Began His Second Term as Governor of Texas Today

GOV. S. W. T. LANHAM

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 17.—(Special).—Governor Lanham and Lieutenant Governor Neal were formally inaugurated today at high noon at a joint session of the legislature. The inaugural ceremonies were very impressive.

The oath of office was administered by Associate Justice Brown of the supreme court in the presence of the legislative body and several hundred spectators. The governor marched up the aisle on the arm of Judge Brown.

"I am duly impressed with the obligations it imposes." The governor then said he had performed his duties to the best of his ability.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 17.—Miss Clara Driscoll of San Antonio was one of the most distinguished visitors in the lobby of the house yesterday.

Hon. J. T. Cannales of Cameron county is the only Mexican in the legislature and one of the youngest members of the house.

In 1896 he graduated from a high school in Kansas. Three years later, in 1899, he finished the course in the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, and received the degree of L. L. B.

Texas Congressman Proposes Stringent Interstate Commerce Rules

COURTS GIVEN CONTROL Treble Damages Recoverable for Infringement by Any of the Railroads

Congressman W. R. Smith of the Jumbo district of Texas, has just introduced in the house of representatives a bill which, if passed by congress, will facilitate the shipments and furnishing of cars by railroads for the shipment of carloads of live stock from points in one state or territory of the United States into or through any other state or territory in this country.

CARS WITHIN SIX DAYS By the terms of the bill all railroads will be compelled to furnish the cars required at loading places designated within six days from the time the order for the cars has been filed with the agent.

It shall be the duty of the first road to which the shipment is tendered to notify such connecting line forming a part of such route.

It shall also be the duty of the railroad to furnish the shipper a through bill of lading showing the route to destination.

Should the route selected by the shipper be impracticable the carrier may designate the most direct route and the provisions of this act shall be applicable in the same manner and to the same effect as if the shipper had designated the route.

The bill further provides that the proportional rates of freight for such shipments by the connecting carrier shall be just and fair, unless they shall file and publish joint or through rates of freight as applied thereto as provided by the act to regulate commerce.

"I WAS STARVING FOR LOVE; HE DID NOT UNDERSTAND"

Nebraska Woman Charged With Poisoning Husband, Declares She Watched Death Come Without Pity—Now Faces Charge of Killing Him

MASON, Neb., Jan. 17.—In all the histories of the darker ages there is nothing, perhaps, that transcends in point of morbid degeneracy and of utter horror the subsequent confession of Mrs. Caroline Joselyn, who is under arrest on a charge of poisoning her husband, William Joselyn, a wealthy farmer of this place.

"I was his dupe!" she cried. "I loved him. He taught me love, and then, when I was in his power, he made me kill my husband."

"My heart was starving for love," she said; "not the love that impels a man merely to provide for a woman and to deal honorably with her, but the love that finds vent in kisses and in petting—

"But he knew the other man's love, and he was jealous, and terribly watchful. Then one day my husband's employer gave me a package of arsenic, with instructions just how to give it to my husband."

"For a minute I could have killed my tempter. But he looked at me, and then something seemed to snap in my head. My eyes were fastened to his in the way I have seen my faithful dog look at me."

"The next day I decided to begin. I made up my mind to give him a weak dose. So I took a tiny pinch and dropped it into his coffee. I carried the coffee to him, and he looked up at me in surprise, but he said nothing. I had no surplus left

CORPORATION LAW NEEDS REVISION

New Jersey's New Governor Tells Legislature Change Is Important

NOT AFTER MERE REVENUE State's First Duty, He Says, Is to Safeguard the Rights of the Public

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 17.—In his inaugural address delivered today the incoming governor of New Jersey, E. C. Stokes, counsels the legislature to take cognizance of the existing corporate situation and revise and modernize the corporation laws, and urges the appointment of a committee to that end.

He defines the policy of this state as follows: "Legislation for revenue only, is unsound and should never be encouraged, but honest legislation which safeguards the rights of the public and thereby attracts capital and enterprise and produces increased income is New Jersey's aim."

As to the duty of the state toward corporations, Governor Stokes says: "New Jersey's corporations do not belong to a few wealthy capitalists, but rather to a host of scattered stockholders who, as small investors, own the majority of the shares in these companies."

CLUBHOUSE BURNS STEWARD MISSING

New Orleans Has $170,000 Blaze—Rockaway Beach Summer Hotels Burn

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 17.—The Athenaeum, a handsome club house and ball of the Young Men's Hebrew association in St. Charles avenue, the Clio street Evangelical church and some surrounding property were destroyed by fire early today.

MAN HAD DESERTED HER

"I went to look after the man to tell him how I carried the plot. But he had gone. He had left the town. Then for the first time I realized that I was his dupe. I was angry and terrified, for I realized that he had left me with a murder half accomplished. I was moved to abandon my intention, but I could not. It was as though a fiend forced me on. I sick again. I could see that he was weakening gradually. On the morning of the fourth day he did not arise and called for me. It was a dark and stormy day, and I was frightened and blue and nervous. I ran to his bedside, and he was shivering and his face was drawn. He ordered me to go for a doctor, and I, knowing that I could not put him off any longer, hitched up my horse and drove to Williamstown for Dr. Charles Culver."

GOES FOR A DOCTOR

"So the next day I gave him some more arsenic in his coffee and he grew sick again. I could see that he was weakening gradually. On the morning of the fourth day he did not arise and called for me. It was a dark and stormy day, and I was frightened and blue and nervous. I ran to his bedside, and he was shivering and his face was drawn. He ordered me to go for a doctor, and I, knowing that I could not put him off any longer, hitched up my horse and drove to Williamstown for Dr. Charles Culver."

JUDGE REAGAN'S VIEWS

Hon. John H. Reagan of Palestine was formerly chairman of the state railroad commission, in which capacity he served the people of Texas long and faithfully.

The twelve annual reports of the railroad commission, based on the sworn reports of the railroad companies, show that while there has been a slow but steady reduction of freight rates there has also been a slow but steady increase of the net earnings of the railroads.

I here state results. To give detail would take too long. But the facts here in given show that the railroad problem has been successfully solved in the state of Texas.

The ownership of the railroads by the Federal government is, it seems clear to me, both impracticable and dangerously unwise.

Members of the state legislature are expressing the opinion that the only method of overcoming the deficiency in the state treasury is to raise the general tax rate.

The Christmas and New Year's number of the Texas Railway and Industrial Journal, by Mrs. E. E. Overall, has reached The Telegram, and it reflects great credit upon its enterprising publisher.

President Roosevelt has promised to consider an invitation to visit Dallas, and the whole town has gone into such an ecstasy of delight that it is second only to the spasms that accompanied the return of the Rock Island subsidy.

The officers of the National Live Stock Association are knocking at the doors of the recently organized American Cattle Growers' Association, and it is a good sign.

The world will think a great deal more of Dr. Chadwick in the present emergency if he will attempt to lay nothing on the woman.

Steps are being taken for the entertainment of the gentlemen in their annual convention in this city next March, and a rousing meeting is expected.

Joseph W. Folk has been inaugurated as governor of Missouri, and that fact stands out as the one redeeming feature of the recent election held in that state.

The American hen laid 20,000,000,000 eggs last year, and certainly has a good long cackle coming.

for the purpose of pulling down or oppressing the railways. It was created for the mutual benefit and protection of the people and the railways, and it is operated along the broad lines of justice to all interests.

A FLEXIBLE CODE

The Telegram recently printed a defense of Hon. Curtis Hancock, member of the state legislature from Dallas county, on a charge of having violated the code of ethics in publishing the letter accompanying the return of a batch of railway passes.

Since reading your editorial I have received a "personal" letter from the gentlemen who sent the passes removing all fear of complaint that I have violated the "code" about which the Post disturbs its equilibrium so much.

The Telegram understands that Mr. Hancock's letter to the Post was a personal one. In its publication has not the Post violated the very code of ethics it accused the honorable gentleman from Dallas county with transgressing?

Sleanings From the Exchanges

A few days ago a fellow was arrested and jailed in New Orleans for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. The fraudulent purpose consisted in advertising for "a rich creole widow" which some fellow with an empty noggin and too lazy to work wanted to marry.

The man who advertises for a wife usually gets what he deserves, from the fact that he obtains what no other man would have. The real desirable article from a matrimonial standpoint pays no attention to advertisements for connubial felicity that appear in the columns of the newspapers.

The restraining power of the law on the criminal lies in the certainty and severity of its punishment. Take these away and the law is powerless to restrain men from crime.—Bonham News.

The enforcement of all laws depends on public sentiment. If the people demand a vigorous application of any law and back it up in the proper manner it is of easy enforcement. But if public sentiment does not uphold a law it is usually a dead letter.

The offering of a resolution in the senate for the appointment of a committee on platform demands, while out of the ordinary, may be a move in the right direction. It is history that platform demands have many times gone for naught with the law makers of Texas.

Previous sessions of the state legislature have not manifested much regard for platform demands, doubtless on the theory that the honorable body is better fitted to teach the people than to receive instruction from the fountain source.

Texas is facing a deficit that the legislature is expected to make provisions to wipe out. It is a difficult problem, but one which can and must be solved.

The man who does nothing to make times better has no right to sit around and abuse those who are trying to do something for the country, and should be suppressed.

A cry has been raised by quite a number of Texas packers because the Texas packers are compelled to import about one-half of the hogs required to meet the daily demands of these concerns.

The Fort Worth market always pays top prices for hogs, and if it pays the people of Oklahoma and Indian Territory to raise and ship hogs here, it ought to also be profitable for the people of Texas.

Mr. Swift says competition among the meat packers is so fierce that profits are reduced almost to nothing, which puts us in such a state of mind that we should not be greatly astonished to hear Mr. Rockefeller is standing on the street corner soliciting alms.—San Antonio Express.

It is surprising that if profits in the packing business are so small, under existing conditions, the Swift company is able to earn and pay such large dividends on its tremendous capitalization.

Miss Emma Banning, a Missouri young lady, was married in McKinney this week, the groom being a blind man who travels over the state led by a dog. He has been very successful in his appeals for alms and has a good little bank account.

Such a marriage as this can not be characterized as a case of love at first sight.

The Idler's Note-Book

This burning of cotton to raise the price appeals to me. Usually when I want to raise the price I pawn my watch, but it's all the same and costs 10 per cent a month in the long run.

Some really earnest-minded people have figured out logarithms that if half of a twelve-million bale crop of cotton worth 6 cents a pound is burned and the remainder is sold at 12 cents a pound the farmers won't make any money.

Ever see a boy of 12 in the autumn raking up leaves? He hates using the rake and still more the mussy work of gathering the leaves up into a bushel basket and dumping them into a big pile, but he works willingly, for he knows there's a big bonfire at the end. Men are only big boys. The likeness lasts all the way through; even to the bonfire at the end—sometimes.

And why shouldn't a farmer burn his cotton if he wants to? It's his cotton. Of course the soil gave up elements that took hundreds of years to prepare, the sun's energy was scattered through the millions of stalks that the plants might grow and leaf, blossom and burst their snowy bells.

Let the farmers burn their cotton if they want to. Advise 'em to. Urge 'em to cut down their acreage and raise tube roses, mushrooms, Easter lilies and other useful and diversified products. The farmers need advice.

Ever used to give it to Adam when he was hoeing his figs and harrowing the coconuts.

AND IN THE LATTER DAYS "Jones used to be well off, rather rich, in fact, until he invested his money in a rather chimerical venture that didn't turn out as he expected."

A man might as well start now and get accustomed to paying his poll tax or lose his vote. A little later when the trusts get a little firmer hold, he'll have to pay his tax and lose the vote to boot.

OFFICIALS PLAN PUBLIC BUILDING

Combined School and City Hall for North Fort Worth to Cost $25,000

The North Fort Worth board of school trustees met last night in the city hall with one member absent. Superintendent of schools Moore submitted a financial report in which he showed that there is still over $1,900 to the credit of the schools out of three, including buildings Nos. 2 and 3 and Diamond Hill. The majority of this amount is to the credit of the North Fort Worth city schools.

The treasurer was instructed to draw the insurance money due on the old building and about $225 additional to pay the teachers their month's salary now due. The insurance amount is about $1,900.

The secretary was instructed to ask that a special meeting of the city council be held to order an election for the purpose of whether a school tax not to exceed 50 cents on the $100 be levied. The understanding is that if necessary to sustain all would then have the power to levy such tax as is found necessary to sustain the city schools.

Election of the entire trustee was postponed indefinitely.

The erection of a new school building to replace the one recently burned was discussed and the majority of the board favored a building not to cost less than $25,000 to $25,000. The proposed building is to be three stories high and is to be built of brick. Professor Moore suggested that the first two floors be used for recitation rooms and the third floor be fitted up for a town hall. Anderson Lydon was of the opinion that enough gravel could be obtained from the excavation for the basement to build the pumping station.

"I had commenced taking your medicine, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. C. L. Sunderland of Chesapeake, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pain in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicine. I bought a bottle of Golden Medical Discovery, took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better. Then you directed me to take both the Golden Medical Discovery and the Favorite Prescription, which I did. Although I have taken bottles of Golden Medical Discovery, twice of the Favorite Prescription, and five vials of Peppermint Cure, I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."

ALL LINES WILL HAVE LONG CARS

Traction Company to Abandon Single Truck Trams Next Fall

Vice President and General Manager Haines of the Northern Texas Traction Company announces that by next fall modern double truck vestibule cars will be used on every line in the city.

"Just as soon as the Hill Street viaduct is ready for use we will put a twenty-minute schedule on this line," he said. "To run on that time until travel warrants our putting on a quicker schedule. At first we will use our short cars, but after March 14 we will put on the summer cars. The law requires that we keep vestibule cars on until that date."

"However, when we take off our 'old-timer' cars we will never put them on again, for by next fall we will have long, vestibuled, double-truck, modern cars on every line."

"The Hill street viaduct will be completed in a month and ready for pedestrian teams and cars, provided the weather is fairly good," said City Engineer Hawley. "I have experienced some trouble in laying the concrete on account of the weather, but I believe that the cold and disagreeable weather is now over. We anticipate no more delays at the present time."

PENDING DEAL TO BE CLOSED TODAY

Men Interested in Arlington Heights Transfer Are Arranging Details

The sale of the Arlington Heights property which has been pending for some time, it is announced, will be consummated during the day and will include the transfer of 1,100 acres of land at an approximate cost of $65,000.

This morning Messrs. George E. Montgomery and John L. Breatwit of Shreveport, La., arrived in the city and at once went to the office of A. N. Evans to conclude the deal which will make Fort Worth the beneficiary to the extent of several hundred thousand dollars when all the improvements contemplated by the new company have been carried into effect.

The property to be included in the transfer is owned by New Yorkers, who are being represented in this city by Ferdinand Felsky who has been here some time pending negotiations which are now to be finally completed.

With the two Shreveport gentlemen are associated several wealthy bankers, non-residents, who are to take an interest in the enterprise, which not only means the improvement of the Heights, but the final establishment of a loan and trust company in Fort Worth. However, this feature of the transaction is not to be undertaken until the improvements contemplated at Arlington Heights are well under way.

It is ascertained that not a single dollar of local capital is to be interested in this enterprise, the money coming entirely from outside sources.

The new company is to take over the water and electric light plants at Arlington Heights, both of which are to be improved and their capacity enlarged so as to accommodate an anticipated suburban settlement in that popular suburb.

CIVIC LEAGUE SATISFIED

Endorses Proposed Charter Amendments and Will Not Advocate Additional Changes at Present

President L. M. Whitsett of the Civic League declares no fight will be made by the organization at the present time for the measure advocated by them, placing "maximum salary" in the city charter to supersede "salary" in designating the compensation of officials.

The League, however, still holds the position that such a change is advisable as permitting economy on practical lines in city expenditures, and President Whitsett announces that the matter will probably be taken up at another time.

The Civic League, he says, heartily endorses the proposed amendments to the city charter and also Senator W. A. Hargis' proposed bill to district salaries and to try and stop the locating of saloons in the residence district.

GRAIN MEETING CALLED

Local Inspection of Product Entertaining of Cattlemen to Occupy Meeting of Board of Trade

According to a resolution passed at the last meeting of the Fort Worth Board of Trade, the regular meeting will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Heretofore the meetings have been held at night. It was thought by the members that by changing the meeting to the afternoon the attendance might be increased and the meeting this afternoon will be the first one held under the new arrangement.

In connection with routine business the board will arrange for the entertainment of the visitors of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association and Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, which will be held during March.

All those interested in the grain trade in Fort Worth are asked to be at the meeting this afternoon as the matter of grain inspection will come up for consideration.

For months the Board of Trade has made an aggressive campaign to assist in making Fort Worth the leading grain market in the state, and matters of vital interest to this industry are to be considered and acted upon today. Already Fort Worth is considered the leading grain and mill point in Texas. It leads all other cities in the state in its receipts of grain and the amount of flour manufactured and shipped to outside points, and it is the desire to further increase the receipts and shipments from this city.

The Board of Trade is actively assisting the business in an effort to materially increase the grain inspection service.

WARRANTS EASY TO CASH

Members of Legislature Pay Only Seven Days on the Dollar

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Jan. 17.—The members of the legislature who have to cash their warrants find no trouble in doing so at 95 1-4 cents on the $1. This proved exceedingly pleasing to many of them and also the clerks and others connected with the legislature who have to depend in a measure on what they are earning here for a livelihood.

It was stated at first that the discount would be one cent, but there are a number of moneyed interests in Austin who are charging only three-quarters of a cent on the dollar for their trouble.

As this does not amount to much, most of the members are getting their warrants cashed as usual.

BROWNVILLE ROAD EXTENSION

President Miller Announces Contract for 200 Mile Construction

President Jeff Miller of the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico Railroad Company makes the statement that the company is now figuring on letting a contract for the construction of a 200-mile extension of the road. It is understood that the road is to be built into San Antonio and while no definite announcement as to where the extension is to be made, it is believed that it will go to San Antonio and also to Houston. The company has all along intended to build into these two places and the statement by the president that a contract is to be let indicates that the line will be built to these two cities.

Since the advent of the Brownsville line in South Texas there has been a great influx of people to that country. Artesian wells have been sunk and farmers are settling in many quarters of that part of the state. Quite a number of Fort Worth citizens have made investments in that part of the state along the road.

McLENNAN FARMERS WILLING TO REDUCE

Hold Enthusiastic Meeting for Discussion of Cotton Problem in Waco—Meet Again Jan. 28

WACO, Texas, Jan. 17.—It was evident that the farmers of McLennan county, who met in Waco Saturday were in earnest, and there was a spontaneity of action and a tone of determination about the deliberations which showed that they were in for the war and determined to do everything possible to secure a reduction of the acreage and to hold their cotton until it was known what acreage will be planted and thus profit by the raise in price which is expected when it becomes certain that there is to be a reduction in acreage. Those present solemnly declared that they would decrease their acreage 25 per cent this year and would seek to get others to do the same. It was also decided to hold as long as possible as most farmers here being in position to hold. Another meeting was called for the 28th inst., at which time further and more general action along these lines will be taken. Speeches were made by many prominent farmers of the county. The following delegates were chosen to go to the cotton convention in New Orleans on the 24th: Eugene Williams, T. O. Plunkett, J. L. Quicksall, C. Falkner and L. B. Daughtrey.

The whole tone and tenor of the meeting showed that the farmers meant business and were willing to make personal sacrifices in order to accomplish the ends sought.

HALE AND HEARTY DESPITE 115 YEARS

Levi Rouss Outlives Benefactors Who Thought He Would Be First to Occupy New Cemetery

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Levi Rouss of Passaic, N. J., has celebrated what he says is his 115th birthday. Rouss has resided in Passaic for twelve years, having been taken there from New York by local Hebrew leaders. The latter had secured ground on the outskirts of Passaic for a new cemetery and to follow out an ancient tradition, wanted to find an old man to be the first to lie in the new cemetery. Rouss was found on the East Side and it was thought he could live only a short time. His fellow Hebrews promised him money, home and plenty of food. The one consideration was that he be buried in the new cemetery.

It took Rouss one week to get back his health and since then, except for about two weeks last spring, he has walked about unaided. Several members of the committee who took him to Passaic expecting that he would soon be buried in the new cemetery are now resting there themselves.

INFLUENZA AN EPIDEMIC

Many Deaths and Much Serious Illness in Chicago

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—Influenza is more prevalent and more fatal in Chicago this winter than at any time since the epidemic year of 1891, according to the weekly bulletin of the health department. Twenty more deaths from this cause were reported during the week.

Investigations by Dr. Robert H. Preble, a medical inspector for the department, are held to show "there can be no question that influenza or grippe is the most important factor of the increase of pneumonia, and, in consequence, of heart disease."

Statistics are quoted as proof that the deaths from heart disease and from pneumonia have increased at almost exactly the same ratio since 1893. The fact that the germ which causes pneumonia also irritates the membrane covering the valves of the heart is commented on.

"THE BILLIONAIRE"

Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger, the greatest producers of extravaganzas in the musical comedy field, announce the production of Harry B. Smith and Gus Kerker's new spectacular musical comedy "The Billionaire," at Greenwall's opera house tonight at 8:15 p. m., with Thomas Q. Seabrook at the head of the organization. This will be the first presentation of "The Billionaire" in this city. The book was written by Harry B. Smith, who is the foremost of American writers of humorous stories, and the music is by Mr. Gustav Kerker, whose last great success, "The Belle of New York," will not soon be forgotten. Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger have always presented their plays on a scale of the greatest spectacular magnificence, and it is prophesied that the production of "The Billionaire" made by this great firm will surpass anything they have hitherto attempted. The company is all that could be desired and among those who will support Mr. Seabrook will be Diamond Donner, Jessie Intropidd, Helen Dexter, Lois Ewell, esta Stanton, Helen Carpenter, Ethel Intropidd, Bessie Kinsella, Pauline Harrie, Harry Macdonough, Tony Hart, Walter Krevival, A. Seymour Brown, Frederick Scott, John Steppling, Charles Halton, James Grant and Abraham Friedland. The story is novel in the extreme and introduces John Doe, "The Billionaire," who, is at times, greatly inconvenient to himself in trying to dispose of his enormous income. However, at last, he finally finds an opportunity in the person of Fanny Good, a beautiful western girl, who is in Paris taking music

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE 1.—NAME.
ARTICLE 2.—OBJECTS.

First.—To insure, so far as possible, a permanent condition of peace, prosperity and steady employment to the people of Battle Creek.

Second.—To energetically assist in maintaining law and order at all times and under all conditions.

Third.—To protect its members in their rights to manage their property and to dispose of their labor in a legal, lawful manner without restraint or interference.

Fourth.—To insure and permanently maintain fair just treatment, one with another in all the relations of life.

Fifth.—To preserve the existing right of any capable person to obtain employment and sell his labor, without being obliged to join any particular church, secret society, labor union or any other organization, and to support all such persons in their efforts to resist compulsory methods on the part of any organized body whatsoever.

Sixth.—To promote among employers a spirit of fairness, friendship and desire for the best interests of their employees, and to promote among workmen the spirit of industry, thrift, faithfulness to their employers and good citizenship.

Seventh.—To so amalgamate the public sentiment of all of the best citizens of Battle Creek, that a guarantee can be given to the world of a continuance of peaceful conditions and that under such guarantee and protection manufacturers and capitalists can be induced to locate their business enterprises in Battle Creek.

Then follows articles relating to membership, officers, duties, etc., etc.

This constitution has been signed by the great majority of representative citizens including our workpeople.

A number of manufacturers from other cities, where they have been suffering all sorts of indignities, inconvenience and losses from the general hell of labor union strikes, picketing, assaults and other interference, proposed to move, providing they could be guaranteed protection.

The subject grew in importance until it has reached a place where absolute protection can be guaranteed by the citizens of Battle Creek on the following broad and evenly balanced terms which guarantee to the workman and to the manufacturer fairness, justice, steady work and regularity of output.

The new coming manufacturer agrees to maintain the standard rate of wage paid elsewhere for like service, under similar conditions, the rate to be determined from time to time from well authenticated reports from competing cities. The standard wage reports issued by the Government Department of Commerce and Labor can also be used to show the standard rate, and it is expected later on that this government bureau will furnish weekly reports of the labor market from different centers, so that the workman when he is ready to sell his labor and the employer when he is ready to buy, may each have reliable information as to the market or ruling price.

The new coming manufacturer also agrees to maintain the sanitary and hygienic conditions provided for by the state laws and to refrain from any lockouts to reduce wages below the standard; reserving to himself the right to discharge any employee for cause.

The Citizens' Association on its part agrees to furnish, in such numbers as it is possible to obtain, first class workmen who will contract to sell their labor at the standard price of such period as may be fixed upon, agreeing not to strike, picket, assault other workmen, destroy property, or do any of the criminal acts common to labor unionism. Each workman reserving to himself the right to quit work for cause, and the Citizens' Association further pledges its members to use its associated power to enforce the contracts between employer and employee and to act en masse to uphold the law at all times.

The new industries locating in Battle Creek will not start under any sort of labor union domination whatsoever, but will make individual contracts with each employee, whose contracts being fair and equitable and guaranteed on both sides.

Thus from the abuses of labor unions and their insane efforts to ruin everyone who does not "obey," has evolved this plan which replaces the old conditions of injustice, lockouts, strikes, violence, loss of money and property, and general industrial warfare; and inaugurates an era of perfect balance and fairness between employer and employee, a steady prosperity. The entire community pledged by public sentiment and private act to restore to each man his ancient right to peace, freedom and the pursuit of happiness."

Other cities will be driven to protect their work people, merchants and citizens as well as their industries from the blight of strikes, violence, losses brought on by labor unionism run amuck, by adopting the "Battle Creek plan," but this city offers industrial peace now with cheap coal and good water, first class railroad facilities and the best grade of fair, capable and peaceable mechanics known.

Details given upon inquiry of the "Secy. of the Citizens' Ass'n."

The public should remember that there are a few Labor Unions conducted on peaceful lines and in proportion as they are worthy, they have won esteem, for we, as a people, are strongly in sympathy with any right act that has for its purpose better conditions for wage workers. But we do not forget that we seek the good of all and not those alone who belong to some organization where, even by the abiding unions show undeniable evidences of tyranny and oppression when they are strong enough, while many of the unions harbor and encourage criminals in their efforts to force a yoke of slavery upon the American people. As a public speaker lately said: "The arrogance of the English King that roused the fiery eloquence of Otis, that inspired the immortal declaration of Jefferson, that left Warren dying on the slopes of Bunker Hill was not more outrageous than the conditions that a closed shop would force upon the community. These men burst into rebellion when the king did but touch their pockets." Imagine if you can their indignity if they did not submit, to prohibit or restrict their occupation or determine the conditions under which they should earn their livelihood, and to assault, beat and murder them, blow up their houses and poison their food if they did not submit.

The public should also remember that good true American citizens can be found in the unions and that they deprecate the criminal acts of their fellow members, but they are often in bad company.

Salt only hurts sore spots. So, the honest, lawabiding union man is not hurt when the criminals are denounced, but when you hear a union man "holer" because the facts are made public, he has branded himself as either one of the law breakers or a sympathizer, and therefore with the mind of the law breaker, and likely to become one when opportunity offers. That is one reason employers decline to hire such men.

A short time ago inquiry came from the union forces to know if Mr. Post would "keep still" if they would call off the boycott on Postum and Grape-Nuts.

This is the reply: "The labor trust has seen fit to try to ruin our business because we would not join its criminal conspiracy. We are plain American citizens and differ from the labor union plan in that we do not force people to strike, picket, boycott, assault, blow up property or commit murder.

We do not pay thugs $20 to break in the ribs of any man who tries to support his family nor $30 for an eye knocked out.

We try to show our plain, honest regard for sturdy and independent workmen by paying the highest wages in the state.

We have a steady, unvarying respect for the law abiding peaceable union man and a most earnest desire to see him gain power enough to purge the unions of their criminal practices that have brought down upon them the righteous denunciation of a law-abiding, and outraged public, but we will not fawn, truckle, bend the knee, wear the hated collar of white slavery, the union label, nor prostitute our American citizenship under "orders" of any labor trust.

You offer to remove the restriction on our business and with "union" gold choke the throat and still the voice raised in stern denunciation of the despotism which tramples beneath an iron shod heel, the freedom of our brothers.

You would gag us with a silver bar and muffle the appeal to the American people to harken to the cries for relief of the little children whose faithful fathers were beaten to death while striving to earn food for them.

Your boycott may perhaps succeed in throwing our people out of work and driving us from business but you cannot wrench from us that priceless jewel our fathers fought for and every true son guards with his life. Therefore, speaking for our work people and ourselves the infamous offer is declined."

lessons, and who has just been requested to leave her hotel on account of the non-payment of her bill. The millionaire starts in by buying the hotel for her, and in the end takes her and a party of friends to New York, buys a theater, writes a play and makes her a star, and in this way is able to dispose of not a few of his greenbacks.

There will be a chorus of sixly. A special feature will be the Klaw & Erlanger orchestra under the direction of A. M. Langstaff.

ELABORATE PRODUCTION OF "QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER"

The dramatization by Mr. Justin Adams of the "best New England story every written" and one of the most popular and best selling books of the day, entitled "Quincy Adams Sawyer," which will be given with the same production cast as seen at the Academy of Music in the "Big New York run at Greenwall's" opera house Wednesday, Jan. 18, is presented by a carefully selected company of well known artists and is given in four acts and five scenes, all specially built and painted for this production.

"SAN TOY"

First of all "San Toy" is tuneful, and to degree that arrests the fancy of everyone with even a moderate liking for jingling airs. It has twenty-six delightful and original numbers, and if those who listen to its melodies could have their way there would be as many more. The book is as free from objectionable lines as the literature scattered about a young ladies seminary, and the comedy clever enough to hold the interest whenever there is an intermission between the musical gems.

opera house Thursday and Friday nights and Friday matinee, Jan. 19-20.

THOMAS JEFFERSON

Thomas Jefferson will come to Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, Jan. 21, and Friday night and Friday matinee, Jan. 19-20.

Van Winkle, Old Rip has become household word with all the children, for worthless as Rip is, his love for children has made him ever popular with the little ones, his good nature both to children and his old dog Snyder are as well known and admired as the time honored nursery tales. As Mr. Jefferson presents Rip Van Winkle it is one of the most enjoyable evening entertainments that will visit Fort Worth this season.

HITCHING WEIGHTS BARRED

WACO, Texas, Jan. 17.—An ordinance has been prepared by the ordinance committee of the city council and passed, which forbids the use of weights for hitching purposes, on any of the paved streets of Waco. The action was made necessary by the fact that heavy weights were dropped from the top of vehicles to the asphalt or brick pavements below, damaging them. There was an ordinance prohibiting dropping weights thus, but it could not be enforced, so it was necessary to take the use of weights altogether out of these streets.

STEAMER INDUS FLOATED

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The steamer Indus, aground on Fire Island bar, was floated at 12:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Tugs began pulling at the steamer with the rising of the tide yesterday morning and their efforts to release the vessel were finally successful.
