain grievances between the shippers of the northwest and the railroads can be arranged satisfactorily.

The cattlemen will be represented by the sub-committee on railroads of the cattle growers' interstate executive committee, consisting of J. H. Boardman of Montana, Murdo Mackenzie of Texas, W. A. Harris of Kansas and A. E. Durieux of Colorado.

The conference is the outcome of the movement of the cattlemen to secure a hearing and investigation by the interstate commerce commission committee in railroad rates and service, and it has been agreed that if the northern lines can grant the cattlemen what they want, they will not be brought into this investigation.

The hearing before the interstate commerce commission will be held at Denver some time in September.

The cattlemen who are determined to have the actual facts in regard to live stock rates and service brought out to the attention of the commission, and to the reasonableness of the rates now being charged.

It will be recalled that the commission began its investigation of this matter in Fort Worth some months ago, and then continued it at St. Louis, and the Denver investigation will be the third time this same matter has been heard by the commission.

As stated yesterday, the commission has just prepared and sent out to cattlemen all over the country a list of questions germane to the subject to which replies are asked, reference to which was printed in The Telegram yesterday.

Cattlemen here express the opinion that very little information will be forthcoming from stockmen as they consider the interrogatories, in the main, not important, and will not be made by many.

They believe that the investigation will amount to very little and the relief sought by stockmen will never be realized.

He emphatically denies the rumor that the Frisco has bought the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass road. He states that the subject was not even hinted at during the St. Louis conference in which he took part. Other matters relative to the development of the lines were discussed, however.

GROSS EARNINGS

The gross earnings of thirty-seven roads for the third week in July shows $7,628,366, against $7,731,422; for the third week in July, 1903, a decrease of $103,056. Eighteen roads show increases and nineteen decreases.

Since July 1 the roads referred to above earned $2,737,548, an increase of $1,193,044 over the 21,544,454 reported for the corresponding period last year. For the longer period seventeen roads show increases and twenty decreases.

BANANAS IN ICE

The best method for shipping bananas during warm weather has caused this roads much concern in the past, but a system that bids fair to become general has been discovered.

On Tuesday a carload of bananas was shipped from New Orleans to California and they were led in a refrigerator car to prevent the fruit from rotting while en route.

Railroad men say this is the first instance of bananas being shipped in this manner, and that it is a good one.

SANTA FE FLOOD DAMAGES

On account of the recent damaging floods on the Arizona division of the Santa Fe the construction forces of that line have been kept busy some weeks making the necessary repairs.

The damage done by the high waters is said to be the most severe that has ever occurred west of Albuquerque. The greatest damage was between Hackberry and Truxton, a distance of twelve miles.

The company will sustain a loss of fully $100,000 by this damage in Arizona.

A FORT WORTH CONTRACTOR

Mike C. Hurley and son of Fort Worth, accompanied by C. C. Waller, are at Orange, where they went to confer with Mr. Miller, president, and C. W. Hole, general manager, of the Orange and Northwestern Railroad Company. Mr. Hurley is president of the United States Construction Company and Mr. Waller is a well known railroad man.

It is reported that Messrs. Hurley and Waller are at Orange for the purpose of securing a contract for the extension of the Orange and Northwestern from Buna to Shreveport.

Vice President W. H. Stark of the Orange road is now in New York for the purpose, it is said, of financing the extension, which is contemplated to be made very soon.

CHEAP COLORADO RATES

The passenger department of the Denver road announced that on August 15 it will put in a 1c a mile excursion rate to Colorado Springs, Denver and Boulder, limiting tickets to fifteen days from date of sale and allowing stop-over privileges at Colorado points.

The rates from Fort Worth will be to Colorado Springs $14.60, to Denver $16.10, and to Boulder $16.70. These are the lowest rates ever announced from Texas to Colorado.

It is quite safe to say that the rate of August is considered the ideal summer time in that state this excursion will no doubt be taken advantage of by Texans not so fortunately situated as to get more than two weeks' vacation and who would not take advantage of the higher rates.

The Denver road is arranging for tourist sleepers, the berth rate being about half that of the regular Pullman sleepers.

Such a low rate as this has heretofore been impossible on account of the high rates on the Colorado roads, which have always objected to the small proportions.

As these low rates by the Denver road are offered to all South Texas, lines reaching Fort Worth will put in a correspondingly low rate from South Texas points.

In this connection it may be stated that the same rates have been put in by the Rock Island and Santa Fe roads.

As a result it is expected that there will be an unprecedented travel to Colorado points the middle of the present month.

FOR INSTRUCTION

Novel School on Wheels Which Is Spending a Term in This City in the Yards of Texas and Pacific Railroad

MACHINERY, NOT BOOKS

Expert From Westinghouse Factory Has a School on Wheels Which Goes From Place to Place and Instructs Railroad Men

Engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen, car inspectors, air-valve men, foremen of the various departments and all other employees of the Texas and Pacific Railroad at this point are now going to school. Most people usually consider that when men have reached a period in life in which they can hold positions like those enumerated above that one's school days are a thing of the past, but such is not the case with these employes here, as well as over the entire system of this road. The various employes have been divided into classes of ten each and are to receive instructions several times a week for the next three weeks. The pupils will not attend school in the same manner that the present generation of school children receive the's. Instead of taking a course in books and committing to memory a whole repertoire of grammar, geography, etc., they receive their lessons by observation instead.

The teacher of this novel school, H. A. Wabbert, arrived in the city Sunday morning and brought his school house with him. The school house is not like the old kind that stands at the end of the lane, similar to the country school of the days gone by, neither is it like the city schools of today, but on account of its peculiarities is, instead, a novelty in itself. When Mr. Wabbert has finished a course of instruction at one terminal point of the system he simply gives the order and his car, for that's the school house in this case, is attached to a train and moved to another point. The teacher does not hold a diploma in any school, neither is he compelled to apply to any board of education to get his position. He is an expert in his line and that is, perhaps, the only reason he holds the job he does. He teaches the employes of the road the intricacies and the workings of the Westinghouse air brake. He is paid a magnificent salary for doing this, as a man who does not understand the air brake workings from top to bottom is not a safe man to have on a system where safety is considered in the running of trains. The men who have the care of human lives on a passenger train or freight train must know how to handle the brakes at all times. The men in the roundhouse who repair the engines and the men who keep the equipment in repair must be on to their jobs when it comes to the air. Otherwise wrecks might occur and damage to the extent of thousands of dollars would be the result. No company cares to have this occur.

In this novel school house, which is an up-to-date one on wheels, are to be found all the various kinds of equipment made by the Westinghouse people. A class comes in at 9 o'clock in the morning, as occurred Wednesday, which was the first day of the school at this point. There was ten in the class. Seats are provided for them. The pupils are some of them old men, long in the service, who have never had an accident of any kind, others are new beginners, but it makes no difference who you are or the term of service, you must attend this school. If you don't attend and the workings of air brakes come under your department, no truant officer will come after you, but maybe something more serious will happen to you. Perhaps you can guess. The class arrives and school opens. Each pupil is asked to do certain work and demonstrate his knowledge of the various valves, which are before him just the same as will be found on an engine, on a freight train or on a passenger train. He must show the teacher what he would do if the brake did not apply, when the brake sticks and will not release, when the brake leaks off, what is the matter when the brake leaks, why the triple valve leaks at the reservoir and why this and that is out of order and the means to repair same, so the engine or train can proceed with safety until a point can be reached where the car or the entire train can be set out and the

DOVE SHOOTING IS NOT ALLOWED IN AUGUST

There Is a Mistake in the Date of the Open Season in Some Parts of Texas passed by the last legislature specified the time when it shall be unlawful to kill wild doves is from February 1 to the first day of September of each year.

The act further provides that it shall be unlawful even during the "open season" for any person to kill more than twenty-five doves in one day.

The penalty prescribed for a violation of the act is a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars or confinement in the county jail not less than five nor more than thirty days, or both.

Section 18 of the law reads: "Possession at any time of the year during which the game birds and wild fowls of the state are protected by law shall be prima facie evidence of the guilt of the person in possession thereof."

This act was introduced by Mr. Pearson of Hunt county and was passed after a very fiery debate, lasting four or five days.

GETTING MONEY FOR THE MARKET

Committee Soliciting Funds Is Meeting With Success and Amount Is Nearly Raised

The committee named at a meeting of business men at the rooms of the Board of Trade Tuesday night to solicit funds to be used in building up a first-class cotton market in this city, has been out only a portion of two days and nearly one-third of the money required has been subscribed.

The committee is composed of W. H. Tanner, W. C. Hathaway, W. S. Knight and W. T. Ladd, all of whom have been hustling since their appointment, and they say they will be able to get the necessary sum in little or no time.

The merchants, they report, are making liberal donations to the fund and many of them say that if more money is needed call on them again.

It is the intention to pay more for cotton than any other town in north Texas, and if this is done there is no question but that a first-class cotton market will be built up here.

The committee states that it is meeting with great success wherever it goes.

COLONY SCHEME DROPPED EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 4.—General W. D. Snyman, who founded the Rock colony near Santa Rosalia, Chihuahua, passed through here en route to the north to arrange for several other families to come down and join those already on the lands, as soon as they reach New York by steamer. The colony scheme of General Joubert and Captain O'Connell for Tamaulipas, papers for which were signed in San Antonio last summer, has been dropped for the present and General Snyman and his colony constitute all the Doer residents or enterprises in the sister republic.

RAINS MEXICAN DOLLARS Sack of Dollars Was on the Dynamite When Exploded. Train Robbery Was Planned But an Accomplice Gave the Officers a Tip

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 4.—The attempt to rob the Rock Island train at Tucumcari, N. M., Saturday last, recalls a number of other robberies that have taken place in this section in the past few years, and also brings to light for the first time one that was planned but never executed, because the robbers were discovered. It was about three years ago that this robbery was planned. The leader concocted the scheme in Ciudad Juarez, the Mexican city opposite El Paso, and the date was set for the robbery, but the officers were given the tip and prepared for the robbers, who, learning they had been betrayed, left the city.

NO BALL GAME IS ROTING IN HATTI TO BE PLAYED AND TROUBLE IS BREWING

Fort Worth Team Returns Home and the Paris Baseball Team Cannot Be Heard From at All

The Paris baseball franchise, as has been the condition several times this year, again appears to be up in the air. Beginning today Fort Worth and Paris were to play a series of games at Paris, but for some reason the deal was declared off and the Panthers returned home last night. It was then expected that Paris would come here and play the series on the local diamond, beginning this afternoon. A report dated Paris, August 3, however, states that it is rumored that the Paris team has disbanded and that most of the players have gone to Ardmore, L. T.

The Telegram saw Manager Ward of the Fort Worth team in regard to the matter this morning. He said: "I don't know what Paris will do. I expected them to come here today, but have not heard definitely. We telegraphed the president of the league and expect to hear right away what the trouble is. I am not prepared to say whether the Paris team has disbanded or not. They will not, however, play here today."

Such reports as the above lead to the conclusion that Paris is undecided as to the next move. Whether they will play the next series in Fort Arthur, St. Petersburg or Grapevine can not be determined.

Weather permitting, the Bankers and the Elks will try conclusions this afternoon at Haines park for baseball supremacy, in what promises to be one of the most interesting and hard fought amateur games played in this city for a long time. Great rivalry exists between the teams, the same feeling having spread to the banks generally and to the members of the Elks lodge.

As one of the Elks put it this morning, "The bankers may have the money now, but we will have it after the game." Up to date, however, no large wages have been recorded, bets and fluid refreshments being the limit.

The line up of the teams has been announced by their respective captains as follows: Elks: Phillips, catcher; Pulliam, pitcher; Vance, first base; Triplett, second base; Bonar, third base; Hubert, short stop; Adams, left field; Green, center field; Davis, right field; Sullivan, Bankers.

FLOODS IN ARIZONA

Worst in Years Are Reported and Railroads Suffer EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 4.—The worst floods in the history of Arizona have resulted from the heavy rains this summer for several days. The Santa Fe and the El Paso and Southern, which extends from here to the Bisbee and Douglas mining camps, has been washed out, and the trains have been very irregular for several days past, something that has never happened before since the completion of the line two years ago.

NO WATER THERE

EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 4.—One of the laughable incidents of the hunt of the New York papers and police for Judge D. D. McKoon, who mysteriously disappeared from there and mailed a letter from El Paso, saying that he was held for ransom by bandits in El Paso, was a telegram to the police here to search all craft on the river front, watch yachts, sloops, schooners, barges and steamships, as the judge is very fond of water. When it is remembered that El Paso has not seen a drop of rain for ten months and that the bed of the Rio Grande is as dry as a street, the ridiculousness of this is readily apparent.
