Live Stock TODAY'S RECEIPTS

Table with columns for Cattle, Hogs, Steers, Cows, Bulls, Calves, and Hogs. Includes prices and receipts for various types of livestock.

TOP PRICES TODAY

Table listing top prices for various livestock categories such as Steers, Cows, Bulls, Calves, and Hogs.

NORTH FORT WORTH, Jan. 23.—The cattle supply still keeps up, 2,000 being in the pens at the height of the market. No strictly top-fed beef steers came in, but a few loads of short-fed commanded steady prices, and a long string of grassers also sold steady. Tops, $3.70; bulk, $3.50.

Cows, as usual, formed the bulk of the run, and being in fairly good shape, commanded strong to the higher prices. Active buying by outsiders yesterday, which took about a thousand of that day's supply, made its effect felt on today's prices. The advance was mostly on medium to good cows, in fact, any thing that had killing form was due to sell better than yesterday. Best cows sold at $3.50; medium to good between $2.50 and $2.80; canners between $1.50 and $1.80.

TODAY'S SHIPPERS

Table listing shippers and their respective livestock, including names like E. B. Daggert, Taylor & Watts, and others.

STOCK YARDS NOTES

"No, sir," said W. L. Goodman of Italy, Texas, in answer to the question whether or not the stock conditions were good in his part of the state. "The market continued the gentleman, 'people down our way have practically given up the cattle business and have been turning their attention to the raising of crops. Cattle used to be raised in Ellis county to advantage, but the diversification of the crops and the stock laws have practically put the cowman out of business. I shipped in a carload of mixed stuff on Monday and got a fair price for it, but I have found that more money is being made in the raising of crops than cattle.'"

Sol Mayer of San Angelo was in Fort Worth Monday evening.

Sol Mayer of San Angelo was in Fort Worth Monday evening, Mr. Mayer in speaking of the stock conditions in the San Angelo country said the range was in a fairly good condition and that the cattle men were looking forward with interest to the coming of the year. "The market conditions at present time are very unfavorable, but there are some prospects that there will be a change. The present conditions can not exist forever, I am sure of that."

W. H. Taylor of Alvord, Wise county, came in this morning with several carloads of hogs and cattle for the Fort Worth market.

W. H. Taylor of Alvord, Wise county, came in this morning with several carloads of hogs and cattle for the Fort Worth market. He spoke very favorably of the hog market, but the favorable of the condition was not impressed with the condition of the cattle market at this time. Mr. Taylor stated that hogs were in demand here at all times and that he saw no reason why a good price should not be maintained. "The hog market will be a great scarcity of the porkers," he said. "Taylor, 'for the marketable hogs are about all in and the supply will be limited until along in April or May. Farmers in my part of the county have sold all the hogs that they have in shape at the present time.'"

C. W. Piper, Ellis county, shipped several carloads of cattle in today.

C. W. Piper, Ellis county, shipped several carloads of cattle in today. He stated that the cattlemen there were few and far between and the few men who were still raising cattle had little hope of staying in the business, as there was no money in it for them. "The cattle business has been driven out of the western part of the state and it won't be long until it is driven from the entire country. The farmer with his plow is daily encroaching on the cattlemen and their time is but a question of a few years and then they must pass away forever. I don't see any other solution of the cattle problem," he concluded.

COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 24.—Following a decided Liverpool advance the cotton market opened at 6.55 this morning after a close yesterday at 48.44. The strength of the market, however, was maintained but a shot time, prices being soon hammered down to yesterday's close. At that point, however, a reaction set in, a steady advance following until noon. The market, however, still being below the close of the opening. The spot situation remained quiet and unchanged throughout the morning, the demand being limited. Active business of the cotton convention is expected to begin tonight, the probable result being used as an offset against the general expectation of a bearish report of ginnings to Jan. 16.

THOMAS' COTTON LETTER

(By Private Wire to M. H. Thomas & Co.) FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 24.—Our New York correspondent wired us today as follows: "The cotton market was again narrow and professional, an early advance of 4 to 11 points having been influenced by the favorable cables and unexpected strength in the Liverpool market, which is a less nervous feeling regarding the Russian situation. The improvement was entirely on short covering and there was nothing in the trading to suggest any new buying in the market. With the short covering movement over, the market again became heavy, and under the influence of rather liberal southern selling, prices for the near months declined 9 to 12 points in the high level, with no particular firmness at the decline. Nothing new has developed in the cotton situation, although the elimination of apprehension regarding the Russian situation is somewhat favorable. Little attention was paid to the cotton growers' convention today, as nothing of importance is likely to be done so early in the session. The important factor in the extent of the decrease in acreage for next year's crop, which may be agreed upon, but the trading element as a whole is disposed to await the appearance of the census report showing the amount of cotton planted to Jan. 15. It has been understood that this report would be issued Thursday, but it now appears that no exact time has been fixed for giving it out and it is not likely to be published before Saturday. This will continue uncertain somewhat, but it is probable that it will be published on Saturday. The showing this report will make. Notwithstanding all the talk of weaker southern markets, there does not appear to be any selling of importance in the south and spot holders continue to maintain a firm position and no change from this is expected until after the cotton growers' convention has taken action on the proposition to reduce acreage and the plan to assist holders in carrying surplus stocks over into next year. For receipts are somewhat larger today, but these represent cotton sold earlier in the month. We do not see anything in the situation to change our position on the market. It is a narrow, professional one, in which scalping opportunities are about all that is offered, but not the kind of predictions of lower prices, we do not favor the selling side of the market around the present level and would favor purchases on any declines of 10 to 18 points."

GOVERNOR WANTS MORE MONEY FOR SCHOOLS

New Executive of Tennessee Inaugurated at Nashville with Brilliant Ceremony. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 24.—Governor James B. Frazier this morning was inaugurated as chief executive of Tennessee to serve his second term of two years. The inauguration ceremonies were on a more elaborate scale than any held in recent years and an immense throng of people attended. The governor in his inaugural address very strongly recommended many improvements, among them that the already large appropriation for schools be more than tripled. The supreme court and all state officers attended in a body. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice Beard.

NO FREAK LEGISLATION

The members who went to the Texas legislature with freak bills in their pockets did not lose any time in pointing them upon the defenseless public. The freak bills introduced during the first week of the session are numerous and nonsensical enough to have emanated from Kansas.

It seems impossible to get a legislature together without having among its membership some men of that narrow mental caliber and limited view who are responsible for all manner of freak bills. These bills must be disposed of in some way and the disposition takes time, whether they are passed or defeated. Meanwhile important legislation is delayed.

Texas needs very few new laws and it needs none of the freak order. Above all else it needs no laws that cannot be enforced. The statute books are overloaded with that class of laws already.

One may count on the fingers of one hand the laws that are really needed in Texas. They are:

A law making effective the constitutional amendments.

A revenue law that will result in equal taxation of all classes of property, tangible and intangible.

A law against free passes.

A law requiring the state and counties to deposit their funds in banks that pay the highest rate of interest therefor.

All the brains in the legislature are needed for the enactment of these few laws, and none should be wasted on unnecessary or freak legislation.—San Antonio Gazette.

Some of these freak bills have already been introduced in the state legislature, and as the Gazette truly says, they are of a character that would do credit to the most freakish legislature that ever assembled in the state of Kansas. The bill which proposes to restrict the negro school fund of the state is a fair sample of these freak measures, and there are plenty more that are just as freakish. It is a very rare thing for one of these freak bills to be introduced by a well seasoned member who has had the benefit of previous experience in law making. It is the man fresh from the people, who is thoroughly imbued with the idea that the salvation of the universe depends on his efforts, who would cumber the statute books of Texas with legislation that would bring the state as a whole into disrepute. They introduce these measures with the idea that they are eminently proper and press them with a pertinacity worthy of a better cause. In the end when they are knocked completely out of the ring they wonder why it is that they are unable to impress their views on the organic laws of the state. Matters of moment are delayed by the consideration of such measures, and there is not one of them introduced that does not cost the state of Texas a good round sum of money. Some method should be adopted that will result in diminishing the number of these attempts at undesirable legislation by discouraging the freak member from indulging in such horseplays upon legislation.

The members of the state legislature of Texas are the servants of the people. They have been elected to gather at the state capital and enact such legislation as is demanded by the exigencies of the situation. It is not contemplated that the state legislature shall resolve itself into an experiment school where measures shall be concocted, enacted and placed upon the statute books of the state to determine whether or not they will serve a wise purpose. It is known at this time that there are certain matters badly in need of legislative attention. The first of these is some method of raising additional revenue to overcome the deficit in the state treasury and enable the affairs of the state to be transacted on a cash basis. This matter also involves the question of taxation. It has been shown that there is no method of meeting this situation except through the medium of a general raise in the rate of taxation. Then, the duty of the legislature is plain in the premises. The necessary steps should be taken as soon as possible to remedy the situation. Steps should be taken to place the burdens of taxation upon a just and equitable basis, so that no interest may be compelled to bear more than its just proportion.

In addition to the other subjects enumerated by the San Antonio paper is the state democratic platform demand commanding the abolition of the practice of nepotism in the various branches of the state government. A law to fit the occasion should be promptly enacted. The land law at least needs amending to the extent that the existing methods of filing may be corrected and disgraceful and unlawful procedure in that respect entirely overcome. There are other matters of minor importance, to be considered, but there is no reason in the world why the legislature should not do its allotted work within the time prescribed by the state constitution, adjourn and go home with a clean record.

The state of Texas is in no financial condition to stand the expense of a long and labored session of wind-jamming. There are no political issues before the people requiring the manufacture of campaign thunder. There is no justification for the consideration of freak legislation of any class. The people want and expect a business session, and if the lawmakers now on duty at Austin are wise they will heed the popular demand that comes up from the people that they will get down to business and transact business as expeditiously as possible and go home with clean records and the consciousness of duty well performed.

It is a miserable story of rioting and bloodshed that comes from Russia in the press reports of the last day or two. Conditions in that unhappy country seem to be rapidly going from bad to worse, and just where and when the brakes are to be applied is not clear at this time. It is evident that the Russian people are in a great state of unrest, that the country is in a most deplorable condition and the fires of revolution are burning in a thousand different localities. Will the iron hand of the most despotic government on earth be strong enough to curb the people, or will there be such an uprising that the days of the bloody French Commune will appear insignificant in comparison? Only time can tell.

It is now whispered that the members of the Farmers' Union in Texas are bitterly opposed to the raising of the general tax rate in this state, and may send a man to Austin to lobby against the measure. The farmers of Texas should not object to bearing their just proportion in the necessary increase of the tax rate, and should bear in mind that tax dodging is not altogether a city accomplishment, as has been so broadly intimated by the executive. There is lots of agricultural land in this state assessed for taxes far below its real value.

The morning paper killed entirely too many people in the St. Petersburg rioting, and it has been a laborious undertaking to have to bring so many of them back to life. As usual, the people obtained their first real news of this terrible occurrence from the afternoon papers. The Telegram gave its readers the facts, from which wild speculation had been entirely eliminated. The moral of this is that when you see it in your favorite afternoon paper you can always realize that it is true.

Work is progressing on the new state banking law at Austin, but the objection has been raised against the Webb bill that it is too narrow. The law under which these proposed institutions are to be inaugurated should be so narrow that the people will be perfectly safe in having granted them the right of legal existence. The people of Texas want no wild-cat financial institutions organized to prey upon the public.

Representative Hepburn of Iowa has introduced in congress a bill to cover the Roosevelt idea of railway regulation and control. The measure gives the interstate commerce commission authority to fix rates and creates a court of commerce to hear appeals. This means that the big fight of the session will not be long in materializing, as the measure will have some very bitter and determined opposition.

The United States has very graciously agreed to assume a protective over San Domingo, and this means that the time is not far distant when we will have that distracted little island on our hands. If there are any more countries in need of a stable form of government they can be accommodated upon application to their obliging Uncle Sam.

A great religious wave is said to be sweeping over the city of Denver and thousands of people are making frantic haste to grasp hold of the ark of safety and lead better lives. People who confess in open court that they managed to vote as many as fifty times each in the recent election in that state, certainly have need to reach out for the gospel tow line.

The announcement is made that officers have succeeded in finding some more of the Chadwick valuables, estimated to be worth about $10,000 and it may be that these astute officials may yet be able to find the reason why Mrs. Chadwick was able to exert such a wonderful influence on Ohio financiers.

William J. Bryan paid President Roosevelt a visit the other day, and congratulated him on having adopted some democratic ideas. He received a cordial welcome, and doubtless left Washington in royal good humor. Mr. Bryan never fails to attract attention wherever he appears.

Chairman Cortelyou, who is slated for postmaster general after next March, is having trouble in getting things adjusted just as he wants them. Strong opposition has developed to his desire to have his private secretary appointed to the position of fourth assistant postmaster general.

Down at Austin the senate is having its bills printed in one form and the house in another. The result is a state of confusion that is said to be seriously hampering the progress of legislation. The brethren should consider the state of the state treasury and proceed to harmonize their differences.

Life a Burden

There are times when life seems a burden—when you are tired, worn-out, have dull pains in the head and a continual feeling of uneasiness. You have no appetite, and your digestion is poor; your sleep broken, and you get no rest. Little annoyances seem great mountains of trouble, and you are blue, melancholy and given over to gloomy forebodings. This means low vitality—exhausted brain nerves.

For this condition Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a specific; it is a food for the nerves. It builds up the nervous system, and restores lost energy. Try it to-day and see if your sleep is not sound and refreshing, and the morrow brighter and more hopeful.

"I am glad to announce that I have recovered my health, as far as my advanced age will permit, as I am 82 years old. My case was very bad; my nerves were all shattered. I suffered much pain and coldness; was so weak and felt so sad and lonely and heart-broken. When I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, and they cured me." MRS. E. C. WATERLOO, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the medicine will cure you, if it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Gleanings From the Exchanges

The house committee has reported favorably the bill that has for its purpose the prevention of cattle-roping contests. This measure is a most meritorious one and should be enacted into a law. It is a brutal sport, say what you will to the contrary, and it should be suppressed. There is many a cow injured and many a helpless animal maimed in these roping contests, and the members of the legislature owe it to themselves and the people of the state to stop this brutal sport. Prize fighting and bull fights have been suppressed in Texas, and now the cow-roping should follow suit. Many people may sneeringly say that this idea that cow-roping is brutal is merely entertained by the women and the children, but that fact should not deter the legislators from their duty. The act in question is in the interest of the dumb animals and they are certainly worthy of consideration.—Austin Statesman.

The cattlemen of Texas have demanded the abrogation of roping contests, and as they are the people most concerned their wishes should be respected. The humane side of the proposition is one that commends itself to all good citizens and the action of the state legislature in finally passing the pending bill will meet with general approval.

That man who thinks that he will win anything by wrong doing will some day find his mistake. He may make some temporary gain by beating another out of his just dues or by withholding them, but as certain as the Heavens stand he will some day lose all he thus gains with compound interest. If he is not the loser in dollars and cents, he will get his reward in afflictions or troubles of some kind. Nature even up obligations pretty well after all.—Brownwood Bulletin.

The man who wins by doing wrong will find that success is but transitory and sooner or later the house he has built upon the sands will be swept away by the advancing tide of righteousness. No man can afford to temporize with his conscience in any such manner, and no man can thus afford to ignore the laws of God and man.

The second burning of cotton which should have taken place at Brazos Saturday was postponed indefinitely, owing to so many letters being received by Ed Marshall, chairman of the burning committee, from the good women all over the state, requesting the committee not to burn any more cotton, but to give it to the various orphan homes in the state to make beds and quilts to keep the little unfortunate ones from suffering from cold. This or some similar use is much better than destroying the stuff.—Clarendon Chronicle.

The donation of cotton to charitable purposes is much more sensible than to destroy it by fire. There are lots of places where it can be used to a better advantage than to send it up in smoke.

A PROMINENT Lawyer Praises Vinol

Druggist R. A. Anderson states he is continually receiving such letters as the following in regard to his famous cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. Mr. John Kinney of 812 West 28th St., Indianapolis, Ind., one of the most noted lawyers of the state of Indiana, writes: "The Grippe left me in a nervous weakened, run down condition. I took Vinol with the very best results. It made me feel like a different man, and I am now better and stronger than I have been for years."

Said Mr. Anderson: "There is nothing equals Vinol to restore strength after sickness, to build up the aged, run down, weak or debilitated, to cure stomach troubles or chronic coughs or bronchitis. What Vinol did for Mr. Kinney I can guarantee it will do for others or I will return the money paid me for it every time."

"Remember, Vinol is not a patent medicine; everything in it is printed on the bottle. It contains in a concentrated form all of the curative, strength creating properties contained in cod liver oil, without a drop of oil. No one will dispute the fact that Cod Liver Oil is the greatest and simplest tonic known to medicine, the question is which is the best Cod Liver oil preparation—we claim and prove that Vinol is. It is delicious, and the weakest stomach can retain it. Try Vinol on our guarantee." R. A. Anderson, Druggist.

and the Palo Pinto county producers are to be congratulated on having arrived at the conclusion that they will suspend burning operations.

Colonel John L. Peeler believes in free passes and Colonel Onion of San Antonio has introduced a bill which provides that the railroads shall furnish legislators free transportation. Colonel Farley, who isn't a lawmaker, is of the opinion that the anti-free pass bill should become a law without delay. There are minnow-hunters who are not connected with the police department—lawmakers who wrangle over trifles and stumble over mountains.—Dallas Times-Herald.

Yes, there are lawmakers who can become so inflated with the idea of their own importance that they lose sight of their obligations to the people. Both of the gentlemen referred to know that their course is contrary to the last platform adopted by the Texas democracy.

Mr. Cortelyou has been in seclusion until Senator Stone smoked him out and put him, the trusts and the republican campaign fund again before the people. This demonstrates that although Judge Parker went down in overwhelming defeat that he left a condemnation on Mr. Cortelyou, the president and the party at whose hands victory was won that will last through time, for it was the Esopus sage who first pointed out how close the former private secretary was to the trusts and how easy it was for him to wring from them funds to keep up the victorious march to the White House.—Corsicana Sun.

The sage of Esopus did make such a charge against the president and his campaign manager in the closing days of the fight, but there were no specific allegations as to the trusts and amounts contributed. The same allegation could have been laid at the doors of democracy in a general way, without attracting any more attention than was the case in the Parker charges. The people of these United States are growing weary of the general method of howling, and want the howler to hereafter be able to point out with exactness the very thing he is howling over.

It takes a wise man to successfully give advice. He first finds out what kind of advice is wanted then proceeds to give it to fit the desire of his subject.—Denton Record and Chronicle.

And it takes a wise man to know when to accept advice when it is so freely offered. The man whose horse has a bad case of colic is a typical illustration of this fact. Every man within a radius of five miles has a dead-shot remedy and never fails to offer it. So it is in other matters. We are all prone to give advice, but slow to accept it unless it just exactly suits our purpose.

Pneumonia on the Increase

The increase in the Deaths Resultant from Pneumonia is Most Alarming, and Physicians Everywhere are Recommending Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a Reliable Cure and Sure Preventive

Scientists and physicians have been appalled at the rapid increase in the death rate from acute respiratory diseases, especially in the large cities.

In New York alone during the first six months of this year one-third the total number of deaths were charged to acute respiratory diseases and pulmonary tuberculosis.

Such astounding reports, not only from New York, but from other cities, large and small, as well, showing a steady yearly increase in the prevalence and fatality of pneumonia, have forced the disease to the front as one demanding an immediate and sure preventive, which is found in Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Pneumonia attacks the system quickly and relentlessly. It is especially dangerous at this season of the year when exposure to sudden and severe changes of weather and atmospheric conditions is frequent. It is sure to attack the system run down from worry, overwork or exposure.

For more than fifty years Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been recognized as a sure cure and preventative of pneumonia and all diseases of the respiratory organs. Physicians who stolidly conform to the ethics of the profession publicly recommend it and are prescribing it for their patients. It is in use in leading hospitals throughout the country.

The secret of the marvellous success of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey in curing and preventing lung troubles lies in the fact that it's the greatest strengthener and health builder known to medicine. It not only checks the ravages of the disease itself, but replaces the weakened, destroyed tissues, helps the stomach to more perfectly digest and assimilate food in order that more, richer and purer blood may come from it, and regulates and governs the heart's action, so that the circulation will be strong and powerful, carrying health and vigor to every organ and part of the human body.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is absolutely pure and free from fusel oil, and is the only whiskey recognized by the government as a medicine.

PARSONAGE PURCHASED

Residence For Pastor Purchased By Broadway Presbyterian Congregation—The Morning Service

It was announced at the Broadway Presbyterian church Sunday that the residence of the pastor, Dr. Junius B. French, had been purchased by the church and would hereafter be the official church manse or parsonage. The residence is located at 495 Henderson street and was formerly the property of Dr. French. The pastor will of course continue to make his home there.

At the service the annual report of the board of deacons was read. B. A. Cowan was installed an elder and George B. Johnson as deacon.

Business Worry Following Run on Bank Said to Be Responsible for His Act

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 24.—Charles H. Houseman, cashier of the East Side Savings bank, killed himself yesterday. He was 40 years old and leaves a widow and three children. His act is said to be due to business worry. A run was begun on the bank and the street was lined with men, women and children, demanding their money. Directors of the bank say it is solvent and they will pay all depositors.

EXT OF GENERAL LAND BILL NOW PENDING IN THE SENATE

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 24.—The following is the general land bill which has been introduced in the senate by Messrs. Hill and Brachfield:

Section 1. All surveyed free school and asylum lands shall hereafter be sold in the following manner: Between the 1st and 15th days of January, April, July and October each year after this act takes effect the commissioner of the general land office shall make out duplicate lists of all such lands that are subject to sale, giving description thereof and classification and appraisal of each tract.

Lands classed as grazing shall not be sold for less than one dollar per acre, and land classed as agriculture shall not be sold for less than two dollars per acre.

All such lists shall be immediately sent to the county clerk of the counties in which such lands are situated, or, if such land is situated in unorganized counties, then to the clerk of the county to which such unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes.

The county clerk shall at once post one of said lists on the court house door and record the other in a well bound book kept for that purpose, which shall be open for public inspection.

All lands upon which the lease will expire by the first Tuesday in January, April, July and October after said list is made, shall be included in said lists, and no lands now or hereafter leased and which lease is exterminated by expiration or otherwise shall be sold until they have been listed with the county clerk for the length of time and manner herein provided.

The lands listed as provided shall thereafter be subject to sale on the first Tuesday in January, April, July and October, after said listing, to actual settlers only, and in quantities not to exceed four sections of six hundred and forty acres each, or its equivalent to each applicant.

Sec. 2. Any person desiring to purchase any of said lands shall make a separate application for each tract applied for, addressed to the commissioner of the general land office, describing the lands sought to be purchased. Each application shall be accompanied with the affidavit of the applicant that he desires to purchase the land for a home, and that he is not acting in collusion with others for the purpose of buying the land for any other person or corporation and that no other person or corporation has or shall directly or indirectly in the purchase thereof. He shall accompany said application with his obligation to the state only executed, binding himself to pay the state on the first day of November of each year thereafter, to actual settlers only, the aggregate price of said land, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum for the whole unpaid purchase money; said interest shall also be payable on the first day of November of each year. Said application, oath and obligation shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the land applied for is situated, or to the county to which said county is attached for judicial purposes; or, where any tract of land is situated in two or more counties, the commissioner of the general land office shall designate in the list sent the respective counties in which the said land is partly situated, the county in which application shall be filed for the purchase thereof.

The county clerk shall not file any application to purchase until the applicant shall have deposited with him one-fourth of the valuation fixed in said list. Upon receipt of said application, obligation and his first payment, and his fee as hereafter provided, the county clerk shall indorse officially on the application the date of the filing and record the same in a well bound book, which shall be kept for that purpose, and whenever two or more applications for the same tract of land are filed with the clerk on the same day, the county clerk shall record the same, but not forward either of said applications to the commissioner of the general land office, nor the money accompanying the same to the state treasurer, until it shall be determined in the manner hereafter provided as to the person to whom same shall be awarded.

In event two or more persons file application to purchase until the applicant shall have deposited with him one-fourth of the valuation fixed in said list. Upon receipt of said application, obligation and his first payment, and his fee as hereafter provided, the county clerk shall indorse officially on the application the date of the filing and record the same in a well bound book, which shall be kept for that purpose, and whenever two or more applications for the same tract of land are filed with the clerk on the same day, the county clerk shall record the same, but not forward either of said applications to the commissioner of the general land office, nor the money accompanying the same to the state treasurer, until it shall be determined in the manner hereafter provided as to the person to whom same shall be awarded.

Sec. 3. Every purchaser under this act shall in person, or by some part of the land purchased by him or on other applications for the same tract, or parts of tracts, the county clerk shall notify each of said rival applicants that other persons have made application on the same land, which said application has been applied to purchase, giving the survey number and name of original grantee as shown in said list, and said notice shall be sent by registered mail to each of said rival applicants, addressed to them at the address given in the application, and the application of each applicant, and said rival applicants shall on the third Tuesday in the month, by 10 o'clock a. m., file another application with said clerk in the first instance, to purchase the same land, which said application shall be delivered to the clerk by the applicant in person or by his duly authorized agent, which authority shall be indorsed upon said application and signed by the applicant, authorizing said agent to represent him in the matter of said application. Said application to be accompanied by the obligation of the applicant for the deferred purchase money according to the amount bid by him, together with an amount of money, which added to the amount bid by him under his application, will be equal to one-fortieth price bid by him in his second application, and the said application, obligation and money shall be sealed up in an envelope before delivering to the clerk, and indorsing upon it the name of the rival applicant and the land applied for. At 10 o'clock a. m. of the said Tuesday, the said county clerk, in the presence of the applicants or their agents, shall publicly open the application separately, calling the name of the applicant and the land applied for and the price bid, and shall record each application, as in the first instance, and the land shall be awarded by the commissioner of the general land office to the applicant bidding the highest price therefor. In the event two or more of the applicants in the second application file for the same amount, and that being the highest price bid, said land shall be taken off the market until the next regular sale day.

The application filed with the clerk shall be forwarded to the commissioner of the general land office, and the sale shall take place on the first Tuesday of the month of the sale. The applicant shall have ninety days from the date of the sale within which to actually settle upon the land so purchased, and he shall, before the expiration of the said ninety days, file in the general land office his affidavit that he has in good faith actually settled upon the land purchased by him, which affidavit shall describe the tract so settled upon as a home section, and said proof of settlement shall be corroborated by at least two disinterested persons that said person has actually settled on the said tract, which corroborating affidavit shall be by persons residing in the county or vicinity in which said land is situated, and that they personally know the facts stated in said affidavit.

For filing and recording each application and the transmitting to the commissioner of the general land office and the first payment to the state treasurer and other services in connection therewith, the clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for each application, to be paid by the applicant at the time of the filing of said application. The failure or refusal of the county clerk to perform any duties required in this act, or the opening of any bid in a second application prior to the time fixed by this act, shall be an offense, and upon conviction he shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

Should the applicant fail to make affidavit as herein provided within the time herein specified, the commissioner of the general land office shall indorse that fact upon his application and immediately place the land upon the market on the next list sent out as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the county surveyor in the county in which the land is situated, upon the tender of his lawful fee by any person desiring to purchase under this act, to survey and locate out any section or sections of land designated, and should he refuse so to do upon the request of such intending purchaser, made within a reasonable time before the day of sale, he shall be liable to a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars.

Sec. 4. Every purchaser under this act shall in person, or by some part of the land purchased by him or on other

WEATHER

FORECAST
 The forecast until 8 p. m. Thursday for Texas, east of the one hundredth meridian, issued at New Orleans, is as follows:

East Texas (north)—Tonight and Wednesday, generally fair, colder.
 East Texas (south)—Tonight and Wednesday, partly cloudy weather, colder weather.

WEATHER CONDITIONS
 D. S. Landis issued the following statement of weather conditions this morning:

Snow storms prevail in the north-east quarter of the country, extending from Michigan to the Atlantic, and southward into Missouri. Oregon has snow and rain, and snow is falling over Wyoming. Temperatures in the upper Missouri valley are low, being 24 degrees below zero along the Canadian border. The zero isobar extends to Kansas, the freezing line reaches southward to parallel 32.23 degrees at Fort Worth.

The country is generally cloudy, except in the south, where it is clear. Texas is cloudy in the south, clear in the northwest, and without precipitation since last report.

D. S. LANDIS,
 Official in Charge.

"KNOWN TO ALL MEN"
 The lie has been passed between the government and the so-called "Beef Trust," about which Collier's for Jan. 21 says:

The government is after beef. Our views on anything approaching monopoly of necessity of life have been sufficiently elucidated. We are struck at present with a coincidence of opinion on the mere question of public knowledge. President L. E. Swift of Swift & Co. made this declaration at the annual stockholders' meeting: "It is needless for me to say to those present who are more or less familiar with the facts, that the reports in circulation about the 'Beef Trust' are from Michigan to the Atlantic, and southward into Missouri. Oregon has snow and rain, and snow is falling over Wyoming. Temperatures in the upper Missouri valley are low, being 24 degrees below zero along the Canadian border. The zero isobar extends to Kansas, the freezing line reaches southward to parallel 32.23 degrees at Fort Worth."

The country is generally cloudy, except in the south, where it is clear. Texas is cloudy in the south, clear in the northwest, and without precipitation since last report.

HE MEANS SCOTT'S
 Your doctor says you must take cod liver oil. Probably he means Scott's Emulsion because you cannot take the clear oil; no one can take the clear oil who needs cod liver oil. The doctor understands that and doubtless means Scott's Emulsion of cod liver oil which everybody can take because it is emulsified and prepared so that it can be very easily digested by the most sensitive stomach. Most everybody likes it.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN
 Henry A. Smith, general agent of the National lines of Mexico, was here yesterday from San Antonio headquarters, and ventured a suggestion, that if needed, might prove valuable to the manufacturers of the United States. He said: "The American manufacturers who ship goods to Mexico can learn many points from the market of the nation for fresh meats that it does control it, and that its control is merciless and oppressive, and facts opinion between Mr. Swift and Mr. Moody seems setly salient. We hope the department of justice may be able to add some exactness to what is "known of all men." If these facts are known of all men, surely sufficient knowledge and ability are the only requisites to obtaining legal proof.

the German manufacturers. In every case where the Germans ship goods to the Republic, and other countries as well, where Spanish is spoken, they label them in Spanish. Not so with the large majority of manufacturers in the United States. They simply put on the American label. The result is that when a Spanish-speaking person comes into a store in this country, as well as in his native country, and asks the salesman for an article, he invariably gets the article of German manufacturers, because the clerk naturally does not wish to run over the store searching for American goods. In this manner the United States manufacturers lose much trade that they would otherwise have had if they placed Spanish labels on their goods. It is hard to see how American manufacturers fall into this error, especially when they are so much nearer the Republic of Mexico and have a better chance to observe the trade conditions than the manufacturers across the waters. The American manufacturer not only makes this mistake in Mexico, but he makes the same error in sending his goods to other countries where a different tongue is spoken.

"While the failure to label their wares in Spanish has lost the United States much trade with Mexico, it is not too late to remedy this error," said Mr. Smith, the people of Mexico like the wares of this country and will buy them if given a chance, and the merchants will gladly sell them if they are so put up that their employes can wait on customers intelligently," added Mr. Smith.

W. H. Weeks, general agent of the Kansas City Stock Yards Company, is in the city and will remain in the state about three weeks, hustling business for his company.

"There is little doing just now in the matter of cattle movement to markets," said Mr. Weeks, "and about the only bit of news I know is that the packing firm of Nelson Morris & Co. has completed its new plant in Kansas City at a cost of about $2,500,000, and now furnishes employment to 2,000 operatives. The plant is the most modern in this country. The company has its own freight depot with tracks of nearly all the large railroads radiating through it, and the lines that are not directly built into the plant reach it over the belt line. Because of the competition of this additional packing plant the markets of Kansas City have taken on new life, and with the transfer of the killing done by Schwarzschild & Sulzburger from Chicago to Kansas City since the recent fire which destroyed most of this plant in Chicago, added business is noticeable in the packing centers at Kansas City.

"The American Dressed Beef Company is also erecting a new plant in Kansas City and expects to have it in operation by either the first of July or August.

"We will have a large delegation of Kansas City people at the meeting of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association to be held at Fort Worth in March," said Mr. Weeks.

Speaking of the cattle conditions in the northern states, Mr. Weeks stated that there were very few cattle in the feed pens in the state of Kansas, and on this account he looks for a light business at Kansas City for the next few weeks. However, when grass-fed stuff begins to move there will be renewed activity in the markets, according to Mr. Week's opinion.

Brad Price Suffered a Peculiar Accident Saturday

Brad Price of Rosen Heights suffered a peculiar accident Saturday, a tack lodging so securely in his throat that the services of a surgeon were necessary to remove it.

Price was canvassing a room as a preliminary to papering it, holding the tacks in his mouth for convenience, when one of them slipped into his throat and became wedged there.

TO ORGANIZE NEW SCHOOL DISTRICT

Citizens Living Near Stop 6 Are Now Discussing Incorporation

The citizens at Stop No. 6 on the Ingersoll will soon call a meeting of those who live in that vicinity for the purpose of organizing an independent school district, which is to be incorporated. The idea is to issue bonds and build a school house that will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000 or $5,000.

One of the residents of that section stated today that there were about one hundred families within a radius of one and a half miles who are anxious to become an independent school district, and complain that they have to now send their children to Fort Worth to school and that the expense is too great, hence the effort to incorporate.

As soon as an organization has been effected application will be made to the secretary of state for a charter under which they shall be permitted to issue bonds for school purposes.

The meeting will probably be called for next week, at which time the initiative in the matter will be taken.

The Glory of Maternity.

Nature, if left alone, will cure for itself, this might have been true at some pre-historic time, but since for ages it has not been left alone, but has been bound down and fettered by the observance and mandates of society, it can no longer care for itself.

At no time does the truth of this appeal to us more strongly than at that period of a woman's life when she is about to become a mother.

Nature must be assisted at this crisis, and the very contingency has been devised that the muscles and tissues imprisoned and weakened as they have been by the dress of our higher civilization, may fulfill without undue suffering and possible lasting harm, the functions for which the Creator intended them.

Mother's Friend by its kindly offices softens and relaxes these parts and enables the mother to be, to pass through the parturient period and actual trials with practically no suffering to herself and an easy delivery of her offspring.

It is applied externally as a massage, and is a non-irritating, soothing, and most efficacious liniment. $1.00. All druggists. Our book "Motherhood" sent free on request.

KATY PRESIDENT

OLD PARTY HERE
F. M. Finney Completes Tour of Inspection of Texas Lines of Company

President F. M. Finney of the Katy, R. J. Sullivan, division superintendent; A. D. Eithard, superintendent of car service, and W. W. Miller, trainmaster, passed through Fort Worth this morning from a tour of inspection through Texas, en route to St. Louis. But a short stop was made here.

President Finney expressed himself as well pleased with the conditions found during the tour of the state. The Austin extension, he declared, was receiving flattering patronage. Further extensions in the state at this time he declared were not contemplated.

From this city he announced the party will go direct to St. Louis without stop, the objects of the trip, the inspection, having been attained.

The tide of travel the coming summer will be toward the west, with Colorado as the center, because it is there that all the big 1906 conventions are to be held. If you have never taken a trip through the Rocky Mountains, make your plans to do so while the low rates for convention visitors are in force. C. H. SPERS, General Passenger Agent, Colorado Midland R. Y., Denver, will tell you all about Rocky Mountain trips and Denver as a convention city, if you drop him a postal.

ANTI-SCALPING ACT HELD VOID

The supreme court of Texas at Austin, in the case of the Texas and Pacific Railway Company vs. MaHaffey, on Monday, Jan. 23, rendered an opinion, holding that certain parts of what is known as the "anti-scalping law" are unconstitutional and void.

As explained by a member of the Fort Worth bar, who is keeping up with the history of this legislation, the facts are as follows: In 1893 the legislature of Texas passed what is known as the "anti-scalping law." The provisions of this act are substantially as follows:

First—It made unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale any railroad ticket except such persons as might hold a certificate of authority from the railroad company. This, of course, was intended to prohibit any one but railroad agents from selling or offering to sell tickets.

Second—It was provided that any person who should sell or offer to sell a railroad ticket without such authority was guilty of penal offense and subject to indictment.

Third—It was further provided that this penal offense should not be effective unless the railroad company should stamp upon the ticket the fact that it was a penal offense to sell or offer to sell such ticket.

As will be observed, the object of this legislation was to abolish the ticket brokers and prohibit the sale of tickets by any one except railroad agents. It was urged that this act might operate as an injury to persons who had bought tickets and for some reason were unable to use them; and, therefore, in order to protect the bona fide ticket purchaser, a further provision was put in that all railroad companies should redeem at par value any unused railroad ticket which it had sold, and another provision was added providing a penalty of not exceeding $500 in case the railroad company should refuse to redeem said ticket when presented by the holder thereof.

The ticket brokers made a vigorous fight against the enforcement of this law and a test case was made at San Antonio, when Janning, a ticket broker, was convicted of selling a railroad ticket. The case went to the court of appeals, and an attack against the validity of this law was made upon two grounds. First, that a ticket was property, and, therefore, the legislature had no right to prohibit the sale of same by or to any person; and, second, the penal offense was invalid and unconstitutional. The case was vigorously fought in the court of criminal appeals, and in 1899 this court rendered an opinion in which it held that the legislature had a right to make it a penal offense for any person other than the agent of a railroad company to sell tickets; but held that part of the penal offense invalid, for the reason that it was only a penal offense to sell or offer to sell such ticket when the railroad company should stamp such provisions on its face. Or, in other words, the act left it for the railroad company to determine whether or not it should be a criminal offense.

This decision proved a great advantage to the ticket broker, the person at whom the law was aimed, for, under this decision, the ticket broker was at liberty

$500 Reward For Women Who Cannot Be Cured.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform success in the cure of such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal cash to any woman who can see and be cured of any of the following ailments: Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elmer D. Shearer, of Mount Hope, Lancaster Co., Pa. "I can see and be cured of that dreaded disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Everybody who knows me is surprised to see me so well. In June I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. To-day I am cured. I tell everybody that Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me."

to sell tickets, and left undetermined the other provision of the law as to whether or not the railroad company was under obligations to redeem such tickets. The ticket broker has profited very much by this decision, for the reason that since then it has been very customary to buy up railroad tickets at greatly reduced values and then turn them into the railroad company and demand redemption at their par value; and a great many of the railroads, rather than risk the chances of litigation, have been in the habit of redeeming such tickets, even from ticket brokers.

In the MaHaffey case, however, a ticket was presented for redemption, and the railroad company refused to redeem same, suit was brought for the ticket and a $500 penalty. The railroad company defended upon the grounds that the court of criminal appeals made the main part of the law unconstitutional and void, and it followed that the part which prescribed a penalty against the railway company was likewise void. The decision rendered by the supreme court in this case upheld this contention and set the law aside entirely. This leaves the law as it existed before the act of 1893. The decision, however, has established the main point of contention, and that is the fact that the legislature has the power to prohibit the sale of tickets by any person save a railroad agent, and it is understood that a bill is now before the legislature under the lines laid down by the higher courts, leaving out the objectionable parts, which, if passed, will prohibit the sale of tickets by any person except the agent, and also ticket brokers, for the redemption of unused tickets sold by its agent.

The passage of such a law, it is said, will be of great benefit to all of the larger cities, and especially Fort Worth. Heretofore the railroad companies have been very slow to grant cheap excursion rates to Fort Worth, for the reason that ticket side parties could thus obtain the benefit of this excursion rate and come to Fort Worth at a very reduced rate without any intention of ever returning, and sell the ticket part to a ticket broker, who would force the railroad to redeem at par value, thus operating at a great loss to the railway company.

SENSATIONAL RUMORS RIFE

Report That Russian Riots Indicate Revolution Denied by Ambassador in Washington

Whether the riots and demonstrations which have been in progress in leading cities of Russia since last week, can be taken as revolutionary in purpose, or merely as individual disturbances, seems still a matter for doubt.

Contradicting the sensational dispatches to the effect that revolution has actually begun in Russia and the statement of Maxim Gorky, the Russian novelist, to the effect that Sunday's bloodshed in St. Petersburg marked the beginning of revolution, the following facts seem significant:

The Associated Press, which is in perhaps closer touch with Russian affairs than any other news agency of the world, has so far failed to refer to the disturbances as other than strikers' riots, save in quoting individual opinions.

The Russian government has so far failed to recognize the existence of any revolutionary movement and apparently the old steps taken are those which would apparently be taken merely for the protection of government property from ordinary rioters.

Several independent political leaders of Russia have been mentioned in connection with the movement. Semi-official charges have been made that political motives inspired the men back of the demonstrations, however, and that the strikers were being used merely as tools.

Father Gopon, who has thus far appeared as the real leader of the movement, has been a hitherto obscure priest. All of his messages addressed to the czar have been petitionary—none threatening.

THREATENED STRIKE FINALLY ADJUSTED

Conference Between Representatives of Pennsylvania and Trainmen's Brotherhood Results Satisfactorily

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 23.—After a conference of less than an hour's duration today between General Manager Atterbury of the Pennsylvania railroad and Grand Master Morrissey, Vice Grand Master Lee and the board of adjustment of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Mr. Morrissey announced the differences between the company and the men have been amicably settled. The following joint statement was issued by Mr. Atterbury and Mr. Morrissey:

"Mr. Atterbury has accepted Mr. Morrissey's proposition on the Jersey City situation, increasing the wages of the conductors and brakemen in Jersey City, Harsimus Cove, Greenville, Meadows, Newark and Waverly Yards to the standard rates of New York harbor, together with other working conditions. Mr. Morrissey has accepted Mr. Atterbury's proposition of Jan. 7 stipulating the results of conferences of the last few days in regard to brakemen assisting firemen, both going into effect Jan. 1, 1905.

"Mr. Atterbury will in addition take and put into effect within reasonable time such other measures of relief not only to the brakemen, but also to firemen as have been discussed and offered by Mr. Atterbury and suggested by the committee."

EARLY SETTLER DEAD

TEMPLE, Texas, Jan. 25.—The death of Mrs. L. R. Taylor occurred here today at the family residence, north of town, after an illness of several weeks' duration. She was the wife of Lee R. They were among the earliest settlers in the eastern section of Bell county, and their farm is now a main portion of the north part of the city. The funeral services will take place tomorrow, interment at city cemetery.

Mulkey Memorial Church Orders New Building

Mulkey Memorial Congregation May Divide Within Course of Few Years

At the quarterly conference held at the Mulkey Memorial church Monday night it was decided to rebuild the present church, the cost to be not more than $20,000, and to purchase lots in the Eighth ward upon which in the near future to build another church to cost a similar amount. The total expenditure will be between $50,000 and $60,000.

The rapid growth of the congregation makes it likely that it will be divided upon the completion of the new structure.

The committee to take charge of rebuilding the present church is George Mulkey, W. H. Lusher, R. C. Armstrong, W. E. Williams and J. P. Graves. Another committee, to be known as the "Eight Ward Church," was appointed as follows: Judge J. C. Smith, George W. Armstrong and J. A. Fielder.

The conference elected the following delegates to the district conference, which will meet at Polytechnic College, April 6, 7 and 8: M. L. Wood, Joe T. Burgher, W. E. Williams, H. W. Lusher and Judge J. C. Smith. Ben H. Kennedy, Louis T. Pierce and Homer T. Mulkey were recommended to the district conference for delegates to preside.

The conference also invited the board of missions of the Northwest Texas conference to meet in the church at their semi-annual meeting to be held next May.

DIRECT ELECTION URGED BY JUDGE

Proposed Charter Amendments Discussed at Meeting of Council Committee

"Some weeks ago I advanced the city a sum of money for the construction of a sewer. I was to receive the money back in water rent. Since that time, and it has been months ago, I have never been able to get a statement of my water bill," declared Judge M. B. Harris at the charter amendment meeting this morning, while endorsing the amendment that the heads of all departments be elected by the people.

Judge Harris spoke at some length in the interests of the amendments adopted at the mass meeting which was held at the city hall under the auspices of the Board of Trade. He especially emphasized the necessity of the election of all officers by the city at large, though he also spoke regarding taxing franchises, the provision for parks, street car franchises, in regard to regulating the number of tracks on one thoroughfare, improvement districts and the referendum vote.

Mayor Powell responded to Judge Harris, declaring that he could see the books at any time and that he would see to the removal of any man refusing to let him do so.

The meeting adjourned without anything definite having been decided. The amendments drawn up by City Attorney Orrick were not discussed as almost the entire session was consumed by Judge Harris.

Mayor Powell made a short talk, dwelling on the need of both optional and imperative referendum, stating that in his opinion it was the most important matter in regard to the proposed changes in the charter.

The meeting adjourned with the library trustees, answered that an amendment raising the city tax 3 cents on the hundred dollars be considered, this increase in taxes to be devoted to the library. The increase would raise the tax from $1.75 to $1.78 and would make an increase of about $2,000 for the library fund.

Besides the charter amendment committee, comprising Aldermen Warf, News and Waggoman and Mayor Powell, there were a number of citizens present. L. M. Whitsitt, Judge M. B. Harris, Dr. J. L. Cooper and others appeared in the interests of the Civic League and endorsing the amendments as adopted at the Board of Trade meeting at the city hall.

Chairman Ward announced in conclusion that the committee would consider all the amendments submitted and would make a report later to the city council. No amendment regarding the collection of forfeited bonds in the corporation court was submitted.

will apply itself in a business like way to the achievement of the same and practical results limited in all probability to acreage reduction and provision for holding the surplus of this year's crop. A number of delegates are urging former Congressman Catchings of Mississippi for permanent chairman and the indications today were that his name might be presented on the floor of the convention in opposition to that of Harvie Jordan.

There apparently has been some apprehension the convention would take radical steps along the line of destruction of cotton. No such intention is evident among the leaders or the rank and file of the delegates who already are here.

"Of course there will be no suggestion of burning cotton," said Judge Eugene Williams of Waco, Texas. "Reports that planters are engaged in burning cotton have been very much magnified."

"We have been able to learn of only three bales burned, one at Ft. Gaines, Ga., and two in Texas, and that simply illustrates the deep interest of the people in the problem. I think the convention will be practical in its work."

POLL TAX PAYMENTS

Slight Improvement Noted at Offices This Morning

The assistants in County Collector Walker's office are kept busy these days writing poll tax certificates and exemptions. Up to Monday night there had been 4,800 paid, and by tonight the total is expected to exceed 5,000, about half the total poles paid last year.

The collector's office is being kept open at night to accommodate those who are unable to leave their places of business during the day.

At the office of City Collector Glavin a slight improvement in conditions was noted this morning, the payments being more numerous than for some time before. The disqualification of a large number of voters, however, is feared.
